

Quarterly Issues and Program List

WGN-TV

2Q 2021

Pursuant to the disclosure requirements in 47 C.F. R. 73.3526(11)(i), and during the quarter referenced above, this station provided information to its viewers regarding the following significant issues, including:

Business & Industry	Economy	Government (National)	National Security
Children/Youth	Education	Health/Healthcare	Politics
Community	Elderly	Housing	Religion
Consumer Issues	Employment	Immigration	Technology
Crime/Law Enforcement	Environment	Legal Matters (e.g. court decisions)	Transportation
Cultural	Government (Local)	Minority Issues	Women's Issues

Programs

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	5:00 AM	4/1	120	WGN Early Morning News	Today is opening day for the Cubs at Wrigley Field. And for the first time since the pandemic hit, thousands of people will attend an event in Chicago. Glenn Marshall is live inside Wrigley with a look at the new precautions.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:07 AM	4/1	120	WGN Morning News	Testimony resumes this morning in the high-profile murder trial of a former Minneapolis police officer. Lauren is here with a recap of yesterday's session.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/1	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Politics	12:13 PM	4/1	240	WGN Midday News	She's a mother, Illinois senator, Iraq war veteran - and now author: Senator Tammy Duckworth illustrates the events of her life have shaped where she is today. She has a new book out: "Every Day is a Gift". Senator Duckworth joins us with more from her memoir.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:21 PM	4/1	180	WGN Midday News	College students across the country are taking part in a Moderna COVID-19 vaccine study. Scientists say because most students live in close quarters it's an ideal situation to study how effective the vaccine is to prevent virus spread.
9.1	Education	12:35 PM	4/1	210	WGN Midday News	A suburban preschool teacher is showing her young students the power of confidence and acceptance. WGN's Gaynor Hall introduces us to Mrs. Diana Acres. In March, she's our Teacher of the Month.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:06 PM	4/1	120	WGN Early Evening News	Another day of emotional testimony in the murder trial of former Minneapolis police officer Derek Chauvin. Today George Floyd's girlfriend took the stand. WGN's Patrick Elwood is here with more on today's testimony.
9.1	Elderly	4:20 PM	4/1	240	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, searching for early signs of brain decline. Alzheimer's disease is hereditary, and as people experience memory lapses, they often wonder, is it aging or something worse. Brain Guide is a new tool helping people check their

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						memory and find resources related to dementia and Alzheimer's.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:27 PM	4/1	120	WGN Early Evening News	New at four: a 13-year-old boy is identified as the person shot and killed by Chicago police in Little Village Monday. Officers say the boy had a gun, which they recovered at the scene. WGN's Kelly Davis is live in Little Village with details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:00 PM	4/1	120	WGN Evening News	Celebrate safely. That's the message from city health officials, who are issuing a warning ahead of the Easter holiday weekend, as the number of COVID-19 cases continues to climb. WGN's Gaynor Hall is live in Homan Square with their message.
9.1	Politics	5:14 PM	4/1	120	WGN Evening News	On Capitol Hill, lawmakers in the house held a hearing, examining voting rights after states like Georgia and Texas moved to restrict voting access. WGN's Washington correspondent Raquel Martin has more.
9.1	Transportation	5:31 PM	4/1	120	WGN Evening News	A CTA bus ran a red light, hitting two cars, including one driven by activist Andrew Holmes. He was carrying a truck full of Easter gifts. WGN's Shannon Halligan has the details.
9.1	Legal Matters	6:00 PM	4/1	120	WGN Evening News	We begin with breaking news. After decades behind bars, a man who says he was tortured into confessing to a murder he didn't commit, will soon be free. Gerald Reed's sentence has been commuted to time served. WGN's Rob Sneed is live tonight

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Employment	6:43 PM	4/1	240	WGN Evening News	Turning now to our back to work segment. Hire-360 is a non-profit dedicated to helping minorities and women find work in trade careers. Joining me now is Chynna Hampton, director of Workforce Development.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	4/1	120	WGN News at Nine	We are following a developing story. A person shot and killed by Chicago police earlier this week, is just 13 years old. The armed confrontation went down early Monday morning on the West Side. WGN's Gaynor Hall is live from CPD headquarters with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:45 PM	4/1	300	WGN News at Nine	There are no statistics to count the human cost of gun violence – the psychological trauma endured by victims' families, long after the shots are fired. WGN's Mike Lowe reports on a mother's struggle a year after her son was shot and killed on Chicago's West Side.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/2	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:00 PM	4/2	120	WGN Midday News	A man is now charged with first-degree murder for allegedly shooting and killing an eleven-year-old girl.
9.1	Legal Matters	12:04 PM	4/2	150	WGN Midday News	It's been a day decades in the making for one of the inmates at the state correctional facility in Crest Hill. Gerald Reed was convicted back in 1990 of a double murder and has maintained his innocence, saying a

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						confession all those years ago was forced out of him. His sentence was commuted last night by Governor Pritzker.
9.1	Legal Matters	12:16 PM	4/2	300	WGN Midday News	The fifth day of witness testimony in the Derek Chauvin trial wrapped up for the day. Joining us now is former Cook County assistant State's Attorney Joe Roddy
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:00 PM	4/2	120	WGN Early Evening News	A police officer killed at the US Capitol when a man rammed his car into a barricade. WGN's Dana Rebik is here now with the details.
9.1	National Security	4:02 PM	4/2	180	WGN Early Evening News	Robert Pape is a professor of Political Science at the University of Chicago and specializes in International Security Affairs. He joins us now with some insight on today's attack.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:30 PM	4/2	120	WGN Early Evening News	Now an update on that breaking news we told you about earlier. A US Capitol police officer is dead, another seriously injured. This after an attack outside of the US Capitol this afternoon.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:08 PM	4/2	120	WGN Evening News	Mixed COVID messages coming out of Washington. The CDC says fully vaccinated Americans can travel domestically without taking a test or self-quarantining. But President Biden says it's too soon to let up on restrictions. WGN's Washington correspondent Jessi Turnure reports.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:33 PM	4/2	120	WGN Evening News	Another break-in at an auto dealership in the Chicago area. Early this morning, the target was a business in Bronzeville. That's where WGN's Jenna Barnes picks up the story live.
9.1	National Security	6:02 PM	4/2	210	WGN Evening News	President Biden is ordering flags flown at half-staff in Washington following a deadly attack on Capitol police. Joining us now is DePaul University history professor and security analyst, Tom Mockaitis.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:34 PM	4/2	210	WGN Evening News	New findings from Northwestern Medicine indicates that pregnant women who were vaccinated for COVID-19 in the third trimester had a higher likelihood of passing antibodies to their newborn babies, than women who received their vaccination closer to delivery. Joining us now to talk about this study is Dr. Leena Mithal with Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	4/2	120	WGN News at Nine	Questions remain, after a 13-year-old was shot and killed by a Chicago police officer. Tonight, a vigil is held in honor of Adam Toledo and some activists are now marching to Mayor Lightfoot's neighborhood. WGN's Jenna Barnes is live at CPD headquarters with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:17 PM	4/2	120	WGN News at Nine	Finding a COVID-19 vaccine has been challenging and frustrating for so many people. But there's a growing community of helpers on social media. WGN's Gaynor Hall shows us how they're building connections with people they've never met.
9.1	Community	9:46 PM	4/2	180	WGN News at Nine	They run the oldest Italian restaurant in Chicago! For nearly 94 years the Italian village restaurants has been serving up Italian cuisine along with memories and tradition. The Capitini family they are Chicago's Very Own.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:00 AM	4/3	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	The Civilian Office of Police Accountability now says it will release body cam video of police fatally shooting a 13-year-old boy. Judy Wang is live at CPD headquarters with the latest.
9.1	Minority Issues	8:11 AM	4/3	180	WGN Weekend Morning News	He's the founder of coffee, hip-hop and mental health-- a non-profit that works to promote and break down stigmas about mental health especially in the Black community. Today Christopher Lemark is holding a food drive to distribute thousands of boxes of groceries. Christopher joins us from the South Side to tell us all about it.
9.1	Community	9:12 AM	4/3	180	WGN Weekend Morning News	It's time for spring cleaning, but it can be a struggle figuring out what to get rid of. Or, where to send bigger items like furniture. Cathleen Jones, from Two Men and a Truck, joins us this morning with some tips.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 PM	4/3	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A police officer in hometown was killed overnight when he was hit by a car.
9.1	Community	5:08 PM	4/3	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	We are heading into our second Easter under the cloud of COVID19. WGN's Judy Wang tells us about an effort to brighten the holiday weekend for Chicago families who continue to struggle in the pandemic.
9.1	Community	5:23 PM	4/3	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A suburban nature center hosted an Easter tradition this morning along with a few lessons on the outdoors. WGN's Marcella Raymond takes us there.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:30 PM	4/3	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Bronzeville residents are celebrating an agreement announced today that will keep the doors open of an important local health provider. WGN's Rob Sneed is live at Mercy Hospital with details of the deal.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:40 PM	4/3	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A police officer in Nashville is thankful for every moment of his life. His perspective comes after a frightening medical diagnosis. WGN's Sean Lewis has his story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	4/3	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Our top story tonight -- a West Side church's diaper giveaway is canceled after nearly everything was stolen.
9.1	Religion	8:00 AM	4/4	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	It's Easter Sunday, and the hottest ticket in town is a seat in church. COVID-19 restrictions have limited churches to 20 percent capacity. Judy Wang is live at Holy Name Cathedral

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						with what to expect this Easter morning.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:00 PM	4/4	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Cook County health officials warn more restrictions could be coming as COVID cases begin to rise. That means suburban restaurants could once again be dealing with reduced capacities, and limitations. WGN's Mike Lowe is live in Evanston with more on our top story.
9.1	Community	5:23 PM	4/4	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	What better day than Easter Sunday to take stroll through the Garfield Park Conservatory and celebrate nature and new beginnings. Marcella Raymond got an exclusive tour of the spring flower show that runs through Mother's Day.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:30 PM	4/4	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	The family of a teenager who was shot and killed in 2015 while running away from Zion police is still seeking justice. They held a vigil today calling on local officials to reopen the case. WGN's Jenna Barnes is here with the story.
9.1	Politics	5:32 PM	4/4	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Within the past week, President Biden introduced a sweeping two trillion-dollar infrastructure and jobs plan. But it's already being met with criticism from Republicans. Washington correspondent Reshad Hudson has more.
9.1	Religion	5:40 PM	4/4	150	WGN Weekend Evening News	Pope Francis used his Easter message to call for vaccine equity. The Pope is urging world leaders to ensure

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						universal access. WGN's Sean Lewis reports.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:44 PM	4/4	300	WGN Weekend Evening News	For 99 years Dinkel's bakery in Lakeview has been serving up sweet treats for the holidays. Easter is one of the biggest. WGN's Mike Lowe reports on a Chicago mainstay that's become more than a store
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	4/4	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Tonight, an arson investigation is underway in the far South Side. Three garage fires all on the same block. Police say they were intentionally set.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00 AM	4/5	120	WGN Morning News	A garage went up in flames overnight in Hegewisch, one night after a series of arsons in the same neighborhood. Glenn Marshall joins us live with the latest.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:05 AM	4/5	120	WGN Morning News	Week two of the Derek Chauvin trial begins today in Minneapolis. Testimony this week is expected to turn toward his training, after the first week was dominated by emotional witness testimony. Dan is here with the latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:30 AM	4/5	120	WGN Morning News	Two new mass vaccination sites are opening today on the North and South Sides. Judy Wang is live outside one of those sites near Wrigley Field.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/5	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:00 PM	4/5	120	WGN Midday News	Changes coming to the Chicago police dept after the shooting death of a 13-year-old boy one week ago today.
9.1	Politics	12:28 PM	4/5	120	WGN Midday News	Republicans in Congress have already dug in their heels over President Biden's two-trillion-dollar infrastructure plan.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:12 PM	4/5	120	WGN Early Evening News	Today in the Derek Chauvin trial, the ER doctor who treated George Floyd and the Minneapolis police chief testified. The chief said Chauvin violated several department policies while arresting Floyd. WGN's Sean Lewis is here now with more on today's testimonies.
9.1	Children/Youth	4:22 PM	4/5	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, the emotional health of Chicago kids has suffered during the pandemic. That's the finding of a new survey just published by Lurie Children's Hospital.
9.1	Politics	4:30 PM	4/5	120	WGN Early Evening News	After decades of neglect, Chicago's badly damaged roads and transit lines could be getting a billion-dollar boost from Washington. WGN's political reporter Tahman Bradley is here now with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 PM	4/5	120	WGN Evening News	Community members holding a vigil at this hour for a 13-year-old boy who was shot and killed by Chicago police one week ago today. Now the mayor is demanding big changes to police policies in the wake of the tragedy. WGN's Meghan Dwyer is live in Little Village with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	5:30 PM	4/5	120	WGN Evening News	A surprise twist in the on-going saga over the sale of the Chicago tribune. WGN's Mike Lowe is live at the Tribune's printing plant in River West
9.1	Education	6:02 PM	4/5	120	WGN Evening News	Staff and students at a Chicago elementary school are mourning the loss of a school nurse to COVID-19. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live in west Rogers Park with the story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:04 PM	4/5	120	WGN News at Nine	In response to Adam Toledo's killing, Mayor Lightfoot is calling for Chicago police to create a new foot pursuit policy. The US Justice Department recommended the department adopt a new policy four years ago.
9.1	Government (Local)	9:12 PM	4/5	120	WGN News at Nine	Gary Indiana will see a lot of visitors tomorrow morning-- including the governor. It's all part of the official opening of a mass vaccination site there. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty is in Indiana for us tonight
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	4/6	120	WGN Early Morning News	New overnight, seven people were shot and wounded -- one seriously -- on a street in Englewood. Glenn Marshall is live at University of Chicago hospital, with what we've learned.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:30 AM	4/6	120	WGN Early Morning News	Mayor Lightfoot wants changes made to the police department's policy on chasing people on foot following the shooting death of 13-year-old Adam Toledo. Erik Runge is at police headquarters with the latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/6	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:23 AM	4/6	240	WGN Morning News	Relationship expert Love McPherson is here now to discuss five types of deception and how they affect your relationships.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:00 PM	4/6	120	WGN Midday News	More Americans could be getting COVID-19 vaccinations in the coming weeks. President Biden is moving up the date that requires states to make vaccines available to all adults. The new date is April 19th
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:14 PM	4/6	120	WGN Midday News	An update on our breaking news: a 3-year-old boy shot while in a car on Lake Shore Drive. WGN's Kelly Davis is on the scene with the latest.
9.1	Government (National)	12:30 PM	4/6	120	WGN Midday News	President Biden is expected today to give an update on the COVID-19 vaccine rollout across the country, as the number of cases continues rise. Washington, DC correspondent Trevor Shirley is live with more.
9.1	Government (National)	4:08 PM	4/6	120	WGN Early Evening News	As COVID cases and hospitalizations increase in Illinois, Vice President Kamala Harris visited Chicago to check on progress of the vaccine roll-out. WGN's political reporter Tahman Bradley is live in Chinatown tonight with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:20 PM	4/6	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, the highly contagious UK COVID variant has now been reported in all 50 states. Medical experts worry it could send cases surging.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:28 PM	4/6	120	WGN Early Evening News	Breaking news this afternoon on the city's Southwest Side. WGN's Rob Sneed is on the scene, where shots have been fired outside a school.
9.1	Women's Issues	4:37 PM	4/6	240	WGN Early Evening News	WGN and Nexstar has recognized four finalists for this year's Remarkable Women initiative. These women were nominated for the influence they had on public policy, social progress, and quality of life. WGN's Shannon Halligan reveals the winner of Chicago's Remarkable Women 2021.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:07 PM	4/6	150	WGN Evening News	Now to the latest in the murder trial of former Minneapolis police officer Derek Chauvin. Day 7 of witness testimony focused on the training Chauvin received before that fateful day where he put his knee on the neck of George Floyd. WGN's Sean Lewis joins us now with more on today's testimony.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:42 PM	4/6	150	WGN Evening News	United Airlines wants to bring diversity to the cockpit. A new training program aims to attract more women and minorities to become pilots. WGN's Tonya Francisco explains.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	4/6	120	WGN News at Nine	Right now at nine, we continue to follow breaking news. A toddler is in critical condition, after being wounded in a shooting on Lake Shore Drive. Yet another young victim of Chicago's gun violence. The confrontation, stemmed from an apparent road rage incident.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	National Security	9:13 PM	4/6	300	WGN News at Nine	A new study aims to discover the motivation behind the rioters who participated in the Capitol insurrection in January. University of Chicago political scientist Robert Pape has been looking into that and just published a new study. He joins us now live.
9.1	Education	9:22 PM	4/6	120	WGN News at Nine	Voters in the Warren Township high school district voted on a referendum to determine the future of the district, which is in a fiscal crisis. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live in Gurnee with the story.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:30 AM	4/7	120	WGN Early Morning News	A referendum to raise taxes for schools in Warren Township in Lake County, has been voted down. 55 Percent voted against the measure. 44 Percent voted in favor. Erik Runge is live at Warren Township high school with more on the possible impact of the vote.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/7	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Community	8:17 AM	4/7	180	WGN Morning News	The Presser family has recreated scenes from more than 50 movies. Their videos have caught the attention of thousands of people including actor Will Smith. Now they are using their new internet fame to help raise money for charity.
9.1	Consumer Issues	9:19 AM	4/7	360	WGN Morning News	It's tax time, and there are some things to know. The IRS just released new information about more people getting

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						14-hundred dollars. Terry Savage is here with some tax tips and to answer your questions.
9.1	Government (National)	12:15 PM	4/7	120	WGN Midday News	Starting next week families of those who died from COVID-19 can apply for government funds to help cover the cost of their loved one's funerals. Washington correspondent Trevor Shirley is live with more on this
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:03 PM	4/7	180	WGN Early Evening News	After more than a year of lockdowns, and pandemic enforced isolation, Chicagoans are looking forward to life after COVID-19. But a rise in cases is raising the troubling prospect that tighter restrictions could make a comeback. WGN's Mike Lowe is live in Wrigleyville with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:08 PM	4/7	120	WGN Early Evening News	Now to a developing story, a teenager missing from his Northwest Side home since yesterday, reunited with his family just a few hours ago. WGN was there when mom got the news he had been found on the South Side.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:25 PM	4/7	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, the AstraZeneca COVID-19 vaccine is possibly linked to a rare, blood clotting disorder. That's according to the European Medicines Agency today.
9.1	Education	4:29 PM	4/7	120	WGN Early Evening News	A recent spike in COVID cases in the city leads the Chicago Teachers Union to call on the mayor to delay the return to in person learning at high schools. But the mayor doesn't agree. WGN's

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						Tonya Francisco is here now with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:37 PM	4/7	240	WGN Early Evening News	The pandemic is causing a lot of strain on mental health. And as we see more places reopen and larger crowds, more people are feeling some level of anxiety. Dr. Michael Moreno is a psychiatrist with Cook County Health, and he joins us to talk about coping with that anxiety.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00 PM	4/7	120	WGN Evening News	Developing right now, Lurie Children's Hospital reports the toddler shot in the temple on Lake Shore Drive yesterday during a road rage incident remains in critical condition, but his condition has not gotten worse.
9.1	Elderly	6:03 PM	4/7	120	WGN Evening News	Seniors and other homebound residents in Lake County can now get vaccinated against COVID because the county is bringing the shots to them. WGN's Jenna Barnes is live in Highland Park with the details.
9.1	Education	6:28 PM	4/7	120	WGN Evening News	The Chicago Teachers Union wants to delay in-person learning for high school students. But the mayor doesn't see it that way. WGN's Tonya Francisco is here with the story.
9.1	Business & Industry	9:00 PM	4/7	120	WGN News at Nine	Baseball is back on the South Side tomorrow. White sox fans will be allowed back in the ballpark for tomorrow's home opener. WGN's Pat Elwood is live at Guaranteed Rate Field

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:13 PM	4/7	300	WGN News at Nine	Day eight of testimony in the Derek Chauvin trial in Minneapolis. Washington Post reporter Kim Bellware is following it all. She joins us live with more on today's testimony.
9.1	Government (National)	5:38 AM	4/8	120	WGN Early Morning News	President Biden will announce a series of executive actions, today, aimed at gun control. Anna Wiernicki has more from Washington.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/8	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Education	7:30 AM	4/8	180	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Ryan Griffin of Chicago Parents Collective, a group of parents calling for a more comprehensive reopening plan for students.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:00 AM	4/8	120	WGN Morning News	Police are investigating an officer involved shooting. This happened on Harlem Avenue, just above Interstate 290. Erik Runge is live at the scene with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:15 PM	4/8	120	WGN Midday News	The state of Illinois is again expanding eligibility for COVID-19 vaccinations. WGN's Julian Crews is live at a mass vaccination site in Forest Park with more on the story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:22 PM	4/8	180	WGN Midday News	On the Medical Watch, nurses -- their life in pictures and words. It was a little more than a year ago when frontline workers at Advocate Christ Medical Center started documenting their emotions and observations from

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						inside the COVID units. Now, the collection of essays and photos has been published in a newly released book titled 'Through Our Eyes.'
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:28 PM	4/8	120	WGN Early Evening News	New details on this morning's shootout in Oak Park that left a police officer and the suspect wounded. WGN's Jenna Barnes is live in Maywood with the latest.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 PM	4/8	120	WGN Evening News	A man faces charges in the shooting on Lake Shore Drive this week that left a toddler in critical condition. The person charged was in the car with the young victim. He appeared in court today. WGN's Mike Lowe is live at Lurie Children's Hospital with the latest.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:06 PM	4/8	120	WGN Evening News	Another mass shooting, this one left five people dead. It happened in Rock Hill, South Carolina. The suspect, a former NFL player, killed himself. Ryan Kruger joins us live from the York County Sheriff's Office.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:09 PM	4/8	120	WGN Evening News	In Central Illinois, the family of an African American university student demands answers after their daughter, a freshman basketball star, is beaten in a nightclub. The man accused of beating her is the bar's owner as WGN's Jackie Bange reports.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	4/8	120	WGN News at Nine	Right now at nine- breaking news - a baby, found unresponsive by police on the far South Side. WGN's Rob Sneed is live with more on the case.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	9:10 PM	4/8	120	WGN News at Nine	Meanwhile, a spike in cases forcing the University of Chicago to implement its own "stay at home" order for students after an outbreak on campus. WGN's Shannon Halligan joins us from the newsroom and tells us officials believe it's linked to off-campus fraternity parties.
9.1	Government (National)	9:13 PM	4/8	120	WGN News at Nine	President Biden has unveiled the first steps in his plan to tackle gun violence -- which he describes as an "epidemic" sweeping the country. Among those steps, action which would address a growing issue, right here in Chicago.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:30 AM	4/9	120	WGN Early Morning News	On Monday Illinois will open up vaccinations to anyone 16 and older, Chicago however is waiting another week. The new eligibility rules come as Illinois sees an uptick in COVID 19 cases. Erik Runge is live in south suburban Dixmoor this morning with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00 AM	4/9	120	WGN Morning News	Developing this morning, the outlook is brightening, for the young victim of a road rage shooting on Lake Shore Drive. And one of the men involved is free on bond. Judy is live at Lurie Children's Hospital.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/9	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	11:47 AM	4/9	270	WGN Midday News	There's a new push to give businesses a boost in one Chicago neighborhood. "Celebrate Argyle" is a community initiative focusing on immigrant-owned restaurants and businesses. Joining us now with details are Sany Nguyen and Jennifer Pham.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:23 PM	4/9	180	WGN Midday News	On the Medical Watch, an unexpected drop in the national suicide rate. Preliminary government data shows suicides fell nearly 6-percent last year, defying what officials feared would happen during the pandemic.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:00 PM	4/9	120	WGN Early Evening News	A record number of COVID-19 vaccines were administered in Illinois yesterday. But the accomplishment comes as infections and hospitalizations rise in the state. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty is live at Rush University Medical Center with details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:22 PM	4/9	180	WGN Early Evening News	When COVID-19 reared its ugly head over a year ago Governor Pritzker, Mayor Lightfoot and other officials put out a call for volunteers to step forward and help in whatever way they could. Retired Chicago nurse Mary Meadows answered that call. She is just one example of hundreds of medical volunteers who are helping to get everyone vaccinated. WGN video-journalist Patrick Parmenter has her story

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	4:30 PM	4/9	120	WGN Early Evening News	Chicago's Riverwalk is reopening today. Several vendors are back with more to be phased in over the coming weeks. WGN's Jenna Barnes is live on the Riverwalk with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 PM	4/9	120	WGN Evening News	The 13-year-old who was shot and killed by Chicago police last week was laid to rest today. Adam Toledo's family will view video of the shooting next week before it's made public. WGN's Rob Sneed joins us now with the latest.
9.1	Employment	5:04 PM	4/9	120	WGN Evening News	As more people get vaccinated and restrictions ease, more folks are leaving their homes to dine out. But restaurants are now struggling to find enough workers. WGN's Dana Rebik has the story behind the shortage.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:05 PM	4/9	120	WGN Evening News	The number of vaccines administered in the state are also increasing. A record amount was administered yesterday. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty is live at Rush University Medical Center, which celebrated a milestone.
9.1	Transportation	6:31 PM	4/9	210	WGN Evening News	Just when it seemed Boeing solved its problems with the 737-max jets, another problem emerges. Joining us now is aviation expert, Professor Joe Schwieterman, from DePaul university.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:06 PM	4/9	120	WGN News at Nine	Starting today, Uber says it is strengthening its verification process for the safety of its drivers. it's a response to a rash of crimes against drivers including shootings and carjacking's here in Chicago. WGN's Shannon Halligan is live in the newsroom with details.
9.1	Community	9:45 PM	4/9	180	WGN News at Nine	She was just trying to help a friend with a limb difference. But when her social media post requesting a pair of knitted gloves received an overwhelming response, she knew she had to do more. Developing a Facebook connection for those in search of the perfect fit with those willing to lend a hand. Micah Materre introduces us to Rena Rosen, one of Chicago's Very Own.
9.1	Cultural	6:31 AM	4/10	540	Adelante Chicago	Chicago's Latino Film Festival was one of the first events last year that had to take a back seat due to the pandemic. This year - it had to make some adjustments but it's back.
9.1	Education	6:42 AM	4/10	290	Adelante Chicago	Schools need more male teachers walking the halls. We take a look at a program designed to bring more Latino and Black men into the classroom.
9.1	Community	6:54 AM	4/10	240	Adelante Chicago	Two international organizations are thinking local. They've created "Roosevelt Square Community Center" a state-of-the-art center in an area that's home to one of the largest Latino communities in the city.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Consumer Issues	9:10 AM	4/10	270	WGN Weekend Morning News	Erin Lowry is on a mission to help young adults get their financial life together. What started as a blog has now turned into three books. Her latest is called "Broke Millennial talks money: scripts, stories, and advice to navigate awkward financial conversation." Erin Lowry joins us live.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:28 PM	4/10	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Illinois just set a new vaccination record for the third day in a row. More than 175-thousand shots were administered Friday. But some communities of color still lag behind those numbers. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty has details on a new initiative hoping to fix the disparity.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:31 PM	4/10	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A coalition of small business owners is trying to educate their communities about the safety of the COVID-19 vaccines in order to get the economy back on track.
9.1	Community	9:36 PM	4/10	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Water Street Studio in Batavia is all about supporting local artists. And about teaching the community how to make art. WGN's Marcella Raymond that story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:03 AM	4/11	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	There are new details about what we'll see when body cam video is released of a Chicago police officer shooting a 13-year-old suspect. Judy Wang is here with the latest on the Adam Toledo case.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Environment	5:00 PM	4/11	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	More than 100 people marched through Little Village to mark the anniversary of a botched factory demolition that sent a cloud of dust over the Southwest Side neighborhood, creating serious concerns over air pollution. WGN Mike Lowe is live in Little Village with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:06 PM	4/11	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	The push to get the vaccine into underserved areas got a boost today. Two hundred people got their first shot at a live-in recovery home in the south suburbs. After more than a year of strict lockdown measures, they're now one step closer to getting back to normal. WGN's Judy Wang has more from Blue Island.
9.1	Environment	5:22 PM	4/11	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Indoor plants have been all the rage during the pandemic. Marcella Raymond takes us to a store in Pilsen where plants are a good place to start if you want to be a conscientious consumer.
9.1	Environment	5:28 PM	4/11	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Some Glenview residents are rallying to save their wildlife neighbors. Or at least have them removed humanely. WGN's Jenna Barnes is live in Glenview where the fight is on to save the beavers.
9.1	Government (National)	5:31 PM	4/11	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	As Congress gets back to work after a two-week recess, Democrats' top priority is passing President Biden's infrastructure package. But as Washington correspondent Alexandra

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						Limon reports, many Republicans are ready to fight saying the bill is just too expensive.
9.1	Community	5:40 PM	4/11	150	WGN Weekend Evening News	A return to normalcy means finding homes for residents of an animal shelter in Logan Square. They reopened their adoption shelter today, after closing due to the COVID-19 pandemic. WGN's Sean Lewis has that story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:00 PM	4/11	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Next week, the United Center site will start offering the Johnson and Johnson vaccine to city residents and outside the city, the next vaccine phase begins tomorrow.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	4/12	120	WGN Early Morning News	Breaking news on the Eisenhower this morning. Part of the highway is shut down After a deadly shooting.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:30 AM	4/12	120	WGN Early Morning News	It's been a busy night for burglars, on the near North Side, and the South Side. Judy Wang is live in River North with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:05 AM	4/12	120	WGN Morning News	Protests have erupted in Minneapolis after police fatally shot a black man during a traffic stop. Lauren joins us with more on this story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/12	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:34 AM	4/12	180	WGN Morning News	An 8-year-old in Glenview is getting recognition for her thoughts on why everyone needs to get the COVID-19 vaccine. Sloane Mokhtarian's thoughts

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						were published in an op-ed article on patch.com.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:45 AM	4/12	270	WGN Midday News	The author of a new book says there's a way to get to the root cause of relationship issues like co-dependency, anxiety, depression and resentment. Nedra Glover Tawwab is a licensed therapist who wrote, "Set Boundaries, Find Peace: a guide to reclaiming yourself". She's joining us live now from North Carolina
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:24 PM	4/12	180	WGN Midday News	On the Medical Watch: the impact of vaccine inequity on global herd immunity against COVID-19.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:02 PM	4/12	120	WGN Early Evening News	A big step forward for Illinois in its vaccination campaign. Starting today, everyone ages 16 or over will be eligible to get the COVID-19 shot almost anywhere in the state. WGN's Tonya Francisco is live in Des Plaines with more
9.1	Education	4:06 PM	4/12	120	WGN Early Evening News	Chicago Public high school teachers may not return to their classroom for next week's re-start of in-person learning. It's the latest dispute between the teacher's union and the district over the safety of reopening.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:23 PM	4/12	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, a medication that could be a big blow to COVID-19. Medical reporter Dina Bair is here with details.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Politics	4:28 PM	4/12	120	WGN Early Evening News	Congress is back after a two-week break, and today President Biden opened up the White House doors to a select few for a pitch on his infrastructure plan. WGN's Washington correspondent Trevor Shirley is in DC with more.
9.1	Community	4:31 PM	4/12	120	WGN Early Evening News	Hundreds of kids on Chicago's South Side are getting an upgrade today. Volunteers refreshed east little league's fields as part of national volunteer month. A small gesture, that could last a lifetime. WGN's Patrick Elwood is in Hegewisch with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:00 PM	4/12	120	WGN Evening News	Some people are traveling out of state to receive a COVID-19 vaccine. One destination: Gary Indiana. That's where WGN's Dana Rebik is, she joins us live tonight
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:10 PM	4/12	120	WGN Evening News	Not far from the Chauvin trail, protests raged after another deadly shooting yesterday involving police. This time, police officials are saying it was a mistake. News Nation's Brian Entin is live in Brooklyn Center Minnesota, just outside Minneapolis to show us what happened.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:30 PM	4/12	120	WGN Evening News	Illinois taking a major step forward in its vaccination campaign today. 16-Year-olds are now eligible to get the shot almost everywhere across the state, with one very large exception. WGN's Tonya Francisco is live in Des Plaines with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Politics	5:33 PM	4/12	120	WGN Evening News	New at five: a once-in-a-decade debate over legislative boundaries across Illinois has Republican lawmakers feeling left out. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is here to explain what's next in the redistricting process.
9.1	Community	6:05 PM	4/12	180	WGN Evening News	Folks in west suburban Downers Grove are rallying to help the beloved owner of the "Busy Bee" bakery. He's been hospitalized with COVID-19 for three weeks and may need a lung transplant. WGN's Mike Lowe is live in Downers Grove with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:05 PM	4/12	120	WGN News at Nine	We're learning more about the man gunned down in a Northwest Side parking lot last Sunday. Friends and family are still mourning the loss of 28-year-old Jakub Marchewka, as the search for his killer continues. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live on the north side with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:12 PM	4/12	120	WGN News at Nine	More breaking news tonight. One person is dead, and a police officer is wounded in a shooting at a Tennessee high school. It's one of several shooting incidents connected to that school, just this year. WGN's Shannon Halligan has the latest.
9.1	Education	6:33 AM	4/13	120	WGN Morning News	Developing this morning, Chicago public high school teachers want a new plan before returning to their classrooms for next week's re-start of in-person learning. We're joined now

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						by CTU vice president, Stacy Davis Gates.
9.1	Employment	6:45 AM	4/13	120	WGN Morning News	People with criminal convictions make up nearly one-third of the working-age population, according to the American Bar Association. Jeffrey Korzenik says giving people a second chance is not just a good cause, it's crucial for businesses that want to stay competitive. He's an investment strategist, and the author of "untapped talent: how second chance hiring works for your business and the community."
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/13	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:02 AM	4/13	120	WGN Morning News	Glenn Marshall is here with the latest on the investigation into Wright's death.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:04 AM	4/13	120	WGN Morning News	The defense is expected to begin presenting its case today in the trial of Derek Chauvin. Yesterday, jurors heard from the brother of George Floyd, a use of force expert and a cardiologist from Northwestern memorial hospital.
9.1	Education	11:47 AM	4/13	270	WGN Midday News	Another college admissions season is here, and the pandemic continues to change the way families plan for the future. One issue, many high school seniors may find themselves waitlisted. Joining us now to explain what that

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						means and how to get back on track if it happens is Dr. Cynthia Colon
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:00 PM	4/13	120	WGN Midday News	WGN's Sean Lewis is live at the United Center's Mass Vaccination with more on our top story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:12 PM	4/13	120	WGN Midday News	On the Medical Watch: a Medicaid extension will help new mothers in Illinois with post-partum health care.
9.1	Education	12:21 PM	4/13	120	WGN Midday News	A high school with a storied basketball history, just announced it is closing permanently. Julian Crews is outside Saint Joseph High School, in west suburban Westchester with the story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:06 PM	4/13	120	WGN Early Evening News	Now to the suburbs of Minneapolis where a police chief has resigned and so has the officer who said she mistook her gun for a taser accidentally shooting and killing a man.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:23 PM	4/13	120	WGN Early Evening News	Six out of 6.8 Million people who got the Johnson and Johnson vaccine got rare brain blood clots called cerebral venous sinus thromboses. But doctors say those same people not only got the vaccine, they previously had COVID-19.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:13 PM	4/13	120	WGN Evening News	Developing this evening: Chicago braces for potential protests across the city. Aldermen anticipate demonstrations when police release body cam video showing the shooting of 13-year-old Adam Toledo. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is live on Michigan Avenue with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	4/13	120	WGN News at Nine	WGN's Gaynor Hall has been following the latest developments in that story all afternoon. She joins us live from Grant Park
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:18 PM	4/13	120	WGN News at Nine	The long Chicago Fire Department tradition of housing firehouse dogs will now come to an end. The department had to ban the animals after a dog killed a passing pet.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:44 PM	4/13	120	WGN News at Nine	Police reform was the subject of a meeting today involving President Biden, Vice President Harris, and Congressional black caucus leaders. Raquel Martin has details from Washington, DC.
9.1	Cultural	9:52 PM	4/13	120	WGN News at Nine	The economic fallout from the COVID pandemic continues. Today we learned two Chicago area movie theaters will be closing their doors permanently. WGN's Tonya Francisco has the story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:36 AM	4/14	120	WGN Early Morning News	A committee with the Centers for Disease Control is holding an emergency meeting today about the Johnson and Johnson vaccine. The vaccine's distribution was put on pause after six people developed an uncommon blood clot. Basil John has the story from Washington.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:02 AM	4/14	120	WGN Morning News	Developing this morning, the family of Adam Toledo has now seen the police bodycam video showing the boy's deadly encounter with Chicago police. Glenn is live in East Village with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	6:32 AM	4/14	120	WGN Morning News	The Chicago Teachers Union says its high school teachers will teach today but not from their classrooms. The union and CPS are trying to work out a re-opening agreement that would get high school students back in class on Monday. Erik Runge is live this morning with the latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/14	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Community	8:15 AM	4/14	180	WGN Morning News	At just 16-year-old, Caleb Smith is an entrepreneur who owns and operates a private 22-acre sanctuary along the Mississippi River called "Peace-Bunny Island." Caleb Smith is with us this morning, to tell us more about his mission.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:19 AM	4/14	360	WGN Morning News	We're looking at this week's health headlines including the change in some people's habits because of the pandemic. Joining us is WGN Morning News medical contributor and Northwestern Medicine physician Dr. Lauren Streicher
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:39 AM	4/14	300	WGN Morning News	It's been a long year and lots of people over-indulged during their time in quarantine. Our pal Dr. Ian Smith is here to help get us back on track. He's got a unique new plan that takes intermittent fasting to the next level by combining restricted eating with a detailed program that helps the burn off the pounds.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Employment	11:15 AM	4/14	240	WGN Midday News	As more people get COVID-19 vaccinations There's a possibility your work environment could change again. We're getting some advice from Johnny Taylor, Jr., President and CEO of "The Society for Human Resource Management".
9.1	Community	12:00 PM	4/14	120	WGN Midday News	The Obama Presidential Center is closer to construction. The city is kicking-off several projects to make way in Jackson Park.
9.1	National Security	12:31 PM	4/14	120	WGN Midday News	Today President Biden is expected to announce a complete withdrawal of us forces from Afghanistan by September 11. Washington correspondent Trevor Shirley is live in DC with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:00 PM	4/14	120	WGN Early Evening News	The expected charges come amid the footage suggesting Kim Potter meant to use her taser against Daunte Wright. Gaynor Hall is here now with new details and reaction to today's developments.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:02 PM	4/14	120	WGN Early Evening News	Breaking news on the Adam Toledo shooting. Tomorrow -- COPA, the Civilian Office of Police Accountability, will release body cam video of the shooting. It comes after his family had the chance to video the video. Patrick Elwood is live in the Loop with the latest.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:23 PM	4/14	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, as COVID cases begin to inch up -- a look at how hospitals are faring when it comes to available beds. Medical reporter Dina Bair revisits one ICU, once at maximum capacity, but now concerned again.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:31 PM	4/14	180	WGN Early Evening News	It's known as an unpredictable disease that disrupts the central nervous system. More than a million people battle multiple sclerosis in the US. One Chicago woman didn't let the pandemic slow her down. She's now sharing her positive message with a young following.
9.1	Consumer Issues	4:37 PM	4/14	240	WGN Early Evening News	The pandemic has created a huge financial strain for so many people and despite government stimulus payments, many Americans are going to be feeling the impact on their finances for a while. Money expert Alfred Nickson joins us now with a few tips to recover from all of it.
9.1	National Security	5:05 PM	4/14	120	WGN Evening News	Vaccinating veterans – there's a massive effort underway in the northern suburbs, where a veteran's hospital is partnering with a high school to help give military vets a shot in the arm. WGN's Mike Lowe is live at Cristo Rey College Prep in Waukegan with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:12 PM	4/14	120	WGN Evening News	Developing tonight, the ex-Minnesota police officer who fatally shot Daunte Wright while he was resisting arrest has been charged with second-degree manslaughter. Joining us live in Brooklyn Center is News Nation's Brian Entin with the latest.
9.1	Education	6:29 PM	4/14	120	WGN Evening News	Negotiations continue on a plan to bring Chicago public high school students back to the classroom next Monday. But the Teachers Union says it hasn't agreed to anything yet, and its members won't go to school until a deal is struck. WGN's Dana Rebik is live in Norwood Park with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:10 PM	4/14	120	WGN News at Nine	Developing tonight, a man is facing a felony charge after police say he recorded people in the restroom of the "Sushi Station" restaurant. WGN's Rob Sneed joins us live from Rolling Meadows with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:16 PM	4/14	240	WGN News at Nine	Since the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic more than a year ago, jails across Illinois have been forced to house, cloth and feed scores of inmates who should be in the custody of the Illinois Department of Corrections. WGN Investigates' Ben Bradley looks at the impact of slowed transfers on Illinois sheriffs.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	5:30 AM	4/15	120	WGN Early Morning News	For a second day, CPS high school teachers are refusing to report to work in school. The union and the district are locked in negotiations over a re-opening plan for students ahead of Monday's start date. Erik Runge is live at Juarez High School with the latest.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:04 AM	4/15	120	WGN Morning News	The protest follows the arrest of the officer who shot Wright. Lauren joins us with that part of the story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	7:01 AM	4/15	120	WGN Morning News	Developing this morning any time now, Chicago's Civilian Office of Police Accountability will publicly release police bodycam video of the officer shooting that killed a teenager last month. Glenn is live at police headquarters at 35th and Michigan.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/15	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Employment	11:47 AM	4/15	270	WGN Midday News	In today's Midday Fix, the importance of "parenting loudly" at work and how it can improve your experience at work. We're talking to the author of a new book who can explain what that means. Lorna Borenstein wrote "It's Personal: The Business Case for Caring".
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:00 PM	4/15	120	WGN Early Evening News	The Civilian Office of Police Accountability has just released video in the deadly police shooting of 13-year-old Adam Toledo. The video shows conflicting information with

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						what a proffer described from the Cook County State's Attorney's office. Lourdes you have more on that.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:05 PM	4/15	240	WGN Early Evening News	The Chicago police union is never shy about standing-up for its members. This afternoon: the president of the Fraternal Order of Police, John Catanzara, joins us now.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:24 PM	4/15	240	WGN Early Evening News	The Toledo shooting is just the latest in series of high-profile fatal shootings involving police officers. Joining us now to talk about the police culture and this case is retired LAPD Sergeant Cheryl Dorsey.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:28 PM	4/15	120	WGN Early Evening News	The Toledo family's attorney says the boy didn't have a gun in his hand when he was shot. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty is live in La Grange park with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:33 PM	4/15	120	WGN Early Evening News	Chicago police are looking for two men who carjacked a woman in Wicker Park last night. The woman's two-year old daughter was in the car when it happened. WGN's Jenna Barnes reports.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:05 PM	4/15	120	WGN Evening News	He served as the Chicago police superintendent between 2011 and 2015. And was at the helm during the much-publicized fatal police shooting of Laquan McDonald in October of 2014, by former officer Jason Van Dyke. Joining us to talk about the release of the video of the shooting of Adam Toledo is former Chicago police superintendent Garry McCarthy.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	5:10 PM	4/15	120	WGN Evening News	Businesses in the Loop and other parts of the city are preparing for possible protests following the release of that video showing the fatal police shooting of 13-year-old Adam Toledo. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live in the Loop with more.
9.1	Community	5:30 PM	4/15	120	WGN Evening News	Reaction is pouring in from across the city. WGN's Dana Rebik is live in Little Village with more on the reaction there.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:08 PM	4/15	240	WGN Evening News	Chicago Police tweeting out videos showing their perspective on the shooting saying that Adam Toledo was armed and presented a clear danger to the officer. Let's bring in law enforcement analyst Cedric Alexander, Former President of the National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:31 PM	4/15	210	WGN Evening News	Joining us now is 15th Ward Alderman Raymond Lopez.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:05 PM	4/15	120	WGN News at Nine	Protestors gathered outside Chicago Police Headquarters calling for a complete overhaul of the department. They're also calling for Mayor Lightfoot's resignation. WGN's Rob Sneed is there live with the latest.
9.1	Legal Matters	9:16 PM	4/15	180	WGN News at Nine	For more now on what the legal process could be for this officer, we bring in Craig Futterman.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	9:44 PM	4/15	300	WGN News at Nine	Uncertain times ahead for hundreds of south suburban families tonight. The archdiocese of Chicago is closing four Catholic elementary schools at the end of the school year – and merging two more. It's happening in the face of declining enrollment. But for the families facing the dilemma, especially black and brown families, the options are few and far between.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	4/16	120	WGN Early Morning News	We begin with the latest on the mass shooting in Indianapolis -- where eight people were killed at a FedEx facility there. Glenn Marshall joins us now with the latest.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:02 AM	4/16	120	WGN Early Morning News	Developing this morning, Chicago police now say, the police shooting of Adam Toledo was a split-second decision and at the instant Toledo was shot, he did not have a gun in his hand. Erik Runge is live at police headquarters with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/16	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	7:33 AM	4/16	180	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is retired Los Angeles police department Sergeant Cheryl Dorsey.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:06 AM	4/16	180	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is clinical psychologist and director of Clinical Behavioral Sciences at the University of Illinois at Chicago, Dr Sheela Raja.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	National Security	8:32 AM	4/16	180	WGN Morning News	Secretary of State Antony Blinken made an unannounced visit to Afghanistan. Illinois Congressman Adam Kinzinger is with us this morning to discuss.
9.1	Children/Youth	11:14 AM	4/16	360	WGN Midday News	How can we help our kids process all of the potentially traumatizing information they may be seeing or hearing? Joining us now, Dr. Allison Briscoe-Smith from the Wright Institute. She's a child clinical psychologist who specializes in trauma and issues of race.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:22 PM	4/16	270	WGN Midday News	April is alcohol awareness month, and the pandemic has increased consumption for many. Joining us now, Dr. David Gomel, president and CEO of Rosecrance Health Network.
9.1	Government (National)	12:32 PM	4/16	120	WGN Midday News	Almost 2-billion dollars is on the way to help fight COVID-19 variants. The White House made that announcement earlier today. Washington correspondent Trevor Shirley is live with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:00 PM	4/16	120	WGN Early Evening News	Relatives of the 13-year-old boy who was shot and killed by Chicago police are speaking out. WGN's Julian Crews is live at the scene of the shooting in Little Village with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:02 PM	4/16	120	WGN Early Evening News	Also today: we are learning more about the decorated police officer who fired the fatal shot. WGN's Meghan Dwyer is here now with the latest.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:04 PM	4/16	120	WGN Early Evening News	We continue to follow breaking news out of Indianapolis where we're learning more about what may have sparked a deadly mass shooting at a FedEx warehouse. 8 People were killed. Police have now identified the gunman as a former FedEx employee. Reporter Adrienne Robbins is live in Indianapolis with more.
9.1	Women's Issues	4:22 PM	4/16	180	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, April is alcohol awareness month and recent studies show consumption is up during the pandemic especially among women.
9.1	Community	4:27 PM	4/16	120	WGN Early Evening News	The city is putting more safety precautions in place as the Chicago fire prepare to welcome fans back to Soldier Field for the first time in over a year. WGN's Kelly Davis is live at Soldier Field with a preview.
9.1	Cultural	4:36 PM	4/16	120	WGN Early Evening News	An artistic pop-up is now open in the West Loop. Hi-tech creations by several street artists will dazzle your eyes with digital displays interactive projections and more. WGN video journalist Patrick Parmenter takes us inside.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:05 PM	4/16	120	WGN Evening News	Volunteers in Chicago are joining forces with doctors to help get more people vaccinated, by bringing the shot, right to their door. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty joins us now from Bridgeport with more details

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	6:30 PM	4/16	210	WGN Evening News	With the latest news about Johnson and Johnson vaccine and blood clots, there are some people of color who are reluctant now more than ever to get vaccinated. But as our guest explains, the problem runs deeper than just the latest news. Joining us now is Dr Shondra Loggins Clay, assistant professor in the College of Health and Human Sciences at Northern Illinois University.
9.1	Women's Issues	6:43 PM	4/16	180	WGN Evening News	Pursuing a degree, debt-free. Some CPS graduates qualify to continue their education with free tuition at the city colleges of Chicago. WGN's Gaynor Hall introduces us to one of the recipients of the city's star scholarship.
9.1	Community	9:01 PM	4/16	120	WGN News at Nine	The death of the teen, sparking anger, outrage and calls for reform, as Toledo's family calls for peaceful demonstrations. WGN's Jenna Barnes has been following tonight's crowd through Logan Square.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:11 PM	4/16	120	WGN News at Nine	Tonight, we're learning more about the mass shooting at a FedEx facility in Indianapolis that left 8-people dead. The suspect was a former FedEx employee who was interviewed by FBI agents just last year. WGN's Shannon Halligan joins us with the latest.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:14 PM	4/16	120	WGN News at Nine	A Chicago hospital caught up in a vaccine scandal is back in the vaccination business. A mass vaccination site is set to open next week at Loretto Hospital following a pause on the facility's program last month. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty has more on the fallout and what to expect when the new site opens.
9.1	Community	9:47 PM	4/16	180	WGN News at Nine	They call him the "ramp man." For the past two decades, this former high school teacher has been constructing wheelchair ramps for Des Plaines residents in need. His work along with the support of a local organization and enthusiastic students have allowed many to continue living independently. Paul Bartholomae, he is one of Chicago's Very Own.
9.1	Community	8:00 AM	4/17	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Thousands of people turned out to protest the deadly police shooting of Adam Toledo, following the release of the body cam video. Judy Wang is live in Logan Square with more on their message.
9.1	Legal Matters	5:00 PM	4/17	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	The Cook County State's Attorney's office is investigating why one of its veteran attorneys gave inaccurate information to a judge in a case related to the shooting death of 13-year-old Adam Toledo.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:06 PM	4/17	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	The Cook County public health department took its mobile vaccination program to suburban Morton Grove today. Officials say it's important to bring such sites to people where they live to make vaccinations against the pandemic more easily available. WGN's Judy Wang was there.
9.1	Community	5:08 PM	4/17	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	The Chicago fire is kicking off its home opener at Soldier Field tonight. This time, fans will be in the stands to welcome them back. WGN's Lauren Magiera is live at Soldier Field with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:29 PM	4/17	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	We're learning more this afternoon about some arrests made last night as hundreds of protesters hit the streets calling for justice in the wake of the Adam Toledo shooting. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty joins us now from Logan Square.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:32 PM	4/17	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	The global COVID death toll topped three million today. The news comes amid setbacks in vaccinations and a resurgence of cases in certain countries. Washington correspondent Jessi Turnure reports on US efforts to combat the pandemic domestically and internationally.
9.1	Environment	5:40 PM	4/17	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Even though there could be snow this week gardeners are moving forward with their spring planting. Marcella Raymond reports from Palatine with

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						some expert tips, whether you're a pro or a novice.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:00 AM	4/18	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Three people have been killed and two others injured in a shooting in Wisconsin. WGN's Judy Wang is live in Kenosha County with the details.
9.1	Community	5:00 PM	4/18	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	WGN's Meghan Dwyer is live in Little Village where a march is about to get underway.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:23 PM	4/18	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A northside antique lover took a chance and has opened a store during the pandemic. His motivation: honoring the memory of his mother. Marcella Raymond has the story from Edgewater.
9.1	Education	5:30 PM	4/18	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Chicago Public Schools and the teacher's union have reached an agreement that would send high school students back for in-person learning. WGN's Jenna Barnes is live at CTU headquarters with the very latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:32 PM	4/18	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Dr. Anthony Fauci predicts the hold on the Johnson & Johnson vaccine will be lifted by the end of the week, but he says there may be new warnings attached in connection with a possible link to a handful of cases of blood clots. Washington correspondent Jessi Turnure reports on the vaccine's fate.
9.1	Environment	5:40 PM	4/18	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Illinois is moving up when it comes to producing greener energy. The state now ranks 17th in solar production, up from 33rd three years ago. It comes as the US tries to convince other big

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						countries to curb greenhouse emissions. WGN's Sean Lewis reports.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	4/18	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	A 7-year-old girl is dead tonight after being shot 6 times at a McDonalds drive thru in Lawndale. She was in the car with her dad, who was also shot. WGN's Meghan Dwyer is live at Stroger Hospital with the latest.
9.1	Legal Matters	9:05 PM	4/18	150	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Tomorrow morning, lawyers will begin their closing arguments in Derek Chauvin's murder trial. Dozens of witnesses have testified, painting a picture of what they believe led to George Floyd's death last May. WGN's Erik Runge is live in Minneapolis tonight with a preview of tomorrow's proceedings.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	4/19	120	WGN Early Morning News	Chicago police continue to look for the killer of a 7-year-old girl, as her family pleads for an end to violence. Glenn Marshall is live at Stroger Hospital with more.
9.1	Legal Matters	5:30 AM	4/19	120	WGN Early Morning News	Closing arguments begin soon, the trial of former Minneapolis police officer Derek Chauvin, for the murder of George Floyd. Craig Treadway from our sister station, WPIX, is live in Minneapolis with the latest.
9.1	Education	6:35 AM	4/19	120	WGN Morning News	Some Chicago public high school students will be back for in-person classes today for the first time since the start of the pandemic. Judy Wang is live at Lane Tech with details.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/19	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Legal Matters	8:05 AM	4/19	210	WGN Morning News	Closing arguments will begin soon in the trial of former Minneapolis police officer Derek Chauvin for the murder of George Floyd. For more on what we can expect this week, WGN legal analyst Terry Sullivan joins us on the phone.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:22 PM	4/19	120	WGN Early Evening News	All Chicagoans are now eligible to get the COVID vaccine including those 16 and older. WGN's Tonya Francisco is live at the United Center with the details.
9.1	Education	4:30 PM	4/19	210	WGN Early Evening News	Believe it or not, the school year for most kids wraps up in two months, and many kids and parents can't wait for the summer break. But after a year of e-learning and learning disruptions at school some kids may really suffer learning loss. Learning specialist Mara Koffman joins us to talk about some things parents should consider, to avoid that "summer slide".
9.1	Employment	5:09 PM	4/19	120	WGN Evening News	More positions are opening in Chicagoland restaurants and people are getting trained to take them. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live at the first-ever culinary apprenticeship class at McCormick Place.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Politics	5:30 PM	4/19	120	WGN Evening News	Two years into her tenure at City Hall, Mayor Lori Lightfoot is facing criticism and questions about her future. The mayor taking a strong stance against those detractors, after her name was trending on twitter throughout the weekend. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is here with more on that story tonight.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:33 PM	4/19	360	WGN Evening News	Just like our nation's restaurants and retail stores, many of the summer camps across America have been hit hard during the pandemic. Some were even put out of business. But this is a new year, and camps of all kinds are back in business. WGN's Julie Unruh gives us a glance at what things will look like this summer.
9.1	Legal Matters	6:00 PM	4/19	180	WGN Evening News	The jury is now deliberating the fate of former Minneapolis police officer Derik Chauvin. In today's closing arguments, prosecutors and defense attorneys sparred over whether Chauvin should be held responsible for George Floyd's death. WGN's Erik Runge is live in Minneapolis and joins us now with more on the trial's final day.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:03 PM	4/19	120	WGN Evening News	Mayor Lori Lightfoot is asking for national guard reinforcements ahead of the Chauvin verdict. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live at McCormick Place with details

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Legal Matters	6:31 PM	4/19	210	WGN Evening News	Joining us now is WGN's political analyst Paul Lisnek to go over some key moments during closing arguments.
9.1	Community	9:04 PM	4/19	120	WGN News at Nine	Now to a developing story, an emotional vigil tonight - in memory of a seven-year-old girl, shot and killed yesterday while waiting in a car in a Homan Square McDonald's drive thru. The first grader shot six times. WGN's Dana Rebik is live at Chicago police headquarters, with the family's pleas
9.1	Education	9:15 PM	4/19	120	WGN News at Nine	A milestone today in the nation's third largest school district. Chicago public high schools reopening for the first time in over a year. WGN's Jenna Barnes is live at Walter Payton college prep with more details
9.1	Community	5:43 AM	4/20	120	WGN Early Morning News	A community is still reeling after a 7-year-old girl was shot and killed in a McDonald's drive thru over the weekend. Last night, her family gathered for a vigil to honor the first grader. Meghan Dwyer joins us live with the latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/20	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Legal Matters	7:30 AM	4/20	120	WGN Morning News	Jury deliberations are set to resume, to decide whether former Minneapolis police officer Derek Chauvin will be held criminally liable in George

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						Floyd's death. Craig Treadway joins us live from Minneapolis with the latest.
9.1	Legal Matters	8:02 AM	4/20	180	WGN Morning News	Congresswoman Maxine Waters added a new layer of controversy to the Chauvin trial over the weekend when she called upon protesters to get, in her words, "more confrontational," if Chauvin is acquitted. Here to discuss more, is WGN political analyst Paul Lisnek.
9.1	Environment	8:12 AM	4/20	180	WGN Morning News	At just 10 years old, Scarlett Harper is working to save the bees. She's even teamed up with Illinois Representative Robyn Gabel in an effort to pass what is now known as the 'Bee Bill'. Scarlett is with us this morning, to tell us more about the 'Bee Bill' and how she plans to help make it happen.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:13 PM	4/20	120	WGN Midday News	A temporary halt in Johnson and Johnson COVID-19 vaccinations isn't slowing Chicago's push to distribute shots. WGN's Sean Lewis is live at Chicago State University's mass vaccination site with more on the story.
9.1	Minority Issues	12:31 PM	4/20	120	WGN Midday News	Latino lawyers and community leaders are calling for a federal investigation into the fatal police shooting of 13-year-old Adam Toledo. WGN's Julian Crews is live Pilsen with more.
9.1	Legal Matters	4:00 PM	4/20	120	WGN Early Evening News	Jurors have made their decision and found former Minneapolis police officer Derek Chauvin guilty of the murder of George Floyd. WGN's Erik

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						Runge is live in Minneapolis with the latest.
9.1	Legal Matters	4:02 PM	4/20	120	WGN Early Evening News	The May 25th, 2020 death of George Floyd elicited protests and outrage across the United States. We're taking a look at what happened in the courtroom today a short time ago. Bronagh Tumulty is in the newsroom with that.
9.1	Government (Local)	4:04 PM	4/20	120	WGN Early Evening News	Chicago Mayor Lori Lightfoot says the city is prepared for demonstrators as a result of the verdict. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live in Daley Plaza with more on our coverage
9.1	Politics	4:06 PM	4/20	120	WGN Early Evening News	We are getting reaction from lawmakers to the verdict. WGN's political reporter Tahman Bradley is here now with that.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:23 PM	4/20	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, the CDC issuing new cleaning guidelines to protect against COVID-19.
9.1	Housing	4:32 PM	4/20	120	WGN Early Evening News	Rent control. WGN's political reporter Tahman Bradley is here now with details.
9.1	Community	5:07 PM	4/20	120	WGN Evening News	Reaction pouring in right now over the Chauvin guilty verdict across Chicago. WGN's Mike Lowe is live in Hyde Park with the very latest
9.1	Minority Issues	5:10 PM	4/20	120	WGN Evening News	We want to bring Dr. Tanya Sorrell now. She is an associate professor of psychiatry at Rush. She works to increase access to underserved communities. And what type of impact

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						can this trial and verdict have on the community.
9.1	Cultural	5:12 PM	4/20	120	WGN Evening News	Tonight, millions of dollars in local relief for local artists. Mayor Lightfoot announced arts 77 -- a 60-million-dollar recovery plan that supports artists and organizations. WGN's Rob Sneed has the story from Englewood.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:29 PM	4/20	210	WGN Evening News	Joining us now is Sheila Bedi -a Northwestern university law professor and civil rights expert. what does the verdict mean for police reform?
9.1	Community	9:13 PM	4/20	120	WGN News at Nine	No large crowd but there were people who gathered in Daley Plaza in the Loop to share their reactions to the verdict. WGN's Patrick Elwood is there tonight with that part of our coverage.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:34 AM	4/21	120	WGN Early Morning News	Police in Columbus, Ohio took just hours to release bodycam video of an officer shooting and killing a knife-wielding teenager yesterday. Jenna Barnes is here with the details.
9.1	Legal Matters	5:44 AM	4/21	120	WGN Early Morning News	We continue to follow developing news in Minneapolis where former officer Derek Chauvin has been found guilty in the death of George Floyd. Joining us now, civil rights attorney and former Cook County prosecutor Michael Oppenheimer
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	7:03 AM	4/21	180	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is police accountability activist, Eric Russell, from the Tree of Life Justice League.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/21	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:19 AM	4/21	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Legal Matters	7:33 AM	4/21	210	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dan Herbert, the attorney who represented former Chicago cop Jason Van Dyke in the shooting death of Laquan McDonald.
9.1	Legal Matters	8:05 AM	4/21	240	WGN Morning News	WGN legal analyst Terry Sullivan joins us on the phone to discuss more.
9.1	Consumer Issues	9:20 AM	4/21	360	WGN Morning News	Turning to finance now, expert Terry Savage joins us to answer some of your questions and discuss other money matters.
9.1	Technology	11:16 AM	4/21	150	WGN Midday News	Apple's latest gadget helps you keep track of your stuff. Rich Demuro explains in today's tech smart.
9.1	Employment	11:44 AM	4/21	300	WGN Midday News	Half of all adults in the US have now received at least one dose of the COVID-19 vaccine, prompting questions about how the shot may or may not affect your status in the office. Here with help breaking down this subject, Johnny Taylor Jr, President and CEO of "The society for human resource management".

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:02 PM	4/21	120	WGN Midday News	And police reform is a big focus in Washington today. The Justice Department announcing a federal investigation into the Minneapolis police department. Meanwhile Congress also facing calls to restart talks on police reform. Washington correspondent Trevor Shirley is live in DC with more
9.1	Government (Local)	12:15 PM	4/21	150	WGN Midday News	For the first time since the COVID-19 outbreak began, Chicago aldermen had the option today to gather in person. They're covering several issues: from housing to police oversight. WGN's Julian Crews is live at City Hall with details.
9.1	Women's Issues	12:33 PM	4/21	300	WGN Midday News	After three years, nine rounds of IVF and ten doctors, an author has written a new book to share her experience with others about the struggle to start a family. New York Times columnist Amy Klein wrote "The Trying Game: get through fertility treatment and get pregnant without losing your mind". She joins us now to talk about her journey and the hope it can help others
9.1	Politics	12:45 PM	4/21	180	WGN Midday News	Marking the latest milestone in the effort to get more American's vaccinated. President Joe Biden is set to meet his goal of 200-million-COVID vaccines into the arms of Americans in his first 100 days in office.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:07 PM	4/21	120	WGN Early Evening News	The city of Chicago is giving Loretto Hospital another shot and allowing it to resume COVID-19 vaccinations to get more of the city's most at risk residents vaccinated. WGN's Tonya Francisco is live at Loretto Hospital with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:23 PM	4/21	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, a red flag for pregnant women. Medical reporter Dina Bair is here to explain.
9.1	Education	4:28 PM	4/21	120	WGN Early Evening News	Naperville school district 203 has more than 700 students in quarantine district wide. But most don't have COVID. Just 25 students have tested positive so far. WGN's Rob Sneed joins us live from Naperville Central high school with the reasons behind keeping so many students at home.
9.1	Community	4:37 PM	4/21	180	WGN Early Evening News	Getting out of gangs and off the streets. A non-profit in Bedford Park offers young men and women an alternative by teaching them a trade. WGN photojournalist Patrick Parmenter takes us inside the "Automotive Mentoring Group".
9.1	Legal Matters	5:00 PM	4/21	120	WGN Evening News	We begin with breaking news -- it's the most detailed look yet at the sprawling corruption case against Alderman Ed Burke. In a brief made public today, prosecutors called the longtime "dean of the Chicago city council", "thoroughly corrupt." WGN's Mike Lowe joins us now with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	5:31 PM	4/21	120	WGN Evening News	While many see the guilty verdict as progress in the system. They also say there is a lot more work to be done. One of the Floyd family attorneys, based here in Chicago, is Tony Romanucci. He joins us live now to talk more about the verdict.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:02 PM	4/21	120	WGN Evening News	Chicago aldermen took part in their first in-person city council meeting since the pandemic started. Police oversight was one of the top issues. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live in the Loop with the story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:31 PM	4/21	120	WGN Evening News	A teen from LaGrange is taking a personal battle and making it a very public fight to help other young athletes living with mental health issues. Her family filed a lawsuit after she was removed from her top tier u-14 hockey team when she revealed she was having thoughts of suicide.
9.1	Legal Matters	6:32 PM	4/21	120	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to talk about the verdict is Joe Roddy. He's a former assistant Cook County State's Attorney.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	4/21	120	WGN News at Nine	Still no arrests in the murder of seven-year-old Jaslyn Adams. And tonight, her family, including her injured father gathered for a vigil. WGN's Gaynor Hall is live on the West Side
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	4/22	120	WGN Early Morning News	New overnight, the West Pullman neighborhood saw two deadly shootings. Jenna Barnes is live at area-two police headquarters with what we know so far.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Legal Matters	5:30 AM	4/22	120	WGN Early Morning News	We're getting new details on the federal government's investigation into powerhouse Alderman Ed Burke. Erik Runge is live at Burke's 14th ward office with details of revelations in newly released government documents.
9.1	Legal Matters	8:12 AM	4/22	180	WGN Morning News	The documentary "the third strike" follows a group of women known as "The Decarceration Collective". Their mission is to free people unfairly sentenced to life in federal prison for nonviolent drug crimes. Attorney Miangel Cody is featured in the documentary and is with us this morning to tell us more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:00 PM	4/22	120	WGN Midday News	Gun shots on the six-oh-six trail. Chicago police open-fire on a man suspected of several armed crimes. The man wasn't hit, but he was arrested.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:22 PM	4/22	270	WGN Midday News	Eight people were accidentally given mis-matched second doses of COVID-19 vaccines at a Mariano's pharmacy in Aurora. We're joined now by senior clinical pharmacist with the Northshore University Health system, Hina Patel.
9.1	Environment	12:33 PM	4/22	120	WGN Midday News	Today, in honor of earth day, President Biden laid out his climate goals at a virtual climate Summit hosted by the White House...and attended by forty other world leaders. Washington correspondent Trevor Shirley is live in DC with a look at what the president promised.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:00 PM	4/22	120	WGN Early Evening News	That man is charged with attempted murder in the shooting that ended with a 22-month-old boy shot in the head. WGN's Mike Lowe is live at Chicago police headquarters with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:02 PM	4/22	120	WGN Early Evening News	For the first time: the city's COVID-19 mass vaccination sites will be open for people to get shots "without" an appointment. WGN's Dana Rebik is live in Summit with details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:24 PM	4/22	300	WGN Early Evening News	She's been the public face in the fight against COVID-19 in Illinois. This afternoon: State Health Director Dr. Ngozi Ezike joins us to talk about where things stand in the fight against COVID-19.
9.1	Environment	4:37 PM	4/22	180	WGN Early Evening News	On this earth day, a local company is expanding its efforts to go green. ABT electronics recently opened a new 30-thousand square foot recycling center, allowing the company to recycle 95-percent of its own waste. WGN photojournalist Patrick Parmenter gives us a look.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 PM	4/22	120	WGN Evening News	We're following more breaking news right now. Chicago police arrest the man suspected of shooting a toddler during a road rage incident on Lake Shore Drive. WGN's Mike Lowe is live at police headquarters with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:08 PM	4/22	120	WGN Evening News	An update on two shootings in the West Pullman neighborhood. We've learned a transgender woman was one of two people killed last night. Sources say they two shootings are likely connected. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us live with the latest.
9.1	Education	5:34 PM	4/22	120	WGN Evening News	The ongoing pandemic is putting a damper on celebrations for some high school seniors. Some students say restricted events won't feel the same at all. WGN's Rob Sneed is live at Niles West high school with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:42 PM	4/22	120	WGN Evening News	An update now to the breaking news we are following tonight along the Ike, a police involved shooting has closed the expressway. WGN's Dana Rebik is live at the scene.
9.1	Employment	6:30 PM	4/22	240	WGN Evening News	Now on our back to work segment. There's one company trying to help students, especially those in underserved communities, prepare for the professional world through mentorship and virtual internships. Joining us now is Amir Badr the founder and CEO of "Upkey."
9.1	Business & Industry	9:17 PM	4/22	120	WGN News at Nine	A favorite Wrigleyville watering hole is getting a second chance after shutting down during the pandemic. A new owner has bought Guthrie's tavern and he gave WGN photojournalist Kevin Doellman an inside look at his new plans.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	9:44 PM	4/22	180	WGN News at Nine	"Judas and the Black Messiah" is nominated for Oscars in 5 categories. The film is about Illinois Black Panther leader Fred Hampton and the FBI informant who betrayed him. In tonight's Cover Story – WGN's Gaynor Hall spoke with Hampton's family to separate fact from fiction.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	10:06 PM	4/22	180	WGN News at Ten	The deadly shooting of Adam Toledo is bringing back painful memories for some people who grew up in Little Village. WGN's Dina Bair has more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	4/23	120	WGN Early Morning News	Developing this morning: a suspect in the murder of a seven-year-old girl is now in police custody after officers shot him on the Eisenhower expressway. Judy Wang is live with at police headquarters details.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00 AM	4/23	120	WGN Morning News	We're following breaking news in Little Village this morning a man is dead, after a house fire broke out. Erik is live at the scene.
9.1	Minority Issues	8:17 AM	4/23	180	WGN Morning News	The Spertus center's "critical conversation" series is taking on the subject of race. Yavilah McCoy is a fourth generation African American Orthodox Jew. The professor of Judaic Studies and diversity consultant is one of several speakers participating in next week's event.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:02 PM	4/23	120	WGN Midday News	Lake County AHS just opened a new mass vaccination site. And it's the largest in the county. WGN's Julian

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						Crews is live in Round Lake Beach with a look.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:20 PM	4/23	240	WGN Early Evening News	The Drug Enforcement Administration is holding its annual prescription drug takeback program. Joining us to explain how it works is assistant special agent in charge, Todd Smith.
9.1	Education	4:27 PM	4/23	120	WGN Early Evening News	Chicago Public high school students wrapping up their first week in class since the pandemic began. WGN's Rob Sneed got a look inside at what a high school day looks like now.
9.1	Community	4:41 PM	4/23	120	WGN Early Evening News	Summer in Chicago is starting to look a lot different than it did last year. Some tourist attractions and amusement parks are opening their doors and welcoming back visitors. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty is live in the Loop with the details.
9.1	Community	5:00 PM	4/23	120	WGN Evening News	Tonight, two tributes to seven-year-old Jasyln Adams are taking place as a group on the West Side works to reclaim the streets. Jasyln was shot and killed while sitting in a car with her father at a Homan Square McDonalds drive thru
9.1	Community	5:01 PM	4/23	120	WGN Evening News	A West Side organization wants to reduce violent crime by encouraging neighbors to come outside and engage with young people. It's called "Project Presence". WGN's Gaynor Hall joins us with more on the initiative

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:07 PM	4/23	120	WGN Evening News	Copa, the Civilian Office of Police Accountability, releases video of a police-involved shooting in Brighton Park. A shoplifting suspect was killed, a CPD officer and a security guard were wounded. WGN's Mike Lowe is live at police headquarters with details.
9.1	Employment	5:32 PM	4/23	240	WGN Evening News	Mercy Corps, a global humanitarian aid group, is expanding its paid internship program aimed at creating diversity in the international aid and development arena. Joining us now to talk about the program, Kristine Wilson, the intern program manager.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:11 PM	4/23	210	WGN Evening News	As US officials urge more Americans to get the COVID-19 vaccine, some experts are predicting the country will run into a vaccine supply surplus. The Kaiser family foundation recently did a study that shows the country will reach a tipping point in the next few weeks where people won't be enthusiastic about getting the vaccine. Joining me now is Liz Hamel Vice President and Director of Public Opinion at the Kaiser Family Foundation.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:09 PM	4/23	120	WGN News at Nine	A nightmare in a grocery store in Berwyn this morning when a good Samaritan was stabbed to death as he tried to stop a man who was attacking a girl and her mother. WGN's Gaynor Hall is in Berwyn with more on the story tonight.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	9:45 PM	4/23	180	WGN News at Nine	While many small businesses shuttered for good during the COVID 19 pandemic, one local real estate investor defied the odds. She invested in her community and opened for business with a plan that includes giving back and beautifying her community. Dwan "Dee" Stevens is one of Chicago's Very Own.
9.1	Community	6:31 AM	4/24	618	Adelante Chicago	Less than two weeks ago - the Civilian Office of Police Accountability released the video of the night 13-year-old Adam Toledo was shot and killed in Little Village. The case has generated questions on whether Toledo was holding a gun at the time he was shot....and what he was doing the night of the shooting. While there are many different views on the story, one thing is certain. How does his story help bring light to the lives of so many of our youth in Little Village and communities throughout Chicago? Two Street Outreach Mentors for New Life Centers in Little Village gave us their perspective.
9.1	Education	6:43 AM	4/24	225	Adelante Chicago	Getting out of gangs and off the streets. A non-profit in Bedford Park offers Young Men and Women an alternative by teaching them a trade. We take a closer look at the "Automotive Mentoring Group"

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Consumer Issues	9:09 AM	4/24	270	WGN Weekend Morning News	April is financial literacy month a good time to focus on building up or cleaning up your credit. Marvin and Gloria Smith have some tips. Their new book is called: "The Psychology of Credit: fix your credit score and be able to fund your dreams." Marvin and Gloria Smith join us this morning.
9.1	Community	5:27 PM	4/24	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	WGN first told you about thousands of diapers and baby supplies being stolen from a West Side church's diaper drive. Since our story aired donations poured in. WGN's Rob Sneed is live at Christ Tabernacle Missionary Baptist church where a diaper giveaway is underway.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:31 PM	4/24	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	The Johnson and Johnson vaccine is back in action. Federal officials had recommended a pause due to a rare blood clot disorder. Our Washington correspondent Basil John reports on what went into the decision to resume the vaccine.
9.1	Environment	5:40 PM	4/24	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Volunteers across Chicagoland extended earth day celebrations this weekend, doing their part to clean up. WGN's Sean Lewis has the story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 PM	4/25	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Bond is denied for a man charged with murdering 7-year-old Jaslyn Adams. Tonight, we're learning new information about what police say was his role in the killing and who else may be involved.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Politics	5:05 PM	4/25	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Five years ago, Congressman Luis Gutierrez endorsed Cook County State's Attorney Kim Foxx. Now, he is harshly criticizing her. As WGN's Jenna Barnes tells us, the former US representative accuses Foxx of mishandling the case of Adam Toledo.
9.1	Government (National)	5:13 PM	4/25	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	President Biden's infrastructure plan is facing strong resistance from Republicans and even some Democrats. Our Washington correspondent Basil John reports on efforts to find a compromise plan that can pass in the evenly divided US senate.
9.1	Community	5:24 PM	4/25	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	There was a special surprise on the South Side today. Students from across the Chicago area honored a military family for the sacrifices they've made for our country. WGN's Sean Lewis has the story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:29 PM	4/25	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	If you've had trouble booking a vaccine appointment online, it'll be much easier starting tomorrow to get a walk-in shot – at least for Cook County residents. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty joins us now from outside the United Center.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:38 PM	4/25	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A boutique on the north side is connecting shoppers with independent designers focused on a social mission. WGN's Marcella Raymond takes us inside Embellish Chicago.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Cultural	9:38 PM	4/25	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	The Academy Awards are underway, but they're more subdued this year. Chris Wolfe from our sister station in Los Angeles joins us live with the latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:13 AM	4/26	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Minority Issues	8:45 AM	4/26	270	WGN Morning News	During Daniel Kaluuya's acceptance speech he talked about how inspired he was by the real Fred Hampton and how lucky he felt to be able to tell his story. The fiancé of the late Fred Hampton, Akua Njeri and their son, Fred Hampton Jr join us now with reaction to the film's success.
9.1	Government (Local)	12:00 PM	4/26	120	WGN Midday News	Governor Pritzker just announced a plan to expand COVID-19 resources and vaccine accessibility in communities throughout Illinois.
9.1	Community	12:21 PM	4/26	300	WGN Midday News	After a year of quarantine, chances are many of us have missed moments in friends' lives. But making your friends feel like they are an important part of your life takes a bit of romance. Joining us today to explain why romance isn't just for romantic partners, founder and CEO of "Smart is the New Sexy," Arsiak Vartinian.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	4:10 PM	4/26	120	WGN Early Evening News	Illinois will lose one Congressional seat and some of its power on Capitol Hill, after new census data released today detailed the state's shrinking population. WGN's political reporter Tahman Bradley is here now more on that story
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:22 PM	4/26	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, conflicting advice for women when it comes to mammograms. Medical reporter Dina Bair is here with more on how to interpret the mixed messages.
9.1	Employment	4:27 PM	4/26	120	WGN Early Evening News	New at four, Mayor Lori Lightfoot launched the first phase today of a five-year plan that will help rebuild Chicago's infrastructure while also creating thousands of jobs. WGN's Tonya Francisco is live in Bridgeport with details.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 PM	4/26	120	WGN Evening News	We begin with Chicago taking the fight against gun violence across state lines into Indiana. The city is suing a gun shop in Gary over repeatedly selling weapons to Chicago gangs and felons.
9.1	Employment	5:11 PM	4/26	120	WGN Evening News	There might finally be enough vaccines to go around now which means some companies want to offer the shot to their employees in the workplace. But some employers are realizing not everybody wants one.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	5:33 PM	4/26	120	WGN Evening News	Thousands of students are back in Chicago Public Schools. But Chicago police officers are not. And CPS says they won't be coming back at all this spring. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty is live at Chicago Public School headquarters with more.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:00 PM	4/26	120	WGN Evening News	Evanston residents are getting reparations payments, thanks to a national organization. That's in addition to another program giving money to those who qualify. WGN's Dana Rebik is live from Evanston with the story.
9.1	Government (Local)	9:13 PM	4/26	450	WGN News at Nine	Two years into her first term, Mayor Lori Lightfoot is still facing a problem familiar to her predecessors: how to deliver long-promised change to the city's most neglected neighborhoods? WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is here with tonight's Cover Story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00 AM	4/27	120	WGN Morning News	Two teenagers were critically injured in a drive-by shooting in the South Chicago neighborhood. Glenn Marshall is at Comer Children's Hospital, where they are being treated.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:03 AM	4/27	120	WGN Morning News	We're learning new details about the police shooting of a black man in North Carolina. That shooting has sparked growing calls for transparency. Dan joins us with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Women's Issues	6:45 AM	4/27	180	WGN Morning News	A bipartisan group of elected women from across the state just created the first-of-its-kind "mamas caucus." The coalition is focused on advancing policies to support mothers in Illinois. Josina Morita is the commissioner of the Metropolitan Water Reclamation District and the caucus chair.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/27	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:00 PM	4/27	120	WGN Midday News	The CDC now says under certain conditions you can ditch your mask outside. New guidelines just came out and Washington correspondent Trevor Shirley is here with a breakdown
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:22 PM	4/27	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, a medical feat! Saving a toddler shot in the head. Medical reporter Dina Bair has more on what it took to treat the horrific injury.
9.1	Minority Issues	4:27 PM	4/27	120	WGN Early Evening News	Chicago's DuSable Museum of African American history has been receiving hateful letters in the mail. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live in Washington park with what was in those letters.
9.1	Children/Youth	4:30 PM	4/27	120	WGN Early Evening News	Tonight a 20-thousand square foot clubhouse is under construction for kids in the Northwest suburbs. The Boys and Girls club of South Elgin is slated to open later this year. Organizers gave WGN's Rob Sneed a sneak peek.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:00 PM	4/27	120	WGN Evening News	The world is watching as India battles COVID outbreaks that are crippling the country's health care system. As the crisis worsens, so do the fears of loved ones in the United States who are away from their families abroad.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:30 PM	4/27	120	WGN Evening News	The city of Chicago and community organizations are stepping up their efforts to get the COVID-19 vaccine to more of Chicago's underserved communities. WGN's Tonya Francisco is live in the city's Beverly neighborhood with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	4/27	120	WGN News at Nine	A second suspect is charged with murder in the death of a seven-year-old girl. Police say 21-year-old Demond Goudy was involved in the shooting of Jaslyn Adams, while she was at a McDonald's drive-thru with her father nine days ago.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:05 PM	4/27	120	WGN News at Nine	Investigators are planning to release videos of another deadly police shooting as soon as tomorrow. The family of Anthony Alvarez viewed them today, and their lawyer spoke with reporters afterward.
9.1	Government (National)	5:31 AM	4/28	120	WGN Early Morning News	President Biden will give his first address to a joint session of Congress tonight. He plans to outline his next major legislative priority, a trillion-dollar package focused on childcare and education. Washington Correspondent Jessi Turnure joins us live with a preview.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Cultural	5:35 AM	4/28	120	WGN Early Morning News	If you want to go to a concert or festival in the city this summer, a vaccine passport may be your way in. Jenna's is live at Grant Park to explain a new program rolling out soon.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/28	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Politics	8:04 AM	4/28	180	WGN Morning News	Joining us now with more on what we can expect is WGN political analyst Paul Lisnek.
9.1	Elderly	8:13 AM	4/28	180	WGN Morning News	Inspired by the movie "poms" starring Diane Keaton, the ladies at Friendship Village Senior Living in Schaumburg decided to start their own pom pom squad. Jill Steco, Arlene Burke, Carol Ventura and Judy Weber all with the Friendship Village poms squad join us now with more on how they got started.
9.1	Community	4:03 PM	4/28	120	WGN Early Evening News	When an Uber driver saw two men badly wounded in a drive-by shooting, he immediately rushed to help. WGN's Tonya Francisco spoke with this good Samaritan.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:23 PM	4/28	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, a new study says women who miscarry, need to get much better medical support than they do now.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	4:31 PM	4/28	240	WGN Early Evening News	Today Block Club Chicago and the Better Government Association published new reporting on the business dealings of a former Loretto Hospital executive, who resigned as a result of the VIP vaccination events. Block Club's Kelly Bauer joins us now to explain.
9.1	Cultural	4:52 PM	4/28	120	WGN Early Evening News	The Lyric Opera hasn't put on a show at the Civic Opera House in over a year because of the pandemic. But that doesn't mean the company has gone silent. It's just gone underground, and tickets are selling fast. WGN's entertainment critic Dean Richards has the lowdown on the new re-imagined production.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00 PM	4/28	120	WGN Evening News	Tense moments shown in a new round of videos released following another fatal, Chicago police shooting. This one happened last month, and took the life of a 22-year-old man who was running from officers. WGN's Julian Crews is live at public safety headquarters with more on the recordings.
9.1	Legal Matters	6:21 PM	4/28	120	WGN Evening News	Federal agents have raided the home and office of Rudy Giuliani in New York, seizing things like computers and cellphones. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty joins us now with more details

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Politics	9:47 PM	4/28	120	WGN News at Nine	President Biden delivered his first address to a joint session of Congress tonight. WGN's political reporter Tahman Bradley joins us now with more on the president's speech.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/29	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Government (Local)	12:00 PM	4/29	120	WGN Midday News	Chicago loosens its indoor capacity limits effective immediately, ranging from bars and restaurants to Bulls and Blackhawks games.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:23 PM	4/29	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, another potential COVID treatment. Medical reporter Dina Bair is here with details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:28 PM	4/29	120	WGN Early Evening News	Today, the FDA announced plans to ban menthol flavored cigarettes. More than one third of all cigarette sales are menthol flavored. That's why some are concerned this ban could fuel a swell in illegal cigarette sales.
9.1	Economy	4:38 PM	4/29	210	WGN Early Evening News	You may have heard about bitcoin and lately its value has skyrocketed! Bitcoin has been around for more than ten years. But in recent months the digital currency has been the buzz word as inflation worries increase. Financial advisor Steve Lewit joins us now to talk about bitcoin.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	5:02 PM	4/29	120	WGN Evening News	Officials in suburban Cook County are ready to loosen their restrictions, and they're launching a major push to get suburban restaurant workers to get the vaccine. WGN's Rob Sneed joins us live now with more on that part of the story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:30 PM	4/29	120	WGN Evening News	The mother of a young gunshot victim credits two Chicago police officers with saving a 13-year old's life. The officers are now speaking out about that experience. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us from police district-4 headquarters on east 103rd-street with the story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:32 PM	4/29	120	WGN Evening News	Studies show that COVID vaccines are effective. But doctors are now seeing so-called "breakthrough cases." In Illinois, nearly 100 people have been hospitalized with COVID-related illness despite being fully vaccinated.
9.1	Legal Matters	9:00 PM	4/29	120	WGN News at Nine	Alderman Patrick Daley Thompson - facing federal charges. Thompson is accused of filing false tax returns and lying about loans from a now-shuttered bank.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:07 PM	4/29	150	WGN News at Nine	The Niles police chief has been placed on leave as the State's Attorney's office conducts an investigation into alleged department misconduct. A police department whistleblower is sharing his story exclusively tonight with WGN Investigates.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:14 PM	4/29	360	WGN News at Nine	WGN Investigates: police pursuits as more departments adopt policies restricting when officers can chase people, some wonder whether "hitting the gas" is increasingly becoming a "get out of jail free" card.
9.1	Education	9:46 PM	4/29	240	WGN News at Nine	With patience and positivity, our Teacher of the Month is already making a powerful impact. And this is just her first year on the job. She works with students with special needs at a South Side elementary school. WGN's Gaynor Hall introduces us to Ms. Ashley Bumpers.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:00 AM	4/30	120	WGN Early Morning News	The city is further easing COVID related restrictions starting today. Judy Wang is live at Navy Pier with details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/30	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Education	8:14 AM	4/30	210	WGN Morning News	Tomorrow, May first is national college decision day, the deadline for high school seniors to pick their next school. Perry Kalmus is a college admissions expert and co-founder of Akala.
9.1	Elderly	12:00 PM	4/30	120	WGN Midday News	A scathing new report says a deadly COVID-19 outbreak at the LaSalle Veterans' Home can be blamed on mismanagement.
9.1	Legal Matters	12:14 PM	4/30	120	WGN Midday News	A sitting alderman, and member of the Daley family, is facing several federal charges stemming from bank loans.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						11th ward alderman Patrick Daley Thompson was indicted, but says his conscience is clear.
9.1	Legal Matters	4:00 PM	4/30	120	WGN Early Evening News	21--year-old Demond Goudy faces first degree murder charges and he will not be released from jail any time soon. WGN's Meghan Dwyer joins us now with what happened in court today.
9.1	Education	4:28 PM	4/30	120	WGN Early Evening News	Improved diversity as CPS sends out selective enrollment admission letters to high school students. WGN's Gaynor Hall is live at CPS headquarters in the Loop with details.
9.1	Business & Industry	4:43 PM	4/30	240	WGN Early Evening News	The reopening of Navy Pier! It's a phased-in approach after the pier shut down September 8th. Payal Patel is the spokeswoman for Navy Pier and she joins us live
9.1	Politics	5:24 PM	4/30	120	WGN Evening News	President Biden and Vice President Harris are taking their sales pitch for their agenda on the road. WGN's Washington correspondent Reshad Hudson joins us live with more on their message.
9.1	Legal Matters	6:14 PM	4/30	120	WGN Evening News	Disgraced movie mogul Harvey Weinstein is facing extradition to California by the end of May, unless his lawyer can successfully challenge in time. Weinstein appeared virtually in an Erie County courtroom today.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:29 PM	4/30	120	WGN Evening News	We're following breaking news in Joliet; police are searching for the former Catholic school teacher charged with meeting a minor for sex. WGN's

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						Bronagh Tumulty joins us live with the latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:34 PM	4/30	240	WGN Evening News	A local group of doctors is volunteering time and expertise to help in the fight against the virus in India. They're part of a group called "India COVID SOS." One of them is Dr. Sajal Tanna, an infectious disease physician at Northwestern University's Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Community	9:45 PM	4/30	180	WGN News at Nine	It began with a small group of friends collecting items for a domestic violence shelter but with little storage space and donations pouring in, they decided to open a resale shop to support the shelter. The "Hope Chest" it is one of Chicago's Very Own.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	10:00 PM	4/30	120	WGN News at Ten	A march to protest the police killing of 13-year-old Adam Toledo. It comes as police consider new policies on foot chases. WGN's Dana Rebik has more live in the West Loop.
9.1	Government (Local)	6:30 AM	5/1	525	People to People	Tahman Bradley takes a closer look at Mayor Lightfoot's economic plan for Chicago's south and west sides.
9.1	Cultural	6:40 AM	5/1	312	People to People	Chaz Ebert shares details of the "No Malice Film Contest" aimed at promoting racial healing
9.1	Women's Issues	6:47 AM	5/1	393	People to People	Author Stephana Colbert's book "Ordinary Extraordinary African American Women" examines the everyday inspiring lives of women.
9.1	Employment	6:52 AM	5/1	247	People to People	Lisa Davis from "One Summer Chicago" has news on the changes to

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						the popular youth employment program.
9.1	Minority Issues	8:11 AM	5/1	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	A new fashion exhibition at Columbia College Chicago is putting the spotlight on black designers. Students helped produce the show as part of the class, "The Fabric of Cultures" -- taught by Dr. Lauren Peters.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:05 PM	5/1	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	And on this may day, free COVID-19 vaccines were given to all essential workers who still haven't received one. The event happened at the Mexican consulate on South Ashland Avenue. WGN's Judy Wang reports.
9.1	Immigration	5:18 PM	5/1	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Hundreds of immigrants and advocates rallied today outside the White House. They're calling on President Biden and Congress to ensure a path to citizenship for millions of undocumented immigrants living in the US. Raquel Martin has more from Washington.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:23 PM	5/1	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	If you're looking for food that's good for you, head over to Wicker Park. A new pop up showcases several new healthy foods that have just come to Chicago. WGN's Marcella Raymond has more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:29 PM	5/1	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Community activists held a rally today calling for federal relief money to be spent on gun violence prevention. WGN's Kelly Davis is live on the South Side with the story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Employment	5:38 PM	5/1	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	As the hospitality industry slowly reopens in Chicago, many workers say they're being left behind. Today, they staged a protest outside a luxury hotel demanding help from lawmakers. WGN's Sean Lewis reports.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:00 PM	5/2	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Today in Uptown a group of churches held a rally to denounce crime against Asian Americans. This comes a day after a woman was injured by a driver who reportedly yelled racist remarks.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:04 PM	5/2	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Investigators in Gary say arson is suspected in a string of overnight fires at vacant buildings across the city. This latest spree comes on the heels of another rash of suspicious fires there.
9.1	Environment	5:24 PM	5/2	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	As the weather warms up, people are looking for ways to get back to nature. Lyman Woods in Downers Grove is a perfect place to enjoy the outdoors and learn about our natural habitats.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:29 PM	5/2	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	We're following breaking news in Calumet City where there's a large police presence after reports of a shooting and a man barricaded in a home. Jenna Barnes joins us now live with the latest.
9.1	Consumer Issues	5:40 PM	5/2	180	WGN Weekend Evening News	Robocalls are a nuisance, but there is a way to make them stop. And as WGN's Sean Lewis discovered, companies may end paying you hefty penalties if they don't.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:30 AM	5/3	120	WGN Early Morning News	The number of people getting vaccinated in Illinois has dropped and

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						state health officials are trying to change that. Judy Wang is here with details.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:05 AM	5/3	120	WGN Morning News	Funeral services will be held today for the man killed nearly two weeks ago by sheriff's deputies in North Carolina. Dan joins us with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/3	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Community	7:33 AM	5/3	180	WGN Morning News	The city has loosened COVID-19 restrictions. Joining us now to talk more about that is Juan Teague, a festival producer and event planner.
9.1	Cultural	8:12 AM	5/3	270	WGN Morning News	You know her from Saturday night live, she's been on our show many times before, and now Melissa Villasenor is bringing her stand-up comedy show to Zanies - Chicago next month. She's back with us this morning to tell us more about it.
9.1	Education	12:00 PM	5/3	120	WGN Midday News	The CEO of the Chicago Public Schools is stepping down. Doctor Janice Jackson announced this morning that she will leave the school district when her contract ends.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:15 PM	5/3	120	WGN Midday News	Weekend violence in Chicago claimed seven lives, and injured dozens more. The surge in the city coincided with warmer weather.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:25 PM	5/3	120	WGN Midday News	On the Medical Watch, the reality of herd immunity from COVID-19.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:25 PM	5/3	180	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, a common cancer treatment may offer some help for Alzheimer's patients.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:30 PM	5/3	120	WGN Early Evening News	A new controversy tonight involving Chicago's Mercy Hospital. Activists say the hospital is still in danger of shutting its doors, despite a deal for new owners to take it over.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 PM	5/3	120	WGN Evening News	A 57-year-old man has been charged with attempted murder after driving into a group of people on a picnic in Logan Square. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us live with the latest details.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:07 PM	5/3	120	WGN Evening News	On the pandemic front, Illinois could be moving into the next phase of reopening soon. Both Governor Pritzker and Chicago's top health official pointed to improving metrics.
9.1	Women's Issues	5:33 PM	5/3	210	WGN Evening News	Mother's Day is just days away. And while families everywhere are getting ready to celebrate the women in their lives who mother them, there are girls, grief stricken every year this time: Mother's Day marking the loss of their own moms. WGN's Julie Unruh introduces us to a group organized specifically to help young girls cope.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	5/3	120	WGN News at Nine	A 24-year-old Berwyn man died early yesterday morning after someone shot him while driving, causing his car to flip over. WGN's Shannon Halligan has the latest on the investigation.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:10 PM	5/3	150	WGN News at Nine	Controversy is brewing over crime-fighting technology used by Chicago police. The mayor is defending the "shot-spotter" system, amid troubling results from a new study.
9.1	Economy	9:13 PM	5/3	450	WGN News at Nine	In tonight's Cover Story: the rise of cryptocurrency is making headlines around the world. What started as an idea over a dozen years ago, is now worth billions of dollars. WGN's Sean Lewis joins us now with some of the basics.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:00 AM	5/4	120	WGN Early Morning News	COVID-19 restrictions will soon be loosened a bit more in Illinois. The so-called bridge phase of reopening may begin next week.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:30 AM	5/4	120	WGN Early Morning News	A DuPage County judge has ordered a hospital to allow a comatose COVID-19 patient access to a drug the FDA says could be unsafe. The Tribune reports that Elmhurst hospital says the drug use isn't justified. Another court hearing is scheduled for this morning.
9.1	Immigration	6:05 AM	5/4	120	WGN Morning News	The Biden administration is raising the cap on refugee admissions, after facing a bipartisan backlash over a delay.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/4	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Government (Local)	12:00 PM	5/4	120	WGN Midday News	The reopening of Chicago continues with the announcement that the auto show is coming back this summer.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:03 PM	5/4	120	WGN Midday News	Activists in Pilsen are demanding a moratorium on all police foot pursuits. It follows two chases that led to shooting deaths. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty is live at the Pilsen law center with details.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:04 PM	5/4	120	WGN Early Evening News	We're following the latest developments in Gary Indiana, where authorities are investigating a rash of suspicious fires. More than 20 fires within three weeks and 15 of them just this past weekend.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:23 PM	5/4	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, a demographic shift in serious COVID-19 cases. After spending much of the past year treating elderly patients, doctors are now seeing more young and middle-aged adults.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:27 PM	5/4	120	WGN Early Evening News	New at 4, a DePaul Prep high school basketball star is recovering after being grazed in the head by a bullet. WGN's Gaynor Hall is live at Stroger Hospital with details.
9.1	Transportation	4:37 PM	5/4	240	WGN Early Evening News	Many of you may already be planning your first vacation in over a year. Joining us with what you need to know is travel expert - Jeanenne Tornatore.
9.1	Business & Industry	6:02 PM	5/4	120	WGN Evening News	Reopening is expected to have a major impact on bars, restaurants, hotels and other businesses that have been struggling during the pandemic. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live in west town with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	6:12 PM	5/4	120	WGN Evening News	After five years at the helm of the country's third largest school district, outgoing Chicago Public Schools CEO Janice Jackson is leaving her post at the end of June. Today she's speaking at length about the decision, and the road ahead. WGN's Meghan Dwyer is here with more.
9.1	Community	6:31 PM	5/4	120	WGN Evening News	There's an empty spot at an intersection in the Rogers Park neighborhood where people would stop at a man's popular food stand. COVID-19 has stricken this colorful, loving person and now his family as well as customers are asking for help. WGN's Mike Lowe has the story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:33 PM	5/4	210	WGN Evening News	As COVID 19 vaccinations decline across the country, some health experts believe we may not reach herd immunity in the near future. Dr. Manu Jain, A pulmonary and critical care physician at Northwestern Medicine.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	5/4	120	WGN News at Nine	We're following breaking news, two people were shot and wounded tonight outside of an affordable housing building on Chicago's South Side. Both victims survived – and now police are looking for the people responsible.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:08 PM	5/4	120	WGN News at Nine	It was video that sparked outrage and calls for reform, as Chicago police officers raided the wrong house in 2019, detaining an innocent woman for hours in her own home. Tonight - her case, coming before a town hall, with

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						aldermen pushing for changes to CPD policy.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:45 PM	5/4	330	WGN News at Nine	The freedom to sit where you want or to use any bathroom of your choice hasn't always an option for blacks when traveling. As WGN's Tonya Francisco reports, 60 years ago today, blood was shed and lives were nearly lost when their non-violent protest was met with brutal violence and jail time.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:00 AM	5/5	120	WGN Early Morning News	An apparent drive by shooting in Park Manor wounds a security guard finishing her workday. Glenn Marshall is live at the University of Chicago medical center with an update.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:35 AM	5/5	120	WGN Early Morning News	President Biden says he wants to see the country reach something close to "herd immunity" against COVID-19 by July fourth. Kellie Meyer reports, Biden's call comes, even as the pace of vaccination shows signs of slowing.
9.1	Politics	5:35 AM	5/5	120	WGN Early Morning News	We could find out this morning if former President Trump's Facebook account will be reinstated. He was kicked off Facebook and other social media platforms following the January 6th riots at the capital. Erik Runge is live this morning with the latest
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/5	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	7:33 AM	5/5	120	WGN Morning News	A woman was caught on camera unleashing a rant against a deputy in California. That rant eventually turned racist. Reporter Jennifer McGraw has more.
9.1	Legal Matters	12:00 PM	5/5	120	WGN Midday News	Weeks after the controversial shooting of Adam Toledo, the Cook County State's Attorney's office reveals what it says went wrong in detailing the case in a courtroom shortly after.
9.1	Legal Matters	12:04 PM	5/5	120	WGN Midday News	Cook County jail inmates getting some help: soon they will be able to turn to a new resource center, to make their transition into society easier. WGN's Julian Crews is live at the Daley Center with details on this program.
9.1	Employment	12:14 PM	5/5	300	WGN Midday News	It's "National Skilled Trades Day" and we are rolling up our sleeves to encourage kids to explore skilled trade jobs. Joining us with more on how to get involved, City Machine Technologies vice president of engineering Chip Kovach and corporate secretary Claudia Kovach.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:22 PM	5/5	180	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, a new heart test. Medical reporter Dina Bair is here with more on how it works.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:31 PM	5/5	120	WGN Early Evening News	A five-year old boy on the Southwest Side is honoring his mother for Mother's Day, after she was brutally murdered two years ago. It was a killing that stunned everyone.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Cultural	4:40 PM	5/5	180	WGN Early Evening News	Today we celebrate Cinco de Mayo or fifth of May. It marks Mexico's victory against France in the Battle of Puebla. But it has also evolved into a celebration of Mexican culture. Joining us to help with the celebration is Jaime Garza with Economic Strategies Development Corporation in Pilsen.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:12 PM	5/5	120	WGN Evening News	WGN Investigates has the story of a Chicago diver who gained attention for finding a Cubs player's lost ring in the lake. He's now accused of paying a bribe that's led to the end of one police officer's career and the potential firing of another. WGN's Ben Bradley has the story.
9.1	Housing	5:29 PM	5/5	120	WGN Evening News	A federal judge has struck down a national moratorium on evictions which has been in place since the start of the pandemic. It won't impact the current ban in Illinois, but we found out there is a local group awaiting their own ruling. WGN's Tonya Francisco has been digging into this issue and joins us now with more.
9.1	Environment	9:45 AM	5/6	180	WGN Morning News	Time for the Botanic Backyard. Joining us now is Cindy Baker from the Chicago Botanic Garden.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:03 PM	5/6	120	WGN Midday News	A Chicago man's family says it was Illinois state police who shot and killed him during a traffic stop-- not an accidental firing during a struggle over a gun. Attorneys for the man's family say they want the trooper charged. Erik

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						Runge is live in Bronzeville with the latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:24 PM	5/6	180	WGN Midday News	On the Medical Watch, predicting a heart attack is both possible and affordable even without symptoms. Dina Bair has more on a new way to check for the major culprit.
9.1	Politics	12:32 PM	5/6	120	WGN Midday News	There's discord in DC as house Republicans turn on one of their own. Wyoming representative Liz Cheney is the third highest-ranking House Republican.
9.1	Environment	4:02 PM	5/6	120	WGN Early Evening News	A boil water order is in effect for some South Siders after a century-old pumping station went off-line. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty is live in Beverly with details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:23 PM	5/6	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, breathing easier in the pandemic. Medical reporter Dina Bair is here with some different COVID news.
9.1	Business & Industry	4:27 PM	5/6	120	WGN Early Evening News	The floral industry has a 100-year-old slogan that says "say it with flowers." However, you may not be able to have the flowers you want for this Mother's Day. WGN's Dana Rebik is live in West town

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Women's Issues	4:40 PM	5/6	240	WGN Early Evening News	COVID-19 has brought health to the forefront of millions of Americans' minds, especially for women who rank it as their top health concern, according to a new national survey from MDVIP. Yet, the same survey shows that most women are not getting the information they need to address the greatest health risks they face, with 9 in 10 women failing a "Women's Health IQ" Quiz. Joining us now to explain more is Dr. Andrea Klemes, Chief Medical Officer of MDVIP.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:32 PM	5/6	240	WGN Evening News	Former Chicago bear tough guy Steve "Mingo" McMichael recently announced to Chicago he had Lou Gehrig's disease. WGN connected with another former NFL family living with ALS.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:06 PM	5/6	120	WGN Evening News	A new report out tonight shows Chicago police are more likely to execute search warrants at the homes of Black residents. WGN's Rob Sneed has that story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:33 PM	5/6	120	WGN Evening News	Breaking the stigma surrounding mental health in a cozy and supportive environment. A new, bilingual living room officially opened today in suburban summit. WGN's Gaynor Hall takes us inside.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Employment	6:48 PM	5/6	180	WGN Evening News	Now to our back to work segment. A diversity and workforce development initiative that began two years ago is back with its first event since the pandemic forced cancellations. Joining us now to talk about the "I built this" event is the CEO of construct-reach, Paul Robinson.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	5/6	120	WGN News at Nine	We're following breaking news. A child, shot at an apartment complex on the South Side and taken to Comer Children's Hospital.
9.1	Legal Matters	9:02 PM	5/6	120	WGN News at Nine	The Shedd aquarium accused of discrimination in a new lawsuit. A former employee, making claims of a hostile and sexist work environment when she was aboard a research vessel. WGN's Jenna Barnes spoke with the woman's attorney and is live at the Shedd with more on her allegations.
9.1	Government (Local)	9:09 PM	5/6	120	WGN News at Nine	The end is near for pandemic restrictions, circle your calendars for May 14th and June 11th. Today Governor Pritzker said those are the key dates for the full reopening of Illinois.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:12 PM	5/6	120	WGN News at Nine	A 15-year-old girl from Southwest suburban Bolingbrook died just two days after testing positive for COVID-19. WGN's Shannon Halligan is here with her family's message for others.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:15 PM	5/6	360	WGN News at Nine	As the national dialogue continues on racism and representation there is a renewed push to help black farmers

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						flourish. WGN's Gaynor Hall takes a closer look in tonight's Cover Story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	5/7	120	WGN Early Morning News	Developing this morning, we're learning new details about a shooting that left a 12-year-old boy with serious injuries. Judy Wang is live at Comer Children's Hospital with the update.
9.1	National Security	6:28 AM	5/7	120	WGN Morning News	New overnight-- some military equipment was stolen in series of car break-ins on the far South Side. Erik Runge is live in Morgan Park with the latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/7	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Children/Youth	8:16 AM	5/7	180	WGN Morning News	The month of May is National Foster Care Month, a time to recognize how everyone can play a part in enhancing the lives of children in foster care. Deborah Farmer details her foster journey in her new book "My Journey to Joshua."
9.1	Community	12:00 PM	5/7	120	WGN Midday News	The United Center is gearing up to allow some Bulls and Blackhawks fans back into the building, starting tonight. This, while also serving as a mass vaccination site.
9.1	Legal Matters	4:04 PM	5/7	120	WGN Early Evening News	A federal grand jury has indicted former Minneapolis police officer Derek Chauvin and three other ex-officers for allegedly violating George Floyd's civil rights last summer.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						WGN's Meghan Dwyer is here now with more.
9.1	Community	4:28 PM	5/7	120	WGN Early Evening News	This weekend, moms all over will be honored. But today, a special group of moms who've had a rough go of things lately, are getting some extra special treatment. WGN's Rob Sneed is live at Saint Sabina church in Gresham with the story.
9.1	Cultural	4:37 PM	5/7	210	WGN Early Evening News	The artist Banksy has been making headlines around the world for years. And now some of that artwork is coming to Chicago this summer. Joining us now to talk about the exhibit is Corey Ross -- the producer of "The Art of Banksy."
9.1	Education	5:00 PM	5/7	120	WGN Evening News	We begin with a protest at Northwestern university. Some students and faculty are upset over the school's choice for athletic director, who's a defendant in a sexual harassment lawsuit.
9.1	Employment	5:07 PM	5/7	180	WGN Evening News	To talk more about jobs and worker shortages, Jason Barton -- the president of Barton Staffing and Barton professional placement group in Aurora
9.1	National Security	5:31 PM	5/7	360	WGN Evening News	There's not much golf legend Jack Nicklaus hasn't done on the links, but he's just completed a special project that may be his most heroic round yet. Nicklaus designed a new golf course aimed at helping military families and honoring those who made the ultimate

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						sacrifice. WGN's Dan Roan traveled to western Michigan to get a first-hand look.
9.1	Consumer Issues	6:00 PM	5/7	120	WGN Evening News	New at six. If you've done any shopping lately you may have noticed two things: prices are skyrocketing, and there's a shortage of many commonly used items. WGN's Gaynor Hall is live at the museum campus with details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:18 PM	5/7	210	WGN News at Nine	It was a terrifying time for this family it was just over one year ago that Kendrick Moore was hospitalized, his body shutting down. His doctors were stumped then and while he's feeling better now, he's still not in the clear just yet.
9.1	Children/Youth	9:45 PM	5/7	180	WGN News at Nine	For 90 years, a non-profit organization on Chicago's north side has been independently serving Chicago's youth and their families. As Micah Materre reports the "neighborhood boys and girls club" is one of Chicago's Very Own.
9.1	Women's Issues	6:31 AM	5/8	445	Adelante Chicago	Celebrating Mother's Day! The push by one group of legislators determined to make Illinois the most mama-friendly state in the country. What could that mean for moms in some of Chicago's growing Latino neighborhoods?
9.1	Community	6:40 AM	5/8	200	Adelante Chicago	For more than three decades he's served Chicagoans as a firefighter and a police officer – Jesse Rangel weighs

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						in on the story that has shaken up the Little Village community...the shooting of Adam Toledo.
9.1	Education	6:55 AM	5/8	150	Adelante Chicago	Transforming lives by teaching them a skill. A Chicago man who was wrongly convicted and spent 20 years behind bars is giving back. he started a college after receiving a 20-million-dollar settlement.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:00 AM	5/8	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Police are investigating a shooting that happened on the expressway near 79th and Lafayette overnight.
9.1	Women's Issues	9:45 AM	5/8	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	Johanna Grange is a fashion and lifestyle blogger and the founder of Oak Street Social, a social media marketing firm. She's now promoting body positivity. She wants to empower all women no matter what size or shape they are.
9.1	Women's Issues	5:05 PM	5/8	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	It was a perfect day for a party to honor mom. The big celebration took up two whole blocks on the city's West Side. WGN's Judy Wang was there.
9.1	National Security	5:11 PM	5/8	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Homeland Security Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas says the situation at the southern border is under control. He and a group of lawmakers visited a migrant processing center in Texas this week.
9.1	Environment	5:20 PM	5/8	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Amid new pressure from the environmental protection agency, Mayor Lori Lightfoot is putting a controversial plan to move general iron to the southeast side, on hold.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:27 PM	5/8	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Demand for the COVID-19 vaccine is declining – and health officials fear that means reaching herd immunity is even more unlikely. WGN's Jenna Barnes is here with a closer look at the situation in Chicago and what the city is doing about it.
9.1	Environment	5:43 PM	5/8	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	For the 6th straight year in a row, Orkin has named Chicago the "rattiest" city in America. Now, one local group is trying to fix the problem by sending another furry friend out to patrol the city's streets.
9.1	Community	9:21 PM	5/8	180	WGN Weekend News at Nine	When a police officer shot Jacob Blake in Kenosha last summer, paralyzing him, the city erupted in deadly protests. The violence made headlines worldwide. But one man who grew up there, wanted to show a different side of his hometown. WGN's Sean Lewis has his story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:00 AM	5/9	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Police are investigating after a 14-year-old boy was shot and killed in east Garfield Park last night. Two other men were killed in separate shootings in the same area.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:07 PM	5/9	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	What a difference a year makes for this Mother's Day. Last year, COVID-19 was surging keeping many families apart. But this Mother's Day vaccines are giving many hope and the chance to hug mom. WGN's Judy Wang has more from a vaccination site in Hyde Park.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Environment	5:22 PM	5/9	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	It is that time of year, lilacs are in full bloom around the Chicago area. In west suburban Lombard there is a park dedicated to that flower. And as Marcella Raymond found out, you can also learn about the town's history.
9.1	Education	5:27 PM	5/9	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A big day in Naperville today for more than 600 graduates of North Central College. Some have been waiting longer than others.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:33 AM	5/10	120	WGN Early Morning News	We're learning more about what happened in the death of Tyrell Cohen, the twin brother of bears running back Tarik Cohen. Judy Wang is following the developments.
9.1	Politics	6:37 AM	5/10	120	WGN Morning News	President Biden wants to tackle everything from infrastructure to childcare in his multi trillion-dollar spending plan. But he faces a battle on capitol, especially after April's jobs report.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/10	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:54 AM	5/10	210	WGN Morning News	The new documentary 'The Last Cruise' takes viewers on board the Diamond Princess cruise ship. The site of the first COVID-19 outbreak outside of Wuhan, China. The film's director Hannah Olson is with us now to tell us more about it.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:00 PM	5/10	120	WGN Midday News	More COVID vaccination sites are opening up in Chicago. Vaccine shots

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						will now be available at several downtown office buildings.
9.1	Employment	4:02 PM	5/10	120	WGN Early Evening News	As Chicago continues to reopen, high end restaurants are holding a job fair as they struggle with a shortage of qualified workers. WGN's Tonya Francisco is live in the south Loop with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:07 PM	5/10	120	WGN Early Evening News	A suspect in a deadly Mother's Day crash in the south suburbs is now in custody. The hit and run claimed the life of a 62-year-old grandmother who had just left church.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:22 PM	5/10	120	WGN Early Evening News	Also, in the medical watch, a new way to deliver antibiotics. It's an antibiotic patch, no need for medication delivery that wreaks havoc on the gut and since the medication is delivered right to the source of infection, it cuts down on the risk for antibiotic resistant bugs.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:27 PM	5/10	120	WGN Early Evening News	A plea today from officials in Cicero where the number of people choosing to get vaccinated is among the lowest in Illinois. WGN's Dana Rebik is live in Cicero with details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:31 PM	5/10	240	WGN Early Evening News	The arrival of spring and summer comes with an increased threat for Lyme Disease this year. Experts predict 2021 may be a bad year for the tick-borne illness. Dr. Jon Olsen is an emergency physician at Advocate Lutheran Hospital in Park Ridge and he's here with some answers.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Politics	5:00 PM	5/10	120	WGN Evening News	City Hall is on the defense, after a cache of hacked emails between the mayor and her staff was released to the public. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is here with the details.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:05 PM	5/10	120	WGN Evening News	The state wants to make it easier for people who are returning to work, to get vaccinated near their jobs. WGN's Sean Lewis is live downtown with more on a new partnership with managers of commercial buildings.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:00 PM	5/10	120	WGN News at Nine	There's a major development in the COVID-19 pandemic tonight. The FDA has approved the Pfizer vaccine for use in children as young as 12. After testing more than 2-thousand volunteers, the agency says it's safe and effective but there's still one more step before shots can begin.
9.1	Environment	9:10 PM	5/10	120	WGN News at Nine	Environmental activists are encouraged tonight, after the city of Chicago agreed to take a second look at some controversial environmental projects on the city's southeast side.
9.1	Housing	9:14 PM	5/10	360	WGN News at Nine	A Chicago woman who lost her home in a flood last July is still fighting to return to it. She put her trust in a restoration company recommended to her by someone in her condo building. WGN's Patrick Elwood is here with more on her ongoing water woes.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	5/11	120	WGN Early Morning News	We're live on the scene of a SWAT situation in the south loop.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	National Security	6:34 AM	5/11	120	WGN Morning News	Gas prices are the highest they've been in years and a cyber-attack on an East Coast pipeline may push them even higher. Lauren is in the newsroom to explain.
9.1	Children/Youth	6:47 AM	5/11	120	WGN Morning News	That's Winnetka native Anthony Hartman, showing off the working ventilator he built out of Legos. He submitted it to "kids idea tank," a summer entrepreneurship competition.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/11	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Community	12:18 PM	5/11	120	WGN Midday News	A steep rise in people returning pets they adopted during the pandemic in some parts of the country, may not be holding true in Chicago. WGN's Sean Lewis, live in west town with how pet owners can get back to a normal life, and ensure their pets are still happy.
9.1	Politics	12:36 PM	5/11	120	WGN Midday News	Today the topic of stopping gun violence gets a hearing on Capitol Hill. And some senators say they're particularly concerned about ghost guns
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:05 PM	5/11	120	WGN Early Evening News	A former Joliet diocese teacher was taken into custody today and released after posting bond. He's accused of sex crimes involving a child. WGN's Rob Sneed is live at the Joliet police department with the latest on Jeremy Hylka.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:22 PM	5/11	120	WGN Early Evening News	It's an anti-viral drug called Molnupiravir. Merck, the maker has asked for emergency use authorization in India to slow the rapid spread of infections there.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:27 PM	5/11	120	WGN Early Evening News	It's been ten years since Timmothy Pitzen's disappearance. Now police hope a new age progression image could help spark some leads. WGN's Sean Lewis is live in Aurora with the latest on the search.
9.1	Legal Matters	6:00 PM	5/11	120	WGN Evening News	Illinois lawmakers try to get the bottom of a deadly COVID outbreak at the state-run LaSalle Veterans' Home. A hearing on investigation findings is being held right now.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:06 PM	5/11	120	WGN Evening News	The number of Chicagoans getting COVID vaccines is leveling off, which is a problem. So the city is teaming up with community colleges to encourage vaccine ambassadors to answer questions or concerns that may be preventing people from getting the shot.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:09 PM	5/11	240	WGN Evening News	While the COVID numbers are trending in the right direction in Illinois, the number of people dying is going up. Joining us to talk about the COVID-19 death rate is Dr Bala Hota, a chief information officer and an infectious disease expert at Rush University Medical Center.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Politics	6:37 PM	5/11	120	WGN Evening News	Rahm Emanuel's reputation may have kept him from a getting a job inside the Biden White House. But multiple reports say Chicago's former mayor will represent the administration as ambassador to Japan. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is here with the latest details.
9.1	Government (Local)	9:15 PM	5/11	360	WGN News at Nine	In tonight's WGN Investigates, An in-depth look at Illinois' financial fiasco, or rather, a small slice of it. Investigative Reporter Ben Bradley joins us with what he found.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:00 AM	5/12	120	WGN Early Morning News	The CDC is expected to give clearance today for the Pfizer vaccine for children ages 12 thru 15. Glenn Marshall joins us live at a vaccination site near Wrigley field.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:30 AM	5/12	120	WGN Morning News	The Chicago police department reportedly started a secret drone program last year, and privacy advocates are not happy about it. Erik is live at police headquarters at 35th and Michigan with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:48 AM	5/12	120	WGN Morning News	May is Mental Health Awareness month. And to help the wellness of young people, Lady Gaga and her mother, Cynthia Germanotta, created the "Born This Way foundation" back in 2012. Cynthia joins us live this morning.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/12	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Politics	12:15 PM	5/12	180	WGN Midday News	House Republicans have removed Congresswoman Liz Cheney as a member of their leadership team. Joining us now WGN political analyst Paul Lisnek.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:07 PM	5/12	120	WGN Early Evening News	A woman on the Northwest Side says a man pulled a gun on her boyfriend and stole her emotional support dog. Tonight, she's asking for help getting her back. WGN's Rob Sneed is live in Old Irving Park with details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:22 PM	5/12	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, a remarkable surgery on an unborn baby. WGN medical reporter Dina Bair has more on the procedure doctors performed right here in Chicago.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:27 PM	5/12	120	WGN Early Evening News	A brazen thief caught on camera stealing a man's car right out of his driveway. WGN's Tonya Francisco joins us from the newsroom with the story
9.1	National Security	5:07 PM	5/12	120	WGN Evening News	Today house lawmakers on Capitol Hill grilled the former acting department of defense secretary and the former acting attorney general about the January 6th insurrection at the US Capitol.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:41 PM	5/12	120	WGN Evening News	As more people get vaccinated, Illinois is getting ready to welcome tourists this summer, launching a new ad campaign. WGN's Gaynor Hall is live from Oak Park with the story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	9:01 PM	5/12	120	WGN News at Nine	Northwestern University's newly promoted athletic director is resigning following recent protests. Mike Polisky is named in a sexual harassment lawsuit, involving the university.
9.1	National Security	9:15 PM	5/12	120	WGN News at Nine	Days after hackers forced Colonial Pipeline to shut down, the company has restarted pipeline operations. But not before the shutdown caused panic buying and massive lines at the gas pump.
9.1	Community	5:00 AM	5/13	120	WGN Early Morning News	The divisions in the Middle East are playing out in street protests in Chicago and Bridgeview. Glenn Marshall is here with the details.
9.1	Economy	6:42 AM	5/13	180	WGN Morning News	Wall street's selloff deepened yesterday, amid new fears of inflation. Joining us now is financial expert Terry Savage.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/13	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Employment	8:13 AM	5/13	180	WGN Morning News	If you've ever felt like you work for a "toxic" boss, you're not alone. New research looks at how those toxic people are able to get ahead at work and what you can do about it. Doctor Susan Krauss Whitbourne joins us this morning with more.
9.1	Government (Local)	12:05 PM	5/13	120	WGN Midday News	If you get a parking ticket in Chicago, you may have to pay a lot more than expected. That's because a judge says: the city has the power to raise the

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						fines. WGN's Julian Crews is live at Daley Plaza with details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:02 PM	5/13	120	WGN Early Evening News	Now that kids as young as 12 can be vaccinated against COVID-19, are parents rushing to get the shot? WGN's Gaynor Hall is live in Des Plaines with the story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:23 PM	5/13	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, solving sleep problems. Medical reporter Dina Bair has more on a high-tech approach to getting better z's.
9.1	Government (Local)	4:29 PM	5/13	120	WGN Early Evening News	A member of Chicago's premiere political dynasty is pleading not guilty to federal charges. But prosecutors say alderman Patrick Daley Thompson used clout to secure big loans from a politically connected bank and then never paid them back.
9.1	Transportation	4:40 PM	5/13	180	WGN Early Evening News	A popular exhibit at the Museum of Science and Industry is ready to welcome back visitors after getting an overhaul. John Llewellyn, is the senior exhibition developer at MSI and joins us now to talk about the updated Boeing 727 exhibit.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:00 PM	5/13	180	WGN Evening News	A big announcement from federal health officials about COVID-19 mask guidelines. The CDC is now loosening restrictions for people who are fully vaccinated.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Housing	6:11 PM	5/13	210	WGN Evening News	A woman in Southwest suburban Oak Lawn is suing the village, claiming she's being harassed to sell her home so that the village can expand its public works yard. WGN's Patrick Elwood is in Oak Lawn and joins us with the story you'll only see on WGN
9.1	Employment	6:44 PM	5/13	210	WGN Evening News	On our back to work segment, we're talking about the worker shortage. Companies all over the country are struggling to fill positions. Joining me now is Valerie Chan, a business strategist, offering advice on how businesses can attract and retain new employees.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:01 PM	5/13	120	WGN News at Nine	A child is yet again the victim of Chicago's gun violence epidemic. The 8-year-old, taken to Mount Sinai medical center. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live at the hospital with more on the investigation.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:42 PM	5/13	360	WGN News at Nine	100 years ago, this month, the largest single incident of racial violence in American history took place in Tulsa Oklahoma. WGN's Tonya Francisco uncovered a Chicago connection to the place called "Black Wall Street".
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:00 AM	5/14	120	WGN Early Morning News	The "bridge" phase of Illinois' COVID reopening begins today. Judy Wang is live in the Southport corridor, to explain what's changing.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/14	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:16 AM	5/14	180	WGN Morning News	The new documentary "Chicago: America's hidden war" calls attention to the city's on-going gun violence. The film explores what started and contributed to the problem and why so little is being done to stop it.
9.1	Employment	12:17 PM	5/14	120	WGN Midday News	Restaurants are struggling to find workers, as the hard-hit establishments try to reopen. WGN's Julian Crews is live in Roscoe Village with more on their difficulties.
9.1	Politics	12:32 PM	5/14	120	WGN Midday News	Days after ousting Congresswoman Liz Cheney from her House leadership position, the GOP has chosen her replacement. New York Congresswoman Elise Stefanik won the vote for conference chair. Washington correspondent Trevor Shirley joins us live with more
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:05 PM	5/14	120	WGN Evening News	Chicago police announcing a revised search-warrant policy today. The goal, strengthening CPD's commitment to human dignity, respect and professionalism. It comes following the fallout from a police raid back in 2019.
9.1	National Security	5:09 PM	5/14	120	WGN Evening News	Top national security officials are expressing concern tonight. The Colonial pipeline hack exposed vulnerabilities in the nation's cyber-security infrastructure. The NSA director testified on Capitol Hill today.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:30 PM	5/14	120	WGN Evening News	A historic day for Chicago's fire department. For the first time, a Black woman could become commissioner. WGN's Gaynor Hall is here now with the details.
9.1	Religion	5:33 PM	5/14	120	WGN Evening News	Cardinal Blase Cupich will ordain nine priests for the archdiocese of Chicago Saturday morning. Their ages range from 26 to 55 years old. WGN's Kelly Davis spoke with one local man about his unique journey to priesthood, ahead of his ordination.
9.1	Cultural	6:31 PM	5/14	150	WGN Evening News	In yet another sign that we are slowly returning to normal, chance the rapper is back on the red carpet for advanced screenings of his new concert film. WGN's Dean Richards is live in Streeterville with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:16 PM	5/14	120	WGN News at Nine	A groundbreaking surgery performed on a Glendale Heights man who almost died from COVID-19. WGN's Shannon Halligan is here with his story.
9.1	Children/Youth	9:45 PM	5/14	180	WGN News at Nine	From cell phones to video games, we are living in the age where most teenagers spend quite a bit of time using electronics. But for a west suburban teen she prefers to ditch all the noise by exploring and connecting with nature. Saanvi Mylavarapu she is one of Chicago's Very Own.
9.1	Education	10:04 PM	5/14	120	WGN News at Ten	Thousands of students in Chicago are having their prom this weekend, but it's a prom experience like no other.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						WGN's Bronagh Tumulty joins us from Soldier Field
9.1	Women's Issues	6:37 AM	5/15	571	People to People	Relationship Expert Love McPherson shares tips for the cast of the new show, "Run the World."
9.1	Cultural	6:45 AM	5/15	286	People to People	Eric Vaughn Smith, brother of dance legend Adolfo Shabba Doo Quinones shares stories of the star's life in Chicago, as the city honors him with a proclamation. Quinones died in late 2020 and will soon be honored with a street naming.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:02 AM	5/15	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Now to that breaking news from the South Side where five men were shot at a party, and two of them were killed. Judy Wang is live at the University of Chicago Medical Center with the latest.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:04 PM	5/15	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Loved ones and friends paid their final respects today to a longtime leader in Chicago's Chinese community. Funeral services were held for "Bernie" Wong this morning. A celebration of her life was held during a mass at Saint Barbara Catholic church on the South Side. WGN's Judy Wang was there.
9.1	Cultural	5:24 PM	5/15	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	With COVID restrictions gradually lifting, it's a good reason to break out some dance moves. If you don't have any, Marcella Raymond takes us to an Old Town Dance studio where instructors will teach you for any occasion.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	5:29 PM	5/15	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	There is confusion over the new announcement by the CDC which states, if you're vaccinated you can take off your mask in most situations. Lots of questions from business owners and customers. Our Meghan Dwyer is live at a North Side Trader Joes with the latest.
9.1	Government (National)	5:34 PM	5/15	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A program that would pair service dogs with veterans to help treat mental illness is moving through Congress. The bipartisan bill passed the house this week and could be on the president's desk by Memorial Day. Kellie Meyer has more from Washington.
9.1	Business & Industry	9:00 PM	5/15	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	A rally tonight to save the Chicago Tribune from a hedge fund.
9.1	Education	9:24 PM	5/15	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	A dedicated teacher is trying to raise a quarter of a million dollars for a stem program at his high school in Bronzeville. As WGN's Sean Lewis reports, it took a lot of hard work and training to do it.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:00 AM	5/16	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Two Chicago police officers are shot during a incident on the West Side within the last hour. WGN'S Judy Wang is live in Lawndale with the details.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:03 PM	5/16	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Chicago police are looking for the person who shot a 13-year-old boy in the head while he was riding his bike this morning. Jenna Barnes is live at

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						Stroger Hospital with an update on his condition.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:40 PM	5/16	150	WGN Weekend Evening News	It's been a long time since pop-up markets have had a chance to shine and show off small businesses. But for the first time this weekend, one of them returned to Chicago.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	5/17	120	WGN Early Morning News	Developing this morning, more than 40 people were shot in Chicago during the weekend -- 5 of them fatally. One young victim is at Stroger Hospital.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:30 AM	5/17	120	WGN Early Morning News	Crews in Northwest Indiana will continue their search today for a missing boy with autism. Judy Wang is live in Hammond with the latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/17	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Consumer Issues	12:15 PM	5/17	120	WGN Midday News	Today is the extended deadline to file your taxes. The IRS gave Americans an extra month this year to file because of the pandemic. And now we also know when families will start seeing a tax break from the American rescue plan.
9.1	Community	4:15 PM	5/17	120	WGN Early Evening News	A number of former bears are gathering in Wrigleyville this afternoon to support Steve McMichael in his battle with ALS. WGN's Jarrett Payton joins us live with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:25 PM	5/17	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, a threat to our troops on and off the battlefield. It's a

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						deadly disease attacking service members at much higher rates.
9.1	Housing	4:30 PM	5/17	150	WGN Early Evening News	It's not just renters, but also landlords, hit hard by the pandemic. Governor Pritzker is now offering new help to both. WGN's Dana Rebik is here with more.
9.1	Community	4:38 PM	5/17	240	WGN Early Evening News	For decades Chicago's public libraries have served a key role for families in many neighborhoods. the end of the pandemic will create new opportunities as things slowly get back to normal. The libraries new commissioner Chris Brown is joining us to talk about what comes next.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:00 PM	5/17	120	WGN Evening News	Governor Pritzker updates mask guidelines in Illinois. He says can get rid of them in most cases.
9.1	Children/Youth	5:35 PM	5/17	120	WGN Evening News	Pandemic-weary kids and teens have some new summer programs to look forward to in the city this summer. The "rediscover Chicago" program opens up everything from recreational programs to jobs.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:03 PM	5/17	120	WGN News at Nine	48 people shot in Chicago over the weekend, five of them, killed. One of the injured victims is a 13-year-old boy riding his bike, and he is now on life support. WGN's Sean Lewis has the latest.
9.1	Business & Industry	9:10 PM	5/17	120	WGN News at Nine	A video shared online of an altercation in the drive thru of an Oswego Portillo's is going viral. WGN'S

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						Shannon Halligan is here with more on what happened.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:30 AM	5/18	120	WGN Early Morning News	The city of Chicago is expected today to follow the state's lead in lifting the mask mandates for vaccinated people in most settings. That would align both the city and state with new CDC guidelines when it comes to mask wearing.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00 AM	5/18	120	WGN Morning News	Two people were shot overnight in Bolingbrook. Glenn Marshall is live at the Bolingbrook police department with the latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/18	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Employment	12:14 PM	5/18	120	WGN Midday News	There's a push to get Chicago's restaurant workers vaccinated as their businesses try to return to full operations. WGN's Julian Crews is live in the west town neighborhood with details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:20 PM	5/18	300	WGN Midday News	On the Medical Watch, it's HIV vaccine awareness day. Though there is no vaccine for HIV, yet - researchers say one has never been closer.
9.1	Cultural	4:00 PM	5/18	120	WGN Early Evening News	Lollapalooza returns to Grant Park this summer but there's a catch. Concertgoers must show they've been vaccinated or tested negative for COVID-19. WGN's Gaynor Hall is live at Grant Park with details.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	4:28 PM	5/18	120	WGN Early Evening News	In tonight's WGN Investigates, Illinois' law says pot shops are not to be within 1,500 feet of each other. So, how did two West Loop dispensaries end up so close?
9.1	Community	4:30 PM	5/18	120	WGN Early Evening News	Chicago families getting a newly updated place to play tonight just steps off the Magnificent Mile. WGN's Rob Sneed is live in Streeterville where a ribbon cutting ceremony just wrapped up
9.1	Cultural	4:36 PM	5/18	180	WGN Early Evening News	A teen piano prodigy at Whitney Young High School is getting a dream opportunity to make it nationally. Joshua Mhoon applied to seven of the most prestigious music schools in the country and got accepted to all seven.
9.1	Legal Matters	6:07 PM	5/18	120	WGN Evening News	Southside recycling, formerly known as general iron, says the city of Chicago hasn't given it a final permit to operate its new site on the southeast side. As a result, it's now suing the city for 100-million dollars. More now from WGN's Patrick Elwood.
9.1	Children/Youth	6:44 PM	5/18	210	WGN Evening News	May is National Foster Care Awareness month. There are more than 420-thousand children in foster care across the country and nearly 18-thousand foster children in Illinois. Joining us now is Curt Holderfield, senior vice president of Child Development and Youth Services there.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:02 PM	5/18	120	WGN News at Nine	Newly released dash cam video shows a chaotic scene in Hinsdale after police say several people tried try to steal cars from a luxury dealership. One of the suspects, just 16 years old. WGN's Shannon Halligan is here with the latest on this investigation.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	5/19	120	WGN Early Morning News	New overnight, detectives are investigating a drive by shooting on Lake Shore Drive, near Ontario street. The shooting has left a 22-year-old man in the hospital.
9.1	Education	6:30 AM	5/19	120	WGN Morning News	The Illinois State Board of Education may require all schools to return to full in person learning next fall. There will still be exceptions for students to learn remotely. Erik Runge is at a Bell Elementary school in North Center with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/19	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:05 AM	5/19	210	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is former CDC acting director and current president and CEO of the Robert Wood Johnson foundation, Dr Richard Besser.
9.1	Consumer Issues	9:20 AM	5/19	300	WGN Morning News	Financial expert Terry Savage joins us to discuss the child tax credit and answer some of your questions.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:13 PM	5/19	270	WGN Midday News	On the Medical Watch, taking a breath. Few of us really stop to appreciate the ability to breathe. And a Northwestern memorial hospital pulmonary and

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						critical care specialist wants to change that.
9.1	Employment	12:21 PM	5/19	120	WGN Midday News	As air travel continues to pick up, O'Hare airport is looking for more workers. So, the airport is holding a jobs fair today. WGN's Julian Crews is live at the Chicago Hilton O'Hare with the latest on what it looks like during a pandemic.
9.1	Government (National)	12:36 PM	5/19	120	WGN Midday News	Today, the House will vote on whether to create an independent, bi-partisan commission to investigate the January 6th insurrection. But now Republican leadership has come out against the idea. Washington correspondent Trevor Shirley is live with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:07 PM	5/19	120	WGN Early Evening News	A police officer in downstate champaign was killed and his partner wounded after they responded to a domestic disturbance call. The suspect in that case is also dead after an exchange of gunfire with the officers.
9.1	Minority Issues	4:38 PM	5/19	720	WGN Early Evening News	We've seen a boost with the approval of the Pfizer vaccine for kids ages 12 to 15. However, the numbers are low in Latino neighborhoods. Joining us now to talk about vaccinating more teens is Dr. Geraldine Luna and Dr. Margarita Reina with the Chicago Department of Public Health and Dr. Pamela Vergara with the Cook County health department

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Politics	5:00 PM	5/19	180	WGN Evening News	A letter from Mayor Lori Lightfoot is sparking a heated conversation about politicians, press access, and race. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is here now with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:03 PM	5/19	120	WGN Evening News	Developing now, a 20- year- old Palatine man is facing a number of charges including sexual assault and battery. WGN's Mike Lowe is live from Lake Barrington with the story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:07 PM	5/19	120	WGN Evening News	As more people move to shed their masks both inside and out, some nurses' organizations are saying confusion over changing CDC guidance could put more people's lives at risk. WGN's Rob Sneed joins us live now with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:12 PM	5/19	240	WGN Evening News	The COVID pandemic has highlighted inequities in America's health care system. The American medical association has been working towards health equity and recently released a three-year road map. We are now joined by Dr. Aletha Maybank who is chief health equity officer.
9.1	Education	5:29 PM	5/19	120	WGN Evening News	CPS says it supports the state's move to full time in person learning – although there's some confusion about who has to go back to the classroom and who doesn't
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:32 PM	5/19	120	WGN Evening News	A 75-year-old convicted murderer from Lawndale is facing new murder charges tonight. He's accused of killing a man in east Garfield Park on

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						Monday. WGN's Tonya Francisco is here now with new details.
9.1	Employment	6:00 PM	5/19	120	WGN Evening News	They helped Cook County vaccinate thousands of people. Now, they can't get paid. WGN investigative reporter Lourdes Duarte has the story
9.1	Transportation	9:15 PM	5/19	180	WGN News at Nine	WGN Investigates: the train to nowhere. Travelers and workers at O'Hare continue to have trouble getting around, because the airport can't seem to figure out how to gets its train back-up and running. And tonight, investigative reporter Ben Bradley is here with exclusive new information about the train trouble.
9.1	Cultural	9:45 PM	5/19	270	WGN News at Nine	For years he was the director of the Lincoln Park Zoo and he also had regular appearances here on WGN. Doctor Lester Fisher recently celebrated a milestone birthday. He recently sat down to reflect with WGN's Dean Richards.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	10:00 PM	5/19	120	WGN News at Ten	The search continues for a missing 12-year-old boy in Indiana. It's now been five days now since he disappeared from a hotel in Hammond.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	5/20	120	WGN Early Morning News	Two people are dead following a shootout in the South Shore neighborhood. Glenn Marshall is live at the University of Chicago hospital with the latest.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:32 AM	5/20	120	WGN Early Morning News	Chicago's Police Union has issued a vote of no confidence in Mayor Lightfoot and Police Superintendent David Brown. Union president Jon Catanzara criticized several decisions made by both leaders in the past year.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/20	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Business & Industry	8:12 AM	5/20	240	WGN Morning News	Ford just unveiled its first ever electric pickup truck. Auto expert Nik Miles joins us live from Detroit, with a preview of the new vehicle.
9.1	Government (Local)	12:00 PM	5/20	120	WGN Midday News	It's time to pay up if you drive to Montrose Harbor. The city of Chicago has put in parking meter boxes there to help the cash-strapped city generate some revenue.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:20 PM	5/20	270	WGN Midday News	Health officials have changed guidance on colorectal cancer screening. Joining us to talk more about screening for colon cancer, medical director of digestive health at Advocate Illinois Masonic Medical center, Dr Andrew Albert.
9.1	Children/Youth	12:35 PM	5/20	360	WGN Midday News	You may have seen the signs for the "safe haven" law at hospitals and fire stations, a baby's face and free pass to drop off an infant. 20 Years ago, the law went into effect and since then more than 4-thousand children whose parents couldn't care for them -- were given a special status -- safe to go home with a forever family.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:22 PM	5/20	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, is it COVID or allergies? Turns out the confusing symptoms have a root cause
9.1	Government (Local)	4:27 PM	5/20	120	WGN Early Evening News	Leaders in Southwest suburban Tinley Park say enough is enough tonight. They want the state of Illinois to clean up or sell an abandoned former mental health center they say is dangerous. WGN's Meghan Dwyer is live in Tinley Park with the latest.
9.1	Education	4:31 PM	5/20	300	WGN Early Evening News	As high school seniors wrap up their year and graduate -- it's not too early for underclassmen to start looking at their college options. They now have a new tool to help in their search. It's a new streaming tv series called "The College Tour" and the University of Illinois is the only college in Illinois to be part of it.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 PM	5/20	120	WGN Evening News	Family and friends of a popular 32-year-old man, gunned down in broad daylight yesterday on the South Side, are speaking out calling on his killer to come forward. The victim is identified as Verndell Smith and WGN's Bronagh Tumulty is at the dance studio he ran.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:06 PM	5/20	240	WGN Evening News	To speak more about diversity in the media we are joined by Ava Thompson Greenwell -- a journalism professor at Northwestern and author of "Ladies Leading: The Black Women Who Control Television News"

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Housing	5:32 PM	5/20	210	WGN Evening News	New at five, during the pandemic the demand for lumber went through the roof. One well known philanthropy known for "Building for Others" is running out of money when it comes to wood too. WGN's Julie Unruh has the story.
9.1	Community	6:06 PM	5/20	150	WGN Evening News	Another summertime staple in Chicago is returning. Block parties are making a comeback. WGN's Rob Sneed has details.
9.1	Politics	6:27 PM	5/20	180	WGN Evening News	She was sworn in two years ago today. A first-time politician who promised progressive change, Lightfoot has instead faced a global pandemic and opposition on several key issues. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley spoke to the mayor yesterday about those challenges, and her decision to grant interviews only to black and brown journalists.
9.1	Politics	9:09 PM	5/20	180	WGN News at Nine	Protesters marching tonight in Mayor Lightfoot's neighborhood, as she marks two years in office. She's also looking back on her time in office so far.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:15 PM	5/20	300	WGN News at Nine	In tonight's WGN Investigates, tracking the rise in fake prescription pills. More and more teens are dying after purchasing pills laced with the deadly synthetic drug fentanyl. But it's the way teens are gaining access to these pills that has a lot of people, including a well-known Chicago face, sounding alarm bells.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	5/21	120	WGN Early Morning News	Developing this morning-- Chicago police say they are questioning someone in the shooting death of a man on Easter Sunday in portage park.
9.1	Legal Matters	6:30 AM	5/21	120	WGN Morning News	The teenager accused of killing two people during protests in Kenosha last summer is set to make his first in-person court appearance later this morning. Erik Runge is at the Kenosha County courthouse with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/21	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Minority Issues	8:16 AM	5/21	210	WGN Morning News	Activist Tamika D. Mallory, went viral for this speech she gave at a Minneapolis press conference following the death of George Floyd by police. Tamika D. Mallory joins us now to discuss more.
9.1	Community	12:16 PM	5/21	270	WGN Midday News	Community organizers on the Southwest Side honor a young mother who was murdered in 2019 while looking for baby supplies. In her honor, the Southwest collective launched "Freebies for Families" that same year in hopes of helping families get the gear they need. Joining us with more on the program, treasurer for the Southwest collective and co-lead of Freebies for Families events, Adriana Vargas.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Housing	4:00 PM	5/21	120	WGN Early Evening News	Residents of a south suburban apartment complex - frustrated by a lack of air conditioning - called WGN looking for help to convince management to turn it on ahead of the warm weekend. WGN's Kelly Davis is live in Calumet City with the story
9.1	Religion	4:27 PM	5/21	120	WGN Early Evening News	The Chicago archdiocese is now giving parishes masking options and allowing them to expand attendance. WGN's Julian Crews is live outside Old Saint Pat's with details.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:30 PM	5/21	120	WGN Early Evening News	And now an update on a five-year-old boy who was shot in the head while playing on an iPad in his family's home. Clareon Williams survived, but still faces a long road to recovery. WGN's Rob Sneed is live on the South Side with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:28 PM	5/21	120	WGN Evening News	Hammond residents along with the city's mayor demonstrate against a partial shutdown proposed for Franciscan hospital. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty is in Hammond and joins us with the story
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:31 PM	5/21	240	WGN Evening News	One year after George Floyd's death at the hands of a Minneapolis police officer, a new campaign is being launched to push for national police reform. Joining us now is attorney Andrew Stroth, who's also a founder of "The Truth, Hope and Justice initiative."

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:18 PM	5/21	120	WGN News at Nine	New at nine, a Logan Square family is fighting to save their nine-year-old son's life. They're trying everything they can to find a kidney for their son. WGN's Shannon Halligan joins us with the story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:45 PM	5/21	180	WGN News at Nine	For nearly a decade a local nonprofit organization has set its sights on keeping high risk youth out of the judicial system and away from gangs. But like so many other organizations, COVID 19 forced them to re-think their approach. The Crushers Club it's one of Chicago's Very Own.
9.1	Housing	6:31 AM	5/22	345	Adelante Chicago	A second round of rental assistance funding is now available. More than a billion dollars will be handed out to prevent evictions around the state. It's one way to keep families from struggling as we recover from the pandemic.
9.1	Community	6:39 AM	5/22	285	Adelante Chicago	Returning to our public libraries. A new Commissioner has big ideas for a key resource in many of our neighborhoods. We'll hear his plan for the future of Chicago's public libraries.
9.1	Education	6:53 AM	5/22	345	Adelante Chicago	For decades - the National Latino Education Institute has transformed lives - offering training and opportunities. As the organization recovers from the effects of the pandemic – we take a look at what's to come in the year ahead

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Environment	8:00 AM	5/22	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	It could be the warmest weather we've seen since August. Officials have issued warnings to keep people safe on the water. Judy Wang is live with details.
9.1	Cultural	9:09 AM	5/22	270	WGN Weekend Morning News	Eugenia Zukerman has written a collection of poetry, allowing readers to take a look inside of her mind during her adjustment to living with Alzheimer's it's called, "Like Falling Through a Cloud: a lyrical memoir of coping with forgetfulness, confusion and dreaded diagnosis."
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:05 PM	5/22	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A 15-year-old was shot and killed, and neighbors say this kind of violence is becoming too routine. WGN's Rob Sneed is live in Lawndale with that story.
9.1	Cultural	5:23 PM	5/22	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	As pandemic restrictions ease more and more Chicago treasures reopen, including the Chicago Architecture Center. Marcella Raymond shows us the new exhibits.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:29 PM	5/22	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A well-known street vendor in Rogers Park who died from COVID19 contracted the virus just days before he was scheduled to get his first dose of the vaccine. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us live to share his family's story
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:32 PM	5/22	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	The Biden administration announced this week millions of Americans are vaccinated against COVID 19 thanks to federally funded community health centers.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	5:40 PM	5/22	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Dozens of people hopped on two wheels today on the city's West Side, in hopes of reaching peace. They say they're biking out the negativity. WGN's Sean Lewis has that story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	5/22	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Breaking right now at nine, an explosion of gunfire. Three people are wounded in Washington park.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:01 PM	5/23	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Tomorrow will be the last day for walk-thru COVID-19 vaccines at the United Center as demand for shots dwindles. Only a few months ago, the largest mass vaccination site couldn't keep up with demand.
9.1	Immigration	5:08 PM	5/23	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	The debate continues on whether Chicago Public Schools should have elected school board. But now a group of supporters says another voice needs to be heard - from the immigrant community in CPS.
9.1	Elderly	5:22 PM	5/23	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	It can be difficult to get the right in-home caregiver for an elderly relative. One business on the Northwest Side is stepping up to help.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:28 PM	5/23	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Four people are recovering today after being shot overnight in Park Forest. It happened outside of a theatre there, which is where we find WGN's Bronagh Tumulty.
9.1	Community	5:37 PM	5/23	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Technology made it possible for a suburban family to find their lost dog who is also deaf. WGN's Sean Lewis has the story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Transportation	9:11 PM	5/23	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Updating the breaking news, we told you about at the top of the show- a large search and rescue operation is underway after a car went into the Calumet river. Bronagh Tumulty is live at the scene near Torrence and 124th.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:05 AM	5/24	120	WGN Morning News	A police reform bill continues to work its way through Congress. But much work remains to be done and it won't be easy.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/24	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Community	8:12 AM	5/24	180	WGN Morning News	In March, Chicago marked its 184th birthday. But the beginning of the city goes back even further than that. Ellen Shubart goes into the history of how it all happened in her new book "Chicago: An Illustrated Timeline."
9.1	Politics	12:32 PM	5/24	120	WGN Midday News	This week the senate will likely take up a vote on whether to create an independent commission to investigate the January 6th attack on the capitol. But it's facing tough opposition from Republican senators.
9.1	Religion	4:00 PM	5/24	120	WGN Early Evening News	Father Michael Pfleger is back. The archdiocese determining there was "insufficient evidence" to substantiate decades-old abuse allegations.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:03 PM	5/24	120	WGN Early Evening News	An investigation underway in the western suburbs after an officer shot a woman overnight as police responded to reports of a person with a gun.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						WGN's Dana Rebik is live in Villa Park with details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:22 PM	5/24	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, the CDC is investigating a few cases of heart inflammation in young adults after they got the COVID vaccine.
9.1	Politics	5:00 PM	5/24	120	WGN Evening News	Police reform stalls at City Hall, while Mayor Lori Lightfoot looks to make a compromise on civilian oversight of the Chicago police department. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is here with the latest.
9.1	Housing	5:08 PM	5/24	120	WGN Evening News	The city of Chicago is devoting millions of dollars to help people pay their rent during the pandemic. WGN's Tonya Francisco joins us live with more on the new program.
9.1	Politics	5:35 PM	5/24	120	WGN Evening News	Today House lawmakers looked at how voter id laws and other voting requirements can affect access to the ballot. Right now, a voting reform bill that passed the House in March is stalled in the senate.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:13 PM	5/24	420	WGN News at Nine	Tomorrow marks one year since the murder of George Floyd. The summer of upheaval and unrest that followed started a wave of social, political and legislative changes. Tonight, we take a look back at the legacy that day left behind.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:24 PM	5/24	120	WGN News at Nine	New reports today of heart problems in some young adults and teens who received the COVID19 vaccine. WGN's Shannon Halligan is here with

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						the CDC 's findings and what doctors are saying about the new report.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/25	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:01 AM	5/25	120	WGN Morning News	Breaking news out of Hammond this morning, the body of a missing 12-year-old boy has been found in a river. Glenn Marshall is live in Hammond with the latest.
9.1	Minority Issues	8:16 AM	5/25	210	WGN Morning News	Next week marks one-hundred years since the Tulsa race massacre. Now, a new History Channel documentary takes a look at what became one of the worst episodes of racial violence in US history.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:31 AM	5/25	120	WGN Morning News	Twelve people were shot and two killed since four yesterday afternoon -- following Chicago's deadliest weekend of the year. Erik Runge is live at Stroger Hospital with the latest.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:00 PM	5/25	120	WGN Midday News	Long shifts and few days off, Chicago police sergeants are speaking up about department scheduling problems. They say it's creating unsafe working conditions.
9.1	Legal Matters	12:17 PM	5/25	240	WGN Midday News	In Illinois -- the activism over George Floyd's death has renewed efforts for criminal justice reform. Joining us now is Clayton Harris the third. He's a lecturer at the University of Chicago, Harris School of Public Policy.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	4:09 PM	5/25	150	WGN Early Evening News	The state board of education is calling for a complete return to in-person classes next school year. But some unvaccinated students with medical conditions might need special accommodations.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:22 PM	5/25	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, a common but little-known elbow injury in kids. WGN's medical reporter Dina Bair has more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00 PM	5/25	120	WGN Evening News	A search and dig at a Northbrook home. Investigators are looking for clues in a nearly 40-year-old cold case. WGN's Dana Rebik is live in Northbrook with more on the investigation.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:02 PM	5/25	120	WGN Evening News	Back here at home, demonstrators are calling for police reform in George Floyd's name. WGN's Mike Lowe is outside Federal Plaza with the latest
9.1	Government (Local)	6:32 PM	5/25	120	WGN Evening News	This hour in Springfield: lawmakers are holding the second of four hearings on newly proposed legislative districts. They've got just a few days left to sign off on those maps and a long list of other complicated issues.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	5/26	120	WGN Early Morning News	Breaking on the South Side this morning, four people were shot, one fatally, in the Englewood neighborhood.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:30 AM	5/26	120	WGN Early Morning News	Developing this morning: the body of a woman recently reported missing as been found in Lakeview. Erik Runge is live in Lakeview with the latest.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/26	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	7:30 AM	5/26	150	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Glen Brooks. He is the director of the Office of Community Policing with the Chicago police department.
9.1	Government (Local)	12:13 PM	5/26	120	WGN Midday News	From Chicago police reform, to renaming Lake Shore Drive, to making it easier to sell the Thompson center, city council has a packed agenda today. But, with Mayor Lightfoot and the aldermen feuding these days, it's not clear what will pass.
9.1	Government (National)	12:35 PM	5/26	120	WGN Midday News	Veterans advocates want the US government to pay benefits to service members who became sick from toxic burn pits. Right now, the burden is on veterans to prove their illnesses are connected to that exposure.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:00 PM	5/26	120	WGN Early Evening News	That mass shooting took place this morning, but the scene is still active as a bomb squad searches for explosives. WGN's Tonya Francisco is keeping an eye on this story from the newsroom
9.1	Politics	4:02 PM	5/26	120	WGN Early Evening News	We have more breaking news- within the last hour: federal prosecutors announced the indictment of a top aide to former house speaker Mike Madigan.
9.1	Community	4:26 PM	5/26	150	WGN Early Evening News	The family of a teenage boy who was shot and killed as he ran from a Chicago police officer while carrying a

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						gun, is establishing a sanctuary in his honor. Help at-risk kids.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:40 PM	5/26	420	WGN Early Evening News	Erin Ivory has a broken heart. In medical terms she has cardiomyopathy leading to heart failure. The mother of four, accomplished triathlete and healthy eater thought she was doing everything right.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:02 PM	5/26	120	WGN Evening News	In the wake of two controversial police killings after "foot pursuits," the Chicago police department is training officers on guidelines to keep the public safe when chasing suspects on foot. WGN's Mike Lowe was at police headquarters when the superintendent David Brown unveiled the new policy.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:30 PM	5/26	120	WGN Evening News	An anti-Semitic display in a north suburban condo building prompts outrage. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live from Wilmette with the story.
9.1	Employment	5:45 PM	5/26	240	WGN Evening News	Slowly companies are telling their employees to return to work. And that is raising a lot of questions for both the employee and employer. To help sort out what should be expected, Jessica Schaeffer joins us
9.1	Immigration	6:08 PM	5/26	120	WGN Evening News	A Congolese family separated for nearly five years is reunited with the help of Chicago's largest resettlement agency. The reunion took place at O'Hare and that's where WGN's Gaynor Hall joins us with more on the story

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	6:13 PM	5/26	180	WGN Evening News	It's a question everyone asks. What can be done to stop gun violence in the city? The truth is there's no magic bullet. But mentoring programs are making a difference.
9.1	Children/Youth	8:12 PM	5/26	210	WGN Morning News	A new program is inviting kids to create their own time capsules, that will then be buried at iconic locations across Chicago.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	5/26	120	WGN News at Nine	A teen was shot and killed inside his home on the far South Side. WGN's Gaynor Hall joins us live with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:17 PM	5/26	180	WGN News at Nine	WGN Investigates: the "lack" of justice for one of our area's youngest homicide victims. It's now been more than four years since a young girl – who could barely walk – went missing only to be found dead "inside" her own home. Investigative reporter Ben Bradley has more on the ongoing quest to find her killer.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	5/27	120	WGN Early Morning News	Breaking news this morning, a one-year-old girl was killed in a hit and run crash on the near West Side.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:30 AM	5/27	120	WGN Morning News	A man was shot and killed as he got inside a ride share vehicle. Erik Runge is at area two police headquarters with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/27	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:02 PM	5/27	120	WGN Midday News	An undercover, drug trafficking investigation in Chicago results in federal charges against several people.
9.1	Transportation	4:05 PM	5/27	120	WGN Early Evening News	Holiday travel begins today, as people head out early for Memorial Day weekend. It is expected to be a busy one.
9.1	Immigration	4:23 PM	5/27	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, using science and medicine to combat a political and humanitarian crisis. DNA may be the key to reunification for migrants.
9.1	Transportation	4:28 PM	5/27	120	WGN Early Evening News	We want to update you on some breaking news we've been following on the Dan Ryan expressway. The south bound lanes are back open after a man known as the "Dread head Cowboy" staged a protest this afternoon.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:30 PM	5/27	120	WGN Early Evening News	As more Illinois residents get vaccinated, Cook County health officials are switching strategies and closing down some of its mass vaccination sites, including one in Tinley Park.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:05 PM	5/27	120	WGN Evening News	Breaking news from the South Side. Police are investigating an afternoon shooting. A man in Calumet Heights was wounded this afternoon. His child hit by broken glass.
9.1	Education	5:30 PM	5/27	150	WGN Evening News	Four students in Elgin area schools won't be walking in their high school graduation ceremony this weekend. That's because they either tested positive for COVID or came in close

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						contact with a case. WGN's Kelly Davis has more on the story.
9.1	Politics	9:52 PM	5/27	120	WGN News at Nine	Illinois senator Durbin says the vote on the Capitol riot commission will happen tonight, despite attempts this hour to delay it. Republicans are expected to filibuster the bill.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	10:04 PM	5/27	120	WGN News at Ten	Ahead of the Memorial Day weekend, Chicago has seen a rash of shootings. With nearly 70 wounded and 15 killed in shootings this week, police have had their hands full.
9.1	Transportation	5:00 AM	5/28	120	WGN Early Morning News	For a look at the holiday weekend travel, Jenna Barnes is live at O'Hare airport with how federal agencies are preparing.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/28	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:31 AM	5/28	240	WGN Morning News	US attorney John Lausch joins us now, to talk about his office's ongoing strategies to combat violent crime.
9.1	Community	12:00 PM	5/28	120	WGN Midday News	If you're looking to stay in the Chicago area this holiday, many of Chicago's beaches and Maggie Daley Park are among the top destinations back open. WGN's Julian Crews is live at Navy Pier with details.
9.1	Education	12:17 PM	5/28	120	WGN Midday News	For our may Teacher of the Month, we head to suburban Palatine where Ms. Haley Little is making a big impact on her third graders.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:22 PM	5/28	240	WGN Early Evening News	No one wants the warmer days and summer vacation to end with a trip to the emergency room. Joining us now to talk about summer safety is Dr Robert Needleman - an emergency room physician with Cook County health.
9.1	Government (Local)	4:29 PM	5/28	120	WGN Early Evening News	City leaders unveiled a new approach to curb crime this summer. The plan provides more resources to high crime areas in hopes of preventing violence before it happens.
9.1	Community	4:31 PM	5/28	120	WGN Early Evening News	A Marine veteran who has fallen on hard times is getting a special helping hand and a warm home this evening. That's all thanks to a group of volunteers and a Chicago nonprofit.
9.1	Government (National)	6:12 PM	5/28	120	WGN Evening News	The White House published President Biden's massive multi trillion proposed budget. The plan includes billions in new government spending and social programs.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:29 PM	5/28	120	WGN Evening News	A Chicago police officer, who fatally shot a man on the Northwest Side two months ago, is apparently caught on camera pulling a gun on a driver last week. WGN's Dana Rebik is at police headquarters with the story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:04 PM	5/28	180	WGN News at Nine	Villa Park police fatally shot a transgender man Monday morning. Tonight, new details in that case show police knew the man was suicidal and had actually taken him to the hospital less than 48 hours earlier for a psychiatric evaluation.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	9:15 PM	5/28	360	WGN News at Nine	May is "Asian American pacific islander heritage month". But this year, anti-Asian hate crimes have skyrocketed across the country. WGN's Shannon Halligan shows us how some are working to stem the hate in Chicago.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:45 PM	5/28	210	WGN News at Nine	As they witnessed Floyds death along with the nation, one local law organization decided to take action. They created a new opportunity for African American law students. The American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers is one of Chicago's Very Own.
9.1	Business & Industry	10:00 PM	5/28	120	WGN News at Ten	Time is running out for state lawmakers to craft a deal that could keep two nuclear power plants open. Exelon wants major state subsidies to keep its plants operating, but some lawmakers are weary of a 'bailout' for the parent company of Com-Ed.
9.1	Religion	6:51 AM	5/29	320	People to People	Married Pastors Drs. Royal and Kimberly McClinton share marriage advice.
9.1	Children/Youth	8:42 AM	5/29	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	A Southwest Side teen really is a multi- tasker. At eighteen years old, he's not only an outstanding high school student, but the owner of a restaurant. WGN video journalist Patrick Parmenter brings us his story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 PM	5/29	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Dueling rallies are held at a police station on the city's Northwest Side as supporters of police and relatives of

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						Anthony Alvarez make their voices heard.
9.1	Community	5:24 PM	5/29	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	This weekend we remember those soldiers who sacrificed their lives for our country. WGN's Sean Lewis has more on Chicago's Memorial Day.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:30 PM	5/29	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	We're following breaking news out of the city's West Side. A person in a car was shot, and that car then crashed into a light pole.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:34 PM	5/29	180	WGN Weekend Evening News	Many people are turning to acupuncture to relieve everything from body aches to mental health issues. The ancient treatment may be especially beneficial after living through the pandemic. Marcella Raymond takes us to the north side to see how it works.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:05 AM	5/30	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	The COVID-19 positivity rate has dropped to the lowest since mid-July. Judy Wang is here with details
9.1	Community	5:00 PM	5/30	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	For the first time since 2019, Chicago's beaches are welcoming residents back as COVID restrictions continue to ease.
9.1	Community	5:06 PM	5/30	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A family's Memorial Day get-together has turned into a community-wide push for peace. The "Stop the Violence" parade made its way through the West Side of Chicago today. WGN's Judy Wang was there.
9.1	Cultural	5:23 PM	5/30	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Art festivals are back, coming to a neighborhood near you. Marcella

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						Raymond takes us to the Northwest suburbs for the Barrington art show.
9.1	Community	5:44 PM	5/30	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Area high school athletes recognized an organization in Oak Park today, that's remained dedicated to helping the community and those with developmental disabilities throughout the pandemic. WGN's Sean Lewis has the story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	5/30	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Breaking news right now. Chicago police are investigating a shooting in the South Loop.
9.1	Community	9:16 PM	5/30	180	WGN Weekend News at Nine	It is estimated of the 16 million Americans who served in World War two, less than two percent are alive today. On this Memorial Day weekend, we take time to listen to a few of these veterans as they share their wartime stories.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:00 AM	5/31	120	WGN Early Morning News	Lawmakers in Springfield will spend the Memorial Day holiday trying to work out several major issues, including a budget and Congressional redistricting.
9.1	Community	12:00 PM	5/31	120	WGN Midday News	With pandemic restrictions being eased across the country, many Memorial Day ceremonies and remembrances were allowed to resume this year.
9.1	Community	12:32 PM	5/31	120	WGN Midday News	While many people are gathering for barbecues this Memorial Day, others don't know where their next meal is coming from. But the mayor of one south suburb is doing her part to make sure those in need don't go hungry today.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	5:00 PM	5/31	120	WGN Evening News	Throughout Chicagoland people are celebrating this Memorial Day, with parades, ceremonies, and family gatherings. WGN's Tonya Francisco looks at how some suburbs are observing the holiday.
9.1	Community	8:33 PM	5/31	210	WGN Morning News	A man from Chicago became the oldest American ever to scale Mount Everest. 75-year-old Arthur Muir safely made it back to the surface yesterday morning. And he joins us now live from Nepal.
9.1	Transportation	9:08 PM	5/31	120	WGN News at Nine	There was a big surge in travel this Memorial Day holiday weekend. With plans delayed by COVID last year, a lot of people hit the road. There was also tragedy on some area roadways.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:11 PM	5/31	120	WGN News at Nine	Today marks 100 years since the Tulsa race massacre, when a white mob, joined by police, attacked a prosperous Black community. The city of Tulsa held a memorial today to honor those lives lost and to make sure the country knows what happened there.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:13 PM	5/31	360	WGN News at Nine	The impact of the Tulsa race massacre was felt far and wide. There's a Chicago connection too.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:05 AM	6/1	120	WGN Morning News	The Chicago police department has released May crime statistics. Glenn Marshall is live at 35th and Michigan with details.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	6:07 AM	6/1	120	WGN Morning News	President Biden travels to Tulsa, Oklahoma, today to meet with the three surviving members of the Tulsa race massacre.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	6/1	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:34 AM	6/1	120	WGN Morning News	The Tokyo Summer Olympics are still set to begin in July. Doctor George Chiampas will serve on the medical committee for the US soccer team.
9.1	Transportation	8:12 AM	6/1	210	WGN Morning News	With loosened travel restrictions and the unofficial start of summer upon us, many people are looking to get away. Joining us now is travel expert Kendra Thornton.
9.1	Government (Local)	4:02 PM	6/1	120	WGN Early Evening News	Lawmakers in Springfield are close to approving an elected school board for Chicago, as the spring session goes into overtime. That's just one of the major agenda items still being debated at this hour, after the legislature worked through the weekend.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:23 PM	6/1	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, a hint to the cause of ALS. Medical reporter Dina Bair is here with the new information.
9.1	Community	4:33 PM	6/1	120	WGN Early Evening News	Today a historic moment. For the first time, pride flags will fly over Cook County buildings all June for Pride Month.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:00 PM	6/1	120	WGN Evening News	Some very good news in the fight against COVID-19 in Chicago. For the first time in 11 months, no states are facing restrictions for travelers coming to the city.
9.1	Education	5:23 PM	6/1	120	WGN Evening News	There's going to be a groundbreaking ceremony at six this evening for a new school building in Berkeley School District-87. However, not everyone is pleased about the upcoming construction project, saying among other things it's not needed.
9.1	Education	6:44 PM	6/1	240	WGN Evening News	Many schools across the state are facing teacher shortages. With that in mind, Northern Illinois University is focusing on a program that aims to place teachers in the towns where they grew up. Joining us now is Dr Laurie Elish Piper the dean of the NIU College of Education.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	10:00 PM	6/1	120	WGN News at Ten	We're continuing to follow breaking news tonight. Two people shot in a grocery store parking lot in the suburbs.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:30 AM	6/2	120	WGN Early Morning News	A mother and her one-year-old son were shot inside their home. Erik Runge is live at Stroger Hospital with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	6/2	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:15 AM	6/2	210	WGN Morning News	A man from Chicago has created a popular podcast called "New Mindset, Who Dis?" Twice a week, Case Kenny posts a new episode, offering practical thoughts on self-improvement, mindfulness and how to live your best life.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:00 PM	6/2	120	WGN Early Evening News	The crash in Woodlawn sent two police officers, and another person to the hospital.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:10 PM	6/2	120	WGN Early Evening News	An accidental shooting this morning in Joliet has claimed the life of a 2-year-old child. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty is live in Joliet where police just held a news conference
9.1	Children/Youth	4:32 PM	6/2	240	WGN Early Evening News	Memorial Day marked the start of what's called the "100 deadliest days" for teen drivers. That period runs from Memorial Day to Labor Day -- and according to AAA, more than 30 percent of deaths involving teen drivers happen during that time. Molly Hart from AAA is joining us now to talk about this
9.1	Education	4:40 PM	6/2	120	WGN Early Evening News	Students at several Catholic schools in the south suburbs won't be returning to their classrooms after summer break.
9.1	Politics	6:00 PM	6/2	120	WGN Evening News	An exclusive WGN-tv/Emerson College poll shows where Mayor Lightfoot stands with Chicago voters on COVID, crime, race relations and more. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is here with the poll results

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	6:07 PM	6/2	120	WGN Evening News	The editor and chief of the Journal of the American Medical Association is stepping down amid controversy. It stems from a podcast and tweet associated with Jama that addressed structural racism in medicine.
9.1	Cultural	6:34 PM	6/2	120	WGN Evening News	The city of Chicago is adding another world class piece of art to the city's cultural landscape. Today city leaders offered a sneak preview just in time for pride month.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:03 PM	6/2	120	WGN News at Nine	More breaking news - a teenage girl, another victim of gun violence tonight in the back of the yards neighborhood.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:16 PM	6/2	120	WGN News at Nine	A shot for a shot. That's how Governor Pritzker described some new incentives in Illinois encouraging people to get vaccinated. WGN's Shannon Halligan has the details.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:30 AM	6/3	120	WGN Morning News	Two young women were carjacked in Rogers Park as they pulled into their garage. Erik Runge is live in Rogers Park with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	6/3	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Politics	7:32 AM	6/3	120	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to talk about the Emerson college poll and more is WGN political analyst Paul Lisnek.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	8:15 AM	6/3	240	WGN Morning News	After the deaths of George Floyd, Breonna Taylor and Ahmaud Arbery last year many people started asking what they can do to help end systemic racism. So Steven Rogers, a former professor at Harvard, decided to use it as a teachable moment. He wrote a book called "A letter to my white friends and colleagues: what you can do right now to help the black community."
9.1	Education	12:14 PM	6/3	120	WGN Midday News	Several groups are voicing opposition to the proposed timeline to establish a fully elected school board in Chicago. WGN's Julian Crews is live at City Hall with details on the bill in Springfield, and reaction to it in the city.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:23 PM	6/3	120	WGN Midday News	On the Medical Watch, more evidence to avoid a common painkiller before the COVID-19 vaccine. Patients taking anti-inflammatory drugs respond less well after their shot.
9.1	Government (Local)	4:00 PM	6/3	120	WGN Early Evening News	The long-awaited news comes as the city and state see a dramatic drop in COVID cases and hospitalizations
9.1	Children/Youth	4:23 PM	6/3	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, looking back on the effects of COVID on young people, researchers find some positives but a very troubling negative impact.
9.1	Community	4:27 PM	6/3	120	WGN Early Evening News	Tens of thousands of runners will take over the streets of Chicago -- as the marathon returns this fall. WGN's Kelly Davis is live in Lakeview to

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						share the importance of the comeback to the running community.
9.1	Cultural	4:37 PM	6/3	240	WGN Early Evening News	Summerfest has been a fixture of summer music and fun since its debut in 1968 in Milwaukee. Don Smiley is the CEO of the Milwaukee world festival inc. That puts on Summerfest and he joins us now to discuss this year's events.
9.1	Politics	5:00 PM	6/3	120	WGN Evening News	Governor JB Pritzker is speaking out after a dramatic finish to the spring legislative session led lawmakers to approve a long list of bills, in the dead of the night. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley talked with the governor today.
9.1	Community	5:13 PM	6/3	120	WGN Evening News	A community coming together to remember the two young victims of a deadly house fire in Northwest suburban Ingleside. The young girls were just 8 and 5 when they died last December. WGN's Dana Rebik is in Ingleside with more on tonight's memorial.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:11 PM	6/3	120	WGN News at Nine	An update now, the Mount Prospect man struck in a hit and run crash while crossing the street in his wheelchair remains in critical condition tonight. His family is working to raise money for his medical expenses.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Immigration	9:14 PM	6/3	240	WGN News at Nine	This weekend Vice President Kamala Harris will depart on her first international trip as vice president. She'll visit Guatemala and Mexico as the administration's point person on dealing with immigration at the southern border. Joining us now to talk about this is Washington Post reporter Nick Miroff.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	6/4	120	WGN Early Morning News	A teenager was shot while riding in a car on Lake Shore Drive. Judy Wang is live at Loyola Medical Center with the latest on the victim's condition.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	6/4	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:02 PM	6/4	120	WGN Midday News	A man is now charged in a nearly 49-year-old murder case in Naperville. Barry Lee Whelpley is accused of killing 15-year-old Julie Ann Hanson back in July 1972.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:04 PM	6/4	120	WGN Midday News	The new owner of Chicago's oldest hospital has agreed to operate it as a full-service facility for another 8 years, maybe more. WGN's Erik Runge is live in Bronzeville, with more.
9.1	Environment	12:15 PM	6/4	300	WGN Midday News	We've been talking about it for days: this weekend is going to be hot and that means you will likely use your electronics and appliances even more as you try to beat the heat. Joining us with tips on ways to save some money this summer, ComEd's energy doctor

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:28 PM	6/4	120	WGN Early Evening News	Chicago police are changing their strategies to try to build a tighter bond with Chicago's communities and cut down on crime. WGN's Rob Sneed is live at Chicago police headquarters with more.
9.1	Employment	4:31 PM	6/4	120	WGN Early Evening News	Employers added more than half-a-million jobs last month. But many companies are still struggling to find workers, blaming increased unemployment benefits for the shortage.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:07 PM	6/4	120	WGN Evening News	The city of Chicago wants more people to get COVID-19 vaccines. So, to make it easier, canvassers will be going door- to- door in some communities.
9.1	Government (Local)	6:28 PM	6/4	120	WGN Evening News	Governor Pritzker has signed into law the new boundaries for legislative districts in Illinois, and the boundaries as well for the state Supreme Court districts. As WGN's Dana Rebik reports, Republicans are highly critical of the process, which could keep Democrats in control of the state.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:10 PM	6/4	120	WGN News at Nine	An overnight crime spree has some city residents shaken. A group of armed robbers targeted people from the north side to the South Side.
9.1	Government (National)	9:25 PM	6/4	120	WGN News at Nine	Republican lawmakers are calling for a Congressional investigation into the origins of COVID-19. They argue there is mounting evidence the pandemic started in a Chinese lab and

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						want the Biden administration to investigate.
9.1	Environment	9:47 PM	6/4	180	WGN News at Nine	It began as a hobby. At the age of 15 he was composting waste from around the neighborhood in his parent's backyard. But soon his passion for sustainability and entrepreneurial skills would set him on a path to a successful business raising the bar and proving you can be sustainable and profitable. Liam Donnelly he is one of Chicago's Very Own.
9.1	Education	6:31 AM	6/5	404	Adelante Chicago	She's an international favorite - the work of Mexican artist Frida Kahlo has been a source of pride for decades. Now a new exhibit will be in the Chicago area.
9.1	Community	5:00 PM	6/5	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Wearing orange to honor victims of gun violence. A South Side community comes together to honor lost loved ones.
9.1	Women's Issues	5:23 PM	6/5	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Nostalgia is bringing women together on the South Side – to get fit and have fun. And the movement is reaching far beyond Chicago. Jenna Barnes introduces us to the '40-plus Double Dutch Club.'
9.1	National Security	5:33 PM	6/5	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Following a pair of high-profile ransom-ware attacks against the US, the White House and Congress are looking at ways to hold the hackers from Russia accountable.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	5:40 PM	6/5	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A local travel agency doesn't need a plane to send Chicagoans on a trip. All it takes is a trolley and a local map. It's a way to get to know the city and give younger Chicagoans an opportunity to see the world.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:00 PM	6/5	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Chicago is stepping up its efforts to get residents vaccinated for COVID-19. It's focusing on communities with the city's lowest vaccination rates.
9.1	Children/Youth	8:12 PM	6/5	180	WGN Weekend Morning News	"After School Matters" is Chicago's largest provider of after-school and summer programs for teenagers, connecting them with paid opportunities in the arts, stem, leadership and more. The group is celebrating thirty years and its impact on more than 350-thousand teenagers. The CEO of "After School Matters" Mary Ellen Caron, joins us this morning.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	6/5	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Right now, at nine, the family of a 14-year- old girl shot while walking her dog on Wednesday is in mourning tonight. She died of her injuries a short time ago.
9.1	Children/Youth	9:39 PM	6/5	270	WGN Weekend Morning News	Kristin Gambaccini has a new book. It's called Crafty Family Ideas: Projects to Make, Things to Bake, and Lots of Homemade(ish) Fun. She joins us live this morning.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:00 AM	6/6	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Now to that breaking news, multiple people have been shot in the Burnside

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						neighborhood. Judy is there live with details.
9.1	Politics	5:12 PM	6/6	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Campaigning for the 2022 midterm elections is already underway. Last night, President Biden and Donald Trump gave dueling speeches, hoping to galvanize their bases.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:23 PM	6/6	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	It's farmers market season and today was the first day back for the Glenwood Sunday market in Rogers Park. Both customers and venders tell our Jenna Barnes, it's a welcome return to almost normal.
9.1	Religion	5:29 PM	6/6	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Today father Michael Pflieger was welcomed back to the Saint Sabina parish. He had been sidelined from the pulpit following an investigation into several child sex abuse claims dating back to the seventies.
9.1	Community	5:34 PM	6/6	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	More than a year ago the COVID19 pandemic created health and economic hardship. The lines at the food banks grew exponentially. But as WGN's Sean Lewis reports, food insecurity is actually worse now in certain parts of the city.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:00 AM	6/7	120	WGN Early Morning News	An 11-year-old girl remains in serious condition, after she was shot in the West Pullman neighborhood.
9.1	Education	6:30 AM	6/7	120	WGN Morning News	Teachers at the three Urban Prep campuses in Chicago are going on strike. Judy Wang is live at Urban Prep's Englewood campus with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	6/7	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	6/7	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:23 PM	6/7	120	WGN Midday News	Breaking medical news: the FDA has approved the first new Alzheimer's treatment in nearly 20 years
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:00 PM	6/7	120	WGN Early Evening News	60 people were shot in Chicago this weekend, six of them were killed. But, Chicago police say, the violence is trending downward.
9.1	Community	4:26 PM	6/7	120	WGN Early Evening News	The owner of a West Side restaurant is once again giving back to his community. Today he offered free COVID vaccines and testing to anyone over 12.
9.1	Government (Local)	4:38 PM	6/7	180	WGN Early Evening News	For the first time in two decades, the race for Illinois' next Secretary of State is wide open. But already, a crowded field of candidates are jockeying for front-runner status, more than a year before any votes are cast.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 PM	6/7	120	WGN Evening News	Waukegan police are investigating the parking lot shooting that resulted in the death of teenager.
9.1	Immigration	5:45 PM	6/7	120	WGN Evening News	Today Vice President Kamala Harris was in Guatemala to discuss the spike in immigration at the US Mexico southern border.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Transportation	9:00 PM	6/7	120	WGN News at Nine	Starting tonight with some breaking news, a big disruption on the north side of the CTA Red line tonight. A train derailed near Bryn Mawr just a few hours ago.
9.1	Community	9:07 PM	6/7	120	WGN News at Nine	Some Buffalo Grove residents are pushing the village to fly a pride flag for the month of June, as one homeowner deals with a vandalized pride display
9.1	Immigration	9:16 PM	6/7	300	WGN News at Nine	The vice president's trip comes with criticism from Republicans for not addressing the crisis at the border sooner. Joining us now with more insight into her trip and the immigration crisis, Washington Post correspondent Nick Miroff.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:46 PM	6/7	180	WGN News at Nine	Tomorrow is graduation day for those in the care of "Mercy Home". For people who need safety and shelter - there's no place like it. WGN's Dina Bair has more.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:00 AM	6/8	120	WGN Early Morning News	Conventions and trade shows are making their return to Chicago, as one of the largest since the pandemic began will kick-off today.
9.1	Children/Youth	5:30 AM	6/8	120	WGN Early Morning News	Chicago police are trying to find ways to deal with an alarming spike in shootings involving children. Erik Runge is live at police headquarters, with a look at the numbers.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Environment	12:30 PM	6/8	180	WGN Midday News	Our next guest has spent her career monitoring and protecting oceans from pollution, climate change and invasive species that threaten the world's fish stock. Now, she's showcasing the vital impact of oceans on human life through a new book, National Geographic Ocean: A Global Odyssey.
9.1	Government (Local)	4:03 PM	6/8	120	WGN Early Evening News	The battle over redistricting now turns to City Hall, as aldermen prepare to carve out new ward boundaries from Chicago's changing neighborhoods. Today, advocates are pushing city council to do what the state legislature wouldn't: let an independent commission make the maps.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:23 PM	6/8	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, stem cells show promise against COVID.
9.1	Business & Industry	4:39 PM	6/8	120	WGN Early Evening News	The founder of Mariano's opened a new grocery store in Chicago today, with a new concept. WGN's Sean Lewis is live in Lincoln Park outside "Dom's kitchen and market," to tell us what's different.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:02 PM	6/8	120	WGN Evening News	A Chicago police officer who died shortly after saving a man's life was recognized for his bravery and courage today.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:28 PM	6/8	120	WGN Evening News	A terrifying attack in Jefferson Park. A woman plows into the front lawn of a home, and it was all caught on video. The homeowner says he was targeted because he doesn't support alderman Jim Gardiner.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	6:43 PM	6/8	120	WGN Evening News	Starting July first, there are five states that passed laws allowing college athletes to make money off endorsements. The new rules promise to be a major game-changer for multi-billion-dollar industry of college sports.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	6/8	120	WGN News at Nine	A 9-year-old boy was shot tonight in in back of the yards. He was taken to Comer Children's hospital on the South Side.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:02 PM	6/8	120	WGN News at Nine	Now to a developing story in the far northern suburbs, Lake County authorities are investigating an attack on a teen, on a bike path.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:07 PM	6/8	120	WGN News at Nine	A 24-year-old man from the North Shore has been charged for his role in the January 6th riot at the US Capitol. WGN's Meghan Dwyer joins us from the newsroom with the latest.
9.1	Community	9:44 PM	6/8	300	WGN News at Nine	For some young couples, this is the "summer of love" as they head for the altar to tie the knot. WGN's Julie Unruh reports on all the new trends for a very busy wedding season ahead.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	6/9	120	WGN Early Morning News	Breaking news in the Gresham neighborhood where a shooting has turned into a SWAT barricade situation.
9.1	Politics	6:05 AM	6/9	120	WGN Morning News	There's a battle over voting laws, playing out in states around the country. Republican lawmakers want to enact laws they say will safeguard elections. Democrats say those

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						measures violate Americans' right to vote.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:30 AM	6/9	120	WGN Morning News	Chicago police have put out a community alert for a child sex abuser on the loose. Erik Runge is live in Logan Square with photos released overnight.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	6/9	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Legal Matters	12:00 PM	6/9	120	WGN Midday News	A former Chicago alderman cooperating in a corruption investigation reportedly made secret recordings of former house speaker, Michael Madigan.
9.1	Community	12:15 PM	6/9	120	WGN Midday News	She's a college student with a passion for helping her community. And now she's added a new title to her extracurricular activities, president of the Logan Square neighborhood association. She's the youngest president in the organization's nearly 60-year history. Prisilla Tito joins us now.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:02 PM	6/9	120	WGN Early Evening News	A billboard meant to honor a police officer killed in the line of duty is vandalized. It pays tribute to an officer who died while responding to a mass shooting at a Chicago hospital.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:24 PM	6/9	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, the link between food and cancer.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Transportation	4:31 PM	6/9	120	WGN Early Evening News	If you're planning on driving along the lakeshore tonight, you might need to rethink your route. Part of Lake Shore Drive will be shut overnight from Oakwood to 47th street so that a pedestrian bridge can be torn down and replaced.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:04 PM	6/9	120	WGN Evening News	As federal prosecutors' eye some of Illinois' most politically connected power players, a plan to reform Springfield's broken ethics system awaits the governor's signature. But a statehouse watchdog says the proposal could actually make her job, even harder to do.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:01 PM	6/9	120	WGN News at Nine	State police investigating a road rage incident, that ended with serious trauma for a five-year-old boy. The suspected driver is still on the run tonight.
9.1	Community	9:18 PM	6/9	120	WGN News at Nine	A massive jackpot is waiting to be claimed in Crestwood. Tonight, the gas station owner who sold the 56-million-dollar winning ticket is speaking out.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	10:02 PM	6/9	120	WGN News at Ten	A heartbreaking plea tonight from a recently widowed mother of four. She's begging for anyone with information about her husband's death to come forward. Someone attacked him as he was heading home from work last month.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00 AM	6/10	120	WGN Morning News	A felony criminal sexual abuse charge has been filed against a man who WGN helped police bring into custody.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						Our crew saw the man police were looking for.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	6/10	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:00 PM	6/10	120	WGN Midday News	A death investigation is now underway at a Casey's general store in West Dundee.
9.1	Government (National)	12:14 PM	6/10	120	WGN Midday News	President Biden begins his first full day overseas as president meeting with the UK prime minister. He's also expected to make a major announcement on vaccines
9.1	Environment	4:06 PM	6/10	120	WGN Early Evening News	With the city of Chicago reopening tomorrow, beach safety is a top priority for city officials. Last year was the deadliest year on record for drownings in Lake Michigan. Just last night a man died after he was pulled from the lake.
9.1	Business & Industry	4:12 PM	6/10	120	WGN Early Evening News	As Chicago and the state of Illinois reopens tomorrow - restaurant staffing levels are causing some concern among owners.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:23 PM	6/10	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch: a perplexing health ailment, a celebration and a great fall.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:27 PM	6/10	120	WGN Early Evening News	Charges filed today against the man suspected in a hit-and-run crash that killed a one-year-old girl. Court records show the suspect was on parole at the time of the crash.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	5:00 PM	6/10	120	WGN Evening News	Tomorrow marks a big day for restaurants and bars around the city for the first time in over a year, there will be no restrictions on capacity levels. As you can imagine, anyone working in the service industry is pretty excited about it.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	6/10	120	WGN News at Nine	A 14-year-old boy is shot and killed on Chicago's West Side as a report claims his family was packing up to move somewhere safer.
9.1	Children/Youth	9:02 PM	6/10	120	WGN News at Nine	Friends and family are mourning the loss of a new trier high school student who died in a tragic accident on a stretch of CTA tracks.
9.1	Technology	9:43 PM	6/10	300	WGN News at Nine	Fed up with high cable bills, more people are shifting to streaming services. But with so many options out there, some are experiencing streaming overload.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:00 AM	6/11	120	WGN Early Morning News	After more than a year of closures and limited capacity because of the pandemic, Illinois and Chicago are full reopening today. Judy Wang is live in the Fulton River district with more.
9.1	Community	6:30 AM	6/11	120	WGN Morning News	More than 40 thousand Cubs fans are expected to fill Wrigley for the first time since 2019. Erik Runge is live inside Wrigley this morning with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	6/11	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:30 AM	6/11	180	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr. Allison Arwady, commissioner of the Chicago Department of Public Health.
9.1	Cultural	12:16 PM	6/11	120	WGN Midday News	Chicago's museums are also open for business again. And the city is celebrating by allowing expanded hours today. WGN's Julian Crews is live at the Shedd aquarium with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:21 PM	6/11	300	WGN Midday News	On the Medical Watch: a perplexing health ailment, a celebration and a great fall. A young man keeps getting up despite great trials.
9.1	Community	4:35 PM	6/11	120	WGN Early Evening News	The popular Lisle "Garden Gait" walk is back this year after taking a year off due to the pandemic. The Lisle's women's club added new gardens to the lineup this year to welcome back customers.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 PM	6/11	120	WGN Evening News	Breaking news out of Northwest Indiana. A security guard shot and killed during an apparent bank robbery in Gary.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:02 PM	6/11	120	WGN Evening News	A Chicago police officer faces charges for breaching the US Capitol during the insurrection on January sixth. The FBI has been investigating him since June second, tracking his phone's location during the riot.
9.1	Environment	5:33 PM	6/11	210	WGN Evening News	Illinois lawmakers will be returning to Springfield next week to vote on a sweeping clean energy package. To talk more about the ongoing negotiations, Jennifer Walling from the Illinois Environmental Council.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	9:05 PM	6/11	120	WGN News at Nine	In the suburbs, restaurants are also welcoming the return to full capacity. WGN's Kelly Davis is live in Park Ridge with that story.
9.1	Economy	9:16 PM	6/11	240	WGN News at Nine	Prices on a lot of goods are surging, from cars to groceries. Inflation jumped five percent in the past year, the highest such spike since 2008. Joining us now to talk about what this could mean for the economy is Washington Post columnist Henry Olsen.
9.1	Education	6:40 AM	6/12	317	People to People	United Negro College Fund's annual "A Mind Is..." Gala will be virtual this year. Regional Director Christal Stinson discusses the changes and the organization's ongoing work to send students to college and support them through their matriculation.
9.1	Children/Youth	6:40 AM	6/12	444	People to People	Ernest Radcliffe, coach of the Southside Wolfpack youth football team and The Show Travel Baseball team is getting national attention for the work he does with young Chicago athletes and students.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:00 AM	6/12	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	A shooting in Chatham has left at least one dead and nine others injured. Judy Wang is live at 75th and Calumet with the details.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	8:10 AM	6/12	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	"Communities in schools of Chicago" has been providing creative coping mechanisms to students during the pandemic, through dance and movement therapies. Student supports managers Ladonna Curry and Maria Torres join us live this morning, to tell us about their work with CPS students.
9.1	Women's Issues	8:21 AM	6/12	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	She is a proud mother of three, but her road to motherhood has been a difficult one. After suffering from two miscarriages and delivering a stillborn child, she started an organization to help other families in similar situations.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:02 PM	6/12	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Breaking news downtown where a man was fatally shot while sitting in his car. WGN's Jenna Barnes is live in the South Loop with the story.
9.1	Community	5:22 PM	6/12	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A father and daughter duo bring people together at a coffee shop with one goal in mind. WGN's Marcella Raymond takes us to Oak Park.
9.1	Community	5:40 PM	6/12	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Today, another pandemic ritual came to an end. The man known as the "great lake jumper" took his final dive into lake Michigan this morning. WGN's Sean Lewis takes a look back from Montrose Harbor.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:09 PM	6/12	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	Lots of people have been postponing visits to the doctor during the pandemic. Joining us now is Doctor Monica Peek, an associate professor of medicine at the University of Chicago.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (National)	5:14 PM	6/13	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	President Joe Biden is gearing up for a historic face to face meeting with Russian president Vladimir Putin this week in Geneva. The meeting will be the president's final stop on his first foreign trip in office.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	6/13	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	The family of a little boy is speaking out after he was struck in a hit and run, road rage incident earlier this week. Police are still looking for the driver. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty joins us now from the South Side with the details.
9.1	Community	9:11 PM	6/13	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Hundreds took to the streets in Lakeview today calling for social justice. They gathered for the second annual drag march for change. And as WGN's Kelly Davis reports, the activists expanded their message this year.
9.1	Community	9:23 PM	6/13	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	A woman in south suburban Dolton is working on a project she hopes will be a ray of light in her community. As WGN's Sean Lewis reports, the vision begins with a plot of land she is transforming.
9.1	Business & Industry	9:37 PM	6/13	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Keep local alive is a nationwide social media movement that began during the pandemic. Their rallying call helped small businesses stay open.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:30 AM	6/14	120	WGN Early Morning News	Mayor Lightfoot will join the city council black caucus today in a ceremony to kick off a week-long celebration of "Juneteenth." Judy

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						Wang is live at Daley Plaza with more on the events planned this week.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00 AM	6/14	120	WGN Morning News	Developing this morning, police are looking for leads, after a man and a teenage girl were shot and seriously injured on a street in the Lawndale neighborhood.
9.1	Government (National)	6:05 AM	6/14	120	WGN Morning News	President Biden is in Brussels for two days of summits with leaders from NATO and the European Union.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	6/14	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Children/Youth	8:15 AM	6/14	180	WGN Morning News	10-year-old Pepper Persley is a rising star in women's basketball media. She called her first NBA playoff game this month, for game 5 of the Clippers and Mavericks' first-round series.
9.1	Housing	9:05 AM	6/14	360	WGN Morning News	Whether you're looking to buy, sell, rent or own we're talking to a guy who's done it all and now owns more than a thousand properties in his multi-million-dollar empire, Cesar Pina.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:45 AM	6/14	360	WGN Morning News	There's a big weekend coming up 'Juneteenth', which celebrates the emancipation of those who had been enslaved in the United States falls around the same time as Father's Day, this year we're looking at some great restaurants to take the family to with Audarshia Townsend

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	12:13 PM	6/14	120	WGN Midday News	Community activists are trying to prevent CPS from demolishing a historic building on Chicago's far South Side. WGN's Sean Lewis is live in Altgeld Gardens with why they want to save it.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:22 PM	6/14	120	WGN Midday News	On the Medical Watch: up to 4 million ventilators are being recalled because of a cancer risk. The recall also affects breathing devices used by patients who suffer from sleep apnea.
9.1	Environment	4:00 PM	6/14	120	WGN Early Evening News	You are looking at live pictures from the scene in Rockton, where the Chemtool plant continues to burn this afternoon, more than eight hours after it started this morning.
9.1	Education	4:02 PM	6/14	120	WGN Early Evening News	A former Chicago Public Schools official will return to the district as interim CEO this summer. Mayor Lori Lightfoot says Jose Torres will help CPS transition back to full time in-person learning this fall.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:23 PM	6/14	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, groundbreaking legislation designed to help those struggling with memory loss in Illinois.
9.1	Environment	5:01 PM	6/14	120	WGN Evening News	The chemical fire is spewing heavy black smoke into the sky, and it's causing serious concerns about air quality. WGN's Tonya Francisco is here with that part of the story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:06 PM	6/14	120	WGN Evening News	Investigators are searching tonight for a teenage girl who was kidnapped early

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						this morning from Peru in LaSalle county.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:02 PM	6/14	120	WGN Evening News	Surveillance video showing the crash that destroyed a Chicago police squad car, injuring two officers. Charges have been filed tonight in the accident.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	6/14	120	WGN News at Nine	Community activists, rallying tonight to try and slow the violence across the city. This past weekend, at least 45 people were shot, including a mass shooting in Chatham.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:32 AM	6/15	120	WGN Early Morning News	Police responding to a crash on Lake Shore Drive found two people inside had been shot multiple times and one of them died. Erik Runge is live in the Gold Coast neighborhood with more.
9.1	Government (National)	6:30 AM	6/15	120	WGN Morning News	President Biden is preparing for a much-anticipated meeting with Russian president Vladimir Putin, which is set for tomorrow morning. Leland Vittert joins us live this morning from Geneva, Switzerland.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	6/15	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:00 PM	6/15	120	WGN Midday News	Outrage from community activists as more gun violence erupts in Chicago. Seven people killed overnight, four at a shooting inside a home in Englewood
9.1	Immigration	4:12 PM	6/15	120	WGN Early Evening News	Today marks the 9-year anniversary of the creation of the DACA program.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:22 PM	6/15	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, a 7-year bug. Scientists now say not only is a coronavirus pandemic likely coming back, history gives a hint as to when.
9.1	Minority Issues	4:30 PM	6/15	270	WGN Early Evening News	100 years ago, today, Bessie Coleman received an international pilot's license. She was the first Black woman and Native American woman to achieve the feat. And as WGN's Gaynor Hall reports, Coleman's legacy is flying high.
9.1	Environment	6:00 PM	6/15	120	WGN Evening News	Day two of the Rockton chemical fire, and emergency responders say they're making progress. Despite that, it could be days before the fire is out.
9.1	Community	6:06 PM	6/15	120	WGN Evening News	A boxing gym that provides free coaching and academic tutoring to kids and teens, has been burglarized. The thieves got away with laptop computers, equipment and the gym's much needed van. Now, they need help replacing the items.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:22 PM	6/15	120	WGN Evening News	A teenager who tried to hang himself and suffered severe injuries, has died. Now his family is asking the community for help with his funeral expenses. WGN's Meghan Dwyer has the story.
9.1	Government (Local)	6:29 PM	6/15	120	WGN Evening News	Chicagoans are looking to Mayor Lori Lightfoot for answers, after a shooting left four dead in Englewood. The mayor says the city's growing violence is a complicated problem, that needs a federal fix.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:45 PM	6/15	120	WGN Evening News	Some are still hesitant to return to public despite Illinois lifting COVID 19 restrictions. And what they're going through is called "cave syndrome." Joining us to talk about this is Mia Rusey, a case therapist with Northwestern Medicine Central DuPage hospital.
9.1	Environment	9:45 PM	6/15	300	WGN News at Nine	The northern half of the Chicago area is in a state of severe drought. Julie Unruh has more on our summer that could be headed for the history books.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	6/16	120	WGN Early Morning News	Nine people have been shot, two have died, since yesterday evening in Chicago. Glenn Marshall is live at police headquarters with details.
9.1	Education	5:30 AM	6/16	120	WGN Early Morning News	The Illinois house is expected pass a bill over Mayor Lightfoot's objections that would create an elected school board for Chicago. It's already passed the state senate.
9.1	Politics	6:27 AM	6/16	120	WGN Morning News	President Biden's high stakes meeting with Russian president Vladimir Putin gets underway in a few minutes. Joining us on the phone is WGN political analyst Paul Lisnek.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	6/16	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	7:35 AM	6/16	120	WGN Morning News	World-renowned astrophysicist Neil DeGrasse Tyson does not shy away from the tough questions about the universe. And in his new book 'Cosmic Queries' he is breaking down some of world's most important philosophical questions
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:03 PM	6/16	120	WGN Early Evening News	With shootings up 18-percent this year, Mayor Lightfoot is trying to reassure Chicagoans she has a plan to fight the violence.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:23 PM	6/16	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, a warning for one of the biggest summer road dangers, motorcycle accidents! An unlikely story of survival after a motorcycle accident victim breaks a record at a busy city trauma center.
9.1	Community	4:33 PM	6/16	150	WGN Early Evening News	We're getting ready for a special day here at WGN – as we celebrate Founder's "Day of Caring" tomorrow. All 199 Nexstar TV stations will be giving back with volunteer opportunities for its thousands of employees.
9.1	Minority Issues	4:40 PM	6/16	120	WGN Early Evening News	Juneteeth is now officially a state holiday in Illinois. Governor Pritzker signing that bill today in Springfield.
9.1	Consumer Issues	5:50 PM	6/16	240	WGN Evening News	The first payments from the expanded childcare credit will be sent on July 15th. It's part of the American Rescue Plan Act. For more about this tax credit and what parents need to do, we are joined by Geoff Harlow partner at Wipfli LLP

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:01 PM	6/16	150	WGN News at Nine	A balloon release at the scene of a mass shooting on Chicago's South Side. Friends and family of the victims made emotional appeals for change from within their own neighborhood. WGN's Mike Lowe is live at the University of Chicago medical center with more.
9.1	Environment	9:08 PM	6/16	180	WGN News at Nine	Now the latest on that big chemical plant fire, burning in Rockton. People living within one mile of the plant, still can't go home tonight. The fire erupted Monday. And there are still a lot of questions about the health impact of the ash and debris.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:00 AM	6/17	120	WGN Early Morning News	A city committee will hold hearings today on Mayor Lightfoot's revised plan to stop alcohol sales at midnight. Her first proposal of 10 pm was considered dead on arrival.
9.1	Education	6:30 AM	6/17	120	WGN Morning News	Chicago is closer to getting an elected school board. The Illinois house gave final approval to a bill, despite strong opposition from Mayor Lightfoot.
9.1	Business & Industry	6:45 AM	6/17	120	WGN Morning News	It's almost one week since Illinois fully reopened for business, and the state's economy had significantly fewer businesses than prior to the pandemic. Compared to January 2020, the state had 39 percent fewer businesses this may. Illinois is also battling one of the highest unemployment rates in the nation.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	6/17	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Minority Issues	12:16 PM	6/17	120	WGN Midday News	Mayor Lori Lightfoot and other city and community leaders declare racism a public health crisis in Chicago.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:04 PM	6/17	120	WGN Early Evening News	Illinois is offering a lucrative incentive to help boost COVID vaccinations. Governor Pritzker announcing today details of a new 10-million-dollar lottery.
9.1	Cultural	4:24 PM	6/17	120	WGN Early Evening News	A very unique exhibit will be unveiled to the public tomorrow, right here in Chicago. It's a homecoming of sorts. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty joins us with more on the Obama portraits, soon to be on display
9.1	Community	4:35 PM	6/17	120	WGN Early Evening News	It's a day of service here at WGN as we mark Nexstar's founder's "day of caring." It's a volunteer opportunity given to employees every year for the last 25 years.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:32 PM	6/17	120	WGN Evening News	Chicago police looking for a woman wanted in a string of stabbings across several north side neighborhoods in recent weeks.
9.1	Legal Matters	5:45 PM	6/17	120	WGN Evening News	Today the Supreme Court threw out a challenge to the Affordable Care Act, preserving insurance coverage for millions of Americans. The justices ruled 7 to 2 to keep the entire law intact.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Legal Matters	6:22 PM	6/17	240	WGN Evening News	The US Supreme Court delivers another legal blow to opponents of the Affordable Care Act. The court also ruled on a Catholic foster care agency's refusal to certify same-sex couples as foster parents. WGN political analyst Paul Lisnek joins us now to break down the cases.
9.1	Children/Youth	6:29 PM	6/17	120	WGN Evening News	A crisis for children and teens trying to get mental health services at Lurie Children's Hospital. Hundreds of names are on a waitlist, and the hospital says it could get worse.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:32 PM	6/17	120	WGN Evening News	Chicago police warning north side residents this evening about a woman who's stabbing people, seemingly at random. WGN's Rob Sneed is live in Lakeview at the site of one of the attacks.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	10:16 PM	6/17	240	WGN News at Ten	In tonight's WGN Investigates, the pandemic restrictions may be over, but the scams are not. So far 1-point-7 million attempts to file fake unemployment claims have been stopped but the state doesn't think the thieves are done. Investigative reporter Lourdes Duarte has more on how the filing of false unemployment claims is impacting tax returns.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	6/18	120	WGN Early Morning News	A developing story in the Gold Coast, where a man was shot during an attempted carjacking. Judy Wang has more from Northwestern memorial

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	6/18	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:21 AM	6/18	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Minority Issues	8:18 AM	6/18	120	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to talk about Juneteenth and its significance is Jemar Tisby. He is the author of "The color of compromise: the truth about the American church's complicity in racism."
9.1	Community	12:04 PM	6/18	120	WGN Midday News	A little boy injured in a hit-and-run during a road rage incident, rode to his preschool graduation ceremony in style today. WGN's Kelly Davis is live at 71st and Artesian with details.
9.1	Cultural	4:40 PM	6/18	120	WGN Early Evening News	So much of who we are is shaped by how and where we grew up. A Chicago artist says her childhood in Little Village, is what inspires her art.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 PM	6/18	120	WGN Evening News	A police officer is being honored and remembered tonight, after losing his battle with COVID-19. WGN's Jenna Barnes is live in Hammond with that story.
9.1	Environment	5:05 PM	6/18	120	WGN Evening News	An update now on the chemical plant fire in Rockton that's been burning since Monday. The fire is now contained, and officials have lifted the evacuation order allowing residents to return to their homes. But there is still a risk of possible contamination.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00 PM	6/18	120	WGN Evening News	Gunfire erupts on Chicago's South Side. A woman is dead, and a man is in the hospital in critical condition. One child was also taken to the hospital. Let's go to WGN's Mike Lowe who just arrived on the scene.
9.1	Cultural	6:34 PM	6/18	330	WGN Evening News	Chicago is home to the biggest blues record label in the world. As Tonya Francisco reports, Alligator Records is celebrating 50 years of house rockin' music.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:03 PM	6/18	120	WGN News at Nine	WGN Investigates has new information on the Englewood home that was the site of a mass shooting earlier this week. And tonight, we've learned that home is owned by a veteran Chicago police officer - and this isn't the first time his home has been the scene of a crime.
9.1	Community	9:27 PM	6/18	150	WGN News at Nine	A 7-year-old boy is credited with saving his mom's life, by making a call to 911. Today, emergency responders honored him to show just how important it is for children to know what to do in an emergency. WGN's Mike Lowe has the story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:45 PM	6/18	180	WGN News at Nine	Her parents encouraged her to become a doctor or a lawyer, but this international beauty queen found her purpose by bringing attention to a disorder that is often misunderstood.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	10:00 PM	6/18	120	WGN News at Ten	The nation is celebrating the first-ever Juneteenth holiday when slavery finally came to an end in this country 156-years ago. WGN's Dana Rebik tells us of some of the events taking place and how the fight for equality and justice is still on-going.
9.1	Immigration	6:40 AM	6/19	350	Adelante Chicago	It is one of the most controversial topics in the u-s. The crisis at the border and what to do about it. Two weeks ago - vice president Kamala Harris traveled to Guatemala and Mexico City on a two-day trip to study the migrant crisis. She had some tough words for anyone thinking about crossing the border illegally.
9.1	Minority Issues	8:00 AM	6/19	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Today is Juneteenth which just became a federal holiday this week. Judy Wang is live at Park Community Church with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:15 AM	6/19	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	We're joined now by Parham Zar, the founder of the Egg donor and Surrogacy Institute. He's an expert in family planning options for LGBTQ partners.
9.1	Children/Youth	9:13 AM	6/19	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	Sherri Rose is a retired pediatric and family nurse practitioner who decided to write a book about COVID for kids. She hopes the resources in her book, "The Teensy Weensy Virus" will be useful to parents and caregivers all over the world.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	5:01 PM	6/19	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A variety of commemorative events for Juneteenth are being held in Chicago and WGN's Rob Sneed joins us from the Avalon Park neighborhood where one is taking place now
9.1	Minority Issues	5:26 PM	6/19	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A city in the western suburbs was the first in Illinois to recognize Juneteenth as a holiday. Marcella Raymond takes us to Plano where a celebration marked the occasion.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:30 PM	6/19	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Today, the Puerto Rican Day parade was the first major parade to return since the pandemic. WGN's Meghan Dwyer is in Humboldt Park with the celebrations.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:34 PM	6/19	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Chicago's DuSable museum of African American history is open again, the first time since the pandemic. The reopening coincided with the first official celebration of Juneteenth.
9.1	Government (National)	5:38 PM	6/19	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A new infrastructure bill with bipartisan backing is gaining traction on Capitol Hill. But while some are optimistic, some Democrats have come out against it.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:01 PM	6/19	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Starting tonight with breaking news. Police are looking for a man who stabbed a woman to death in the loop.
9.1	Environment	9:16 PM	6/19	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	An update tonight on extreme weather across the country. The gulf is recovering from a tropical storm, while out west, they're seeing triple digit temperatures with no relief in sight.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:00 AM	6/20	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Developing this morning, a fatal hit-and-run crash involving a stolen car on the South Side, also critically injured two children.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:02 PM	6/20	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A SWAT team response at a downtown hotel, where a woman was shot just a few hours ago. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty joins us now from the Loop with more details
9.1	Business & Industry	5:23 PM	6/20	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	City dwellers know this: having a dog, but not a backyard can make it hard to get them the exercise they need. And some dogs have behavior challenges that make dog parks and day cares tough. Marcella Raymond takes us to an indoor space in Ravenswood created just for them.
9.1	Politics	5:29 PM	6/20	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Democrats are ironing out the final details of their voting rights bill before it hits the senate floor on Tuesday.
9.1	Community	5:33 PM	6/20	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Fritzie Fritzshall, the president of the Illinois Holocaust museum has died. A survivor of the Nazi concentration camp in Auschwitz, she was a force for good. WGN's Jenna Barnes is live in Skokie with the story.
9.1	Environment	5:02 AM	6/21	120	WGN Early Morning News	28-hundred people in Woodridge are included in those numbers. That's where a tornado touched down overnight.
9.1	Environment	6:30 AM	6/21	120	WGN Morning News	Naperville also felt the wrath of the storm. Daylight is giving Glenn a better look at the damage and he joins us.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	6:50 AM	6/21	360	People to People	Tammera Holmes is Founder of Non-profit AeroStar. AeroStar programs are geared to increase diversity and inclusion in the aviation industry as well as increase awareness to youth that there are great jobs and opportunity in the aviation/aerospace industry.
9.1	Environment	7:27 AM	6/21	120	WGN Morning News	Joining us on the phone is national weather service meteorologist Matt Friedlin.
9.1	Consumer Issues	12:24 PM	6/21	360	WGN Midday News	Joining us now to share more about scams you may run into on amazon prime day as well as the scams that might arise from tornado clean up. Is Steve Bernas president and CEO for the better business bureau of Chicago and northern Illinois
9.1	Politics	12:42 PM	6/21	120	WGN Midday News	The senate is set to debate a voting rights bill this week. Democrats are pushing to pass it, but Republicans are adamantly opposed.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:15 PM	6/21	120	WGN Early Evening News	After a violent weekend that left 10 Chicagoans dead, the city's top cop is arguing crime across the city is actually down, from this time last year.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:27 PM	6/21	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, a shortage of blood donations during the pandemic is leading some hospitals to delay surgeries. The American Association of Blood Banks says the current shortage is unprecedented.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Environment	4:31 PM	6/21	120	WGN Early Evening News	We continue now with breaking news we've been following about the tornado that tore through the western suburbs late last night. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty is live in Woodridge with the latest on the damage and how officials are helping residents.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:14 PM	6/21	120	WGN Evening News	New video of another violent event shows what happened right before a deadly shooting in Humboldt Park Saturday. A man was killed, and one woman was critically injured not long after the Puerto Rican day parade.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:31 PM	6/21	120	WGN Evening News	Naperville was hit hard. As bad as it was, officials say it could have been a lot worse. The fire department says one of the big challenges was going door to door in the middle of the night to make sure everyone was accounted for. WGN's Dana Rebik is live in Naperville with that part of our coverage.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:38 PM	6/21	240	WGN Evening News	As the number of COVID cases and hospitalizations continue to drop -- and the number of vaccinated rises people are returning to normal. So, what sorts of lessons have we learned. Beth Squires -- a public health educator from Northern Illinois University -- joins us now
9.1	Legal Matters	5:47 PM	6/21	120	WGN Evening News	The Supreme Court handing down a unanimous victory today for college athletes. The justices ruled the NCAA can no longer limit education-related

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						benefits offered to Division One basketball and football players.
9.1	Legal Matters	6:48 PM	6/21	180	WGN Evening News	Dozens of residents in Rockton who were forced to evacuate their homes following last week's massive fire at the Chemtool plant are now suing the company. They claim it was negligence that led to the explosion and fire. Joining us now is Peter Flowers, an attorney with Meyers and Flowers and he's representing some Rockton residents
9.1	Community	9:08 PM	6/21	210	WGN News at Nine	Some residents in Woodridge got a lot of help from volunteers who just showed up to pitch in. WGN's Meghan Dwyer has that part of the story.
9.1	Environment	6:05 AM	6/22	120	WGN Morning News	Matt Friedlein with the national weather service joins us now.
9.1	Environment	8:02 AM	6/22	120	WGN Morning News	It may take most of the summer to clear way the mess left behind by Sunday night's tornado in the west and Southwest suburbs. Glenn joins us live from Naperville.
9.1	Cultural	8:19 AM	6/22	180	WGN Morning News	The PBS docuseries "American Portrait" showcases the stories of over 14-thousand people across the US making change, preserving traditions, and sharing what they stand for. It aired as a series of specials over the last year.
9.1	Children/Youth	12:26 PM	6/22	120	WGN Midday News	The American Academy of Pediatrics says all children should be screened for potential heart problems, not just those who play sports.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	12:41 PM	6/22	120	WGN Midday News	Today's the last day of school for Chicago Public School students in a year that's been like no other.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:25 PM	6/22	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, since the start of the pandemic fewer children are getting their regular vaccinations. The CDC says in the fall of 2019, about 96 percent of children in public schools were adequately vaccinated. However, that number dropped to 88 percent last fall
9.1	Politics	5:07 PM	6/22	120	WGN Evening News	An expansive election and voting rights bill favored by Democrats is all but certain to be rejected in a key senate test vote. The senate is voting now on a procedural motion whether to begin debate on the bill.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:31 PM	6/22	120	WGN Evening News	A vigil is being held for a couple who was shot and killed after the Puerto Rican parade Saturday. This as Chicago police search for the people who attacked them.
9.1	Business & Industry	6:35 PM	6/22	120	WGN Evening News	Cleanup efforts continue in Woodridge, where dozens of homes and buildings were ravaged by Sunday's tornado. Among the businesses destroyed, the family owned "Skeleton Key Brewery."
9.1	Community	9:51 PM	6/22	360	WGN News at Nine	Two years ago, we introduced you to a Chicago woman with a powerful song to sing. She was working to bring others faith, joy, and motivation through music until the pandemic left

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						her silenced. WGN's Gaynor Hall has tonight's Cover Story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	6/23	120	WGN Early Morning News	President Biden will lay out his plan to combat the surge in gun violence across the country. It comes as major cities like Chicago see a spike in violent crimes this summer.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:00 AM	6/23	120	WGN Morning News	Breaking news, three people were shot in the Wentworth Gardens neighborhood. Glenn Marshall is live at the scene with the latest.
9.1	Minority Issues	8:19 AM	6/23	180	WGN Morning News	Two people from Chicago's West Side started a TikTok channel. It's called "Black People Outside" and their goal is to make outdoor adventures accessible and welcoming.
9.1	Government (Local)	12:00 PM	6/23	120	WGN Midday News	A possible name change for Lake Shore Drive and grant money for businesses recovering from the pandemic go before the City Council today.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:27 PM	6/23	120	WGN Midday News	A new study shows children's birthday parties may have contributed to the spread of COVID during the early part of last year.
9.1	Government (Local)	4:00 PM	6/23	120	WGN Early Evening News	It's all caught on camera. A heated exchange between the mayor and an alderman help tell the story of tension at City Hall. WGN's political reporter Tahman Bradley is live at City Hall with details.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (National)	4:31 PM	6/23	120	WGN Early Evening News	The second gentlemen Doug Emhoff visited Chicago today to urge people to get vaccinated. It's part of the White House's effort to get more people vaccinated as the new "delta" variant spreads.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:37 PM	6/23	120	WGN Early Evening News	A woman shot and killed while walking with her husband down North Avenue in Humboldt Park. No one is in custody. WGN's Gaynor Hall is live at the scene in Humboldt Park.
9.1	Cultural	4:43 PM	6/23	180	WGN Early Evening News	Two new displays of public art are in the running for a prestigious international award. Both of them are at O'Hare airport and they are pretty hard to miss! Joining us now to talk about the displays and the competition is Toni Sikes, the CEO of Coda-Worx.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:32 PM	6/23	120	WGN Evening News	Tomorrow will be your last chance to get a COVID vaccination shot at the United Center. WGN's Patrick Elwood is there where thousands of people have rolled-up their sleeves over the last few months.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:03 PM	6/23	180	WGN Evening News	As Chicago struggles with a surge in gun violence, President Biden is laying out a plan to address violent crime across the nation.
9.1	Legal Matters	6:22 PM	6/23	120	WGN Evening News	The Supreme Court ruled in favor of a Pennsylvania cheerleader, who said her First Amendment rights were violated when she posted a vulgar post on social media. WGN's legal analyst Paul

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						Lisnek joins us now with a look at the case.
9.1	Environment	9:08 PM	6/23	120	WGN News at Nine	We're learning more about the devastation caused by Sunday night's tornado. Family members tell us a pregnant mother in Woodridge was rushed to the hospital after a tree crashed through her roof and her unborn son did not survive.
9.1	Community	9:46 PM	6/23	300	WGN News at Nine	In tonight's Cover Story, WGN is highlighting Pride Month with a tale of two hearts that became one in a coffee shop. WGN's Mike Lowe reports.
9.1	Housing	5:00 AM	6/24	120	WGN Early Morning News	We're following breaking news -- a condo building partially collapses near Miami overnight.
9.1	Employment	6:30 AM	6/24	120	WGN Morning News	Nurses for the Cook County Health system will be on the picket lines today. Jenna Barnes is live outside Stroger Hospital with the latest.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:33 AM	6/24	180	WGN Morning News	Chicago police are looking for a gunman who killed one person and injured 2 others on the city's South Side. Third ward Alderman Pat Dowell joins us now.
9.1	Community	12:06 PM	6/24	120	WGN Midday News	A Holocaust survivor and president of the Illinois Holocaust Museum and Education Center is remembered today. Fritzie Fritzshall passed away on Saturday. She was honored on this inaugural Holocaust Survivor Day.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:27 PM	6/24	120	WGN Midday News	The FDA says it will move quickly to add a warning about rare cases of heart inflammation related to the Pfizer and Moderna COVID-19 vaccines.
9.1	Housing	4:01 PM	6/24	120	WGN Early Evening News	Rescue crews desperately searching for survivors after part of a condo building collapsed.
9.1	Politics	5:02 PM	6/24	120	WGN Evening News	Developing right now, the bitter back-and-forth at Chicago's City Hall continued today, in the aftermath of a chaotic City Council meeting yesterday that ended with a heated exchange on the floor between the mayor and an alderwoman.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00 PM	6/24	120	WGN Evening News	A bizarre incident in the northwest suburbs tops our news at six. A baby is hurt after a driver tries to get away from another car. It's all captured on home security video. Tonight, police are investigating.
9.1	Housing	6:36 PM	6/24	180	WGN Evening News	We continue our breaking coverage of the condo building collapse in Miami. It may leave many in Chicago wondering if that could happen here and how we can prevent it. Joining us now is the incoming president of the Structural Engineers Association of Illinois, Derek Belt.
9.1	Employment	6:49 PM	6/24	180	WGN Evening News	Now on our Back to Work segment, helping veterans and military spouses find work as they transition from military service to corporate America. Joining us now is Christian Cañas,

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						Director of Operations at Lasalle Network.
9.1	Housing	10:00 PM	6/24	120	WGN News at Ten	Back to our breaking news about that deadly building collapse. A University of Chicago student along with his girlfriend are said to be missing. WGN's Mike Lowe joins us live from Hyde Park.
9.1	Legal Matters	10:06 PM	6/24	120	WGN News at Ten	Former Minneapolis police officer Derek Chauvin will be sentenced for murdering George Floyd tomorrow. WGN's Erik Runge is live in Minneapolis tonight with more.
9.1	Housing	6:00 AM	6/25	120	WGN Morning News	Search and rescue crews continue to sift through the rubble of a high-rise building collapse in Florida, where 99 people are unaccounted for. It comes as new information emerges about the history of the building.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	6/25	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Housing	9:20 AM	6/25	360	WGN Morning News	We're looking at the latest in Chicago real estate news including some new data on Chicago homeowners.
9.1	Government (Local)	12:17 PM	6/25	120	WGN Midday News	The Chicago City Council has some unfinished business to tend to this afternoon - after Wednesday's meeting ended in chaos. WGN's Meghan Dwyer joins us live from City Hall with a preview.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	12:20 PM	6/25	180	WGN Midday News	A Spanish teacher at a Chicago high school is creating a safe space for her students to learn. It also gives them room to be themselves. Before classes let out for summer break – I stopped by Kenwood Academy to meet our June Teacher of the Month.
9.1	Legal Matters	4:00 PM	6/25	120	WGN Early Evening News	Breaking news tonight Derek Chauvin sentenced to 22 and a half years in prison for the murder of George Floyd.
9.1	Legal Matters	4:03 PM	6/25	180	WGN Early Evening News	WGN analyst Paul Lisnek is here now to talk about the sentence.
9.1	Environment	4:31 PM	6/25	120	WGN Early Evening News	Days after a tornado caused tremendous damage in several Chicago-area suburbs, rain is now hampering cleanup efforts. And with even more wet weather on the way, residents are concerned
9.1	Legal Matters	5:08 PM	6/25	240	WGN Evening News	Tony Romanucci is part of the Floyd family legal team. He joins us live from Minneapolis.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:34 PM	6/25	120	WGN Evening News	Families right here in Chicago waited for the Chauvin sentence to come down this afternoon. Among them, the family of 17-year-old Laquan McDonald, who was shot and killed by a Chicago police officer in 2014. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty spoke with McDonald's great uncle today.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:08 PM	6/25	210	WGN Evening News	Joining us now is Sheila Bedi, a professor at the Northwestern Pritzker School of Law and the Director of the Community Justice and Civil Rights Clinic.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	6:16 PM	6/25	120	WGN Evening News	Stories continue to emerge today of people searching for their loved ones. Many of the victims are members of the local Jewish synagogue just as the Sabbath begins. Correspondent Justin Schecker has their story for us.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:30 PM	6/25	120	WGN Evening News	A child is dead after an apparent self-inflicted gunshot wound. We get more on the story now from WGN's Gaynor Hall
9.1	Government (Local)	9:11 PM	6/25	120	WGN News at Nine	It's official, after months, weeks and days of debate, the City Council has voted to give Lake Shore Drive a new name. WGN's Shannon Halligan is here now with the very latest.
9.1	Community	9:14 PM	6/25	240	WGN News at Nine	A Chicago area gymnastics trailblazer is finally getting some much-deserved recognition. This weekend, Dianne Durham will be inducted into the hall fame. As WGN's Tonya Francisco reports, the honor comes months after her death and despite a controversy that kept her from the Olympics.
9.1	Elderly	9:43 PM	6/25	240	WGN News at Nine	From basketball and wrestling to men's softball. He's officiated thousands of sports throughout the years. And at 90 years old, he's proving you can stay in the game. Morrie Schwartz, he is one of Chicago's Very Own.
9.1	Environment	8:03 AM	6/26	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	The cleanup continues in the western suburbs, after several tornadoes touched down earlier this week. Today, residents are getting some extra help.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Legal Matters	9:18 AM	6/26	270	WGN Weekend Morning News	Today is the sixth anniversary of the Supreme Court's landmark decision to legalize gay marriage. A new book "The Engagement," charts the long history of the legal battle along the way. And joining me now is the author of the book, Sasha Issenberg.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:47 AM	6/26	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	Summer is in full swing and more people are using fireworks. Joining us to talk about firework safety with a manager at Phantom Fireworks, Jessi Dragoy.
9.1	Environment	5:15 PM	6/26	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Residents in and around Crete Illinois and Dyer Indiana are picking up debris from their yards after a possible tornado ripped through their neighborhoods. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty joins us now from Dyer.
9.1	Environment	9:06 PM	6/26	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	The strong winds and heavy rains weren't limited to the south suburbs. There was damage and flash flooding in Chicago. WGN's Rob Sneed reports on some of the destruction on the northwest side.
9.1	Community	9:36 PM	6/26	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	It's a weekend of amateur hockey in the northwest suburbs. Proceeds go to a non-profit that helps kids and young adults with autism.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:30 AM	6/27	396	People to People	Dr. Jeffrey Sterling of SIMPCO Illinois Managed Preventative Care answers the question, "Is COVID over?"

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:41 AM	6/27	379	People to People	June 26, 2021 - WGN's Glenn Marshall shares his experiences in covering Chicago's ongoing gun violence, and his efforts to show the humanity of the communities he's reporting from.
9.1	Cultural	6:51 AM	6/27	538	People to People	Shantrelle P. Lewis, director of Array/ Netflix documentary "In Our Mothers' Gardens" talks about the inspiration behind the touching look at the enduring influence of Black women.
9.1	Environment	8:05 AM	6/27	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Severe weather triggered flooding, knocked over trees, and caused other damage in Chicago. WGN's Jenna Barnes is live on the Museum Campus with more.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:00 PM	6/27	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	The LGBTQ community marched for a purpose at the people's Pride Parade. Organizers feel the Chicago Pride Parade overlooks Black and Brown members of their community.
9.1	Religion	5:07 PM	6/27	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A South Side community says goodbye to an important religious and cultural landmark. WGN's Jenna Barnes spoke with congregants of Bronzeville's Corpus Christi Catholic Church as they celebrated the church's final mass.
9.1	Government (National)	5:13 PM	6/27	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A one-point-two trillion-dollar bipartisan infrastructure deal appears back on track today after President Biden walked back a comment he made after announcing the agreement.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
						Anna Wiernicki has the latest from Washington.
9.1	Community	5:26 PM	6/27	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Musicians are jamming on porches this summer in Lakeview and Roscoe Village. Marcella Raymond reports from the northwest side where live music is back.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:30 PM	6/27	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	The parents of a woman who went missing almost three years ago speaking out again today, making a renewed appeal for information on what happened to their daughter. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty spoke with them today.
9.1	Transportation	9:00 PM	6/27	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Breaking now, a deadly collision. A Metra train strikes a car on the city's South Side.
9.1	Community	9:37 PM	6/27	180	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Members of three area motorcycle clubs took a ride today in honor of a fallen marine from Chicago. Their efforts raising money for a great cause.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	6/28	120	WGN Early Morning News	A total of 17 people were victims of two shootings on the South Side. Two of them are dead. Glenn Marshall is live at the University of Chicago hospital with what we know so far.
9.1	Transportation	6:30 AM	6/28	120	WGN Morning News	We continue to follow a developing story: three people are dead, including a child, after a collision with a Metra train and an SUV.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	6/28	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr Robert Murphy. He is a Professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Housing	8:30 AM	6/28	180	WGN Morning News	152 people are still missing after the condo collapse in Surfside, Florida. Joining us now is emergency response expert Mark Herrera
9.1	Housing	12:04 PM	6/28	120	WGN Midday News	The city of Chicago is looking to cut crime, by increasing home ownership. The mayor unveiled a new program today aimed at doing just that. WGN's Jenna Barnes is live to explain.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:24 PM	6/28	120	WGN Midday News	On the Medical Watch, a new study adds to growing evidence that COVID -19 vaccines may protect against the virus for years.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:05 PM	6/28	120	WGN Early Evening News	Chicago police are still looking for the suspect wanted for stabbing four people in apparent random attacks on the north side this month. The most recent victim spoke exclusively with our Meghan Dwyer about his experience.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:23 PM	6/28	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, health officials are warning about yet another new strain of COVID-19. It's called the "delta plus variant" and it's been detected in several countries, including the US.
9.1	Government (Local)	4:39 PM	6/28	210	WGN Early Evening News	Illinois is extending expiration dates for driver's licenses and state ID cards. Joining us now to go over the latest on these deadlines is Secretary of State spokesman Dave Drucker.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	6:06 PM	6/28	120	WGN Evening News	The mayor and police superintendent are not the only ones frustrated by Chicago's incessant violence. Today, angry City Council members spoke out. WGN's political reporter Tahman Bradley is here now with that part of the story.
9.1	Environment	6:29 PM	6/28	120	WGN Evening News	The Chicago area was swamped over the weekend, and now another round of storms is prompting flooding concerns. In west suburban Hinsdale, some question whether a major construction project is to blame for terrible floods. WGN's Dana Rebik is live with the story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:12 PM	6/28	120	WGN News at Nine	The wife of a retired Gary firefighter is speaking out tonight after he was killed at a gas station over the weekend. Police have taken two juveniles in custody for that shooting.
9.1	Government (National)	9:16 PM	6/28	120	WGN News at Nine	The Biden administration will fall short of its 4th of July vaccination goal but the infrastructure deal is back on. Joining us now with more insight, Washington Post correspondent Tyler Pager.
9.1	Government (National)	10:13 PM	6/28	120	WGN News at Ten	House Democrats will vote this week to create a select committee to investigate the January 6th Capitol riot. The move comes after Senate Republicans blocked legislation to create a bi-partisan commission.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Housing	7:03 AM	6/29	120	WGN Morning News	Still developing in Surfside, Florida, day six of search and rescue operations. Eleven people are now confirmed dead in the condo collapse near Miami beach. Dan is here with the latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:36 AM	6/29	180	WGN Morning News	Opening statements begin today in the first national trial that targets the entire supply chain of opioid drugs. Brady Granier is CEO of Bio Corrects Pharmaceuticals and an addiction nurse who has seen the impact of opioids firsthand.
9.1	Government (Local)	12:38 PM	6/29	120	WGN Midday News	Governor Pritzker is moments from signing a bill that will bring big changes for student athletes. The new law will allow them to get paid. Meghan Dwyer is in the newsroom with the latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:24 PM	6/29	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, vaccines on the go. What was once nearly impossible to find now in surplus and on the streets.
9.1	Government (National)	4:36 PM	6/29	120	WGN Early Evening News	The House will vote today on a resolution to remove Confederate statues from the U.S. Capitol.
9.1	Politics	5:24 PM	6/29	120	WGN Evening News	Former President Trump is set to visit the U.S.-Mexico border tomorrow. Trump will join a group of republican lawmakers and Texas Governor Greg Abbott to discuss plans to continue building a border wall.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	5:29 PM	6/29	120	WGN Evening News	New at five, whether Chicagoans will call Lake Shore Drive DuSable Lake Shore Drive remains to be seen, but for those who fought for the change, this is just the start of recognition for Chicago's founder. WGN's political reporter Tahman Bradley is here with the story.
9.1	Employment	5:35 PM	6/29	240	WGN Evening News	It was a program that started 4 years ago with a challenge from Chicago's mayor at the time. Would you hire some kids from "City Colleges of Chicago" to work at your blue-chip company? WGN's Julie Unruh has more on an ambitious apprentice program that started practically that day.
9.1	Environment	9:01 PM	6/29	120	WGN News at Nine	Breaking news in Morris. Firefighters are still trying to figure out how to extinguish a fire at a factory full of lithium batteries. It's forced thousands of residents from their homes.
9.1	Government (Local)	9:05 PM	6/29	180	WGN News at Nine	Developing tonight: dealing with violent crime. Chicago city leaders are preparing for a long holiday weekend. Both the city council and community activists want to hear in detail from Superintendent David Brown.
9.1	Housing	6:04 AM	6/30	120	WGN Morning News	149 people are still missing after last week's condo collapse near Miami, Florida. 12 People are now confirmed dead. Dan is here with the latest on the search and rescue efforts.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Environment	8:00 AM	6/30	120	WGN Morning News	Thousands of people in Morris are still out of their homes, as firefighters allow a hazardous materials fire to burn itself out.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:06 AM	6/30	210	WGN Morning News	President Biden set a goal of administering at least one vaccine to 70 percent of adults by July 4th. Illinois is close to that mark, at 69 percent. Dr Don Schwarz is the senior vice president at the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation.
9.1	Community	8:16 AM	6/30	210	WGN Morning News	A couple from the city's South Side has a podcast called "77 Flavors of Chicago." In each episode, they talk about a different neighborhood and a dish from a local restaurant.
9.1	Employment	12:18 PM	6/30	120	WGN Midday News	The worker shortage is hitting America's amusement parks. Nancy Loo says it may mean fewer attractions and longer lines this summer.
9.1	Environment	12:34 PM	6/30	120	WGN Midday News	President Biden just announced a slew of new efforts aimed at battling wildfires including wage hikes for some firefighters. He's also meeting with governors of western states and his top emergency response and climate officials.
9.1	Politics	12:39 PM	6/30	120	WGN Midday News	New York City's mayoral race plunged into chaos after a big mistake by the Board of Elections. They accidentally added thousands of test ballots to the tally, forcing them to re-tabulate the votes.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Legal Matters	4:00 PM	6/30	120	WGN Early Evening News	This afternoon: there's a surprising response from Cosby's one-time tv wife. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live at the Chicago Theater in the Loop with details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:24 PM	6/30	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the Medical Watch, more on the little-known illness Blackhawks star Jonathan Toews announced today. Medical reporter Dina Bair explains.
9.1	Consumer Issues	4:38 PM	6/30	240	WGN Early Evening News	As we continue to return to normal and events and concerts return - there's a warning to be wary of scammers ripping off people looking for tickets to festivals and concerts. Steve Bernas, the CEO and president of the Better Business Bureau, joins us now with what to look for.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:23 PM	6/30	120	WGN Evening News	Chicago officially unveiling another memorial to a Civil Rights pioneer. WGN's Jenna Barnes joins us from our newsroom with more on that.
9.1	Legal Matters	5:32 PM	6/30	210	WGN Evening News	Joining us now with more on Cosby's conviction being overturned is Richard Kling from the Chicago Kent College of Law.
9.1	Legal Matters	6:10 PM	6/30	210	WGN Evening News	Joining us now is law professor Daniel McConkie Junior from Northern Illinois University to talk about the legal aspects of the Cosby case.
9.1	Government (National)	9:02 PM	6/30	120	WGN News at Nine	We're tracking breaking news, the death of former Defense Secretary Donald Rumsfeld, who grew up in the Chicago area. WGN's Mike Lowe is taking a look back, live from the Loop.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government Local	6:56 AM	4/1	323	Adelante Chicago	Making art out of the Chicago experience. Gabriel Villa spent 20 years as the co-curator at the National Museum of Mexican Art. He now has his own solo art exhibit in Hyde Park
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:46 AM	5/8	360	Adelante Chicago	Each year, 60-thousand people are diagnosed with Parkinson's in the U-S. The symptoms and treatment are difficult...but there are resources out there to help a family manage. Listing the resources available to Chicago's Spanish speaking community

Quarterly Issues and Program List

The station aired the following Community Calendars during the instant quarter:

Type of Issue	Duration (Seconds)	Title or Narrative
Health/Healthcare	:15	Rise and Stretch
Cultural	:15	Chicago Sings Rock & Roll Broadway
Health/Healthcare	:15	Sugar Blues 101
Health/Healthcare	:15	Addiction & Family Support Group
Community	:15	Bunny Hop 5K
Health/Healthcare	:15	Declutter to De-Stress
Children/Youth	:15	Program in a Bag
Community	:15	Food Drive
Education	:15	Tutoring
Environment	:15	Sky Observers Hangout
Cultural	:15	New Art Exhibitions
Environment	:15	Saving Green While Living Green
Employment	:15	Diversity Employment Virtual Job Fair
Environment	:15	Spring Gardening
Housing	:15	Tenants' Rights Seminar
Cultural	:15	20 th Anniversary Season
Cultural	:15	Fanciful Fish Exhibit
Community	:15	Food Drive
Economy	:15	Personal Budget
Cultural	:15	Spring Events
Housing	:15	Habitat for Humanity Volunteers
Cultural	:15	Sensory Overload
Employment	:15	Healthcare Career Fair
Elderly	:15	Caregiver Support Group
Community	:15	Producemobile
Minority Issues	:15	LGBTQ+ Out in Nature Meet Up

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Type of Issue	Duration (Seconds)	Title or Narrative
Community	:15	Mom and Me Diaper Drive
Housing	:15	House Walk-by
Environment	:15	Organic Vegetable Garden
Employment	:15	Career Counseling
Women's Issues	:15	Marvelous Mothers of History and Today
Business & Industry	:15	Starting Your Business in Illinois
Health/Healthcare	:15	Green Means Go Virtual 5K
Employment	:15	Employment Opportunities
Community	:15	Meal Distribution
Economy	:15	Financial Literacy
Minority Issues	:15	Asian Pacific American Heritage Month
Cultural	:15	Belmont Theatre Events
Children/Youth	:15	Illinois Council on Responsible Fatherhood
Health/Healthcare	:15	Fight for Air Climb
Cultural	:15	Wilmette Historical Museum
Cultural	:15	Frida Kahlo: Timeless
Cultural	:15	Chicago Dance Month
Health/Healthcare	:15	Serenity for Life
Environment	:15	Camp CBG: Ecology
Children/Youth	:15	Summer Reading Program
Cultural	:15	Culture & Architecture Walking Tour
Minority Issues	:15	Race Conversations
Environment	:15	Planting and Maintaining a Perennial Garden
Environment	:15	Pitch in for the Parks
Children/Youth	:15	Jazz Workshop
Children/Youth	:15	Summer Break Art Camp

Quarterly Issues and Program List

The station also aired the following public service announcements during the instant quarter:

Type of Issue	Duration (Seconds)	Title Or Narrative
Crime/Law Enforcement	:30	Rainn
National Security	:15	IBA :15 Guard
Consumer Issues	:15	NLP
Children/Youth	:30	Save The Children 30
Environment	:15	Earth Justice Never Rest - Power
Health/Healthcare	:30	SAMSHA Helping Friend
Health/Healthcare	:15	AHA - Quit Lying
Health/Healthcare	:15	Lung Cancer Screening
Health/Healthcare	:30	SAMSHA Clouded
Health/Healthcare	:30	FDA Acetaminophen
Children/Youth	:15	Save The Children 15
Health/Healthcare	:15	AHA Mental Health
Children/Youth	:15	Zoom Call Crasher
Children/Youth	:15	Child Mind Lives
Health/Healthcare	:15	Alone Gen
Health/Healthcare	:30	UNICEF 30 COVID
Children/Youth	:15	Child Car Hoop
Health/Healthcare	:30	IBA COVID
Health/Healthcare	:30	AHA Mental Health
Children/Youth	:10	Child Car Safety
Health/Healthcare	:30	MS Black Americans
Health/Healthcare	:30	Bassett Know Diabetes
Children/Youth	:30	Child Mind Children's Lives
Environment	1:00	Earth Justice Never Rest
Consumer Issues	:30	Saving for Daughter
Crime/Law Enforcement	:30	Drug Impaired Driver

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Type of Issue	Duration (Seconds)	Title Or Narrative
Health/Healthcare	:30	Obesity Action Young Adult
Children/Youth	:30	Auto Tire Shop
Employment	:30	Natl Blind Hire Me
Health/Healthcare	:30	Lung Cancer Meet the Scan
Children/Youth	:30	Connect 360 Voice
Children/Youth	:15	Connect 360 Voice
Children/Youth	:30	Child Car Soccer
Children/Youth	:15	Autism
Health/Healthcare	:30	Poison Help HRSA
Government (Local)	:30	IBA - Mayors COVID
Health/Healthcare	:30	Caring for Urself
Environment	1:00	Wildlife Fund ' Cycle'
Environment	1:00	PSA World Wildlife
Health/Healthcare	:10	Lung Cancer Matches
Consumer Issues	:06	Saving for Retire Girls
Consumer Issues	:06	Saving for Retire
Children/Youth	:10	Howard
Health/Healthcare	1:00	Living Well MS
Health/Healthcare	1:00	Alliance for Aging Heart