

Quarterly Issues and Program List

WGN-TV

4Q 2023

Pursuant to the disclosure requirements in 47 C.F. R. 73.3526(11)(i), and during the quarter referenced above, this station provided information to its viewers regarding the following significant issues, including:

Business & Industry	Economy	Government (National)	National Security
Children/Youth	Education	Health/Healthcare	Politics
Community	Elderly	Housing	Religion
Consumer Issues	Employment	Immigration	Technology
Crime/Law Enforcement	Environment	Legal Matters (e.g. court decisions)	Transportation
Cultural	Government (Local)	Minority Issues	Women's Issues

Programs

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief narrative description
9.1	Government (National)	8:30 AM	10/1	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	A government shutdown was averted after congress agreed on a 45-day spending plan. Here to break it all down is WGN political analyst Paul Lisnek.
9.1	Housing	8:38 AM	10/1	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	A new partnership is aiming to help the city's unhoused population including newly arrived asylum seekers with basic needs. Paul de Beor, the executive director of Chicago furniture bank joins us now to tell us more.
9.1	Religion	5:32 PM	10/1	150	WGN Weekend Evening News	Faith leaders held a health fair today, hoping to use their trusted voices to encourage people to get checked out and vaccinated.
9.1	Immigration	9:01 PM	10/2	120	WGN News at Nine	Some state and city officials are warning the amount of migrants coming to Chicago every day could more than double in the next few days. That information comes as a southwest side community meets to discuss a new planned migrant shelter. WGN's Jenna Barnes joins us live with the story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Politics	5:37 AM	10/3	120	WGN Early Morning News	Florida republican Matt Gaetz wasted little time before trying to kick Kevin McCarthy out as house speaker for working with democrats.
9.1	Minority Issues	11:30 AM	10/3	120	WGN Midday News	Antisemitic incidents, hate crimes, and white supremacist activities are on the rise in Illinois. The anti-defamation league released a report this morning on the increase, and how to respond to the hate and extremism.
9.1	Immigration	4:00 PM	10/3	120	WGN Early Evening News	Our top story this evening: city and state officials pleading with the white house for more help taking care of migrants, as Chicago shelters run out of room and aid groups, run out of resources.
9.1	Economy	9:18 AM	10/4	300	WGN Morning News	Let's start with talks about a recession and what it means financial expert terry savage joins us now.
9.1	Economy	4:34 PM	10/5	270	WGN Early Evening News	Americans have a spending problem! According to a recent report by the wall street journal -- households are spending a lot despite high interest rates and inflation shrinking savings and a cooling job market. Joining us now to breakdown these growing spending habits is Craig Bolanos, founder, and CEO of wealth management group in inverness and downers grove.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Immigration	5:30 PM	10/5	120	WGN Evening News	With no end in sight to the migrant crisis, Illinois' governor and the mayor of Chicago working closely to lobby Washington for federal relief. The mayor is planning a big trip to the southern border
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:03 PM	10/5	120	WGN Evening News	Local businessman mark diamond has been walking the streets, awaiting trial on federal charges he scammed elderly homeowners out of millions of dollars. But as WGN's Gaynor Hall shows us, in a surprising move a judge ordered diamond back to jail today.
9.1	Business & Industry	9:52 PM	10/5	240	WGN News at Nine	A Latino owned establishment in west town is shaking things up by not serving alcohol. It's called "in good spirits" and it's the newest bar to join the sober and sober-curious scene. WGN's Andrea Medina has the story.
9.1	Children/Youth	11:50 AM	10/6	240	WGN Midday News	Family-friendly fall and Halloween projects to do with the kids. Nina Bricko is a studio projects editor for the streaming show "family handyman".
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:33 PM	10/6	120	WGN Early Evening News	Today cook county health officials urge the public to get flu shots and covid-19 vaccines. Yet some patients are having a hard time getting vaccine appointments.
9.1	Employment	5:28 PM	10/6	120	WGN Evening News	A big legislative win for mayor Brandon Johnson today, as the city council passes the one fair wage ordinance. Starting next July, tipped workers will get a raise in their base pay. But as Gaynor Hall reports, opponents argue the changes will decimate tips and restaurant jobs.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Cultural	6:31 AM	10/7	495	Adelante Chicago	We know the Latino population keeps growing in the Chicago area and suburbs, but how do we make sure all the stakeholders connect. We sit down with one of the leaders behind the Great Cities Institute to break down the Latino Research Initiative
9.1	Community	6:41 AM	10/7	230	Adelante Chicago	Targeting hunger and inequity in Chicago's immigrant communities. That's the life mission for Dr. Evelyn Figueroa and her non-profit community wellness organization & food pantry.
9.1	Business & Industry	6:47 AM	10/7	535	Adelante Chicago	Bringing some of the best fashion front and center. The role Latinos will play in the upcoming Runway Latinx....and how it could impact what you wear.
9.1	Community	6:54 AM	10/7	300	Adelante Chicago	Dentist by day and DJ by night. How two worlds collided for a southwest side dentist trying to help Latinos in our city.
9.1	Politics	8:33 AM	10/7	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	House republicans are scrambling to figure out who will be the next speaker of the house. They've have made it clear that this speaker's election is going to look a lot different from what we saw unfold in January, vowing to not go to the floor without a consensus candidate.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:38 AM	10/7	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	It's sober October and much like "dry January" some people have chosen to take a break from alcohol for various reasons. Here to talk to us about it: Joe Chura, co-founder of "go brewing."

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Cultural	9:37 PM	10/7	180	WGN Weekend News at Nine	A new art gallery in the loop is creating a safe space to showcase and support native artists. Gaynor hall has the story.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:14 PM	10/8	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Latin restaurant weeks are treating Chicagoans to the culinary flavors of Latin America. The designated weeks support businesses - along with giving restaurant-goers delicious specialty menus.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:27 PM	10/8	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Israeli and Palestinian supporters are rallying across the us over the conflict in the middle east. That includes right here in Chicago. Palestinian Americans gathered this afternoon outside the Israeli consulate which is where we find WGN's Courtney Spinelli
9.1	Minority Issues	9:12 PM	10/9	510	WGN News at Nine	Northwestern graduate Robert Samuels co-authored an acclaimed book on the life of George Floyd. Tonight, our Mike Lowe sits down with him in his college classroom to discuss what we've learned -- and what we haven't -- in the three years since Floyd's murder sparked a worldwide movement.
9.1	Religion	6:03 AM	10/10	180	WGN Morning News	There is growing concern for a mother and daughter from Evanston, still missing since the first Hamas attack. Prayer services were held in Skokie and Lincoln Park. Joining us now is Sarah Loon of the American Jewish committee.
9.1	Cultural	11:54 AM	10/12	330	WGN Midday News	Chicago's "arts in the dark parade" is coming back for a 9th year. At least 90 arts and cultural organizations will be featured and for the first time, there will be a bilingual emcee. WGN's own Lourdes Duarte providing English and Spanish parade commentary.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Legal Matters	5:35 AM	10/13	120	WGN Early Morning News	Closing arguments will get underway today in the trial of two former DCFS workers, charged in connection with the death of 5-year-old AJ Freund.
9.1	Politics	11:40 AM	10/13	180	WGN Midday News	Getting ready for Chicago to host next year's democratic convention. One of the main people behind all that work is state representative and Illinois democratic party chair Lisa Hernandez. She sat down for her first television interview with WGN's Lourdes Duarte.
9.1	Housing	12:26 PM	10/13	120	WGN Midday News	Residents who suffered damage during last month's severe weather in calumet city could get some help. Damage assessment teams are going door to door in the community today.
9.1	Cultural	6:31 AM	10/14	348	Adelante Chicago	The story of a young Latina who discovered her Mexican roots by simply following her passion for fashion. You'll meet the Mexican designer who has rolled out a line of footwear
9.1	Cultural	6:40 AM	10/14	120	Adelante Chicago	Chicago is known for its restaurants. Now a special celebration of some of the best Latin American dishes. How you can become a part of Latin Restaurant Weeks
9.1	Cultural	6:45 AM	10/14	320	Adelante Chicago	T's quickly becoming a Halloween tradition along historic state street. The Arts in the Dark Halloween Parade that will showcase some of the traditions of "El Dia de Los Muertos."

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Housing	9:36 AM	10/14	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	Civil rights activist and photographer, Bernie Kleina has long advocated for equal housing for all people. On Thursday he will receive an award for that advocacy. Bernie joins us now along with Allen Hailey from law center of better housing who is honoring Bernie.
9.1	Immigration	5:10 PM	10/14	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A Chicago alderman and local nonprofit host a legal aid workshop to help new arrivals from Venezuela apply for temporary protected status. The program enables migrants from 16 countries designated unsafe by the department of homeland security to legally work and live in the us for up to 18 months.
9.1	Politics	9:16 PM	10/15	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	The house of representatives could vote as soon as Tuesday for its next house speaker. Ohio representative Jim Jordan is the frontrunner. But as WGN's Gaynor Hall reports, he still faces opposition within his own party.
9.1	National Security	7:03 AM	10/16	210	WGN Morning News	Amid domestic protests of the fighting on both sides, the FBI is warning of a risk that Hamas or other terrorist groups will urge their supporters to conduct attacks on American soil. FBI boss Christopher Wray says U.S. authorities must be on guard against "lone wolf" violence.
9.1	Employment	5:45 PM	10/16	240	WGN Evening News	Some are definitely better at the leadership role than others. Tom Gimbel of LaSalle network joins us to talk about some of the top traits in a manager.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Religion	9:05 PM	10/16	120	WGN News at Nine	Community members in suburban wheeling coming together to stand in solidarity with those impacted by the Israel-Hamas war. WGN's Christine Flores has more on their message of unity and prayer vigil.
9.1	Legal Matters	9:23 PM	10/16	120	WGN News at Nine	A federal judge imposed a limited gag order on Donald Trump in the criminal case against him in Washington, DC. WGN's Washington correspondent Jessi Turnure has more.
9.1	Women's Issues	11:54 AM	10/17	270	WGN Midday News	October is national women's small business month. In celebration, "Foundher Fridays" are kicking off, providing resources and tips to women who are looking to grow their business. The free events are hosted by Lindsay Pinchuk, founder and host of the podcast, "Dear Foundher".
9.1	Religion	9:00 PM	10/17	120	WGN News at Nine	Community members gathering tonight in southwest suburban Plainfield to remember a six-year-old boy violently stabbed to death, allegedly targeted because of his religion.
9.1	Economy	9:15 AM	10/18	300	WGN Morning News	Latest economic reports show consumer spending remains strong, but homebuilders are worried as mortgage rates head toward eight percent, making housing less affordable. Financial expert terry savage joins us now with how these mixed reports might impact your money.
9.1	Government (Local)	11:34 AM	10/18	120	WGN Midday News	Elected city and county leaders joined and Muslim community organizations in calling for an immediate cease fire in the Israeli and Hamas war.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Children/Youth	11:48 AM	10/18	300	WGN Midday News	Raising boys today is challenging, parents are often pushing back against cultural stereotypes and toxic masculinity. So how do you raise boys into men who are mentally healthy, empathetic, and committed to gender equality? Dr. Shelly Vaziri Flais is the author of the new book, "nurturing boys to be better men: gender equality starts at home".
9.1	Religion	6:29 PM	10/18	150	WGN Evening News	A group of inter-faith leaders come together to condemn the brutal murder of a six-year-old Palestinian American boy who prosecutors say was targeted because of his Muslim faith.
9.1	Women's Issues	4:31 PM	10/19	270	WGN Early Evening News	There's a new resource available at a local cook county courthouse. A domestic violence center is now set up to shelter anyone looking to file orders of protection or simply trying to meet with an advocate. Joining us to tell us explain is circuit court clerk Iris Martinez.
9.1	Children/Youth	7:33 AM	10/20	180	WGN Morning News	As the war in the middle east unfolds, the details and images can be overwhelming for most adults, let alone children. Here with some suggestions for healthy ways to process that trauma with kids is author and psychologist Sheela Raja.
9.1	Housing	8:36 AM	10/20	120	WGN Morning News	City leaders appear to be backing off plans to turn Amundsen Park into a migrant shelter. And a protest at another proposed shelter site got physical. Erik Runge is in Brighton Park with details.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Legal Matters	5:38 PM	10/20	240	WGN Evening News	Parents of children who bought drugs via snap chat are taking the social media company to court. Joining me now to talk about this is two of the plaintiffs in the lawsuit Sam Chapman and Laura Berman, who lost their 16-year-old son, Sammy, in 2021.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:31 AM	10/21	553	Adelante Chicago	Understanding how human trafficking is affecting Latinos in Chicago. The numbers are stunning...but what's being done to address it?
9.1	Government (National)	6:42 AM	10/21	210	Adelante Chicago	She's helping lead the state's plan to host the democratic national convention. State Rep. Lisa Hernandez spends some time with our cameras to talk about her new role which makes her one of the most powerful political leaders in the state.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:46 AM	10/21	280	Adelante Chicago	October is known as breast cancer awareness month...and a Pilsen organization is on a mission to create a safe space for Latinas suffering with the disease. There are ways you can help.
9.1	Community	9:12 AM	10/21	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	An organization in Chicago is celebrating the benefits of mentorship for mentees and mentors. Joining us now is Laura Muriello of "pitch in" and Marcus Dumas who is a mentee in the program.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:43 AM	10/21	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	This month marks 60 years since the community mental health act was signed. But people working in the field say the act still hasn't been fully realized. Joining us not to talk about it is Mark Ishaug, c e o of thresholds.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:08 PM	10/21	120	WGN Evening News	Walking to raise awareness for suicide prevention. The "out of the darkness" Chicagoland walk, happening earlier today saw thousands of people join together to fight suicide. WGN's Courtney Spinelli has the story from Montrose Harbor.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:33 PM	10/21	120	WGN News at Nine	Only five percent of all medical doctors in the United States are black. Earlier today, hundreds of kids made their way to Malcom X College, in hopes of changing that. WGN's Judy Wang shows us how one organization, "black men in white coats," is trying to increase diversity in the medical field.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:36 PM	10/22	180	WGN News at Nine	A Chicago police officer's own life was cut short - but now, her legacy is helping build the futures of others. WGN's Gaynor Hall has this exclusive report on the first group of Ella French scholars.
9.1	Education	11:30 AM	10/24	120	WGN Midday News	Hundreds of Chicago high school seniors are getting a chance to meet with more than 100 colleges this morning. Some of those students are leaving with scholarships and admission offers.
9.1	Women's Issues	4:23 PM	10/24	180	WGN Early Evening News	When it comes to cancer, not all women are created equally. So, as WGN medical reporter Dina Bair tells us, doctors need a special way to address the disease for certain communities.
9.1	Community	9:44 PM	10/24	515	WGN News at Nine	Small issues with sidewalks and public transit, can mean big problems across Chicago. The city is struggling with accessibility. But Chicago is further ahead than many big cities, WGN's Dana Rebik reports.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Immigration	11:48 AM	10/25	270	WGN Midday News	With colder weather on the way, we're learning more about a group called "one warm coat". The non-profit works across the country making sure struggling families have the basic necessities. Now, the group is working with several organizations to properly outfit Chicago's growing migrant population with what they need to survive winter.
9.1	Education	9:45 PM	10/25	180	WGN News at Nine	A shortage of bus drivers has led to the loss of bus service for close to 5,500 magnet and selective enrollment students in Chicago. That's creating hardships for many, especially those traveling from neighborhoods far away. WGN's Julian Crews has a closer look.
9.1	National Security	6:31 AM	10/26	150	WGN Morning News	The city of Lewiston, Maine remains under a shelter-in-place order-- as police search for the man they believe is responsible for two shootings that killed at least 22 people and injured dozens more. Joining us now is author and retired FBI agent and profiler, Mary Ellen O'Toole.
9.1	Children/Youth	12:13 PM	10/26	350	WGN Midday News	A new social media campaign aims to help parents protect their kids' Halloween selfies the same way they inspect Halloween candy. Parents for image consent's national spokesperson Cathy Pedrayes joins us to discuss the "safe selfie" campaign.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Women's Issues	12:22 PM	10/26	180	WGN Midday News	On the medical watch, creating a life while saving a life. Cancer treatments can be toxic and can render many women infertile. But there is hope and that gives doctors and breast cancer patients a reason to smile.
9.1	Government (National)	6:15 PM	10/26	120	WGN Evening News	It's back to business in congress now that the house has elected representative Mike Johnson to be the 56th speaker of the house. Lawmakers immediately resumed legislative work, passing a resolution defending Israel and condemning Hamas.
9.1	Technology	11:39 AM	10/27	120	WGN Midday News	Illinois ranked number five for the highest number of cyber scam victims last year, according to the FBI. Now a major tech company is rolling out tips to help keep your account safe and spot scams.
9.1	Politics	12:15 PM	10/27	360	WGN Midday News	An outspoken former GOP presidential candidate has made headlines for standing solo against his party. In the new biography "Romney: A Reckoning" author McKay Coppins shares Utah senator Mitt Romney's take on republican leaders.
9.1	Environment	4:38 PM	10/27	255	WGN Early Evening News	The Chicago River is known as an engineering victory and a tourism gem in the city. A lot of work has gone into keeping it clean. The latest effort includes a trash trap that's finding all the things Chicagoans are leaving behind. More than 80 percent of what they're finding is plastic, but it's offering some insight on environmental policies that may be needed.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Community	6:30 AM	10/28	511	People to People	Adrienne Bankert is an anchor for NewsNation's Morning in America, an author, and an advocate. She joins Micah to talk about her book, "Your Hidden Superpower: The Kindness That Makes You Unbeatable at Work and Connects You with Anyone."
9.1	Cultural	6:40 AM	10/28	293	People to People	Paul Branton is the creative director for Diasporal Rhythms. "PERSPECTIVE" is their new, groundbreaking exhibition of fine contemporary Black art, on view at Navy Pier
9.1	Cultural	6:50 AM	10/28	390	People to People	Chicago comedian Marlon Mitchell
9.1	Housing	8:11 AM	10/29	180	WGN Weekend Morning News	Over the past several weeks, more than six-hundred women came together volunteering to build homes and community on the city's far south side.
9.1	Minority Issues	8:38 AM	10/29	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	Just heal bro, the black male mental health tour is making a stop in Chicago tomorrow. Joining us today to talk about it is actor Lamman Rucker and author Lawrence Adjah.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:39 PM	10/29	150	WGN Weekend Evening News	Parkinson's can become a debilitating disease for the nearly 90-thousand people who are diagnosed with it every year. But a Midwest group wants those who are impacted, to know they're not alone.
9.1	Government (Local)	12:16 PM	10/30	330	WGN Midday News	Sweeping changes have come to the Illinois secretary of state in the past year. All part of an effort to streamline and modernize the many services the office provides. Here to talk more about the changes at the DMV is secretary of state Alexi Giannoulias himself.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Technology	4:37 PM	10/30	255	WGN Early Evening News	An upcoming competition looks to find the next fighters to defend against cyber-attacks. Argonne national lab in the southwest suburbs is hosting the event to identify college students with exceptional computing skills.
9.1	Environment	4:22 PM	10/31	120	WGN Early Evening News	In any season – even on a snowy day -- connecting with our natural surroundings can foster calm and healing. What’s called nature therapy impacts our nervous system. Spending time outdoors allows the mind to take a break from fight or flight mode and can even reduce levels of the stress hormone cortisol.
9.1	Business & Industry	4:32 PM	10/31	240	WGN Early Evening News	Last weekend, the united auto workers announced they had reached a tentative deal with Stellantis to end their 44-day strike against the automaker. That agreement boosts pay for union members but also calls for the reopening of the idled Belvidere assembly plant.
9.1	Housing	6:09 PM	10/31	240	WGN Evening News	Every three years, cook county reassesses home values. Cook county assessor, Fritz Kaegi, joins us live to discuss how the process works.
9.1	Education	8:15 AM	11/1	180	WGN Morning News	A recent report found public school students in Illinois are slowly recovering from the setbacks of remote learning during the pandemic. And a local nonprofit is working to help students throughout Chicagoland. "Tutoring Chicago" offers free one-on-one tutoring and social-emotional help to students in first through 10th grade.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Consumer Issues	8:14 AM	11/3	180	WGN Morning News	A travel expert is going viral for sharing her money-saving hacks on social media. Jess Bohorquez shows her followers how to use credit card points and other tips when it comes to booking those holiday flights.
9.1	Politics	8:32 AM	11/3	240	WGN Morning News	With us this morning to talk more about the Israel-Hamas war and his new book "renegade: defending democracy and liberty in our divided country" is former Illinois congressman Adam Kinzinger.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:36 PM	11/3	120	WGN Midday News	The Chicago police department is updating the public on its efforts to implement reforms mandated by the U.S. justice department. It comes as a new report says the department is behind schedule and questions CPD's commitment to making changes.
9.1	Government (Local)	6:07 PM	11/3	120	WGN Evening News	The city of Chicago will replace tens of thousands of lead water pipes, thanks to a big loan from the federal government.
9.1	Housing	6:33 PM	11/3	150	WGN Evening News	We are kicking off our special "veterans voices" coverage this evening, with former service members helping to bring others home. Three teams of veterans, joining with habitat for humanity Chicago today.
9.1	Immigration	6:31 AM	11/4	430	Adelante Chicago	Chicago's migrant crisis is entering a new phase now as the cold weather sets in. The need keeps growing but donations seem to be dwindling. Find out how you can help.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:41 AM	11/4	230	Adelante Chicago	We'll tell you about a new clinic in Chicago that is helping Latinas overcome language and financial barriers so they can access advanced healthcare.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:53 AM	11/4	410	Adelante Chicago	Wrongful convictions from his murder case have cost Chicago millions of dollars in settlements. We look at the emotional toll former Chicago detective Reynaldo Guevera has taken on the families of those murder.
9.1	Education	7:42 AM	11/4	354	Adelante Chicago	City Colleges of Chicago enrollment is up more than double the statewide average for Illinois Community Colleges and there's a strong increase in enrollment among Latinos. Find out how City Colleges is narrowing the equity gaps.
9.1	Environment	5:39 PM	11/4	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Chicago's 47th ward is making sure those old jack-o-lanterns don't go to waste. Neighbors let off a little steam this morning, during the annual pumpkin smash. WGN's Sean Lewis reports on the environmentally friendly fun.
9.1	Employment	9:14 PM	11/4	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	From healthcare to law to finance, dozens of young people are exposed to different career opportunities at an event today in the west loop.
9.1	Elderly	8:38 AM	11/5	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Being a TikTok star is not reserved just for millennials and gen z. 'Granfluencers' are gaining celebrity status on social media. And as NewsNation's Xavier Walton reports they are cashing in.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Community	5:47 PM	11/5	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	It's a bike ride and a food drive. As we head into the holiday season, a Jefferson Park bike shop hosted what they call 'Cranksgiving.'
9.1	Elderly	8:30 AM	11/6	210	WGN Morning News	Financial expert terry savage was featured during "60 minutes," sharing how social security is going after people that it sent overpayments to, even though it's social security's fault. Terry joins us live this morning to tell us more.
9.1	Community	11:46 AM	11/6	330	WGN Midday News	In today's midday fix, we're joined by the voices of hope community chorus, formed to spread music and support for those affected by breast cancer.
9.1	Government (Local)	8:40 AM	11/7	180	WGN Morning News	Chicago's city council will meet this morning, to consider censuring Mayor Johnson's former council floor leader, over some alleged bullying. Joining us now to discuss more is alderman Stephanie Coleman.
9.1	Housing	12:32 PM	11/7	180	WGN Midday News	Several city colleges of Chicago students who were experiencing housing insecurity now have a new place to stay. WGN's Christine Flores is live in west town with details on what's being called the "Dax Program."
9.1	Education	9:23 PM	11/7	120	WGN News at Nine	Lockport high school freshman will be bused to a different building days after an old, plaster ceiling collapsed at southwest suburban Lockport Central High School.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:37 AM	11/9	270	WGN Morning News	Journalist and author Kenneth Miller thinks we're in the midst of a never-ending war on sleep. His new book, "mapping the darkness: the visionary scientists who unlocked the mysteries of sleep" explores how can we sleep better.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Immigration	4:23 PM	11/9	120	WGN Early Evening News	On the medical watch -- the cost of healthcare. Migrants are coming to Chicago by the busload and their needs are great. And while the medical world is living by the oath doctors and nurses took to care for patients, resources are not nearly as abundant as the migrants who need care.
9.1	National Security	8:04 AM	11/10	180	WGN Morning News	Israeli prime minister Benjamin Netanyahu says there will be no extended ceasefire without Hamas's release of hostages. Joins us now is terrorism analyst Tom Mockaitis.
9.1	Employment	11:00 AM	11/10	120	WGN Midday News	Mid-size and large employers in Chicago will have to give their workers paid time off. The city council says so. Judy is in the newsroom with details.
9.1	Employment	4:30 PM	11/10	120	WGN Early Evening News	Among the challenges migrants face is the complicated process to get legal work permits. Today, they're getting help with that. WGN's Julian Crews is live in the loop with more.
9.1	Children/Youth	6:30 AM	11/11	496	People to People	Author and advocate Deborah Olivia Farmer and Ronald Smith preview "Empowering the Village: A Discussion on Adoption and Child Advocacy,"
9.1	Cultural	6:40 AM	11/11	404	People to People	Celebrity Event Planner Akeshi Akinseye, CEO and founder of Kesh Events, says getting a head start on the holidays will help make the season bright for your guests.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Cultural	6:50 AM	11/11	178	People to People	Screenwriter Matthew Cherry tells us about his new series, "Young Love," now streaming on MAX.
9.1	Religion	8:42 AM	11/11	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	Deepavali, also known as Diwali, is the Indian festival of lights celebrating the victory of light over darkness. Joining us today to talk about it are Mridu and Harini from the Kalapriya Center for Indian performing arts.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:22 AM	11/11	270	WGN Weekend Morning News	At the eleventh hour on November 11th, 1918, world war one came to an end. Some veterans in Chicago are still fighting to make sure the contributions of a ground-breaking black unit are never forgotten.
9.1	Cultural	5:22 PM	11/11	150	WGN Weekend Evening News	The national museum of Puerto Rican arts and culture is transforming into a magical holiday pop-up this weekend. Local artists are putting their work on display and the community is invited to check it out for free.
9.1	Community	5:29 PM	11/11	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Hundreds of holiday wreaths are transformed with love. The workshop is part of the luv institute's annual wreath-making project - an outlet for the city's young people.
9.1	Women's Issues	8:11 AM	11/12	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	A new book is highlighting the groundbreaking roles women played in developing the American space program. Eric Henrikson, from our sister station in Austin, has more on NASA's first female astronauts.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:37 AM	11/12	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	One organization is working to give back to our veterans and others who suffer from PTSD by changing the name and ultimately, the stigma that comes with it. Joining us today is the chief medical officer of stella and founder of "Erase PTSD Now" Doctor Eugene Lipov.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Minority Issues	9:15 PM	11/12	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	A new bill in congress would end the practice of college legacy admissions by changing requirements for school accreditation. Legacy admissions have come under fire after the supreme court struck down affirmative action in the admissions process.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:30 PM	11/13	120	WGN Morning News	A Chicago police officer and former educator is using his love for literacy to help children who are among those migrants. WGN's Sean Lewis has more on his efforts from CPD's 25th district.
9.1	Employment	5:46 PM	11/13	240	WGN Evening News	Veterans day this past Saturday, with everyone celebrating and thanking those who served our country. But hiring veterans can be a way to thank them all year long. Lasalle network founder and CEO Tom Gimbel joins us now to talk about the benefits of hiring veterans.
9.1	Elderly	8:12 AM	11/15	180	WGN Morning News	The online platform "Eldera" is helping different generations connect with one another. It's all part of an effort to dismiss generational stereotypes and combat loneliness which spiked during the covid-19 pandemic.
9.1	Legal Matters	11:00 AM	11/15	120	WGN Midday News	A suburban woman is taking legal action against a major airline over a damaged wheelchair. Andrea medina is live in the newsroom with the latest.
9.1	Technology	11:16 AM	11/15	150	WGN Midday News	It's the one-year anniversary of apple's emergency SOS via satellite, which allows iPhone 14 and 15 models to call for help even if there's no cellular connection. Rich talks to a hiker who was rescued because of it.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:31 AM	11/18	390	Adelante Chicago	New cancer screening recommendations. Why the American Cancer Society says more Americans should get screened every year specially Latinos.
9.1	Immigration	6:41 AM	11/18	370	Adelante Chicago	Cook County is spending millions providing vital healthcare for asylum-seekers. Medical reporter Dina Bair speaks with some of the migrants receiving that care and the people providing it.
9.1	Business & Industry	6:48 AM	11/18	430	Adelante Chicago	For more than four decades the Hispanic Alliance for Career Enhancement has been a resource for Latinos in the workplace. Helping them to succeed in every phase of their career.
9.1	Community	6:55 AM	11/18	180	Adelante Chicago	WGN News hosted its 10 th Food Drive. With all donated food going to the Greater Chicago Food Depository. Which offers food and resources to many of the food pantries across Chicago and Cook County. One of those food pantries has been feeding people in the Rogers Park-Evaston area for more than 50 years.
9.1	Community	9:12 AM	11/18	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	The "hope's in" young adult interns program aims to empower adults with disabilities. And now, they have created meaningful art just in time for the holidays. Joining us today to talk about it is Ashley Quigley, Lindsay

Quarterly Issues and Program List

						Huegelmann, and Beka Hoffman from "hopes in".
9.1	Housing	9:35 AM	11/18	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	With the city struggling to find adequate shelter for the unhoused and newly arrived asylum seekers, the founder of a Chicago company says temporary microhomes could be part of the solution.
9.1	Technology	9:41 AM	11/18	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	The Angaza Center is a nonprofit on a mission to close the digital divide globally. Joining us today to talk about it is the co-founder, Michael Odongo and Nikhil Uchil who is a student at Stevenson High School.
9.1	Transportation	8:03 AM	11/19	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	The yellow line is still not running today as we learn more details about what may have caused the crash that injured more than three dozen people.
9.1	Transportation	5:07 PM	11/19	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Get ready for the crowds if you're not hosting thanksgiving at home. Experts say this could be a record year for flying and driving. WGN's Judy Wang talked to some holiday travelers as they head out of town.
9.1	Children/Youth	5:22 PM	11/19	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Whether it's cutting, blending or cooking kids between the ages of 2 and 18 are tying up their aprons and getting hands on experience through junior chefs' kitchen.
9.1	Technology	9:45 AM	11/20	360	WGN Morning News	A new book goes behind the scenes of facebook.to look at the tactics Facebook used to grow its business, how it manipulated the way we connect online, and the insiders who chose to speak out and expose the company's secrets.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Consumer Issues	4:39 PM	11/20	180	WGN Early Evening News	Newly released numbers show credit card debt has hit a record high of more than one trillion dollars. And for the first time, more people are rolling their debt from month to month instead of paying in full. Financial advisor and president of SGL Financial, Steve Lewit, is joining us to talk about tackling credit card debt.
9.1	Employment	5:44 PM	11/20	240	WGN Evening News	Not all workers like to get feedback from their bosses but according to a new survey, gen z workers will quit their jobs if they aren't getting it. Lasalle network founder and CEO Tom Gimbel joins us with ways to ask for feedback.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:46 PM	11/20	300	WGN News at Nine	In tonight's cover story -- understanding the struggles, felt by those on the autism spectrum. Many are dealing with mental health challenges. Medical reporter Dina Bair has the surprising statistics, on the increased risks of self-harm.
9.1	Transportation	11:15 AM	11/21	120	WGN Midday News	As Americans take to the road and the air in record numbers, the department of transportation provided an update on what it's done to ensure smooth traveling this holiday season.
9.1	Government (National)	12:17 PM	11/21	240	WGN Midday News	A new book looks at how America became the world leader in covid deaths, the government's missteps, and what the pandemic did to the world's biggest economy. It's called "the big fail: what the pandemic revealed about who America saves and who it leaves behind".

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Technology	9:10 PM	11/21	600	WGN News at Nine	In tonight's cover story, WGN's Jewell Hillery explores the ups and downs of ai, shedding light on a law to safeguard Illinois residents' personal biometric info, including face prints.
9.1	Elderly	12:20 PM	11/22	300	WGN Midday News	You don't live to be 102 without gaining wisdom, but our next guest can also credit her career in medicine for her sagacity regarding health and longevity. Dr. Gladys McGarey is the author of the new memoir, the well-lived life.
9.1	Government (Local)	6:35 PM	11/22	150	WGN Evening News	A once powerful Illinois republican who served as president of the state senate, has died. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley has more on the life and legacy of Pate Philip.
9.1	Economy	6:11 PM	11/23	120	WGN Evening News	As retailers are gearing up for black Friday and small business Saturday, they're keeping a close eye on inflation. Experts say shoppers are expected to return to their pre-pandemic habits this holiday season.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:30 AM	11/25	397	People to People	Dr. Ngozi Ezike, CEO of the Sinai Chicago Hospital System joins us to talk about vaccines for the flu, covid and RSV.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:40 AM	11/25	510	People to People	Bayard Rustin biographer Michael Long shares insight into the civil rights legend's life and legacy.
9.1	Politics	6:50 AM	11/25	465	People to People	Richard Wallace's attention-grabbing editorial for The Tribe is bringing new context to the conversation about Chicago's migrant crisis. Chicagoans.
9.1	Legal Matters	5:29 PM	11/25	280	WGN Weekend Evening News	In tonight's "WGN Investigates" the road ahead for the more than 22,000

Quarterly Issues and Program List

						newly arrived migrants in Chicago. They're facing both a humanitarian crisis and a backlog in the immigration courts. Investigative reporter Lourdes Duarte has numbers that detail what could be long battles in court.
9.1	Business & Industry	9:23 PM	11/25	150	WGN Weekend News at Nine	The kick-off to the holiday shopping season is well underway with an extra emphasis on supporting local businesses. Across the country, small business Saturday is being promoted including here in the Chicago area.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:28 PM	11/27	120	WGN Evening News	It's the official start of the 2024 election season in Illinois. Today many political hopefuls turned in nominating petitions needed to get on the march 19th primary ballot. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is here with more on the biggest races already taking shape.
9.1	Technology	11:17 AM	11/29	150	WGN Midday News	Law enforcement around the country is posting privacy warnings about a new iPhone feature called namedrop. In today's tech smart, rich explains what it is, how it works and talks to a security expert about whether you should turn it off.
9.1	Government (National)	12:15 PM	11/29	120	WGN Midday News	Congress prepares to take a vote to expel republican member George Santos. He survived two previous attempts to oust him. The latest comes after a bombshell ethics report.
9.1	Education	4:33 PM	11/29	270	WGN Early Evening News	Half-way through the school year and there is no sign Chicago public schools is anywhere close to fixing it's bus driver shortage. Chalkbeat, a non-profit news group that covers education, wrote this week the district only has 55-percent of the drivers it needs. That's despite increasing pay and recruitment efforts.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Housing	6:31 PM	11/29	180	WGN Evening News	The federal government says Chicago council members are limiting the way affordable housing is created in the city. WGN's Tahman Bradley tells us about the consequences - and the changes that may be coming.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:42 PM	11/29	410	WGN Early Evening News	As we wrap up native American heritage month -- we have a touching story with connections right here in the Chicago area. Erin McElroy is here with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	7:30 AM	11/30	150	WGN Morning News	The Chicago police department is hosting another gun turn-in event this weekend. Glen Brooks, CPD's director of community policing, joins us now to tell us more.
9.1	Transportation	9:01 PM	11/30	120	WGN News at Nine	Chicago's winter parking ban takes effect in a matter of hours. Any cars parked where the signs are posted, will be towed.
9.1	Environment	9:11 PM	11/30	120	WGN News at Nine	There are new recommendations for people who lived near the former Sterigenics facility in Willowbrook. Scientists explained the health risks for residents following an air quality study.
9.1	Immigration	6:31 AM	12/2	380	Adelante Chicago	Immigration court is facing a massive back log, so what's ahead for the thousands of newly arrived migrants as they wait for their immigration case to be heard?

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Immigration	6:39 AM	12/2	455	Adelante Chicago	A renewed focus on undocumented immigrants who have been in the who have been in the U-S for years. We'll tell you why thousands marched to the White House asking for President Biden's help.
9.1	Community	6:50 AM	12/2	435	Adelante Chicago	It started in the 70's as a Latino focused substance abuse center. Five decades later this organization has expanded its services to a much bigger community.
9.1	Children/Youth	5:22 PM	12/2	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A lake forest nonprofit needs help making the holiday season brighter, for some of the north suburbs' most vulnerable children. WGN's Christine Flores reports on the mission behind "fill a heart for kids."
9.1	Government (National)	5:41 PM	12/3	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	On Wednesday, the republican presidential candidates will face off in their fourth debate. Former president trump has skipped the debates, so far. But he's still leading the pack. WGN's Gaynor Hall looks at the state of the race.
9.1	Children/Youth	5:48 PM	12/3	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	We're talking about a training program which prepares children on how to protect themselves for what could happen. Sean Lewis takes us inside.
9.1	Business & Industry	9:33 PM	12/3	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	According to industry experts, there's an enormous demand for welders nationwide. In some cases, experienced union welders can earn 80 thousand dollars or more a year. All of this caught the attention of cook county sheriff tom dart.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Environment	4:38 PM	12/4	240	WGN Early Evening News	A new program will make switching to sunlight to power your home more affordable. Sarah Moskowitz is the executive director of the citizens utility board and joins us live now
9.1	Legal Matters	9:22 PM	12/4	120	WGN News at Nine	Dramatic arguments before the supreme court today over the bankruptcy deal for Purdue pharma, that shields the Sackler Family from future lawsuits. WGN's Shannon Halligan is here with a look at the arguments.
9.1	Elderly	8:15 AM	12/5	180	WGN Morning News	84-year-old identical twin sisters Anne McQueen and Susan Briggs are known as "the grandmas" on TikTok. The sisters, who are from Salt Lake City, have been dressing up in matching outfits since they were kids.
9.1	Cultural	11:47 AM	12/5	330	WGN Midday News	In today's midday fix, a preview of "'Twas the Night Before by Cirque Du Soleil." it opens at the Chicago theatre on Thursday.
9.1	Elderly	12:03 PM	12/5	120	WGN Midday News	Some senior citizens learned several tips today on how to avoid being the victims of cyber-crimes this holiday shopping season. WGN's Angelica Sanchez is live on the far southwest side with more on the prevention tips.
9.1	Religion	6:06 PM	12/5	120	WGN Evening News	The crisis in the middle east is likely to affect how some are celebrating the Jewish holiday of Hannukah this year. WGN's Jenna Barnes has been talking to people who are preparing differently.
9.1	Environment	11:27 AM	12/6	120	WGN Midday News	Children are taking the future into their own hands, making sure their voices are heard when it comes to taking climate action. A group of kids attending the cop28 summit in Dubai spoke up, demanding a seat at the table.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Government (Local)	4:01 PM	12/6	120	WGN Early Evening News	A group of Mayor Brandon Johnson's loudest critics on city council are calling for seven members of his team to resign, after the state shut down the city's planned migrant camp in Brighton Park.
9.1	Consumer Issues	4:32 PM	12/6	240	WGN Early Evening News	Online pharmacies blew up during the pandemic with many Americans left with few choices to get their medications. But there are risks with buying medicine online. Libby Baney is a senior advisor to the alliance of safe online pharmacies and joins me now live.
9.1	National Security	8:31 AM	12/7	180	WGN Morning News	New reports this morning say the man who went on a deadly shooting spree at the University of Nevada Las Vegas, was a professor who applied for a job at the school and did not get it. Joining us now is terrorism analyst Tom Mockaitis.
9.1	Education	11:47 AM	12/7	330	WGN Midday News	The Chicago high school for the arts music department has some winter showcases coming up this month. Joining us with more on the concerts ahead and the school is chi-arts music department head, Anthony Bruno.
9.1	Women's Issues	12:23 PM	12/8	180	WGN Midday News	It's news that brings shock and profound sadness. A stillbirth happens in one out of every 175 pregnancies. For one local family, sharing their son's story is a way to heal as they take steps to educate others and make sure no one suffers in silence.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Technology	6:30 AM	12/9	348	People to People	Nina Idemudia, CEO of Center for Neighborhood Technology stops by to share the innovative work being done by the national organization, benefitting Chicagoans.
9.1	Business & Industry	6:40 AM	12/9	447	People to People	Some unique gift ideas from local business owners, just in time for the holidays.
9.1	Cultural	9:12 AM	12/9	180	WGN Weekend Morning News	A one-of-kind marketplace is coming to Aurora next weekend with the Latin American marketplace. Shaiska and Bill from the DuPage Hispanic Alliance are here to tell us more.
9.1	Business & Industry	9:52 AM	12/9	180	WGN Weekend Morning News	A local coffee shop moved into a new location this year against all odds. Lourdes Duarte shows us why customers decided to step up.
9.1	Elderly	5:34 PM	12/9	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A new coalition pushing for more resources to help elderly homeowners held a town hall meeting, this morning. WGN's Gaynor Hall has the story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:37 PM	12/9	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Members of the aurora police department got to play Santa today. They took part in an event called "shop with a cop."
9.1	Religion	8:39 AM	12/10	180	WGN Weekend Morning News	JCC Chicago is back with the eight nights of Hanukkah. From menorah lighting to movie screenings, the event has something for the entire family. Joining us this morning is the manager
9.1	Transportation	9:00 PM	12/10	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Thousands of vehicles pass through the Kennedy Expressway. And with construction gone for the next few months, drivers hope their commute will improve and be less stressful.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Government (National)	9:10 PM	12/10	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	The white house is looking to cut the cost of prescription drugs. But already, there is pushback. Raquel Martin has more from Washington.
9.1	Employment	8:13 AM	12/11	180	WGN Morning News	Teens and young adults are apparently losing the ability to make small talk. An English professor at a college in Florida teaches a 'job market boot camp' to show students how to network, and pitch themselves. Professor Jana Mathews, joins us now
9.1	Consumer Issues	6:38 PM	12/12	150	WGN Evening News	A man from saint louis files suit against Ashley Furniture after his recliner chair caught fire, injuring him earlier this year. That same chair is also suspected of causing a house fire in north suburban round lake beach.
9.1	Transportation	9:10 PM	12/12	120	WGN News at Nine	A preliminary report by the national transportation safety board finds no fault with the train operator but plenty of questions about CTA procedures following a yellow line crash last month.
9.1	Economy	9:17 AM	12/13	300	WGN Morning News	The federal reserve board is expected to announce today, it's holding interest rates steady. The fed funds rate currently sits at its highest point in 22 years. Some economists are predicting the fed could start cutting rates next year -- perhaps as early as march.
9.1	Environment	6:31 AM	12/16	420	Adelante Chicago	A yearlong study reveals that Cicero's air quality is the worse in Cook County. What's being done about it? We'll have some answers for you.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Environment	8:21 AM	12/16	210	WGN Weekend Morning News	In today's digital world, one Chicago teen is encouraging his classmates to try trees over tablets. WGN's Erin McElroy Shares how the "outdoor adventure club" is getting kids to experience the fresh air.
9.1	Cultural		12/16	300	Adelante Chicago	A Chicagoan is the recipient of one of the highest honors given by the Mexican Government to citizens living outside of Mexico.
9.1	National Security	11:34 AM	12/18	120	WGN Midday News	The senate is hoping to reach a deal on funding for Ukraine, in exchange for tougher border policies. Washington correspondent Trevor Shirley joins us live from D.C., on the likelihood of a deal being reached by the end of the year.
9.1	Business & Industry	4:34 PM	12/18	240	WGN Early Evening News	The national average price per gallon of gasoline at pumps in the us is down almost 7 cents from last year at $3.03 a gallon. Patrick de Haan is the head of petroleum analysis at GasBuddy and he joins us now to talk about what's happening with prices at the pump.
9.1	Economy	4:38 PM	12/19	240	WGN Early Evening News	As 2023 winds down, it's a good time to take a look at your finances and your goals for your future. Here with a checklist is Craig Bolanos, founder and CEO of wealth management group in inverness and downers grove.
9.1	Economy	5:46 PM	12/19	210	WGN Evening News	Sunshine enterprises helps entrepreneurs start businesses from the city's under-resourced neighborhoods through its micro equity fund. Noelle Curtis with sunshine joins us now to talk about how this helps the city's economy as a whole.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	National Security	12:36 PM	12/20	120	WGN Midday News	The United States may have conducted another prisoner swap in order to free imprisoned Americans. The associated press reports the us is releasing Alex Saab. In exchange for his release, Venezuela is freeing some, if not all, of the ten American citizens held as prisoners there.
9.1	Consumer Issues	6:38 PM	12/20	120	WGN Evening News	The justice department announces its first predatory mortgage lending case today. Officials are suing a Texas-based housing developer for targeting thousands of Hispanic borrowers with false statements and unaffordable loans.
9.1	Economy	5:31 PM	12/21	240	WGN Evening News	The Biden administration has extended the one time 'income driven repayment' or IDR account adjustment until April 2024. To explain how this will work, we're joined by Rae Kaplan, with the Kaplan law firm.
9.1	Cultural	5:18 PM	12/22	300	WGN Evening News	Chicago is one of the country's premiere pizza cities. But it's not all deep dish and tavern- style. WGN's Mike Lowe talks to some of the city's best pizza makers, who have made 'hand tossed pizza' an art.
9.1	Cultural	6:30 AM	12/23	294	People to People	Author Derrick Barnes has dozens of titles to his credit, but his holiday hit, "Santa's Gotta Go!" is catching the eyes and hearts of America, after being selected by former President Barack Obama.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

9.1	Cultural	6:36 AM	12/23	295	People to People	Nadine McKinnon's name isn't known by many, but her work is one of the most famous modern holiday songs to be recorded. Now, the writer of the beloved, "This Christmas" is in need, after surviving a stroke that's left her with a significant financial burden. We talk to R & B music historian Al Greer, host of WVON's "B-Sides" radio show, who tells us the story behind the song and how fans and the music community can help.
9.1	Cultural	6:45 AM	12/23	605	People to People	Dean Richards talks to the cast of "The Color Purple"
9.1	Cultural	6:56 AM	12/23	197	People to People	Live holiday music from Chicago musicians, Ryan Alexander, and band.
9.1	Cultural	9:11 AM	12/23	300	WGN Weekend Morning News	The Chinese celebration of winter solstice is called "Dongzhi Festival." here to tell us more about the festival and make some traditional dishes is chef tony hu, founder of Lao Sze Chuan.
9.1	Cultural	8:10 AM	12/24	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	After Christmas, Kwanzaa begins, which is a seven-day holiday celebrating African American heritage. Here to explain more is Roy Walker, senior vice president of Malcolm X College.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

The station aired the following Community Calendars during the instant quarter:

Type of Issue	Duration (Seconds)	Title or Narrative
Business & Industry	:15	Lincoln Park Wine Fest
Community	:15	Long Grove October Days
Cultural	:15	The Dance of Psyche
Health/Healthcare	:15	Crypt 5K Run
Business & Industry	:15	Lincoln Square Farmer's Market
Environment	:15	Fall Color Walk
Education	:15	Walking Book Club
Health/Healthcare	:15	Blood Drive
Education	:15	Storywalk
Minority Issues	:15	The Jewish Deli
Community	:15	Haunted History Tour
Business & Industry	:15	Beans & Brews
Cultural	:15	Not Your Mother's Quilt
Health/Healthcare	:15	Blood Shortage
Children/Youth	:15	Chicago International Children's Film Festival
Health/Healthcare	:15	Get Fit Park Ridge!
Cultural	:15	Art Exhibit
Community	:15	Coffee Monday
Children/Youth	:15	Music Explorers
Health/Healthcare	:15	Hands Only CPR
Employment	:15	Mobile Workforce
Women's Issues	:15	Sapphire & Crystals: Freedom's Muse
Children/Youth	:15	Wee Ones Wednesday
Children/Youth	:15	Pinocchio
Cultural	:15	Marked By the Sea: Tattoos in the U.S. Navy
Children/Youth	:15	Toy Drive

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Type of Issue	Duration (Seconds)	Title or Narrative
Cultural	:15	A Very Rialto Christmas: Merry & Bright
Cultural	:15	Disney 100: The Exhibition
Cultural	:15	Lightscape
Health/Healthcare	:15	Flying Turkey 5K
Business & Industry	:15	Winter Arts & Crafts Expo
Elderly	:15	Adopt a Grandparent
Cultural	:15	Concert
Children/Youth	:15	Museum Munchkin
Children/Youth	:15	Mrs. Claus! A Holiday Musical
Children/Youth	:15	Santa's Cottage
Children/Youth	:15	Winter Concert
Children/Youth	:15	Storytime
Environment	:15	Zoo Lights
Children/Youth	:15	Young Choreographers Project
Cultural	:15	A History of Christmas Carols & Songs
Cultural	:15	1973 Film Series
Health/Healthcare	:15	Holiday Candlelight Yoga
Community	:15	Lightscape
Community	:15	Holiday Movie

Quarterly Issues and Program List

The station also aired the following public service announcements during the instant quarter:

Type of Issue	Duration (Seconds)	Title Or Narrative
Health/Healthcare	:15	US Dept Of HH
Children/Youth	:15	Protecting Kids Online
Health/Healthcare	:15	We Are One
Health/Healthcare	:15	This Life for Us
Economy	:30	Basic Needs
Health/Healthcare	:30	Crank It
Children/Youth	:30	The More You/Julia
Children/Youth	:15	Happy Kids Heal Faster
Children/Youth	:30	Big Day
Elderly	:15	Thread
Transportation	:15	Waterboy
Health/Healthcare	:15	TTHY Mobile App
Health/Healthcare	:15	Matches
Community	:15	Earthquake PSA
Crime/Law Enforcement	:15	Service Never Stops- Teresa
Community	:15	Honor And Help Your Parents
Health/Healthcare	:15	No Weird Stuff
Transportation	:15	Bathroom Boy
Cultural	:30	It's Possible
Health/Healthcare	:15	Crank It
Children/Youth	:10	Happy Kids Heal Faster
Education	:15	Play
Immigration	:15	Belonging
Transportation	:30	For The Stans
Children/Youth	:15	Make It Happen
Cultural	:30	Say Yes

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Type of Issue	Duration (Seconds)	Title Or Narrative
Education	:30	Play
Health/Healthcare	:15	Happier Warehouse
Health/Healthcare	:30	Matches
Children/Youth	:30	Make It Happen
Children/Youth	:15	Big Day
Health/Healthcare	:15	Puts Patients First
Crime/Law Enforcement	:30	Service Never Stops- Chris
Health/Healthcare	:30	We Are One
Cultural	:30	We Need Each Other
Health/Healthcare	:15	Nation Of Lifesavers
Health/Healthcare	:15	Road To Recovery
Elderly	:15	Snap
Health/Healthcare	:15	Vaccines For Life
Children/Youth	:15	Me And My Grown Up
Elderly	:15	Fashion
Government (National)	:15	Smokey Is Within - Friends
Health/Healthcare	:15	No Time for Flu
Health/Healthcare	:15	Upside Of ADHD - Doctor Open
Elderly	:10	Benefits Checkup
Children/Youth	:30	Vaccines For Children
Children/Youth	:30	First Tee
Cultural	:30	Say Hi
Legal Matters	:15	If The Wall - Brianna
Health/Healthcare	:60	Upside Of ADHD
Transportation	:30	Trying To Sober Up
Children/Youth	:15	The More You/Julia
Health/Healthcare	:15	But, Stuff... Mom
Health/Healthcare	:30	Nation Of Lifesavers

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Type of Issue	Duration (Seconds)	Title Or Narrative
Health/Healthcare	:15	But, Stuff... Dad
Education	:60	Play
Community	:30	Parental Accountability
Crime/Law Enforcement	:60	Service Never Stops- Gary
Children/Youth	:15	Health Coverage for Kids
Children/Youth	:30	Gro Community
Health/Healthcare	:30	Happier Warehouse
Children/Youth	:30	Protecting Kids Online
Health/Healthcare	:30	TTHY Mobile App
Government (National)	:30	Get Treatment
Legal Matters	:30	Before I Was Adopted
Health/Healthcare	:30	Keep Love Alive
Health/Healthcare	:15	Upside Of ADHD - News Open
Employment	:30	Heart Of a Volunteer
Employment	:30	Find Your Fire Family
Health/Healthcare	:30	But, Stuff...
Health/Healthcare	:30	No Weird Stuff
Government (National)	:15	Smokey Is Within - Granny
Community	:30	The New Kid
Education	:30	Teachers Can
Health/Healthcare	:30	Bone Health & Osteoporosis
Health/Healthcare	:30	Peyton Manning
Community	:30	Be A Puppy Raiser
Legal Matters	:30	If The Wall - Brianna
Health/Healthcare	:30	Puts Patients First