RELIGION

4/8 11:35am Cupich and Pope on Family Reporter in Studio with Package TRT 3:05
Pope Francis softens the Vatican's attitude on several, controversial topics... Without up-ending church doctrine. The pope announced the new approach to issues like divorce, birth control, and gay relationships in a 256 page document called "the joy of love." The bottom line: be less judgmental and more tolerant of non-traditional couples. In his message, the pope signaled a pastoral path for divorced and remarried Catholics to receive Holy Communion. But he did not call for any change in church doctrine, instead clarifying the Catholic Church will not recognize same sex marriage. However he emphasized the church must no longer judge those who don't live up to the gospel's teachings. And the pontiff said Catholics should follow their own consciences when they consider these divisive matters.

4/8 4:35pm Archbishop Comments on Pope Reporter Package in Studio TRT 2:15
Pope Francis releases a document that doesn't change doctrine regarding divorced Catholics, but does emphasize mercy over church rules. However, his document does little on hot-button topics like gay marriage, abortion and contraception. We've all seen pictures passed around on social media, whether they're controversial... Or making fun of something or someone. But what happens when a post takes off... And it's a picture of *you? Cortney Hall spoke with a musician from Chicago whose photo went viral last month... For all the wrong reasons.

5/15 5:35pm Chicago Honor Flight Reporter Package TRT 4:20
Honor flight Chicago just marked its 70th flight since the organization started taking veterans to Washington DC six years ago. But now, for the very first time, they're not only taking world war two veterans, they're also welcoming those from the Korean War. WGN was the only Chicago television station invited on board the inaugural flight. And what we witnessed appeared to be a healing experience for those who served in "the forgotten war."

5/29 9:13pm Gorilla Boy Reporter Package TRT 2:35
The gorilla exhibit at the Cincinnati zoo was closed today, a day after one of the great apes was killed to protect a child who slipped into his enclosure. It happened in front of dozens of families who watched in horror as the four year old boy was dragged around by the 400 pound gorilla. Reporter Rachel Crane shows us new, frightening video of what happened.

6/14 4:46pm Toy Drive Sick Kids Interview on Tape TRT 1:30
A young boy fighting a kidney disease decided to give back in a big way. 10 year old Kadin Hoven has already had two kidney transplants and is awaiting a third. But during his most recent stay in UCLA's Children's Hospital he got an idea. He wanted to start a toy drive for other children in the hospital. His mother is a teacher, so she got the ball rolling at her school, and his.

6/16 11:22am Unselfie Reporter Package plus Studio Guest Interview TRT 6:40
Generation selfie...that's what they call today's kids obsessed with posing, pouting and posting. We are going to talk with a psychologist and author who says it is crucial that we teach our kids to turn the camera outward. But first, we wanted to hear from teens first hand. Joining us now with more advice on how to beat the selfie syndrome... Is Dr. Michele Borba. Author of the new book "Unselfie: Why Empathic Kids Succeed In Our All-About-Me World".
