ILYCE standup intro:

IF YOU APPLY TO GET A LOAN, YOUR LENDER IS GOING TO SEND OUT AN APPRAISER TO MAKE SURE THE PROPERTY IS WORTH AT LEAST ENOUGH TO COVER THE MORTGAGE JUST IN CASE YOU DEFAULT ON YOUR MORTGAGE PAYMENTS. BUT GIVEN ALL THE TALK ABOUT "HOUSING BUBBLES," THERE IS GROWING CONCERN THAT YOUR PROPERTY'S APPRAISAL MAY NOT BE AN ACCURATE INDICATION OF WHAT YOUR HOUSE IS ACTUALLY WORTH.

SOT 00 09 07 RON BRANDT/APPRaiser TAPE 5

"AN APPRAISAL IS AN OPINION OF VALUE. AND, IT'S MY OPINION OF VALUE IN THIS INSTANCE BASED ON MY INTERPRETATION OF THE AVAILABLE SALES IN THE AREA AND HOW THEY APPLY TO THIS HOME."

TRACK

WHEN YOU APPLY FOR A LOAN, THE MORTGAGE COMPANY HIRES AN APPRAISER TO LOOK AT "COMPS," OR THE RECENT SALES OF HOMES IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD THAT ARE SIMILAR TO YOURS. AFTER A THOROUGH PHYSICAL INSPECTION, THE APPRAISER LAYS OUT THE DATA AND FIGURES OUT WHAT YOUR HOME IS WORTH. IT'S SUPPOSED TO BE AN INDEPENDENT EVALUATIONEXCEPT THAT IN MANY CASES, APPRAISERS ARE PRESSURED TO COME UP WITH THE RIGHT NUMBER.

SOT 00 09 04 HAL LONDON/APPRaiser (TAPE 5)

ILYCE: WHO PRESSURES APPRAISERS?

HAL: EVERYBODY. EVERYBODY. WE HAVE PRESSURES FROM THE REALTORS. WE HAVE PRESSURES FROM THE HOMEOWNER. WE HAVE PRESSURES FROM THE LOAN OFFICER.

TRACK

THE RIGHT NUMBER, WHICH ALMOST ALWAYS WINDS UP EXACTLY THE SAME AS SALES PRICE, MEANS THE DEAL WILL GO THROUGH. ANYTHING LOWER MEANS THE DEAL GETS KILLED. AND THAT MAKES REAL ESTATE AGENTS, LOAN OFFICERS AND EVEN HOMEOWNERS CRANKY.

SPT 00 13 18 RON BRANDT/APPRaiser (TAPE 5)

"THERE'S A LOT OF MONEY AT STAKE."

TRACK

WHAT KIND OF MONEY?

SOT 00 10 22 TERRY BIVINS/ILLINOIS ASSOCIATION OF MORTGAGE
BROKERS (TAPE 4)

"IN OUR BUSINESS, A LOAN OFFICER MAKES ANYWHERE FROM $1,000
TO $2,000 ON A REVERSE MORTGAGE. IF YOU'RE DOING LOANS OF $200,000 TO $300,000, THE LOAN OFFICER IS PROBABLY MAKING
$2,000 TO $3,000 PER TRANSACTION."

TRACK

SO THE INCENTIVE TO HAVE A PROPERTY APPRAISAL HIT THE MARK
IS PRETTY HIGH, BECAUSE IF THE DEAL GETS KILLED, THE $3,000
FEE GOES AWAY. NOT TO MENTION THE 5 PERCENT AVERAGE COMMISSION THE REAL ESTATE BROKERS WILL SHARE.

SOT 00 30 06 SALLY GRABILL/PRUDENTIAL PREFERRED
PROPERTIES

"IT'S VERY IMPORTANT TO MANY REAL ESTATE AGENTS TO KEEP THE DEAL TOGETHER, AND SO THEY'LL GO TO ANY EXTREMES THAT THEY HAVE TO."

TRACK

BUT PRESSURING APPRAISERS TO PUSH HOME VALUES HAS MADE SOME NEIGHBORHOOD HOUSING ACTIVISTS NERVOUS.

SOT TRACY LEARY/NTIC TAPE 1

"WHAT WE'VE BEGUN TO SEE IN THE LAST YEAR OR SO IS AN INCREASE IN THE OVER-APPRAISALS OF PEOPLE'S HOMES."

TRACK

WHICH CAN EASILY RISE TO THE LEVEL OF FRAUD -- ESPECIALLY WHEN the loan officers are PREDATORY LENDERS -- who charge outrageous points and fees for doing the loan.

00 50 05 ROBERT GRANT/FBI

"THEY HAVE APPRAISERS ON THEIR PAYROLL WHO INFLATE, AND I
DON'T MEAN INFLATION BY A FEW THOUSAND DOLLARS. I'M TALKING ABOUT SIGNIFICANT INFLATION WHERE THERE IS A SIGNIFICANT INCREASE IN THE VALUE OF THE HOUSE."

00 03 11 TRACY LEARY/NTIC

"THE PEOPLE WHO BENEFIT ARE OFTENTIMES THE LENDERS, BROKERS
AND APPRAISERS WHO WORK IN OFTEN TIMES CAHOOTS WITH EACH OTHER, LEAVING THE BORROWER WITH THE BAG OF A HOME THAT'S WORTH LESS THAN THEY'RE PAYING FOR."

TRACK

AND IF THE LOAN later GOES INTO FORECLOSURE, THE INVESTOR THAT BOUGHT THE LOAN FROM THE PREDATORY LENDER CAN LOSE TENS OF THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS, AND THE HOMEOWNER CAN BE DESTROYED FINANCIALLY.

00 45 47 ROBERT GRANT/FBI

"THEY MAY HAVE GIVEN A $100,000 MORTGAGE ON THAT PROPERTY, AND IT'S ONLY WORTH $50,000. THEY'VE LOST RIGHT THERE $50,000 ON THEIR INVESTMENT."

TRACK

HOW CAN YOU PROTECT YOURSELF FROM APPRAISAL FRAUD? PUT TOGETHER A HOME BUYING OR REFINANCE TEAM OF PROFESSIONALS YOU CAN TRUST.

SOT 00 04 02 MOLLY SULLIVAN/CHICAGO DEPT. OF HOUSING (TAPE 7)

"OUR HOUSING COUNSELING AGENCIES MAINTAIN A LIST OF EXCELLENT LENDERS."

00 20 18 TRACY LEARY (TAPE 1)

"CHECK WITH A HOUSING COUNSELOR WHO ALSO DEALS WITH A LOT OF LOANS IN DIFFERENT AREAS AND CAN GIVE YOU A SENSE OF WHAT A HOME'S VALUE WOULD BE."

TRACK

AND IF IT SOUNDS TOO GOOD TO BE TRUE???

SOT 00 12 30 TRACY LEARY (TAPE 1)

DEFINITELY GET A SECOND OPINION. ASK FOR REFERENCES. CHECK WITH THESE COMMUNITY-BASED ORGANIZATIONS AND HOUSING COUNSELORS, JUST TO BE SURE."

ILYCE TAG: CHICAGO RANKS NEAR THE TOP OF THE LIST WHEN IT COMES TO MORTGAGE FRAUD. FOR MORE INFORMATION ON HOW THESE SCAMS TAKE PLACE, CHECK OUT THE MORTGAGE FRAUD SERIES RUNNING IN THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, AND BE SURE TO LOG ONTO WGNTV.COM AND LINK TO GLINK FOR MORE INFORMATION AND RESOURCES.

They felt vaccines were so essential and so important, and they are, to the health and well-being of their patient, that if the parent wasn't willing to engage in that therapy, that they felt they may not be able to engage in a partnership on other things either.

(TRACK)

THE DISEASES FOR WHICH VACCINES ARE GIVEN ARE RARE NOW... BUT EXPERTS SAY THAT'S BECAUSE THE VACCINES ARE WORKING... AND DOCTORS SAY THOSE BENEFITS FAR OUTWEIGH ANY POSSIBLE RISKS.

TAKE SOT
AT: 7:49

The prevalence of vaccine preventable illnesses is very low, and so when a parent goes to consider vaccination for their child, they tend to look more to the side effects and the risks of the side effects, as opposed to the risks of the vaccine preventable illnesses.

No pesticides or hormones are used to grow these greens. They use their own compost and organic chicken manure for fertilizer.

{SOT: Jennie Giammasi/ Herbal Garden Tape 3 9:45 "organic Farming depends on the strength of the soil. It's the basis for everything. You allow the soil to keep its microbes and maintain itself."}
[Duration:0:10]

{ Stand up Tape 3 17:07 " What exactly is organic? The products have very strict guidelines. They have to be certified by the federal government }
[Duration:0:09]

Since the Organic Foods Production Act took effect in October 2002, there are now national standards on how you grow and process organic food. If you see this seal.. You know you're buying organic. Or are you? That's up for debate. This seal means the food is at least 95 percent organic.

{GRAPHIC 1}

But what about the other 5 percent? That can include synthetics... like xanthan gum, an artificial thickener and ethylene, a chemical used in storing fruit. A total of 38 synthetic ingredients can be included in that 5 percent.

{GRAPHIC 2}

Now.. a new federal amendment passed by Congress last month would allow even more synthetics. That has many in the organic industry seeing red.. not green.

{SOT: Dr. URVASHI RANGAN /Consumer's Union 9:57:10 "What that amendment... And therefore devalued the actual meaning of the organic label."}

[Duration:0:10]

Dr. Rangan and others say the move was made to appease the big corporations which are now getting into the organics market.. Companies like Kraft and Dean Foods. Both are members of the Organic Trade Association which supported the amendment. OTA says small and large farms are treated the same and this new amendment abides by the tough standards which are already in place.

{SOT: Katherine DiMatteo/Organic Trade Association 9:34:49 There's a very public process, there's a set of petitions, technical reviews and all of this will ensure there are no unnecessary and or materials In organic handling}

[Duration:0:17]

In 1990, sales of organic foods totaled one billion dollars. Ten years later.. That number jumped to nearly 8 billion dollars. Just go to a Whole Foods Market to see how popular organic foods have become. Customers don't seem to mind the cost difference. And it can be measurable: Conventionally grown eggplant.. A dollar 49 a pound. Organically grown.. 3.99 a pound.

{SOT: Sally Weiner/ shopper Tape 1 28:00 mostly I try to go organic unless it's prohibitive}

SOT: Karma Zomkyi - shopper Tape 1 27:05 I think organic foods are more healthier.}

[duration:0:05]

{GRAPHIC}

For whatever reason you buy organics the key is to check the labels. If you don't want any synthetics... find labels which say 100 percent organic. The federally certified labels mean at least 95 percent organic while the label "made with organic ingredients" means at least 70 percent of the ingredients are organic.

{GRAPHIC}

Other labels don't necessarily mean organic either...terms like "natural," "hormone-free" and "free range."

{nat Sound: baby}
[Duration:0:02]

Like many consumers.. The Bestezy family choses a little of both.. Organic and conventionally grown foods.

{SOT: DeAnne Besetzny/eats organic Tape 3 26:14 It's a personal choice but I think it's the best for my body and my family.}

nat snd riots & riot video, fires etc

It's been 30 years since the riot torn neighborhood and vacant lot at 211 S. Laflin Street was turned into Chicago's first ever Magnet school. The school was part of a master re-building plan to anchor the neighborhood after the Martin Luther King riots left it completely devastated in the late sixties.

(Bernadette McHale/Whitney M. Young Magnet High School History Teacher) 01 24 38

"The neighborhood used to be referred to as, oh my, why are you there?"

The Whitney M. Young Magnet High School now serves as a premier college preparatory high school consistently ranking in the top 10% of all public and private schools in the country.

(Bernadette McHale/Whitney M. Young Magnet High School History Teacher) 20 36 "It's a competitive school."

History teacher, Bernadette McHale says implementing integration successfully was a priority back in 1975 and remains even stronger today.

(Bernadette McHale/Whitney M. Young Magnet High School History teacher) 22 20 "We couldn't just trust that schools would integrate we created a school that was integrated."

Of the eight-thousand students who apply each year to get into Whitney Young -- the school selects a lucky 450 through testing.

(Dr. Joyce Kenner/) 01 03 21 "We are focused primarily on academics and if that is not a students focus then they can not stay here."

Dr. Joyce Kenner has been working at the school for 16 years and Principal for the past 11 years. She says of the 500 -- or so-- kids who graduate each year 95% go on to college and last year 100 % were accepted into college. Kenner is also proud of the 80-plus clubs the school offers -- including national recognition in the academic arena.

(Dr. Joyce Kenner/Whitney M. Young Magnet High School Principal) 01 07 43 "We have been the city champion and the state champions for 19 years in the state of Illinois for the academic decathlon."

Fifteen year old Nicholas Thompson says he takes the train to school each day from his south side Chatham neighborhood, and ads the school is worth the commute.

(Nicholas Thompson/Whitney M. Young Magnet High School Junior) 01 11 34 "It feels good to be here, knowing that you're at one of the best schools in the city is a nice feeling."

Retired teacher, Melanie Wojtulewicz (Voy-too-LEV-ich) remembers the school's original mission -- to make a REAL school that everyone would be proud of.

(Melanie Wojtulewicz/Whitney M. Young Magnet High School Retired teacher)

01 28 "to make a school where students would achieve, to make a school where teachers would be expected to do their very best to pull out of students everything that they had in them and I think that goes on today."

(Jane Boal/WGN-News) 38 30

THE FEAR CAN SEEM SUFFOCATING, THE WORLD TOO BIG TO PARTICIPATE IN. FOR A SHY CHILD, THEIR VOICE ECHOES WITH THE SOUND OF REJECTION AND FAILURE.

CG=MATTHEW BERNARDI/19 YEARS OLD
00:24:28 everyone else would ask questions, but I couldn't raise my hand and ask a question. I mean, I might mess up. They would laugh at me. I couldn't do that. It's unthinkable.

19-YEAR-OLD MATTHEW BERNARDI NOW KNOWS WHY HIS GRADES SUFFERED AND SCHOOL WAS SUCH A STRUGGLE.

00:22:17 MATTHEW
It happened mostly in high school. Though in grade school, I do remember around 2nd or 3rd grade, I'd become physically ill right before school a lot of mornings.

(TRACK)
IT WASN'T JUST speaking out in class but speaking to CLASSMATES.

00:21:46 My phone would ring I wouldn't pick it up because I was afraid to talk. ((butt 00:23:30)) Through high school, I don't think I met a single new friend throughout that entire time. That's four years. It was a hard four years.

(TRACK)
MATTHEW IS IN COLLEGE NOW AND HE'S GETTING ALONG MUCH BETTER. HE EVEN HAS A GIRLFRIEND FOR THE VERY FIRST TIME. BUT THAT'S ONLY AFTER RECENTLY SEEKING PROFESSIONAL HELP.

NAT SND DR & PATIENT

(TRACK)
DR. CHERYL CARMIN OF THE UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS-CHICAGO SAYS HIS CONDITION WAS MORE SEVERE THAN COMMON SHYNESS.

00:02:07 CG=DR. CHERYL CARMIN/UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS-CHICAGO

There's a difference between shyness and what we classify as a disorder. Lots of people are shy ... But it doesn't interfere with their life. It doesn't cause distress. It doesn't disrupt activities or relationships. When it gets to that point is when we start thinking in terms of Social Anxiety Disorder.

((STANDUP -- in playground???)

SOCIAL ANXIETY DISORDER AFFECTS ABOUT EIGHT PERCENT OF THE POPULATION AND IS MARKED BY A PROFOUND FEAR OF EMBARRASMENT OR DISAPPROVAL. THOSE AFFECTED -- BOTH CHILDREN AND ADULTS - - OFTEN GO TO GREAT LENGTHS TO AVOID BEING THE CENTER OF ATTENTION.

00:05:42/ CARMIN

So, a kid won't do show and tell. Or perhaps, school avoidance is occurring -- kids are just throwing tantrums and not wanting to go to school.

THE EXPERTS SAY PARENTS CAN HELP SHY KIDS BY GETTING THEM BACK INTO THE SITUATIONS THEY FEAR AND GRADUALLY HELPING THEM FEEL MORE COMFORTABLE.

T1/00:07:40 -- carmin

Say for example you've got a child who is resistant to play with other kids. Well, rather than saying okay, you're going to the birthday party where there's going to be thirty other children... ((butt)) ... Maybe have one friend come over for a limited period of time... ((butt)) then expanding the time and maybe two kids and then four kids.

MATTHEW'S THERAPY INCLUDED EXERCISES THAT MAY HAVE SEEMED SILLY ON THE SURFACE. HERE, HE PURPOSELY DROPS A LOAD OF MAGAZINES IN FRONT OF A LOBBY RECEPTIONIST. BEFORE INTENSE COUNSELING, A REAL-LIFE EMBARRASMENT LIKE THIS ONE WOULD'VE SEEMED LIKE THE END OF THE WORLD.

00:23:00 MATTHEW BERNARDI

It's an irrational fear, but it governed my life and it was horrible.

TODAY, IT'S NOT SO BAD. HE ADMITS HE STILL HAS WORK TO DO, BUT AT LEAST NOW HE FINALLY HAS THE TOOLS TO COPE.

00:26:26

I still have the nervous thoughts, but I just fight them off with the things Dr. Carmin told me to think about.

((00:26:47)) I'm doing pretty good now.

T4/25:44

CG=DEBRA COCHRAN/PARENT

I do think it's necessary to have African-American males to teach African-American boys because they look to them as being great role models.

THE CHICAGO URBAN LEAGUE HAS ENLISTED THE HELP OF THE GROUP "100 BLACK MEN OF CHICAGO" TO VOLUNTEER AS MENTORS. LEAGUE PRESIDENT JAMES COMPTON SAYS THEIR PRESENCE HELPS COMBAT NEGATIVE IMAGES THE BOYS MAY ENCOUNTER ELSEWHERE.

T1/24:26

CG=JAMES COMPTON/PRES. & CEO, CHICAGO URBAN LEAGUE

We wanted these young boys to be exposed to men who were disciplined, accomplished graduates of colleges and universities, successful in their lives.

MANY OF THE BOYS ACCEPTED INTO THE PROGRAM DON'T HAVE MEN LIVING IN THEIR HOMES. AND THEY DON'T GET MUCH MALE INFLUENCE AT SCHOOL EITHER. AT DONOGHUE, WHICH ALSO OPENED IN SEPTEMBER, TODD BARNETT WEARS MANY HATS, BUT IS SECOND IN COMMAND. DURING THE WEEK, HE AND A COUPLE OF SECURITY GUARDS ARE THE ONLY MEN IN THE BUILDING.

T3/15:46

CG=TODD BARNETT/UNIV. OF CHICAGO-DONOGHUE CHARTER SCHOOL

Unfortunately, there aren't any male teachers right now. But that will change as the school changes each year. So that was one of the reasons why when the school started, we made a major commitment to be able to provide this resource.

IN ORDER TO HAVE A LASTING IMPACT, LEADERS BELIEVE THEY MUST START YOUNG AND PERSIST. THIS PROGRAM, WHICH ACCOMMODATES JUST OVER 40 KIDS, TARGETS BOYS AGES FIVE TO EIGHT -- KINDERGARTEN THROUGH THIRD GRADE.

06:25 "Cause I feel that some kids are not fortunate as others."

They adopted 8 year old Tianna after fostering her from the time she was just two months old. Tianna says she enjoys singing and is proud of her school work including math and science.

(nats Tianna- holds up math homework) 22:16 "And I got a big star... a big star means good on that!"

Ella always knew she wanted to adopt a child since she was raised by a loving Mother who also fostered and gave birth to many children.

ELLA THOMAS/FOSTER & ADOPTIVE MOTHER

02:49 "and I seen how she was helping other, you know, children who was unfortunate like me."

It was in 1997 after she read a disturbing Sun-times article about a toddler who was drowned by an unlicensed foster Mother that Ella was motivated to do something. She said she prayed for help after reading about the dead child who was drowned during potty training.

Tianna, as it turns out -- is actually a sibling of the child who was killed. Ella said the placement was 'pure coincidence' -- and that she dropped to her knees and cried when they told her the little girl she would care for came from the same family.

ELLA THOMAS/FOSTER & ADOPTIVE MOTHER

"I wanted to do something to help that family."

ELLA cont. 03:38 "It's just like just showing somebody like that there is love out there. Every child is not out here receiving the love that they need."

Ella and Stanley say they're proud of who their daughter is. They're also open to taking in more kids, for the same reason they adopted Tianna.

STANLEY THOMAS/FOSTER & ADOPTIVE FATHER

06:30 "every child deserves a chance."

TOM'S BRIDGE STANDUP

To visit Lituya Bay is to understand why this area is so tsunami prone. Earthquakes happen frequently here and they're big. And the terrain is steep, steeper than almost anywhere else on the planet. On the night of July 9th, a massive part of that mountain broke off and cascaded into the water. It hit with force that scientists liken to that of an asteroid. The wave it created was over 1700 feet high.

MARY LOU BLAKESLEE-Glacier Bay Park Ranger

"What happened in 1958 (EDIT) was one of the largest earthquakes to strike North America. (edit out- I think it rated #6.) That earthquake was right on the faultline which is in the back of Lituya Bay. (SEE HER HERE) 6:44:29 The glacier that lies on that faultline, the north glacier, the one they call Lituya Glacier, jumped up into the air and shook like crazy. Tremendous amount of ice and mountain debris fell into the water..... "

WHILE ONE MOUNTAIN CRASHED INTO THE BAY'S DEEP WATERS...
ANOTHER PEAK ROSE 50 FEET IN AN INSTANT.

CHRIS MAIER-NATIONAL WEATHER SERVICE

"That rock fell into the head of the bay...caused a huge splash wave that measured up 1722 feet tore out all of the vegetation on the land, and then that proceeded to that wave proceeded to gain momentum and track down thru the rest of the bay and it wiped out everything along the beaches as far as the trees and vegetation. SEE CHRIS HERE It's the largest tsunami wave on record. TOM anywhere, CHRIS anywhere in the world."

FISHERMAN HOWARD ULRICH AND HIS LITTLE BOY SONNY RODE OUT
THE WAVE ON THEIR BOAT "EDRIE"... ANCHORED IN LITUYA BAY
FOR THE NIGHT.

HOWARD ULRICH/LITUYA BAY SURVIVOR

"I was asleep and then that earthquake started so that woke me up. I saw the splash. Something I was looking off on at the shoreline and something out of the corner of my eye caught my attention and it turned out to be this big splash. Ok, then you see that big horrible splash and it looked like you know like Bikini when they set off the atomic bomb you know and but then as the water is falling back down into the bay, out of the bottom of that came this big wave and that wave was actually we figure it was about 800 feet high."

ULRICH ESTIMATES THE ORIGINAL 1720 FOOT WAVE HAD DROPPED TO ABOUT 150 FEET BY THE TIME IT REACHED THEM. IT GAVE HIS BOAT A LIFE-SAVING PUSH.

"We were actually looking down on the trees, and I'm pretty sure we were over the land at that time and still pushing that old Chrysler Crown to get us up over the top of that wave and then of course the water coming back down off of that land gave us another push out and helped us out."

BY NOW THE WATER WAS CHURNING WITH SMALLER WAVES FILLED WITH GIANT TREES AND ICE CHUNKS. ULRICH WORRIED THEY'D CUT OFF HIS ESCAPE ROUTE.

HAM RADIO CALL: the whole thing came off or course, brush and everything it's just solid behind me and when it comes down it's gonna block the whole entrance, so I guess I'd better get the hell outta here. God, what an awful site, it looks like the end of the world."))

(SOT TAPE #1 1:32:29 - :36)
