

Programming Department

2501 W. Bradley Place
Chicago, IL 60618-4701
773.883.3254
773.472.0251 fax
www.wgntv.com

MEMO

To: Public File

From: Tom Boyd

Date: 1/9/15

cc: Greg Easterly
Chuck Sennet

Re: 4th Quarter 2014 Issues Programs Report

Attached you will find a list of community issues addressed on WGN-TV via News Programming and Specials, Community Calendars and Public Service Announcements for the 4th Quarter of 2014.

ISSUES REPORT WGN-TV 4th QUARTER 2014

THE FOLLOWING IS A REPRESENTATIVE LIST OF ISSUES AND SOME TYPICAL AND ILLUSTRATIVE NEWS PROGRAMS & STORIES DESIGNED TO FOCUS ON THEM.

ARTS & CULTURE

10/03 8:49am Women and Children Movie reporter live in studio TRT 2:15
In limited release this weekend, there's a movie out called, "Men, Women and Children", a chilling look at the effect computers, the Internet, social media and all things virtual have on us. Where human interaction is replaced by our anonymous obsession with living behind a keyboard.

10/04 5:39pm Mouth Painter reporter package TRT 2:30
Some of history's most famous artists were never huge successes in their own lifetimes. But as we hear from reporter Sean Lewis, a painter in Chicago's Uptown neighborhood brings a special brand of talent which he didn't know he had growing up, and it's paying off.

10/04 9:04pm Chicago Fire Fest reporter live with interviews TRT 1:45
To commemorate the Great Chicago Fire of 1871, a year-long effort by a Chicago artist has built several scale models of homes from the era and is planning to set them afire in the Chicago River, where hundreds of thousands of spectators have gathered.

10/06 5:12pm Same Sex Marriage Guest in studio TRT 3:20
A surprise from Washington today on same sex marriage. The U.S. Supreme Court is staying out of the debate. The high court deciding not to review appeals from states whose bans were struck down. This clears the way for same sex marriages to proceed in several states, including Indiana and Wisconsin. We talk to a legal expert.

10/08 11:25am Wedtoberfest Male Wedding Trends live guest in studio TRT 4:15
More and more male-influence in being seen in wedding plans and our guest talks about how more grooms are taking not only an active role in helping to plan their own weddings, but making the actual day more reflective of their male-oriented interests.

10/09 9:46pm Chicago Film Festival Begins reporter live with package TRT 3:15
The stars are out tonight and WGN is at the red carpet event for the annual Chicago Film Festival. Our entertainment reporter is there interviewing some of the celebrities who are in town for a wide diversity of films.

10/10 5:24pm Brick Competition reporter package TRT 2:30
An intense competition is underway in the northwest suburbs today. Bricklayers are competing to see who is the best of the best. We learn that bricklaying is one of the oldest professions, dating back to the Pyramids in Egypt. Contestants are trying to qualify as the region's best and fastest bricklayers.

10/16 8:57am Halloween Costumes reporter live with interviews TRT 2:30
We visit a popular costume retail shop that caters to Halloweeners and see what's available, what's trending and even demonstrate what the costumes look like on our own morning news team.

10/17 5:22pm Kenvention reporter live with package TRT 3:30
When it comes to Barbie and Ken, her main man is usually shoved into the background. But this weekend Ken finally gets his moment in the sun at the annual Kenvention. We explain why and who thought all this up.

People to People

10/18 5:30am

Segment 1, 5:52 TRT

Segment 2, 8:00 TRT

Edward Lewis, author of "The Man from Essence" talks about the start of the longstanding women's magazine "Essence." He also discusses challenges in the publishing industry and the future of magazines as we know them.

10/26 5:12pm Gary Marathon

reporter package TRT 2:30

Runners from at least 20 states took part in today's second annual "Dawn of the Dunes" marathon in Gary. The city sees it as a great sporting event, and a chance to focus on something positive, following the arrest of a suspected serial killer.

10/27 5:19pm Space Ashes

reporter package TRT 3:40

Story is about a service where people can have their loved one's ashes sent out into space. A Chicago woman is doing just that with her husband's ashes and she tells us why and the CEO of the company tells us why they provide such a service.

10/31 5:36pm Wallenda Preps

reporter live with package TRT 2:15

Preparations are underway for the latest Nic Wallenda adventure which is to cross the Chicago River, fifty stories up, on a tightrope, expected to draw a big national audience and a local one at the site of the crossing when it is attempted.

People to People

11/1 5:30am

6:56 TRT

Famed artist and designer Deborah Hand talks about the inspiration for Chicago's newest honorary statue....Paul Lawrence Dunbar.

People to People

11/1 5:40am

5:22 TRT

Dean Richards talks to the Justin Simien, director of the award winning feature film, "Dear White People."

People to People

11/1 5:52am

3:33 TRT

Singer Marsha Ambrosius performs her latest single.

Adelante

11/8 5:46am

Segment Time: 5:24

Host: Lourdes Duarte

Topic: The National Museum of Puerto Rican Arts will be featuring some of the best cultural experiences Chicago has to offer. In just a few days the museum will host the Midwest Premiere of Julia De Burgos: Child of Water.

11/10 5:42pm Acanto Restaurant Review

reporter package TRT 2:25

There's a new dining option across from Millennium Park on Michigan Avenue. Acanto moved into the space once home to fine-dining spot Henri. Chicago Tribune restaurant critic Phil Vettel went there and says this Italian newcomer is much more approachable than its predecessor.

Adelante

11/11 5:51am

Segment Time: 3:17

Host: Lourdes Duarte

Topic: The world's greatest show is back in town, the circus is back with an entire new show and a special performance for the Latino community.

11/12 5:17pm Exposed Breasts Lawsuit

reporter live with interviews TRT 1:30

A woman is suing Chicago after being ticketed for going topless this summer. The woman's topless encounter with Chicago police captured on video and uploaded to YouTube. The woman's lawyer tells WGN that the city's "Indecent Exposure Ordinance" is archaic and unconstitutional.

11/12 5:19pm Lucas Museum Lawsuit reporter package TRT 1:46
Tomorrow, a group plans to file a federal lawsuit over the museum's lakefront location. Tonight, a small panel gathered in the loop to talk more about it. There's been a lot of controversy whether the museum should occupy what many consider is public land.

11/24 4:40pm Morton Arboretum Illuminations reporter live with package TRT 2:35
Points of light piercing through darkness play a big park in giving a special feeling around the holidays. Lights on a Christmas tree, the candles on a menorah. They help create the atmosphere we associate with this time of year. WGN is at the Morton Arboretum where they've taken the effects of light and darkness to a whole new level.

12/12 11:51am Overnight Beauty Help guest in studio interview TRT 4:45
Fixing your face overnight! Products that will help you get the most out of your night-time beauty rest... and deliver a more youthful look for the morning. We have Dr. Julius Few as our guest who is the founder of "The Few Institute".

People to People

12/13 5:30am 6:16 TRT
Dean Richards talks to the stars of the new film, "Selma" about the historic protest march and it's timeliness to today's protests.

People to People

12/13 5:39am 8:04 TRT
Sports and Entertainment attorney Exavier Pope shares some insight into today's legal headlines including Bill Cosby and Ray Rice.

People to People

12/13 5:57am 1:09 TRT
Musical performance from gospel artist JJ Hairston.

12/18 9:31am Volo Auto Museum reporter in studio with package TRT 2:45
This upcoming January 8th would have been Elvis Presley's 80th birthday. To celebrate the big occasion, a Chicago area museum has acquired one of the King's former possessions and they're ready to unveil it to the world. WGN News checked it out and found it's fit for a king.

Adelante

12/22 5:10am Segment Time: 8:08
Host: Lourdes Duarte
Topic: The kitchen plays an important role during the holidays with so many of us making some of our favorite dishes. Dessert is always a must and one of the most popular on any Latino table. We are showing you how to make coquito flan.

12/24 9:39pm River Camping reporter package TRT 3:20
Doesn't a summer canoe trip sound good right about now? Our Julian Crews went cruisin` down the mighty Mississippi river all the way down to St. Louis, just like the early French explorers. A great way to get away from the hustle and bustle of the demands of daily life.

12/29 8:59am Uptown Underground Bar reporter live with interviews TRT 2:40
There will be a speak-easy style bar opening in Uptown for New Year's Eve. The bar is beautiful - there are vintage arcade games from the 1920's/30's -the bar will feature jazz pianists and cabaret performers, and all below street-level - like a real speakeasy!

BUSINESS & FINANCE

10/01 11:27am Anti-Facebook Package reporter package TRT 2:05
A new social network is considering itself the new "anti-Facebook" and it's getting a lot of buzz. We talk about what this new network is and how it plans to fight Facebook.

10/01 11:47am Budget-Friendly Fall Trends live guest in studio TRT 4:30
In today's Midday Fix we present women's and men's fashion trends for the fall. What makes this different is how you can afford the new styles while still staying within your budget.

10/02 9:02pm JP Morgan Chase Breach reporter live with package TRT 2:15
New information about a massive data breach affecting JP Morgan Chase. The bank announced today a whopping 76 million households being involved along with 7 million small businesses. We look at the scope of the problem and what things consumers might be able to do about it.

10/03 9:38pm Hot Doug's Closing reporter package TRT 2:40
It takes most restaurants generations to achieve an iconic status this hot dog restaurant pulled it off in just 13 years. After drawing in fans from all over the world, owner Doug Sohn decided it was time to move on. We talked to fans and the owner about what made Hot Doug's such a successful business.

10/07 12:20pm Electricity Rates reporter live with interviews TRT 2:15
Chicago residents have an important, budget decision to make this fall. They will face a decision about which energy supplier to select, and the decision they make could either help them save or lose money. WGN breaks down the numbers and explains what is happening in the energy supply industry.

10/13 11:25am Deb Hornell guest in studio TRT 3:15
In our Money Matters report, we have tips on how to help women during transitional periods of their life. Hornell is an executive consultant and author.

10/15 5:23pm New Ventra App reporter in studio with package TRT 3:15
There's a new app for people who take mass transit a one-stop shop for commuters right at their fingertips. The CTA approved plans to move forward with development of the app today, and Metra will discuss it at its board meeting Friday, and PACE meets next month.

10/16 11:49am DIY Budget Friendly Fall Décor studio guest interview TRT 4:25
This could help families with their budget and financing bring the beauty and colors of Fall you're your home, and at a great price. We talk to Hometalk Member Dusty Rogers

10/22 5:44pm Unusual Excuses for Calling in Sick guest in studio, interview TRT 3:00
The most unusual excuses for calling in sick to work. We have the VP of Career builder here with some pretty incredible excuses for calling in sick to work. In this list includes a person who said he accidentally boarded a plane that took off!

10/29 5:43pm New Jobs For You guest in studio interview TRT 3:15
In our continuing series, WGN talks to a job expert about new jobs available in the marketplace. What are some of the scariest jobs this Halloween season? Some may surprise you.

11/11 5:49pm Jobs for Vets studio guest interview and taped interview at job fair TRT 3:25
The hiring outlook for US veterans may be turning a corner, and our guest tells us why and what jobs are out there. Earlier we went to a vets' job fair where vets were able to come get resume writing advice, interview tips and free headshot photos. More than a dozen local companies were also there looking to hire veterans.

11/17 11:24am Holiday Jobs studio guest interview TRT 4:15
How you can land a job this holiday season, and if you already have a holiday temp, we've got some tips on how to make it a full-time position. Tom Gimbel, is founder and C-E-O of LaSalle Network, a Chicago-based staffing and recruiting firm.

11/20 5:43pm New Jobs for 2015 interview guest in studio TRT 3:00
We interview the Vice President of corporate communications for Careerbuilder who joins us with some of the hottest jobs for 2015, that don't require a college degree---and how you can get one.

12/02 5:02pm Minimum Wage Hiked reporter live with package TRT 2:50
Minimum wage workers in Chicago are about to get a pay hike. City Council voted that the hourly wage goes up to $13 an hour. What does it mean to workers, and what does it mean to business? And will the state follow the city's lead? All part of our report.

12/09 5:40pm Holiday Job Parties interview guest in studio TRT 3:50
Tis the season and it looks like more companies are going to be generous over the holidays. Our guest is Michael Erwin from Careerbuilders with more on holiday parties in the workplace.

CRIME & SAFETY

10/1 5:05pm Elgin Water Threat reporter live with package TRT 1:15
A longtime and well-respected employee at a waste water plant in Elgin... is accused of bringing a gun to work and having a confrontation with police. Reporter Julie Unruh is live in Elgin with details on how things unfolded.

10/04 5:06pm Gun Discharged In Class reporter live in studio with package TRT 2:25
A teacher at a tech school in Addison is in big trouble tonight for firing a handgun inside an office at the school and in front of teenage students. Tonight he faces charges as students and their families want answers.

10/06 11:31am Skokie Murder Charges reporter live with video TRT 2:05
A bond hearing just wrapped up for a man accused of plotting a drug deal and robbery that has left a Skokie teen dead. We went to court for more details where the alleged mastermind of the drug deals made his first court appearance.

10/06 4:59pm Terror Charges Levied reporter live with package TRT 2:45
A suburban teen making national news tonight after federal prosecutors arrested him at O'Hare International Airport. He is charged with trying to join the terrorist group known as ISIS. We take a closer look in this report and talk to people in his neighborhood to find out more about the suspect.

10/07 9:02pm Chicago Police Officer Shot two reporter live shots with interviews TRT 4:55
A high ranking Chicago police officer was shot during a gun battle this evening in the city's Englewood neighborhood. As this is written, the scene is still active and not clear if the suspect is still inside the building. We're learning the alleged gunman is wanted in connection with a triple shooting in Indiana. We have one reporter at the scene and a second reporter at the hospital reporting on the officer's condition.

10/09 9:06pm Officer Shot Folo reporter live with interviews TRT 2:15
Doctors say a Chicago police captain wounded during a shootout is lucky to be alive. Now Chicago police have filed charges against the man they say pulled the trigger in that Monday night standoff in Englewood.

10/13 5:33pm La Voie Obit reporter live with interviews TRT 2:00
A sad follow up to a story we reported last month. A LaSalle street CEO shot by a co-worker at his loop office in July, has died. He had been shot by an employee who had recently been demoted. The worker shot himself after first targeting LaVoie. Steven LaVoie founded the supply technology firm ArrowStream.

10/16 8:01am Holiday Hills Crime reporter live from scene TRT 1:52
We report on a breaking news situation. Two sheriff's deputies are injured and a neighborhood is evacuated as police negotiate with a gunman at his home in Holiday Hills, up in McHenry County.

10/16 5:20pm Metra Safety reporter live in newsroom TRT 2:15
When it comes to safety on the rails, Metra has some room for improvement, according to a new federal assessment. Some of the current practices could even be potentially dangerous. We take a closer look at the issues involved.

10/17 11:26am Halloween Pet Safety studio guest TRT 4:15
How to keep your pets safe if you're buying them costumes for Halloween. We talk to an expert from the Anti-Cruelty Society about how to make sure your pet is comfortable and safe.

10/19 9:25pm Bodies Found in Northwest Indiana reporter live with package TRT 2:55
An investigation into the discovery of a woman's murdered body and the suspect telling police he committed several other killings. WGN is learning the suspect is telling police details about his victims and where they may be.

10/21 5:39pm Jail Art reporter package TRT 3:15
Exposure to the art world is helping inmates turn away from crime this is all happening at Cook County's jail. WGN tells the story of budding painters behind bars.

10/24 12:05pm CTA New Security Measures reporter live with interviews TRT 2:15
WGN reports on how the police will begin new screening measures soon along the CTA routes because of the ISIS threat. Some of the measures include using bomb-sniffing dogs.

10/24 5:04pm Officer Shot reporter live with package TRT 1:55
Chicago police are searching for three robbery suspects... who shot an off-duty officer in the chest on the South Side.

10/29 12pm Card Cracking Arrests reporter live with package TRT 4:01
Chicago is at the epicenter of this con game, but it has grown across the country. The con men are especially targeting college students, but authorities tell us this morning they've made 19 arrests related to the con game.

10/30 12:07pm Alstory Simon Released from Prison reporter live with interview TRT 2:15
A man whose confession to a double murder freed a death row inmate is now himself going free. WGN tells the story of how this latest prison release unfolded, and what questions remain in the original 1982 double murder.

11/01 5:32pm Afrikka Hardy Funeral reporter package TRT 2:15
The family and friends of 19-year old Afrikka Hardy held her funeral today, 15 days after her body was discovered in an Indiana hotel room. Meanwhile police continue to investigate the suspect in the case, now believed to be a serial killer.

11/05 9:39pm Swatting reporter package TRT 4:55
Story is about Swatting: You may be hearing about it more and more. It's when someone places a fake emergency call that's almost impossible to trace. The call is so frantic, it brings out dozens of police, the Swat team, even the bomb squad. WGN investigates a disturbing new trend.

11/07 5:31pm -- Bully Bandit reporter live with package TRT 2:20
A serial bank robber on the loose, and the FBI is asking for your help to track him down. WGN's Courtney Gousman joins us live tonight with the details.

11/09 9:00pm Deadly Fire Kills Child reporter package TRT 2:00
Fire officials say a 10 year old boy was killed. 11 others -including 5 children- were injured. Neighbors awakened by screams. Firefighters talked about how it never gets easier when children are hurt in a fire.

11/15 9:45pm Joggers Attacked reporter package TRT 1:55
Arlington Heights police have a warning for the public tonight after a woman jogging in a popular park was attacked.

12/05 5:01pm Football Fans Stabbed reporter live with package TRT 2:15
The Bears lose.. but some of their fans suffered something worse. A pair of Bears fans stabbed during a fight with Cowboys fans while leaving Soldier Field. We have a full report.

12/08 9:05pm Choke Hold Ban reporter live with package TRT 2:50
Tonight, racial tensions continue to bubble over in the streets across America. Chicago is no different. This, as one senior alderman proposes an ordinance he hopes won't take Chicago down the same path as New York. We take a closer look at although the hold isn't taught to Chicago police, why some feel this is an important step to take.

12/10 9:06pm Allan Kustok Sentencing reporter live with package TRT 2:10
A lengthy sentence tonight, for a suburban man convicted of killing his wife. Allan Kustok is sentenced to 60 years in the high-profile murder case. Before sentencing, Kustok proclaimed his innocence, insisting he didn't call 9-1-1 after shooting her in the face because he could bear to be apart from her.

12/13 5:04pm 15-Year Old Shot reporter live with interviews TRT 2:15
There's been a shooting on the city's South Side, and this time the victim is a 15-year old boy returning from a college entrance exam is shot and killed during a robbery attempt.

12/15 11:23am Holiday Cyber Scams interview guest via SKYPE TRT: 5:00
We're in the middle of the season for giving, shopping and holiday cyber scams. In fact, there are at least a dozen scams out there you should know about, and that's why we're talking to a identity theft expert about what to be aware of and what you can possibly do to prevent being scammed.

12/16 11:02am Commission for a Safer Chicago -reporter live with package TRT 2:10
In the wake of crimes involving children... The Commission for a Safer Chicago is out with recommendations to address youth violence. Mayor Rahm Emanuel joined commission members today as they presented their report.

12/20 9:07pm Rahm Emanuel Son Robbed reporter live with interviews TRT 1:50
Zach Emanuel, son of Chicago Mayor Rahm Emanuel, was robbed Friday night shortly after he left his house. Police are looking for the muggers who assaulted him, then took his phone. He reportedly suffered a chipped tooth and a fat lip.

ECONOMY

10/16 8:14am Stock Market Major Drop anchor/guest in studio TRT 3:50
The Dow finished down 173 points, but at one point during the day it was down 460 points. The NASDAQ and S and P also dropped. Analysts say the market is continuing to react to things like Ebola. We talk to an expert about what's driving the market down.

10/16 11:57am US Stock Markets and Ebola video with interview TRT :50
The Ebola fears are taking a toll on Wall Street again this morning. The Dow is down more than 60 points. A prominent investment broker says the US and the rest of the world need to get control of this outbreak, or stocks will keep plummeting.

11/21 5:03pm Pension Reform Ruling anchor voices with interview TRT :55
An Illinois circuit court has struck down the General Assembly's pension reform plan. Springfield Judge John Belz ruled it's unconstitutional.. and voided the entire law. The judge agreed with union attorneys, saying the state's constitution protects public pensions from being cut. Governor-elect Bruce Rauner, who'll inherit the 100 billion dollar pension-deficit said today that he looks forward to the challenge.

11/27 5:03pm Shopping Season reporter live with package TRT 2:10
Some retail experts say this could be the best holiday shopping season in 15 years, thanks to a better economy. They say 200-million more Americans are employed this year and with gas prices down, many people may be able to afford more, all helping the economy.

People to People

12/13 5:47am 5:33 TRT
Dr. Carol Adams from the "Bring It Home" campaign to attract the Barack Obama presidential library to Chicago.

12/15 11:35am Low Gas Prices reporter live with package TRT 2:05
Chicago area drivers are finding a little extra change in their pockets for the holiday as gas prices keep on dropping. How low can it go? Who are the winners and losers with prices tumbling? Consumers don't seem to mind having that extra cash.

EDUCATION

10/02/14 5:33pm Waukegan School Strike reporter live with package TRT 2:10
Teachers in one suburban school district walked off the job today and 17,000 students are locked out of classes. The teachers are striking for a pay increase.

Adelante

10/4 5:37am Segment Time: 7:30
Host: Lourdes Duarte
Topic: It's a brand new chapter for UNO charter schools as they try to pull themselves out of months of controversy. This all started with the mishandling of federal and state funds now the group which oversees 16 schools....has a new c-e-o. Rick Cerda is joining us today to explain what comes next.

10/07 5:05pm Waukegan School Strike reporter with package TRT 3:00
It's day 4 of a teacher's strike in suburban Waukegan and no resolution in sight. 17-thousand students and 12-hundred teachers remain out of the classroom and it looks like that could be the case for a 5th day tomorrow. We look at how families are coping.

10/07 9:15pm CPS Worker May Lose Job reporter live with package TRT 1:45
Four years ago, a man's gift of life almost cost him his job in the Chicago Public Schools. He donated a kidney to a grocery clerk and the subsequent publicity revealed he lived outside Chicago, violating Chicago's residency requirement. He was kept in, but now new leadership intends to enforce the rules forcing the man to move to Chicago. It appears this will become a battle in the court. We present both sides of the story.

10/08 5:48pm Numbers in Nature reporter package TRT 3:00
We may not always notice but patterns and math are all around us, especially in nature. The science behind it is the center piece of a dizzying and very interactive exhibit at the Museum of Science and Industry. It promises to have those who visit and today it was students to look at the world in a whole new way.

10/09 9:06pm Karen Lewis Health reporter live with interviews TRT 2:38
A lot of people with questions about the president of the Chicago Teacher Union. At concern is Karen

Lewis' health. Officials from the union said she is very ill and has undergone surgery but haven't said much else.

10/09 5:14pm School Panic reporter live with package TRT 2:35
Miscommunication at a west suburban school triggered a lockdown earlier today, all because a parent didn't follow protocol. WGN's reporter explains how that happened and what the protocol is supposed to be.

Adelante

10/11 5:45am Segment Time: 9:45
Host: Lourdes Duarte
Topic: Paying for college is never easy, that means scholarship money can be a big help. We took a closer look at a new program meant to help the growing Latino community not just graduate High School but move on to college.

10/14 9:11pm Waukegan Strike reporter live with package TRT 2:00
The teachers strike in Waukegan is almost two weeks old, and parents of children in the district are starting to get testy that a settlement has yet to be reached. Contract talks resumed today and the school board met, but it's not clear there is light at the end of the tunnel.

10/22 12:09 School Instagram Concerns reporter live with interviews TRT 2:15
Threats on social media have prompted school administrators in a Chicago suburb to close a middle school for the day. The tool used was Instagram. We talk to concerned parents.

10/23 9:05pm Waukegan Teachers Strike reporter package TRT 2:40
School already cancelled for tomorrow in Waukegan, which makes 15 days of school missed for students caught in the middle of a teachers' strike. WGN has learned this strike is draining the resources of community organization, stepping up to fill the void.

10/24 12:08pm McCracken Middle School Reopens reporter live TRT 2:15
Students at a Skokie middle school are back in class following threats made on social media which closed the school for days. WGN updates why the investigation shut down the school and how credible the threat was.

10/25 10:04pm Waukegan Strike Latest reporter package TRT 3:00
WGN reports on the latest situation in Waukegan where a school strike affecting 17,000 students enters its fourth week. High school seniors looking to apply to colleges are hoping for a resolution.

10/29 12:08pm Waukegan Teacher Strike reporter package TRT 2:30
Governor Pat Quinn has directed Illinois State Board of Education Chairman Gery Chico to work with Waukegan School District 60 to reach a resolution in their ongoing teacher strike. WGN's Nancy Loo reports today's negotiations between teachers and school officials follow a tumultuous school board meeting that was cut short after a yelling match.

10/29 12:25pm Teacher of the Month reporter package TRT 3:58
WGN celebrates October's Teacher of the Month, and nominate a Simeon teacher students whose students have more than praise to give but the knowledge they say they've gained.

10/29 5:02pm Catholic School Closings reporter live with package TRT 2:15
Today, changes for more than a thousand students in Chicago's Catholic school system. The archdiocese is cutting back and closing down schools because of financial concerns.

10/30 12:02pm Waukegan Teachers Deal reporter package TRT 2:00
Waukegan teachers and school officials have reached tentative agreement on a new contract that could end a nearly month-long strike. WGN's Patrick Elwood reports if it's approved, schools will be back open again on Monday

10/30 4:47pm CPS Food Challenge reporter package TRT 3:10
WGN covered a Chicago Public School competition among students. It was like Top Chef for students from 17 Chicago public high schools. But what the students have on their side is being involved in a program called, "Cooking Up Change" where they had to learn to make healthy dishes on a tight budget.

People to People

11/1 5:47am 4:14 TRT
WGN's Muriel Clair introduces viewers to Nakeisha Lee from Simeon High School; WGN's latest Teacher of the Month.

11/06 12:01pm Robinson School Flu Outbreak TRT 3:10
A suburban school is forced to close because of a suspected flu outbreak. How bad is the flu going to be this year and will it strike other schools like Robinson, questions WGN poses.

11/12 4:41pm Students/Military Life reporter live with interviews TRT 2:30
The Veterans Day Holiday has come and gone, but the appreciation for military personnel goes on. Many students had the day off yesterday, but today are giving thanks. As our reporter discovered, some are closing their textbooks to learn a little more about military life.

11/14 9:40pm Chicago's Very Own Francisco Ramirez reporter package TRT 3:30
He escaped poverty, to live a life giving back to others. Francisco Ramirez is an after-school program manager, teaching at-risk students the importance of service. The program has even gone global with volunteers teaching in third-world countries.

People to People

11/15 5:30am 23:00 TRT
This special People to People focused on a Columbia College program called "Columbia Links" that engages students in reporting and producing. The most recent project drew attention to human trafficking. Host Micah Materre spoke with program organizers, students and film makers.

11/17 5:42pm Chicago Public School/AG School reporter package TRT 3:15
A little known high school program helps earn big accolades for two Chicago Special Olympians. Our reporter met with the city's first ever entrants in the Special Olympics equestrian events and talked to the woman who helped them achieve their goal. They continue to inspire.

11/20 4:58pm U of C Hacking reporter live with package TRT 3:10
An ugly hacking scandal is threatening to give one of Chicago's most prestigious universities a black eye. Federal authorities are getting involved in the investigation into hateful online messages at the University of Chicago.

11/21 4:28pm Racy Sex Ed Slides reporter live with interviews TRT 2:15
Parents are up in arms tonight over graphic sex-ed material shown to some fifth graders in a Chicago public elementary school. WGN is live on the near west side where CPS is trying to calm parents' concerns.

12/08 5:39pm Santa on the Roof reporter live with package TRT 3:05
A man dressed as Santa Claus has vowed to remain on the roof of a Catholic school that must raise thousands of dollars to remain open.

12/10 9:14pm Warren Township Gay Remarks Controversy-- reporter package TRT 2:50
An uproar in the northern suburbs, after a school board member's inflammatory comments about gays and lesbians were caught on tape. As WGN's Marcella Raymond reports; some suburban leaders are now calling for the board member's resignation.

ETHNIC MINORITY & WOMEN

10/01 11:42am Hispanic Heritage Month/Domestic Violence reporter package TRT 3:10
As we celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month, we take a look at the contributions by Chicago's growing Latino community. A campaign is kicking off that puts Latinas front and center on an issue that needs awareness domestic violence. Our reporter explains how one group is trying to change that.

10/06 9:11pm Glen Evans Investigation reporter package TRT 6:20
We've told the story of a Chicago Police Commander indicted for sticking his gun barrel down the throat of a young man. Well, watch when WGN investigates hears from a woman who had her own run-in with Commander Glenn Evans several years ago.

10/07 9:44pm Puerto Rican Museum reporter package TRT 3:45
It's been a labor of love that's been years in the making. Chicago welcomes the new Puerto Rican Museum in Humboldt Park that celebrates the lives and contributions of this unique culture.

10/08 11:47am Understanding a Double Mastectomy live guest in studio TRT 4:55
October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month. We talk to Dr. Jessica Shepherd who is here to talk about the success rate of double mastectomies for early-stage breast cancer... especially since becoming a medical trend after actress Angelina Jolie went public with her surgery decision last year. Why some are undertaking this radical procedure and why.

10/08 5:07pm Jesse Jackson Heading to Dallas live interview TRT 2:30
Thomas Eric Duncan died from Ebola this morning after spending 10 days in a hospital in Dallas. Reverend Jesse Jackson spent time with Duncan's family and is heading back there to be with them again. We talk to him about his concerns that racial discrimination played a role in Duncan's death.

10/10 8:02am Jerry Angelo Hid Abuse Cases- reporter live with interviews TRT 2:10
The former general manager for the Chicago Bears, Jerry Angelo, says there were hundreds of domestic violence cases that were ignored during his NFL career. This comes off the heels in a week where domestic violence in professional football has dominated the airwaves.

10/10 9:20pm Hammond Indiana NAACP reported by anchor TRT :45
A family is suing Hammond police and the city after a video showed officers breaking and tasing the family's father, shot by his teenaged daughter in the back seat, while the children were in the car. The local chapter of the NAACP says the police need to be held accountable. The family is African-American.

Adelante

10/11 5:31am Segment Time: 7:11

Host: Ana Belaval

Topic: Casa Central has spent 60 years being an important part of Chicago's Latino community and they are getting ready for the next few decades. Patricia Vasquez Director of External Affairs for Casa Central joined us with more of how they plan to mark the anniversary and how you can help.

10/11 5:09pm Thomas Duncan Mother Speaks Out reporter package TRT 2:20
The mother of Dallas Ebola patient, Thomas Duncan, says her son did not receive the same quality care as other Ebola patients in the US. Duncan passed away earlier this week, but his mother spoke here in Chicago.

10/11 5:19pm Ferguson Protesters reporter package TRT 1:30
A weekend of protests has kicked off in Ferguson, Missouri. It's being called, "Ferguson October" and the events are meant to bring attention back to the shooting death of Missouri teen Michael Brown.

10/12 9:17pm Mariachi reporter package TRT 9:17pm
If you've ever been to a big Mexican celebration or party, there's a good chance you've heard a Mariachi band. The show-stopping music gets people dancing and cheering, and can quickly make grandparents tear up as they remember life growing up in Mexico. And thanks to the Chicago Mariachi Project, the next generation of Mariachi musicians is thriving.

10/13 12:26pm Hispanic Heritage Month Feature reporter package TRT 3:45
We present the story about the courage of a north side mother, fighting back, after losing a son to the streets. We tell the remarkable story of Elizabeth Ramirez and her efforts to stop the violence.

10/15 9:39pm Hispanic Heritage Month/Improv reporter package TRT 3:55
Chicago features some of the best sketch comedy in the country, and now it's getting some Latino flare. Local Latino comedians hitting the stage and getting big laughs. We take a closer look.

10/16 11:31am Domestic Violence Awareness Month studio guest interview TRT 3:55
October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month. Groups like "A Safe Place" provide victims and their children with counseling, housing, shelter and legal support during a very difficult time. We talk to the executive director of "A Safe Place" and a domestic abuse survivor, whose identity we have disguised in order to protect her.

10/17 9:37pm The Good Lie reporter live with package TRT 2:40
One of the new movies out this weekend is, "The Good Lie", about four young Sudanese refugees virtually plucked out of the Sudan who experience culture shock when they come to America and start new lives. And some of the so-called, "Lost Boys of the Sudan" now live here and talk to WGN.

10/24 9:27pm Chicago's Very Own Shred -- reporter package TRT 3:10
It started with a couple of fitness gurus and a dream of opening their very own gym. But two women have created much more than that. Shred 415 is a sanctuary where people are overcoming major hurdles, and achieving healthy lifestyles.

10/26 5:33pm Domestic Violence Task Force reporter live with interviews TRT 2:15
October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month. Today, the mayor's office announced plans to extend a pilot program that addresses the issue. WGN explains what the task force's purpose is and how it came about in light of the recent NFL domestic violence issues.

10/28 5:04pm Suburban Racial Slur Allegation anchor reads includes interview TRT 1:00
A substitute teacher triggers an uproar using the n-word as part of a lesson in west suburban Carol Stream. 8th graders at Jaystream Middle School tell us it happened last week. They say four girls were singled out for comments about slavery and their own racial backgrounds. They claim the racial slurs were used more than once, even after they asked the teacher to stop.

11/14 4:58pm Jane Byrne Dies reporter live with interviews TRT 4:20
She only served four years as mayor, but the marks Byrne made in gender, social, and civic issues are still being felt today. She was the city's first female mayor, passed away today at the age of 81. During her term, she started the taste of Chicago, marched in the gay pride parade, and invited the movie industry to the city.

11/17 12:14pm Obama Immigration Plan studio guest interview with setup TRT 5:20
President Obama could face a showdown with the G-O-P over immigration reform this week, considering amnesty for millions of illegal immigrants and he could act as soon as next week. He's considering amnesty for millions of illegal immigrants... preventing the deportation of five million people who are in the U-S illegally... many of them with kids who were born here. We discuss the issues affecting the illegal immigrants with US Congressman Luis Gutierrez.

11/20 12:01pm Immigration/Personal Stories reporter live with interviews TRT 2:30
Some undocumented immigrants in the Chicago area are relieved President Obama is taking action on the divisive issue... hoping it will allow them to stop living in fear. We talked to a few who would be affected.

11/24 10:55pm Ferguson Decision multiple reports/guests TRT 9:55
We cover the decision by the grand jury in the Ferguson shooting get reaction from all sides, including using President Obama's call for calm. We had legal experts in the studio to learn more about what a grand jury is and what they do, and looking at the released documents on what the grand jury heard in leading up to a decision.

12/04 5:03pm Colin Collette Complaint reporter live with package TRT 2:55
The feds and county officials are getting involved in allegations of discrimination after a catholic choir director says he was fired after saying he will marry his gay lover. The case came on the heels of Illinois' same-sex marriage law. The filing of today's complaint is expected to trigger investigations.

12/05 12:02pm Chicago Garner Protest reporter package TRT 2:00
Protesters closed lake shore drive for a short time last night. Today, the demonstrations continue. The protests were prompted by the return of a grand jury decision in New York exonerating a police officer in the choke-holding death of an African-American man.

12/08 9:38pm Ameena Matthews reporter live with package TRT 4:55
She's more than a community activist, she's a fighter for peace in Chicago's streets. Ameena Matthews steps in-between potentially deadly conflicts to prevent shooting. And in an in-depth report by WGN-TV News, we learn Matthews is now in the middle of the greatest battle of her life with cancer.

12/09 5:34pm Purses with a Purpose reporter package TRT 3:00
She knows she won't beat cancer, but one local woman is making sure her final days are devoted to other people struggling with her disease. And you can help spread her good tidings this holiday season. She's using her fight, and her favorite pastime of making purses to help others dealing with a similar battle.

12/13 9:25pm Mary and Joseph Procession reporter live with interviews TRT 1:05
Groups of activists, two who were dressed as Mary and Joseph, the parents of Jesus, re-enacted the biblical story of Bethlehem when the two search for room at an inn. The purpose of this demonstration they say was to speak out against the Chicago Housing Authority's inaction at its Lathrop Homes development where hundreds of units are vacant while the need for housing for many is desperate.

12/13 9:02pm Black Lives Matter reporter package TRT 2:40
Thousands of people gathered in Washington today to protest the deaths of black men and boys killed at the hands of police officers who haven't been indicted. Protests also happened in several other major cities, including here in Chicago. We report on why the public protests are attracting so many.

FAMILY

10/08 8:42am Nurtureshock Top Dog guest interview in studio TRT 3:40
A New York Times best-selling author has a new book that says losing is good for us. Her book is "Top Dog, The Science of Winning and Losing." We talk to her about her theory and learn why losing is not only sometimes good, but healthy for us and our families.

10/15 5:42pm Hobbit Package/Marcus LeShock reporter package TRT 3:50
A family in Maple Park is hoping they can keep a special tradition alive... before their father loses his battle against cancer. The Stouffer family is reaching out to a major movie company and using social media to help make it happen. We report on who this family is and why they are so special.

11/25 11:20am Family Travel during Holidays interview guest in studio TRT 4:00
In today's Focus on Family, if you'll be traveling this holiday season, you're not alone. According to Triple-A, more than 94-million people were on the roads, train tracks or in the skies during the holiday season last year. So what can you plan to make sure your family has fun along the way? We welcome a guest who runs a Website which answers these types of questions.

Adelante

12/6 5:39am

Segment Time: 5:21

Host: Lourdes Duarte

Topic: You might be looking for ways to give back to the community but how do you make sure the charity you're helping is the right one? The people from ULEED are here with some tips and to tell us about their annual toy drive.

12/09 5:15pm Family Gets House For a Year reporter live with package-- TRT 3:10

It was an emotional day for a family dealing with two cases of cancer, a job loss, and financial problems. But it became a special day for the Cook family, after a special foundation heard of their problems and efforts to overcome them.

12/11 5:17pm Snowball Express reporter package TRT 3:00

Story about an annual special trip for families who have lost loved ones who were on active duty in the military service. We meet a number of kids and families who are flown free to Dallas, where police and firefighters make sure the families' holiday season is all it can be.

12/16 11:25am Parents Can Change the World studio guest interview TRT 4:25

No matter where you are in your parenting journey, chances are you don't want your kids to grow up to be those bad bosses, bratty employees or surly customers you see every day. Today, we're getting advice from the author of "Raising Children That Other People Like to be Around".

12/19 5:44pm Marine Homecoming reporter package TRT 2:10

A hero's welcome for a returning Marine in Arlington Heights. Corporal Steven Kwiatkowski is home for good after two tours of duty in Afghanistan. Friends, family and fellow veterans welcomed him in a big way and the idea was to surprise his mother on her birthday.

12/20 5:16pm Sailor Surprises Sailor anchor reads with interview TRT :40

A sailor from Wisconsin gave his mom and sisters an early Christmas present. After two years in the Persian Gulf, the sailor managed to get home in time for Christmas surprising his mom and sisters at a local pizza parlor.

12/20 5:04pm Demario Bailey Funeral reporter package TRT 2:25

Family and friends remember a Chicago teen today who had a promising future. Demario Bailey was killed in an attempted robbery last week. Today he was surrounded by family and friends who say the boy gave so much and had such a promising future.

Adelante

12/22 5:44am

Segment Time: 2:50

Host: Lourdes Duarte

Topic: Through the years it has become a popular spot for families through the holidays. It's called Winter Wonderfest and it just keeps getting bigger and better. It's a family place to keep you warm.

12/24 9:33pm Willis Clan reporter package TRT 5:45

The Willis Clan is an Irish group whose musical roots come straight from the South side of Chicago. Toby Willis is the older brother of the six Willis children who died in that fiery van crash 20 years ago near Milwaukee. Well, the circle of life has blessed this next generation.

GOVERNMENT & VETERANS AFFAIRS

10/1 5:02pm Obama Visit reporter live with interviews TRT 2:45

President Obama will be back in his hometown here in Chicago, but Air Force One isn't landing in the city. It's touching down in Gary because of the fire at the FAA Control Center in Aurora.

10/01 5:31pm Libertarian Party reporter live with package TRT 2:40
In the race for governor, it's not just Republican versus Democrat. There's another voice trying to elbow in. We talk to the Libertarian candidate fighting for your vote in November, and tells WGN how much of the party's candidates are fighting across the state to remain on the ballot.

10/02 5:01pm Flight Delays reporter live with package TRT 2:05
The rain along with last week's fire at the radar center in Aurora have been having a big impact on air travel all day. Hundreds of flights are cancelled, leaving passengers scrambling. WGN-TV News looks at the situation and how long this might last.

10/03 9:05pm FAA Administrator Visit reporter in studio with package TRT 2:10
Senators Dick Durbin and Mark Kirk got a first-hand look today at the charred remains of the aurora air traffic control center. The FAA administrator admitted the facility was underfunded and far from prepared for last week's costly fire.

10/08 12:16pm Quinn NRI Hearing reporter live with interviews TRT 2:15
The former director of the Illinois Violence Protection Authority is testifying today before state lawmakers. Barbara Shaw is answering questions about Governor Pat Quinn's 2010 anti-violence program.

10/08 5:12pm Hillary Clinton in Chicago reporter live with interviews TRT 2:15
It's been a busy day in Chicago for Hillary Clinton. In between two speeches she found a way to squeeze in a surprise book store appearance and raise money for Governor Pat Quinn.

10/09 5:11pm Governor Debate Preview reporter live with video TRT 2:15
As the clock ticks down to next month's election for Illinois governor, incumbent Pat Quinn and challenger Bruce Rauner have their first formal debate tonight. WGN is live in Peoria for what could be some political fireworks between the two.

10/13 4:32pm FAA Facility Reopens reporter live in studio with package TRT 2:40
Operations are back to normal at the FAA facility in Aurora for the first time in 17 days. We take a look at the massive clean-up effort that took place after a fire was set in the basement of the facility.

10/13 9:00pm Karen Lewis Decision reporter live with package TRT 2:10
Chicago Teachers Union president and potential candidate for mayor, Karen Lewis, has decided not to run for the city's top post. As previously reported, Lewis is very ill although exactly what ails her has not been disclosed. Our story is on the decision made and reaction to it.

10/14 9:03pm Governors Debate reporter live with package TRT 2:55
The two candidates for governor were getting to the core of the issues. Illinois' candidates for governor faced off for a 2nd time in less than a week. The debate was geared toward topics key to the African American community.

10/15 12:06pm City Budget Plan reporter live with interviews TRT 2:15
Your property tax won't go up, but your cable bill will increase, under Mayor Emanuel's new budget plan for next year. We break out the city's proposed budget for next year and what residents can expect to pay.

10/17 9:07pm City Ebola Response reporter package TRT 1:55
Mayor Rahm Emanuel continues to work with state health officials to make sure the city is ready, if a case of Ebola turns up here. We explain what the plans are and how they'll be implemented.

10/20 9:21pm Governor Debate reporter live with package TRT 2:25
We cover the third and final debate of the very tight race for governor in Illinois. With the election two weeks from tomorrow, the governor and challenger really went at it.

10/23 9:38pm Bob Dold Profile reporter package TRT 3:43
WGN's rundown of the major players continues tonight with a look at the hotly contested 10th congressional district. We are doing profiles of each of the candidates in the five races we are concentrating on for the election.

10/27 12:11pm Kirk ISIS Caucus reporter live TRT 2:15
Senator Mark Kirk is hosting a hearing for the U-S Senate Human Rights Caucus today. It focuses on ISIS's threat to Chicago and national security.

10/27 9:40pm Durbin/Candidate Profile reporter package TRT 3:53
Another in a series of profiles WGN is presenting on candidates running in key races around the area.

10/28 4:59pm One Week To Election/Governor's Race reporter package TRT 2:10
We look at the race for Illinois governor with only one week to go and get the candidates out campaigning. Early voting has broken records but the race is still too close to call.

10/28 9:13pm Bruce Rauner Profile reporter package TRT 4:01
Our series of election profiles continues with the big one the race for Illinois governor. We take a look at the challenger, Republican Bruce Rauner, trying to unseat Pat Quinn. We present his plans for the state and begin with an important note. For months, Rauner has repeatedly declined to sit down with WGN for a one-on-one interview.

10/30 9:15pm Bill Foster/Candidate Profile reporter package TRT 3:29
Another installment of WGN's efforts to profile candidates in key races for the upcoming election.

11/02 10:54pm Sunday Campaigning reporter package TRT 2:15
We cover the gubernatorial candidates as they hit the ground running and churches as they try to edge each other out in what appears to be a dead heat.

11/06 5:00pm Rauner Transition Team reporter live with interviews TRT 2:25
Republican governor-elect Bruce Rauner is promising a more bipartisan spirit in Springfield. He's already reaching across political lines to bring some big democratic names onboard.

11/07 12:04pm LaShawn Ford Sentence reporter live with interviews TRT 2:15
Chicago Democrat State Representative LaShawn Ford was sentenced to six month probation Friday after he pled guilty to a misdemeanor tax charge. He will also need to pay a $1000 fine and perform 100 hours of community service.

11/07 5:09pm Attorney General Nominee studio guest segment TRT 3:50
President Obama will announce tomorrow his nominee for the next attorney general. He is expected to officially introduce Loretta Lynch as his choice. She is currently the US Attorney in Brooklyn. She would be the second woman to serve as AG, and the second African American to hold the post. Our expert talks about who she is, her record and the battle for her confirmation.

Adelante

11/8 5:31am Segment Time: 12:30

Host: Lourdes Duarte

Topic: Breaking down the elections...the Latino vote has often been the deciding vote. What about this time? And with the shift of power in congress, what lies ahead in the immigration debate. Also Chicago has a Latino candidate for Mayor. Political Analyst and host of Politics Tonight Paul Lisnek gave us his perspective on the elections.

11/10 5:25pm WWII Vet Gets Medal 70 Years Later reporter package TRT 1:45
Tomorrow is Veterans Day, and this year the holiday will have a special meaning for a World War Two veteran in Moline who just received a long-overdue recognition.

11/11 12:05pm Honoring Chicago Vets reporter live with interviews TRT 2:15
Here in Chicago, the mayor, the Governor, the Governor-Elect, and one of Illinois' two U-S Senators are all attending a Veterans Day's ceremony today. All at an appropriate venue: Soldier Field.

11/11 5:49pm Jobs for Vets studio guest interview and taped interview at job fair TRT 3:25
The hiring outlook for US veterans may be turning a corner, and our guest tells us why and what jobs are out there. Earlier we went to a vets' job fair where vets were able to come get resume writing advice, interview tips and free headshot photos. More than a dozen local companies were also there looking to hire veterans.

11/13 12:21pm Lottery Veterans Cash guest in studio TRT 2:45
There's a new lottery ticket now available which directly benefits Illinois veterans. We have the Illinois Lottery director here with us to talk about exactly how it helps veterans throughout Illinois.

11/18 5:42pm Ridesharing Bill reporter with package
Uber wants its riders and drivers to get involved with politics. The ride-share company is asking its users to reach out to their lawmakers to fight two bills, intended to regulate the industry.

11/19 11:07am City Council Budget reporter live with package TRT 2:05
Chicagoans will be paying more for parking, water, cable TV and other fees. All part of next year's proposed budget that's expected to sail through the City Council today.

11/21 5:41pm TSA/Behind the Scenes reporter live with package TRT 2:55
After 9-11 ... the Transportation Security Administration was created to perform a difficult task. Airport screeners have to check each and every suitcase for explosives or dangerous items. But massive machines with CAT-SCAN capabilities have made the job less labor intensive. And tonight we get a rare look behind the scenes.

Adelante

12/6 5:31am Segment Time: 5:25
Host: Lourdes Duarte
Topic: The president decides to take action on immigration reform but the fallout goes deep. Seventeen states are suing the administration over his action, so what happens from here on out? How could this reshape the future of immigration reform?

12/12 5:04pm Eric Holder Roundtable reporter live with interviews TRT 2:15
US Attorney General Eric holder was in Chicago today to talk about improving relations between young people and police agencies. It's the second of three on-the-road events of this type he is attending.

12/17 9:14pm Judy Baar Topinka Service reporter live with package TRT 2:30
At least a thousand people showed up, gathering at a suburban union hall to remember Judy Baar Topinka, the hard working Republican with a heart of gold. Many agree she was truly one of a kind, and spent years in public service for the citizens of Illinois.

12/17 5:02pm Cuba Policy Shift/React 2 reporters live with packages TRT: 5:10
For more than half a century, the US and Cuba have been worlds apart politically. But now President Obama is ending the embargo and starting a new chapter in America's relations with its island neighbor. WGN's coverage include details on what the deal means and how it was done and we devote another package to reaction at home, here in Chicago. We talk to groups who have worked on humanitarian and health issues in Cuba, and talked to those in the Cuban community as to why they support or oppose the new policy

12/20 9:20pm North Korea on Cyber Attack reporter package TRT 2:15
North Korea is speaking up about the cyber-attack against Sony Picture, which led to the studio canceling the release of its upcoming movie, "The Interview".

HEALTH & WELLNESS

10/01 5:05 Ebola Folo reporter live with package TRT 3:50
There are new details emerging about the first person diagnosed with Ebola in the US. Liberian officials are in identifying him as Thomas Eric Duncan. He was helping a pregnant woman stricken with the disease four days before heading to Texas. More than a dozen people came in contact with Duncan, but none so far has shown any symptoms.

10/05 5:24pm Texas Ebola Patient reporter package TRT 3:30
The Centers for Disease Control says the condition of the Ebola patient in Dallas, Texas, has taken a turn for the worse. Our report is on what officials are doing to fight Ebola in the U.S.

10/06 10:59am Ebola Latest reporter in studio with package TRT 2:39
Under intense security and medical precautions, the fifth American diagnosed with Ebola arrives in Nebraska today. At the same time, new airport screenings are now being considered.

10/06 9:26pm Trigeminal Neuralgia reporter package TRT 4:55
On the medical watch, shocking, stabbing pain in the face strike with people afflicted with trigeminal neuralgia. Patients are left in agony. For some the pain is a constant with few effective treatments. Now sufferers are speaking out, putting on a brave face to share their stories and spread awareness.

10/09/14 8:01am O'Hare Ebola Screenings reporter live with interviews TRT 1:40
The Ebola outbreak is now leading to screenings at five major airports in the country, including O'Hare. In our report we explain how they will work, when they will take effect and what they mean for passengers flying back into Chicago.

10/09 9:26pm Depression Screening reporter package TRT 3:40
After Robin Williams died from suicide, calls at the behavioral health section of Alexian Brothers Hospital are up more than 25%. Do you know if you have depression? Doctors say pick up the phone and make a call for help. They say a simple screening can determine depression and the condition that affects one of every ten people is very treatable once it is diagnosed.

10/13 5:06pm Ebola Update reporter live with package TRT 2:15
The CDC is re-examining protocols for dealing with Ebola patients after a Texas nurse contracted the virus. WGN's reporter talked with experts at Chicago's Northwestern University about these protocols and why they are necessary.

10/15 9:05pm National Ebola reporter package TRT 2:15
More on the Dallas nurse with Ebola. We have learned that nurse Amber Vinson called the CDC one day before boarding a commercial flight from Cleveland to Dallas. The CDC say it was okay to fly even though she had a temperature of 99.5 and was one of the nurses who treated the only person in the US to die from the virus.

10/16 5:31pm Ebola Hospital Preps reporter live with package TRT 2:15
Rush University Medical Center is being considered as the main hospital in the Chicago area to treat Ebola patients. Our medical reporter tells us what the hospital is doing and reports on the intense training among the staff happening.

People to People

10/18 5:48am

Segment 1, 4:59

Segment 2, 2:58

Latrice Mosely Smith, Founder of "Purple Hose and Heels" talks about her inaugural 5 k run, in effort to raise awareness for domestic abuse.

10/23 9:19pm Blood Test For Concussions reporter package TRT 3:30
We report on a portable, rapid blood test to detect concussions. It takes the guesswork out of the diagnosis.

10/26 5:24pm Nurse Speaks About Quarantine reporter package TRT 2:30
The White House is pushing states to reverse the decision to order mandatory home quarantine for people who've had contact with Ebola patients in West Africa. Governor Pat Quinn issued such an order Friday, after the Governors of New York and New Jersey are enforcing similar policies.

10/27 4:26pm Rapid Ebola Test report from studio TRT 1:40
Biologists say with a few drops of blood or saliva on a paper test strip they can identify the Ebola virus.

11/07 12:48pm World's First Nerve Graft reporter package TRT: 2:00
A woman who suffered a severe injury in a boat accident would have been left with no control of one of her legs. But that changed after doctors performed a first of its kind nerve graft.

11/12 4:26pm Language and the Brain reporter live in studio TRT 1:30
According to researchers at northwestern university, When trying to distinguish words and objects, those who spoke one language had to work much harder than those who were used to split second word choices between two languages. Prior research has shown bilingual filtering expertise also helps children concentrate better in school - tuning out excess noise.

11/13 5:35pm Firehouse Bed Bugs reporter live with package TRT 2:40
WGN has learned some Chicago firefighters find themselves battling bed bugs. At least one firehouse has been treated for the critters, but the concern is growing about their potential to spread.

11/15 9:48pm Obamacare Sign-Up reporter package TRT 3:20
It's open enrollment season to get health insurance to meet the federal mandate, for what's known as "Obamacare". Several sign-up events were held today and WGN send a reporter to find out what consumers need to know.

11/18 11:24am Getting in Shape studio guest interview TRT 4:00
We're learning five things you can start doing today to get in shape. We talk to a fitness trainer about these easy to remember things to get healthier---and she shares how a scary trip to the emergency room helped spark her journey to a healthier lifestyle.

11/19 11:46am Indulge without the Bulge studio guest interview TRT 4:45
We talk about how to indulge at the dinner table this holiday season without packing a bulge from too much. We talk a registered dietitian and author about how to enjoy without suffering the consequences.

12/05 4:25pm Alcohol Implant Pellet reporter live with interviews TRT 1:35
What could be a more effective treatment for people struggling with alcohol addiction. It's not for everyone, but it could work for those who have failed repeatedly. It's an implant doctor's place just under the skin and stops the signals that leave patients wanting more alcohol.

12/10 9:36pm Horse Therapy reporter package TRT 4:45
The holidays can be especially hard for people who could use professional help but finding the right help can be tricky. For some in Illinois, it's not so much finding the right "human" help as it is finding the right "horse" for the therapeutic effect.

People to People

12/13 5:52am 4:36 TRT
WGN's Cortney Gousman sits down with Ameena Matthews as she battles health issues that have slowed down the highly regarded activist and violence mediator.

12/17 11:31am Flu Floods Hospital reporter live with interviews TRT 2:05
Flu season has arrived earlier than usual this year. And some hospital emergency rooms have been swamped with flu patients. WGN has the numbers and explains why everyone seems to be getting the flu, and what's up with the flu shot.

12/17 11:48am Holiday Asthma Triggers guest studio interview TRT 4:15
The holiday season is usually filled with cheer... and for some allergy and asthma sufferers... IT'S also filled with hidden triggers that can incite an attack. Today: advice on how to stay allergy-free from foods and decorations with tips from our expert.

Adelante

12/22 5:44am Segment Time: 6:11

Host: Lourdes Duarte

Topic: A new study sheds some light on how Alzheimer's can impact Latinos here in the U.S. A new initiative to help...and millions of dollars headed to the organizations that are doing the research.

12/25 5:13pm Health, A Year in Review reporter package TRT 2:25
2014 was filled with several major headlines in health news...we take a look back at some of the biggest medical stories of the year.

HOMELESS & HOUSING

10/10 5:21pm LGBT Senior Housing interview and video of event TRT :45
Unique housing for an underserved community. Now Chicago has one of the only senior citizens buildings for people in the LGBT community. The mayor and activists gathered to cut the ribbon at the New Town Hall Apartments, in the heart of the city's gay community. The building cost $23 million and has 79 apartments.

10/17 5:41pm New Complex for Homeless Vets anchor script TRT :50
73 brand new apartments are now ready as affordable housing units for Illinois veterans. The complex is one of the first large-scale housing developments in the nation designed to address the needs of female vets and vets with families at risk of becoming homeless.

10/18 5:21pm Feeding Our Community reporter package TRT 2:25
Today is "Feed Our Community Day" and an organization in the suburbs is gathering and preparing food to help the hungry and homeless. WGN spent the day talking with organizers and volunteers.

11/07 5:21pm Arlington Heights Homeless Woman reporter package TRT 2:35
A veterinarian center comes to the aid of a homeless woman, and there's way you can pitch in too. WGN's Julian Crews has details on how the facility is caring for her two beloved dogs, and how you can help.

12/12 5:18pm Homeless Sleepout Anchor reads over video TRT :30
Some local college students are bringing attention to the plight of homeless vets by spending 24 hours in the cold. It's the second annual public sleep out in which students, vets and professionals across the city participate. It's also a fundraiser for a homeless vet organization which supplies homeless vets with food, housing, job training and other essential skills and supplies.

12/18 12:08pm Homeless Woman Folo reporter live with package TRT 2:15
Last month, WGN reported on a homeless woman in Arlington Heights, separated from her dogs. Since that story aired, people have come to her aid in a big way.

12/20 9:25pm Batavia Family Helps Homeless reporter package TRT 1:40
A West Suburban family is continuing a tradition of spreading a little holiday cheer to the homeless in Downtown Chicago. A busload of people gathered outside the Rock and Roll McDonald's in River North today to deliver coats, food and other essentials to those in need. It's been attracting more attention and more suburbanites who want to help.

12/21 5:04pm Former Homeless Teen Gives Back reporter live with package TRT 2:45
A former homeless teen showed the true spirit of giving, after remembering what it was like to do without during the holidays he decided to give back to those in need.

12/24 9:30pm Angel on Lower Wacker reporter package TRT 3:10
He's an oral surgeon by day, angel by night. And his turf is Chicago's lower Wacker Drive, where he attends to the city's forgotten, the homeless.

NATURE & ENVIRONMENT

10/03 9:02pm Record Cold reporter live with package TRT 2:10
It's one of the coldest days of the season after a record warm September. Are we ready for another cold winter? We ask Chicagoans.

10/09 8:44am Botanic Backyard live guest at station TRT 2:20
In our regular segment on gardening, a botanical expert answers questions about how to keep critters and pests out of your garden.

10/14 9:39pm Asian Carp reporter package TRT 4:20
The state is getting more help from the private sector in battling the still out-of-control invasion of Asian carp in Illinois waterways. As WGN reporter Nancy Loo reports, a new plant near St. Louis aims to get rid of the fish faster, and is churning out products people want all from the feared fish.

10/17 9:44pm O'Hare Noise Protest anchor reads with interviews TRT :55
Northwest side residents angry about the loud planes soaring over O'Hare airport are calling on Mayor Emanuel to fix the problem. The Fair Allocation in Runways Coalition protested this morning outside the Department of Aviation at the airport... on the one year anniversary of a new runway. They claim the noisy planes are lowering their property values, and making it hard to sleep.

11/12 11:40am Comet Landing reporter live with package-- TRT 2:25
We're at the Adler Planetarium waiting for the Rosetta mission to be the first to land on a comet. We're learning scientists hope to find out about the stuff we're all made from which could answer questions posed for thousands of years.

11/17 4:15pm IDOT Weather Preps reporter package TRT 3:00
Falling temperatures and snow cover have crews that work the state roads in high gear, members of the Illinois Department of Transportation. They say they are ready and want the public to be as well. WGN's report is all about preparations on dealing with Mother Nature and tips on staying safe

12/04 5:51pm E15 Debate reporter package TRT 5:55
Chicago may be the first city in the country to offer a higher ethanol/gasoline blend at every gas pump. Proponents claim the blend is better for the environment, putting less pollutants in the air. Critics claim it takes as much energy to produce the ethanol than it does oil. We take an in-depth look at the issues surrounding the use of ethanol-15.

12/10 4:37pm City Council/Petcoke Regulations reporter live with interviews TRT 2:25
Aldermen passed a measure to limit PetCoke storage in Chicago. ordinance today that would limit the amount of petcoke that can be stored in the city. Petcoke is a byproduct of oil refining. Mayor Emanuel says the Chicago Public Health Department has already denied requests by K-C-B-X Terminals to raise the height of its petcoke piles and avoid covering some dust-generating equipment at its two facilities. Neighbors on the Southeast Side have complained that petcoke dust blows into surrounding areas.

12/24 9:45pm Eagles reporter package TRT 3:00
Some brave Midwesterners don't wait for summer to enjoy the great outdoors, even during winters as brutal as last year's. We're talking about eagles, and during the bitter winter there was a silver lining in the form of huge numbers that flocked to an area just an hour outside Chicago.

RELIGION

10/20 9:38pm Cardinal George Interview reporter package TRT 5:05
Francis Cardinal George has less than a month left as Archbishop of Chicago. Today he gave his final interview before stepping down.

11/06 12:04pm Archdiocese Releases Documents TRT 3:10
The Chicago Archdiocese releases some 15,000 pages of documents today about details involving 36 priests known by the Archdiocese to have abused children while they were working for the Church.

11/13 5:43pm Cupich Arrives reporter live with package TRT 2:00
The next archbishop of Chicago says he's ready to help solve the violence and poverty problems in the Chicago area. He arrived earlier today at the airport facing dozens of cameras.

11/16 9:00pm Preparing for Cupich reporter package TRT 2:40
We explain how the Chicago Archdiocese is making the transition for a new Archbishop, Blasé Cupich.

11/16 9:03pm Goodbye to George reporter package TRT 2:30
It's the end of an era for Francis Cardinal George, who led his final mass today as Archbishop of Chicago.

11/17 5:33pm Cupich Preview reporter live with package TRT 2:25
The man chosen by the Pope as Chicago's new shepherd takes over tomorrow. Blase Cupich will be installed as Archbishop-- succeeding Francis Cardinal George. Tonight, Cupich comes knocking at Holy Name Cathedral. WGN's reporter is live there with more on this ritual.

11/18 5:01pm Cupich Installation reporter live with package
A warm smile warmed hearts at Holy Name Cathedral this afternoon, as Chicago got its ninth Roman Catholic Archbishop in History. Today Blasé Cupich officially became the new head of the Chicago Archdiocese.

11/19 5:07pm Cupich Mass reporter package-- TRT 2:40
Today was the first full day on the job for Chicago's new Archbishop. Blasé Cupich spent part of the day with a number of religious and lay people in prayer, after yesterday's installation was full of pomp and circumstance.

Adelante

11/22 5:31am Segment Time: 4:50
Host: Lourdes Duarte
Topic: Chicago welcomes a new leader for the Catholic Church, Blase Cupich was just installed this week. what will it mean for Chicago's growing Latino community...since for years many have been affiliated with the Catholic church.

12/12 12:18pm Our Lady of Guadalupe reporter package TRT 2:18
Tens of thousands of pilgrims flocked to the annual thirty-six hour celebration in Des Plaines and this year Chicago's newly installed Archbishop joined worshippers in honoring Our Lady of Guadalupe. We explain the story behind her and why so many come here to pay homage.

12/25 5:00pm Cupich Christmas reporter live with package TRT 1:48
We look at the two public events the new Archbishop had on his calendar this holiday, both very meaningful. The first, Cardinal Cupich's first midnight mass at Holy Name Cathedral. And just hours later, he visited inmates at Cook County jail where he delivered a sermon about conquering doubt.

YOUTH & SENIORS

10/02 9:40pm We All We Got reporter live with package TRT 3:25
A different look at street violence claiming the lives of Chicago's youth on the south and west sides. It is one man's 8 year journey... as seen through his camera lens. Now you can get a glimpse, too, of his labor of love... depicted through so much pain, and the pain that affects our society's youth culture.

10/09 11:33am Indiana School Kids Sick reporter live with interviews TRT 2:05
WGN was at an elementary school in Northwest Indiana where more than 130 kids got sick. We talked to school officials about what might have caused the large number of illnesses.

10/09 4:59pm Bullying Lawsuit reporter live with package TRT 2:15
An angry and distraught family is filing a major lawsuit against Chicago Public Schools, saying not enough was done to stop students from bullying their daughter. The 12-year old girl had committed suicide and her parents say the bullying resulted in her suicide.

10/10 5:00pm Snapchat Leak reporter live with interviews TRT 1:55
A big concern for parents tonight: if your children use "Snapchat". A giant breach; hundreds of thousands of photos about to be leaked. Some of the same website involved in the celebrity hacking scandals. Making things worse, half of Snapchat's users are between the ages of 13 and 17.

10/27 4:41pm Yoga Smartie Pants reporter live with interviews TRT 2:30
Young girls get a boost of self-esteem and learn life lessons in yoga class. One place we looked at is called Smarty Pants because it reaches out to the girls hoping to give them the tools and confidence they'll need to handle life's problems before they happen.

10/28 5:40pm Substitute Teacher Controversy reporter live with interviews TRT 2:15
Kids say they're the victims of racism, in a West Suburban classroom. Students in Carol Stream say a substitute teacher used racial slurs, including the N-word in front of a room full of 8th graders. We talked to many of the students on and off camera, and report on the very latest. The allegations are that four girls were singled out for comments about slavery and their own racial backgrounds. They claim the racial slurs were used more than once, even after they asked the teacher to stop.

10/28 11:20am Halloween Candy and Kids interview with guest in studio TRT 4:00
Halloween kicks off the holiday season of candy and sweets. Today we're talking about the best way of taking care of kids' teeth and still satisfy that sweet tooth. We talk to a resident dentist who talks to us about healthy alternatives.

11/07 9:37pm Girls' Final Volleyball Game reporter live with package TRT 2:30
An undefeated girls volleyball team is trying to win a championship, but the game comes just one week after they found out their school is closing. We talk to the team and others about how the news affects them, both as athletes and as students.

11/10 5:45pm Tow Truck Parade reporter package TRT 1:47
From Joliet to Bridgeview, a parade of tow trucks delivered toys for needy children today. Why are they delivering toys and to whom? That's what we answer in this report.

12/09 9:06pm Murdered Loyola Student anchor voice over with interview TRT 1:45
The family of a murdered Loyola student says they'll honor his memory by trying to mirror his grace. Students, faculty and staff grieved at a campus memorial today for Mutahir Rauf. The promising young man was shot and killed Friday during a robbery attempt near Loyola University. Loved ones say he wanted to be a doctor to give back to the world. An older brother urged prayers for an end to violence in the streets.

12/05 5:16pm Street Class Guest guest in studio interview TRT 3:30
New York City's mayor says because of NYPD's history, he's had to teach his own son how to avoid problems when interacting with police. Sheldon Smith from the Dovetail project teaches a class to help young people avoid confrontations with police.

12/12 12:05pm Hadiya Pendleton Park reporter live with interviews TRT 2:15
Chicago is paying tribute to a girl shot to death at a South Side Park by not only renaming it after her, but making plans to create an area Hadiya would have wanted, according to her mother who we interview for this story. Her death just weeks after Obama's inauguration became a national headline about the plague of violence. Now her name is inspiring hope.

12/15 12:25pm Kareem Wells/Chicago's Very Own reporter package TRT 3:12
It's hip hop, with a positive message. Rapper Kareem Wells uses his musical talent to inspire teenagers.

12/23 11:20am Surviving after a Parent Dies interview guest in studio TRT 4:00
She lost her dad, pediatric surgeon Donald Liu, when he drowned in 2012 while successfully rescuing two boys from the undertow in Lake Michigan. We are talking to Dr. Liu's daughter about how she's trying to help other young people cope with tragedy. She's created a website, "SLAP'D", which stand for Surviving Life After a Parent Dies.

12/24 9:45pm The Collins Quints reporter package TRT 2:33
An amazing story, a milestone really. It's a story about raising kids and saying goodbye. Eighteen years ago, a Naperville family made headlines with the arrival of Illinois' first Quintuplets. We spent an evening with the Collins' quints about their special upbringing and what it all means to them.

ISSUES REPORT WGN-TV 4th QUARTER 2014

THE FOLLOWING IS A REPRESENTATIVE LIST OF ISSUES AND COMMUNITY CALENDARS THAT PROVIDED AWARENESS TO WGN-TV VIEWERS OF UPCOMING EVENTS.

ARTS & CULTURE

10/6 2:59a :15
"Music of the Baroque's" concert season opens with transcendent genius and powerful emotion. Don't miss "The Mozart Requiem" October nineteenth and twentieth. For details, visit WGN's community calendar.

10/7 12:52a :15
10/11 7:16a, 4:59a :15
The Rembrandt Chamber Players toast twenty-five years of noteworthy music at their October twenty-sixth gala. Don't miss special musical performances, delicious food and great auction items! For details, visit WGN's community calendar.

10/14 4:28a, 1:57p :15
10/17 7:24p :15
What makes an object a sculpture? The Smart Museum of Art at the University Of Chicago explores just that in their latest exhibit, "carved, cast, crumpled; sculpture all ways," October twenty- eighth. For details, visit WGN's community calendar.

10/15 4:21a :15
10/19 2p, 5:58a, 11:14a :15
The Park Ridge Civic Orchestra invites you and your family to a wickedly enchanting concert and evening of Halloween activities. Taking place October twenty-ninth, for details, visit WGN's community calendar.

10/25 7:16a, 4:36p :15
The Celebrity Chef Ball features an interactive dining experience with some of Chicago's best chefs. Custom cocktails, a silent auction and entertainment are all on the night's menu. For details, visit WGN's community calendar.

10/27 12:48a, 3:45a :15
10/29 1:26a, 2:29a :15
10/30 9:12a, 10:18p :15
The world renowned Harlem Fine Arts Show comes to Chicago for the first time ever October thirty-first. Join North Shore Links for a pre-reception, where guests can preview the exhibit and meet the artist. For details, visit WGN's community calendar.

11/10 10:55a, 12:14a :15
11/13 5:39p :15
11/20 9:11a :15
11/23 8:47a, 1:18a, 2:59a :15
The Morton Arboretum transforms itself into an interactive wonderland of color and light, during its second annual winter lights event "Illumination". Kicks off November twenty-first, for details, visit WGN's community calendar.

11/17 8:23p :15
Enjoy a perfect mix of familiar holiday tunes, including everything from Christmas spirituals to Chanukah songs, at Chicago A Cappella's seasonal celebration. For details visit WGN's community calendar.

11/18 12:17a :15
From the Nutcracker to the hit movie Frozen, don't miss Park Ridge Civic Orchestra's annual celebration of beloved holiday favorites. Takes place December third; for details, visit WGN's community calendar.

11/26 6:59p, 1:29a :15
11/30 2:34a, 4:30a :15
Families are making "Tidings of Tap" their new holiday tradition! This family friendly evening features rhythmic and whimsy-filled interpretations of your favorite holiday songs. Begins December twelfth, for details, visit WGN's community calendar.

EDUCATION & CAREER SERVICES

10/15 12:42a :15
Help your child hone their reading skills. Bring them to north Riverside Library's "After School Read Aloud Club". The program is for grades one through four; for details visit WGN's community calendar.

10/23 4:13a :15
10/27 4:17a, 1:26a :15
10/28 9:13a :15
It's a charity gala unlike any other! Get your tickets today for "School Rocks!" a benefit concert to support inner city students of San Miguel School. Rock to live music while enjoying food and spirits. For details, visit WGN's community calendar.

10/24 2:29a :15
10/28 9:48a, 6:57p :15
10/29 11:43p, 1:59a :15
10/31 6:22a, 8:40a :15
November fourth is "Diversity Employment Day" in Chicago and to mark the occasion, City Career Fair is hosting a free job fair! Come out and meet with companies looking to hire! For details, visit WGN's community calendar.

ETHNIC MINORITY & WOMEN

11/11 2:22p, 3:41a :15
"Our Work, Modern Jobs, Ancient Origins" is a photography exhibit exploring how cultural achievements of the ancient Middle East have contributed to much of modern life. For exhibit information, visit WGN's community calendar.

GOVERNMENT & VETERANS AFFAIRS

10/24 1a, 3:41a :15
"One Hundred Faces of War" captures images and faces of a cross section of Americans who served in the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan. For information on how to attend this November third exhibit and lecture, visit WGN's community calendar.

11/10 3:49p, 1:59a :15
11/14 6:59p, 10:39p :15
Find one-of-a-kind gifts at Oak Brook Public Library's "Holiday Used Book Auction". The auction runs through November thirtieth, for details, visit WGN's community calendar.

11/14 2:57p, 8:37p :15
It's a night of gaming old school style! Bring the family out to the Brookfield Public Library November twenty-fifth and play all of your favorite vintage board games. For details, visit WGN's community calendar.

11/12 4:25p :15

11/16 7a, 12:59p, 6:58a, 11:34a, 1:25a :15

The scent of the holidays is sure to be in the air at the Downtown Downers Grove "Gingerbread Festival". The festival runs November twenty-eighth through thirtieth, for details, visit WGN's community calendar.

11/25 4:22a, 2:29a :15

Learn how to create fast and tasty appetizers for your holiday party at the Itasca Community Library December eleventh. Samples and recipes will be available! For details, visit WGN's community calendar.

HEALTH & WELLNESS

10/6 5:45p, 3:56a :15

10/9 4:57p, 1:26a :15

Kick up your heels for an old fashioned ho-down and join the Associates of Presence Saint Joseph Hospital for their annual fundraiser October sixteenth. For details, visit WGN's community calendar.

10/30 6a, 4:57p :15

11/2 11:16a, 11:53p, 7:21p, 3:03a :15

The eleventh annual "We Care from the Heart" black tie affair takes place November fourteenth. Attend and help them continue their work for children with developmental disabilities. For details, visit WGN's community calendar.

11/17 3:59a :15

11/20 3:29a :15

Over five hundred booths filled with vendors from all over the country will be at the Lambs Farm "Holiday Lights Gift and Craft Fair" December fifth through seventh. For details visit WGN's community calendar.

11/22 5:55a, 8:28p :15

Start getting warmed up for the "Snowflake Shuffle!" The Tri City Family Services annual five-k run and walk takes place December sixth and is open to all ages. To register, visit WGN's community calendar.

11/19 3:55a :15

11/22 4:16a, 7a :15

Hear ideas that can help you take care of yourself and your family at the National Alliance on Mental Illness' Family Support Group, for families of adults and adolescents coping with mental illness. For details visit WGN's community calendar.

11/19 6:58p :15

11/23 7:18a, 11:05a, 2:28a, 3:41a :15

Cataracts are the most common cause of vision loss with increasing age. Learn the early signs of cataracts and treatment options at Northwestern Memorial Hospital December fourth. For details, visit WGN's community calendar.

HOMELESSNESS & HOUSING NATURE & ENVIRONMENT

10/22 4/28a, 12/42a :15

10/26 4:58a, 8:24a, 4:09p, 12:12a, 1:58a :15

More than twenty drop off locations have been set up throughout Palatine to accept donations for the annual "Palatine Food Drive". The drive runs through November twenty-fourth, for drop off location information, visit WGN's community calendar.

RELIGION

10/8 12:50a :15
Congregation Beth Am is doing their part to help children keep warm this winter and you can too! Donate children's gently worn or new coats, scarves and mittens to their coat drive running throughout October. For details, visit WGN's community page.

10/17 2:57p :15
Pumpkins, seasonal treats and free movies add up to tons of family fun at Park Ridge Community Church's "Pumpkin Patch!" Runs October eighteenth through thirty-first. For details, visit WGN's community calendar.

10/22 3:52p, 3:59a :15
10/25 5:43a, 2:56p :15
Feeling lucky? Attend Catholic Charities eighth annual "Charities Royale Casino Night and Auction" November eighth. For more information, visit WGN's community calendar.

11/13 12:44a :15
11/16 10:47a, 10:58p, 8:18a, 3:19p, 3:03a :15
Shop 'til you drop! Saint Paul Church invites you shop from local artisans at their "Holiday Pop-Up Shop" November twenty-third. For details, visit WGN's community calendar.

11/25 10:48a :15
Community Presbyterian Church creates a living Christmas tree filled with a choir singing your favorite holiday tunes. Runs December twelfth through fourteenth, for details, visit WGN's community calendar.

11/26 10:40p :15
The world-renowned Chicago Children's Choir returns to Bethel United Church of Christ for a Christmas celebration concert December thirteenth. For details, visit WGN's community calendar.

YOUTH & SENIORS

10/7 11:17a, 3:34a :15
It's North America's oldest and largest film festival for children. The Chicago International Children's Film Festival kicks off October twenty-fourth and features two hundred fifty films from over forty countries. For details, visit WGN's community calendar.

10/8 1:59a :15
10/12 11:51a, 7:40p :15
They're yoga classes designed specifically for seniors! Classes begin October twenty-third and take place at Hope Lutheran Church. For more information, visit WGN's community calendar.

10/14 8:28a :15
West Town Bike celebrates ten years of educating youth and fostering Chicago's bicycling community, with a fundraiser October twenty-eighth. For details, visit WGN's community calendar.

10/16 4:40p :15
10/19 2:47a, 8:57a, 2:44p :15
Cantigny Park is hosting a Halloween "Boo Bash!" October thirty-first! Children age's three to five are invited to wear costumes and participate in fun Halloween activities. For details, visit WGN's community calendar.

11/12 1:29a :15
The Arlington Heights Senior Center is forming a senior center musical group. If you have experience reading music and playing an instrument, join them every Friday. For details, visit WGN's community calendar.

11/24 4:53a, 12:48a :15
The Illinois Department of Senior And Community Services is offering seniors a driver refresher course. Takes place December eighth and registration is required. For details, visit WGN's community calendar

11/24 6:58p, 1:26a :15
Experiencing the joy of the holiday season can be tough after the loss of a loved one. The Frisbie Senior Center's grief program teaches ways to cope during this difficult time of year. For details, visit WGN's community calendar.

ISSUES REPORT WGN-TV 4th QUARTER 2014

THE FOLLOWING IS A REPRESENTATIVE LIST OF ISSUES AND SOME TYPICAL PSA'S THAT ADDRESSED THEM.

BUSINESS & FINANCE

NFCC	From the Mouths of Children	:30
NFCC	Go To Those U Trust	:15

CRIME & SAFETY

100 Club	100 Club 15	:15
Ad Council – Bullying	Bad Stats	:30
SAMHSA	Talk 30	:30

EDUCATION & CAREER SERVICES

Ad Council – United Way	Queen	:15
Corporation for National & Community Service	vnym0014000	:15
Federal Student Aid	Proud Sponsor	:30

FAMILY

Boystown	btmh30ylta tyour life:30	:30
Boystown	Parent	:15
Voices for Illinois Children	Where's the Love	:15

GOVERNMENT & VETERANS AFFAIRS

ACP AdvisorNet	2acpadvisornetcomhome	:30
Operation Homefront	Operation Homefront	:30
U.S. Dept. Of Veteran's Affairs	Crisis Line/These hands	:15

HEALTH & WELLNESS

Facial Pain Research Foundation	patfacial30	:30
International Children's heart Foundation	tillmanheart	:30
Stand Up to Cancer	It Can Happen to Anyone	:15

HOMELESS & HOUSING

Ad Council – makinghomeaffordable.gov	Frozen	:15
Volunteers of America	Speeches	:30

NATURE & ENVIRONMENT

Ad Council – Philippine Disaster	cnpb0001000	:30
American Planning Association	Good Planning is Great	:30
American Red Cross	Kuykendall Family	:30

YOUTH & SENIORS

Bright Focus Foundation	Now Stop Alzheimer's	:15
Childfund International	Clean Water	:30
UNICEF	End Trafficking	:30