

Quarterly Report of Compliancy Issues & Programs List

2021-Q4 (September-December) Inland Impact – iHeartRadio Spokane - Hosted by Morgan Marie Marum

- Adulthood
- Architecture
- Art
- Astronomy
- Behavioral treatment
- Business
- Career & workplace issues
- Child development
- Civil War
- Climate change/climate science
- Communication
- Community
- Conflict resolution
- Constitutional law
- Consumerism
- COVID-19 Pandemic
- Crime & criminal science
- Culture
- Data
- Documentary

- Economics
- Education
- Emergency planning/response
- Energy production
- Environment
- Extraterrestrial life
- Extreme weather
- Film
- Financial planning/personal finance
- Forensic science
- Gender roles
- Global exploration
- Government
- History
- Health
- Inequality
- Infrastructure
- Innovation
- Investment
- Journalism
- Law & law enforcement
- Literature
- Mental disorder

- Mental health
- Natural disaster
- Neurology
- News
- Oil & gas industry
- Parenting
- Physics
- Planetary habitability
- Politics
- Productivity
- Psychology
- Psychotherapy
- Public safety
- Race
- Relationships

Halloween Safety, Spokane Fire Chief Brian Schaeffer

Spokane Fire Chief Brian Shaeffer joins Morgan to discuss Halloween safety. The most common mistakes, things to know and how to protect your kids this Halloween. Plus, the impact of Covid on the Fire Dept.

https://twitter.com/SpokaneFire?ref_src=twsrc%5Egoogle%7Ctwcamp%5Eserp%7Ctwgr%5Eauthor

<https://www.firehouse.com/home/contact/12234147/brian-schaeffer>

Issues covered: community safety, first responders covid, fire safety, economy, leadership

Little Free Pantries, Bob Walker Caritas Board Member

Community member Bob Walker shares all about the Little Free Pantries popping up in our community. These are designed to eliminate food insecurity and support neighborhoods. There are 20+ in spokane and growing. He shares how one can get involved, build their own or enjoy the free food.

<https://caritasoutreachministries.org/little-free-pantries/>

Issues covered: homelessness, food insecurity, shelters, community, food banks

Pet Savers Spokane, Executive Director Stephanie Napier

Executive Director of Pet Savers joins Morgan and shares about their upcoming fundraiser to move spaces to larger clinic due to needs. As a nonprofit they serve our community and offer free spay and neuter for anyone in need.

<https://www.petsaversspokane.org/>

Issues covered: spay, neuter, community, funding, fundraising, nonprofit

Project Beauty Share, Executive Director Julie Farley

Project Beauty Share is a nonprofit that provides beauty products for other nonprofits here in town to support low income women when finding work. They share how they are looking for donations of beauty products and how you can get involved.

<https://projectbeautyshare.org/>

Issues covered: poverty, low-income, homelessness, nonprofit

Spokane Lilac Festival, 2021 President Alan Hart

Spokane Lilac Festival celebrates their first ever winter parade to bring business back to downtown Spokane! Hear how this incredible nonprofit serves our community and armed forces.

<https://spokanelilacfestival.org/>

Issues covered: veteran, VA, community, small business, economy, nonprofit

MAVRC, Whitworth University

Military and Veteran Resource Center on Whitworth University's campus is brand new and will serve the Veteran community of the University. They share the updates, how they are building community and how anyone can get involved.

<https://www.whitworth.edu/cms/administration/admissions/military-and-veterans/>

Issues covered: Veterans, Resources, Community, fundraising, Veteran's Day

Kalm Learning, Founder Heather Hart

Local entrepreneur joins Morgan to share about her new item meant to help people in times of stress and overwhelm. When our stress levels become too high we become dysregulated mentally, physically and emotionally. As a mental health professional, Heather speaks to this and how we can combat it in our community.

<https://www.kalmlearning.com/>

Issues covered: mental health, small business, neuroscience of stress

Union Gospel Mission Part 1

Danny Beard

Dani has been involved in the Union Gospel Mission for decades. UGM provides care for our vulnerable male adults that have lost their way. He shares about the impact that you UGM makes and how you can help continue to make a difference.

Union Gospel Mission

Danny Beard

Dani has been involved in the Union Gospel Mission for decades. UGM provides care for our vulnerable male adults that have lost their way. He shares about the impact that you UGM makes and how you can help continue to make a difference.

Spokane Angels Part 1

Amber Swain, Executive Director

Spokane angels is a nonprofit that bridges the gap between foster families and the community. Amber shares how people can get involved and details the current landscape of foster care. She shares how we can make this system better if we work together.

Spokane Angels Part 2

Amber Swain, Executive Director

Spokane angels is a nonprofit that bridges the gap between foster families and the community. Amber shares how people can get involved and details the current landscape of foster care. She shares how we can make this system better if we work together.

The Joy Project

Max Melville

Max and his partner Emma share about the joy project. They are two teenage entrepreneurs that started their own nonprofit because they saw a need. They share how our community can step up and donate necessary items so they can continue to change lives.

Ignite Northwest

Cyndi Donahue, community engagement director

Ignite Northwest encourages entrepreneurship in Spokane. They have a weekend coming up called spark weekend that encourages people with an idea to come out and pitch for funding. Ignite Northwest is known for supporting the entrepreneurs in our region. Cyndi shares how life-changing it can be for someone to follow their dreams if they have resources like Ignite Northwest.