SHOW TOPICS: A campaign to warn people about the danger of Methamphetamines, also what's being done to help minority students exceed in education?

SUMMARY: Methamphetamine is a devastating drug that quickly leads to addiction and to long-term health problems. The Director of Communications at Prevention First and a recovering Meth user joined us to talk about this ongoing drug abuse problem and to offer some advice as well as some help. Also, according to some studies more and more Latinos are enrolling in higher education, but there is still a high drop out rate, we explored what's been done to help minority students exceed in education.

IN TONIGHT'S MEDICAL WATCH -- BATTLING ADDICTION.

THE FASTEST GROWING POPULATION OF ADDICTS NEEDS SPECIAL HELP TO OVERCOME THEIR DEPENDENCY.

NEARLY 20-PERCENT OF ALL WOMEN WILL HAVE A DEPENDENCY ON ALCOHOL OR DRUGS AT SOME TIME IN THEIR LIVES.

NOW A WOMAN IN RECOVERY TALKS ABOUT THE CHALLENGES AND THE KEYS TO SUCCESSFULLY BEATING ADDICTION.

[TAKE PKG]

[TAKE SOT

AT: 34:00]

I was party girl. it was fun. it didn't really have a lot of consequences.

(TRACK)

WHAT STARTED IN FUN... TURNED INTO FRUSTRATION WHEN ~~AMANDA RUBIN~~ REALIZED AT 31 SHE NEEDED TO DRINK.

[TAKE SOT

AT: 34:25]

I started drinking alone and pretty much it just wasn't fun anymore but I couldn't stop.

[TAKE SOT

AT: 7:35:50]

KAREN CASEY, PhD/ADDICTION EXPERT/HAZELDEN: I've seen so many people over the years decide, I'll do it my way, and pretty soon they have fallen back into, if not into the addiction itself, into some really unhealthy old behaviors.

(TRACK)

AT TREATMENT CENTERS LIKE HAZELDEN, ADDICTS HAVE PEOPLE LIKE KAREN CASEY AND THEY HAVE EACH OTHER.

[TAKE SOT

AT: 37:07]

when one person talks to another person in recovery there is something magical that happens. it's like this healing process and that is really vital to staying sober.

(TRACK)

AND WHEN THAT PERSON IS ANOTHER WOMAN, THERAPISTS SAY IT TAKES AWAY THE TENSION OF RECOVERY WITH THE OPPOSITE SEX.

[TAKE SOT

AT: 7:31:25]

when you really mix the genders the focus is so much on one another and not on yourselves.

(TRACK)

BUT GETTING BETTER WITH OTHER WOMEN ISN'T THE ONLY WAY TO RECOVER, MOST WOMEN NEED TO LOOK INSIDE THEMSELVES AT OTHER POSSIBLE PROBLEMS ASIDE FROM THEIR ADDICTION.

[TAKE SOT

AT: 39:09]

part of the disease of alcoholism is obsession of the mind and it's constant voices saying, creating fear and anxiety and for me the alcohol was a way to quiet those and relax.

(TRACK)

4 OUT OF 5 WOMEN HAVE MENTAL HEALTH DISORDERS ALONG WITH THEIR ADDICTION. TREATING BOTH IS THE KEY TO TOTAL RECOVERY. IT'S NOT EASY ESPECIALLY WHEN IT MEANS STAYING AWAY FROM LOVED ONES... THE VERY ISOLATION MOST PEOPLE ARE TRYING TO ESCAPE. BUT IN THE END, SIX MONTHS AT HAZELDEN WILL GIVE AMANDA A LIFETIME.

[TAKE SOT

AT: 42:27]

I saved me. it saved my life.

(TAG)

HAZELDEN NOT ONLY COUNSELS ADDICTS BUT HOLDS SEMINARS FOR THOSE WHO WOULD LIKE TO HELP SOMEONE OVERCOME AN ADDICTION. ON THE MEDICAL WATCH. DINA BAIR. WGN NEWS.

<mos>9 THE GREEN HOUSE MON3 0:45</mos>

{CG: 2020 W. Rice}

At first glance, this looks like another chic new condo building in the Ukrainian Village neighborhood. But inside...

{NAT SOUND: Tape 2 52:16 "the wood itself is locally harvested."}
[Duration:0:03]

Developer Jill Russell is giving us a tour of what's called a green home. She built it to work with the environment. The paint has low amounts of chemicals...

{NAT SOUND: Tape 3 CU of faucet}
[Duration:0:02]

Low-flow faucets save water. And dual flush toilets give you a choice how much water to use. All appliances carry the energy star seal which means they are at least 10 to 15 percent more efficient than regular appliances. And the lights are fluorescent.

{NAT SOUND: TAPE 2 56:43 They last forever, they last 8 thousand hours}
[Duration:0:03]

What's most impressive.. Your energy bill could be cut in half.

{NAT SOUND: Tape 2 53:58 The thermostat you can see is set at 60. And we're comfy right? It's fine.}
[Duration:0:04]

That's because of what you don't see.. Cellulose insulation.. Made of 100 percent newspaper. Outside.. More insulation behind those silver panels along the wall. Green home realtor Kirk Fox says condos like this may cost about 5 percent more but you'll get that money back.

{SOT: Kirk Fox/ Eco-broker Tape 3 1:12:33 in the long run you're saving money each and every single year that you own this house and it's been proven the resale value is a lot higher in the home.}

[Duration:0:08]

George Sullivan has been in the energy building business for 30 years. He says the interest in green has jumped significantly.

{SOT: George Sullivan/Eco-Building Tape three 1:23:33 We're currently working on 850 units in the next 13 months .}

[Duration:0:06]

{STAND UP: But if you're not in the market for a new home. There are ways to green your existing home.}

[Duration:0:07]

{nat sound: energy detectives at work}

[Duration:0:03]

Meet the energy detectives. Their job is to find where your home is losing energy.. Saving you money in the end.

{nat Sound:}

[Duration:0:04]

Using infrared machines, simple smoke guns.. They're finding the leaks in this apartment.

{NAT SOUND: boiler room}

[Duration:0:03]

They also check the heating source..the boiler room. What they've found so far can also help you.

{SOT: John Porterfield/Informed Energy Decisions Tape two 47:44 "For older housing say pre-70's housing we would really look at a 50 percent reduction in overall energy use."}

[Duration:0:09]

That's their goal.. To cut your energy use in half. But you have to take a holistic approach.. Not piecemeal. They'll even direct you to energy friendly loans which will make the work affordable.

So whether it's making your existing home more energy efficient or buying an already green home.. The momentum to go green in Chicago is building.

{SOT: Kirk Fox/Eco-broker Tape three 1:15:26 It's reaching the tipping point, reaching a tipping point in chicago and it's a trend that's here to stay. }

SHOW TOPICS: A look back at the primary elections and the influence of the Latino community in the electoral process. Also, the controversial bill H.R.4437

SUMMARY: Record low turn out, new ways of casting ballots, and late returns made for a nerve-racking primary election on Tuesday. How important was the Latino vote in these elections? CLTV Political Reporter Carlos Gomez Hernandez and Juan Rangel the CEO of United Neighborhood Organization helped us sort it all out. Also on the show H.R. 4437 a controversial bill that basically demands the government to deport all "Illegal" immigrants. This bill has angered many of those in Chicago's Latino community forcing tens of thousands to take to the streets earlier this month in protest of this bill. On the show Robert Klein Engler a representative of the Minuteman explained why the organization supports the bill and Billy Lawless representing the Illinois Coalition for Immigrant and Refugee Rights explained by he is against the bill.
