WTVN
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WTVN provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Alzheimer's Disease assessments: Melissa Morgan of The Alzheimer's Disease Research Foundation talked about memory loss and how regular assessments can let you know what's normal. She discussed methods that can delay the progression, maintain quality of life and reduce institutionalization. We posted the details on the Clear Channel Communities Web page.
- Columbus, OH 200th birthday: Officials from the Columbus Neighborhood Development Association talk about events leading up to Columbus, Ohio's 200th birthday celebrations.
- Diabetes management: Charles Farmer, Community Director for the Central Ohio Diabetes Association, discussed nongenetic diabetes, which he said is a rare condition resulting from changes in a simple gene that appears in several forms. He said it usually first occurs in children. He offered information on diabetes management and we posted it on the Clear Channel Communities Web page. Farmer is a member of the Clear Channel Media + Entertainment Local Advisory Board (LAB).
- Heart health: Brianna Harman of the American Heart Association of Central Ohio talked about how community citizens are aware of what to do to help their hearts, but many don't do it. She said despite the number of people who disregard steps to heart health, the American Heart Association effort will continue to create awareness. Harman is a member of the Clear Channel Media + Entertainment Local Advisory Board (LAB).

- Home care: Staff from Ohio Homecare talk about how their service allows people to live safely and independently at home. They discussed how they set up and maintain wheelchairs, oxygen, hospital beds and other supplies needed at home.
- Premature birth awareness: Jennifer Wilson, Community Director for the Central Ohio March of Dimes, talked about the importance of giving your baby 39 weeks to grow before it is born on this special broadcast. She said that if your pregnancy is healthy, wait for labor to begin on its own. She also discussed the agency's new public-service campaign titled "Don't Rush Your Baby's Birth Day" and the upcoming "March for Babies" walk on April 29. We posted information on the Clear Channel Communities Web page and played the new public-service announcement during the show.
- Sports-related charity event: Paul Huttlin, CEO of Recreation Unlimited, discussed the Celebrity Sports Gala fundraising event. He said it will help to fund building renovation to better serve physically and developmentally challenged individuals in the community. WVM was the media sponsor for this event. Huttlin is a member of the Clear Channel Media + Entertainment Local Advisory Board (LAE).
- Summer feeding program: Charlie Kozlesky, Senior Vice President of Child Nutrition for Children's Hunger Alliance and Erin Bagley, consultant with the Ohio Department of Education, discuss the 2012 Ohio Summer Food Service Program, a summer feeding program for children while school is out.
- Texting and driving: Ohio Department of Public Safety officials discuss drivers who talk and text while driving. They said the National Safety Council estimates that 28 percent of crashes are associated with talking and texting on a cell phone while driving. They discussed spring and summer awareness campaigns to help stop this dangerous practice.
