

Quarterly Issues and Program List

WGN-TV

1Q 2023

Pursuant to the disclosure requirements in 47 C.F. R. 73.3526(11)(i), and during the quarter referenced above, this station provided information to its viewers regarding the following significant issues, including:

Business & Industry	Economy	Government (National)	National Security
Children/Youth	Education	Health/Healthcare	Politics
Community	Elderly	Housing	Religion
Consumer Issues	Employment	Immigration	Technology
Crime/Law Enforcement	Environment	Legal Matters (e.g. court decisions)	Transportation
Cultural	Government (Local)	Minority Issues	Women's Issues

Programs

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
9.1	Employment	8:22 AM	1/1	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	It's a new year and you may be looking for a new career. Joining us today is Laisha McDaniel of LLF Consulting to talk about how to change careers and why now could be the best time to do it.
9.1	Transportation	8:34 AM	1/1	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	Among the nearly 200 new laws starting today some are new traffic laws. Attorney Lance Northcutt of The Salvi, Schostok and Pritchard joins us to talk about it.
9.1	Religion	5:32 PM	1/1	240	WGN Weekend Evening News	Funeral services for the late Pope Benedict the 16th are set for this Thursday. It will be an historic moment at the Vatican as Pope Francis participates in the event paying tribute to his predecessor. Joining us now to talk about this is Father Rocky Hoffman from Relevant Radio.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
9.1	National Security	8:04 AM	1/2	150	WGN Morning News	Investigators in New York say the man who attacked three police officers with a machete in times square is a 19-year-old from Maine with Islamist extremist views. Joining us now is DePaul University professor and terrorism analyst - Tom Mockaitis.
9.1	Politics	8:37 AM	1/3	180	WGN Morning News	The 118th Congress convenes in just a few hours, but it's still unclear if Kevin McCarthy can get enough votes to become speaker. Joining us now is representative Sean Casten.
9.1	Employment	11:03 AM	1/3	180	WGN Midday News	A three-day strike is underway at Howard Brown Health Centers in Chicago. The strike comes after a round of layoffs at one of the Midwest's largest health care providers to the LGBTQ community.
9.1	Education	11:49 AM	1/4	270	WGN Midday News	The Young Playwrights Festival at Pegasus Theater is back on this January and it's the oldest such festival in the us. High school students are given the opportunity to work alongside industry professionals through the nearly month long competition.
9.1	Government (National)	4:04 PM	1/4	120	WGN Early Evening News	Vice president kamala harris made a stop in Chicago today, bringing with her federal funding for a major project on the city's southeast side. WGN's political reporter Tahman Bradley is live in the newsroom with more

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
9.1	Government (Local)	9:47 PM	1/4	120	WGN News at Nine	He's been in office for decades and in just a few days Jesse White will retire as the longest serving secretary of state in Illinois. WGN's Lourdes Duarte sat down with him to look back at a career that took a lot of turns.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:29 AM	1/5	120	WGN Midday News	In the fight in the opioid crisis, a task force outreach team is offering to concerned citizens today, training on how to respond to overdoses, and provide the life-saving drug "Narcan." WGN's Christine Flores is live on the west side with more on the effort.
9.1	Environment	11:44 AM	1/5	360	WGN Midday News	David Moscow has spent the last several years traveling the world, exploring local food eco-systems to show us where our food comes from, and why it matters. His latest book is "from scratch: adventures in harvesting, hunting, fishing and foraging on a fragile planet".
9.1	Immigration	5:34 PM	1/5	120	WGN Evening News	The Biden administration expands who it will turn away if they illegally cross the us Mexico border. This step comes as President Biden plans to make his first trip to the southern border since he took office.
9.1	Technology	8:12 AM	1/6	180	WGN Morning News	A recent survey found that 75-percent of millennials dislike talking on the phone and 81-percent actually suffer from anxiety before making a phone call. But there's now a service to help young people learn phone etiquette. It's called "the phone lady" and it was created by Mary Jane Copps who joins us live this morning to tell us more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
9.1	Elderly	11:47 AM	1/6	300	WGN Midday News	In the midday fix, a big event raising money for Alzheimer's research is coming up next month. "Paint The Night Purple" is an annual event that brings people together to support a cause that affects so many families.
9.1	Technology	5:48 PM	1/6	210	WGN Evening News	One of the most influential technology events is under way in Las Vegas, the consumer electronics show runs through this Sunday. Everything from flying cars to a self-driving baby stroller are making their debut. Joining me now to talk about this is Washington Post technology reporter Tatum Hunter.
9.1	Immigration	6:32 PM	1/6	255	WGN Evening News	Ripple effects from the crisis at the southern border are still being felt here in Chicago. Fred Tsao from the Illinois coalition for immigrant and refugee rights joins us now to talk about what his group is doing to protect migrants here.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:36 PM	1/7	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Chicago police are teaming up with auto shops to get some very special stickers installed on vehicles. It's an effort to stop catalytic converter thieves as well as track those who steal them anyway.
9.1	Religion	9:37 PM	1/8	150	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Today the founder of one of the largest African American churches in Illinois gave his final sermon. Reverend James Meeks retired as the pastor of Salem

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
						Baptist Church but the former state senator says his work in the Chicago community is far from over.
9.1	Immigration	8:34 AM	1/9	180	WGN Morning News	President Biden is in Mexico City to attend a summit aimed at tackling immigration, trade and drugs. Joining us this morning to discuss is political science professor and founding director of the deportation research clinic at northwestern university, Jackie Stevens.
9.1	Government (Local)	11:16 AM	1/9	120	WGN Midday News	Governor Pritzker is about to be sworn in moments from now, taking the oath of office for a second term. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is live in Springfield for the inauguration.
9.1	Education	4:31 PM	1/9	120	WGN Early Evening News	It's the first day back from winter break for Chicago public schools, and district leaders are taking precautions to prevent the spread of covid-19. WGN's Alyssa Donovan is live in the north center neighborhood with more.
9.1	Elderly	9:12 PM	1/9	150	WGN News at Nine	A multi-million-dollar settlement has been reached in the deaths of 3 women who died last year at a senior living facility in Rogers Park. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty joins us now from outside the James Sneider apartment complex.
9.1	Environment	9:47 PM	1/9	180	WGN News at Nine	A rare behind the scenes look at how a Chicago museum catalogs nature in the city. WGN's Patrick Elwood takes us inside the Peggy Notebaert nature museum's specimen collection.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
9.1	Consumer Issues	8:12 AM	1/10	210	WGN Morning News	Paul isn't the only one being targeted by phishing scams turns out, it's the number two leading scam here in Illinois for the second year in a row. Joining us now with a look at some of the other top local scams of 2022 is Steve Bernas, president and CEO of the Better Business Bureau of Chicago and northern Illinois.
9.1	Education	4:33 PM	1/10	270	WGN Early Evening News	A new report takes a tough look at Chicago public school spending as well as the district's response to reports of inappropriate sexual conduct by staff. Will Fletcher is the inspector general for Chicago Public Schools. He and his staff gathered the information, and he joins us now.
9.1	Transportation	5:35 PM	1/10	120	WGN Evening News	A community meeting is set for this evening by Norfolk Southern Railway company as it finalizes efforts to take-over a number of city blocks to expand its 47th-street rail yard on the south side. WGN's Dana Rebik gives us a look into what the rail company is planning.
9.1	Transportation	5:45 PM	1/10	120	WGN Evening News	Chicago is the big winner--- most congested city in the country. That's according to a study that shows our drivers spend the most time stuck in traffic.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:40 PM	1/10	180	WGN Evening News	There's a new website tracking the levels of covid-19 in waste- water samples in Chicago and other cities across Illinois. The Illinois department

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
						of public health teamed up with "discovery partners institute" to launch the project.
9.1	Transportation	11:01 AM	1/11	120	WGN Midday News	O'Hare, Midway, and the rest of the airports across the us are scrambling to get planes and travelers to where they need to go right now. The FAA grounded all departures earlier this morning due to an outage affecting a key computer system.
9.1	Immigration	9:08 PM	1/12	120	WGN News at Nine	Woodlawn residents get to hear from city officials about the proposed migrant shelter at the old Wadsworth School. City officials delayed the shelter's opening last week after pushback from residents. WGN's Jenna Barnes has more on tonight's meeting.
9.1	Women's Issues	11:00 AM	1/13	120	WGN Midday News	Illinois is further cementing its place as an abortion-rights state. Governor Pritzker will sign a bill this morning that'll protect access to abortion in Illinois from states where the procedure is illegal.
9.1	Transportation	4:32 PM	1/13	270	WGN Early Evening News	It's been a rough start of the year for air travel. Travel expert Peter Greenberg joins us now to talk about the state of air travel and what passengers should know.
9.1	Immigration	6:31 AM	1/14	555	Adelante Chicago	Research suggest that Asylum seekers are five times more likely to have mental health needs than the general population. Data also shows that they are less likely to receive the help they need. The Chicago City Council Latino Caucus is hoping to change that.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:48 AM	1/14	448	Adelante Chicago	Frustrated community leaders and street vendors are calling on the city to better protect them in the wake of several arm robberies. We spoke with the president of Little Village Community Council and a community organizer.
9.1	Business & Industry	8:37 AM	1/14	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Lawmakers are warning two of the largest covid vaccine makers against quadrupling their prices. Both Moderna and Pfizer are considering charging up to 130 dollars a dose once the shots move to the commercial marketplace.
9.1	Religion	5:32 PM	1/14	150	WGN Weekend Evening News	Tomorrow marks one year since a gunman held four people hostage for hours at a synagogue near Fort Worth, Texas. WGN's Gaynor Hall takes a look at a new survey examining antisemitic attitudes in the us.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:04 PM	1/14	150	WGN Weekend News at Nine	West side community organizers are calling for more resources to combat rising crime against street vendors. They say the issue won't be solved by just increasing police presence. As WGN's Christine Flores reports, they're offering a possible solution to the city council next week.
9.1	Children/Youth	8:20 AM	1/15	210	WGN Weekend Morning News	Financial literacy is a lesson we all need as adults, but people are beginning to children about money earlier. Joining us today is Michael

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
						Omole, author of a financial literacy children's book.
9.1	Government (National)	9:32 PM	1/15	120	WGN News at Nine	The nation's emergency crude oil stockpile is at the lowest level since the eighties. It dropped after the Biden administration sold 180 million barrels to bring down gas prices. Republicans say the president should have never tapped into the stockpile in the first place.
9.1	Government (National)	11:29 AM	1/16	120	WGN Midday News	The treasury department says it will soon have to take "extraordinary measures" to keep the US from hitting the country's debt ceiling and defaulting on its financial obligations. Those measures include delaying contributions to federal employee retirement plans to make sure payments deemed essential, like for social security, are paid out.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:30 PM	1/16	160	WGN Evening News	Dr Martin Luther King Jr is being honored throughout the country today, with a day of service. People are remembering the life and legacy of the civil rights leader, by giving back to their own communities. WGN's Christine Flores has more from south shore on Chicago's participation.
9.1	Education	8:13 AM	1/17	180	WGN Morning News	When it comes to writing essays, students are turning to new intelligence software called "ChatGPT". It's a computer program that can produce perfect answers or even essays to any questions within seconds. We're talking to john warner, author of "why they can't write: killing the five-paragraph essay and other necessities" about why students are turning to programs like these and why the art of writing is in the midst of a crisis.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
9.1	Environment	11:49 AM	1/17	270	WGN Midday News	The environmental working group reports in a new study eating just one serving of freshwater fish per year found in certain areas can be equal to a month of drinking water contaminated with the harmful chemical, PFOs, commonly known as "forever chemicals". Joining us now with more on this is David Andrew senior scientist and lead author of the new study by the environmental working group.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:05 PM	1/17	120	WGN Evening News	With six weeks left until election day, the candidates for mayor are looking for new ways to stand out, in a crowded field. In deep blue Chicago, the race could come down to the candidate most attractive to the city's growing group of progressive voters. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is here with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:16 AM	1/18	180	WGN Morning News	There's a nationwide movement to encourage people to talk more openly about death, with the idea that it's healthy, rather than taboo to talk about the natural end of life. At DC's congressional cemetery, an event is held every weekend where people actually practice dying. It's held by the cemetery's first-ever "death-doula", Laura Lyster Mensh.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
9.1	Children/Youth	11:15 AM	1/19	270	WGN Midday News	A new study suggests adolescents who frequently check social media may be altering their brains. Joining us now with more on the findings and tips to help kids use social media in a healthy way is dr. Gabrielle Roberts, clinical psychologist at advocate children's hospital.
9.1	Community	11:31 AM	1/19	120	WGN Midday News	The pullman national monument has now been designated a national historical park. And a who's-who of dignitaries and politicians were on the far south side today for the dedication.
9.1	Employment	11:48 AM	1/19	240	WGN Midday News	An opportunity is coming up for young people to explore careers in engineering, accounting, architecture, technology and much more. Pamyla Brown is here from Lakeside Alliance. She has details on a career fair on the site of the Obama Presidential Center project.
9.1	Housing	12:17 PM	1/19	120	WGN Midday News	Current and former residents of an apartment building who experienced heat, water, and power issues are filing a class action lawsuit against the property manager. WGN's Andrea Medina is live in the loop with details on their accusations.
9.1	Consumer Issues	4:32 PM	1/19	270	WGN Early Evening News	People's Gas and Nicor Gas are proposing rates based on income. Crain's Chicago business reports lower

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
						income residents would pay less than other customers. Dave Kolata is the executive director of the citizens utility board, a non-profit watchdog group. He joins us now to talk about those hikes.
9.1	Community	6:30 AM	1/21	832	People to People	Reverend Jesse Jackson and Bishop Tavis Grant of Operation PUSH discuss MLK's legacy and continuing his work.
9.1	Cultural	6:45 AM	1/21	77	People to People	Director Tracy Heather Strain talks about her new docu about author, photographer, and anthropologist Zora Neale Hurston.
9.1	Religion	6:50 AM	1/21	386	People to People	Gospel Artist Brian Courtney Wilson shares the inspiration behind his new album and tour.
9.1	Cultural	5:06 PM	1/22	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A unique and beloved voice of Chicago radio has died. WXRT's Lin Brehmer left an indelible mark on Chicago's music community. Colleagues and fans are mourning the loss of a man who delighted listeners
9.1	Employment	5:45 PM	1/23	210	WGN Evening News	People often feel emotionally exhausted at work, but is it enough to say, I quit. Or should you try to make changes and stick it out. Tom Gimbel joins us now to talk about when you should quit your job.
9.1	Business & Industry	11:15 AM	1/24	120	WGN Midday News	Facing accusations of antitrust violations, executives from Ticketmaster and live nation are appearing on capitol hill. They're answering questions about the botched

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
						rollout of ticket sales for Taylor Swift's concert tour.
9.1	Education	6:34 PM	1/24	180	WGN Evening News	Today is the International Day of Education, and UNICEF is sharing a new report on how the war in Ukraine is impacting children's education. They find learning has been disrupted for more than five million kids. UNICEF representative Joe English joins us now to share more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:07 PM	1/25	150	WGN Evening News	Chicago police, fire, and paramedic recruits will now be able to train together better at a sprawling, state-of-the-art facility on the west side. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty is at Chicago and Kilbourn with a look inside.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:30 PM	1/25	120	WGN Evening News	Lunar new year celebrations are continuing throughout the week. But recent mass shootings in California have many event organizers re-thinking security plans. WGN's Dana Rebik is live in Chinatown with more.
9.1	Employment	7:33 AM	1/27	180	WGN Morning News	New York representative George Santos faces a growing number of calls to resign for lying about his past. Joining us this morning with ways to keep your resume from getting you in trouble is John Paul Rollert, a professor at booth school of business.
9.1	Elderly	8:21 AM	1/27	180	WGN Morning News	They are hip-hop's breakout stars and the best part- they both are in their 70s. Basil Bellgrave and Pete Bowditch are both with us this morning to tell us more about how they got started.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
9.1	National Security	11:34 AM	1/27	420	WGN Midday News	It's been two years since the insurrection at the us capitol which resulted in deaths and injuries, eventually arrests and convictions and controversy over the way the day played out. Now, the former capitol police chief is telling his story in a book called "Courage Under Fire: Under Siege and Outnumbered 58 to 1 on January 6".
9.1	Community	6:48 AM	1/28	345	Adelante Chicago	After two tamales stands in Pilsen were robbed. A running club races in to help community members in need.
9.1	Business & Industry	6:54 AM	1/28	265	Adelante Chicago	Irving Park is now home to "Stay and Play Café". A unique business where you can play your favorite board games, enjoy Puerto Rican food and sip on a rum-based cocktail or a Cafecito all while hanging out with your family and friends
9.1	Minority Issues	8:38 AM	1/28	270	WGN Weekend Morning News	"The Chinese lady" was a production by timeline theatre about the experiences of Afong Moy. She was the first Chinese woman to arrive in the us. Today, an exhibit is open as part of the argyle lunar new year celebration in uptown.
9.1	Business & Industry	6:31 AM	1/28	550	Adelante Chicago	It is the largest Latino youth conference in the country. It promotes civil engagement and highlights the potential of Latino youth. The United Stated Hispanic Leadership Institute will be hosting its 41 st annual conference.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
9.1	Women's Issues	8:19 AM	1/29	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	As women we are taught that forming lasting friendships is a skill that comes natural to us, but for some women that's just not true. Joining me today is Christie Tate, author of the book BFF: A Memoir of Friendship Lost and Found to talk about the complexity of forming last female friendships.
9.1	Women's Issues	6:25 PM	1/30	120	WGN Evening News	The Utah senate unanimously approving a bill to help determine if the life of a domestic violence victim is in danger. The bill requires Utah law enforcement to ask certain questions when responding to domestic violence reports. Police would then advise and connect the victim to specific services.
9.1	Cultural	4:38 PM	2/1	240	WGN Early Evening News	For decades, a remarkable southside couple has been dancing to bring people together. While preserving the musical traditions of Latin America. WGN's Julian Crews tells us their story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:43 PM	2/1	240	WGN Evening News	Starting this year, the state is requiring all police recruits to take a wrongful conviction course as part of their training. University of Illinois Urbana Champaign police training institute director Michael Schlosser developed the course, along with leaders from the Illinois innocence project. He joins now to talk about the goals of the class.
9.1	Housing	9:11 PM	2/1	120	WGN News at Nine	Pilsen residents not holding back tonight after being hit with huge property tax increases. WGN's Jenna

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
						Barnes is live outside the public meeting with more.
9.1	Housing	12:00 PM	2/2	120	WGN Midday News	The us secretary of housing and urban development is on the south side this morning, as part of the Biden administration's focus on homelessness.
9.1	Minority Issues	12:37 PM	2/2	240	WGN Midday News	Every year we take the month of February to honor the contributions of African Americans to this country. The idea started in a YMCA on the southside of Chicago that served as a safe space for black people. Lauren Jiggetts takes us to the building that houses the history of black history month.
9.1	Immigration	6:06 PM	2/2	120	WGN Evening News	Now to developing news, Chicago leaders have begun relocating hundreds of migrants into the former Wadsworth Elementary School despite community opposition. WGN's Jenna Barnes is live in Woodlawn with reaction.
9.1	National Security	9:24 PM	2/2	120	WGN News at Nine	We're following breaking news right now. US officials suspect a Chinese spy balloon is in us skies, it has been spotted hovering over Montana. WGN's Shannon Halligan has more on what the pentagon is saying tonight.
9.1	Immigration	9:46 PM	2/2	325	WGN News at Nine	February marks six months since the first migrant bus arrived in Chicago from Texas. Others followed, carrying an estimated 4-thousand people. More than 700 are children. They are now enrolled in schools across Chicago and the suburbs. Investigative reporter Lourdes Duarte spent a day in class to see how it's going.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
9.1	Business & Industry	9:47 PM	2/3	120	WGN News at Nine	For years major retailers and big box stores have struggled to maintain a presence on the city's south side. But one minority business owner is hoping this is just the beginning for his grocery store. Building his business and relationships with the community, Felix Leshey is one of Chicago's very own.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:52 AM	2/4	404	People to People	Alexandra Block from the ACLU discusses a new report tracking the progress of police reforms in Chicago.
9.1	Minority Issues	8:32 AM	2/4	270	WGN Weekend Morning News	The green book was an essential guide for black travelers during segregation. It's the subject of a new exhibition at the Illinois holocaust museum. Joining us today is Noah Crookshank from the museum.
9.1	Children/Youth	5:43 PM	2/4	240	WGN Weekend Evening News	A physician's assistant is helping save the lives of newborns all over the world. It started by chance, after a trip to Central America. WGN's Sean Lewis has that story.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:40 AM	2/4	585	People to People	Civil Rights Attorney and media personality Areva Martin updates the latest battles for reparations, including Evanston, Bruce's Beach and Palm Springs.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:43 PM	2/5	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A well-known social service agency rooted on the south side is hiring more employees to meet the growing mental

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
						health care need in underserved communities. Jewell Hillery has the story on south side.
9.1	Politics	6:28 PM	2/6	120	WGN Evening News	In the crowded race for mayor of Chicago, one of the best-known candidates is now trying to break apart from the pack. WGN's political reporter Tahman Bradley talked with congressman Chuy Garcia about his new economic plan for the city.
9.1	Business & Industry	12:03 PM	2/7	120	WGN Midday News	Chicago's street vendors and city officials are meeting this morning trying to make the licensing requirements easier. WGN's Andrea Medina is live at 28th and Hamlin with more on their proposals.
9.1	Government (National)	6:04 AM	2/8	120	WGN Morning News	President Biden laid out his agenda for the next two years, in his second state of the union address. Dan joins us with more.
9.1	Government (Local)	6:35 PM	2/8	180	WGN Evening News	Amid that crowded mayoral race, a north side alderman is proposing a change to the city's election process. 47th ward alderman matt martin is calling on the city council to explore ranked choice voting. Alderman martin joins us now to talk about that proposal.
9.1	Housing	9:13 PM	2/8	120	WGN News at Nine	Seniors on the south side speaking out tonight, demanding the city step up to help the living conditions in public housing.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
9.1	Women's Issues	11:51 AM	2/9	360	WGN Midday News	According to research, women are more likely to work part-time jobs that don't qualify for a retirement plan. In some cases. Those and several other factors can make planning for our golden years a bit different from our male colleagues. Breaking down the differences is Richard Chew, principal owner of 1st capital insurance group.
9.1	Education	4:30 PM	2/9	120	WGN Early Evening News	Chicago public schools launching an ambitious new program to teach financial literacy and help students know how to manage their money. WGN's Julian Crews is here now with more.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:40 PM	2/9	120	WGN Evening News	As WGN celebrates its 75th anniversary, our Mike Lowe is looking back on a WGN sportscaster who broke barriers in baseball and broadcasting.
9.1	Government (National)	11:30 AM	2/10	120	WGN Midday News	President Biden says the future of entitlement programs like Medicare and social security are at risk if republicans get their way. But, just how much of a threat are those programs really under?
9.1	National Security	4:00 PM	2/10	120	WGN Early Evening News	Breaking news this afternoon -- the us shoots down a "high -altitude" object flying over Alaska. Jenna Barnes is live in the newsroom with details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:04 PM	2/10	120	WGN Early Evening News	More than 100 hours after Monday's devastating earthquake on the border of Syria and Turkey, rescuers continue to pull survivors from the rubble.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
						Among those hoping to join the relief efforts are a group of local nurses and doctors.
9.1	Employment	5:13 PM	2/10	120	WGN Evening News	Lawmakers are calling on the rail industry to do more for workers and guarantee at least 7-paid sick days to every rail worker in America. Senators say when the rail industry is thriving, it's time for workers to be treated properly.
9.1	Community	6:30 AM	2/11	450	People to People	Jeri Bingham, founder of Hush Loudly podcast and website talks about Black Introverts Week.
9.1	Women's Issues	6:40 AM	2/11	385	People to People	Dr. Cameka Smith, founder of The Boss Network shares details on a grant available to Black businesswomen.
9.1	Cultural	6:48 AM	2/11	349	People to People	Marissa Lynn Ford, Executive Director of the League of Chicago Theatres shares local stage productions honoring Black History Month.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:54 AM	2/11	326	People to People	Nutritionist Kim Allen shares ingredients that boost health and libido, in time for Valentine's Day.
9.1	Women's Issues	9:23 PM	2/11	210	WGN Weekend Morning News	In Chicago in the 1940s, a group of black women were striving to take their place in the male dominated world of policy -- the predecessor to the lottery. Joining us today is Jimalita Tilman, writer and director of the stage play "queens of the policy" that tells the story of these women.
9.1	Environment	8:11 AM	2/13	180	WGN Morning News	A company is looking to bring the dodo bird back from extinction. "Colossal Bio-Sciences" says it'll start

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
						by examining the dodo's closest relative for common d-n-a traits, to learn what made the dodo, a dodo. The company is already working on bringing back the Tasmanian Tiger and the Woolly Mammoth. Joining us now to discuss is wildlife expert and biologist Forrest Galante.
9.1	Government (Local)	8:34 AM	2/13	300	WGN Morning News	Today, early voting opens up in all 50 wards in the city. Joining us in studio to talk about the upcoming election is mayor Lori Lightfoot.
9.1	Immigration	12:00 PM	2/13	120	WGN Midday News	Controversy over plans for a shuttered southwest side Kmart store. The state wants to use it to shelter new migrants. But some pushback is surfacing.
9.1	Elderly	4:39 PM	2/13	120	WGN Early Evening News	A fox river grove man is proving age is nothing more than a number. The 'wild turkey' of the alley is nearly twice the age of others in this 50 plus league at the ripe age of 103. WGN's Erin Ivory joins us with his story.
9.1	Technology	11:17 AM	2/14	120	WGN Midday News	Senate lawmakers say its past time to protect kids on social media from big tech companies, and today a hearing puts that issue front and center. Washington correspondent Trevor Shirley is live in dc with more
9.1	Consumer Issues	6:22 PM	2/14	120	WGN Evening News	A group of people is gathering at the attorney general's office today, demanding the payouts they're owed after being swindled out of their life savings by a marketing scheme at

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
						Herbalife. WGN's Christine Flores is in the loop tonight with the details.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:32 PM	2/14	210	WGN Evening News	With less than two weeks until election day, we're learning more about how Chicago residents plan to vote. Northwestern's center for the study of diversity and democracy partnered with a coalition of Black and Latino nonprofits to release a new poll today, highlighting common priorities for the city's black and Latino voters.
9.1	Government (Local)	9:14 PM	2/14	300	WGN News at Nine	In tonight's 'WGN investigates', unanswered calls for city service. Residents are told to contact 311 for help with everything from abandoned vehicles to pavement repairs and broken streetlights. But getting someone from the city to respond and fix that problem is not as easy as picking up the phone. We found wait times for basic city services can be weeks or months or in some cases more than a year.
9.1	Children/Youth	4:37 PM	2/15	240	WGN Early Evening News	Today is international childhood cancer awareness day and as many kids and their families are impacted by a cancer diagnosis, there is a Chicago-based group making sure those kids can have some fun and connect with other children in their shoes. Colleen McGrath is a two-time cancer survivor and a staff member of "camp one step".
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:28 PM	2/15	180	WGN Evening News	WGN Investigates: problems at a northern Illinois prison. They're so

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
						severe, several hundred inmates are being moved out. Investigative reporter Ben Bradley is here with what he's learned.
9.1	Religion	6:12 PM	2/15	120	WGN Evening News	Civil unrest in Nicaragua is having an impact here in Chicago. Newly released political prisoners will celebrate a special mass on Sunday in Buena Park. WGN's Julian Crews is at "Saint Mary of the Lake Church" with details.
9.1	Environment	9:44 PM	2/15	360	WGN News at Nine	Celebrating black history month with the focus on a sustainable future. WGN's Gaynor Hall looks at efforts to grow a new green era in Chicago. Inspired by a mother who led the fight for environmental justice.
9.1	National Security	12:16 PM	2/16	120	WGN Midday News	Top U.S. officials, including the vice president, are in Europe talking defense. Washington correspondent Trevor Shirley is in the nation's capital with more.
9.1	Children/Youth	4:19 PM	2/16	240	WGN Early Evening News	On the medical watch -- teen mental health -- a crisis that's not improving. The CDC just released some troubling youth risk behavior survey results. Today we take a closer look at the results and more importantly what we all can do to help children in crisis.
9.1	Employment	11:32 AM	2/17	120	WGN Midday News	There's a new push in congress to make job training programs more affordable by expanding access to grants normally used to help people pay for college.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
9.1	Cultural	6:30 AM	2/18	381	People to People	Author Mark H. Harris talks about his new book, "The Black Guy Dies First, Black Horror Cinema from Fodder to Oscar."
9.1	Cultural	6:45 AM	2/18	506	People to People	Shawn Edwards from our sister station KDAF talks about the upcoming Critics Choice Celebration of Black Cinema.
9.1	Community	5:28 PM	2/18	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A community activist taking steps to protect Chicagoans, one gun lock at a time. Andrew Holmes spent another weekend handing out gun locks on the city's southwest side.
9.1	Community	9:39 PM	2/18	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	A cook county initiative is transferring deeds to transform communities. WGN's Gaynor Hall tells us how a land giveaway in Englewood will give vacant lots new life.
9.1	Technology	11:16 AM	2/22	120	WGN Midday News	Two supreme court cases being heard this week could determine whether tech companies are legally responsible for content posted to their online platforms.
9.1	Education	11:33 AM	2/22	120	WGN Midday News	Chicago's public schools are set to become safer over the next three years. That's the message this morning from the district, with the announcement that millions of dollars will be spent on surveillance.
9.1	Transportation	5:13 AM	2/24	180	WGN Early Morning News	The Chicago grid! You see these numbers on major street signs, even on CTA platforms. Numbers indicate exactly where you are. But if you don't know the grid these means nothing to

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
						you. So I present to you - how to use the Chicago grid!
9.1	Children/Youth	6:32 AM	2/24	180	WGN Morning News	On the one-year anniversary of the war in Ukraine, a new analysis from UNICEF suggests the percentage of children living in poverty in Ukraine, has almost doubled to more than 80%. UNICEF has provided learning supplies to more than one million children in Ukraine along with access to safe water. Joining us now is James Elder, the UNICEF spokesperson in Lviv Ukraine.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:30 AM	2/25	329	People to People	Dr. Melody McCloud, author of "Black Women's Wellness: Your "I've Got This!" Guide to Health, Sex, and Phenomenal Living."
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:43 AM	2/25	330	People to People	Dr. Jeffrey Sterling, author of "Straight, No Chaser Health: Empowering You for Better Health and a Longer Life"
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:48 AM	2/25	377	People to People	Debra Wesley, President, and founder of Sinai Community Institute shares the partnership with CVS that is improving access to quality health care in underserved communities.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:55 AM	2/25	408	People to People	Vanessa Mack owner and founder of Mack's Healthy Seasonings shares a couple of recipes using her health inspired spices.
9.1	Housing	5:33 PM	3/3	120	WGN Evening News	Earlier today - Peoples Gas spent the day hooking up lines so people were prepared for the wintry weather. WGN video journalist Patrick Parmenter

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
						shows us how they make sure everyone stays safe and warm.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:44 PM	3/3	150	WGN News at Nine	She lost several loved ones to pancreatic cancer. Now this local attorney says she has found a new purpose and is vowing to fight back, shining a spotlight, and doing her part to help find a cure. Lauren Jiggetts has the story of Whitney Goldin. She's one of Chicago's very own.
9.1	Politics	6:30 AM	3/4	563	People to People	Journalist, Tonia Hill from The Tribe and Jacoby Cochran, host of City Cast Chicago join us to talk Chicago's mayoral race.
9.1	Economy	6:45 AM	3/4	333	People to People	Accountant Kimi Brown Ellen, breaks down the changes that are impacting this year's returns and shares research that points to bias in audits.
9.1	Cultural	9:20 AM	3/4	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	It started with immersive Van Gogh, then Monet, and Frida Khalo. The next immersive art experience will now feature the work of Mozart. Joining us today to talk about this latest installment is Nick Harkin of lighthouse art space Chicago.
9.1	Women's Issues	9:37 AM	3/4	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	To celebrate international women's day, pop-up art exhibits are filling these spaces to showcase the work of female artists and support women-owned businesses. The small business administration says women make up 43% of small, owned businesses in the country.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
9.1	Employment	9:33 PM	3/4	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Lawmakers are trying to make it easier for military spouses to get jobs, despite their many moves. A bipartisan group is working to pass legislation to reward businesses that hire spouses of service members.
9.1	Religion	5:38 PM	3/5	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A west side congregation comes to together to honor one of their own, lost to gun violence.
9.1	Environment	9:14 PM	3/5	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	People in East Palestine, Ohio remains on edge more than a month after a train carrying toxic chemicals derailed. The EPA insists the community is safe. But as Jorge Ventura reports new tests are showing that might not be true.
9.1	Technology	8:16 AM	3/6	210	WGN Morning News	A man in Portland, Oregon, is using art and robots to help combat crime in the area. Artist Robert Fortney joins us live this morning to tell us more about his project.
9.1	Elderly	4:39 PM	3/6	180	WGN Early Evening News	As much as we plot and plan out our lives, our ending, that final memorial, almost always falls to someone else. Erin ivory is here now with the story of how many are 'rethinking' what it means to be remembered.
9.1	Legal Matters	9:13 PM	3/6	300	WGN News at Nine	WGN Investigates: squatters' rights. They are benefiting from loopholes in the law that make it tough, time consuming and expensive to get them out. Investigative reporter Ben Bradley has one such story.
9.1	Government (National)	11:33 AM	3/7	120	WGN Midday News	President Joe Biden will release his budget plan this week. We're getting a

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
						preview of what's in it, including a major focus on keeping Medicare fully funded for decades.
9.1	Legal Matters	11:46 AM	3/7	420	WGN Midday News	It's often been thought that powerful or rich people can get away with almost any crime. In fact, is the justice department actually afraid of pursuing justice of the powerful? We get the answer in a new book called "untouchable: how powerful people get away with it".
9.1	Legal Matters	6:00 AM	3/8	120	WGN Morning News	Indictments tonight against two former cook county state's attorneys. The indictment stems from a case of a man who was wrongfully convicted in the murders of two Chicago police officers.
9.1	Housing	12:03 PM	3/8	120	WGN Midday News	Housing advocates and some near west side residents want to meet the Chicago mayoral candidates and federal housing officials about a plan to build a Chicago fire soccer training facility. The facility would be built on land once used for public housing.
9.1	National Security	6:13 PM	3/8	120	WGN Evening News	Top officials from the FBI, CIA, and national intelligence agency are warning lawmakers today about the biggest global threats. Security concerns about China were at the top their list.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:32 PM	3/9	270	WGN Early Evening News	The drug cartels in Mexico have long been known to be extremely violent. And one person who can tell us a lot more about this is Jack Riley -- he's the

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
						former head of the DEA in Chicago. Jack joins us now for some perspective.
9.1	Politics	6:31 AM	3/11	445	Adelante Chicago	Chicagoans have cast their votes for Mayor of Chicago, and we officially have a run-off. Latino majority wards show voter turn out to be below 30%. Why are registered Latinos not voting? Will the Latino vote make a difference in the run-off. Political expert Dr. Juan Andrade had some answers for us.
9.1	Business & Industry	8:12 AM	3/11	180	WGN Weekend Morning News	The founder of a Naperville- based fair trade organization is making a difference in women's lives around the world. Manvee Vaid is the founder of 'Terraklay.' it's a social enterprise that designs and produces a line of home goods, all handmade by women artisans in India.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:22 AM	3/11	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	A new play from Congo Square Theatre tackles racial disparities in healthcare in the past, present and future. Yolanda ross, who you will recognize from many shows--including "the chi" on showtime is the star of "how blood go."
9.1	Cultural	5:37 PM	3/11	150	WGN Weekend Evening News	It's a rite of spring, the renowned Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater is gracing the stage again in Chicago. WGN's Gaynor Hall had the chance to attend a rehearsal.
9.1	Business & Industry	8:04 AM	3/12	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	President Biden unveiled his budget plan this week and says, his 6.9 trillion-dollar proposal will reduce the

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
						deficit by scrapping oil and gas industry subsidies. Democrats applauded the move, saying it keeps big oil accountable. But industry experts say, it will only hurt American oil independence.
9.1	Economy	10:07 PM	3/12	120	WGN Weekend News at Ten	A last-minute change in course for the federal government over the collapse of Silicon Valley bank. Officials say they'll back all depositors even those with more than 250 thousand dollars in assets.
9.1	Education	4:39 PM	3/13	180	WGN Early Evening News	Only two percent of teenage moms go on to earn college degrees. WGN's Erin Ivory is here with the story of a local program working overtime to change that.
9.1	Economy	6:02 PM	3/13	120	WGN Evening News	Investors are abandoning shares in bank stocks after two banks collapsed this weekend. The white house insists the banking system is safe.
9.1	Legal Matters	6:30 AM	3/14	120	WGN Morning News	A high-profile political corruption trial involving com-ed begins later this morning at the Dirksen Federal Building. Christine Flores is there, with a preview.
9.1	Business & Industry	12:16 PM	3/14	300	WGN Midday News	Chicago's fry the coop has been impacted by the bank's failure. Though the company doesn't bank with Silicon Valley bank its payroll company does. Founder and owner, Joe Fontana, joins us now, with what it all means for his restaurants and employees.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
9.1	Community	5:29 PM	3/14	120	WGN Evening News	The civilian office of police accountability wants you - and everyone else - to have a better understanding of what they do. They're opening up their doors to the public as part of a new six-week training program.
9.1	Transportation	11:33 AM	3/15	120	WGN Midday News	Today the FAA is holding an emergency safety summit after an alarming string of planes almost colliding at several of the nation's busiest airports. Washington correspondent Trevor Shirley is live in dc with more.
9.1	Economy	4:00 PM	3/15	120	WGN Early Evening News	The deal is worth billions of dollars with proponents saying it will be good for the economy, but opponents have long expressed concerns about what it will do to their communities.
9.1	Economy	11:02 AM	3/16	120	WGN Midday News	Us senators are getting a chance to question treasury secretary Janet Yellen about the collapse of Silicon Valley bank. Lawmakers want to know about the extraordinary measures taken by the administration to protect the rest of the banking sector.
9.1	Women's Issues	6:38 PM	3/16	240	WGN Evening News	Maternal deaths in the us have risen to their highest rate in nearly 60 years. For African American women, they face a mortality rate over two and a half times that of white women. Joining us now to talk about this new data is Doctor Whitney Lyn, a family medicine physician with the cook county health department.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
9.1	Immigration	6:23 PM	3/17	120	WGN Evening News	Many lawmakers are concerned about drugs entering the us from Mexico. But some republicans are raising the alarm about an increase in human and drug trafficking on the northern border.
9.1	Technology	6:28 PM	3/17	120	WGN Evening News	A new proposal would give drivers the option of carry a digital driver's license that officials say would bring Illinois into the 21st century. But as WGN's Andrea Medina reports some drivers are worried about what that means for security.
9.1	Cultural	9:22 PM	3/17	120	WGN News at Nine	From the revolutionary war to Ernest Hemingway novels, for nearly 5 decades she has captured and documented American history with the stroke of a paintbrush. As she celebrates her 100th birthday, meet kay smith. Lauren Jiggetts has the story on one of Chicago's very own.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:30 AM	3/18	500	People to People	Kanoya Ali and Peter Cunningham from Chicago CRED: the orgs anti-violence work & what they'd like to see in the new police Supt.
9.1	Education	6:50 AM	3/18	212	People to People	Teacher and author Ke'Aundra Anderson talks about introducing young readers to Black history through books.
9.1	Cultural	6:55 AM	3/18	230	People to People	Live music from performer Yana Renea and Zachary Villegas.
9.1	Politics	9:14 AM	3/18	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	The us health and human services secretary joined congressional leaders

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
						in Englewood yesterday for a roundtable discussion. The group talked about efforts to combat gun violence and support mental health
9.1	Employment	9:33 AM	3/18	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	On the heels of Tuesday's "equal pay day," the Biden administration is outlining ways it is trying to close the employment and wage gap between men and women. The labor department's women's bureau says new federal funding is already on the way.
9.1	Cultural	5:22 PM	3/18	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Dance, yoga, and storytelling were part of a colorful celebration of Indian culture today in the south loop. WGN's Gaynor Hall gives us a look.
9.1	Politics	5:34 PM	3/19	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Former president Donald Trump says he expects to be arrested in New York on Tuesday. It would be the first time a sitting or former president has been criminally charged.
9.1	Elderly	4:34 PM	3/20	120	WGN Early Evening News	Nursing home workers are sounding the alarm on what they say are dangerously low staffing levels. As WGN's Patrick Elwood reports they're being joined by key lawmakers, who say this is a matter of public safety.
9.1	Consumer Issues	9:30 AM	3/21	240	WGN Morning News	Instead of trashing those items around the house you no longer need or want, now you can give that stuff away using a website called "buy nothing". The "buy nothing project" was created by Liesl Clark and Rebecca Rockefeller, who join us live now to tell us more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
9.1	Transportation	11:00 AM	3/21	120	WGN Midday News	A three-year construction project is getting underway on the Kennedy Expressway. So traffic is going to get worse before it gets better. Glenn Marshall is live on the Kennedy, near Montrose, with more.
9.1	Consumer Issues	11:52 AM	3/21	330	WGN Midday News	Filing your taxes may look different for you now thanks to new IRS rules and deductions. So, in today's midday fix, we're getting advice on how to file to maximize your return this year.
9.1	Community	12:40 PM	3/21	150	WGN Midday News	A high school on Chicago's west side is taking its 'student store' to a whole new level. WGN's Erin Ivory takes us inside.
9.1	Economy	6:25 PM	3/21	120	WGN Evening News	The federal reserve meets today to decide whether or not to continue hiking interest rates to combat inflation. The Central Bank has raised interest rates eight times since last March, but as Anna Wiernicki reports recent bank failures have some questioning if another increase is a good idea.
9.1	Legal Matters	6:31 PM	3/21	120	WGN Evening News	Almost a dozen new civil lawsuits filed today by local men who've had murder convictions tossed out. They say a disgraced Chicago police detective - is to blame. WGN's Bronagh Tumulty joins us now from outside city hall with the details
9.1	Legal Matters	6:43 PM	3/21	120	WGN Evening News	A recent Illinois supreme court ruling could dramatically change class action lawsuits related to the state's biometric

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
						information privacy act. That's the law that led to thousands of Illinois Facebook users getting settlement checks in recent years. Attorney Salvador Lopez is here to explain.
9.1	Business & Industry	11:33 AM	3/22	120	WGN Midday News	The end of an era could be in sight for some of the vendors who work out of little village's discount mall. We're told about a third of the businesses there are set to wrap up by Sunday.
9.1	Consumer Issues	11:47 AM	3/22	330	WGN Midday News	A new book takes a look at the perpetrators, victims, and whistleblowers behind financial crimes. It's called "fool me once: scams, stories, and secrets from the trillion-dollar fraud industry written by renowned forensic accounting expert Kelly Richmond pope.
9.1	Consumer Issues	5:46 PM	3/22	240	WGN Evening News	The federal reserve raised the interest rate today by a quarter of a percent. For more on what this means to you, Steve Lewit, financial advisor, and president of SGL Financial.
9.1	Community	8:13 AM	3/23	180	WGN Morning News	A pet shelter in South Elgin just launched a new program that allows people to sign up as temporary fosters. It's called the 'doggie day out' program and it gives people the opportunity to take a dog out of the shelter for a day.
9.1	Technology	4:12 PM	3/23	120	WGN Early Evening News	The CEO of TikTok was grilled by congress today during a combative hearing over security concerns. The app faces pressure from lawmakers as congress considers a ban of the app.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
9.1	Politics	4:05 PM	3/24	120	WGN Early Evening News	Chicago's mayoral candidates spending the day campaigning across the city-- both raking in more support as we inch closer to the run-off election on April 4th. WGN's Alyssa Donovan is live in Auburn Gresham with more.
9.1	Community	6:31 AM	3/25	420	Adelante Chicago	Around fifty vendors are in limbo. Attorneys filed an emergency injunction this week trying to buy some time for the dozens of vendors who are set to be evicted from the Little Village Discount Mall. What will be economical impact if these vendors were to close their business?
9.1	Cultural	6:52 AM	3/25	350	Adelante Chicago	The Puerto Rico Ice Hockey Association will be hosting "Fiesta de Hockey" there will be lots of great Puerto Rican food, music and of course hockey. The founder and some members of the association gave us all the details.
9.1	Cultural	6:57 AM	3/25	135	Adelante Chicago	Choreographer Liz Imperio has worked with celebrities like Jennifer Lopez and Gloria Estefan. Now she is producing a show that takes the audience back in time to pre-Castro Cuba. Imperio spoke with us about the creative process behind the production and her start in the world of dance.
9.1	Women's Issues	8:28 AM	3/26	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	"A long walk home" is an art organization empowering young people to end violence against girls and women. Joining us today is one of the

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
						founders of the organization, Scheherazade Tillet.
9.1	Cultural	5:46 PM	3/26	150	WGN Weekend Evening News	A new production at the lyric opera explores the impact of gun violence in Chicago, based on the real stories of people who are working for peace.
9.1	Technology	11:47 AM	3/27	360	WGN Midday News	The new book, "Pegasus: How A Spy in Your Pocket Threatens the End Of Privacy, Dignity, And Democracy" is a look inside a monthslong investigation into concerns raised by this new technology. It was written by Laurent Richard, a documentary filmmaker, and Sandrine Rigaud, an investigative journalist.
9.1	Politics	4:02 PM	3/27	120	WGN Early Evening News	There's a little more than a week left before Chicago voters choose their next mayor. And a new exclusive WGN -TV Emerson College and the hill poll shows one candidate is holding a slight lead, as the race goes down to the wire.
9.1	Economy	4:33 PM	3/27	270	WGN Early Evening News	News of the acquisition of "Silicon Valley bank" was received well on wall street today as most of the markets saw a jump on the positive side. Craig Bolanos is the founding partner and CEO of Wealth Management Group and joins us now to talk about this latest news on the banking industry.
9.1	Government (National)	5:24 PM	3/27	120	WGN Evening News	Congress is back at it this week, working hard to resolve a budget battle and avert a debt ceiling crisis. Basil

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
						John is in Washington DC with the details.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:03 PM	3/28	120	WGN Evening News	One of the officers who responded to the Nashville shooting grew up on the city's northwest side. WGN's Courtney Spinelli joins us live with the officers' quick actions.
9.1	Consumer Issues	9:18 PM	3/28	120	WGN News at Nine	New tonight: a suburban couple says the city is coercing them into paying a red-light ticket, for a car that isn't theirs. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us in the newsroom with their story.
9.1	Religion	9:06 PM	3/29	120	WGN News at Nine	Developing tonight: Pope Francis is in the hospital with a respiratory infection. He's expected to spend the next few days there while he recovers.
9.1	Politics	11:00 AM	3/30	120	WGN Midday News	The city council is holding a special meeting this morning that could make it more independent of the next mayor of Chicago.
9.1	Politics	6:00 PM	3/30	120	WGN Evening News	We're continuing to follow breaking news right now at six. A New York grand jury has voted to indict former president Donald Trump.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

The station aired the following Community Calendars during the instant quarter:

Type of Issue	Duration (Seconds)	Title or Narrative
Children/Youth	:15	Family Storytime
Minority Issues	:15	MLK Dreamer's Breakfast
Minority Issues	:15	Dr. King Freedom Ride
Elderly	:15	Retire Fearlessly
Children/Youth	:15	Skill Development Clinics
Elderly	:15	Driver Safety Program
Employment	:15	Over 40 and Hired!
Elderly	:15	Stroll & Roll Walking Open Gym
Immigration	:15	Virtual Citizenship Class
Cultural	:15	Black History Month
Minority Issues	:15	Fearless Readers
Health/Healthcare	:15	Fight for Air Climb
Cultural	:15	President's Day Camp
Minority Issues	:15	The Negro Motorist Greenbook Exhibit
Elderly	:15	Tax Preparation
Cultural	:15	Black History Month
Cultural	:15	Restaurant Week
Women's Issues	:15	Celebrating Women
Children/Youth	:15	Wee Ones Wednesday
Health/Healthcare	:15	Long Term Care Planning
Education	:15	In Stitches Needleworkers
Immigration	:15	In Pursuit of Happiness
Children/Youth	:15	Teen Volunteers
Education	:15	Mobile Learning Lab
Elderly	:15	Ageless Grace
Children/Youth	:15	Crafternoon

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Type of Issue	Duration (Seconds)	Title or Narrative
Education	:15	Spring Break Syruping

Quarterly Issues and Program List

The station also aired the following public service announcements during the instant quarter:

Type of Issue	Duration (Seconds)	Title Or Narrative
Health/Healthcare	:15	Hearing Health
Health/Healthcare	:15	Lung Cancer Screening
Children/Youth	:15	Sisters
Health/Healthcare	:30	Hearing Health
Children/Youth	:10	Child Car Safety
Children/Youth	:15	Zoom Call Crasher
Environment	:15	Earth Justice Never R Pwr
Health/Healthcare	:15	High Blood Pressure
Children/Youth	:15	Duffle
Children/Youth	:15	Child Car Hoop
Children/Youth	:15	Child Mind Lifes
Consumer Issues	:15	NLP
Children/Youth	:15	Autism
Health/Healthcare	:30	Mollies Fund
Children/Youth	:30	Duffle
Education	:15	Empower Stem
Health/Healthcare	:15	Amer Red Cross Bloody Ngt
Crime/Law Enforcement	:30	Gun Safety Kids Find
Health/Healthcare	:30	Covid 19 Vaccine
Crime/Law Enforcement	:15	Gun Safety
Health/Healthcare	:30	High Blood Pressure
Children/Youth	:30	Sisters
Health/Healthcare	:30	Know Diabetes
National Security	:15	IBA :15 Guard
Health/Healthcare	:15	Know Diabetes
Health/Healthcare	:30	Amer Red Cross Bloody Ngt

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Type of Issue	Duration (Seconds)	Title Or Narrative
Consumer Issues	:30	Saving For Daughter
Health/Healthcare	:30	Hearing Health
Health/Healthcare	:15	Amer Heart Gail
National Security	:15	Paralyzed Vets
Health/Healthcare	:15	Aa Wall
Health/Healthcare	:60	Mollies Fund Mr. Sun
Health/Healthcare	:10	Lung Cancer Matches
Health/Healthcare	:30	Hearing Health
Health/Healthcare	:30	Retina Spec
Health/Healthcare	:30	US Dept of HH
Crime/Law Enforcement	:30	Gun Safety Safe Storage
Children/Youth	:30	Feed The Children
Children/Youth	:10	Sisters
Health/Healthcare	:30	SAMHSA Choices
Health/Healthcare	:15	US Dept of HH
Children/Youth	:10	Howard
Health/Healthcare	:30	Lymphatic Educ
Health/Healthcare	:60	Obesity Action
Education	:60	Empower Stem
Health/Healthcare	:60	Amer Heart Gail
Health/Healthcare	:60	Aa Party
Children/Youth	:30	First Tee
National Security	:60	DAV Victories Latoya
Consumer Issues	:60	Saving For Retire Girls
Health/Healthcare	:30	American Lung Association
Immigration	:30	Belonging Begins with Us
Health/Healthcare	:15	NHTSA
Children/Youth	:15	Child Fund

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Type of Issue	Duration (Seconds)	Title Or Narrative
Health/Healthcare	:15	American Lung Assoc
Crime/Law Enforcement	:30	Gun Safety
Health/Healthcare	:15	Hearing Industries
Immigration	:15	Belonging Begins with Us
Health/Healthcare	:15	American Lung Association