

QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT
October 1, 2012 – December 31, 2012

STATIONS:

WMEU-LP (48.0), WMEU-CD (48.1) AND 26.4

Monday – Friday

First Business (Financial News)

5a- 5:30AM

First Business is an idea source. Ideas about money - not just equities, but any investment moving the market including futures, options and geo-political news. First Business airs in most US television markets and internationally before the market opens. It is a fast-moving, idea-packed half-hour that looks ahead at the coming day's trading. We don't waste time recapping the past. You trade. You know what happened.

Sunday

NOW.Chicago

6:30am 7:00am

This a public affairs television program designed to address, discuss and disseminate information about various concerns and issues that are relevant to Chicago and its communities with a distinct focus on highlighting the unique history and character of Chicago's historic neighborhoods as described below.

10/6/12 NOWC1213 – Cicero Repeat Original Air Date: June 2, 2012

A community with a history that has long been associated with notorious characters such as Al Capone and Ernest Hemingway, Cicero is as uniquely "Chicago" as it is independent. Find out what the town is doing for its residents and businesses. Also, hear from an organization helping individuals with disabilities. Our Guests: Ray Hanania, Town Spokesperson and John Voit, President & CEO of Seguin Services.

10/13/12 NOWC1224 – Bridgeport

In this week's episode, we revisit Bridgeport and meet with Maureen Sullivan from Friends of South Halsted. She tells us about her new book and about neighborhood advocacy and revitalization through the Bridgeport Alliance. We also get a chance to talk to Mark Lennon who tells us about the changes and future plans going on at the Benton House.

10/20/12 NOWC1225 – City Halloween Events

From eerie Edgar Allan Poe readings to slimy science projects and pumpkin patches, this week's episode covers everything Halloween in the city of Chicago. We meet with three organizations that are making sure Chicago residents have a spooktacular time! Our guests: Bill Tyre, Executive Director, Glessner House; Meredith Black, Manager of Specialized Service, Museum of Science & Industry; and Art Richardson, Central Region Manager, Chicago Park District

CONTINUE....Now.Chicago

10/27/12 NOWC1225 – City Halloween Events – Repeat Original Air Date: Oct 20, 2012

From eerie Edgar Allan Poe readings to slimy science projects and pumpkin patches, this week's episode covers everything Halloween in the city of Chicago. We meet with three organizations that are making sure Chicago residents have a spooktacular time! Our guests: Bill Tyre, Executive Director, Glessner House; Meredith Black, Manager of Specialized Service, Museum of Science & Industry; and Art Richardson, Central Region Manager, Chicago Park District

11/3/12 NOWC1224 – Bridgeport – REPEAT Original Air Date: October 13, 2012

In this week's episode, we revisit Bridgeport and meet with Maureen Sullivan from Friends of South Halsted. She tells us about her new book and about neighborhood advocacy and revitalization through the Bridgeport Alliance. We also get a chance to talk to Mark Lennon who tells us about the changes and future plans going on at the Benton House.

11/10/12 NOWC1226 – City Parks

This week Julia Bachrach, Chicago Park District Historian, is with us to discuss her new book, The City in a Garden, A History of Chicago's Parks. Learn the history of the South and West Park systems, the story behind the World's Fair and also hear about upcoming park movements.

11/17/12 NOWC1222 –City War Monuments-Repeat ORIGINAL AIR DATE- SEPT 15, 2012

In this episode we take an in-depth look at Chicago history from the perspective of monuments and statues that memorialize great battles, wars and other conflagrations of historical significance. Featured are the monuments erected in honor of the Fort Dearborn massacre, The Haymarket riot and the Polish Blue Army memorial. Our guests – Sherry Meyer, Fort Dearborn Bicentennial Initiative; Dan Pogorzelski, Forgotten Chicago; and Tim Samuelsen, City Of Chicago Cultural Historian.

11/24/12 NOWC1226 – City Parks-RepeatOriginal Air Date: November 10, 2012

This week Julia Bachrach, Chicago Park District Historian, is with us to discuss her new book, The City in a Garden, A History of Chicago's Parks. Learn the history of the South and West Park systems, the story behind the World's Fair and also hear about upcoming park movements.

12/1/12 NOWC1219 – City Museums Continued-Repeat Original Air Date: AUGUST 11, 2012

After nearly 25 years of hard work and sacrifice, the dream of a museum dedicated to preserving the dynamic history of broadcasting in America has found its home right here in Chicago. In this episode we have an in-depth conversation with the founder of the Museum of Broadcast Communications and National Radio Hall of Fame. Our guest: Bruce Dumont, Founder.

12/08/12 NOWC1213 – Cicero-Repeat Original Air Date: June 2, 2012

A community with a history that has long been associated with notorious characters such as Al Capone and Ernest Hemingway, Cicero is as uniquely "Chicago" as it is independent. Find out what the town is doing for its residents and businesses. Also, hear from an organization helping individuals with disabilities. Our Guests: Ray Hanania, Town Spokesperson and John Voit, President & CEO of Seguin Services.

CONTINUE....Now.Chicago

12/15/12 NOWC1227 – City Holiday Events

This week's episode is going to get you ready for the holiday season in Chicago. Shoshanna Currier, Director of Performing Arts for the Department of Cultural Affairs and Special Events tells us what the City has in store, including events at the Chicago Cultural Center and Millennium Park. Also, Gary Garland, Executive Director of the Lakeview Pantry, tells us about what's going on at the Pantry and about their Celebrate Hope Campaign. And finally, Tom Tuohy, President and Founder of Dreams for Kids talks about their Holiday for Hope Campaign.

12/22/12 NOWC1228 – Best Of Now.Chi

Over the past year we have had the opportunity to get more familiar with our city, one neighborhood at a time. Each week we met with individuals that truly define what being a Chicagoan is really all about. The work they do and the contributions they make are essential to making Chicago such a unique, dynamic city. For the final episode of this year, we will look back at a few memorable moments.

12/29/12 NOWC1228 – Best Of Now.Chi-Repeat Original Air Date: December 22, 2012

Over the past year we have had the opportunity to get more familiar with our city, one neighborhood at a time. Each week we met with individuals that truly define what being a Chicagoan is really all about. The work they do and the contributions they make are essential to making Chicago such a unique, dynamic city. For the final episode of this year, we will look back at a few memorable moments.