WTVN
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WTVN provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Car care: Members from the Car Care Council discussed how important it is to invest an hour or two to have your vehicle checked to stay safe on the road and avoid the hassle of a breakdown and cost of unexpected repairs.
- Care for caregivers: Officials from the Central Ohio Area Agency On Aging talked about how many people take the role of caregiver, yet they don't always do all they need to do to care for themselves.
- Care for the aging: Officials from the Ohio Department of Health and Human Services talked about how many of the nation's 72 million baby boomers have reached their 60s, and how they can help families provide care for older adults and others with chronic health problems.
- Children's Miracle Network Hospital Week: This special edition kicked off the Children's Miracle Network's Hospital Week in support of over 171 local hospitals across the country and highlighted personal patient and family stories related to local hospital treatment. Produced by the iHeartRadio Community Engagement Team.
- Crime: Ministers from area churches discussed the record-breaking number of homicides in 2017 and how it is trending to be the same or worse in 2018, with 10 homicides so far as of the recording date of this program. They talked how a collaboration of churches in the community can affect change.
- Eye health: Charles Farmer, Communications Director for the Central Ohio Diabetes Association, discussed research that will make for better treatments of diabetic retinopathy, the most common cause of vision loss in those of working age.
- Local economy/business: Members of the organization Shop Small Columbus talked about how shopping locally makes a big difference in improving the economic health of the community.
- Lung health: David Wood of the American Lung Association discussed improved treatments for asthma.

- Ohio auto insurance news: Diane Miller of the Ohio Auto Insurance Council discussed how one in five drivers aren't taking advantage of all the car insurance discounts available to them. She offered tips on how to ask for an insurance policy review.
- Runaway teen prevention: Officials from the National Runaway Safeline talked about how to help parents, teachers and adults understand how runaways are exposed to drugs and human trafficking, and how to prevent teens from running away from home.
- Saving energy: With this being the coldest winter in Central Ohio in over three years, Ohio Home Weatherization and Energy officials discussed saving money on home heating, such as using programmable thermostats and safely using portable heaters.
- Women and retirement: Carol Jones of the Ohio Retirement Association talked about ways to improve the retirement picture for women. She said only 6 percent of women workers agree that they could work until age 65 and still not save enough.
