

Quarterly Issues and Program List

WGN-TV

2Q 2020

Pursuant to the disclosure requirements in 47 C.F. R. 73.3526(11)(i), and during the quarter referenced above, this station provided information to its viewers regarding the following significant issues, including:

Business & Industry	Economy	Government (National)	National Security
Children/Youth	Education	Health/Healthcare	Politics
Community	Elderly	Housing	Religion
Consumer Issues	Employment	Immigration	Technology
Crime/Law Enforcement	Environment	Legal Matters (e.g. court decisions)	Transportation
Cultural	Government (Local)	Minority Issues	Women's Issues

Programs

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	5:00 AM	4/1	120	WGN Early Morning News	The number of cases in Illinois is up to nearly six thousand. And now, the state is extending its stay-at-home order.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:10 AM	4/1	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:06 AM	4/1	180	WGN Morning News	As our stay at home order is extended another month one know man knows all about self-isolation. Scott Kelly spent nearly a year on the International Space Station setting the record for single longest mission in space. It was part of a mission to study the long-term effects of space on the body. But he also learned about being isolated from friends and family. Scott Kelly is with us this morning with some advice for others.
9.1	Cultural	8:15 AM	4/1	240	WGN Morning News	Happening tonight, a short film written and produced by DB Sweeney debuts tonight on Facebook. It's called "Two Dum Micks". And to tell us more about it we welcome actor DB Sweeney.
9.1	Housing	8:30 AM	4/1	120	WGN Morning News	Rent is due today for many residents, leaving tenants and landlords alike stressed from the financial fallout of the COVID-19 pandemic. Nancy is live in Hyde Park where tenants are organizing a rent strike.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:20 AM	4/1	120	WGN Morning News	That is California cardiologist Dr. Sam and he is using social media to spread heart healthy medical advice during the coronavirus pandemic but also heart -warming encouragement. Dr. Sam is also a medical missionary, caring for the indigent around the world.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:34 AM	4/1	150	WGN Midday News	Knowing not just who gets sick, but where infections are greatest can help target the healthcare response. But seeing growing infection in real time is not always easy. Now local researchers are mapping hidden clusters of COVID-19 hoping to provide smaller areas, disproportionately hit with infection a fighting chance at survival.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:44 AM	4/1	150	WGN Midday News	Gyms and personal trainers are turning to streaming video to keep you fit at home. Rich Demuro takes a look at some options to get you moving.
9.1	Government (National)	12:15 PM	4/1	120	WGN Midday News	Despite the limitations posed by the outbreak, the push to get people in the Chicago area counted is not letting up. WGN's Julian Crews is live at the Cook County building with details.
9.1	Consumer Issues	12:20 PM	4/1	180	WGN Midday News	A local woman planned a trip to California's Napa Valley to surprise her husband on his birthday. WGN Investigates' Ben Bradley has the story of what happened when the COVID-19 virus outbreak changed her plans.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:27 PM	4/1	120	WGN Midday News	People with asthma are at greater risk for complications from COVID-19. And it may be the medications they take will make it worse.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:38 PM	4/1	120	WGN Midday News	COVID-19 took a terrible toll on a man from the south suburbs. At his worst, he was certain he wouldn't make it. With time, the right medication, and intervention from others, he was found, saved, and is home recovering. WGN's Julie Unruh has his story.
9.1	Business & Industry	12:47 PM	4/1	120	WGN Midday News	Small businesses are taking a big hit with the 'stay at home' order. There's a new effort to connect Chicago's neighborhood businesses with those who want to buy local and support them. Joining us now Beth Kregor - director of the IJ clinic on entrepreneurship at the University of Chicago.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:03 PM	4/1	120	WGN Early Evening News	A Chicago woman recovering from COVID-19 is not the typical patient we've been hearing about. She's just 31 years old, very healthy, but still experiencing symptoms three weeks later.
9.1	Transportation	4:15 PM	4/1	120	WGN Early Evening News	WGN Investigates has new information on the impact COVID-19 has had on air travel at O'Hare. Flights have been reduced so significantly, the FAA has closed two of the airport's runways.
9.1	Minority Issues	4:30 PM	4/1	180	WGN Early Evening News	And with cases of COVID-19 threatening to overwhelm hospitals, it's even tougher for underserved communities to get the care they need.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	4:50 PM	4/1	180	WGN Early Evening News	An Elmhurst man is getting a lot of attention for his nightly backyard ritual. WGN's Erin Ivory joins us live with the story.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:01 PM	4/1	120	WGN Evening News	A city worker is among the latest victims of the new coronavirus here in Chicago. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is live at City Hall with more on what the mayor calls - a "sobering moment" for the city.
9.1	Education	5:05 PM	4/1	120	WGN Evening News	One of the many challenges with this pandemic, has been the shortage of personal protection equipment. And now, four high schools, in District-228 in the southwest suburbs are collecting that equipment. The volunteers are also helping make masks for first responders with 3D printers.
9.1	Consumer Issues	5:45 PM	4/1	120	WGN Evening News	Many people are worried about how this crisis will affect their credit score. Several lawmakers say they tried but failed to get credit rating protections added to the stimulus plan. But as Washington, D.C. Correspondent Trevor Shirley reports experts say there are still things you can do on your own.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	6:06 PM	4/1	120	WGN Evening News	Among the 141 COVID-19 deaths in Illinois so far, is a man who touched the lives of thousands of people and animals in the Chicago area. He had a remarkable four decade career as a veterinarian. WGN's Mike Lowe remembers the life of Doctor Peter Sakas.
9.1	Consumer Issues	10:03 PM	4/1	120	WGN News at Ten	Locked out and forced to turn elsewhere. A nurse at Rush University Medical Center claims Triple-A denied helping her when she locked herself out of her car. She says the denial came after she was up-front about possible exposure to COVID-19.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	10:10 PM	4/1	120	WGN News at Ten	The city of Chicago is one step closer to naming a new superintendent of police. Today, the police board unveiled the three candidates still in the running.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	10:15 PM	4/1	180	WGN News at Ten	Illinois first field hospital is prepping medical staff for what Illinois is about to undertake at McCormick place. Beds and equipment are just one concern in recent days. Staffing, now another. WGN has learned nurses recruited to work the facility may be in for the greatest challenge of their careers. Julie Unruh has the story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:02 AM	4/2	120	WGN Early Morning News	For many Illinoisans, COVID-19 has brought family tragedy. For others, a struggle to recover. Courtney Gousman is live at the Thompson Center

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:03 AM	4/2	270	WGN Morning News	To help answer viewers' questions about COVID-19 Doctor Lauren Streicher is back with us.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:30 AM	4/2	180	WGN Morning News	Adam Carter is an American living and working in Beijing. Back in January, he planned to take a week off from work and took a trip to Thailand. However, that's when the COVID-19 virus rapidly spread throughout China turning Carter's one week trip in Thailand to ten weeks. He joins us now, with more on what happening
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:35 AM	4/2	300	WGN Morning News	To say it's an anxious time in America is an understatement. But how can we reduce stress and anxiety during the COVID-19 pandemic in the young and the old when there's so much uncertainty? Dr. Michelle Epstine is a licensed clinical psychologist. She joins us now with some tools for coping.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:24 PM	4/2	210	WGN Midday News	Research is moving at a rapid pace - to test COVID-19 treatments, to find a vaccine, and to identify antibodies that would help people fend off this virus. But with the new focus, the immediate future of cancer research is blurred.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	12:35 PM	4/2	210	WGN Midday News	To understand how much some things have changed we thought we'd go back - just a month to look at what's happening on the south side in the Pullman neighborhood. The promise for this neighborhood was big money, big development and lots of jobs. Even as COVID19 hits hard, Pullman is planning for a big comeback.
9.1	Employment	12:42 PM	4/2	180	WGN Midday News	Illinois' first field hospital is prepping medical staff for what Illinois is about to undertake at McCormick place. Beds and equipment are just one concern in recent days. Staffing, now another. WGN has learned nurses recruited to work the facility may be in for the greatest challenge of their careers.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:01 PM	4/2	180	WGN Early Evening News	An emotional announcement for the Chicago Police department today. The mayor revealed that Chicago police officer Marco DiFranco passed away after contracting COVID-19.
9.1	Business & Industry	4:10 PM	4/2	180	WGN Early Evening News	A big company steps up to help first responders. The Ford motor company is donating 3-thousand face shields to the Chicago Fire Department.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Employment	6:05 PM	4/2	180	WGN Evening News	Nationally 6.6 million people filed for unemployment benefits last week and that is a new record---state wide that number was nearly 200 thousand. Both federal and state leaders say there is help available but people are finding it nearly impossible to access those benefits.
9.1	Technology	6:10 PM	4/2	180	WGN Evening News	One of the ways we've been connecting for school, community meetings, and work is through zoom video conferencing. But in recent days hackers have figured out how to disrupt meetings and the motives range from humor to hate.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:15 PM	4/2	120	WGN Evening News	Mayor Lori Lightfoot has announced her pick for the next Chicago police superintendent. Her pick is the former top cop for the Dallas, Texas police department, David Brown.
9.1	Business & Industry	6:25 PM	4/2	120	WGN Evening News	A company in the far Northwestern suburbs has stepped up to help make hand sanitizer during this crisis. But their good deed hit a roadblock at the Canadian border.
9.1	Business & Industry	6:30 PM	4/2	150	WGN Evening News	While some industries are struggling right now, a select few are booming. One of them is a Chicago area company using a chemical coating to keep surfaces clean.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	9:45 PM	4/2	120	WGN News at Nine	In tonight's cover story, the pandemic has damaged the economy but some entrepreneurs say that just means it's time to get down to business. And doing something to help.
9.1	Religion	10:03 PM	4/2	120	WGN News at Ten	A community mourns tonight following the death of beloved pastor, Archbishop Lucius Hall. Fellow clergy and friends fear COVID-19 played a role in his death.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:06 AM	4/3	180	WGN Morning News	To discuss more about how primary care doctors are dealing with the COVID-19 crisis. We welcome Doctor Gregory Wallman with Northshore University Health System.
9.1	Children/Youth	9:49 AM	4/3	180	WGN Morning News	That's Elena Marre at 'The Kids Table', a place that is usually bustling with kids and families, having fun and learning how to cook. She's now offering virtual classes for the kids.
9.1	Government (National)	11:35 AM	4/3	120	WGN Midday News	Has reported more than 245-thousand cases of COVID-19 with more than 6-thousand deaths. Now the nation's top infectious disease expert, Dr. Anthony Fauci says the entire country should be under stay-at-home orders. Some state leaders are also urging a stronger response as they face an impending shortage of critical supplies and equipment.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Consumer Issues	11:51 AM	4/3	120	WGN Midday News	As we continue to self-isolate, online shopping is dramatically increasing. Unfortunately that also means cyber criminals see this as an 'opportunity' to get your personal information. Joining us now with tips to stay safe online is Steve Ginty, Director of Threat Intelligence at "Risk I-Q".
9.1	Children/Youth	12:25 PM	4/3	210	WGN Midday News	Bringing new life into the world in the COVID-19 pandemic is prompting doctors to deliver some restrictions for expectant parents. Among them, no family and friends in the waiting room anticipating the little one's arrival and a limit of one partner or loved one in the delivery room for support.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:45 PM	4/3	180	WGN Midday News	Coast to coast athletic trainers are sidelined after the pandemic made its way to us. Now, more than 45,000 members of the national athletic trainers association are changing their game to adapt to our new normal
9.1	Business & Industry	4:15 PM	4/3	180	WGN Early Evening News	Hair salons are among the many small businesses struggling because of the COVID-19 pandemic. But unlike restaurants that can at least offer take-out. Services at beauty salons are all close contact, so they're completely shut down. WGN's Lourdes Duarte has more on what it means for their future.
9.1	Business & Industry	4:50 PM	4/3	180	WGN Early Evening News	One local photographer has found a way to salvage her business in the face of COVID-19. WGN's Erin Ivory joins us live from her home with the story

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	5:03 PM	4/3	180	WGN Evening News	A Chicago fashion designer is turning her efforts from high fashion to life saving materials for the city's first responders. WGN's Dana Rebik is live in the south loop with more on how they are making thousands of desperately needed masks.
9.1	Education	5:07 PM	4/3	120	WGN Evening News	Senior year is supposed to be a time to celebrate. This year, those celebrations have been put on hold. But there is a group of seniors in the suburbs that still want to mark the end of their high school career with a traditional ceremony.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:15 PM	4/3	120	WGN Evening News	A major controversy brewing between the Chicago fire department and its firefighters over personal protective equipment during COVID-19. The firefighters union - says the department confiscated some P.P.E. which had been donated to protect first responders.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:32 PM	4/3	120	WGN Evening News	A long line of cars went through the first hospital on the south side to have drive-thru testing for COVID-19. It's part of an effort to reach under-served communities. WGN's Julian Crews is live with the story in Humboldt Park this afternoon.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	5:40 PM	4/3	120	WGN Evening News	Help is on the way for small businesses in Chicago and statewide. This week, the city and the state started taking applications for low cost loans. And they have been inundated, with thousands of applications.
9.1	Community	9:10 PM	4/3	120	WGN News at Nine	Two employees at the Walmart in Evergreen Park have now died from COVID-19. Family and friends tonight mourning both victims, while the store says it's disinfecting. WGN's Meghan Dwyer is live with that story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:12 PM	4/3	180	WGN News at Nine	The lack of testing in our area, has left us without an exact picture of the number of cases we're really dealing with. But WGN Investigates has been going over data, county-by-county and Ben Bradley has a snapshot of how the virus is spreading.
9.1	Business & Industry	9:45 PM	4/3	180	WGN News at Nine	While many restaurants are facing financial hardship during the COVID 19 crisis, one Wrigleyville restaurant owner has found a way to stay open for business. Delivering pizza along with a show of support to those on the hospital front lines, Jaime Gamez is one of Chicago's Very Own.
9.1	Government (Local)	10:00 PM	4/3	120	WGN News at Ten	Illinois is preparing for those numbers to grow even larger in the next few weeks. The Army Corps of Engineers is busy turning McCormick place into an alternative health care site with three thousand beds.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Housing	7:25 AM	4/4	180	WGN Weekend Morning News	As people in quarantine search for guidance to fix up their homes, they get a bonus lesson in resilience. From the folks at the hardware store.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:11 AM	4/4	300	WGN Weekend Morning News	The CDC is advising Americans to wear non-surgical masks as an added layer of protection against COVID-19. Joining us on via facetime is Doctor Rahul Khare an emergency physician and the owner of Innovative Express care in Lincoln Park.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:43 AM	4/4	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	A local wellness center is now offering free support groups online for people who need help with the anxiety caused by the COVID-19 pandemic.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:04 PM	4/4	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	A COVID-19 testing site opened up for more people on the northwest side today. WGN's Marcella Raymond has the details.
9.1	Employment	9:08 PM	4/4	90	WGN Weekend News at Nine	A second day of protests by employees at an Amazon distribution facility in Chicago. This comes after a second worker there tested positive for COVID-19.
9.1	Economy	9:18 PM	4/4	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Some lawmakers and businesses are calling on the Trump administration to ease US tariffs on Chinese imports - to make it easier to produce items needed to fight the pandemic.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	9:40 PM	4/4	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	All over the country, businesses are pitching in to help in during the COVID-19 pandemic. WGN's Sean Lewis has the story of one company that is shifting from fitness gear to creating items for those on the front lines of the COVID-19 fight.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	10:25 PM	4/4	180	WGN Weekend News at Ten	As hospital beds fill up the need for doctors and staff continues to grow. Tonight Dina Bair brings us a follow-up on one retired ER doctor who answered the call, joining the fight against COVID-19.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:20 AM	4/5	210	WGN Weekend Morning News	The stay at home order can be very difficult when you live alone. The edict for social isolation takes on a whole new meaning. Here's a glimpse into life, alone but not lonely.
9.1	Children/Youth	5:00 PM	4/5	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	The state of Illinois is offering additional support for essential workers and healthcare professionals, in the form of childcare.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:05 PM	4/5	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	We were able to take a closer look today at a shuttered suburban hospital that will become a treatment center for COVID-19 patients. WGN's Marcella Raymond reports on the plans for Westlake Hospital in Melrose Park.
9.1	Politics	5:20 PM	4/5	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	The Democratic National Convention has already been delayed due to COVID-19. Now there's suggestions it should be virtual.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Politics	5:30 PM	4/5	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Mayor Lori Lightfoot and Governor JB Pritzker have not shied away from criticizing the White House, blasting the response to the pandemic, calling it inadequate. In Washington, President Trump continues to say his administration could not have known what was coming. Tonight, a closer look at the decisions that led us to this moment.
9.1	Housing	5:35 PM	4/5	180	WGN Weekend Evening News	The economic fallout of the COVID-19 pandemic is raising a dilemma for tenants and their landlords: what can be done about rent payments? Today, a group in Hyde Park is asking a large property owner to suspend rent or face a possible rent strike.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:15 PM	4/5	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	From the health care experts to the president. There are warnings the coming weeks will be the most difficult in dealing with this fast moving deadly virus.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	10:22 PM	4/5	120	WGN Weekend News at Ten	Members of congress are worried about the American population dealing with mental health issues during the coronavirus pandemic which makes it harder for some to seek help. Washington correspondent Basil John reports lawmakers and organizations are seeking out resources to help those affected.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:04 AM	4/6	120	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Education	11:45 AM	4/6	210	WGN Midday News	Elementary through high school students have now spent weeks trying to get into the swing of e-learning from home As we self-isolate due to the COVID-19 outbreak. It's a new world for students, parents and teachers. Joining us now to talk more about this new reality and how it has already evolved is Jennifer Pacheco. She is the principal at Melzer elementary school in Morton Grove
9.1	Transportation	12:20 PM	4/6	210	WGN Midday News	A lot less traffic on the roads because much of the workforce is staying at home. But for truckers the virus has caused a new set of challenges. Joining us now Executive Director of the Illinois Trucking Association, Matt Hart.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:08 PM	4/6	210	WGN Early Evening News	Medical researchers around the country are beginning trials using the blood from COVID-19 survivors. Antibodies in plasma can be infused into the sick and dying to help them fight the disease.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	4:30 PM	4/6	120	WGN Early Evening News	Mayor Lori Lightfoot is teaming up with Chicago's major sports franchises to encourage people to stay inside even as the weather warms up. But a new photo of the mayor getting a haircut is threatening to undermine that message
9.1	Government (National)	4:35 PM	4/6	150	WGN Early Evening News	WGN Investigates has the results of a new federal inspector general's survey looking at the crisis in care now being experienced at some hospitals across the country. Investigative reporter Ben Bradley has the details.
9.1	Community	4:40 PM	4/6	150	WGN Early Evening News	For two weeks now Chicago's entire downtown is being lit up by residents - along with people singing from their balconies every night at 8. WGN's Erin Ivory joins us live from her house with the story.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:00 PM	4/6	120	WGN Evening News	New data shows African Americans make up more than half of Chicago's COVID-19 deaths. Mayor Lightfoot is calling the sobering disparity a "public health red alarm."
9.1	Business & Industry	6:34 PM	4/6	120	WGN Evening News	Small businesses have been forced to adjust to stay in business during this time. WGN's Sean Lewis takes a look.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:40 PM	4/6	120	WGN Evening News	Joining us now to talk about COVID-19 concerns is Dr. Khalilah Gates - a pulmonary and critical care specialist at Northwestern memorial hospital.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Religion	10:01 PM	4/6	120	WGN News at Ten	A local pastor has lost his sister to COVID-19. And the congregation at New Mount Pilgrim Baptist Church is mourning this week. WGN's Meghan Dwyer is live with the story.
9.1	Government (Local)	10:06 PM	4/6	120	WGN News at Ten	The mayor of Aurora is recovering from a case of COVID-19. WGN's Sean Lewis talked with him tonight and has an update.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:02 AM	4/7	120	WGN Morning News	City officials warn of a potential COVID-19 setback, as warm weather returns to the Chicago area.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:30 AM	4/7	210	WGN Morning News	Joining us now on the phone to discuss and to answer viewer questions is Doctor Kevin Most, Chief Medical Officer of Northwestern Medicine at Central DuPage Hospital.
9.1	Consumer Issues	11:17 AM	4/7	330	WGN Midday News	Illinois Senator Dick Durbin and several other Senate democrats are urging private student loan companies to offer relief to students during the pandemic. Joining me now on the phone to sort it all out is Kaitlin Mulhere, editor at money.com.
9.1	Immigration	11:34 AM	4/7	120	WGN Midday News	Mayor Lightfoot wants Chicago's immigrants and refugees to know that they can get COVID-19 assistance from the city.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:04 AM	4/7	120	WGN Midday News	A detainee at the Cook County Jail who tested positive for COVID-19, has died. WGN's Nancy Loo is live at 27th and California with details.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (National)	12:15 AM	4/7	210	WGN Midday News	More can be done to research and come up with treatments for COVID-19. Congresswoman Jan Schakowksy is among a group of lawmakers urging the Department of Health and Human Services to waive restrictions on research to advance studies on COVID-19.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:26 PM	4/7	180	WGN Midday News	As more people recover from COVID-19, they have immunity. Considering there may have been cases here in the US since December or January, which means plenty of people now cannot get sick from the virus. The best expert estimate right now is that immunity could last up to three years. And it could possibly help others attack this virus.
9.1	Community	12:40 AM	4/7	210	WGN Midday News	Even in the midst of fear and death, life goes on. And for one mother, her delivery is bringing joy 11 times over to all who can see the little ones. Through the window of course. A delivery that's providing exactly what the neighborhood needed.
9.1	Housing	12:45 PM	4/7	225	WGN Midday News	A business that impacts many homeowners is forced to forego much of the face-to-face communication it's built on. But real estate moves on with a new approach in a time of crisis

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Housing	4:26 PM	4/7	120	WGN Early Evening News	It's estimated that more than 12-hundred homeless are still in the streets of Chicago. Shelters are packed as people turn to them for food and protective supplies. One ministry found a different approach to help the hundreds struggling during the COVID-19 pandemic.
9.1	National Security	4:36 PM	4/7	120	WGN Early Evening News	For thousands of troops deployed around the world, the U-S-O has always been a constant sign of support. But now the organization, like everyone else, has to adapt in order to deal with the pandemic. US-O leaders say supporting the troops is still their top priority, and you can help as well.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:01 PM	4/7	120	WGN Evening News	Among the lives lost a suburban man whose family says was denied potentially life-saving treatment. The grieving family is speaking out, saying they're stunned by the hospital's decision.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:09 PM	4/7	150	WGN Evening News	It's normally used to treat things like malaria and lupus. But there's now a shortage of the drug hydroxy chloroquin since the president touted it as a possible COVID-19 treatment. And that's making people who already take the drug worried.
9.1	Education	6:45 PM	4/7	150	WGN Evening News	The principal at Vernon Hills High School made this video to pay tribute to the class of 2020. Principal Jon Guillaume also painted the names of all the seniors on a wall.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:12 PM	4/7	210	WGN News at Nine	A drive-thru test site opened on the northwest side late last month -- to help first responders and frontline medical professionals get tested for the COVID-19 virus. The results are supposed to come within five days. But as WGN Investigates' Ben Bradley found - that's not always happening.
9.1	Community	10:10 PM	4/7	180	WGN News at Ten	A young couple in love we profiled last week, tied the knot today. They got hitched in Indiana, surrounded by family and friends with technology to the rescue. WGN's Julie Unruh brings you the virtual wedding of Jack and Jennifer Allendorf.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:01 AM	4/8	120	WGN Morning News	A Chicago firefighter has died of complications related to COVID-19. His death comes as Illinois health officials announced the biggest daily total number.
9.1	Politics	11:26 AM	4/8	120	WGN Midday News	Senator Bernie Sanders just dropped out of the race for president. Joining us new is WGN Political Analyst Paul Lisnek.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:32 AM	4/8	120	WGN Midday News	Here are the latest worldwide numbers on the COVID-19 pandemic. Our Washington correspondent Morgan Wright spoke with Dr. Anthony Fauci about the latest developments.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:24 PM	4/8	180	WGN Midday News	The demand for heart doctors taking a surprising dip in the COVID-19 crisis. A local cardiologist offers his concerns and his hope.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	12:42 PM	4/8	180	WGN Midday News	As we approach Easter, a rebirth in the way churches are preparing in COVID-19 times. No people in the pews, just a priest and a camera. But in these times of fear and loss of life, when family members cannot even go in to see loved ones in their final moments, pastoral care as we know it lives on.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:48 PM	4/8	210	WGN Midday News	Preparing an emergency plan for your pets amid the COVID-19 crisis. David Dinger, Vice President of Operations at the Anti-Cruelty Society joins us.
9.1	Housing	4:12 PM	4/8	120	WGN Early Evening News	Chicago is opening new shelters to help house the homeless during the COVID-19 outbreak. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us now with more on the city's plans to help those in need.
9.1	Government (Local)	4:32 PM	4/8	120	WGN Early Evening News	Mayor Lori Lightfoot announced new efforts today, aimed at stopping the spread of COVID-19 in Chicago. WGN's Marcella Raymond is live at City Hall with details on the latest crackdown.
9.1	Community	4:41 PM	4/8	180	WGN Early Evening News	An Aurora band teacher doesn't have her marching band any longer. However, that hasn't stopped her from making music. WGN's Erin Ivory joins us from her home with the story.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:02 PM	4/8	120	WGN Evening News	Three Aurora city leaders all recovering from COVID 19. The mayor, police chief and a police commander held a virtual news conference this afternoon. WGN's Erik Runge is live tonight with that story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:05 PM	4/8	120	WGN Evening News	A man was killed when he was pushed off a Loop red line subway platform and into the path of a train. Police say three people approached him and started an argument moments earlier. His family is speaking out today.
9.1	Employment	5:25 PM	4/8	120	WGN Evening News	A new survey from CNBC says one in four Americans has either lost their job from this shutdown or had a pay cut. Millions are filing for unemployment unable to pay their bills and state systems are overwhelmed. 'WGN Investigates' talked with an Indiana man who shared his experience with the long delays and frustration.
9.1	Business & Industry	6:41 PM	4/8	120	WGN Evening News	Small business owners nationwide have reported issues accessing emergency loans just to stay afloat. Now Congress is considering hundreds of billions more as the White House tries to improve delays.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:04 PM	4/8	120	WGN News at Nine	The Cook County medical examiner's office has rented out a refrigerated warehouse that can store more than a thousand bodies. The morgue added refrigerated trucks for COVID 19 deaths but that doesn't appear to be enough.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (National)	9:10 PM	4/8	240	WGN News at Nine	Democrats proposed adding another 250 billion dollars for small communities, more protective gear and food stamps. Congress is expected to vote on additional money tomorrow. Joining us now to talk about that and more is Illinois Congressman Raja Krishnamoorthi.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	10:13 PM	4/8	180	WGN News at Ten	Health care workers on the front lines are putting in long days. They have to make sure they're protected every second they're on the job. Then they go home and worry about exposing their loved ones to COVID-19. WGN's Julie Unruh has the story of what one social media group is doing to ease that burden.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:02 AM	4/9	120	WGN Early Morning News	With the number of deadly COVID-19 cases on the rise, preparations are underway in Cook County for a worst case scenario. Nancy Loo is live at the medical examiner's office with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:32 AM	4/9	120	WGN Morning News	The longer the COVID-19 pandemic continues, the more isolated people are beginning to feel. In some case, people are having a hard time coping and they're feeling anxiety and depression. Dr. Maggie Mulqueen is a psychologist from Brookline, Massachusetts. She's also an author and in recent months, she's written extensively on the subject of isolation in the midst of this pandemic.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:27 AM	4/9	120	WGN Midday News	When the novel coronavirus came to America -- it sidelined both professional and student athletes. It felt like a penalty many didn't deserve. A former athlete turned counselor is offering some much needed coaching.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:32 AM	4/9	120	WGN Midday News	WGN Investigates has learned 'three' north suburban hospitals have reached their capacity to care for the most seriously ill COVID-19 patients. Ben Bradley is the newsroom with exclusive information
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:49 AM	4/9	270	WGN Midday News	In these uncertain times, the absence of normalcy wears on us all especially the loss of connection Missing out on encounters and experiences, and worrying about the future can take a toll on our mental health. Best-selling author David Kessler is one of the world's foremost experts on grief and loss. His latest book is called, "Finding Meaning: The Sixth Stage of Grief"
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:24 PM	4/9	270	WGN Midday News	The antibody tests do offer great hope for re-opening our city and state, knowing who will remain healthy and the vulnerable who may still need to shelter. We went to a facility offering the antibody test. It's one of a growing number of locations where you can get the answers you crave.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	12:40 PM	4/9	180	WGN Midday News	While teachers are educating virtually in the pandemic, they know their students crave face to face interaction. So staff at Saints Peter and Paul School in Cary found a way to face the kids with a smile. The reaction was priceless.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:45 PM	4/9	220	WGN Early Evening News	As the pandemic wears on, nurses from all over the hospital are being redirected to ICU's to help care for COVID-19 patients. Many are finding they're providing a critical service they never trained for. WGN's Dina Bair reports.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:04 PM	4/9	150	WGN Evening News	The Cook County Jail is now the nation's largest hot spot for cases of COVID-19. A federal judge today ordered the Cook County Sheriff implement changes. WGN's Shannon Halligan is live with the story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:10 PM	4/9	150	WGN Evening News	The family of a 911 call center operator is mourning after their loved one died from COVID-19. They're worried there are not enough safety precautions being taken for other call center employees. WGN's Meghan Dwyer joins us live with the story.
9.1	Employment	5:15 PM	4/9	120	WGN Evening News	With today's grim jobs report showing 16-million Americans out of work, some in Washington are talking about the need for another major relief bill.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Employment	5:45 PM	4/9	180	WGN Evening News	Six-point-six million people filed for benefits for the first time last week and the unemployment rate is up to 10 percent since the COVID-19 outbreak. Andy Challenger, Senior Vice President at Challenger, Gray & Christmas joins us live via Skype tonight.
9.1	Government (Local)	6:00 PM	4/9	180	WGN Evening News	Today's recorded number of deaths dropped slightly from yesterday's tally But state officials warn even though the numbers show a slight positive change, we are far from a return to normal. WGN's Dana Rebik is at the Thompson Center, where the Governor had a warning about plans for the summer.
9.1	Employment	6:10 PM	4/9	180	WGN Evening News	A record number of workers in Illinois and across the country are now out of a job. And the unemployment rate is skyrocketing because of COVID-19.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:30 PM	4/9	180	WGN Evening News	WGN Investigates was first to report this morning: 'three' north suburban hospitals reached their licensed capacity to care for the most critically ill COVID-19 patients. The numbers change by the hour; but it's believed this is the first time an Illinois hospital has reached capacity during the COVID crisis. But as we learned, that doesn't mean these hospitals aren't able to care for patients. WGN's Ben Bradley reports.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Environment	10:20 PM	4/9	210	WGN News at Ten	25 years ago this July, Chicago survived its worst natural disaster in history. More than 700 people died when a heat wave swept through the city. How does that disaster compare to what Chicago and the state is bracing for today?
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:01 AM	4/10	120	WGN Early Morning News	There's an outbreak of cases at a state run facility in the south suburbs. Judy Wang is live in Park Forest with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:05 AM	4/10	210	WGN Morning News	The federal government is pulling out of drive-thru screening sites and transferring operations to state control. Illinois says it will take charge of one on Chicago's northwest side and another in downstate Bloomington, as well as some sites on Walmart properties. Joining us now from San Francisco is Doctor Alok Patel.
9.1	Consumer Issues	6:42 AM	4/10	210	WGN Morning News	Mr. Fix it is back with projects you can do at home and outdoors
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:06 AM	4/10	270	WGN Morning News	To help answer some of your questions about COVID-19. Doctor Lauren Streicher is back with us
9.1	Technology	8:24 AM	4/10	150	WGN Morning News	It seems that zoom became a way to video chat almost overnight. But along with its sudden popularity came some privacy and security concerns. If you're looking for an alternative Rich Demuro has some suggestions in today's Tech Smart.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:31 AM	4/10	255	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to talk about her experience battling COVID-19 is Jennie Novokovic.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Housing	9:50 AM	4/10	300	WGN Morning News	We're checking in on the real estate market and the many changes taking place in the Chicago area and around the country during the COVID-19 pandemic. Dennis Rodkin from Crain's joins us live via face time.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:34 AM	4/10	180	WGN Midday News	The first patients received a dose of a COVID-19 vaccine this week. The clinical trial began at a Pennsylvania biotech company. I spoke with the Dr. Kate Broderick, the vaccine developer about this advancement and the hope for fighting COVID-19.
9.1	Business & Industry	11:45 AM	4/10	180	WGN Midday News	When quarantine kept them inside and their thoughts were consumed with protecting their grandparents, a family business was born.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:47 AM	4/10	270	WGN Midday News	The COVID-19 pandemic is forcing many of us to adjust to new routines, deal with job loss, and cope with loneliness and grief. The pressure of dealing with all of these COVID-19 relates issues can exacerbate relationships that may already be on edge. It can be especially hard on divorced parents with a custody arrangement. Joining us now with more on this topic is Vincent Stark, an attorney and partner at Davis Friedman, LLP.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:45 PM	4/10	120	WGN Midday News	While some are predicting a baby boom nine months from now as so many couples spend time together at home, some grim statistics about quarantine quarrels and how they could impact young relationships. A new survey has some eye opening data about health and behavior during the crisis.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:00 PM	4/10	120	WGN Early Evening News	A second CPD officer has died from complications of COVID-19. WGN's Marcella Raymond is live at Area Central with more
9.1	Community	4:08 PM	4/10	120	WGN Early Evening News	Some of this summer's large-scale, outdoor events and even your neighborhood festival may be in jeopardy due to COVID-19. WGN's Julian Crews is live in Lakeview with more on that.
9.1	Community	4:36 PM	4/10	150	WGN Early Evening News	This tiny idea has morphed into a community movement that's changing the landscape for local businesses and those risking their own safety to help others. This is the story of 'Project Front Line'.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:30 PM	4/10	150	WGN Evening News	As the number of COVID-19 deaths tick upwards in Illinois. We're reminded that these are people, are not merely statistics. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us live to share one victim's story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Economy	5:42 PM	4/10	180	WGN Evening News	With so many industries in freefall right now How are the markets able to remain on the upside? Bob Iaccino - co-founder of path trading partners joins us now via skype
9.1	National Security	6:25 PM	4/10	180	WGN Evening News	Lawmakers are teaming up with several nonprofits to help military veterans who may be struggling due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
9.1	Community	9:43 PM	4/10	150	WGN News at Nine	They have been a staple in their community for 75 years. But what makes this grocery store unique is the special relationship between the customers and the family who runs it. Meet father and son team, Bill and Tom Baffes they are Chicago's Very Own.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:05 AM	4/11	90	WGN Weekend Morning News	A second Chicago police officer has died from COVID-19. Marcella Raymond is live at CPD headquarters, with how the department is coping.
9.1	Consumer Issues	9:11 AM	4/11	270	WGN Weekend Morning News	A lot of people with retirement accounts are nervous about their finances. The day to day wild swings in the market can be difficult to stomach. Joining us now via skype is financial advisor Greg Hammer. He's the president and CEO of Hammer Financial Services in Indiana.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:34 AM	4/11	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	The first case of human transmission of COVID-19 to an animal occurred in the US at the Bronx zoo. Joining us now via skype is Doctor John Howe, the president of the American Veterinary Medical Association.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:08 PM	4/11	150	WGN Weekend Evening News	A woman whose brother died of COVID-19 is speaking out about healthcare inequities that she believes contributed to his death. As Tonya Francisco reports, the woman wants black families to know, you don't have to be poor to be discriminated against.
9.1	Community	5:25 PM	4/11	180	WGN Weekend Evening News	Some may not feel like there's much to celebrate when it's your 7th birthday and you have to stay at home. But a group of strangers wanted to bring a little fun to a boy who had to spend his big day indoors. WGN's Sean Lewis has that story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:31 PM	4/11	90	WGN Weekend Evening News	The US is now reporting more coronavirus deaths than any country in the world -- according to the latest numbers from Johns Hopkins University.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:33 PM	4/11	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A retired captain of the Waukegan fire department and current Wadsworth Village trustee has died of COVID-19. His son is also battling the virus. WGN's Meghan Dwyer joins us with that story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Politics	5:37 PM	4/11	195	WGN Weekend Evening News	The pandemic is having an impact on primary elections and could also affect the general election in November. Democrats want to expand voting by mail and are asking for more funding for it in the next relief package. As Abby Phillip reports, President Trump and many Republicans oppose it.
9.1	Religion	8:03 AM	4/12	90	WGN Weekend Morning News	As we mentioned today is Easter Sunday, but churches around the world are empty amid the pandemic. Judy Wang is live outside of Holy Name cathedral, where mass is being streamed online.
9.1	Environment	5:01 PM	4/12	90	WGN Weekend Evening News	In the middle of a pandemic that can cause severe respiratory illness, a planned demolition covered a southwest side neighborhood in dust. Mayor Lightfoot says the development company was dishonest about the implosion of the smoke stack that has sat idle for years in Little Village.
9.1	Community	5:30 PM	4/12	180	WGN Weekend Evening News	A quiet and unusual Easter Sunday held a big surprise for a young girl from the north shore. WGN's Mike Lowe is live in Wilmette tonight with more
9.1	Religion	5:35 PM	4/12	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Easter Sunday is normally a day when most Christians gather together. But COVID-19 forced many churches across the country to hold services online. And some Christians defied stay at home orders and chose to worship in person.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	5:45 PM	4/12	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	The Easter celebrations are certainly different this year and may be difficult for the little ones who don't completely understand the pandemic. Here's where a group of high school athletes is making a difference. WGN's Sean Lewis has the story of buddy's helpers.
9.1	Children/Youth	9:39 PM	4/13	330	WGN Morning News	If your kids are on TikTok, you might know our next guest. Phillip Cook is a science teacher from Culver Academies in northern Indiana who's been making popular videos featuring science experiments.
9.1	Technology	11:16 AM	4/13	150	WGN Midday News	It's a device that can sanitize an entire airplane in minutes. Rich Demuro talks to the company that's seeing sudden interest in this new product.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:29 AM	4/13	120	WGN Midday News	The University of Chicago is launching a trial that could use the blood from recovered COVID-19 patients to help treat new ones. Meghan Dwyer joins us via facetime with more
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:33 AM	4/13	120	WGN Midday News	As the COVID-19 pandemic drags on there's a growing debate about when to ease requirements on social distancing. As far as reopening the country, Fauci suggests that could happen as early as next month on a "rolling" basis.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:05 PM	4/13	120	WGN Midday News	Illinois is getting closer to Governor Pritzker's benchmark of daily testing for COVID-19. WGN's Judy Wang has more from the Thompson Center.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Technology	12:20 PM	4/13	210	WGN Midday News	New Mexico is taking a high-tech approach to combat the spread of COVID-19. The state is using smart phone data, to find out if people are following social distancing guidelines. CNN's Sara Sidner explains how it works.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:27 PM	4/13	90	WGN Midday News	On the Medical Watch- Grief can come in many forms. And during the COVID-19 pandemic, many children and teens may be grieving the loss of normalcy. Mandy Gaither has some tips on how to help them deal with those emotions.
9.1	Community	4:15 PM	4/13	150	WGN Early Evening News	Today the Chicago fire department said farewell to one of their own who lost his life to COVID-19. Firefighter Mario Araujo was laid to rest in an emotional ceremony.
9.1	Politics	4:30 PM	4/13	180	WGN Early Evening News	The Governor and President Donald Trump have spent the last few weeks trading barbs over the COVID-19 response in Illinois. But on the ground in Chicago, federal workers say they are focused on helping people, not politics. WGN's Tahman Bradley is live at McCormick place with that story tonight.
9.1	Housing	5:12 PM	4/13	180	WGN Evening News	Mayor Lori Lightfoot announced new measures today - aimed at helping to stop the spread of COVID-19 among Chicago's homeless residents. WGN's Sean Lewis is live in our newsroom with the details.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:37 PM	4/13	150	WGN Evening News	A wife and mother of three from Palatine, continues to fight coronavirus. She's sharing her story in hopes of helping others in a similar situation. Kelly Davis has more.
9.1	Community	6:30 PM	4/13	150	WGN Evening News	Residents were happy when the Old Crawford power plant was shut down. But Dana Rebik joins us from the newsroom to their reaction to how the plant is being dismantled.
9.1	Elderly	9:01 PM	4/13	120	WGN News at Nine	The spread of the COVID-19 is now evident at a senior living center in the city's Beverly neighborhood. A rise in cases and deaths has officials at the south side facility trying to ease concerns.
9.1	Consumer Issues	9:15 PM	4/13	120	WGN News at Nine	A man in Lake County, Indiana, got quite a surprise when he visited an ATM and learned he'd already gotten a federal stimulus payment. Dana Rebik is live in new Chicago, with more on the unusual deposit.
9.1	Government (National)	10:04 PM	4/13	120	WGN News at Ten	President Trump wants a big reopening for the US economy, sooner rather than later. But today, a number of the nation's governors said they will team up to work on their regions' recovery, when their states are ready.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	10:07 PM	4/13	120	WGN News at Ten	Tonight, WGN news has learned that a treatment facility is the center of an outbreak of COVID-19. Employees at Haymarket Center in Chicago's west loop say their concerns are being swept under the rug. WGN's Sean Lewis, talked with them and spoke with the man in charge.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:01 AM	4/14	120	WGN Early Morning News	A treatment facility in Chicago is seeing an outbreak of COVID-19, which has led to two deaths. Courtney Gousman joins us live with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:06 AM	4/14	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:04 AM	4/14	210	WGN Morning News	A COVID-19 patient at UW Health in Madison, Wisconsin, has received the first transfusion of plasma donated from a local patient who has since recovered from the disease. It's all part of a nationwide effort to study whether giving plasma from people who survived COVID-19 to patients who are seriously ill with the disease And help shorten the duration or severity of their illness. Doctor William Hartman, is leading the clinical trials being done at UW Health. He joins us now.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Economy	9:35 AM	4/14	300	WGN Morning News	"Why We Desperately Need Oversight of the Coronavirus Stimulus Spending". That's the headline to yesterday's op-ed by Neil Barofsky in the New York Times. And Neil joins us live now, from New York, to talk about how two trillion dollars might be spent and accounted for.
9.1	Community	9:43 AM	4/14	210	WGN Morning News	As social distancing and travel restrictions put limits on how we mourn our loved ones, "lighten" helps people get together for "virtual celebrations of life." Alexandra Koys joins us to talk about the new memorial service.
9.1	Business & Industry	11:43 AM	4/14	180	WGN Midday News	Industries all over the world are struggling because of the COVID-19 pandemic. The latest here in the US is the meat industry. Brian Todd explains and takes a look at other parts of our food supply that make be impacted.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:49 AM	4/14	90	WGN Midday News	Instructors at Arthur Murray dance studio in Lincolnshire created the hand wash hustle. They're teaching moves for good hygiene, hoping to get people off the couch while confined and bringing some smiles in a tough time.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Consumer Issues	12:17 PM	4/14	150	WGN Midday News	Stimulus checks are rolling into accounts of Americans across the US to help cover basic necessities during this pandemic. But in some cases private debt collectors may still be able to access the money. Let's talk more about this with Lauren Saunders from the national consumer law center
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:24 PM	4/14	270	WGN Midday News	Ventilators are a first line of defense for COVID-19 patients, but are they overused? A new British study finds 66-percent of patients on ventilators died compared to those who get basic respiratory support. And as the united states scrambles for ventilators, some say Slow down to save lives.
9.1	Economy	4:09 PM	4/14	150	WGN Early Evening News	WGN Investigates is looking into the growing cost of the COVID-19 response here in Illinois. New numbers from the state comptroller show the state has already shelled out more than 100-million dollars. Here's a look at where the money is going.
9.1	Economy	4:35 PM	4/14	120	WGN Early Evening News	Millions of Americans have started to receive direct deposits from the federal government as part of the two-trillion stimulus package. Today, Governor Pritzker announced he's protecting this money from debt collectors, but it's still important you do your part to protect yourself. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us live to explain.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:05 PM	4/14	150	WGN Evening News	New at five, it started as a simple way to recognize neighborhood first responders. Now many people and businesses are getting behind it. WGN's Patrick Elwood joins us with the story of a south side alderman's growing mission of thanks.
9.1	Business & Industry	6:25 PM	4/14	120	WGN Evening News	As many farmers feel the impact from the outbreak Some lawmakers are asking the USDA to provide funding to those in need. Our Washington correspondent Basil John reports on why there is still a divide on this.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:06 PM	4/14	120	WGN News at Nine	Breaking news tonight about another COVID-19 outbreak at a healthcare facility in the northwest suburbs. It's happening at sheltered village in Woodstock. WGN's Sean Lewis just talked with one of the managers there
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:11 PM	4/14	120	WGN News at Nine	Two prominent attorneys found dead inside their Oak Park home. Investigators now call it 'suspicious.' One victim- an attorney who oversaw more than 350 Chicago police disciplinary hearings. WGN's Shannon Halligan is live at the scene with the latest.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	9:45 PM	4/14	240	WGN News at Nine	In tonight's WGN Investigates - the COVID-19 pandemic has shut down almost everything in the city -- except for essential businesses. These include grocery stores and gas stations. Hotels are also allowed to operate. But in one old town property - that decision is causing a lot of controversy. WGN's Lourdes Duarte has that story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	10:02 PM	4/14	150	WGN News at Ten	A southwest side nursing home reports two employees have died of COVID-19. WGN's Patrick Elwood joins us live with details on a resident that's now battling the virus at a hospital.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:03 AM	4/15	120	WGN Early Morning News	Two suburbs are tightening their requirements for non-essential businesses -- by mandating face masks.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/15	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:20 AM	4/15	300	WGN Morning News	What happens to our normal healthcare when everything is being put off by the pandemic? Joining us now is Dr. Lauren Streicher to help answer some of your COVID-19 related questions
9.1	Transportation	11:15 AM	4/15	150	WGN Midday News	The early morning snow led to a disaster of a commute on the highways this morning. One chain reaction crash involved more than 60 vehicles. Courtney Gousman has more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:29 AM	4/15	150	WGN Midday News	Six residents of a home for adults with developmental disabilities have died from COVID-19. Fourteen other residents and 12 staff members at the home have tested positive. WGN's Nancy Loo reports from Woodstock.
9.1	Government (National)	11:35 AM	4/15	180	WGN Midday News	Federal officials are working on a plan for reopening the country. The Washington Post obtained a draft of the CDC and FEMA's plan for how to start getting back to some version of normal life
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:45 AM	4/15	180	WGN Midday News	A drug used to treat head lice may have some promise against COVID-19. It's one of dozens of medications being observed as a possible weapon against SARS COV2 -- the virus that causes COVID-19. Dr. Nirav Shah, an infectious disease specialist at the North Shore University is with us now via facetime to put this in perspective.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:37 PM	4/15	180	WGN Midday News	While there's no cure or vaccine yet for COVID-19 Doctors are hoping recovered patients might hold some answers on how to beat the virus that causes it. Doctors at Ohio State University's Wexner Medical Center are testing out that theory.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:45 PM	4/15	120	WGN Midday News	In addition to immunity testing, making a potential treatment quickly is a major focus. So far patients in clinical trials to test therapies are seeing some negative side effects, including potentially deadly heart conditions. Now local researchers are testing drugs in the lab first.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:00 PM	4/15	120	WGN Early Evening News	A second Chicago firefighter has lost his life, due to coronavirus. WGN's Marcella Raymond is live with details
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:23 PM	4/15	150	WGN Early Evening News	It's been nearly six months since Chicago's top cop was found slumped over in his car late at night. WGN Investigates was 'first' to report the incident that eventually led to Johnson's firing. But all these months later, the city's inspector general has yet to release its full accounting of what happened
9.1	Community	4:43 PM	4/15	150	WGN Early Evening News	While the majority of professional photographers are out of work due to the pandemic, some have found a creative way to keep shooting.
9.1	Community	5:30 PM	4/15	150	WGN Evening News	Folks in Englewood are rallying around a beloved member of their community as she fights for her life against COVID-19.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:31 PM	4/15	200	WGN Evening News	We've heard so much about ventilators - the mechanical breathing machines that help the sickest COVID-19 patients. But what if it's not enough? The scenario is playing out around the country - and now here in Chicago, where doctors at Northwestern Medicine turned to a rare and complicated treatment to save a woman with no other options.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:35 PM	4/15	180	WGN Evening News	Thousands of prisoners considered low-risk offenders, are being released from jail, in hopes of stemming the spread of COVID-19 behind bars. But many law enforcement officers are not happy with the plan.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:42 PM	4/15	210	WGN Evening News	Rob Karr, President and CEO of the Illinois Retail Merchants Association joins us tonight via skype to talk more about the latest retail numbers.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:00 PM	4/15	120	WGN Evening News	Developing tonight: nearly two dozen people infected with COVID-19 at a suburban nursing home have died. WGN's Shannon Halligan is live in Joliet with details.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:32 PM	4/15	120	WGN Evening News	Data trends show the virus is spreading quickly in the Latino community, and that's prompting action from lawmakers and medical experts. Dr. Aida Giachello from Northwestern University is joining us through facetime tonight.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	9:12 PM	4/15	255	WGN News at Nine	The restaurant industry has taken a devastating hit during the COVID-19 pandemic. While some are still open with takeout options, many restaurants have been forced to close their doors entirely, or let staff go.
9.1	Consumer Issues	9:45 PM	4/15	180	WGN News at Nine	In tonight's WGN Investigates- Advertisers are finding creative ways to target consumers. But one case has the attorney general asking questions because it may have gone too far. WGN's Lourdes Duarte has more on the fallout from an advertisement for a suburban car dealership
9.1	Technology	10:10 PM	4/15	210	WGN News at Ten	People getting creative to help healthcare workers on the front lines. WGN's Julie Unruh shows us one CPS teacher working from home using his computer-science background to come up with something new Something innovative. And Something needed.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:04 AM	4/16	180	WGN Morning News	Let's bring in, Doctor John Whyte, to discuss the latest developments in the fight against COVID-19.
9.1	Community	8:20 AM	4/16	150	WGN Morning News	Does it feel like you've been hearing that noise more often lately? Does it seem like they're more active in the night? To help answer those questions. The Chicago Audubon Society joins us now to tell us what's going on.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Consumer Issues	8:32 AM	4/16	300	WGN Morning News	As stimulus checks begin to pour into people's bank accounts, there are many questions that remain. Let's bring in financial expert, Terry Savage, to help answer some of those questions.
9.1	Government (Local)	11:05 AM	4/16	120	WGN Midday News	Elected officials and community leaders from the Little Village and North Lawndale neighborhoods are denouncing Mayor Lori Lightfoot over a deadly power plant demolition. WGN's Nancy Loo is in our newsroom with the story.
9.1	Housing	11:17 AM	4/16	210	WGN Midday News	The more you stay at home, the more you may be itching to tackle some of those minor home repairs you've been putting off. The founder of "Ask the builder-dot-com" is offering his help, calling homeowners to walk them through problems. Tim Carter joins us now.
9.1	Community	11:35 AM	4/16	210	WGN Midday News	A restaurant that's been feeding people in need since this lockdown started. Now needs help to keep that going. WGN's Julian Crews is live in Alsip with more
9.1	Children/Youth	11:50 AM	4/16	240	WGN Midday News	A timely topic explored in a new book. Best-selling author and clinical psychologist Dr. Tom Phelan has written "The Coronavirus Manual for Parents: A Guide to Behavior, Fear, Claustrophobia and Hope-at Home". Dr. Phelan joins us now with some advice

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:25 PM	4/16	150	WGN Midday News	The COVID-19 pandemic is not just a threat now. Some doctors warn of a secondary health crisis. Surgeons, who perform life-changing procedures, say there will be long term consequences to health if the delays in elective operations drag on.
9.1	Education	12:47 PM	4/16	240	WGN Midday News	Illinois schools have been closed for about a month now, and that has parents taking over the teacher's role at home. That can be overwhelming, but now some professionals want to help. More than 360 retired teachers are now volunteering to tutor students who need the extra help.
9.1	Government (Local)	4:06 PM	4/16	150	WGN Early Evening News	WGN Investigates has learned millions of medical masks purchased by the state of Illinois 'from China' may not be able to be used in the way they were intended. It comes after a neighboring state found some of 'their' inventory was either ineffective or counterfeit.
9.1	Politics	4:15 PM	4/16	180	WGN Early Evening News	And struggling, small business owners may be out of luck to help their remaining employees. The 350 billion dollar "paycheck protection" program ran out of money today. Congress is trying to reach a deal for more funding. WGN's Mike Lowe is live in Lakeview's "Southport corridor" with more on this dilemma.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (National)	4:26 PM	4/16	180	WGN Early Evening News	Postal workers have been key in helping Americans remember life before the pandemic. Mail deliveries have continued as usual. But it's not clear how much longer they'll be able to do that. The postal system is running out of cash and may not make it past the fall
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:06 PM	4/16	180	WGN News at Nine	The state of Illinois is changing the rules for who can be tested for COVID-19. And the Governor says they're prepared to test a lot more people. WGN's Shannon Halligan is live with the details.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:15 PM	4/16	240	WGN News at Nine	The tight confines of our prisons and jails make it difficult to slow the spread of COVID 19 among the staff and the inmates. The Cook County jail has been a national hot spot 30 Sheriff's employees have tested positive. And 174 detainees. Three have died.
9.1	Education	10:10 PM	4/16	160	WGN News at Ten	She spent 10 years in public education and was known for her tough approach to handling high school kids on the far South Side. That's mostly because Liz Dozier led with her very big heart. For the past 4 years, she's been raising money for youth equity. But as Julie Unruh explains, when the pandemic struck, her philanthropic venture had to pivot to the basic needs of Chicago's most vulnerable.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	5:02 AM	4/17	120	WGN Early Morning News	The White House lays out a three phase plan to reopen the economy. It comes as Illinois joins several Midwestern states to determine the path forward. Judy Wang is live at the Thompson Center with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:06 AM	4/17	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Minority Issues	7:31 AM	4/17	180	WGN Morning News	Recently released data reveals a racial divide amid the COVID-19 crisis in Chicago. Joining us now for more on this topic is Doctor Regina Benjamin, the 18th US surgeon general and member of American Heart Association Board of Directors.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:01 AM	4/17	90	WGN Morning News	24 residents have died of COVID-19 at a nursing home in Joliet. Now two families are accusing them of negligence. Kelly Davis is live outside Symphony of Joliet with more.
9.1	Politics	8:32 AM	4/17	180	WGN Morning News	To discuss whether the government can enforce us to wear masks, joining us now is WGN Political Analyst Paul Lisnek.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:21 AM	4/17	300	WGN Morning News	Researchers at the Harvard School of Public Health say unless a COVID-19 vaccine is developed, we may need to keep our distance for two more years, into 2022. Joining us live via skype is Dr. Stephen Kissler. He's a post-doctoral fellow at Harvard School of Public Health, Department of Immunology and Infectious diseases. He's one of the original authors of the study.
9.1	Community	9:33 AM	4/17	300	WGN Morning News	A lot of people are craving companionship right now. And, there's no time like the present to consider virtual dating. If you're single, and looking for love, it's something to consider.
9.1	Technology	11:27 AM	4/17	180	WGN Midday News	Google and apple teamed up to combat the spread of COVID-19. Rich Demuro tells us more, in today's Tech Smart.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:50 AM	4/17	210	WGN Midday News	Joining us now with haircut advice for men is Patrick Butler from "Floyd's barbershops".
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:25 PM	4/17	150	WGN Midday News	As local leaders focus on keeping our city and communities safe, they're relying on those in the know -- infectious disease experts. Some, who lucky for us, chose to devote their studies to coronaviruses.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Children/Youth	12:45 PM	4/17	255	WGN Midday News	With the whole family staying at home on a regular basis these days, keeping and maintaining a routine has become a lot more challenging. Especially when it comes to sleep. Dr. Harvey Karp has been helping parents get their kids to sleep with his best-selling books including "Happiest Baby and Happiest Toddler on the Block"
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:06 PM	4/17	120	WGN Early Evening News	Chicago police confirm that a third officer has died due to COVID-19. WGN's Dana Rebik is live with the latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:30 PM	4/17	120	WGN Early Evening News	The alternate care facility at McCormick Place is dealing with its first COVID-19 patients. Medical experts gave us a close-up look at part of the facility. WGN's Julian Crews is live at McCormick Place with details.
9.1	Education	4:40 PM	4/17	150	WGN Early Evening News	When a kindergarten class learned they may not see their teacher again this year because of COVID-19, they did something pretty extraordinary. WGN's Erin Ivory has this very touching story from west suburban Elburn.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:08 PM	4/17	180	WGN Evening News	A closely watched clinical trial happening right here in Chicago could bring about a cure for COVID-19. This week one of the doctors involved told colleagues the hospital is seeing success with an experimental drug called Remdesivir

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Politics	5:35 PM	4/17	120	WGN Evening News	Hard to believe but there are only 200 days to go before election day. And there's an increasing push for more mail in voting because of the pandemic
9.1	Business & Industry	9:46 PM	4/17	180	WGN News at Nine	A Portage Park bridal and dressmaking shop has been churning out bridal gowns and prom dresses for years. But with wedding bells on hold for most during the pandemic, this mother daughter duo decided to put their sewing skills to use and help those on the medical frontlines. Grazyna Labedski and Kathy Labedski Pierga are two of Chicago's Very Own.
9.1	Education	10:00 PM	4/17	120	WGN News at Ten	With those numbers Governor Pritzker also announced schools would not reopen this academic year. WGN's Shannon Halligan is live with the details and more from school administrators on the challenges they now face.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:25 AM	4/18	150	WGN Weekend Morning News	There are a lot of questions out there regarding the life cycle of the COVID-19 virus. WGN's Ben Bradley spoke to one local expert on coronaviruses to shed some more light on some commonly asked questions.
9.1	Community	8:50 AM	4/18	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	The coronavirus pandemic has stopped a lot of things But it didn't prevent one couple in North Carolina from getting married. A FedEx driver played a very important role in the wedding, delivering the ring in the nick of time.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	9:50 AM	4/18	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	All schools will remain closed through the end of the academic year to slow the spread of COVID-19. The Governor made the announcement yesterday. That means many parents are finding themselves with another a job they didn't ask for: teaching. Joining us now with some tips to help parents is Alli Lamb, a veteran first grade teacher at Longfellow Elementary School in Oak Park.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:06 PM	4/18	150	WGN Weekend Evening News	After an outbreak of COVID-19 at a state-run residential center in Park forest, the National Guard is being deployed to help out. WGN's Marcella Raymond reports.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:27 PM	4/18	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Governors across the country now face tough choices about how to stop the spread of COVID-19, while also supporting the economy. In some parts of Florida, they're going back to the beaches this weekend.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:30 PM	4/18	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	At least six Chicago area suburbs are now requiring people to wear face masks in public. Highland Park and Wilmette will start on Monday.
9.1	Education	5:33 PM	4/18	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Governor Pritzker made it official yesterday, saying schools are closed for the remainder of the current academic year, however, there's still a big question many parents, students and teachers are asking. What will the future of education look like because of the coronavirus?

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:40 PM	4/18	150	WGN Weekend Evening News	This pandemic has upended so many lives, from unemployment, to food shortages, to mental health issues. But as WGN's Sean Lewis reports, it has also produced an abundance of people willing to help any way they can.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:56 PM	4/18	150	WGN Weekend Evening News	The IHSA is set to meet Tuesday to decide whether to officially cancel spring sports. This after the Governor decided to close in-school classes for the rest of the school year. Josh Frydman talked with a few of these spring athletes as they await their sports fate
9.1	Politics	9:34 PM	4/18	90	WGN Weekend News at Nine	As the campaign season ramps up. The president and members of congress must figure out how to reach their voters virtually.
9.1	Religion	10:26 PM	4/18	120	WGN Weekend News at Ten	We've spoken often of our doctors and nurses essential healthcare providers on the front line of this devastating pandemic. But what about hospital chaplains. We spoke with one who for 27 years has been doing her part to provide the necessary link between doctor, patient and healing
9.1	Business & Industry	9:06 PM	4/19	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Local businesses and a fashion designer are helping make sure police officers can safely attend funerals of those who died during the pandemic. WGN's Erik Runge has the story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Technology	9:19 PM	4/19	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	South Korea may be on the cutting-edge of the COVID fight through technology and surveillance. However, it's at the expense of personal data.
9.1	Community	9:35 PM	4/19	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	In this age of COVID-19, a family celebrates a woman's zest for life -- and for birthdays -- all 109 of them! WGN's Marcella Raymond takes us to Morris, Illinois for the celebration.
9.1	Community	9:40 PM	4/19	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Domestic violence calls are on the rise, amid the coronavirus stay-at-home order. Victims getting some help today as local high school athletes pitch in to support a Chicago shelter. Here's WGN's Sean Lewis.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:45 PM	4/19	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Some of the world's top stars helped raise nearly 128 million dollars for the World Health Organization's COVID-19 solidarity response fund. The international advocacy group "global citizen" organized the "One World: Together at Home" concert.
9.1	Government (Local)	10:17 PM	4/19	120	WGN Weekend News at Ten	While everyone wants to see the economy reopen soon, the catch is in the COVID testing. We've heard it many times There needs to be more testing. And today, state leaders, both democrats and republicans, say the federal government must do more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	10:23 PM	4/19	120	WGN Weekend News at Ten	America's cities are running out of money because of the coronavirus crisis. The US conference of mayors says they're spending huge amounts on personal protective equipment, testing, and first responder overtime while sales and income taxes are drying up.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:01 AM	4/20	120	WGN Early Morning News	Today, the Illinois national guard will deploy to a developmental center that's dealing with an outbreak of COVID-19 cases. Courtney Gousman is live in Park Forest with more on this story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/20	240	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:04 AM	4/20	120	WGN Morning News	Nursing homes and long term care facilities across the state continue to be hot zones for COVID 19 infections. Erik Runge is outside the "Symphony of Joliet" facility, with a look at the state's latest numbers.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:18 AM	4/20	300	WGN Morning News	Since we're stuck in the house right now, lots of people aren't sticking to their normal diet routines. They're snacking more, they're unable to get to the gym and it's causing lots of anxiety. Especially in women and young girls. But there are ways you can be kinder to yourself right now. Dr. Renee Engeln is a professor at Northwestern

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	11:31 AM	4/20	120	WGN Midday News	COVID-19 is hitting the African-American community especially hard in Chicago. Community groups are drawing attention to the health disparities in the city, by demonstrating at Mercy hospital.
9.1	Community	11:42 AM	4/20	120	WGN Midday News	Time magazine is shining a light on the heroes of the COVID-19 pandemic. A group of cafeteria workers who are making sure hungry children are fed, made the list. Robbie Owens spoke to the new "cover girls."
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:46 AM	4/20	120	WGN Midday News	There are apps that can help you take care of your mental and emotional well-being while you're isolated at home. Rich Demuro has a few suggestions.
9.1	Children/Youth	11:50 AM	4/20	240	WGN Midday News	Teenagers could have a hard time dealing with major missed moments this school year. Today we're talking to the author of "Raising an Organized Child: 5 Steps to Boost Independence, Ease Frustration, and Promote Confidence", Dr. Damon Korb is also a behavioral and developmental pediatrician.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	12:20 PM	4/20	240	WGN Midday News	A new study focuses on the impact of COVID-19 on the hospitality industry. The report shows big declines in travel, tourism, and recreation due to COVID-19 lockdowns. Joining us with insight on how these industries are adapting, associate professor and director of the School of Hospitality Leadership at DePaul, Nicholas Thomas.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:27 PM	4/20	120	WGN Midday News	We continue to check in around town with doctors on the frontlines. Dr. Ed Ward, an emergency medicine physician at Rush University medical center, tells us they have the beds and the equipment and the resiliency to keep going. Ben Bradley has more.
9.1	Community	4:06 PM	4/20	120	WGN Early Evening News	The Wheeling community is reacting to the death of a 16-year-old high school sophomore. School officials there are concerned the death may be linked to COVID-19.
9.1	Minority Issues	4:30 PM	4/20	120	WGN Early Evening News	In Chicago, the coronavirus crisis continues to ravage communities of color. Today city health officials announcing a new approach in three of the hardest hit neighborhoods. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is live at City Hall with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	4:40 PM	4/20	150	WGN Early Evening News	The COVID-19 pandemic also changing how we shop. Some experts, suggesting grocery stores should be pick-up only to protect grocery store workers. Joining us now, Professor John Logan. He's a professor and director of Labor and Employment Studies at San Francisco State University.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:00 PM	4/20	150	WGN Evening News	Many of those cases are in nursing homes across the state. The Governor talked about it in his news conference this afternoon. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live from Joliet with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:15 PM	4/20	150	WGN Evening News	Gun violence is still plaguing Chicago, even under a statewide stay-at-home order. Five people were killed, dozens more injured during a violent weekend. WGN's Kelly Davis is live at CPD headquarters with details.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:25 PM	4/20	150	WGN Evening News	The small business loan program will go another day without any funding as lawmakers struggle to work out a deal on how to replenish the account. WGN's Washington Correspondent Kellie Meyer has the latest.
9.1	Business & Industry	6:08 PM	4/20	120	WGN Evening News	Small business owners still waiting for federal help to get through the COVID-19 pandemic. The federal government's payroll protection program is out of money. Negotiations continue on a new deal in Washington to replenish the fund. WGN's Tonya Francisco joins us live now with more

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (National)	6:40 PM	4/20	120	WGN Evening News	As protesters encouraged by President Trump demand to be "liberated" from stay-at-home orders The U.S. surgeon general is weighing in on how governors should approach reopening their state economies.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:03 PM	4/20	120	WGN News at Nine	New details tonight about the COVID-19 outbreak at the Cook County jail. There are now 225 Cook County sheriff's employees who have tested positive for the virus. And we have learned two employees have passed away.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	10:15 PM	4/20	180	WGN News at Ten	In some Chicago neighborhoods there is not one war to fight these days, but two. Survival has everything to do with social distancing among other things during the pandemic. This, as the war against guns wages on, as well. WGN's Julie Unruh has more on what one group is doing to suit up for battle on both fronts.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:32 AM	4/21	120	WGN Morning News	The state of Illinois is expanding COVID-19 testing at nursing homes. Erik Runge is live at the Thompson Center with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:26 PM	4/21	180	WGN Midday News	He answered the call of the Governor and returned to work. Now a retired physician has a health update of his own. Ben Bradley brings us the story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	12:45 PM	4/21	240	WGN Midday News	Goose Island beer company is bringing Chicago area artists and award winning chefs into your home with cooking demonstrations while raising money to benefit hospitality workers. Joining us now to talk about the series, Top Chef winner, Joe Flamm.
9.1	Community	4:20 PM	4/21	120	WGN Early Evening News	Summer won't be the same in the city. The list of concerts and other summer staples being cancelled because of the pandemic continues to grow. WGN's Mike Lowe is live at Millennium Park with more
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:32 PM	4/21	120	WGN Early Evening News	The second of three Chicago police officers to die this month of COVID-19 was laid to rest today. WGN's Julian Crews is live in Blue Island with more on how Sergeant Clifford Martin was remembered.
9.1	Community	4:35 PM	4/21	120	WGN Early Evening News	It's home to nearly 5,000 creatures big and small. If you're missing the animals at Brookfield Zoo Well, turns out the feeling is mutual.
9.1	Community	4:40 PM	4/21	120	WGN Early Evening News	There's a lot of talk about one particular red pickup truck making the rounds in west suburban North Riverside. WGN's Erin Ivory joins us live from home with the story!
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:11 PM	4/21	120	WGN Evening News	New information tonight about the deadly COVID outbreak at a Joliet nursing home. WGN's Tonya Francisco spoke with a doctor who believes he has identified the likely source.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	5:38 PM	4/21	240	WGN Evening News	Many parents have been concerned about e-learning and how much knowledge their kids are absorbing. But experts say students could be learning bigger life lessons through virtual classrooms. Jill Geocarlis is the innovative adult learning coordinator for Maine Township District 207. She joins us live now with the perks of e-learning.
9.1	Immigration	6:30 PM	4/21	150	WGN Evening News	President Trump has issued an executive order to ban all immigration while the country fights the coronavirus. WGN's political reporter Tahman Bradley is following the story and joins us with more.
9.1	Business & Industry	6:33 PM	4/21	300	WGN Evening News	There's another deadline small businesses in Chicago need to take advantage of through the city's treasury office. Joining us now is Financial Expert, Terry Savage, to help answer some questions.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:06 PM	4/21	120	WGN News at Nine	If you need to self-isolate and can't stay home, where should you go? WGN's Shannon Halligan is here to explain that can be complicated.
9.1	Elderly	10:03 PM	4/21	120	WGN News at Ten	Now to a developing story we are following -- 70 percent of residents at a south side nursing home have tested positive for COVID19. WGN's Shannon Halligan is live with the details.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	10:10 PM	4/21	300	WGN News at Ten	A pandemic like the one we are experiencing today, hasn't been seen in more than one-hundred years. WGN's Julie Unruh spoke with a Chicago woman who tells the story of the Spanish flu as told to her by her grandmother.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:04 AM	4/22	240	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Education	8:13 AM	4/22	180	WGN Morning News	The Illinois high school association officially cancelled all state tournaments for spring's sports. To discuss more, IHSA Executive Director Craig Anderson joins us now
9.1	Environment	11:15 AM	4/22	240	WGN Midday News	Today is Earth Day and this year marks the 50th anniversary. NASA is celebrating by sharing what astronauts and scientists have learned about our home planet over that time and how things have changed. NASA also has a few ideas about how you can observe Earth Day from home. Joining us now to explain is NASA Scientist Annmarie Eldering.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:31 AM	4/22	120	WGN Midday News	An urgent care clinic is now testing patients for COVID-19 antibodies. Julian Crews is live near Ashland and Fullerton with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Technology	11:53 AM	4/22	150	WGN Midday News	Can't find a webcam for your work at home video chats? In today's Tech Smart, Rich Demuro shows us how to turn a smartphone into a makeshift webcam.
9.1	Legal Matters	12:21 PM	4/22	150	WGN Midday News	Creating a plan to make sure loved ones are taken care of during this uncertain time can help ease anxiety. Many people may be taking this unique opportunity to review estate planning documents. Chicago Bar Association is teaming up with law firms to provide planning services for healthcare workers. Director of the Young Lawyers Section of Chicago Bar Association Jennifer Byrne joins us now.
9.1	Community	4:41 PM	4/22	150	WGN Early Evening News	As unemployment numbers climb in the state during the pandemic, shelves grow sparse at local food pantries and on the shelves of family homes. WGN's Erin Ivory tells us "motherly love" has come to the rescue as she joins us from home now.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:07 PM	4/22	150	WGN Evening News	Chicago's city council made history today with its first-ever virtual meeting. But the online conference was cut short after a clash between the mayor and opposing aldermen. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is here with the story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:31 PM	4/22	150	WGN Evening News	Today the Chicago fire department said a final farewell to one of their own. Firefighter Edward Singleton is the second firefighter to die from COVID-19.
9.1	Government (National)	5:42 PM	4/22	120	WGN Evening News	Lawmakers, like the rest of the county are trying to figure out how to telecommute. But telecommuting to Congress is proving to be controversial. The House was gearing up to vote on changing its rules to allow remote voting by proxy. But Republicans pushed back. WGN's Washington correspondent Morgan Wright reports.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:02 PM	4/22	120	WGN Evening News	One of the new state-run testing sites opened in aurora today. It is being staffed by the National Guard.
9.1	Government (Local)	9:01 PM	4/22	120	WGN News at Nine	There's just more than a week remaining in Illinois' stay-at-home order. But many people are anxious to hear whether the Governor extends that date. Shannon Halligan joins us to explain why he's not revealing that yet.
9.1	Business & Industry	9:10 PM	4/22	120	WGN News at Nine	The House is expected to pass almost another half trillion dollars of pandemic relief funding tomorrow. Included in that is hundreds of billions for small businesses that missed out on the depleted paycheck protection plan. WGN's Dana Rebik joins us with the story of one businessman - who says the help can't come fast enough.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:46 PM	4/22	300	WGN News at Nine	Front line health care workers at every level have seen the COVID-19 pandemic up close from the very beginning. And for many of them - they have to take extra precautions when they go home to keep their families safe.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	10:03 PM	4/22	150	WGN News at Ten	Gary's Health Commissioner is trying to keep his city's residents healthy while taking care of his parents who both tested positive for the virus. WGN's Patrick Elwood spoke to him a short time ago.
9.1	Children/Youth	10:13 PM	4/22	180	WGN News at Ten	20 million kids go to camp every summer across the united states. There are some 14,000 day camps and overnight camps to choose from. This summer, the big question is: can summer camps continue with COVID 19. Here's WGN's Julie Unruh.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:45 AM	4/23	120	WGN Morning News	When a photographer in New Jersey contracted COVID-19, he did what those in his profession do. He picked up his camera to tell the story. Mary Murphy reports on his shared personal and emotional battle with the disease.
9.1	Employment	8:15 AM	4/23	180	WGN Morning News	Economists predict the unemployment rate for April could reach 20 percent. Let's bring in career advancement coach, Lauren Milligan with ResuMay Day for tips on reworking your resume.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:20 AM	4/23	240	WGN Midday News	Differing views on coronavirus response and social distancing rules are creating rifts in relationships. So, today we're talking to the author of a new book coming out in a few weeks called "Detox Your Thoughts". Dr. Andrea Bonior is also a clinical psychologist on the faculty of Georgetown University.
9.1	Community	11:30 AM	4/23	120	WGN Midday News	Chicago restaurant workers who are struggling to put food on their own tables during the pandemic are getting some relief. WGN's Julian Crews is live in the west town neighborhood with the story.
9.1	Religion	11:41 AM	4/23	150	WGN Midday News	Ministering to the sick during the pandemic. For Loyola Medicine Champlain Marie Coglianesse, the hospital role she holds so dearly took on new meaning when COVID-19 hit close to home.
9.1	Children/Youth	11:50 AM	4/23	240	WGN Midday News	Time at summer camp is an important experience for children but this year those programs are in jeopardy and could be cancelled because of COVID-19 concerns. Joining us to talk more on this topic is Dr. Tracey Gaslin who is also a certified nurse practitioner in pediatrics and adults and Executive Director for the Association of Camp Nursing.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:24 PM	4/23	200	WGN Midday News	It was the largest voluntary clinical field trial ever undertaken. A massive grassroots effort to test Jonas Salk's polio vaccine more than 60 years ago. One that involved 1.8 Million children. They were called 'polio pioneers,' and they helped change the course of public health. We spoke with one them who shared his story with WGN.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:04 PM	4/23	120	WGN Evening News	Detainees at Cook County jail were among those who testified during a virtual hearing today - on whether the jail is doing enough to prevent the spread of COVID-19 within its walls.
9.1	Economy	5:10 PM	4/23	120	WGN Evening News	Mayor Lightfoot is focused on the future, planning for Chicago's economic comeback. Today, she introduced a new task force, which will advise how the city rebuilds the economy in the wake of the coronavirus pandemic.
9.1	Community	5:15 PM	4/23	120	WGN Evening News	Out-of-work restaurant employees get some much-needed assistance. WGN's Julian Crews is live in West Town with more on the collaboration to provide them meals during these tough times.
9.1	Employment	5:38 PM	4/23	240	WGN Evening News	Tens of millions are now out of work And losing a job during this pandemic can be tough to handle. Psychotherapist Megan Devine joins us now to talk about how to deal with this major life change during a global crisis.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:47 PM	4/23	120	WGN Evening News	For the last 8 years, an indoor cycling event has brought people together to fight ovarian cancer. The COVID-19 pandemic has forced this weekend's fundraiser to adapt on the fly. But as WGN's Josh Frydman shows us the race for a cure still goes on.
9.1	Government (Local)	9:04 PM	4/23	120	WGN News at Nine	Illinois residents will soon be required to wear masks in public places. It's part of Governor Pritzker's modified stay-at-home order.
9.1	Economy	9:07 PM	4/23	120	WGN News at Nine	Developing out of Washington tonight: congress agrees on a second stimulus package to help with the economic devastation of the pandemic. This one, nearly 500 billion dollars for businesses and hospitals. WGN's Dana Rebik is here with more, dana.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:46 PM	4/23	240	WGN News at Nine	Saying a final farewell to a loved one is always difficult. Doing it in the age of COVID-19 is even harder. WGN's Ben Bradley spent some time at one of Chicago's better known funeral homes, which has helped generations of families during times of loss.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:01 AM	4/24	120	WGN Early Morning News	Governor Pritzker has extended Illinois' stay-at-home order. And it includes some changes. Judy Wang is live outside the Thompson Center with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (National)	7:31 AM	4/24	180	WGN Morning News	Congress has passed a 480 billion dollar aid package to help small businesses impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. Joining us now on skype is Congressman Adam Kinzinger.
9.1	Education	8:30 AM	4/24	210	WGN Morning News	Newly released analysis by Pro-Publica Illinois and the Chicago Tribune found that most of the state's 852 school districts did not have e-learning plans in place when schools closed in mid-March. Joining us now is Jodi Cohen, a reporter for Pro-Publica Illinois.
9.1	Education	11:19 AM	4/24	240	WGN Midday News	Usually, this is a critical time for teens to start college planning. But, the longer we are in this social distancing setting the harder it becomes. City Colleges of Chicago is trying to help. A team there is working with CPS and the Mayor's Office to host a Virtual College Exploration Week starting Monday April 27th. Joining us now with details is Juan Salgado, Chancellor at City Colleges of Chicago.
9.1	Community	11:30 AM	4/24	120	WGN Midday News	Some Northwest side residents are showing their appreciation to Illinois National Guard soldiers serving at a COVID-19 testing site.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:33 AM	4/24	150	WGN Midday News	Preliminary results are in from a highly-anticipated study of hydroxychloroquine. But the results are not as promising as some have promoted. CNN Senior Medical Correspondent Elizabeth Cohen has the latest.
9.1	Cultural	11:47 AM	4/24	150	WGN Midday News	As we all try to navigate these darker days. A young artist and her little brother use a concrete canvas to share a few bright spots on a daily basis.
9.1	Technology	11:52 AM	4/24	150	WGN Midday News	The affordable version of Apple's iPhone is now available. Rich Demuro takes a look at how's it's different than the rest, in today's "Tech Smart."
9.1	Business & Industry	12:20 PM	4/24	240	WGN Midday News	Many major US business lobbying groups are urging congress to pass measures to protect companies from COVID-19 related lawsuits as states begin to lift restrictions. Joining us to explain how companies can protect themselves and employees during this time, Chicago Kent college of law professor, Martin Malin.
9.1	Economy	4:06 PM	4/24	120	WGN Early Evening News	After several delays, the president signed a second stimulus package for small business into law. This second wave of funding has the same requirements as the first time. The hope is that it will last a lot longer than the first round.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	4:23 PM	4/24	120	WGN Early Evening News	Let's get back to today's city council meeting approving emergency spending powers for Mayor Lightfoot. She's taking questions now at City Hall, let's listen in live.
9.1	Consumer Issues	5:02 PM	4/24	120	WGN Evening News	People treated for COVID19 early on in the pandemic are now running into health insurance issues. WGN'S Shannon Halligan spoke to one Chicago man who got a big bill in the mail.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:30 PM	4/24	120	WGN Evening News	A data base used by first responders in the northwest suburbs is coming under scrutiny amid the COVID-19 pandemic. There are concerns that it may reveal too much medical information about the public.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:33 PM	4/24	270	WGN Evening News	Northwestern Medicine is taking part in a global clinical trial, to determine if a drug used for rheumatoid arthritis can help severe cases of COVID-19. The drug "Sarilumab" is being given to hospitalized COVID-19 patients who have a high chance of dying, or prolonged critical care requirements. Researchers are trying to determine if the drug helps alleviate the overactive inflammatory responses in the lungs, when damaged by COVID-19.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	5:54 PM	4/24	150	WGN Evening News	Some businesses in the Beverly and Mount Greenwood areas have come-up with an "outside of the box" way to help each other through the COVID-19 pandemic. As WGN's Patrick Elwood reports, a former marine is leading them into the fight.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00 PM	4/24	150	WGN Evening News	Another police officer has died from COVID-19. Officer Joseph Cappello served in Melrose Park. Flags are flying half-staff at the police station tonight.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:27 PM	4/24	180	WGN Evening News	Dispatchers in the northwest suburbs want to know if someone has COVID-19 before sending out first responders. WGN's Marcella Raymond is here now with the story.
9.1	Immigration	6:40 PM	4/24	180	WGN Evening News	We've heard a lot of stories of people volunteering their time behind a sewing machine to make face masks during the COVID-19 outbreak. WGN's Erin Ivory tells us about one group doing so, that's a little different from the rest, refugees.
9.1	Community	9:45 PM	4/24	180	WGN Evening News	One in 3 families in the U.S. struggle to provide clean diapers for their children. Now, with the COVID 19 pandemic fueling unemployment, diaper need is on the rise. But the founder of a Lake County diaper bank is working tirelessly to meet that need. Ann Marie Mathis is one of Chicago's Very Own.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	8:32 PM	4/25	90	WGN Weekend Morning News	The city is hosting a cloth mask donation drive for the most vulnerable residents. Marcella Raymond joins us now with the details.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:30 AM	4/25	270	WGN Weekend Morning News	The city of Chicago is holding two virtual town halls for residents on the south and west sides today to address why COVID-19 is devastating these communities. Joining us now via facetime is Candace Moore, the city's first equity officer and the head of the city's Racial Equity Response team.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:49 PM	4/25	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	There is a need for blood donations from people who have recovered from COVID-19. Their blood may serve as a treatment for those who are still fighting the disease. Joining us now to talk about this is Doctor Vishnu Chundi an infectious disease expert and the co-chair of the COVID-19 task force for the Chicago Medical Society,
9.1	Business & Industry	5:07 PM	4/25	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	The Smithfield meat processing plant in suburban Saint Charles is closed. The Kane County Health Department ordered the company to close the facility because of COVID- 19 concerns. WGN's Judy Wang has more

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (National)	5:15 PM	4/25	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A handful of states reopened businesses this weekend, and governors around the country will be closing monitoring the fallout. A group of experts warn it's too early for states to reopen with the World Health Organization warning having coronavirus once doesn't mean you can't get it again.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:33 PM	4/25	180	WGN Weekend Evening News	The key to unlocking the mystery of COVID-19 has researchers looking to history. WGN's Sean Lewis has the story.
9.1	Business & Industry	9:40 PM	4/25	180	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Some businesses in the Beverly and Mount Greenwood areas have come-up with an "outside of the box" way to help each other through the COVID-19 pandemic. As WGN's Patrick Elwood reports a former Marine is leading them into the fight.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:48 PM	4/25	120	WGN Weekend News at Ten	People with food allergies face unique and dangerous challenges during this pandemic. Now a group dedicated to food allergy research and education has tips to help people with allergies, navigate through food shortages.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (National)	5:24 PM	4/26	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	FEMA is best known for coordinating responses to natural disasters, like tornadoes and hurricanes, with state and local governments. But now the federal agency has taken on a new job: leading the response to the coronavirus crisis. We speak with FEMA Administrator Pete Gaynor about the agency's efforts and what comes next.
9.1	Government (Local)	9:01 PM	4/26	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	The governor today said labs processed more than 11-thousand tests over the last 24 hours, again surpassing his daily goal. The state health director was quick to caution the public, discouraging any coronavirus home remedies involving chemicals.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:00 AM	4/27	120	WGN Early Morning News	Viral video of a crowded house party, over the weekend, has prompted a stern warning from Governor Pritzker. Courtney Gousman joins us live with more
9.1	Economy	7:33 AM	4/27	180	WGN Morning News	Many states worry they won't have the funds to provide essential services to their residents without aid. Joining us now with more on this topic is Michael Miller, a professor of economics at DePaul University.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:05 AM	4/27	180	WGN Morning News	There's a projection that says we could be about three weeks away from when Illinois can start relaxing restrictions. But that depends on how well the state performs widespread testing, contact tracing, isolating cases, and limiting large gatherings. Joining us now is Sarah Cobey, with the University of Chicago's department of ecology and evolution.
9.1	Business & Industry	8:32 AM	4/27	120	WGN Morning News	Small business owners could get some relief as the paycheck protection program re-opens this morning. Judy Wang joins us live from Wrigleyville with the details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:02 PM	4/27	120	WGN Midday News	It is opening day for a COVID-19 testing site on the city's west side. WGN's Kelly Davis is live in South Austin with more
9.1	Government (National)	4:32 PM	4/27	120	WGN Early Evening News	In Chicago, Mayor Lori Lightfoot is again admonishing party-goers seen in a viral video over the weekend. Today city officials also unveiling a new tool they hope will shed light on how the virus is spreading in the city. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is live at City Hall with more.
9.1	Legal Matters	5:00 PM	4/27	180	WGN Evening News	Breaking news, a judge ruled the governor's extended stay-at-home order is unconstitutional. Governor Pritzker responded to the ruling during his briefing today. WGN's Sean Lewis is here with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:02 PM	4/27	120	WGN Evening News	A west side hospital over-run by COVID-19 patients Is also dealing with a staffing shortage. WGN's Dana Rebik is live outside St. Anthony's with the story.
9.1	Education	5:08 PM	4/27	120	WGN Evening News	With children out of school, many families find themselves a bit frustrated. But for some parents, it's especially challenging, WGN's Tonya Francisco is live with that story.
9.1	Employment	5:30 PM	4/27	120	WGN Evening News	Thousands of workers at nursing homes across the state are now set to strike. They want better protection amid a pandemic that is ravaging facilities. WGN's Patrick Elwood joins us live
9.1	Education	6:47 PM	4/27	180	WGN Evening News	With thousands of college graduation ceremonies cancelled, families are scrambling to come up with a way to celebrate. WGN's Erin Ivory has the story of one family who had not one - but three college graduates!
9.1	Religion	10:07 PM	4/27	180	WGN News at Nine	After a crowded house party made headlines in Chicago, another public gathering is seen on video. This one, a Jewish wedding ceremony on the north side. But a rabbi who stopped by the wedding says the video doesn't tell the whole story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (National)	6:34 AM	4/28	90	WGN Morning News	The White House is issuing COVID-19 testing guidance for states as some prepare to re-open. The guidance comes as health officials warn there isn't enough testing for states to reopen in a safe manner. Karin Caifa has more.
9.1	National Security	6:46 AM	4/28	150	WGN Morning News	If you're looking for an educational, and also meaningful activity to do at home with the kids you can participate in a new initiative aimed at helping our military. It's called "Write a Joe or Jane Campaign". People of all ages are encouraged to write cards, letters or create drawings to be sent to military members. Joining us now via zoom to tell us more about it, is Sarah Starke, the executive director of Doodle Bug Workshop, who helped spearhead the campaign
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	4/28	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	8:12 AM	4/28	180	WGN Morning News	From preschoolers to college students, everyone is adjusting to learning at home or online. But for some parents it can be difficult to keep children focused and engaged. Here now to discuss is, Doctor Angela Searcy, author of "push past it! A positive approach to challenging classroom behaviors."
9.1	Economy	8:32 AM	4/28	340	WGN Morning News	Joining us now on the phone, is financial expert Terry Savage, to discuss the stock market and the latest with the stimulus checks.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:00 AM	4/28	120	WGN Midday News	A deadly COVID-19 outbreak strikes a nursing home in Cicero. Five people have died, more than 160 residents have tested positive and many employees are also infected.
9.1	Children/Youth	11:17 AM	4/28	240	WGN Midday News	COVID-19 was thought to be a disease that impacts older people and those who are sick. But a surprising finding, young people, otherwise healthy are dying after they are infected with SARS CO-V2 And the reason is not breathing issues or lung damage, it's stroke. Joining us to talk about this new and unsettling discovery is Dr. Pascal Jabbour, professor of Neurological Surgery at Thomas Jefferson University Hospital in Philadelphia.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	11:34 AM	4/28	210	WGN Midday News	Some restaurants are getting creative to stay in business as COVID-19 changes how and where we dine. Dianne Gallagher reports.
9.1	Consumer Issues	11:42 AM	4/28	90	WGN Midday News	If you're one of the millions of Americans who are struggling financially right now, you may be worried about paying the mortgage. But it turns out there are ways to save your home. Mandy Gaither has more.
9.1	Environment	11:52 AM	4/28	90	WGN Midday News	As we are at home trying to reduce the spread of COVID-19, we watch from the window as new life sprouts outside. Signs of spring. This midday, ways you can add beauty in this dark time.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:25 PM	4/28	150	WGN Midday News	While leaders are pouring over data regarding the best time to reopen, scientists are gazing into their microscopes to see what might work to stop this virus. Now, a possible treatment from years of work to kill cancer. A drug that also appears to work against SARS CO-V2.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:41 PM	4/28	210	WGN Midday News	More than 100 years ago, the city of Philadelphia was warned public gatherings were a bad idea. Just days later more than 2,000 people were dead. Then it happened all over again in November of that same year a second wave. One archivist in Philadelphia shares the story with WGN. As WGN's Julie Unruh tells us, he doesn't want history to repeat itself.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	12:47 PM	4/28	210	WGN Midday News	The outdoor market season is approaching but shopping at farmers markets will look a little different. Joining us now to share how the Evanston markets will run and keep the community safe, farmers' market manager, Myra Gorman.
9.1	Government (Local)	4:01 PM	4/28	90	WGN Early Evening News	Governor Pritzker says he's appealing the judge's ruling that found his extended stay at home order was unconstitutional. And he introduced military members from Poland, helping with the COVID fight in Illinois.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:07 PM	4/28	90	WGN Early Evening News	As the state of Illinois continues to ramp up testing for COVID-19, a northwest side hospital is coming online. Norwegian American hospital will be the first location in Humboldt Park to offer COVID-19 testing. WGN's Shannon Halligan is live now with more.
9.1	Business & Industry	4:14 PM	4/28	120	WGN Early Evening News	JetBlue will soon become the first major US airline to require passengers to cover their faces. It's among the airlines adding new rules in an effort to increase safety onboard. But, they're also calling on the federal government to step in and help. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us live with the latest details.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Legal Matters	4:30 PM	4/28	120	WGN Early Evening News	Governor Pritzker also vowing today to defeat a legal challenge over his latest stay at home order. As the Illinois statehouse sits empty, a second republican lawmaker now says he's lining up to take on the Governor in court. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is here to catch us up.
9.1	Children/Youth	4:35 PM	4/28	120	WGN Early Evening News	A community activist in Englewood is focused on helping our youngest residents who are having to say home from school. WGN's Tonya Francisco is live with how one person is making hundreds of children smile.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:02 PM	4/28	120	WGN Evening News	The state's death toll passed two-thousand today, and recorded the highest number of deaths in a single day since the outbreak started. The Governor didn't hold back in his criticism of a downstate lawmaker who sued to be exempted from the state's stay at home extension. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live with the story
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:08 PM	4/28	120	WGN Evening News	We are following breaking news this evening -- newly released video shows the confrontation that led to a police-involved shooting on the CTA red line back in February. A warning, some may find this video graphic. WGN's Erik Runge joins us live with a closer look at what happened.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Employment	5:15 PM	4/28	120	WGN Evening News	Illinois Governor JB Pritzker says the state continues to try and make it faster and easier for Illinois residents to receive unemployment benefits during the COVID-19 outbreak. Those applying for the first time say the effort needed to get those benefits, is shocking. WGN's Sean Lewis joins us with one man's struggles
9.1	Business & Industry	5:45 PM	4/28	90	WGN Evening News	As more states allow businesses to open their doors, leaders of large food suppliers are raising concerns about disruptions within the food market. Whitney Wild has more, from Washington.
9.1	Business & Industry	9:09 PM	4/28	280	WGN News at Nine	WGN Investigates has an inside look at life at O'Hare international airport. Once one of the world's busiest airports, now some areas feel like a ghost town. The airlines are crippled and employees face an uncertain future. WGN's Ben Bradley had exclusive access inside the operations of Chicago's hometown airline for a look at the impact.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:15 PM	4/28	210	WGN News at Nine	They were a couple widely known for decades on the city's northwest side. And they died within hours of each other from COVID-19. WGN's Sean Lewis joins us with the story of Irv and Muriel Kaage who were loved by all they touched.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	10:01 PM	4/28	120	WGN News at Ten	It's the fifth time in the last week, the number of new cases surpassed two-thousand. This as the Governor rips a Republican lawmaker who sued to defy the stay- at- home order extension, and a judge ruled in his favor.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:01 AM	4/29	120	WGN Early Morning News	A second state lawmaker plans to file a lawsuit against Governor Pritzker because of the stay-at-home order. He's taking it another step further.
9.1	Business & Industry	8:32 AM	4/29	120	WGN Morning News	Growing concerns about a possible meat shortage has led President Trump to step in. Nancy is live with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:01 AM	4/29	120	WGN Midday News	A cluster of COVID-19 cases being reported at another suburban developmental center. WGN's Julian Crews is live in Des Plaines with more.
9.1	Technology	11:16 AM	4/29	180	WGN Midday News	Many businesses are likely to start taking their employees' temperatures as a measure to combat COVID-19. Rich Demuro has a look at the thermal imaging technology that could help.
9.1	Education	11:33 AM	4/29	180	WGN Midday News	The pandemic is putting a big financial strain on the country's colleges and universities. Evan McMorris-Santoro looks at the impact.
9.1	Economy	11:48 AM	4/29	330	WGN Midday News	It may be time to reset you financial goals to make sure you can handle the next phase of this COVID-19 pandemic. Joining us now with advice is Richard Chew, Principal owner of 1st Capital Insurance group.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Transportation	12:28 PM	4/29	120	WGN Midday News	State police have shut down part of the Edens Expressway. WGN's Shannon Halligan is live in Skokie with the latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:37 PM	4/29	180	WGN Midday News	There has been a lot of talk about antibodies in the COVID-19 pandemic. Using antibodies to fight a virus is not new science. It's how we naturally fight infection -- the body develops antibodies that recognize the virus and attack it. Doctors use it as therapy to fight HIV, hepatitis, Zika virus. And now, SARS COV-2. But to harness antibodies for therapy, doctors need to know how much and what type of antibodies are most effective?
9.1	Community	12:48 PM	4/29	210	WGN Midday News	Dining out for life returns to Chicago but this annual event is flipping the tables this year. Hosting a virtual 'solidarity dinner' to benefit restaurants that have helped the organization in years past. Joining us with more Bryant Dunbar with the test positive aware network.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:00 PM	4/29	120	WGN Early Evening News	Let's start with that promising news on a potential treatment. The Remdesivir study was run by the National Institutes of Health. Those receiving the drug had a shorter recovery period and lower death rate. Shannon Halligan joins us live with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Housing	4:32 PM	4/29	120	WGN Early Evening News	Mayor Lori Lightfoot announcing new plans to help struggling Chicagoans keep their homes during the pandemic. Thousands of Chicagoans are trying to figure out how to make ends meet while out of work. Many can't even make rent right now. That's where the city is stepping in with a plan to ease some of the burden.
9.1	Children/Youth	4:40 PM	4/29	180	WGN Early Evening News	A video made by a group of kindergarteners is making its way around Chicago. WGN's Erin Ivory has the story of some little kids making a big difference.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:02 PM	4/29	120	WGN Evening News	One of the lives lost to the virus is a former physical education teacher and a beloved father. His daughter shares her story of losing him and how the virus is changing how we say goodbye. WGN's Tonya Francisco explains how COVID-19 has disrupted all aspects of our daily lives, including how we grieve - she joins us live.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:30 PM	4/29	120	WGN Evening News	Some questions tonight - after researchers in North Carolina revealed a dog there has tested positive for the virus. A family contracted COVID-19 in March and recovered when they participated in a research study, doctors discovered their pug tested positive as well. Joining us now to talk about the risk to family pets is Jean Shafiroff, ambassador of the American Humane Society.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:07 PM	4/29	120	WGN News at Nine	Health care workers are increasingly worried and careful about bringing home the virus when they leave work on the frontlines. One family is devastated tonight, losing a husband and father, despite taking precautions.
9.1	Government (Local)	9:10 PM	4/29	120	WGN News at Nine	Back to one of our top stories: the debate over whether Illinois lawmakers should return to Springfield. Several legislative items have been delayed because of the pandemic. There's also the question over whether lawmakers should take up Governor Pritzker's stay at home order, now that two lawsuits have been filed over it. Illinois Senate minority leader Bill Brady says if the state can make grocery shopping safe, lawmakers should find a way to return to the capitol.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:15 PM	4/29	300	WGN News at Nine	In tonight's WGN Investigates every afternoon Governor Pritzker gives us an update on the spread of the virus. If you've been keeping track-you've noticed a handful of counties have no cases. One of those is about 90 miles from Chicago. Lourdes Duarte traveled there to see what's keeping them off the list.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	9:48 PM	4/29	210	WGN News at Nine	Nearly all Illinois car dealerships remain 'open for business' during the COVID-19 crisis. They're offering all kinds of deals and financing options to entice customers. But as sales are down - many are working to lift their communities up. WGN's Mike Lowe has an example from Wauconda.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	10:13 PM	4/29	210	WGN News at Ten	WGN Investigates: 'the cost of: just in case.' Makeshift hospitals have been built in the city and suburbs. Most haven't seen a single patient. WGN Investigates' Ben Bradley has the price tag which continues to grow.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:01 AM	4/30	120	WGN Early Morning News	A surgical technologist, who dedicated his life to serving others, passed away just days before he was set to retire. Courtney Gousman is live from UIC hospital with more on his story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:06 AM	4/30	210	WGN Morning News	An experimental drug appears to be helping some COVID-19 patients recover faster. Now the Trump administration is pushing to make the drug available to patients. Joining us now from San Francisco is Doctor Alok Patel.
9.1	Employment	8:03 AM	4/30	210	WGN Morning News	The weekly report on unemployment from the department of labor shows that 3.8 million people filed for unemployment last week. Here now to discuss is, Heather Long, an economics reporter at the Washington post.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Consumer Issues	8:12 AM	4/30	210	WGN Morning News	The one place that remains open for business during the COVID-19 pandemic is the grocery store. But are shoppers putting themselves at risk? How are stores maintaining safety?
9.1	Business & Industry	9:21 AM	4/30	300	WGN Morning News	Kayla Banez is a Chicago area business woman and mother. And she's got advice for so many others who are struggling right now.
9.1	Employment	11:01 AM	4/30	90	WGN Midday News	The largest steel company in the world is reportedly laying off nearly one-thousand employees at two plants in Northwest Indiana due to COVID-19. WGN's Nancy Loo is in Burns Harbor with details.
9.1	Consumer Issues	11:17 AM	4/30	120	WGN Midday News	Grocery shopping has been more challenging with social distancing and sold out items. But there are ways to make your next trip to the store easier. Mandy Gaither has more
9.1	Housing	11:29 AM	4/30	120	WGN Midday News	Some of the protections given to those who can't afford rent and house payments during the pandemic are set to expire when Illinois' stay-at-home order is lifted. Now, rent control and tenants' rights groups are putting pressure on Governor Pritzker and Mayor Lightfoot to extend payment grace periods. WGN's Julian Crews is live at Daley Plaza where a protest is going on.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Employment	11:33 AM	4/30	210	WGN Midday News	Some businesses are trying to reopen in states that are allowing them to. And employers are finding themselves trying to convince workers that it's safe to come in. Vanessa Yurkevich has more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:47 AM	4/30	150	WGN Midday News	Have you been having wild dreams during this pandemic? So many are reporting vivid and disturbing images invading their dreams. And like being stuck inside in this troubling time, you are not alone in your sleep challenges. This midday, here is your dream guide.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:25 PM	4/30	150	WGN Midday News	One of the greatest hopes for treatment right now is convalescent plasma. It's been around for 100 years - using the antibodies from someone who has recovered from an infectious disease to help another patient still inflicted with the same infection. But the promising therapy depends on donors and right now they are in short supply.
9.1	Community	12:38 PM	4/30	150	WGN Midday News	A west suburban community is rallying behind an 11-year-old boy who is in recovery after being hit by a train last month. Maxx Kusper's mom says he was jogging and listening to music when he turned into an oncoming train at the Prairie Crossing in Brookfield. As WGN's Sarah Jindra reports, his family and community members are rallying around Maxx and finding new ways to show their support.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:14 PM	4/30	120	WGN Early Evening News	The Chicago Police Department is restructuring and reopening two of its command centers across the city. WGN's Marcella Raymond joins us now with more on that.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:28 PM	4/30	240	WGN Early Evening News	Now to a WGN Investigates- If you've been keeping track of the COVID outbreak You've noticed a handful of Illinois counties have no cases. One of those is about 90 miles from Chicago. It's easy to say rural areas are not as dense, keeping the virus from spreading. But there are rural areas all over Illinois that have cases. So what's going on in Putnam County for example? They have zero cases. The regions health department thinks it's just a matter of time before one pops up.
9.1	Economy	4:40 PM	4/30	210	WGN Early Evening News	And the economic fallout continues, with restaurants and bars seeing drastic declines in sales. Now, the city is starting to lose some of the staples of the local economy. WGN's Mike Lowe reports from Streeterville.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:00 PM	4/30	150	WGN Early Evening News	The number of COVID-19 cases is skyrocketing in Chicago's Latino communities. WGN's Lourdes Duarte joins us with the story.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:09 PM	4/30	120	WGN Evening News	Governor Pritzker's stay- at-home order will have some modifications beginning tomorrow. WGN's Gaynor Hall joins us live with that part of our coverage.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:35 PM	4/30	120	WGN Evening News	A Hyde Park restaurant known for giving away thousands of free meals to those in need, was robbed at gunpoint last night. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us live at Litehouse Whole Food Grill to explain the impact the robbery had on the restaurant.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:00 PM	4/30	120	WGN Evening News	It appeared a young woman recovered from a case of COVID-19. But after she died suddenly, doctors diagnosed a blood clot. WGN's Dana Rebik joins us with a look at the developing connection and its impact on one family
9.1	Education	9:04 PM	4/30	120	WGN News at Nine	Chicago public school students could face big changes in the way they are evaluated because of the pandemic. WGN's Gaynor Hall joins us live with the story.
9.1	Children/Youth	9:15 PM	4/30	120	WGN News at Nine	Expectant parents always have a lot to worry about-- without a pandemic going on. WGN's Dana Rebik joins us with the story of two parents, two babies and one virus.
9.1	Government (Local)	9:17 PM	4/30	240	WGN News at Nine	Now, an update to a story WGN Investigates broke earlier this year the mayor of Markham has been working to close some of the south suburb's seedier spots, including an adult swingers club that's been open for more than three decades. And when the stay-at-home order is lifted, they hope to party on. Ben Bradley has the update

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	10:15 PM	4/30	150	WGN News at Ten	When Illinois caught wind that the COVID-19 virus from Wuhan was making its way to the Midwest, authorities went into action. The first effort, to save lives. Another, to deliver dignity to the dead. And, that's where the Cook County medical examiner's office came in doing its part by learning from the past and opening up a surge center to ease overcrowding. More from WGN's Julie Unruh.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:00 AM	5/1	120	WGN Early Morning News	Starting today, everyone will be required to wear a mask in public places. It's part of Governor Pritzker's modified stay-at-home order. Judy Wang is live at a golf course in Romeoville with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/1	120	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Government (Local)	8:30 AM	5/1	90	WGN Morning News	As businesses in 31 states begin gradually reopening, there's a big push to get Illinois back open. Nancy is live at the Thompson Center with more

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Children/Youth	11:20 AM	5/1	210	WGN Midday News	May is Mental Health Awareness Month and the non-profit organization "Erika's Lighthouse" is encouraging everyone to take the "Positivity Pledge". The group says the nation's teenagers may need some help steering clear of depression as we navigate this COVID-19 pandemic. Joining us now is Brandon Combs, the executive director of Erika's Lighthouse.
9.1	Transportation	11:34 AM	5/1	120	WGN Midday News	The COVID-19 pandemic has crippled so many parts of the economy. Among those hurt are the essential workers who bring us our food and supplies every day, the truck drivers. Ryan Jenkins has more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:43 AM	5/1	150	WGN Midday News	To say it's difficult to deal with COVID-19 is an understatement. And those who've been there and battled back know first-hand.
9.1	Politics	12:00 PM	5/1	120	WGN Midday News	Demonstrations for and against Illinois' stay-at-home order are taking place right now at the Thompson Center. WGN's Nancy Loo is live with details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:25 PM	5/1	120	WGN Midday News	You may be concerned about oral health while you are sheltering at home. Dentistry is defined by close contact with patients, and distancing in the era of COVID-19 poses new challenges. From the air down to the water, a local doctor is bringing high tech infection control to his neighborhood office

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Elderly	4:32 PM	5/1	180	WGN Early Evening News	WGN Investigates: sick seniors stuck in limbo. Those who've been infected with COVID-19, were hospitalized and recovered, 'now' worry about whether it's safe to return to their nursing home. Especially, at a home with an ongoing outbreak.
9.1	Minority Issues	4:36 PM	5/1	120	WGN Early Evening News	A follow-up to a story you saw first on WGN yesterday - the sudden spike in confirmed COVID-19 cases in predominately Latino neighborhoods. Today the numbers showed an even bigger gap - making Latinos now the largest group with confirmed COVID-19 cases.
9.1	Community	4:45 PM	5/1	150	WGN Early Evening News	A woman in suburban Elk Grove Village says she's barely left her kitchen in weeks because of the coronavirus. She's known by many as "the cookie queen." WGN's Erin Ivory has the story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:06 PM	5/1	150	WGN Evening News	As public health officials battle COVID-19, police continue to fight Chicago's violence epidemic. But today they announced some progress since the virus hit. WGN's Meghan Dwyer joins us with the latest.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	6:20 PM	5/1	150	WGN Evening News	Greg Zanis created crosses for losses to honor victims of gun violence. Now as he nears the end of his life from terminal cancer, the tributes are for him. A caravan of cars made their way to aurora to show him how his life's work impacted them. WGN's Gaynor Hall has the story
9.1	Community	6:34 PM	5/1	120	WGN Evening News	A suburban food pantry got some much-needed help today - as it struggles to keep up with increased demand. WGN's Marcella Raymond has the story.
9.1	Business & Industry	9:16 PM	5/1	270	WGN News at Nine	Just what effect are those closures having on Illinois farmers? To find out, we traveled to Western Illinois, and met with a farmer who told us the longer this goes on, the harder it's going to get and it could include some very difficult decisions.
9.1	Community	9:46 PM	5/1	210	WGN News at Nine	He has run a successful restaurant and catering business for 20 years. But with restaurants taking the brunt of the financial hit amid the COVID 19 pandemic, this Chicago chef discovered a new way of doing business and helping others in the process. Mario Santiago is one of Chicago's Very Own.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	10:04 PM	5/1	210	WGN News at Ten	McCormick place, which was set up as an alternate care facility during the pandemic, will not accept any more new patients. Officials say the extra space is no longer needed, now that the growth of COVID-19 is slowing in Illinois. WGN's Dana Rebik is here with details on that and more on a lawsuit now filed against the governor, the state health department and a local nursing home.
9.1	Community	8:43 AM	5/2	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	Traditional weddings across the country are being canceled in the wake of a global pandemic. Leaving many couples across the country looking for creative ways to solidify their love while adhering to social distancing guidelines. Event planner Frank Andonoplas joins us with suggestions.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:11 AM	5/2	300	WGN Weekend Morning News	Amy Krouse Rosenthal was a local author and filmmaker who touched so many with her heartbreaking essay in the New York Times titled: "You may want to marry my husband." It was read by over five million people. She wrote it just days before losing her battle to ovarian cancer in 2017. Now her husband Jason Rosenthal is sharing his insight about love, loss and living again in his new memoir. The book is called "My Wife Said You May Want to Marry Me."

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Elderly	9:33 AM	5/2	180	WGN Weekend Morning News	The senior class at Maine West High School is showing love to another group of seniors. Senior citizens. Marcella Raymond joins us live from Des Plaines with the story
9.1	Community	5:06 PM	5/2	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Temperatures in the upper seventies. Blue skies and sunshine. A perfect day for a farmer's market But, as we know, it's different this year due to the coronavirus. WGN's Judy Wang went to a farmer's market in Palatine today.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:23 PM	5/2	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	It's the first weekend with the state's new mask mandate in place. Many people seem to be playing by the rules. WGN's Sean Lewis has that story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:31 PM	5/2	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Another testing option tonight for Illinois residents. This one opened today in Waukegan. WGN's Meghan Dwyer joins live with that part of our coverage.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:05 PM	5/2	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	A south side pastor says it's not just concerns for the physical health of long term care patients but their mental health as well. Retired Pastor Richard Redmond is asking the Governor to work toward universal facetime. Basically reaching out loved ones in these facilities for virtual face-to-face connections

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	10:00 PM	5/2	120	WGN Weekend News at Ten	With warmer temperatures this weekend - the mayor is sounding the alarm once again urging people to stay home and warning that there will be consequences for anyone hosting or attending large parties.
9.1	Government (National)	10:10 PM	5/2	90	WGN Weekend News at Ten	With no sign of the pandemic letting up soon, some in congress say its time figure out a way for lawmakers to vote from home. Trevor Shirley has that story from Washington.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:02 AM	5/3	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	With temperatures warming up Crowds of people have been meeting out in the streets for illegal parties. Police shut several of them down this weekend. Judy Wang is live at police headquarters with the latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:50 AM	5/3	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Sports league around the world have had to postpone their spring season because of the COVID-19 pandemic. However the world axe throwing league made some adjustments and got creative to keep their season alive. Lauren Magiera has the story
9.1	Community	5:23 PM	5/3	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Community outreach groups across our area are doing their part to lessen the burden for hard-hit families. For one Kane county family, the help could not have come at a better time. WGN's Marcella Raymond reports.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:32 PM	5/3	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Another drive-through COVID-19 testing facility has opened in the far northern suburbs, and it's already seeing big lines. WGN's Judy Wang has more from Waukegan.
9.1	Economy	5:34 PM	5/3	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	More states plan to loosen restrictions on businesses during the coming week, trying to mitigate the economic fallout caused by the pandemic. Meanwhile, a top economic adviser to the president says there could be another round of relief for small businesses. Karin Caifa has the latest from Washington
9.1	Business & Industry	5:42 PM	5/3	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A recent graduate of the University of Illinois is putting her business degree to work with a plan that helps frontline workers and local businesses struggling during the COVID-19 shutdown. WGN's Sean Lewis has the story.
9.1	Employment	9:15 PM	5/3	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Small business truckers from across the nation hit the streets of Washington, DC, this weekend to protest low pay. They say brokers are charging unfair load rates for the delivery of essentials goods. Anna Wiernicki reports the truckers want the government to intervene.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	10:07 PM	5/3	120	WGN Weekend News at Ten	Some northeast states are teaming up to be prepared for a possible fall surge. This comes amid word of a possible vaccine by the end of this year and as president Trump inflates his earlier estimate of US deaths.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	10:22 PM	5/3	150	WGN Weekend News at Ten	To say it's difficult to deal with COVID-19 is an understatement. And those who've been there and battled back know first-hand. WGN's Dina Bair spoke with a patient and a doctor about the recovery process.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	5/4	120	WGN Early Morning News	Chicago police had to break up multiple gatherings over the weekend, as people defied the stay-at-home order.
9.1	Technology	8:06 AM	5/4	180	WGN Morning News	Scientists at Northwestern University and the "Shirley Ryan Ability lab" have come up with a wearable COVID-19 tracker. Its developers say a wireless sensor can detect early signs of COVID-19 before you notice any symptoms. Joining us now is ER physician and best-selling author Doctor Jeffrey Sterling
9.1	Children/Youth	8:15 AM	5/4	150	WGN Morning News	All Illinois residents, over the age of two, are now required to wear a face mask when they can't maintain a 6-foot distance in public. Jamie Scholl, a child life specialist at Shriners Hospitals for children, joins us now with how to properly put on and take off a mask.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	National Security	8:32 AM	5/4	210	WGN Morning News	A report from the Department of Homeland Security intelligence says leaders in China intentionally concealed the severity of the COVID-19 pandemic from the world. The report also says China held off on informing the World Health Organization that COVID-19 was a contagion. Joining us now is WGN political analyst, Paul Lisnek.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:00 AM	5/4	120	WGN Midday News	Judy Wang is live in Englewood, where a new COVID-19 testing site opened this morning.
9.1	Technology	11:25 AM	5/4	150	WGN Midday News	Working at home means good Wi-Fi is a must. Rich Demuro has some tips for getting the most out of your home internet connection.
9.1	Government (Local)	11:30 AM	5/4	120	WGN Midday News	Indiana is reopening nearly every county today except for some of the larger ones. Meghan Dwyer has more on what's open and what's still closed.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:43 AM	5/4	150	WGN Midday News	To say it's difficult to deal with COVID-19 is an understatement and those who've been there and battled back know first-hand. I recently spoke with a patient and a doctor about the recovery process.
9.1	Government (Local)	4:00 PM	5/4	150	WGN Early Evening News	Cautious optimism from Governor J.B. Pritzker today, as he revealed COVID-19 hospitalization rates are dropping. The Governor also announcing a state-wide program to help keep front line workers safe. WGN's Patrick Elwood joins us live now with more

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	4:16 PM	5/4	150	WGN Early Evening News	Greg Zanis, the Aurora carpenter whose handmade crosses came to symbolize grief in the wake of tragedy, died today after a year-long struggle with cancer.
9.1	Consumer Issues	4:25 PM	5/4	120	WGN Early Evening News	Members of the Senate banking committee are issuing a warning for US investors -- be careful when investing in Chinese companies. Some of these investments could be going to fund illegal activities. Jessi Turnure has more from Washington.
9.1	Community	4:38 PM	5/4	180	WGN Early Evening News	A local company is helping cooped up kids all over Chicago. WGN's Erin Ivory joins us from home with the story
9.1	Government (Local)	5:05 PM	5/4	150	WGN Evening News	The COVID-19 pandemic has brought business across the state to a halt. And, the Illinois capitol is no exception. With the spring legislative session on hold, lawmakers are looking at new ways to piece together a budget. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is here with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:20 PM	5/4	150	WGN Evening News	In the middle of saving lives, two Chicago ER doctors begin their lives together. They took their wedding vows yesterday. WGN's Sean Lewis is live outside of the old Cook County hospital with their love story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	5:32 PM	5/4	120	WGN Evening News	A suburban eyeglass shop is seeing a clear way to help health care workers on the front lines of the fight against COVID-19. WGN's Tonya Francisco joins us now with more on that story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:36 PM	5/4	120	WGN Evening News	Former Cub Andre Dawson, is missing baseball more than ever, Just like the rest of us this time of year. But Dawson is keeping himself more than busy running his funeral home in Miami. During the pandemic, it has its new challenges. Ones he never thought he would find himself facing. Julie Unruh caught up with the Hall of Famer.
9.1	Legal Matters	6:02 PM	5/4	150	WGN Evening News	Like everything else-- COVID 19 is having an impact on parental custody rights. The courts are being asked to rule on new issues caused by the coronavirus. Erik Runge joins us with a look at how that may affect visitation schedules.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:11 PM	5/4	300	WGN News at Nine	The numbers are updated - every day. The number of COVID 19 cases, and the number of deaths, which continue to climb. The National Guard has been deployed to help transport the bodies. But perhaps the biggest responsibility at this 'end point' of the pandemic, lies with the Cook County Medical Examiner determining the cause of death, any underlying symptoms, protecting its own staff members and more than anything, making sure the victims are treated with dignity. Tonight, 'WGN Investigates' talks with the ME, to see how her office is dealing with all the challenges.
9.1	Community	9:17 PM	5/4	120	WGN News at Nine	Tonight a suburban family is worried a cougar may be prowling around their backyard in Gurnee. WGN's Sean Lewis joins us in the studio with the story.
9.1	Elderly	8:30 AM	5/6	120	WGN Morning News	Community activists are calling for emergency action to protect seniors as the number of COVID-19 outbreaks at nursing homes increase. Nancy is in Westchester, where 12 people have died at a facility there.
9.1	Education	11:14 AM	5/6	270	WGN Midday News	It's National Teacher Appreciation Week and some local educators were surprised with personal zoom calls from President Barak Obama.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:25 AM	5/6	150	WGN Midday News	It's National Nurses Day which kicks off National Nurses Week which ends on may twelfth. And it's no coincidence the 12th marks the birthday of Florence Nightingale, who's known as the founder of modern nursing.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:42 AM	5/6	150	WGN Midday News	The fear of COVID-19 has prompted many parents to keep their kids close Inside the house away from other people. But sadly many are also keeping their children away from the doctor. And that could do more harm than the coronavirus itself.
9.1	Environment	11:50 AM	5/6	240	WGN Midday News	If you have a green thumb your home garden can help those in need. Bonnie Plants has partnered with Ample Harvest dot org to launch a new initiative. Joining us now with details is Gary Oppenheimer, Founder and Executive Director of Ample Harvest dot org.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:27 PM	5/6	120	WGN Midday News	The more doctors study SARS COV-2, the more they realize it not only makes it difficult to breathe, it makes the blood clot. Now, the finding is driving a change in the approach to treatment.
9.1	Environment	12:38 PM	5/6	300	WGN Midday News	At a time when most people are obsessed with washing their hands, one Chicago man doesn't mind getting his a little dirty. This midday, WGN's Mike Lowe introduces us to a gardener who's helping his neighborhood breathe a little easier.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	4:08 PM	5/6	120	WGN Early Evening News	A city-wide black community coalition gives CPS an "f" when it comes to ensuring black students have access to the resources they need during the pandemic. WGN's Tonya Francisco is live outside Dyett High School on the south side with the story
9.1	Minority Issues	4:30 PM	5/6	120	WGN Early Evening News	In Chicago, officials say an increase in COVID-19 testing, is leading to troubling new data in the city's Latino communities. Today, Mayor Lori Lightfoot announced a new effort to reach residents who might be at risk. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is at City Hall with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:38 PM	5/6	180	WGN Early Evening News	It's been nearly a month since a local husband and wife have seen one another as both were diagnosed with COVID-19 and hospitalized. WGN's Erin Ivory joins us live from home with their story.
9.1	Education	5:11 PM	5/6	180	WGN Evening News	A place that would normally be bustling with high school students, is now deserted. It's a working farm and someone has to take care of the animals. WGN's Patrick Elwood joins us live with that story.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:23 PM	5/6	180	WGN Evening News	Amid the pandemic, small businesses are suffering greatly. It means one west suburban indoor ice rink may never re-open. Julie Unruh is here with that story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Consumer Issues	5:35 PM	5/6	120	WGN Evening News	You'll be paying a premium as you fire up your grill this season. A meat shortage is driving up prices. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us live to explain what you can expect.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:00 PM	5/6	120	WGN Evening News	New at six -- a woman from Chicago is fighting cancer while beating COVID-19 and tonight she's sharing her story as she mourns the loss of her boyfriend, who wasn't as fortunate in his fight against the virus. Dana Rebik is here now with her story.
9.1	Transportation	6:22 PM	5/6	120	WGN Evening News	Many airline industry experts say its unlikely most Americans will feel comfortable flying - or even have the money to travel - anytime soon.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:30 PM	5/6	120	WGN Evening News	A group of politicians and families of people living in long-term care facilities say most places aren't doing enough to slow the spread of COVID-19. Ben Bradley takes a look at the problems facing residents and workers inside these facilities.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:00 PM	5/6	120	WGN News at Nine	A young mother is the latest victim of COVID 19 in Chicago. She worked at a nursing home in uptown. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live with the story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Technology	9:45 PM	5/6	300	WGN News at Nine	Broadband internet service has become a must-have during the pandemic. Hard to believe that there are households in Chicago still operating without it. WGN's Lourdes Duarte has more on a report that puts the spotlight on what is happening in some of our poorest neighborhoods.
9.1	Elderly	6:32 AM	5/6	120	WGN Morning News	Community activists are calling for emergency action to protect seniors as the number of COVID-19 outbreaks at nursing homes increase. Nancy Loo is in Westchester, where 12 people have died at a facility there.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:01 AM	5/7	150	WGN Early Morning News	Governor Pritzker is facing pushback from state and local leaders on his plan to reopen the state. Courtney Gousman joins us live with more.
9.1	Employment	5:31 AM	5/7	150	WGN Early Morning News	Developing this morning: an agreement is reached, avoiding a strike by nursing home workers. Nancy Loo is live with more.
9.1	Employment	8:03 AM	5/7	210	WGN Morning News	The weekly unemployment numbers are out this morning And nearly three point two million people filed for unemployment benefits last week. Joining us now to discuss is, CEO of LaSalle network Tom Gimbel.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:17 AM	5/7	210	WGN Morning News	Happy hour is happening at home now, and for some people, it's turned into an all-day affair Medical experts say drinking habits have drastically changed, and we could be on the verge of another public health crisis. Joining us now is Doctor Thomas Britton, president and CEO of the Gateway foundation which helps people battle addiction
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:34 AM	5/7	240	WGN Morning News	February took some unexpected turns for Sonny Sultani. He launched his new business. His father needed surgery. His grandmother died. And on a crowded flight back from Dallas is where Sultani suspects he contracted COVID-19. Almost 14 days after returning home, he started experiencing shortness of breath and fatigue. He isolated himself from his wife and two children And spent six weeks recovering. And Sonny Sultani joins us live to share more on his recovery story.
9.1	Children/Youth	11:31 AM	5/7	240	WGN Midday News	A mysterious illness is affecting children who've previously had COVID-19. Doctors say it's been detected in Chicago and are now warning parents on what they should be looking out for. WGN's Julian Crews joins us live from advocate Lutheran General Hospital in Park Ridge where a six-year-old boy is fighting the illness.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:47 AM	5/7	300	WGN Midday News	In today's midday fix, expert help for those of us who just can't take another bad hair day. Celebrity hairstylist Michael Duenas has some tips for us. Michael is also with co-founder of "support creatives" An initiative to help out-of-work stylists.
9.1	Employment	12:20 PM	5/7	210	WGN Midday News	Now accepting applications - a contact tracing training program at Oakton Community College is working to track and stop the spread of COVID-19. Joining us now with more on the program Oakton's Vice President for Academic Affairs Doctor Ileo Lott.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:08 PM	5/7	120	WGN Early Evening News	In the northwest suburbs- a huge mask give-away continues in Schaumburg. The village will give away 70 thousand masks in all this week. WGN's Julian Crews is live with more.
9.1	Employment	4:16 PM	5/7	180	WGN Early Evening News	The number of job cuts continue to set records as the pandemic wears on. Joining us now is Andrew Challenger, he's the senior vice president of "Challenger, Gray and Christmas"
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:35 PM	5/7	180	WGN Early Evening News	Gyms across Illinois are getting in shape and looking forward to reopening to customers in the near future. WGN's Mike Lowe is live in River North with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:07 PM	5/7	120	WGN Evening News	A hospital on Chicago's west side was gifted a rapid COVID19 test machine. But for more than a month now, the machine has sat unused. WGN'S Shannon Halligan explains why.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	5:25 PM	5/7	150	WGN Evening News	These are challenging times for non-profits that depend on donations to stay afloat. But as WGN's Gaynor Hall discovered, they're finding creative ways to keep funds coming in.
9.1	Economy	6:03 PM	5/7	150	WGN Evening News	For weeks, all eyes have been on hospitals: their life saving efforts performed by health care workers commonly referred to as heroes. But the sad reality is that when the dust settles, hospitals nationwide will be suffering badly like so many other businesses. Right now they are hemorrhaging money by the day. WGN's Julie Unruh is here with a closer look.
9.1	Politics	6:10 PM	5/7	180	WGN Evening News	Developing tonight: The Justice Department drops the criminal case against Michael Flynn. Joining us now to talk about the latest developments is WGN Political Analyst Paul Lisnek.
9.1	Education	6:30 PM	5/7	120	WGN Evening News	As the COVID-19 crisis forces schools to go virtual, it's impacting how children with special needs are learning. WGN's Marcella Raymond joins us live with how the parents of two children with autism are trying to find a solution.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:01 PM	5/7	120	WGN News at Nine	Employees say they weren't told about a COVID-19 outbreak at their suburban Carpentersville meat plant. Tonight: we talk to a woman whose son and boyfriend work at the plant - - she says all three of them have now tested positive for the virus.
9.1	Religion	9:04 PM	5/7	150	WGN News at Nine	Plans are in place to re-open the state's economy when the COVID-19 curve turns downward. But what about the houses of worship? WGN's Dana Rebik joins us with the story of another Illinois church ready to get back to worshipping - despite the governor's stay at home order.
9.1	Economy	6:31 AM	5/8	120	WGN Morning News	Later today, Mayor Lightfoot is expected to lay out her plans to reopen Chicago's economy. Kelly Davis joins us live with what we can expect.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:06 AM	5/8	120	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Employment	8:05 AM	5/8	120	WGN Morning News	The April jobs report was released this morning -- and 20-point-5 million jobs were lost in April. Joining us now to discuss the latest jobs report is Michael Miller, a professor of economics at DePaul University.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	11:02 AM	5/8	150	WGN Midday News	Mayor Lori Lightfoot will unveil plans this afternoon to re-open Chicago's economy. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us live with details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:16 AM	5/8	180	WGN Midday News	Typically, therapy dogs are sent to places devastated by disaster in some way. Now, as everything around us changes during this pandemic those comfort pups are helping those in need virtually. Joining us now to explain is Ann Davidson with the "Canine Therapy Corps".
9.1	Minority Issues	11:30 AM	5/8	120	WGN Midday News	Illinois senator Dick Durbin is back at Roseland hospital on the south side, pushing for more information on the high percentage of African Americans hit by COVID-19. WGN's Julian Crews is live at the hospital with details.
9.1	Technology	11:47 AM	5/8	150	WGN Midday News	Living rooms across the country have become home stages. Rich Demuro explains in today's Tech Smart.
9.1	Employment	12:21 PM	5/8	150	WGN Midday News	Joining us via skype to unpack the jobs numbers, Bianco Research President, Jim Bianco.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:27 PM	5/8	150	WGN Midday News	Severe vitamin D deficiency appears to play a significant role in COVID-19 patient outcomes. Micah Materre has the story

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Religion	4:08 PM	5/8	120	WGN Early Evening News	Two Chicago area churches are challenging Governor Pritzker's stay at home order in court. They argue his rules on churches are unconstitutional. WGN's Meghan Dwyer has been looking into this story and joins us now with more.
9.1	Community	4:40 PM	5/8	120	WGN Early Evening News	A laid-off lunchroom aide is behind one of this year's hottest mother's day gifts. WGN's Erin Ivory joins us live from home with the story.
9.1	Employment	5:07 PM	5/8	120	WGN Evening News	The latest unemployment numbers released today; marking the highest unemployment rate since the Great Depression. WGN'S Shannon Halligan breaks down the numbers.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:13 PM	5/8	120	WGN Evening News	More than two months after an unarmed black man in Georgia was shot and killed while jogging A father and son have been charged with his murder. Emily Schmidt has more on what brought about the arrests - and why the men won't face hate crime charges.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:25 PM	5/8	150	WGN Evening News	Don't come here. That's the message from Wisconsin. The state's leaders want to limit outside exposure to COVID-19. But for many of those who own summer homes in Wisconsin, it's a frustrating message. WGN's Marcella Raymond has that story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	5:40 PM	5/8	240	WGN Evening News	Restaurants are among the hardest hit businesses during this pandemic and under the governor's current plan. They wouldn't begin to reopen until the end of June. But the Illinois restaurant association says waiting that long could spell disaster for many restaurants. President Sam Toia joins us to talk about it.
9.1	Government (Local)	9:03 PM	5/8	240	WGN News at Nine	This afternoon mayor Lori Lightfoot laid out her plan to re-open Chicago for business. She warned, it will be a slow process. WGN's Gaynor Hall has the details.
9.1	Business & Industry	9:13 PM	5/8	120	WGN News at Nine	Great news tonight for people living in McHenry County. They have a place to go to that's not their home! A drive-in movie theater was allowed to reopen and WGN's Dana Rebik is there for us live.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:45 PM	5/8	240	WGN News at Nine	It is the largest African American owned architecture firm in the nation. From universities to healthcare facilities, "Moody Nolan" has taken part in a variety of structures that make our city what it is today. But the company is also dedicated to building a diverse team of employees. Meet the Moody Nolan team, they are Chicago's Very Own.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	8:37 AM	5/9	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	A flower shop in Albany Park is now open for mother's day, after being shut down for weeks because of the pandemic. But, it's not business as usual. Marcella Raymond is live at Bonnie flower shop, to explain.
9.1	Employment	9:10 AM	5/9	300	WGN Weekend Morning News	Analysts say job growth could resume by Memorial Day, as businesses across the country start to reopen. Joining us now with tips for navigating unemployment and sprucing up your resume is Susan Weinstock, a vice president at the AARP.
9.1	Women's Issues	9:40 PM	5/9	270	WGN Weekend Morning News	The COVID-19 pandemic rapidly changed the day-to-day lives of many working mothers. Their new challenge, being a working parent and a teacher to their stay-at-home children. Their new duties includes monitoring their kids' e-learning and preparing lunches. Joining us now via facetime with some tips for moms looking for balance in their lives is lifestyle expert and inspirational author Maisha Wynn.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:01 PM	5/9	270	WGN Weekend Evening News	The National Association of Letter Carriers honored a fellow employee who became the first active letter carrier in Chicago to die of COVID-19. 31-year old Unique Clay died four days ago, and as WGN's Judy Wang tells us, family and co-workers are questioning why she had to die.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:05 PM	5/9	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	The rate of new coronavirus cases and hospitalizations continue to fall in New York, but there are new concerns about the virus. Three children have now died due to what may be a COVID-19 related illness. Karin Caifa has that story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:07 PM	5/9	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A Wooddale family is recovering from COVID-19 tonight after a two month battle with the virus. They shared their story with WGN's Meghan Dwyer who joins us live.
9.1	Children/Youth	5:30 PM	5/9	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Mayor Lori Lightfoot has made it clear that she wants Chicago residents to stay home during the COVID-19 pandemic. But she says she's concerned younger people aren't paying attention. So she's changing her approach. WGN's Gaynor Hall is live with the mayor's message.
9.1	Economy	5:43 PM	5/9	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Even though the second round of relief aid for small business loans have not yet run out Democrats fear the paycheck protection program money is not reaching the businesses and communities most in need. A new survey by the US Chamber of Commerce indicates the loans approved so far will not be enough and is urging congress to do more. Washington correspondent Raquel Martin reports.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	9:01 PM	5/9	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	The pandemic is having a devastating economic impact. This week, the US reported unemployment levels not seen since the great depression. We learned tonight a local restaurant with a long history is among the businesses unable to survive. WGN's Gaynor Hall is live with the story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:14 PM	5/9	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Mixed news for an early coronavirus hotspot. New York Governor Andrew Cuomo says the numbers related to the virus are going down however, there is a deadly new discovery affecting children. It all comes as more states ease restrictions
9.1	Minority Issues	9:18 PM	5/9	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	The Centers for Disease Control show that COVID patients of color are dying at much higher rates. As Joe Khalil reports from Washington-- lawmakers are now taking unprecedented steps to understand why.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	10:26 PM	5/9	150	WGN Weekend News at Nine	It's National Nurses week, and for twins Samantha and Rebecca Silverman, they deserve double recognition --they're working side-by-side on the frontlines and leaning on one another just as they have for their entire lives. Dina Bair reports

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (National)	5:03 PM	5/10	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	President Trump is urging states to move ahead with reopening to help the US economy recovery. But a key projection of coronavirus deaths has been raised, bringing more debate over how to proceed. Karin Caifa has the latest from Washington.
9.1	Religion	5:07 PM	5/10	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Churches in Indiana resumed services today as part of the state's first step at reopening. While some chose to remain closed - others opened their doors. Judy Wang has more from Valparaiso
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:26 PM	5/10	180	WGN Weekend Evening News	She was running a bakery on the city's north side, when the pandemic called her back to the front lines. WGN's Sean Lewis has the story of a baker who traded her apron for scrubs, to help the community.
9.1	Elderly	5:33 PM	5/10	150	WGN Weekend Evening News	Protecting seniors on mother's day - a group of activists is sounding the alarm over COVID-19 concerns at senior homes. They're highlighting the lack of 'personal protective equipment' at those facilities. WGN's Mike Lowe reports from little village.
9.1	Community	5:42 PM	5/10	150	WGN Weekend Evening News	A west suburban catering company jumped into action when the COVID-19 pandemic hit. They wanted to do something that would really make an impact. Marcella Raymond has the story from Lombard.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:15 PM	5/10	150	WGN Weekend News at Nine	As the White House and congress debate what they should do next to help the US economy recover, at least 47 states loosened their coronavirus restrictions. But as President Trump urges states to move ahead, coronavirus concerns hit closer to home.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:00 AM	5/11	120	WGN Early Morning News	Indiana is taking another step today to slowly reopen its economy. Courtney Gousman is live in Chesterton with more.
9.1	Government (National)	6:04 AM	5/11	90	WGN Morning News	The Senate is expected to begin hearings this week on the Trump administration's response to the COVID-19 pandemic. But several top health officials will have to participate remotely after being forced to self-isolate
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:06 AM	5/11	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:13 AM	5/11	150	WGN Morning News	A lot of people are working from home now And that means sitting at your kitchen table or on your couch, hunched over your computer Which can lead to all kinds of aches and pains. But there are some simple techniques you can use, to get more comfortable in your home office Mike Hovi, a clinical massage instructor and the program director at the Soma institute in Chicago, joins us now.
9.1	Government (Local)	11:01 AM	5/11	150	WGN Midday News	Governor Pritzker is calling for more contact tracing of COVID-19 patients in Illinois, to help stop the spread of the virus. WGN's Judy Wang is live at the Thompson Center, with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	11:30 AM	5/11	120	WGN Midday News	Another Cook County correctional officer has died from complications from COVID-19. WGN's Meghan Dwyer has the latest.
9.1	Government (National)	11:34 AM	5/11	120	WGN Midday News	The Trump administration is scrambling to contain a coronavirus outbreak. Not just in the nation, but in the actual White House. The vice president's press secretary and a valet to the president have both tested positive. Joe Johns reports the medical and political fallout have already had a serious impact.
9.1	Technology	11:45 AM	5/11	150	WGN Midday News	Looking for a smart fitness device that won't break the bank? Rich Demuro has some suggestions at prices that can't be beat.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Children/Youth	11:47 AM	5/11	450	WGN Midday News	If your family is getting a little more stressed or bored, it may be time to mix things up with an updated family game night. Joining us now with a few gaming ideas is Chris Byrne "the toy guy".
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:08 PM	5/11	150	WGN Early Evening News	A Chicago police department deputy chief shares his story of surviving COVID-19 on what begins national police week. WGN's Patrick Elwood spoke to the officer.
9.1	Legal Matters	4:18 PM	5/11	180	WGN Early Evening News	WGN Investigates has obtained a letter written from prison by the woman responsible for the single biggest 'theft of public money' case in state history. Former Dixon comptroller Rita Crundwell admits she stole more than 50 million dollars from the Northwestern Illinois community. Now she wants 'out' of prison because of the threat posed by COVID 19.
9.1	Religion	5:27 PM	5/11	180	WGN Evening News	At least two Chicago churches defied public orders, and held Sunday services this weekend. One of them is a church that has filed a lawsuit challenging Governor Pritzker's stay-at-home order. Tonya Francisco spoke to one of the pastors today, and joins us live with his reasoning.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Politics	5:38 PM	5/11	120	WGN Evening News	As the presidential campaign has gone "virtual" during the coronavirus lockdown, president Trump and likely democratic presidential nominee Joe Biden are continuing to campaign from home. But the republican national committee says it will draw the line at voting from home, promising a nationwide effort to fight mail-in ballots.
9.1	Government (Local)	9:03 PM	5/11	180	WGN News at Nine	Today Governor Pritzker and his office joined the millions working from home. This after a senior staff member tested positive for COVID-19. WGN's Sean Lewis joins us with more from the governor's press conference and a major announcement about the drug Remdesivir.
9.1	Elderly	9:05 PM	5/11	180	WGN News at Nine	The deadly disease keeps racing through nursing homes. Nearly half of the known deaths in Illinois are linked to long term care facilities. WGN's Erik Runge joins us live now with that story.
9.1	Government (Local)	9:11 PM	5/11	180	WGN News at Nine	New at nine: the mayor of Elmhurst calling the governor's plan to reopen the economy unfair. He says Elmhurst is ready to go now and should not have to wait for other areas to catch up. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live with the story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (National)	6:30 AM	5/12	120	WGN Morning News	President Trump's infectious disease expert is set to testify today before a Senate committee. Nancy is live with a preview.
9.1	Economy	11:16 AM	5/12	240	WGN Midday News	An important deadline is looming for those of you who have not yet received a government stimulus payment. The IRS needs your deposit information by 11 am tomorrow. Joining us now to talk more about the deadline and other issues some of you may be having when it comes to the payments is congresswoman Jan Schakowsky.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	11:32 AM	5/12	240	WGN Midday News	Chicago is welcoming its latest graduating class of firefighters and EMT's, so they can join the fight against COVID-19. WGN's Julian Crews has more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:42 AM	5/12	150	WGN Midday News	As we continue to cope with this coronavirus pandemic, we must remember there are so many other ailments haunting people in this time and the damage can't be undone. Glaucoma and a host of other chronic conditions don't slow down. That's why regular monitoring is just a car ride away.
9.1	Business & Industry	11:46 AM	5/12	120	WGN Midday News	Tensions are high between Tesla CEO Elon Musk and officials in California as Musk defies stay-at-home orders to reopen Tesla's factory. CNN's Dan Simon has more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Religion	11:52 AM	5/12	150	WGN Midday News	Churches are still required to remain closed in the pandemic in Illinois. So church leaders are adapting. And in the case of one parish, putting people in the pews, in pictures.
9.1	Education	12:20 PM	5/12	210	WGN Midday News	Joining us now to discuss the decline in enrollment and financial shortfalls many small schools are facing University of Pennsylvania professor and author of ' The college stress test', Robert Zemsky.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:28 PM	5/12	150	WGN Midday News	One reason to be cautious and fear COVID-19 is the acute illness some patients face. But there is new evidence, there may be long term effects in the mind!
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:40 PM	5/12	120	WGN Midday News	The US Navy blue angels just flew over Chicago. They did it to honor front line workers. WGN's Mike Lowe is live at Stroger hospital where he spoke with employees watching the show from there
9.1	Education	12:42 PM	5/12	210	WGN Midday News	With school buildings shut down because of COVID-19, learning has shifted from school to home. But what if you don't have a permanent home? In our Cover Story this Midday, WGN's Gaynor Hall takes a closer look at the challenges facing families who are experiencing homelessness.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:33 PM	5/12	120	WGN Early Evening News	Re-opening the country is a challenge with areas experiencing different issues. Despite a regional effort in the Midwest, not everyone is on the same timeline.
9.1	Consumer Issues	5:01 PM	5/12	120	WGN Evening News	We'll have more on the governor's update in a moment, but first new rules for food delivery apps go into effect this week in Chicago. The city is requiring companies to be more transparent about the cost of their services to help protect local restaurants. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us live to explain.
9.1	Government (National)	5:05 PM	5/12	120	WGN Evening News	On Capitol Hill today, an unconventional hearing on the federal response to COVID-19. Doctor Anthony Fauci issued a stern warning to senators, looking for a quick path to re-opening their states. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is here with more.
9.1	Consumer Issues	5:13 PM	5/12	180	WGN Evening News	The "stay at home" order during COVID-19 can make many people yearn for a pet. But, the Better Business Bureau says Watch out! There are scammers out there. WGN's Sean Lewis talked with a family that sent money for a new dog only to find out too late they'd been taken

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:28 PM	5/12	120	WGN Evening News	A highly-respected educator and community leader who was born during the Spanish Flu epidemic of 1918 delivers a challenge during this COVID-19 pandemic. WGN's Tonya Francisco joins us live with more on Timuel Black's message.
9.1	Children/Youth	5:31 PM	5/12	120	WGN Evening News	We are deep into lockdowns and facing months of surviving family togetherness. For some, the pandemic is pushing the limits on what their households are prepared to handle. Julie Unruh is here with one nonprofit with ways to help.
9.1	Consumer Issues	5:36 PM	5/12	240	WGN Evening News	If you filed your tax return, but haven't received your stimulus check, you only have one more day to get your bank information to the IRS. Financial expert, Terry Savage, joins us over the phone with what you need to know
9.1	Religion	5:54 PM	5/12	60	WGN Evening News	An annual Jewish festival celebrated today as a parade because of social distancing. Lubavich Habad of Illinois organized the event. The holiday honors a rabbi while remembering the pandemic he survived that killed thousands of young Jews.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	6:31 PM	5/12	240	WGN Evening News	The COVID-19 virus is hitting minority populations in Illinois particularly hard. Especially in Chicago. Pro-Publica sought to explore the problem by examining the first 100 recorded deaths in Chicago. Joining us now to talk about that investigation is Duaa Eld-eeb - a reporter with Pro-Publica. She was one of seven who looked into the inequalities.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	5/12	120	WGN News at Nine	Lake county authorities say an animal lover was mauled to death by a dog that she recently adopted. The breed is not known for being aggressive. WGN's Erik Runge joins us live with the latest.
9.1	Economy	9:10 PM	5/12	120	WGN News at Nine	Reports Cook County homeowners may get a break when they pay their second installment of property taxes this year. Word comes amid record unemployment. WGN's Sean Lewis is live from north center with the story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:46 PM	5/12	180	WGN News at Nine	Tonight we take closer look at how the virus is devastating one particular group: Vietnam veterans. We'll do this by looking back. In our cover story, WGN's Jackie Bange updates a story she first told you about in 2018.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:00 AM	5/13	120	WGN Early Morning News	A group of mayors in McHenry county want Governor Pritzker to separate them from Cook County on the restore Illinois regional map. Courtney Gousman is live with details

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:15 AM	5/13	120	WGN Early Morning News	It's been a long wait for people who need elective surgery. But Illinois is once again giving permission for doctors to schedule what were considered non-essential operations. Dina Bair has the details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:05 AM	5/13	180	WGN Morning News	The nation's top infectious disease expert says no part of the country has the spread of coronavirus completely under control, yet. Joining us now is ER physician and best-selling author Doctor Jeffrey Sterling.
9.1	Legal Matters	8:34 AM	5/13	180	WGN Morning News	A lawyer from the Saint Louis area has become the champion of dozens of western Illinois businesses that want to reopen. Tom Devore joins us now on the phone, to discuss
9.1	Community	11:40 AM	5/13	180	WGN Midday News	A little humor to boost your mental health this midday. Adam Grabowski has been doing socially conscious comedy routines for 10 years. And his act generates more than a few laughs.
9.1	Politics	11:48 AM	5/13	285	WGN Midday News	In March, Congress approved a paid leave program aimed at helping eligible workers during this pandemic. But there's confusion among business owners and employees on how the program works and some don't even know the new benefits exist. Joining us now to break things down is Adrienne Schweer from the Bipartisan Policy center. She heads up the center's Paid Family Leave Task Force.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:28 PM	5/13	120	WGN Midday News	Some good and bad news on the medication front. The nation's top health officials announced the worldwide Remdesivir trial is showing a 31-percent faster recovery time for patients taking the anti-viral drug. But an admission, this is only a modest improvement and not, so far, fulfilling the hopes for a widespread treatment. So doctors are turning to combination therapies, including drugs used to treat the virus that causes aids.
9.1	Education	12:40 PM	5/13	120	WGN Midday News	A number of coronavirus vaccines are in the works But possibly months, or years, away from approval. So the question for parents is, will it be safe for your kids to go back to school in the fall?
9.1	Transportation	4:06 PM	5/13	240	WGN Early Evening News	A United Airlines customer is upset over her recent flying experience with the carrier. United is looking into what happened, and announced some policy changes. WGN's Julian Crews joins us live with details.
9.1	Education	4:15 PM	5/13	120	WGN Early Evening News	The academic school year has already been turned upside down by COVID-19, with students transitioning to remote learning. Now high school students are reporting problems taking their advanced placement exams. WGN's Shannon Halligan has been following this story and joins us now with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	4:30 PM	5/13	180	WGN Early Evening News	The Illinois legislature will return to the state capitol next week, two months after the pandemic sidelined the spring session. But safely gathering hundreds of lawmakers and staffers will no doubt be a challenge. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is here with details of the plan.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:40 PM	5/13	210	WGN Early Evening News	For weeks now, there have been countless numbers of people quarantined in their basements or hotel rooms, trying to prevent the spread of COVID-19 to their families. WGN's Erin Ivory joins us live with the story of one mom forced to do just that.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:06 PM	5/13	120	WGN Evening News	The parent company of several nursing homes in Illinois takes new steps to stop the spread of COVID-19 at its facilities. It comes after hundreds were infected. WGN's Tonya Francisco has the story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:33 PM	5/13	240	WGN Evening News	Joining us now to talk about flattening the curve in Illinois, is Doctor Emily Landon, executive medical director of infection prevention and control at University of Chicago medicine.
9.1	Government (Local)	9:06 PM	5/13	120	WGN News at Nine	The Kendall county sheriff says his officers will not stop who disobeys Governor Pritzker's pandemic restrictions. He says he is not defying the governor's orders. Instead, he's urging people to follow social distancing. WGN's Patrick Elwood joins us live with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	9:10 PM	5/13	120	WGN News at Nine	The pandemic is going to have a major impact on the summer of 2020 in Chicago. Mayor Lori Lightfoot says the lakefront will stay closed. WGN's Dana Rebik is live with the story.
9.1	Economy	9:16 PM	5/13	270	WGN News at Nine	We dig deeper now into the financial impact of the pandemic. Record unemployment, businesses closing and a topsy-turvy stock market add stress on top of coronavirus concerns. Some economists say it could get even worse. Marc Horner, founder of Fairhaven wealth management joins us to talk about the financial meltdown happening around the world.
9.1	Community	9:47 PM	5/13	270	WGN News at Nine	There's an old Latin phrase 'ars longa, vita brevis' - which roughly translates to 'art is long, life is short.' In other words, art usually outlasts the artist. But the coronavirus pandemic is inspiring one art form that is both urgent and temporary. WGN's Mike Lowe explains in tonight's cover story.
9.1	Religion	5:01 AM	5/14	120	WGN Early Morning News	The archdiocese of Chicago has announced a plan to begin re-opening parishes in the coming weeks. Courtney Gousman is live with more on that plan.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:31 AM	5/14	120	WGN Early Morning News	Wisconsin's stay-at-home order is struck down. But some counties are now issuing their own restrictions. Nancy Loo is live with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Politics	6:05 AM	5/14	120	WGN Morning News	An ousted federal official, who had been involved in efforts find a COVID-19 vaccine, is expected to testify before a house panel today. He's expected to warn that the US could be in for the darkest winter in modern history. John Lawrence reports.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:38 AM	5/14	150	WGN Morning News	A woman was shot and killed by police executing a search warrant at her home in Louisville. Now the family is suing, calling it a 'botched police raid.' Kaitlin Rust has more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/14	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:13 AM	5/14	180	WGN Morning News	Several countries have effectively used a method known as contact tracing to help contain the spread of COVID-19. Joining us now to tell us more about it is Doctor Crystal Watson, a senior scholar at Johns Hopkins center for health security.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:22 AM	5/14	360	WGN Morning News	Few writers have a more clear understanding of the patterns lying beneath new diseases than Pulitzer Prize-winning science journalist Laurie Garrett. Back in 1995 she wrote "The Coming Plague: Newly Emerging Diseases in a World Out of Balance" which warned of a need for governments to be prepared in an era of immense globalization.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:15 AM	5/14	240	WGN Midday News	Six doctors have joined forces to create an initiative meant to help people navigate the flood of information popping up about COVID-19 Some of which is incorrect. Together, the physicians make up the "Illinois medical professionals action collaborative team". Joining us now is one of the founders Dr. Shikha Jain.
9.1	Government (Local)	11:34 AM	5/14	120	WGN Midday News	Republican lawmakers in more-rural areas of Illinois are continuing with their push to reopen parts of the state, against Governor Pritzker's orders. WGN's Julian Crews is live with details.
9.1	Business & Industry	11:42 AM	5/14	120	WGN Midday News	Elon Musk got what he wanted. County officials in California are allowing the billionaire to reopen his tesla factory. After he said he would do it anyway. Now, protesters want other businesses to get the same treatment. Laura Anthony reports.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:26 PM	5/14	150	WGN Midday News	DuPage county health officials say there's been a rise in opioid overdoses during the pandemic. The DuPage county coroner documents a troubling spike in both overdose deaths and non-deadly overdoses. Joining us with more on helping people struggling with addiction, founders of 516 Light foundation Brad and Jessica Gerke.
9.1	Children/Youth	4:00 PM	5/14	120	WGN Early Evening News	And now to our top story, a 12 year old Chicago boy has died from complications of COVID-19. He's the youngest person to die from the virus in Cook County since the pandemic began. WGN's Mike Lowe is live at the Cook County medical examiner's office with more.
9.1	Community	4:40 PM	5/14	180	WGN Early Evening News	For several weeks now, a mysterious prehistoric creature has roamed the streets in the northern suburbs. WGN's Erin Ivory joins us live now with more on that story.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:02 PM	5/14	120	WGN Evening News	A step forward this evening in Illinois' battle against COVID-19. For the first time, the Chicago region now meets the criteria to move into phase three of the governor's coronavirus reopening plan. The announcement came during the governor's daily briefing and WGN's Gaynor Hall has details.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Environment	5:15 PM	5/14	120	WGN Evening News	Flash flooding a concern this evening. This while people are still cleaning up damage from storms earlier today. WGN's Shannon Halligan is live in Highland Park where a lightning strike sparked a fire there.
9.1	Employment	5:22 PM	5/14	120	WGN Evening News	Nearly three million more Americans filed for unemployment last week, as the economic fallout from the pandemic continues. But with the state's unemployment system overwhelmed - many who need help haven't even been able to submit a claim. WGN's Marcella Raymond has the story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:23 PM	5/14	120	WGN Evening News	A former federal law officer is suing the village of Lynwood and two of its police officers. It stems from an encounter a year ago on the side of a road. Tonight, we're seeing the video of what happened And a warning - part of it is graphic.
9.1	Business & Industry	9:10 PM	5/14	120	WGN News at Nine	In tonight's WGN Investigates- Fines can reach 10-thousand dollars But it's not stopping some businesses from keeping their doors open despite a state order to close. WGN Investigates' Lourdes Duarte has more on how city inspectors are cracking down.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:14 AM	5/14	120	WGN News at Nine	Crowds of people, most without masks, packed bars in Wisconsin hours after the state's supreme court knocked down their stay at home order. Among the revelers, a nurse with ties to a local health organization. WGN's Dana Rebik is here live with the story
9.1	Business & Industry	9:23 PM	5/14	180	WGN News at Nine	Step over the state line to the north, and you're in Wisconsin where restaurants and bars are reopening as the state supreme court struck down the governor's stay-at-home order. It certainly is a different world there than in nearby Illinois communities south of the state line. WGN's Patrick Elwood is in Genoa City, Wisconsin tonight and joins us live
9.1	Transportation	5:00 AM	5/15	120	WGN Early Morning News	Flash flooding overnight leave drivers stranded and roads shut down.
9.1	Environment	5:31 AM	5/15	120	WGN Early Morning News	Our coverage of the severe weather and flash flooding continues. Nancy Loo is live in Lincolnwood.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:05 AM	5/15	240	WGN Morning News	The CDC released guidelines for how the country should begin reopening. Joining us now from San Francisco is doctor Alok Patel.
9.1	Politics	7:33 AM	5/15	210	WGN Morning News	A three trillion dollar COVID-19 relief package is set to pass in the house today. Joining us now on skype is Congressman Adam Kinzinger.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	8:13 AM	5/15	150	WGN Morning News	Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, teachers have been forced to transition from teaching in classrooms to remote learning. Jenine Wehbeh is a teacher at John B Murphy elementary school. She joins us now, with more on how this is going.
9.1	Business & Industry	8:32 AM	5/15	150	WGN Morning News	Business leaders in Chicago are coming together this weekend in an effort to raise money for the Chicago community COVID-19 response fund. The "sweet home Chicago" telethon will be held tomorrow and streamed on several social media platforms. Here now to tell us more about it is Kevin Coval.
9.1	Children/Youth	11:15 AM	5/15	270	WGN Midday News	The Children's Choir was founded in Hyde Park in direct response to the Civil Rights Movement in 1956. Now, the non-profit has grown and wants to help get all of us through this pandemic with new music. Joining us now is Chicago Children's Choir President and Artistic Director Josephine Lee
9.1	Government (Local)	12:01 PM	5/15	120	WGN Midday News	US Senator Dick Durbin and Cook County Board President Toni Preckwinkle check out Stroger Hospital's drive thru and walk up COVID-19 testing facility. WGN's Julian Crews joins us live with more on their visit.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:23 PM	5/15	210	WGN Midday News	To save lives, intubation is often necessary when a COVID-19 patient is struggling to breathe. And during the pandemic It's all hands on deck.
9.1	Children/Youth	12:25 PM	5/15	210	WGN Midday News	Questions and concerns surrounding re-opening child care is top of mind for many returning to work. Joining us with thoughts on keeping children safe and what daycares may look like when more centers re open: Kindercare district leader, Dee Cottman.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:41 PM	5/15	120	WGN Midday News	The CDC has new guidance to help organizations and individuals decide when it's safe to re-open. Whitney Wild is in Washington to break down what is - and isn't covered.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:47 PM	5/15	240	WGN Midday News	The controversial method may speed up the development of a vaccine by testing multiple treatments at the same time. Here to discuss the method and vaccine development, part of the one day sooner team member, Josh Morrison.
9.1	Environment	4:05 PM	5/15	120	WGN Early Evening News	In Des Plaines, residents of the Blackhawk Estates mobile home Park are dealing with, what they say, is worse-than-usual flooding. A good portion of the Park is in a flood zone. Flood warnings continue elsewhere. From Kankakee to DeKalb counties, many rivers and streams won't crest until Sunday. WGN's Julian Crews is live in Lake County with details.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	4:15 PM	5/15	120	WGN Early Evening News	Amid all this, major companies like j crew and Neiman Marcus are filing for bankruptcy protection. So what does it all mean, as economies start to reopen? Joining us now is the President and CEO of the "Illinois retail merchants association", Rob Karr
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:30 PM	5/15	120	WGN Early Evening News	Police in west suburban Elmhurst are investigating a drive by shooting that put one man in the hospital. The search continues tonight for the gunman. WGN's Marcella Raymond is covering this story and joins us live now from Elmhurst with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:33 PM	5/15	180	WGN Early Evening News	Chicago's new police superintendent has been on the job for a month. In one of his first in-depth interviews, David Brown talks about being a cop in the COVID era and how 'he' will measure success in the ongoing battle against violence.
9.1	Community	4:40 PM	5/15	180	WGN Early Evening News	We could all use some good news during these trying times. WGN's Erin Ivory is here with a few stories to end the work week on a high note.
9.1	Religion	6:02 PM	5/15	150	WGN Evening News	Some church leaders plan to open their doors as soon as this weekend. And not all of them want to follow the governor's guidelines on how many people should be allowed inside at the same time. WGN's Gaynor Hall is live with that story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (National)	6:24 PM	5/15	120	WGN Evening News	Another multi-trillion dollar coronavirus relief bill is on the horizon. Democrats are calling it the "Heroes act," but Republicans say it stands no chance.
9.1	Community	6:28 PM	5/15	120	WGN Evening News	Normally this would be baseball season but due to the pandemic, the season remains on hold. Still people showed up at Wrigley Field tonight. WGN'S Shannon Halligan is live there to explain.
9.1	Business & Industry	6:31 PM	5/15	150	WGN Evening News	The loss of marge's flower shop is just one example of struggling small businesses during the pandemic. WGN's Erik Runge joins us live where that struggle is becoming very typical.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:01 PM	5/15	120	WGN News at Nine	Rescue teams in Winfield are searching for a teenager who witnesses say was swept away by High water in A DuPage County forest preserve. WGN'S Erik Runge just arrived on the scene.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:03 PM	5/15	150	WGN News at Nine	A northwest suburban mom gives birth to her first child, but she had to do it alone. Because both she and her husband tested positive for COVID-19. In a WGN exclusive, Dana Rebik spoke with the baby's grandmother tonight, who is now on standby to care for the newborn.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	9:46 PM	5/15	150	WGN News at Nine	From hair gel to sanitizing gel, that is one of the manufacturing changes the president of a Chicago hair product company is making during this pandemic. And with a research and development team on site- he's been able to close the gap for people in need of such products, including those on the front lines. Jory Luster, is one of Chicago's Very Own.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:04 AM	5/16	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	The owner of a restaurant in Lakeview says an angry Grub Hub driver hit her daughter with his car, and took off. Judy Wang is live outside "Ms. T's Southern fried chicken," with more on what happened.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:42 AM	5/16	300	WGN Weekend Morning News	For many of us-- the COVID-19 pandemic has led to a more sedentary lifestyle and a less than healthy change in eating habits. Certified nutritionist and author of "The Karina Method rulebook", Karina Heinrich joins us with some tips to help turn things around.
9.1	Community	8:50 AM	5/16	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	A lot of people have used this time in quarantine to introduce a pet into their homes. One way to do this is through a virtual pet adoption. Marcella Raymond is at the Anti-Cruelty Society with more on how this works.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	9:45 AM	5/16	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	For many students, losing access to school buildings during the COVID-19 pandemic can mean losing a community of support. Joining us now from Texas is the president and CEO of "Communities in Schools" Rey Saldana.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:01 PM	5/16	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Some suburbs have asked the Governor to be spun off from Chicago in his restore Illinois plan. They say their infection numbers warrant opening up sooner. WGN's Meghan Dwyer has the latest.
9.1	Education	5:23 PM	5/16	180	WGN Weekend Evening News	A high school graduation today with plenty of social distancing. The class of 2020 at Reavis High School was able to march-up on stage and receive diplomas. WGN's Sean Lewis tells us everyone was pleased, despite having to take the precautionary COVID-19 safety guidelines.
9.1	Politics	5:30 PM	5/16	180	WGN Weekend Evening News	The governor's orders to wear a mask when out in public and stay home whenever possible have been met with some pushback. Today, a crowd against those orders protested in Springfield. WGN's Gaynor Hall has that story.
9.1	Business & Industry	9:15 PM	5/16	180	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Chicago area Abbott Labs is fighting back tonight after one study suggested the company's rapid test for COVID 19 is highly inaccurate.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:54 PM	5/16	150	WGN Weekend News at Nine	So many in the healthcare world are working hard on the frontlines to treat patients with COVID-19. That includes a pair of former DePaul basketball players. Josh Frydman has more.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:02 PM	5/17	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Days of steady rain have brought an unwelcome sight to DuPage county - a river flowing above flood stage. Now, business owners are trying to protect their buildings, and officials are warning the public to stay off the water. WGN's Mike Lowe is live in Naperville with the latest
9.1	Religion	5:08 PM	5/17	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Several churches in the Chicago area chose to hold in-person services today, despite the states stay at home order. They were met with pushback from city leaders, and some neighbors. WGN's Judy Wang has that story.
9.1	Community	5:24 PM	5/17	180	WGN Weekend Evening News	During stay-at-home orders, it may be hard to spend time together When you're always together. So one suburban family has made dinner something to look forward to every night. Marcella Raymond reports from Lombard.
9.1	Employment	5:30 PM	5/17	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	More problems for people trying to sign up for unemployment benefits online. A glitch in the system made public an unknown number of people's personal information. WGN's Erik Runge is here with that story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	5:37 PM	5/17	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	So many of us are looking for ways to help others during the pandemic, so it only makes sense that when the call for help went out in a small Wisconsin city, the response was overwhelming.
9.1	Transportation	9:02 PM	5/17	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Flooding shut down a section of the Edens expressway. WGN's Erik Runge just arrived at the scene in Lincolnwood.
9.1	Politics	9:13 PM	5/17	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Democrats have launched an investigation into president Trump's firing of state department inspector general Steve Linick. The Trump administration has been asked to hand over all documents related to Linick's dismissal by Friday.
9.1	Consumer Issues	10:23 PM	5/17	120	WGN Weekend News at Ten	Millions of Americans have received stimulus checks in recent weeks. But some of those checks have gone to people who have died. Now lawmakers are demanding the Treasury Department fix this error. Raquel Martin has more from Washington.
9.1	Transportation	5:00 AM	5/18	120	WGN Early Morning News	We're following some breaking news related to all the major flooding we've seen. Courtney Gousman joins us live downtown near the Chicago river with details

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:34 AM	5/18	240	WGN Morning News	A blog post about how COVID-19 spreads has gone viral with more than six million views. It was written by a biology professor at the University of Massachusetts, Dartmouth and provides a pretty clear explanation of how the virus can spread in confined spaces, even when people are six feet apart. Professor Erin Bromage joins us now live via skype
9.1	Government (Local)	4:06 PM	5/18	120	WGN Early Evening News	Now back to the COVID-19 pandemic. Today the Governor announced a new operation to build up contact tracing across the state. It's part of his strategy to safely reopen the state. WGN's Patrick Elwood joins us with more.
9.1	Environment	4:14 PM	5/18	120	WGN Early Evening News	An explosion at a city metal recycling plant sparks outrage. Some residents have been demanding the city shut down "General Iron" saying it causes health and pollution problems. Records obtained by WGN reveal city inspectors visited and cited the facility multiple times just this spring. WGN's Shannon Halligan joins us now with more on the story.
9.1	Government (Local)	4:31 PM	5/18	120	WGN Early Evening News	Mayor Lightfoot says the city's goal is to run at least 10-thousand COVID-19 tests a day on Chicago residents, by the end of the month. That might become a reality with the help of actor and humanitarian, Sean Penn. Meghan Dwyer joins us live, with the story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (National)	4:35 PM	5/18	120	WGN Early Evening News	The three trillion dollar heroes' act-- which the US House passed last Friday-- isn't likely to pass the Senate. But a few key pieces in it may survive--including hazard pay for our front line workers. Joe Khalil reports from Washington.
9.1	Legal Matters	5:03 PM	5/18	150	WGN Evening News	A local nursing home where a quarter of the residents died from COVID-19 is being sued. The family of a 97- year-old woman says it wants to hold Bria of Geneva accountable. WGN's Tonya Francisco is live with the story. Tonya.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:12 PM	5/18	150	WGN Evening News	A grieving family in Chicago is pleading for justice for their 12 year old son. The boy was shot and killed in Gary, Indiana over the weekend. WGN's Sean Lewis is live in Gary with the story
9.1	Environment	6:02 PM	5/18	120	WGN Evening News	Emergency workers in Grundy county are keeping a close eye on the Illinois river. Flooding has impacted a number of towns and has forced a handful of people to be evacuated. WGN's Erik Runge has our story live tonight.
9.1	Consumer Issues	9:12 PM	5/18	120	WGN News at Nine	WGN Investigates: slaughter in the city. If you're a meat eater, you may not like to think about where your meal comes from. For some Chicago residents who live right next door to a slaughter house that's not an option. WGN Investigates Ben Bradley has more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:04 AM	5/19	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Business & Industry	8:03 AM	5/19	120	WGN Morning News	Businesses that try to get ahead of the state's reopening plan could face hefty fines. Courtney Gousman is live with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:13 AM	5/19	180	WGN Morning News	A group of local doctors, who are also moms, are working hard to make sure people have the latest information on fighting the coronavirus pandemic. They started a group called "impact" And they've been writing op-eds, handing out petitions and starting social media campaigns to spread the word about the latest scientific findings and best preventative measures for COVID-19. Joining us now are Dr. Shikha Jain and Dr. Laura Zimmerman Two of the co-founders of Impact
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:12 PM	5/19	240	WGN Early Evening News	Chicago's 13-thousand police officers have a new president of their union. John Catanzara joins us live
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:33 PM	5/19	180	WGN Early Evening News	As the shutdown and the COVID-19 pandemic continue, they're both taking a toll on many Americans mental health. And now one family hopes to bring more awareness to the issue after losing their loved one. WGN's Shannon Halligan joins us now with more

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	4:34 PM	5/19	180	WGN Early Evening News	Mayor Lori Lightfoot came into office nearly one year ago, with a vow to take on the old Chicago way. But the COVID-19 pandemic has provided a new set of challenges to a first-time politician. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley spoke with the mayor one-on-one about that, and more.
9.1	Community	4:40 PM	5/19	180	WGN Early Evening News	A local pizza shop is getting a lot of attention for what they're serving up. Erin joins us live from home with the story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:00 PM	5/19	120	WGN Evening News	But first, new at five. In an unimaginable tragedy, the virus has taken the lives of three members of one local family. It happened in the span of three months. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live from Humboldt Park with the story.
9.1	Employment	5:11 PM	5/19	150	WGN Evening News	People who are trying to collect unemployment benefits in Illinois, have faced persistent problems. WGN's Tonya Francisco joins us live with the stories of two women, who are at wits' end.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Environment	5:20 PM	5/19	150	WGN Evening News	Now to a developing story we're following. Serious flooding continues to impact areas south and west of Chicago. Along the Illinois river in Grundy county, dozens were evacuated from an apartment complex and many others are dealing with damage. WGN's Mike Lowe reports from Morris, about 60 miles southwest of Chicago.
9.1	Community	5:38 PM	5/19	150	WGN Evening News	A raging fire erupts at a large building with apartments and shops on the South side. WGN's Julian Crews has more on how a teenager helped save his loved ones.
9.1	Business & Industry	9:01 PM	5/19	150	WGN News at Nine	Safety concerns as a case of COVID-19 hits the newly re-opened Ford assembly plant. The sprawling south side facility had been shut down for weeks amid the pandemic. WGN's Sean Lewis joins us now with more
9.1	Children/Youth	9:13 PM	5/19	150	WGN News at Nine	Now to the nationwide problem of homelessness Tonight - we focus on the youngest in the group Homeless children. Especially with the pandemic, the risk of living on the streets has becoming even more dangerous. With social distancing requirements, shelters have had to cut the number of available beds. And many services have had to close their doors.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	10:08 PM	5/19	150	WGN News at Ten	Krispy Kreme is giving away free donuts to graduating seniors, but they may not have been prepared for the onslaught. Some came wearing masks, but others did not while standing in line. WGN's Patrick Elwood reports from Hillside.
9.1	Government (Local)	6:30 AM	5/20	120	WGN Morning News	Governor Pritzker will end his self-imposed quarantine in Chicago today. He's heading to Springfield to meet with state lawmakers, for the first time since the pandemic began. Nancy Loo is here with the latest.
9.1	Technology	6:43 AM	5/20	180	WGN Morning News	If you're wishing you could travel right now A new app provides a unique view of some of the best-known cities around the world, a Turkish grad student came up with the idea It's called the "drive and listen" app. Joins us now via skype to tell us all about it
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/20	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	8:15 AM	5/20	180	WGN Morning News	The global call for help in the fight against the COVID-19 pandemic has inspired some local high school students. With ventilators in such high demand, the robotics team from Wolcott College Prep went to work on creating their own. In just a few hours, using recycled materials They developed a portable ventilator. And they're now trying to get FDA approval. Joining us live via zoom is the "bionic wolves" team coach and physics teacher Kenny Bae.
9.1	Government (Local)	8:31 AM	5/20	120	WGN Morning News	Governor Pritzker will end his self-imposed quarantine in Chicago today. He's heading to Springfield to meet with state lawmakers, for the first time since the pandemic began. Nancy is here with the latest.
9.1	Education	4:07 PM	5/20	150	WGN Early Evening News	New tonight at four, the Chicago teachers union has filed a federal lawsuit against Chicago public schools and the secretary of education over special education classes during COVID-19. WGN's Tonya Francisco joins us now with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Children/Youth	4:14 PM	5/20	150	WGN Early Evening News	A new study by the CDC shows some parents are skipping routine pediatrician appointments as the pandemic wears on. And that means more and more kids are not getting vaccines they need. Joining us now, Doctor Julie Holland. She's the vice president of "Pediatric primary care" with the "Chicagoland children's health alliance"
9.1	Government (Local)	4:30 PM	5/20	180	WGN Early Evening News	Illinois lawmakers have just three days to sort out a spending plan now deeply affected by the cost of the coronavirus outbreak. Leaders are trying to build a bipartisan deal for an increasingly divided state. Tahman Bradley joins us live from Springfield with the latest.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:35 PM	5/20	120	WGN Early Evening News	A developing story: the driver who apparently hit and killed a man in Wheeling, and plowed into a home, is still on-the-run. WGN's Julian Crews is live at the scene with the latest on what happened.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:45 PM	5/20	180	WGN Early Evening News	A heartbreaking story - a mother and daughter both hospitalized with COVID-19, neither knew the other was there, both intubated, struggling to survive. As Dina Bair reports, only one left the hospital.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	5:06 PM	5/20	180	WGN Evening News	COVID-19 has claimed the life of a fixture of Chicago's little village neighborhood. Jesus 'Don Chuy' Gutierrez was 79 years old. WGN's Gaynor Hall tells us how the beloved store owner is being remembered.
9.1	Consumer Issues	5:12 PM	5/20	240	WGN Evening News	Nearly half of Americans were forced to cancel travel plans this year due to COVID-19, and many of them lost their money. WGN's Kelly Davis explains why it's important to protect your investment, and the best way to get your money back.
9.1	Government (National)	5:42 PM	5/20	90	WGN Evening News	Today marks a milestone. All US states have now partially emerged from coronavirus shutdowns. Nadia Romero has the latest on this landmark.
9.1	Education	6:26 PM	5/20	120	WGN Evening News	Students, parents, and teachers have all had to adapt to distance learning during the COVID-19 pandemic. Very few teachers were trained and many students didn't have the equipment for on-line classes. Washington correspondent Morgan Wright reports on a push to have congress pay to close the technology gap.
9.1	Business & Industry	9:03 PM	5/20	120	WGN News at Nine	Help is on the way for struggling restaurants. Al fresco dining is about to become an option around the state with socially distanced tables and chairs. WGN's Dana Rebik is live in River West with the story. Dana.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	10:04 PM	5/20	120	WGN News at Ten	Next Friday the state will enter phase three of Governor Pritzker's "Restore Illinois plan." Businesses now given a green light to re-open with strict guidelines. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live with the details.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:02 AM	5/21	120	WGN Early Morning News	Many Illinois restaurants are preparing to open with the new rules. Courtney Gousman is live in Orland Park with more
9.1	Religion	5:31 AM	5/21	120	WGN Early Morning News	Three Chicago churches have been fined for holding services despite the states stay at home order. Shannon Halligan is live in Ravenswood with the latest.
9.1	Politics	6:32 AM	5/21	120	WGN Morning News	Lawmakers returned to Springfield yesterday for the first time since the start of the COVID-19 outbreak. The pandemic is providing a new challenge, and a partisan controversy for some. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is live in Springfield with the latest.
9.1	Technology	6:46 AM	5/21	180	WGN Morning News	Among the most vulnerable to COVID-19 are health care workers And protecting them has become a top priority. A local company that makes soundproof booths for offices, came up with a similar idea that could also help people fighting the virus on the front lines. Joining us now via facetime is Ryan Leavitt, co-founder of Pillar Booth

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	8:12 AM	5/21	180	WGN Morning News	Pet adoptions continue to climb as people shelter in place And now there's a way you can get help training your dog in quarantine. Paws Chicago is offering virtual classes you can take at home Joining us now is Joan Harris, director of canine training and behavior at Paws
9.1	Business & Industry	11:00 AM	5/21	120	WGN Midday News	It looks like restaurants in Illinois will be able to reopen soon, but there's a catch. The customers will have to eat outside.
9.1	Politics	11:15 AM	5/21	330	WGN Midday News	It is the most exclusive fraternity, the ex-presidents club. A new book -- "Team of Five: The President's Club in the Age of Trump" -- takes a look how the membership and unwritten rules of that group is being up-ended by the current administration. Author Kate Anderson Brower joins us now.
9.1	Community	11:45 AM	5/21	120	WGN Midday News	Using tape in an effort to stick together in the pandemic. The creative way a daughter shows how much she cares for her mom.
9.1	Community	12:00 PM	5/21	120	WGN Midday News	People in need of food and face masks are receiving help today from Chicago police, a pastor, and volunteers. WGN's Julian Crews is live in Englewood with details.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:24 PM	5/21	150	WGN Midday News	With the pandemic taking over hospitals and making social distancing a priority. Many expectant mothers are faced with a tough decision. Whether to give birth at home. Caroline Sweeney has the story
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:06 PM	5/21	120	WGN Early Evening News	As the pandemic and the economic shutdown take a toll on weary Chicagoans, the city is stepping up efforts to help those suffering with mental health issues. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us live now with more.
9.1	Government (Local)	4:31 PM	5/21	150	WGN Early Evening News	Illinois lawmakers are back for day two of their special session to deal with fallout from the pandemic. Up for debate at this hour: how to make election day safer this November. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is live in Springfield with the latest.
9.1	Community	4:41 PM	5/21	150	WGN Early Evening News	It's been roughly two months since schools and libraries closed their doors. WGN's Erin Ivory is here with how one group is working hard to get books in kids' hands.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:00 PM	5/21	150	WGN Evening News	Mayor Lori Lightfoot says restaurants in Chicago won't be ready to open at the end of next week. Her announcement came one day after the Governor cleared the way for alfresco dining to begin in phase three of his reopening plan. WGN's Dana Rebik is live on rush street tonight with more

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Employment	5:01 PM	5/21	120	WGN Evening News	And the staggering unemployment numbers were addressed at the top of Governor Pritzker's daily briefing. WGN's Gaynor Hall is live with that report.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:06 PM	5/21	120	WGN Evening News	A new drive-through COVID-19 testing facility is opening tomorrow in the northwest suburbs. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live in rolling meadows tonight with a look at the new site.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:28 PM	5/21	120	WGN Evening News	A court battle continued today to force Cook County sheriff Tom Dart to comply with new COVID-19 jail guidelines. WGN's Marcella Raymond is live with the latest.
9.1	Community	5:35 PM	5/21	120	WGN Evening News	It was certainly a parade to remember - as hundreds of military veterans joined others in Lake County to embrace a war hero on his 103rd birthday. WGN's Mike Lowe joins us live from Zion with that story.
9.1	Women's Issues	5:42 PM	5/21	210	WGN Evening News	Domestic violence shelters and hotlines are seeing a spike in demand amid the COVID-19 pandemic. It's happening not just in Chicago, but in many other cities under stay-at-home orders. Joining us now to talk about it, is author Mannette Morgan.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:35 PM	5/21	210	WGN Evening News	Just eight more days until salons can open under phase three of Governor Pritzker's plan. But owners of one salon in Logan Square say it's too soon. Joining us now is Mandie Williams co-owner and stylist of Barbara and Barbara salon.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:01 PM	5/21	120	WGN News at Nine	An elderly couple, married for decades, dies within days of each other from COVID-19. WGN's Patrick Elwood has their story from the granddaughter they raised.
9.1	Government (Local)	9:07 PM	5/21	120	WGN News at Nine	New details tonight at nine After hours of questions and debate, the Illinois house approves legislation to expand the state's vote-by-mail program ahead of November's general election. WGN's political reporter Tahman Bradley is live in Springfield with details on tonight's vote in a special session
9.1	Government (Local)	9:09 PM	5/21	240	WGN News at Nine	Across the state tax revenues are plunging as people stay home, and most businesses remain closed due to the pandemic. That's having a big impact on local governments. WGN Investigates' Ben Bradley has more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	9:23 PM	5/21	150	WGN News at Nine	New at nine: the Cook County board approves a resolution to provide first responders with the addresses of those who have tested positive for COVID-19. It's a blow to privacy advocates, and Cook County board president Toni Preckwinkle, who argued against it. WGN's Gaynor Hall is live with the latest.
9.1	Children/Youth	7:35 AM	5/22	180	WGN Morning News	The stress, fear and uncertainty of the COVID-19 pandemic can wear anyone down. Especially kids and teenagers. Young people may have an especially tough time coping emotionally, as they struggle with depression, hopelessness, anxiety and anger. Joining us now is Dr. Vinay Saranga, a child-adolescent psychiatrist, and founder of Saranga comprehensive psychiatry in North Carolina.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:05 AM	5/22	180	WGN Morning News	The CDC has acknowledged that it is mixing the results of two types of COVID-19 tests in its numbers. Joining us now via skype is Doctor Gary Slutkin. He studies epidemics and spent 20 years working to reduce rates of infectious diseases, including tuberculosis and aids, in the United States and Africa.
9.1	Government (Local)	8:30 AM	5/22	120	WGN Morning News	Most of the state of Indiana is moving to stage 3 of its re-opening process today. Shannon Halligan joins us with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	4:00 PM	5/22	120	WGN Early Evening News	Chicago's mayor, saying churches will not reopen here yet, despite what the president said today. She's also not setting a date for phase three of reopening. But she says there's reason to be optimistic. WGN's Marcella Raymond joins us live with more.
9.1	Government (Local)	4:07 PM	5/22	120	WGN Early Evening News	Chicago police are gearing up for the long, holiday weekend amid the COVID-19 pandemic. WGN's Julian Crews joins us live with more on the strategy.
9.1	Community	4:40 PM	5/22	120	WGN Early Evening News	It's Friday and the start of the Memorial Day weekend. So how about a little good news to end the work week? WGN's Erin Ivory joins us from home with your feel good Friday round up
9.1	Religion	5:00 PM	5/22	120	WGN Evening News	President Trump is calling for all houses of worship to reopen across the country starting this weekend, despite warnings from public health officials. WGN's Meghan Dwyer is live now with that story.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:11 PM	5/22	300	WGN Evening News	This Memorial Day weekend the family of some fallen service members may not be able to visit their loved one's grave due to the pandemic. Congresswoman Lauren Underwood has a message for her constituents. If they can't, she will. The congresswoman joins us now.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	5:23 PM	5/22	120	WGN Evening News	Some called him the king of barbeque. He opened his mainstay restaurant, Hecky's, in Evanston in 1983 with just 100 dollars in his register. Hecky Powell wasn't just a BBQ master, he was a big proponent of giving back to his community. Tonight, a whole lot of people are mourning the loss. WGN'S Gaynor Hall is live with more on his life.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:38 PM	5/22	120	WGN Evening News	Dr. Anthony Fauci is answering your questions this weekend online during our "coronavirus house calls." Live stream. As Jack Royer explains, Fauci is optimistic about medical treatments being studied right now.
9.1	Legal Matters	9:03 PM	5/22	120	WGN News at Nine	The justice department is backing a legal challenge to Governor Pritzker's stay at home order. WGN's Gaynor Hall is live with the details.
9.1	Community	9:46 PM	5/22	150	WGN News at Nine	Since the COVID 19 pandemic began many restaurants have found themselves falling on hard times. But one family restaurant is focused on bringing people together and feeding workers on the hospital frontlines. Meet the Manilow family, they are Chicago's Very Own.
9.1	Community	8:13 AM	5/23	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Memorial Day weekend is vastly different this year. Nadia Romero looks at how the pandemic has changed how people are marking this unofficial start to summer.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:38 AM	5/23	180	WGN Weekend Morning News	It's been months since the first case of COVID-19 And doctors are still baffled by some of the symptoms of the virus. Symptoms that attack the entire body -- and have proven fatal in some children. CNN's doctor Sanjay Gupta reports.
9.1	Community	8:46 AM	5/23	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	A Chicago bookstore is promoting literacy by giving away free books to students. WGN's Marcella Raymond is live in west town with details.
9.1	Consumer Issues	9:14 AM	5/23	300	WGN Weekend Morning News	There are a lot of new products that can help keep you and your family safe during quarantine and as we start to reopen the country. Joining us now via skype from Toronto is consumer expert Matt Granite also known as "The Deal Guy.'
9.1	Community	9:43 AM	5/23	270	WGN Weekend Morning News	A nonprofit in Chicago is helping new mothers who may need financial assistance. Joining us now is Alex Goodfellow the executive director of the non-profit Share Our Spare.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:35 PM	5/23	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Police are gearing up for a busy holiday weekend. Gaynor Hall join us with more on what Chicago police are doing to combat violent crime in the city.
9.1	Environment	9:04 PM	5/23	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Further west the storms caused more destruction. WGN's Gaynor Hall is live from Shorewood with the latest on the damage.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	9:54 PM	5/23	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	One of the key traits of a great coach is to have a positive attitude. In 2020 - one coach in the Northwestern suburbs is getting honored for his. Our Josh Frydman has more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	10:07 PM	5/23	120	WGN Weekend News at Ten	Memorial Day weekend is no doubt different this year because of the pandemic. Summer is upon us and so is the need to get outside. That's creating the greatest test for social distancing. Reporter Whitney Wild has more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	10:22 PM	5/23	120	WGN Weekend News at Ten	Medical workers have been recognized as heroes during this pandemic but members of another group, the family caregivers, say they're being overlooked and need help. Washington Correspondent Jessi Turnure reports some lawmakers are working to include benefits for them in the next round of coronavirus relief.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:07 PM	5/24	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	After a storm drenched Saturday, summer arrives. People are out celebrating the holiday, some following social distancing guidelines. Others not so much. WGN's Erik Runge is live at Hamlin Park with that story
9.1	Government (Local)	5:31 PM	5/24	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	The unprecedented special session went into overtime finally concluding with the Illinois general assembly passing a spending package for the rest of the year and next. The final product was exactly what the democratic majority wanted.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:37 PM	5/24	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	The Chicago medical society, a blood bank, and a local congressman teamed up today to help recruit blood donors. They want everyone to know, it could help people with COVID-19. Sean Lewis reports.
9.1	Community	9:46 PM	5/24	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	The country honors its fallen service members this weekend. But as Boris Sanchez reports, commemoration events will be different this year.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:01 AM	5/25	120	WGN Early Morning News	Later this week, more businesses will be allowed to reopen across Illinois. And with that, comes new guidelines.
9.1	Community	6:14 AM	5/25	120	WGN Morning News	A heroic rescue in Mobile, Alabama. A man braved an intense fire to rescue a woman from an apartment fire. Lance Crawford reports.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/25	120	WGN Morning News	As people across the country celebrate Memorial Day, some states are seeing a spike in COVID-19 cases. Mandy Gaither has the latest.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Children/Youth	8:14 AM	5/25	180	WGN Morning News	For younger children, COVID-19 and all the risks and restrictions that come with it, may be hard to understand. A CPS 8th grader decided she could help, by writing a fun, creative book, explaining the coronavirus and what kids can do to stay safe. It's called "the class that can" And she even found a way to make it available to any teacher in the country, for free. Joining us now live via zoom is the book's author, Riya Jain, and her mom, Dr. Ruchi Gupta who is the director of the Center for Food Allergy & Asthma Research.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:30 AM	5/25	90	WGN Midday News	As more and more businesses reopen across the country -- many people are facing a common concern -- is it safe to use a public restroom? And if you don't have a choice -- what can you do to stay safe?
9.1	Community	11:32 AM	5/25	120	WGN Midday News	Social distancing is bringing plenty of changes to some local Memorial Day celebrations as well. \WGN's Meghan Dwyer is live with more.
9.1	National Security	11:41 AM	5/25	120	WGN Midday News	Today's the day when we honor the men and woman who lost their lives serving our country. In the midst of the pandemic, honoring our nation's fallen heroes looks a little different. But as Barbara Starr reports, the solemn rituals remain.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Technology	11:46 AM	5/25	300	WGN Midday News	At the center of one case is the video sharing platform Tictik which is accused of collecting and saving facial geometry scans of four Illinois minors without their consent. Joining us now with more is Alexandra Franco, Visiting Assistant Professor at Chicago-Kent College of Law.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:26 PM	5/25	180	WGN Midday News	There are currently no proven treatments for COVID-19. But researchers at the University of Washington School of Medicine have developed an antibody that neutralizes the virus. The scientists identified the antibody in the blood of a person who had severe acute respiratory syndrome or SARS 17 years ago, and recovered from it. A company called "Vir Biotechnology" is now fast tracking the development and testing of the antibody. In theory, the antibody could be ready for clinical trials within five to six months.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:41 PM	5/25	120	WGN Early Evening News	A retired U.S. Marine in Washington staged a one-day salute, to raise awareness about suicide among veterans. Kevin Lewis reports.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:00 PM	5/25	120	WGN Evening News	Illinois won't head into the next phase of reopening until Friday. So the warm weather had people flocking to open beaches across the borders. WGN's Sean Lewis is live at Marquette Park beach in Gary, Indiana.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:05 PM	5/25	120	WGN Evening News	Memorial Day weekend shaping up to be one of Chicago's most violent in years. This comes despite the COVID-19 pandemic and the state's stay at home order remains in effect. WGN's Tonya Francisco has been following this developing story and joins us now with more.
9.1	Politics	5:28 PM	5/25	120	WGN Evening News	A group of protesters gathered for a lakefront rally. They tied together honoring the fallen for Memorial Day with a demonstration against the stay-at-home order. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live from downtown with the story.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:34 PM	5/25	180	WGN Evening News	With businesses on the brink of re-opening, many still wonder if the damage has already been done. Can reduced hours, fewer customers or more social distancing keep their companies afloat? Julie Unruh is here with one suburban business who says two months of closed doors is all she can take.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:34 PM	5/25	180	WGN Evening News	As the first weeks of the pandemic unfolded, a south side sixth grader faced a health crisis of her own: a cancer diagnosis. Two months later, she's doing something remarkable to help kids facing similar challenges. WGN's Mike Lowe is live tonight with more

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	5/25	120	WGN News at Nine	Police are looking into whether a group of teenagers stole two cars this morning in about an hour. Police say one of those cars was then involved in a deadly hit and run in the south loop. WGN Erik Runge is live in Lakeview tonight with our story
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:05 AM	5/26	120	WGN Morning News	The World Health Organization has issued a warning that a second COVID-19 peak could be coming. Joining us now from San Francisco is doctor Alok Patel.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/26	330	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Politics	7:31 AM	5/26	120	WGN Morning News	Mayor Lightfoot says Chicago needs a little more time before the city can reopen with other parts of the state. This sparked protests. Kelly Davis joins us live with details
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	11:33 AM	5/26	120	WGN Midday News	Tens-of-thousands of "N-95" masks were donated to some of Chicago's first responders today. WGN's Julian Crews joins us live with more on this major donation.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:45 AM	5/26	180	WGN Midday News	Nine industrial facilities in a town five miles south of Los Angeles are reporting COVID-19 outbreaks. Now health officials are worried those employees might have brought the virus to the communities where they live.
9.1	Employment	11:50 AM	5/26	180	WGN Midday News	There's an important deadline coming soon for people who have been laid off from their jobs And need health insurance. We're learning more from Jordan Wishner, Founder and agent at the Health Insurance Shoppe.
9.1	Employment	12:18 PM	5/26	240	WGN Midday News	Searching for a job amid a pandemic can seem daunting. Remote job searches may require flexibility and some creativity. Here with tips on how college graduates can tackle the field and land a job, regional vice president with Robert Half, Michelle Reisdorf.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:24 PM	5/26	150	WGN Midday News	Is it safe to swim? Whether on shore or on the pool deck, is COVID-19 lurking? As temperatures heat up and we dive into summer activities - infectious disease experts say the greatest threat isn't in the water.
9.1	Children/Youth	12:33 PM	5/26	150	WGN Midday News	Public health experts say many states haven't yet turned the corner in the COVID-19 pandemic And there are fears of a second peak in cases. Meanwhile, more states report cases of a COVID-linked syndrome in children. Karin Caifa has more from Washington.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:14 PM	5/26	120	WGN Early Evening News	We're following a developing story in Minneapolis - where the FBI is now investigating the death of a black man in police custody. A warning - it may be tough to watch But the incident was captured on video.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:16 PM	5/26	120	WGN Early Evening News	WGN Investigates: the accuracy of Illinois' COVID death count. The Illinois department of public health reports more than 49-hundred COVID-related deaths. We poured over the numbers and found many more people have died this year than previous years And many are 'not' being included in the COVID count. We took state death data to the experts and asked them some of the questions we've heard from you.
9.1	Consumer Issues	4:36 PM	5/26	120	WGN Early Evening News	A 'WGN Investigates' follow. A year after our initial story aired, a St. Charles family, has recovered thousands of dollars spent on European windows. Not only did they recover the money, but another company stepped up to help.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:01 PM	5/26	120	WGN Evening News	Mayor Lori Lightfoot unveiled a 56 million dollar contact tracing project to help the city battle COVID-19. WGN's Shannon Halligan joins us live to explain how it will work

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	5:04 PM	5/26	120	WGN Evening News	It has led to confusion, but Chicago's reopening is moving slower than the rest of the state. WGN's Sean Lewis breaks it all down, live from the far north side. Sean.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:30 PM	5/26	150	WGN Evening News	New at five, tonight - raising questions over crowd control. A 'viral video' shows Chicago police officers involved in a tense confrontation with a group of people gathered in a street on the city's south side. Some prominent voices say officers are targeting mostly black neighborhoods, and ignoring similar violations in largely white neighborhoods.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:00 PM	5/26	150	WGN News at Nine	For more than five minutes a white Minneapolis police officer pressed his knee into Floyd's neck. Floyd, who was black, later died after begging the officer to stop choking him. Saying several times he couldn't breathe. Witnesses recorded the event and now his death is sparking protests around the country including Chicago. WGN's Erik Runge is live tonight with our story.
9.1	Government (Local)	9:11 PM	5/26	150	WGN News at Nine	The city of Chicago will be the only part of the state held back from going to phase three. That is still a few weeks away. WGN's Sean Lewis is live at the city line of Chicago and Evanston with a look at how it's causing some confusion.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:44 PM	5/26	150	WGN News at Nine	Love in the time of COVID-19. The pandemic has brought new meaning to the famous wedding vow 'in sickness and in health. And in tonight's cover story, WGN's Mike Lowe explores the pandemic's impact on romantic relationships.
9.1	Government (Local)	10:03 PM	5/26	120	WGN News at Ten	Governor Pritzker says the numbers are encouraging, as Illinois moves forward with the next phase of reopening. WGN's Patrick Elwood joins us live with the latest.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	5/27	120	WGN Early Morning News	Breaking news overnight, a drive-by shooting left three children injured. Courtney Gousman is live at Comer Children's Hospital.
9.1	National Security	5:13 AM	5/27	120	WGN Early Morning News	SpaceX and NASA are preparing for a historic launch this afternoon. This is a live picture of the Kennedy space center. Two astronauts will fly in the space-x "dragon" to the international space station. It's the company's first-ever crewed mission and the first launch from American soil since 2011
9.1	Minority Issues	5:32 AM	5/27	120	WGN Early Morning News	Developing this morning-- four officers were fired following the death of an unarmed black man during an arrest in Minneapolis. Kelly Davis joins us live with the latest.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	6:35 AM	5/27	150	WGN Morning News	A woman at the center of a viral video in New York city is now out of a job. This comes after a confrontation with an African American man in central Park. Ayana Harry talked with the man about what led up to the incident.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/27	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert murphy. He is a professor of infectious diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Elderly	8:05 AM	5/27	180	WGN Morning News	More than 40 percent of America's COVID-19 deaths have been at nursing homes. Elderly people with underlying health issues and weak immune systems make them most susceptible to COVID 19, and most likely to die from exposure to it. Joining us now is Brian Lee, executive director of Families for Better Care, which is an advocacy group dedicated to create public awareness of the conditions in nursing homes.
9.1	Cultural	8:25 AM	5/27	120	WGN Morning News	The World-scene film festival starts tomorrow virtually and it's an event that highlights short films that explore themes of diversity, courage and empowerment. The films are created by students involved in the "Build Chicago's program."
9.1	Minority Issues	8:35 AM	5/27	120	WGN Morning News	Reverend Jesse Jackson joins us now to discuss the recent events in Minneapolis and COVID-19

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	11:03 AM	5/27	120	WGN Midday News	Four police officers fired, following the death of an unarmed black man during an arrest in Minneapolis. Protestors continue to call for justice in the name of George Floyd. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us live with the latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:30 AM	5/27	120	WGN Midday News	This month, Cook County became the county with the most COVID-19 cases in the US and that's causing problems at the medical examiner's office. WGN's Julian Crews has more
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:34 AM	5/27	120	WGN Midday News	As states reopen, the CDC is now out with some new guidance. Karin Caifa has the details from Washington, DC.
9.1	Economy	11:47 AM	5/27	390	WGN Midday News	In today's Midday Fix, college graduates bouncing back home in the pandemic, it's a perfect time to save some cash. Instead of clamoring for financial independence, experts say this is the ideal opportunity to build a financial foundation. Richard Chew, principal owner of 1st Capital Insurance Group has some advice.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:19 PM	5/27	240	WGN Midday News	As Illinois begins to move into phase three of reopening, loosening restrictions on many businesses such as salons, day care centers and some restaurants there is anxiety for some over getting back to a new normal. Today we're talking to the author of a new book "detox your thoughts". Dr. Andrea Bonior is also a clinical psychologist on the faculty of Georgetown University.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:26 PM	5/27	180	WGN Midday News	On the medical watch -- how the COVID curve is impacting the cancer curve. Doctors are concerned about another deadly crisis.
9.1	Transportation	4:34 PM	5/27	180	WGN Early Evening News	Plans are in the works to shut down some city streets to car traffic. This in an effort to allow people to socially distance outdoors. Shannon Halligan is live in Uptown with the details.
9.1	Community	4:38 PM	5/27	180	WGN Early Evening News	In a time of need, one local foundation is working overtime to help give to others. WGN's Erin Ivory has the story.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:10 PM	5/27	180	WGN Evening News	Developing tonight, the mayor of Minneapolis demands charges be brought against the police officers responsible for the death of George Floyd, an unarmed black man. WGN's Marcella Raymond joins us live now with the latest

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	6:22 PM	5/27	120	WGN Evening News	Infection and death rates continue to wind down in some parts of the country. But CDC data shows COVID-19 is still affecting communities of color at a higher rate. As Washington correspondent Raquel Martin reports, the house held its first hearing today to evaluate immediate and long term policy solutions
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:05 PM	5/27	150	WGN News at Nine	A mother and her soldier son lost their lives to the virus within three days of each other. Now a family and friends are grieving together. WGN's Dana Rebik is live from Algonquin with the story.
9.1	Government (Local)	9:13 PM	5/27	360	WGN News at Nine	This week Cook County board president Toni Preckwinkle issued the first veto of her administration. It concerned a measure that would have allowed first responders to have the addresses of people who have tested positive for COVID-19. Preckwinkle and others have argued that the measure could lead to discrimination against residents. It comes as Cook County deals with the unprecedented challenges of COVID-19 that has devastated communities of color.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:00 AM	5/28	120	WGN Early Morning News	As the state gets ready to move on to phase 3 of reopening tomorrow, Governor Pritzker is taking steps to keep residents safe. Courtney Gousman is live with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	5:30 AM	5/28	120	WGN Early Morning News	Protesters clash with police in Minneapolis for the second night in a row. They're demanding justice for the death of an unarmed black man during an arrest. WGN'S Kelly Davis joins us live with the latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05 AM	5/28	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:05 AM	5/28	180	WGN Morning News	A new census survey reveals, one-third of American adults show signs of clinical anxiety or depression. Joining us now with more on what people can do is Doctor David Rakofsky the president and CEO of Chicagoland's wellington counseling group. Good morning
9.1	Employment	11:15 AM	5/28	240	WGN Midday News	As more people begin returning to work across the country, it's important to walk into a space where you feel safe. Right now, we're talking to the author of "Healthy Buildings: How Indoor Spaces Drive Performance and Productivity". Joseph Allen wrote this book before the pandemic began.
9.1	Religion	11:30 AM	5/28	120	WGN Midday News	A US supreme court justice is now getting involved in a Chicago church's fight against Governor Pritzker's lockdown order. WGN's Julian Crews has more on that.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (National)	11:38 AM	5/28	180	WGN Midday News	A declaration by Secretary of State Mike Pompeo could end Hong Kong's special trade status with the US. Reporter Kristie Lu Stout has more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:50 AM	5/28	120	WGN Midday News	While scientists are in overdrive to develop better hospital protocols amid the pandemic, a little boy came up with a design of his own, in honor of his sister who spends a great deal of time in the hospital.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:23 PM	5/28	210	WGN Midday News	Scientists are seeking to change the number of COVID-19 related deaths. And when ventilators were in short supply, engineers, particle and nuclear physicists, and medical researchers from all over the world put their own research on hold to design a new, safer, gentler ventilator.
9.1	Business & Industry	12:40 PM	5/28	210	WGN Midday News	Uncertainty in the restaurant industry. Shutdowns and tight restrictions are fueling doubt about the future for those in the food service business. The owner of an old Chicago staple - Bobby McGuire is on a mission to feed first responders at the same time he worries about the state of his business: restaurants. Trying to keep his father's legacy alive, he hopes the pandemic won't eventually force him to holler 'last call' for the last time.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	4:07 PM	5/28	120	WGN Early Evening News	Chicago's mayor and police superintendent, both responding to the death and the violence, as a protest gets underway here in Chicago. WGN's Mike Lowe is live with more.
9.1	Business & Industry	4:15 PM	5/28	120	WGN Early Evening News	With the exception of Chicago, you'll be able to eat out at restaurants across Illinois beginning tomorrow. But 'eating out' means eating 'outside.'
9.1	Business & Industry	4:33 PM	5/28	120	WGN Early Evening News	Many businesses are getting creative as they figure out ways to reopen in the era of social distancing. WGN's Marcella Raymond joins us now with more on that.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:36 PM	5/28	120	WGN Early Evening News	A Robbins police officer who nearly lost his fight against COVID-19, receives a special welcome back to duty. WGN's Julian Crews joins us live with more on Ed Schmit's return.
9.1	Housing	4:42 PM	5/28	180	WGN Early Evening News	For the last three years, Covenant house Illinois has provided safety and shelter for hundreds of homeless teens. However the pandemic has pushed the shelter to capacity. WGN's Erin Ivory joins us with the story.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:03 PM	5/28	120	WGN Evening News	The wait will be a bit longer for Chicago but we have a date now phase three will begin next Wednesday. Mayor Lori Lightfoot today outlining what will be opening, and what will not.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	5:06 PM	5/28	150	WGN Evening News	Those protests are taking place in cities around the country - including Chicago. WGN's Mike Lowe is live with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:40 PM	5/28	240	WGN Evening News	The pandemic has prompted many to put off routine medical checkups and screenings. It's a troubling trend especially for those with a heightened risk of cancer. Joining us to talk about it is Doctor Sandy Goldberg. She's the founder of "A Silver Lining Foundation" which helps women get free breast cancer screenings.
9.1	Education	9:45 PM	5/28	180	WGN News at Nine	Schools may be closed, but teachers march on, including band and choir director Bryen Travis. The accolades for the Itasca music teacher came in loud and clear. So as we honor one final educator this school year, we do so virtually. WGN's Julie Unruh has more.
9.1	Minority Issues	10:01 PM	5/28	120	WGN News at Ten	We learned tonight the officer seen in the video with his knee on George Floyd's neck, had 18 prior complaints filed against him with the Minneapolis police department's internal affairs. They would not elaborate on the nature of those complaints. Tonight anger boiling over, causing pandemonium again in the twin cities.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:00 AM	5/29	120	WGN Early Morning News	It was another night of violent protests in Minneapolis, as crowds set fire to a police precinct. Judy Wang is here with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	6:30	5/29	210	WGN Morning News	At least seven people were shot last night in Louisville during protests over the death of Breonna Taylor. Joining us on the phone now is public safety analyst, Cedric Alexander.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:13 AM	5/29	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:34 AM	5/29	180	WGN Morning News	With Illinois moving into phase three of the governor's reopening plan today high school sports may be able start up again in some form. Joining us now is Dr. Cynthia Labella, she's a member of the IHSA sports medicine advisory committee.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:18 AM	5/29	270	WGN Midday News	A new website honors Illinois residents who died because of COVID-19 complications along with thousands of other people who have passed away across the country. In this unprecedented time, Dr. Dermot Jevens and Dr. Rebecca Heiss founded "Mourning America- dot- org". They both join us now with more on how they hope to help loved ones mourn, heal and remember

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:11 PM	5/29	120	WGN Midday News	Chicago residents have to wait until next week but phase three finally arrives today for many other Illinois citizens amid the pandemic. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us live with details on this next stage.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:19 PM	5/29	120	WGN Midday News	Mayor Lightfoot held her first face-to-face meeting with head of Chicago police union today. WGN's Julian Crews looks at some of big issues the two are facing.
9.1	Employment	12:21 PM	5/29	240	WGN Midday News	Rand corporation's Jason Ward is here to talk with us more about the jobs market, unemployment and an alternate idea to keep employees on the payroll.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:26 PM	5/29	180	WGN Midday News	We've talked a great deal on this show about frontline workers, the healthcare providers tending to sick patients in this pandemic. But the doctors and nurses and respiratory therapists tell us, it's the people that keep the hospital clean when the building is rampant with COVID-19 that are the unsung heroes in this battle.
9.1	Community	12:56 PM	5/29	120	WGN Midday News	As the number of people in financial crisis grows amid the pandemic, there is a hunger for help. So the Northern Illinois food bank is popping up in the most unlikely places.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:07 PM	5/29	120	WGN Early Evening News	A developing story: Chicago police are looking for the person who shot and killed two teenage girls on the south side. WGN's Julian Crews joins us live with more on the investigation.
9.1	Transportation	4:14 PM	5/29	120	WGN Early Evening News	Mayor Lightfoot announced a new pilot program today called 'our streets.' It's aimed at making social distancing a bit easier and giving restaurants a chance to get back on their feet. The focus is socially distant outdoor dining and exercise. WGN's Meghan Dwyer has the details.
9.1	Business & Industry	4:35 PM	5/29	180	WGN Early Evening News	Among the industries getting back to work today, manufacturing. Factories where hundreds of people work in close quarters can be a challenge when it comes to fighting COVID-19. Our Dana Rebik got an inside look at a northwest suburban business that's continued operations, to see what they've been doing to prevent employees from getting sick.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:01 PM	5/29	180	WGN Evening News	Protesters plan to gather downtown tonight -- to speak out against Floyd's death. WGN's Dana Rebik is live in millennium Park with details.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	5:04 PM	5/29	120	WGN Evening News	Even though Illinois continues to see hundreds of new cases of COVID-19, the state has made progress. And because of that, Governor Pritzker announced today Illinois is moving into the next phase of re-opening. WGN's Gaynor Hall joins us live with what phase three means.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:11 PM	5/29	120	WGN Evening News	George Floyd's death is raising many concerns about policing policies especially among communities of color. In 2014, Chicago was shaken to the core over the police involved shooting death of Laquan McDonald, prompting many reforms. Joining us now to talk about this is former Chicago police superintendent Garry McCarthy and civil rights attorney Andrew M. Stroth.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:33 PM	5/29	120	WGN Evening News	A Chicago couple is leaving the hospital tomorrow, grateful to have survived a close call with COVID-19. WGN's Marcella Raymond joins us live now with their story.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:40 PM	5/29	180	WGN Evening News	Reverend Jesse Jackson, founder of the Rainbow Push coalition, paid a recent visit to Minneapolis. He joins us now on the phone.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:01 PM	5/29	120	WGN News at Nine	We begin tonight in Minneapolis. WGN's Erik Runge is live with the very latest.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	9:03 PM	5/29	120	WGN News at Nine	Protesters have been on the move here in Chicago this evening as well. Police blocked them from entering the Eisenhower expressway. Our Dana Rebik has been with them every step of the way.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:43 PM	5/29	210	WGN News at Nine	Her battle with cancer has lasted decades, most of her adult life. In 2017 doctors told her to get her affairs in order, death was near. So she decided to take that time to inspire others battling the disease. And it gave her a new lease on life. Paula Labree is one of Chicago's Very Own.
9.1	Minority Issues	10:01 PM	5/29	120	WGN News at Ten	Demonstrators all over the country continue to march in the streets protesting the death of George Floyd. The Minneapolis police officer seen on video with his knee on Floyd's neck as the 46-year-old shouted "I can't breathe," now facing a 3rd degree murder charge.
9.1	Minority Issues	8:02 AM	5/30	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Thousands of protesters ignored a curfew and vows of a forceful police response, to protest in the streets of Minneapolis for a fourth straight night. Erik Runge is live there with the latest.
9.1	Minority Issues	8:08 AM	5/30	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Police in Chicago are preparing for more protests today. Last night several demonstrators were arrested after clashes with police. Judy Wang is live in the loop with the latest.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	8:45 AM	5/30	150	WGN Weekend Morning News	Illinois is now in phase three of reopening restaurant owners are taking measures to make sure people stay safe. Marcella Raymond joins us live with the details
9.1	Community	8:51 AM	5/30	210	WGN Weekend Morning News	It's that time of the week when we take a look at some of the week's most uplifting stories. Here's Erin Ivory with her "feel good round up!"
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:37 AM	5/30	210	WGN Weekend Morning News	Working from home can lead to a pretty inactive lifestyle. And makeshift work areas can place undue stress on your neck and back. Joining us now from Los Angeles with some exercise tips is fitness expert Andrea Marcellus.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:01 PM	5/30	150	WGN Weekend Evening News	Let's go now to WGN's Ben Bradley who's live in Minneapolis where protesters have taken to the streets again.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:03 PM	5/30	150	WGN Weekend Evening News	The scene is still unfolding here in Chicago with protesters blocking major streets and police making arrests. WGN's Gaynor Hall has the latest developments.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:31 PM	5/30	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Chicago didn't escape the violence in the streets overnight from demonstrators outraged over the death of George Floyd in Minneapolis. The protests turned destructive with people damaging several businesses in the loop. Police report they made more than 100 arrests. WGN's Judy Wang has that part of our coverage.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Elderly	5:43 PM	5/30	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Several community groups are working together with a prominent Chicago chef to make sure Chicago families in need get healthy meals during the pandemic. WGN's Sean Lewis has that story.
9.1	Education	5:55 PM	5/30	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	The COVID 19 pandemic is having a profound effect on the sports world. And it could reshape the future of college athletics. From an uncertain fall football season to non-revenue sports going by the wayside.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:22 PM	5/30	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Now let's go the place where these protests began: Minneapolis. Tonight local leaders are vowing to prevent a fifth straight night of violent demonstrations. A curfew went into effect an hour ago. WGN's Ben Bradley is in Minneapolis tonight.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:00 AM	5/31	270	WGN Weekend Morning News	Joining us now is John O'Malley, law enforcement analyst and retired chief deputy with the US Marshals service.
9.1	Minority Issues	8:06 AM	5/31	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Protests demanding justice for the death of George Floyd turned violent last night, causing mayor Lori Lightfoot to implement a curfew. At least 4 people were shot amid the protests, one of which was killed. Judy Wang is live from the Macy's on State street with the latest.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	5:15 PM	5/31	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Peaceful protests across the country have been disrupted by violence as unrest grows over George Floyd's death. CNN's Darryl Forges joins us live from Minneapolis with the latest.
9.1	Community	5:35 PM	5/31	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Last night's violence left a path of destruction through downtown Chicago. Today, crews worked to clean up the mess while city officials took steps to prevent a repeat of yesterday's riots. WGN's Judy Wang has that story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:05 PM	5/31	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Looters also ransacked several stores in the western suburbs. WGN's Ben Bradley joins us live from outside the North Riverside mall with details.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:14 PM	5/31	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Tensions are running high at protests sites across the country. In Minneapolis where George Floyd was killed, a semi-truck drove through protesters walking on interstate-35. CNN's Darryl Forges joins us live from Minneapolis with the latest.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	9:38 PM	5/31	240	WGN Weekend News at Nine	The climate of 2020 seems familiar to historians and people of a certain age with many saying this year has echoes of 1968. That year there were national guard troops in American cities as protests and riots broke out. There were tensions of race, economics, and politics. And in 1968 Chicago was host to the democratic national convention that was met with protests. Joining us now by phone is John Russick, the senior vice president of the Chicago history museum.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:52 PM	5/31	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Protesters are trying to block major roads, some are staging sit-ins. WGN's Erik Runge is live Hyde Park with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	6/1	120	WGN Early Morning News	Weekend protests over the death of George Floyd in Minneapolis turn chaotic as looters spread out throughout Chicago and the suburbs ransacking stores and setting fires. Courtney Gousman is live in Wicker Park where businesses were targeted overnight.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:12 AM	6/1	180	WGN Early Morning News	We continue to follow breaking news this morning -- as protests continue across Chicago and the country -- over the death of George Floyd. Chicago activist Jamal Green just returned from protests in Minneapolis

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	5:30 AM	6/1	150	WGN Early Morning News	Police in Aurora battled unrest throughout the city last night and into this morning. Judy Wang joins us live with details.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:03 AM	6/1	210	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Karen Freeman-Wilson, president and CEO of the Chicago urban league.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:35 AM	6/1	210	WGN Morning News	The other three officers who were with Chauvin when George Floyd was murdered have not been arrested. All four were fired from the force. Joining us now is John O'Malley, law enforcement analyst and retired chief deputy with the US Marshals service.
9.1	Government (Local)	6:45 AM	6/1	120	WGN Morning News	More protests and more violence in cities across the country -- with dozens of cities imposing night-time curfews and some declaring states of emergency. Joins us live from Minneapolis with the latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:16 AM	6/1	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:03 AM	6/1	240	WGN Morning News	Chicago saw its most violent weekend of the year. 82 People were shot and 19 people died. Joining us now is Doctor Gary Slutkin, founder and CEO of Cure Violence global.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	8:18 AM	6/1	240	WGN Morning News	Cook County state's attorney Kim Foxx gave a powerful speech during the governor's press conference yesterday and Kim Foxx is with us this morning to discuss more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:33 AM	6/1	210	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is retired LAPD Sergeant Cheryl Dorsey.
9.1	Minority Issues	12:01 PM	6/1	120	WGN Midday News	As mayor Lightfoot addressed, unrest continued and spread overnight. WGN's Shannon Halligan is live in Wicker Park with a look at the aftermath there.
9.1	Minority Issues	12:43 PM	6/1	120	WGN Midday News	After more protests and more violence across the country sparked by the death of George Floyd while he was in police custody dozens of cities, including Chicago, have imposed night-time curfews. And some cities have declared states of emergency. Camila Bernal is in Minneapolis with the very latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:49 PM	6/1	240	WGN Midday News	The US, Brazil, and Russia lead the world in the number of COVID-19 cases. Reporter Nic Robertson takes a look at how the leaders of each country have been responding to the pandemic.
9.1	Minority Issues	4:01 PM	6/1	120	WGN Early Evening News	The protests continue in Chicago and across the country today. There were some tense moments between the crowd and police this afternoon in the south shore neighborhood. Our Patrick Elwood is there live with details.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:25 PM	6/1	120	WGN Early Evening News	The violent protests in the city over the weekend may continue to put people who attended and their families at risk. Medical reporter Dina Bair is here to explain.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:01 PM	6/1	120	WGN Evening News	Community activist Ja'mal Green is putting together a coalition of black business owners, trying to raise money to repair and reopen damaged businesses. WGN's Sean Lewis joins us live with the latest.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:32 PM	6/1	120	WGN Evening News	WGN Investigates: a failure to communicate. A long-standing weakness in the Chicago police department's radio system was once again exposed this weekend at the height of confrontational clashes between police and protesters. WGN Investigates Ben Bradley has the story.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:38 PM	6/1	120	WGN Evening News	Chicago has seen riots before, and their impacts have been long-lasting. Some of the hardest hit neighborhoods are afraid this could be happening again. WGN's Tonya Francisco is here to explain.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:00 PM	6/1	120	WGN News at Nine	A peaceful march and demonstration that began on the north side this evening continues tonight, past the city's curfew. WGN's Erik Runge has been with them all afternoon and evening and will be live with the protestors now.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	9:05 PM	6/1	150	WGN News at Nine	Meanwhile on the south and west sides, black business owners, also victims of looting, are cleaning up and wondering, why looters would target their own communities. WGN's Sean Lewis spoke with some of them today.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:01 AM	6/2	120	WGN Early Morning News	A developing story in Glendale Heights, where video shows the violent arrest of a woman. Kelly Davis is live with more.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:06 AM	6/2	120	WGN Morning News	It's been a week since George Floyd pleaded for his life as a police officer in Minneapolis kneeled on his neck. Darryl Forges has the latest from Minneapolis.
9.1	Business & Industry	8:17 AM	6/2	180	WGN Morning News	As the summer travel season gets underway, the hotel industry is making some big changes to get people back in check-in procedures, room cleaning guidelines and capacity
9.1	Education	12:35 PM	6/2	150	WGN Midday News	CPS says it will resume its grab and go meal program, after suspending it yesterday over looting concerns. That left many students feeling the brunt of those canceled meals. I talked with one group who's been trying to fill in the gaps left by CPS during the COVID 19 outbreak. Now civil unrest in the city making their hard work even harder to do.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	4:00 PM	6/2	120	WGN Early Evening News	This protest began at Wrigley Field. Demonstrators have been on the move for nearly two hours. WGN's Patrick Elwood has been with the crowd and joins us live on the phone.
9.1	Government (Local)	4:02 PM	6/2	120	WGN Early Evening News	Community leaders are urging protesters to stay peaceful. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is here with more on their message.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:08 PM	6/2	120	WGN Early Evening News	Tensions remain high in west suburban Glendale Heights after a violent arrest was captured on camera. And it has many in the community questioning the use of force WGN's Shannon Halligan is live in Glendale Heights and joins us with more.
9.1	Business & Industry	4:14 PM	6/2	180	WGN Early Evening News	Restaurant owners, quickly coming up with new strategies to bring back customers and get their employees back to work. Joining us now is Sam Toia, from the Illinois restaurant association.
9.1	Religion	4:27 PM	6/2	180	WGN Early Evening News	Chicago's archbishop is speaking out about the protests and the need for all people to come together. Cardinal Blase Cupich spoke with the Governor today. But our Dina Bair caught up with him yesterday, for a more in-depth conversation.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	4:31 PM	6/2	120	WGN Early Evening News	Despite days of violence, looting and damage to businesses across the city and suburbs mayor Lightfoot says Chicago will move forward with phase three of reopening tomorrow. WGN's Julian Crews is live at the office of emergency management on the near west side with the details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:34 PM	6/2	120	WGN Early Evening News	WGN Investigates: death in Illinois. Is it COVID or something else? We've reported on the accuracy of the state's coronavirus death count. Now, new numbers show several thousand non-COVID deaths in recent months.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:10 PM	6/2	120	WGN Evening News	A state of emergency has been declared in Cicero, following a deadly night of looting. Tonya Francisco is live in Cicero with the latest.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:32 PM	6/2	180	WGN Evening News	With restaurants and other businesses reopening, many business owners have one big question on their mind- WGN's Lourdes Duarte is here with the story. Lourdes.
9.1	Government (Local)	6:26 PM	6/2	180	WGN Evening News	Earlier today mayor Lightfoot announced that Chicago will re-open under phase three tomorrow as originally planned. WGN's Julian Crews has the details.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:29 PM	6/2	180	WGN Evening News	Protesters are out on the streets again and tonight in Bronzeville faith leaders are leading the way. WGN's Erik Runge is live with the latest.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Religion	10:00 PM	6/2	120	WGN News at Ten	Chicago faith leaders lead a peaceful demonstration through Bronzeville. WGN's Erik Runge joins us live with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	10:24 PM	6/2	120	WGN News at Ten	Respiratory support therapy continues to play a major role in helping patients suffering from COVID-19. Medical reporter Dina Bair shows us how doctors are still finding innovative ways to help fight the virus.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	10:30 PM	6/2	120	WGN News at Ten	The Minneapolis police department is now facing a major investigation. Nadia Romero is on the ground in Minneapolis with the latest.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:00 AM	6/3	120	WGN Early Morning News	After days of protests and unrest in Chicago businesses will begin reopening today. Courtney Gousman is live along the mag mile with more.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:30 AM	6/3	120	WGN Early Morning News	Chicago moves into phase three of its reopening plan today, despite the unrest we've seen throughout the city. Kelly Davis is live in Lakeview with the details.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:07 AM	6/3	120	WGN Morning News	The state of Minnesota has launched a civil rights investigation into the Minneapolis police department. Nadia Romero has more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:13 AM	6/3	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	11:17 AM	6/3	120	WGN Midday News	Volunteers are joining forces to clean up a west side neighborhood after the recent riots. WGN's Julian Crews is live in the Austin neighborhood with more
9.1	Minority Issues	11:24 AM	6/3	150	WGN Midday News	Tech companies and their leaders are speaking out against racial inequity. Rich Demuro explains in today's Tech Smart.
9.1	Minority Issues	11:34 AM	6/3	150	WGN Midday News	Multiple cities continue to recover from the looting and violence that followed protests over George Floyd's death. Darryl Forges has more from Minneapolis.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:47 AM	6/3	120	WGN Midday News	While cases of COVID-19 are getting under control in the US, they remain to be a major problem in Mexico and Brazil. Matt Rivers has more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:49 AM	6/3	300	WGN Midday News	Understanding COVID-19. What was once thought of as a respiratory illness is now revealing itself as a blood disease. New revelations about sars-cov-2, the virus that causes COVID-19 may alter the way patients are treated and that could save lives. Joining me now is Dr. William Li, president of the Angiogenesis Foundation.
9.1	Business & Industry	4:12 PM	6/3	120	WGN Early Evening News	It's something small business owners always fear. A break-in, a robbery, or worse. And with the recent social unrest, many businesses have been hit. One jewelry store owner around for decades fought back

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	4:35 PM	6/3	120	WGN Early Evening News	The outrage over the death of George Floyd has exposed another racial divide here in the Chicago area. WGN's Tonya Francisco joins us live now with more on the rising tensions on the west side and in some western suburbs.
9.1	Community	4:41 PM	6/3	180	WGN Early Evening News	And now a story about a mom on a mission. WGN's Erin Ivory has the story of one woman who is helping to feed a community.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:01 PM	6/3	180	WGN Evening News	Two women say Chicago police dragged them out of their cars. Police accused the women of trying to damage property at brickyard mall. The women say they were just running errands. The violent encounter was caught on tape. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live on the northwest side with the story.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:07 PM	6/3	180	WGN Evening News	After days of unrest in Chicago, aldermen across the city are assessing the fallout in their neighborhoods. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley is here with that story tonight, plus reaction from Mayor Lori Lightfoot.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:16 PM	6/3	150	WGN Evening News	In suburban Naperville, teenagers trying to spread good will and diffuse racial tensions, came face to face with racism. It turned out to be a learning opportunity. WGN's Gaynor Hall joins us live with that story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	5:52 PM	6/3	150	WGN Evening News	We've been showing you a march in the city, protesters are also demonstrating in Lake Forest tonight. That's where we find WGN's Dana Rebik.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:24 PM	6/3	150	WGN Evening News	The NAACP says reforms to our nation's police departments are desperately needed. They're calling for a long list of reforms from training to tactics, as well as hiring and civilian oversight. Washington Correspondent Morgan Wright reports.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:01 PM	6/3	150	WGN News at Nine	Dozens are preparing to honor George Floyd tomorrow with a memorial in Minneapolis. WGN's Mike Lowe is live there tonight with more from Floyd's family who spoke out today before the new charges were announced.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:04 PM	6/3	120	WGN News at Nine	Back here in Chicago, multiple protests across the Chicago area. Thousands have participated in peaceful demonstrations. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live in Pilsen with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	6/4	120	WGN Early Morning News	A man is in custody this morning after leading Chicago police on a wild chase throughout the city for about an hour. Courtney Gousman is live from Illinois masonic medical center where a woman died after a police vehicle collided with her car during the chase.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:30 AM	6/4	120	WGN Early Morning News	All four officers involved in George Floyd's murder now face charges. The 46-year-old father died in the hands of a Minneapolis police officer on Memorial Day, as three others stood nearby. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us live with the latest details on the case.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:13 AM	6/4	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:12 AM	6/4	180	WGN Morning News	Illinois is reporting an additional 97 deaths bring the death toll to nearly 6-thousand. State health officials announced 982 more cases to the state's total which now stands at more than 123-thousand. Joining us now is Doctor Ngozi Ezike, with the Illinois department of public health.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:33 AM	6/4	180	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is John Peters Junior, the president and chief learning officer of the Institute for the Prevention and Management of in-custody deaths.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	11:16 AM	6/4	270	WGN Midday News	In 2014, a previously abandoned house in West Englewood was turned into a community gathering space. Now, every year thousands pass through the doors of the "Peace House" put together by "I Grow Chicago". Robbin Carroll is the Founder and joins us to talk about how black and white communities can work together for growth and change as the nation grapples with questions about race and equality.
9.1	Children/Youth	12:17 PM	6/4	240	WGN Midday News	With all of the violent images on television and social media, many parents are concerned about the impact on their children. Joining us now, child psychologist, Dr. Allison Briscoe-Smith with some advice
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:25 PM	6/4	180	WGN Midday News	On the medical watch saving a life in the time of a pandemic. Our behaviors have changed - social distancing and masking are now part of our daily routine. But doctors want to remind us there's something else we can do to help those around us c-p-r. The technique can be done safely even as COVID-19 continues to circulate.
9.1	Business & Industry	12:43 PM	6/4	270	WGN Midday News	In today's lunchbreak, bringing attention to hundreds of black-owned restaurants in Chicago, founder of black people eats, Jeremy Joyce joins us with more on how to support businesses he says are being ignored.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:08 PM	6/4	120	WGN Early Evening News	We're following the latest developments in last night's deadly, high-speed police chase. An officer pursuing the suspect crashed into an SUV, killing the driver. WGN's Patrick Elwood joins us from police headquarters tonight.
9.1	Minority Issues	4:14 PM	6/4	120	WGN Early Evening News	Breaking news - protesters taking to the streets in Chicago heights, upset over the death of George Floyd. WGN's Shannon Halligan is following them from Skycam Nine.
9.1	Children/Youth	4:41 PM	6/4	180	WGN Early Evening News	Thousands of high school performances and concerts never made the stage this year due to coronavirus. WGN's Erin Ivory joins us with more on a local high schooler singing a different tune.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:27 PM	6/4	120	WGN Evening News	For nearly 50-years the old fashioned donuts shop has been part of the Pullman neighborhood. And this past Sunday looters tried to break-in, but the community wouldn't allow it. WGN's Erik Runge is live at 113th and south Michigan with our story.
9.1	Community	5:43 PM	6/4	120	WGN Evening News	Community members are coming together to spread hope through downtown Naperville - after this week's violence and looting. WGN's Marcella Raymond is live in the western suburb with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	6:30 PM	6/4	150	WGN Evening News	Several black elected leaders gathered, along with Governor Pritzker, to address the huge racial and economic divide in Chicago, and how to fix it. WGN's Gaynor Hall was there and joins us live now from the west side.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:00 PM	6/4	150	WGN Evening News	Chicago native, Kanye West, joins local community activists in a solidarity march for George Floyd. WGN's Gaynor Hall is live at the scene
9.1	Minority Issues	9:03 PM	6/4	150	WGN Evening News	From the south side to the north side, thousands of people gathered tonight for a protest in Lincoln Park. WGN's Dana Rebik was there and joins us with that part of our coverage.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:09 PM	6/4	150	WGN News at Nine	After more than a week of outrage over the death of George Floyd under the knee of a Minneapolis police officer, today marked a step toward healing. It was the first of three memorials over the next six days. WGN's Mike Lowe is live tonight in Minneapolis with more
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:48 PM	6/4	210	WGN News at Nine	Charges came down Wednesday for the 3 former Minneapolis police officers on the scene when George Floyd died. Their inaction on the scene has prompted questions about the neck restraint used on Floyd. With more on that and the charges in the case, here's Julie Unruh.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	10:24 PM	6/4	210	WGN News at Ten	The coronavirus pandemic has caused many people to shelter-in but it should not keep them away from their doctor. WGN's Dina Bair tells us you can teleconference with your physician for just so much, before you need to make a visit to the office.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:00 AM	6/5	120	WGN Early Morning News	The first memorial to remember George Floyd took place the same day three more officers appeared in court to face charges in connection with his death. Hundreds of people paid their respects during the hours- long service and showed their support to a grieving family.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:30 AM	6/5	120	WGN Early Morning News	The demolition of the old Crawford power plant will resume today. Kelly Davis joins us live from little village with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:14 AM	6/5	120	WGN Morning News	Dramatic police bodycam footage shows officers pulling a 12-year-old girl out of a burning apartment in sterling, Illinois. Lauren Jackson has details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:43 AM	6/5	120	WGN Midday News	US health officials are concerned about Americans packing the streets to protest the George Floyd killing. They say it could lead to a spike in cases of COVID-19. CNN's John Lorinc has the story

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	11:50 AM	6/5	300	WGN Midday News	This afternoon a Chicago chef and restaurateur is living up to his motto to heal communities through food. Chef Quentin love is owner of "turkey chop gourmet grill" in west Humboldt Park and he's offering free meals in an area heavily damaged during looting after protests last weekend.
9.1	Minority Issues	12:00 PM	6/5	120	WGN Midday News	There's a second allegation of Chicago police brutality at the Brickyard mall this week. And like the first case, there's video of the latest confrontation.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:00 PM	6/5	150	WGN Early Evening News	New cell phone video captures another encounter between Chicago police and people at the brickyard mall. New video also shows a Chicago police officer, giving a crude gesture to protesters. Mayor Lightfoot is speaking out over several questionable incidents involving some on the police force. WGN's Julian Crews has been tracking this tense situation, and joins us with details.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:32 PM	6/5	120	WGN Early Evening News	Some democrats in congress want to make it easier to bring charges against police officers for using excessive force. The measure has no republican support, but as our Washington correspondent Raquel Martin reports legal experts believe the time may be ripe to revisit the issue.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	4:41 PM	6/5	180	WGN Early Evening News	After a heavy week of news, we could all use a good story these days. WGN's Erin Ivory joins us live from home with several!
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00 PM	6/5	120	WGN Evening News	Chicago police officers are preparing for a protest near the fraternal order of police lodge. WGN's Dana Rebik is live at the scene.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:03 PM	6/5	120	WGN Evening News	Racial divides exist across many areas of our lives including education, health care, and incarceration rates. WGN's Erik Runge is live tonight with a story on the "white coats for black lives" movement.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:18 PM	6/5	180	WGN Evening News	Now a 'WGN Investigates' exclusive: one of the biggest car heists in recent memory. They got away with dozens of vehicles. And now WGN's Ben Bradley has learned 'one' of them was involved in a deadly chase and crash.
9.1	Education	9:47 PM	6/5	180	WGN News at Nine	It is a math tool designed by a teacher, for teachers. But when the COVID-19 pandemic hit, this local school teacher says her priority was to get students who lack access to e-learning, the tools they need for at home learning. Lindsay Barnett is one of Chicago's Very Own.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	10:02 PM	6/5	120	WGN News at Ten	But first we've been following a massive demonstration on the cities near west side. It started shortly after six tonight, in union Park. The demonstrators calling for the city to defund the Chicago police department. WGN's Dana Rebik has been with the protesters all night and joins us live now with the latest,
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	10:06 PM	6/5	120	WGN News at Ten	Protestors have filed hundreds of complaints accusing officers of excessive force. One of those complaints was filed by the president of the Chicago police board. He alleges at least one officer attacked him during a protest on Sunday. WGN's Gaynor Hall has the story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	10:08 PM	6/5	120	WGN News at Ten	Fallout tonight from a pair of controversial police incidents at Brickyard Mall. As WGN'S Julian Crews explains, Two Chicago police officers have been relieved of their police powers.
9.1	Minority Issues	10:30 PM	6/5	120	WGN News at Ten	It's been nearly two weeks since the death of George Floyd, and protests continue. Even more demonstrations are planned for this weekend, and across the country. Darryl Forges has that story from Minneapolis.
9.1	Business & Industry	8:24 AM	6/6	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Looting and vandalism hit businesses in black communities especially hard. Now, the community is coming together to be a part of the solution. WGN's Gaynor Hall has the story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Consumer Issues	8:46 AM	6/6	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	The CDC is recommending that everyone wear a face mask anytime you go outside. But they are in short supply in a lot of stores. WGN's Shannon Halligan is in Evanston this morning to show us how you can make them at home.
9.1	Employment	9:11 AM	6/6	300	WGN Weekend Morning News	Two- and- a- half million jobs were added in May-- and unemployment fell to 13-point-3 percent. It's the biggest one month jobs surge since 1939. It's far better than expected - as many analysts had predicted another 8-million jobs would be lost. Joining us now via skype from Washington DC, is Mark Hamrick, the senior economic analyst for Bankrate
9.1	Community	5:08 PM	6/6	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Another weekend of clean-up following protests. Today volunteers on the west side brought their shovels, brooms, and trash bags and got to work. The story from WGN's Judy Wang.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:20 PM	6/6	210	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Washington, DC. Saw one of the biggest protests so far. They gathered at the capitol, on the national mall, and in the neighborhoods. Reporter Karin Caifa has been following the demonstrations and joins us live from the nation's capital.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	8:02 AM	6/7	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	After thousands of people took to the streets yesterday, protests will continue today in Chicago and the suburbs. Judy Wang is here with more on what's planned for today.
9.1	Education	8:51 AM	6/7	150	WGN Weekend Morning News	A north suburban bakery is celebrating the class of 2020 by giving away some of their home-made treats. WGN's Marcella Raymond is live from Northfield with the story.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:06 PM	6/7	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	For the first time in about a week Chicago is not under a curfew--nearly all the bridges are down over the river and there is no restriction to getting downtown. WGN's Erik Runge is live at Wabash and Wacker with more.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:32 PM	6/7	150	WGN Weekend Evening News	Hundreds of peaceful "black lives matter" demonstrators marched through one of Chicago's most pro-police neighborhoods. They hope their message of racial justice would be heard by the community. WGN's Mike Lowe reports.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:07 PM	6/7	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Hundreds took part in a peace walk on the south today - that ended with a food distribution, for people hurting after stores shut down due to looting. WGN's Judy Wang has more from Chatham.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:15 PM	6/7	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	After months of lockdown and empty streets because of the pandemic, people didn't hesitate to gather in large groups to protest racism. Health experts watching the protests are worried it could lead to a possible spike in COVID-19 cases.
9.1	Environment	10:15 PM	6/7	120	WGN Weekend News at Ten	Tropical storm Cristobal is churning up rough weather along the gulf coast. The storm is bringing strong winds and rain. Daniel Smithson filed this report from Gulf Shores, Alabama.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	6/8	120	WGN Early Morning News	Breaking this morning: a Chicago police officer was shot overnight, on the west side. Courtney Gousman is live at Stroger hospital with the latest.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:30 AM	6/8	120	WGN Early Morning News	As Chicago continues to move through phase three reopening, more city services are being restored. Judy Wang is live from grant Park with details.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:30 AM	6/8	120	WGN Morning News	Today in Houston, the third and final memorial service for George Floyd. Floyd was killed two weeks ago while in police custody -- sparking protests across the country. Darryl Forges is in Houston with the latest
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:13 AM	6/8	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Children/Youth	11:16 AM	6/8	180	WGN Midday News	The pandemic and ensuing quarantine has put a lot of stress on children. One of the areas they may experience stress the most. The inability to see their friends. In today's focus on family.. We're talking to noted author and parenting expert Julia Cook about kids and friendships.
9.1	Economy	11:50 AM	6/8	270	WGN Midday News	As the economic fallout from COVID-19 continues, a lot of families are already starting to blow through their savings, trying to make ends meet. We're getting some tips on navigating these challenging financial times President of SGL financial Steve Lewit joins us now live via zoom
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:08 PM	6/8	120	WGN Midday News	Some activists also want to see Chicago's police department defunded. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us live with some reaction.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:24 PM	6/8	300	WGN Early Evening News	I sat down today for a lengthy interview with Dr. Anthony Fauci who has been leading the nation in battling the novel coronavirus outbreak.
9.1	Government (Local)	4:32 PM	6/8	120	WGN Early Evening News	Growing outrage after the city of Chicago cited a nonprofit organization for providing assistance and food to demonstrators downtown. WGN's Tonya Francisco joins us live with the story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:41 PM	6/8	180	WGN Early Evening News	It's been roughly three months since our lives were dramatically changed by COVID-19. This week we thought we would go back and revisit some of our favorites. WGN's Erin Ivory joins us live from home with her pick!
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 PM	6/8	180	WGN Evening News	Relatives of a west suburban man want answers after he drowned during a police chase in Tennessee. WGN's Dana Rebik joins us with that story.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:05 PM	6/8	180	WGN Evening News	After all the recent turmoil, local small businesses need all the help they can get to rebuild. WGN's Tahman Bradley joins us in the newsroom with details on what the state is doing to help.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:10 PM	6/8	120	WGN Evening News	Resources to end racism - that's what a number of community groups on the northwest side say they need. They gathered across the street from the brickyard mall, where police made a violent arrest - to ask government leaders to invest in their communities, instead of the police. WGN's Mike Lowe joins us live from the city's Belmont-Cragin neighborhood.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:00 PM	6/8	120	WGN Evening News	A protest rally and march is underway at this hour, in the south suburbs. It was organized by the mayors of south Chicago Heights and Steger. WGN's Erik Runge is live at the scene

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:30 PM	6/8	120	WGN Evening News	Congressional democrats today introduced sweeping legislation aimed at police reform. But, it's not clear yet how much support it will get from republicans and president Trump. Our Washington correspondent Trevor Shirley reports.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:33 PM	6/8	210	WGN Evening News	The topic of defunding police departments is now being debated all over the country, including here in Chicago. Joining us now live to talk more about the debate is 33rd ward Alderman Rossana Rodriguez Sanchez.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	6/9	120	WGN Early Morning News	We're following breaking news. An off duty officer was shot early this morning. Shannon Halligan is live from mount Sinai hospital with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:15 AM	6/9	120	WGN Early Morning News	We caution you, you're about to see some images you may find disturbing. We're seeing, for the first time, video of a deadly police arrest last year in Texas. Ed Lavendera has the details.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:35 AM	6/9	120	WGN Early Morning News	Part of the fallout from George Floyd's death has been calls to defund police departments across the country, including here in Chicago. Courtney Gousman is live with the details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:15 AM	6/9	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Children/Youth	8:17 AM	6/9	180	WGN Morning News	Now that more parents are going back into the office Many are left trying to figure out what to do with the kids If it's safe to have a sitter in your home And questions they should be asking first. Elizabeth Harz, the CEO of sitter city, joins us now to discuss.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:02 PM	6/9	120	WGN Midday News	The numbers of Americans infected by COVID 19 is creeping toward two million. And, as more states re-open from shutdowns. Some are seeing a new spike in cases. CNN's John Lorinc has the latest.
9.1	Minority Issues	12:12 PM	6/9	120	WGN Midday News	Two Chicagoans who claim police used excessive force on them at northwest side mall are now filing suit over the confrontation. WGN's Julian Crews has the latest from the near west side.
9.1	Government (Local)	4:20 PM	6/9	120	WGN Early Evening News	Mayor Lori Lightfoot confirming today summer in the city will look dramatically different. Lollapalooza, taste of Chicago and other big events are all cancelled. At the same time: she's facing a monumental task of making up another gigantic shortfall in next year's budget. WGN political reporter Tahman Bradley joins us now with more on that story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	4:27 PM	6/9	120	WGN Early Evening News	Much to the relief of parents - Governor Pritzker, is now giving the green light for in-person summer school. There are still some restrictions in place. The state, is under phase three of the governor's reopening plan right now. Joining us now Jackie Matthews. She's the "director of external communications for the Illinois state board of education"
9.1	Government (Local)	4:30 PM	6/9	120	WGN Early Evening News	Joliet's mayor says he has no intentions of resigning following an encounter, captured on video, between himself and a man who was protesting George Floyd's death. WGN's Tonya Francisco is live in Joliet with more on his news conference today.
9.1	Community	4:33 PM	6/9	180	WGN Early Evening News	Nothing like sitting in your car and watching a good flick at a drive in theater. For some it'll spark feelings of nostalgia. For others, it's a completely new experience. Now we have one here in the city in Pilsen. WGN's Erin Ivory joins us with the story.
9.1	Community	4:38 PM	6/9	270	WGN Early Evening News	This week we're looking back at a few stories we've broadcast showing the good during "difficult" times. And let's go out to J.P. With his choice for an uplifting story to emerge from the pandemic. This one is from Mike Lowe with photographer Kevin Doellman. It's about a Chicago street performer whose voice filled some of the city's empty spaces in march.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	5:05 PM	6/9	120	WGN Evening News	Visitors can return to navy pier beginning tomorrow. It re-opens with restrictions and a limited number of attractions. WGN's Dana Rebik is live at navy pier with details.
9.1	Education	5:14 PM	6/9	120	WGN Evening News	Demand is growing among some groups to remove police from Chicago public schools. Young activists are calling on city leaders to use that money to fund student services instead. Kelly Davis is live with more.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:33 PM	6/9	120	WGN Evening News	Save the west side. It's more than a rallying cry. It's a fundraising effort to help minority owned businesses devastated by COVID-19 and looting. WGN's Mike Lowe is live on the west side with the story.
9.1	Consumer Issues	5:37 PM	6/9	120	WGN Evening News	Almost immediately after the COVID-19 pandemic struck. Scammers in the US started taking advantage of people selling fake miracle cures and price gouging for personal protective equipment. Washington correspondent Alexandra Limon reports, there are now even more sophisticated schemes.
9.1	Environment	9:05 PM	6/9	120	WGN News at Nine	Powerful winds and heavy rains also bringing down trees in the southwest suburbs. WGN's Erik Runge joins us live in Oak Lawn with a look at the damage there
9.1	Community	9:11 PM	6/9	180	WGN News at Nine	The city's biggest summer events have been cancelled because of COVID-19. WGN's Dana Rebik is live at navy pier with the details.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	9:14 PM	6/9	120	WGN News at Nine	George Floyd was laid to rest today in Houston, Texas the town where he grew up. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us live with details on the emotional service.
9.1	Environment	10:09 PM	6/9	120	WGN News at Ten	We're following some breaking news right now reports that two victims have been overcome by carbon monoxide. WGN's Dana Rebik is live in Albany Park with the latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	10:23 PM	6/9	180	WGN News at Ten	On the medical watch He got a heart in the midst of the pandemic. Organ donations have decreased during the COVID-19 crisis, but for one local patient - the timing and the transplant were a perfect match.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	6/10	120	WGN Early Morning News	Breaking this morning in the Albany Park neighborhood A Chicago police officer is dead, apparently from carbon monoxide. And doctors are trying to save a woman's life at Swedish Covenant Hospital Courtney Gousman is there
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:32 AM	6/10	120	WGN Morning News	A day after George Floyd was laid to rest in Houston, his brother will testify on capitol hill about police reform. In the two weeks since Floyd was killed in police custody, there have been demonstrations across the country, calling for change. A possible step is under consideration in the Senate. John Lorinc reports.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:34 AM	6/10	180	WGN Morning News	To help us understand the impact defunding police departments would have on cities across the country-- we're joined by Dallas police Sergeant Larry Gordon.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	11:26 AM	6/10	120	WGN Midday News	A new survey suggests Americans may be putting their health at risk While trying to protect themselves from COVID-19. Mandy Gaither explains.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	11:38 AM	6/10	120	WGN Midday News	Former police officer Derek Chauvin was reportedly in talks to take a plea deal before he was arrested. He stands charged with murdering George Floyd. Those new details --come as George Floyd was finally laid to rest yesterday. Omar Jimenez reports.
9.1	Minority Issues	11:47 AM	6/10	270	WGN Midday News	As tension rose and protests expanded after the death of George Floyd, a local principal called students back to school as summer was just getting underway. Why? To help their community heal. Shaka Ahmed Rawls is the Principal at Leo Catholic High School, in the Auburn-Gresham neighborhood on Chicago's South Side.
9.1	Government (Local)	12:06 PM	6/10	120	WGN Midday News	Hundreds of thousands of Chicago residents excluded from federal stimulus aid amid the pandemic will now be eligible for a new financial assistance program. WGN's Julian Crews is live at the Resurrection Project with details.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Children/Youth	4:30 PM	6/10	120	WGN Early Evening News	As the state economy continues to reopen, childcare is more important than ever. Now the state is trying to lend workers a helping hand. WGN's political reporter Tahman Bradley is here with that story
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:33 PM	6/10	120	WGN Early Evening News	It's the end of an era for a Chicago firefighter. One battalion chief is retiring after more than four decades. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live with that story.
9.1	Community	4:40 PM	6/10	210	WGN Early Evening News	All this week we're sharing our favorite stories from these past few months. They show that even during difficult times there are beautiful moments. Here's my pick. In may: Dina Bair, producer Katharin Czink and photographer Mike D'Angelo captured a unique, daily date night taking place at a west suburban hospital.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:01 PM	6/10	150	WGN Evening News	Outrage in Palatine over racist social media posts linked to a teacher. Now the school district is investigating. WGN's Gaynor Hall is live with the story.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:11 PM	6/10	150	WGN Evening News	One day after George Floyd was laid to rest, his brother testified on capitol hill and made an impassioned plea for change. This comes as Democrats in congress are pushing a massive new police reform bill. Washington correspondent Jessi Turnure has more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Politics	6:07 PM	6/10	150	WGN Evening News	As the state economy reopens from the COVID-19 shutdown, there are signs of political unrest in Springfield. WGN's political reporter Tahman Bradley is here now with that story.
9.1	Education	6:09 PM	6/10	120	WGN Evening News	School districts across the country are planning for a return to class in the age of COVID-19. One major concern on the horizon is the cost of keeping teachers and students safe. Washington, D.C. Correspondent Trevor Shirley reports on what lawmakers say Washington needs to do to help.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:00 PM	6/10	120	WGN News at Nine	A big turnout tonight at DePaul University, as students protest in the wake of George Floyd's murder. They want the school to divest from and defund police.
9.1	Economy	9:12 PM	6/10	180	WGN News at Nine	Now, an update to a story that WGN Investigates has been following since the pandemic began. The economic cost of the COVID-19 crisis. WGN Investigates' Ben Bradley has a look at some of the unusual ways the money is being spent.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:00 AM	6/11	120	WGN Early Morning News	A northwest suburban school district is investigating the controversial social media post made by a high school teacher. WGN's Courtney Gousman is live with the latest.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	5:35 AM	6/11	120	WGN Early Morning News	Get ready to place your bets. A meeting today may determine when Illinois' casinos will emerge from the COVID shutdown. Shannon Halligan is live at home, to set the stage.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:33 AM	6/11	180	WGN Morning News	Here now to discuss the safety of everyone during the reopening process is Former CDC acting director and current president and CEO of the Robert Wood Johnson foundation, Doctor Richard Besser
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	11:38 AM	6/11	120	WGN Midday News	New York Governor Andrew Cuomo says he will sign new reform legislation that would ban chokeholds for police. The police chief of Rochester New York says his officers stopped using the technique six years ago, after Eric Garner died in police custody in New York city. Reporter Kayla Green talked to the chief who is at the forefront of reform.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	11:46 AM	6/11	120	WGN Midday News	A decorated police officer in Virginia is straddling two worlds during the protests that have broken out across the nation. Wayne Covil has the story from Richmond, Virginia.
9.1	Women's Issues	11:48 AM	6/11	270	WGN Midday News	A new book released this year takes a look at issues that may be neglected in the mainstream feminist movement. It's called "Hood Feminism: Notes from the Women That a Movement Forgot". Mikki Kendall is the author and she joins us now

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	12:01 PM	6/11	120	WGN Midday News	Orland Park's mayor is ready to move on to the next phase of reopening. WGN's Julian Crews is live in Orland Park with details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:45 PM	6/11	180	WGN Midday News	During the COVID-19 crisis the country has been dealing with a severe blood supply shortage. But as medical reporter Dina Bair explains, a blood service provider is now giving potential donors even more incentive to step-up.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:00 PM	6/11	120	WGN Early Evening News	The video was released this afternoon. Mayor Lightfoot, congressman rush and the police superintendent, all outraged by the images. WGN's Gaynor Hall is live at Congressman Rush's office this afternoon.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:08 PM	6/11	120	WGN Early Evening News	One Chicago family is suing the Chicago police department after they say officers raided their home by mistake earlier this year. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us live now with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:11 PM	6/11	150	WGN Early Evening News	In a breakthrough surgery doctors at Northwestern Medicine have performed a double-lung transplant on a COVID-19 patient. It's believed to be the first time that has ever been done and WGN's Mike Lowe is live from Northwestern memorial hospital with more

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Cultural	4:24 PM	6/11	150	WGN Early Evening News	Playing together -- but at a distance. The COVID-19 pandemic has really created a challenge for musicians who are used to playing together, as a band or symphony. COVID forced them to get creative.
9.1	Minority Issues	4:30 PM	6/11	150	WGN Early Evening News	Protesters camped out near the site of the Obama Presidential Center are calling for more economic justice for the African-American community. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live on the south side with the story.
9.1	Community	4:36 PM	6/11	360	WGN Early Evening News	WGN's Mike Lowe took a look at several couples keeping love alive in the time of COVID-19
9.1	Minority Issues	4:54 PM	6/11	150	WGN Early Evening News	After hearing emotional testimony from George Floyd's brother Thursday, today the congressional black caucus held a second smaller hearing to peel back the underlying issues that contributed to Floyd's death at the hands of police. Raquel Martin reports from Washington.
9.1	Government (National)	5:11 PM	6/11	120	WGN Evening News	In the wake of the killing of George Floyd, police departments across the nation are under renewed scrutiny. Now, President Trump is considering an executive order on police reform. Darryl Forges is in Minneapolis with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	5:32 PM	6/11	150	WGN Evening News	A Facebook post ends up creating a big controversy for one DuPage county board member. WGN's Marcella Raymond joins us live now with that story.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:20 PM	6/11	240	WGN Evening News	The recent high tensions across the country, as well as the pandemic, can add serious stress to individuals. Joining us now to talk about these effects on the black community is former ER doctor and now medical lifestyle expert Doctor Eudene Harry.
9.1	Politics	9:14 PM	6/11	330	WGN News at Nine	The speculation continues about the possible VP pick for Democratic candidate Joe Biden. Joining us now to talk about that and more is Suzanne Chod, associate professor of political science at North Central college.
9.1	Consumer Issues	9:45 PM	6/11	330	WGN News at Nine	Two Chicago families say they were swindled out of thousands of dollars when they tried to replace their roof. One of those families called "WGN Investigates" for help. WGN's Lourdes Duarte has more on her search for the man who made big promises.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	6/12	120	WGN Early Morning News	Officials are promising accountability after a dozen Chicago police officers were found lounging in a congressman's office while businesses nearby were looted. Judy Wang is live from CPD headquarters the latest.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	6:32 AM	6/12	120	WGN Morning News	The Riverwalk is back open this morning. There are also other new outdoor options for people in Chicago. Shannon Halligan is live with the details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:13 AM	6/12	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Minority Issues	8:12 AM	6/12	120	WGN Morning News	Police in California are looking for a woman caught on camera harassing a woman in a racially charged rant. Rachel Kim has more.
9.1	Minority Issues	8:19 AM	6/12	180	WGN Morning News	June 12th has become known as "Loving day." On this day in 1967 The supreme court ruled that preventing interracial marriage was unconstitutional and banned the law, which was still being upheld in 16 states. Trenton and Stefanie Teat met and married here in the Chicago area. And they join us now to talk about what this day means to them.
9.1	Community	9:32 AM	6/12	300	WGN Morning News	A local dad has gone viral with his YouTube channel that teaches basic life skills, like how to unclog a drain, tie a tie or fix a toilet. Rob Kenney's "dad, how do i?" page has racked up nearly two-million subscribers in just a couple of months

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	11:09 AM	6/12	120	WGN Midday News	Changes appear to be happening concerning police reform and racial equality in America. Those ideas developing at the state and local levels, as well as in business and entertainment. CNN's Joe Johns reports on how President Trump sees the change.
9.1	Minority Issues	11:31 AM	6/12	120	WGN Midday News	Within the hour the reverend Jesse Jackson and other public, religious and community leaders will participate in a "spirit of king march" on the west side. WGN's Julian Crews is live at the Eisenhower expressway and Independence boulevard with more on the event.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	11:43 AM	6/12	120	WGN Midday News	The Louisville metro council has unanimously passed a measure banning no-knock warrants. It's called Breonna's law. After Breonna Taylor. The 26-year-old woman was shot and killed in her apartment last month by police officers who were serving a no-knock warrant at the time. Her family's attorney says this is the first step to getting justice. Shellie Sylvestri reports.
9.1	Technology	11:51 AM	6/12	120	WGN Midday News	A website is keeping track of every coronavirus scam out there, in an effort to protect people from becoming victims. Rich Demuro explains in today's Tech Smart

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Employment	12:18 PM	6/12	120	WGN Midday News	Getting back to work is not as simple as it sounds during a pandemic. Company owners and office managers are trying to create a safe environment while also making employees feel safe when they return. Here are a few ways to get back to business.
9.1	Government (Local)	4:00 PM	6/12	120	WGN Early Evening News	All this comes, as city health officials provide a roadmap - and timeline - to move to the next phase of re-opening. State health officials, also announcing today the lowest number of new cases since the end of March. Just 595. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us live now with more
9.1	Environment	4:23 PM	6/12	120	WGN Early Evening News	Funding the care and upkeep of America's national Parks is a decades old concern for lawmakers. Now the Senate is set to vote on a bill years in the making. Washington correspondent Basil John reports on the effort to bring some green to our Parks.
9.1	Community	4:40 PM	6/12	120	WGN Early Evening News	Every Friday we like to highlight a handful of good stories that happened over the week. Erin joins us live from home with her "Friday feel good round up"!
9.1	Government (National)	5:12 PM	6/12	120	WGN Evening News	After protests against racial inequality and police brutality. Congress is now responding. They're taking the first steps toward changing the nation's policing. Karin Caifa reports from Washington.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Immigration	5:24 PM	6/12	120	WGN Evening News	The Trump administration is proposing a series of changes to U.S. Asylum laws that will drastically limit who can qualify. Our Washington correspondent Alexandra Limon reports.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:30 PM	6/12	120	WGN Evening News	Staff at the Field museum are mourning the death of a colleague, who passed away from complications linked to COVID-19. WGN's Dana Rebik is following the story and joins us live.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:38 PM	6/12	180	WGN Evening News	YMCA's across Chicagoland will soon start reopening. The organization announced new measures it will take to help safeguard members as well as staff. Joining us now to talk about this is Manyi lee, a spokesperson for YMCA metro Chicago.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:03 PM	6/12	120	WGN News at Nine	It was a similar scene on the city's north side tonight as well. More than a thousand people marched in Wrigleyville calling for more police accountability.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:16 PM	6/12	120	WGN News at Nine	Hundreds of people turned out tonight on the northwest side to protest against police brutality and call for defunding. WGN's Gaynor Hall has more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	9:45 PM	6/12	180	WGN News at Nine	During the COVID 19 pandemic many Chicagoans stepped up to help supply PPE to frontline workers. But one Hyde Park woman used her unique skillset as a retired teacher and sailor to help get thousands of mask to those in need. WGN's Micah Materre has more in today's Chicago's Very Own.
9.1	Community	9:53 PM	6/12	180	WGN News at Nine	On this day, 4 years ago-- 49 people were killed when a man walked into the pulse nightclub in Orlando and opened fire. Every year since people have gathered at that nightclub at the exact moment the shooting happened to remember the lives lost. Hadas Brown was there for the remembrance.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:02 AM	6/13	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	A Chicago police officer and two suspects are being treated after a shooting in Englewood. Judy Wang is live at police headquarters with the latest.
9.1	Children/Youth	8:42 AM	6/13	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	A chance for families to teach their kids about peaceful protesting and standing up to racism. Marcella Raymond is live in the Oakland neighborhood where a kids march steps off in a few minutes.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Economy	9:45 AM	6/13	210	WGN Weekend Morning News	An up and down week on wall street. On Thursday the financial markets plunged by about six percent but rebounded a bit yesterday. So what should folks do with their retirement savings? Joining us now is Marc Horner the founder of Fairhaven wealth management in Wheaton.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:04 PM	6/13	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Students at the University of Chicago join nationwide calls for police reform. They staged an overnight sit-in at the campus police department. WGN's Judy Wang has the story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:27 PM	6/13	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	In the wake of George Floyd's death -- the mayor of south suburban Harvey is now banning police officers from using any tactic that restricts oxygen or blood flow to the head. WGN's Dana Rebik is following this development and joins us live with more.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:42 PM	6/13	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	As the city of Chicago continues opening, farmers markets are returning, with precautions in place. WGN's Sean Lewis takes us inside the green city market.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:02 PM	6/13	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Protests in Chicago remained peaceful today. Gaynor Hall is live with that story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:01 AM	6/14	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	A 12-year-old boy is expected to be okay after he was shot during a celebration in the Humboldt Park neighborhood. Judy Wang is live from Stroger hospital with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	5:04 PM	6/14	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A statue of George Washington was defaced overnight on the city's south side, with spray paint and a KKK hood. Neighbors say this doesn't send the right message. WGN's Judy Wang explains.
9.1	Education	5:08 PM	6/14	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	The student's march came as mayor Lori Lightfoot held a star-studded virtual graduation for Chicago public schools students Which was broadcast right here on WGN. WGN's Mike Lowe is live downtown with highlights.
9.1	Community	5:30 PM	6/14	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	On the one year anniversary of the death of an infant who was cut from his mother's womb, the family is asking people to do random acts of kindness to honor their loss. WGN's Meghan Dwyer has that story.
9.1	Minority Issues	10:02 PM	6/14	120	WGN Weekend News at Ten	Outrage grows in Atlanta after another black man was shot and killed by police. Video shows officers talking to the man for nearly half an hour before the shots are fired. Reaction is pouring in from across the country and congress is considering police reform.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	6/15	120	WGN Early Morning News	The work shifts of Chicago police officers are about to get a little tougher, and longer. Courtney Gousman is live at City Hall to explain.
9.1	Business & Industry	6:33 AM	6/15	120	WGN Morning News	Casinos in Indiana will be allowed to reopen today for the first time in months. Judy Wang is live in Hammond with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Politics	6:43 AM	6/15	180	WGN Morning News	Demonstrators took over a part of downtown Seattle as part of their protest against racial injustice. President Trump has threatened to stop them, but local officials say they want a peaceful resolution. CNN's Dan Simon got a closer look inside what's being called the "capitol hill autonomous zone," or CHAZ.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:10 AM	6/15	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Transportation	11:22 AM	6/15	150	WGN Midday News	Americans are slowly returning to skies for travel, and business is expected pick up this summer. But are the airlines ready while we are still in a pandemic? CNN's Pete Muntean takes look.
9.1	Technology	11:45 AM	6/15	150	WGN Midday News	UV sanitizing devices are in high demand, but do they work? Rich Demuro has more in today's Tech Smart.
9.1	Environment	11:48 AM	6/15	270	WGN Midday News	In today's midday fix we're learning how to keep your garden healthy with shredded paper. Tu Bloom is back. He's the official botanical artist of the Grammy awards

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:00 PM	6/15	120	WGN Midday News	Amid nationwide protests over police tactics, changes are coming to the Chicago police department. The city plans to review and revise its use of force policies.
9.1	Education	12:32 PM	6/15	120	WGN Midday News	Graduating high school seniors in Chicago celebrated their big day a bit differently this year, which was broadcast right here on WGN. Mike Lowe shows us highlights.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:01 PM	6/15	120	WGN Early Evening News	Signs of progress for Chicago in the COVID-19 pandemic. Today Millennium Park is back open too. WGN's Sean Lewis is live from the Park with a look at the new rules.
9.1	Elderly	4:25 PM	6/15	120	WGN Early Evening News	The elderly have been hit especially hard by COVID-19. It's a long road to recovery but many of them are doing it Including a south sider known for his energy.
9.1	Employment	4:27 PM	6/15	120	WGN Early Evening News	In a landmark case today the Supreme Court has ruled LGBTQ workers must be protected from discrimination in the workplace. WGN's Meghan Dwyer has the story.
9.1	Business & Industry	4:34 PM	6/15	120	WGN Early Evening News	The Illinois Hotel and Lodging Association, released a proposal today for increasing occupancy in meeting rooms and ballrooms. Joining us now with more on how this would work Michael Jacobson, the president and CEO of IHLA.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Legal Matters	5:00 PM	6/15	180	WGN Evening News	Caught on camera, a Chicago police officer tells a CTA worker: if you file a complaint against the police, we'll arrest you. Now that worker has filed a federal lawsuit against the police.
9.1	Community	5:07 PM	6/15	120	WGN Evening News	An Uber driver who helped rush a pregnant woman to the hospital says his actions have cost him dearly. This - after the woman gave birth in his back seat. WGN's Tonya Francisco spoke to the driver. She joins us live outside the University of Chicago hospital with more details.
9.1	Politics	5:14 PM	6/15	120	WGN Evening News	Joining us now with more on today's Supreme Court decision is WGN political analyst Paul Lisnek.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:35 PM	6/15	120	WGN Evening News	Even as Illinois inches towards phase four of reopening, many families across the state are still reckoning with the financial fallout of the pandemic. But the state is hoping to extend a helping hand to at least a million more residents, with the announcement of a new grant program.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:01 PM	6/15	120	WGN News at Nine	Breaking news in Bronzeville. A police- involved shooting at 51st and Vincennes. The latest information we have is that an officer was grazed during the confrontation.
9.1	Education	9:15 PM	6/15	330	WGN News at Nine	Three aldermen announced they'll propose an ordinance to remove Chicago police from Chicago public schools. Joining us now with more is sixth ward alderman Roderick Sawyer.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	6:01 AM	6/16	120	WGN Morning News	As calls for police reform grow, several Chicago aldermen want police taken out of public schools. Courtney Gousman joins us live at City Hall with more.
9.1	Community	6:42 AM	6/16	180	WGN Morning News	A local father-son team builds unique guitars to raise money for charity Their latest creation is a "back to the future" inspired guitar that raised thousands of dollars for the Michael J. Fox foundation for Parkinson's research.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:13 AM	6/16	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:03 AM	6/16	120	WGN Morning News	We're following breaking news: a retired police officer was shot and killed while working security at a hospital in Munster, Indiana. Courtney Gousman is live in Munster with the latest
9.1	Education	8:30 AM	6/16	120	WGN Morning News	Three aldermen announced they'll propose an ordinance to remove Chicago police from Chicago public schools. One of the alderman who supports the proposal is Alderman Carlos Ramirez Rosa of the 35th ward and she's joining us now.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	12:20 PM	6/16	180	WGN Midday News	Coronavirus is threatening the nation's food supply. In Monterey County, California 38-percent of COVID-19 cases are agricultural workers. As Camila Bernal reports, it could lead to a shortage of fresh produce.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:36 PM	6/16	180	WGN Midday News	On the medical watch, a COVID-19 vaccine trial has come to town. It's a potential player in the fight against the deadly virus, and now Chicago will be a test site for what researchers say is a trial moving at an unprecedented speed.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:00 PM	6/16	120	WGN Early Evening News	We begin with WGN's Sean Lewis - he's live in Beach Park this afternoon where shots were fired as US marshals served a murder warrant.
9.1	Business & Industry	4:14 PM	6/16	120	WGN Early Evening News	Also opening soon - bars and breweries. The mayor giving the all-clear to reopen tomorrow. WGN's Marcella Raymond is live in Lincoln Park to show us how these businesses are gearing up and keeping the health of customers in mind.
9.1	Community	4:35 PM	6/16	180	WGN Early Evening News	A fascinating relic of Chicago's history is back in action on the lakefront. WGN's Erin Ivory joins us now with more on that story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	9:05 PM	6/16	120	WGN News at Nine	New at nine, the push to take Chicago police out of the city's public schools is picking up steam. Far north side residents gathered for a vigil tonight outside of an alderman's office to push for reform. WGN's Marcella Raymond is live on the city's northwest side with the story.
9.1	Legal Matters	9:15 PM	6/16	180	WGN News at Nine	The Illinois republican party is suing Governor JB Pritzker, for the right to hold in-person meetings with 10 or more people. Joining us now with more is Daniel Suhr with the Liberty justice center.
9.1	Community	6:45 AM	6/17	180	WGN Morning News	She takes clothing bought at thrift stores and transforms them into outfits that look brand new Caitlin Trantham is a seamstress who is blowing up on TikTok and Instagram with her creations
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:13 AM	6/17	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	7:29 AM	6/17	210	WGN Morning News	After weeks of national protests, president Trump has signed an executive order to address police brutality. Joining us now is retired l-a-p-d sergeant Cheryl Dorsey.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	11:15 AM	6/17	180	WGN Midday News	A continuation to a conversation we started yesterday. We briefly told you about the initiative called "Bakers against Racism". Chef Felicia Mayden is one of the event's participants and pastry chef at Ace hotel and City Mouse restaurant.
9.1	Community	11:38 AM	6/17	120	WGN Midday News	About 21-million Americans are now out of work, and many are turning to food banks to put food on the table. But, donations have dropped because of the pandemic and, food banks are struggling to keep up with the new demand. CNN's Sunlen Serfaty has more.
9.1	Education	11:45 AM	6/17	120	WGN Midday News	Students looking to give back during the pandemic, have set up free online tutoring to help supplement online learning. Rich Demuro has more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:17 PM	6/17	270	WGN Midday News	The growing call to defund police has activists turning to development of hyper local community watch groups. Community organizer, Amara Enyia joins us with more on how she began putting those plans into action in her Austin neighborhood.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:00 PM	6/17	120	WGN Early Evening News	The other story we're following, a CPS student, charged with murdering a transgender woman. WGN's Erik Runge is live with the story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	4:04 PM	6/17	120	WGN Early Evening News	Chicagoans can now belly up to the bar for the first time this summer. Bars and breweries are now open to the public. WGN's Tonya Francisco joins us live now from the west loop with more.
9.1	Transportation	4:35 PM	6/17	120	WGN Early Evening News	Frustrated senators say the FAA is still not taking responsibility for failures in the system that led to two 737 max jet crashes. Those crashes killed 346 people and led to the grounding of the Boeing jets. Our Washington correspondent Alexandra Limon reports on how the FAA is blocking the investigation - according to senators.
9.1	Community	4:40 PM	6/17	180	WGN Early Evening News	For the last couple of weeks the Chicago non-profit, 'social works' has been visiting neighborhoods all over Chicago. They are there with one mission 'To care for our own'. WGN's Erin Ivory and photojournalist Jeff Armstrong were there to capture a city coming together.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00 PM	6/17	120	WGN Evening News	The family of a young man arrested in Round Lake Beach blames police now that he is fighting for his life. But police say they did everything to try to save him.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:27 PM	6/17	180	WGN Evening News	The family of a teen from ion wants his death at the hands of a police officer in 2015 re-examined. An officer shot Justus Howell in the back while he was running away.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	6:30 PM	6/17	180	WGN Evening News	In the middle of a national outcry about police power. The Illinois supreme court is set to rule tomorrow on whether certain Chicago police misconduct records can be routinely destroyed. WGN's Meghan Dwyer has the latest.
9.1	Business & Industry	6:37 PM	6/17	240	WGN Evening News	Most business owners in Albany Park say they can't meet city requirements to open safely. Joining us now talk about this dilemma is Thomas Applegate, executive director of the north river commission and Albany Park chamber of commerce.
9.1	Government (Local)	9:15 PM	6/17	270	WGN News at Nine	Today during city council a measure to remove Chicago police officers from Chicago public schools was proposed, but that bill was moved into committee for consideration. There are also calls to "defund" police in Chicago and across the country. But others say it shouldn't be up to the city council to take away funding like that. South side Alderman Matt O'Shea says it should be up to the voters.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	6/18	120	WGN Early Morning News	Illinois' supreme court will decide whether certain Chicago police misconduct records can be routinely destroyed. Courtney Gousman is live with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Business & Industry	8:30 AM	6/18	180	WGN Morning News	Many businesses have been impacted by the protests around the city in the past few weeks. Jonathan Swain owns Kimbark Beverage Shoppe in Hyde Park Which was looted and is now struggling to re-open. Jonathan is also president and CEO of "Link Unlimited Scholars," an organization that helps African-American students get to college and beyond
9.1	Environment	11:06 AM	6/18	120	WGN Midday News	A wealthy Chicago businessman has stepped up again to help rebuild Chicago's crumbling shoreline and he's doing it as the city gets ready to re-open the lakefront WGN's Kelly Davis joins us live to explain.
9.1	Immigration	11:40 AM	6/18	210	WGN Midday News	Back to our top story, the supreme court ruling in favor of the continuation of the DACA program. Joining me to discuss the ruling further is Eréndira Rendón, vice president of the immigrant advocacy and defense project at the resurrection project.
9.1	Minority Issues	11:47 AM	6/18	270	WGN Midday News	The Illinois state treasurer and Chicago city treasurer Melissa Conyears-Ervin are hosting a virtual roundtable to tackle the topic of systemic racism in banking. Conyears-Ervin joins us now with details
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:01 PM	6/18	120	WGN Midday News	We are following breaking news in south suburban Markham, where there has been an officer-involved shooting. WGN's Mike Lowe is live at the scene, and joins us now with the latest.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Politics	12:36 AM	6/18	120	WGN Midday News	President Trump says he's not afraid of a second wave of COVID-19. And he says he'll support the Republican police reform bill introduced in the Senate. Those are among the topics he talked about, one-on-one, with our DC bureau reporter Anna Wiernicki
9.1	Education	4:26 PM	6/18	120	WGN Early Evening News	New at four. A group of west suburban teachers is making summer reading a whole lot easier for students and their parents. WGN's Marcella Raymond is live in Lombard with the story.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:37 PM	6/18	120	WGN Early Evening News	There has been such a focus on COVID testing that a Lake County family fears doctors could be missing other potential problems. The CDC sent out a warning about a bacteria that could be on the rise due to the pandemic shutdowns.
9.1	Politics	9:06 PM	6/18	360	WGN News at Nine	Today's DACA decision prompted a lot of reaction from all over the country. Joining us now with more is Illinois senator Dick Durbin.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:16 PM	6/18	120	WGN News at Nine	More than half of all COVID-19 deaths in Illinois have been residents of nursing homes. Tonight, they are being remembered, along with the nursing home employees who have also contracted the virus. WGN's Dana Rebik is live with that story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00 AM	6/19	120	WGN Morning News	A five year old boy and a teenager are recovering after they were shot while sitting on a porch.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	6:15 AM	6/19	120	WGN Morning News	Today is Juneteenth. The day that celebrates the end of slavery in the U.S. And several events are planned around the city to mark the occasion. Judy Wang is live in union Park with the latest.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	7:17 AM	6/19	120	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Chicago police department deputy Superintendent Barbara West.
9.1	National Security	7:30 AM	6/19	210	WGN Morning News	John Bolton laid out new allegations against his former boss in a tell-all book due out next week. Joining us now for more on the controversy is Matthew Schmidt, a professor at the University of New Haven and a US foreign policy expert.
9.1	Technology	11:23 AM	6/19	180	WGN Midday News	The political season is here complete with plenty of ads. If you'd like to block them on Facebook, Rich Demuro will tell you how in today's Tech Smart.
9.1	Immigration	11:30 AM	6/19	180	WGN Midday News	President Trump is vowing to renew efforts to end the DACA program, after the supreme court ruled that the program can stand.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	11:46 AM	6/19	240	WGN Midday News	When the pandemic forced schools to close and switch to online classrooms an e-learning. A lot of kids found themselves disconnected at home without the right tools. Principal Peggy Burnett-Wise set out to level the learning opportunities. She's principal at Morton school of excellence. She's joined by a mother of two of her students, Janina Davis.
9.1	Minority Issues	12:45 PM	6/19	180	WGN Midday News	In the wake of George Floyd's death, protestors and looters took to the streets. It was a fierce reaction to great sadness over inequality and the value of human life. WGN's Julie Unruh shares how artists are turning the boarded up buildings of today into something other than a stain on the city.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:06 PM	6/19	120	WGN Midday News	It's become a must have product during the pandemic. But one suburban fire department is blaming hand sanitizer for setting a family's car on fire. WGN's Marcella Raymond is following this story live from Waukegan.
9.1	Minority Issues	4:21 PM	6/19	210	WGN Early Evening News	Today marks Juneteenth - a holiday commemorating the end of slavery in the US. We've seen celebrations all over the country today. Joining us now with more on the significance of the holiday Attorney Ernest B Fenton.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	6:02 PM	6/19	150	WGN Evening News	Marchers in the southwest suburbs have several key issues they want addressed this Juneteenth. WGN's Dana Rebik is live in Forest Park with the details.
9.1	Business & Industry	9:07 PM	6/19	150	WGN News at Nine	Indoor dining with restrictions is set to happen in Chicago a week from today. Mayor Lori Lightfoot made the somewhat surprising announcement this afternoon. WGN's Erik Runge is live in the Southport corridor of the Lakeview neighborhood with our story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:12 PM	6/19	150	WGN News at Nine	A new report shows Chicago's police department missed a majority of consent decree deadlines in its first year. The purpose of the consent decree is police reform. CPD did make some progress, but the department still has a long way to go. WGN's Kelly Davis reports.
9.1	Community	9:45 PM	6/19	300	WGN News at Nine	Tonight we decided to reach back into our Chicago's Very Own archives to 2017. This is one our favorite profiles, Barbara Bowman. She turns 92 years old this year. And despite the ever-changing world, she remains steadfast and busy as ever. WGN's Micah Materre has more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Politics	8:05 AM	6/20	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Tonight, president Trump takes the stage at his first campaign rally since the COVID-19 outbreak began. Health experts are concerned about the spread of the coronavirus among the thousands expected to attend. WGN's Judy Wang joins us now with more.
9.1	Cultural	9:12 AM	6/20	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Joining us this morning, Antony Froyd, the general director and president and CEO of the Lyric opera of Chicago.
9.1	Consumer Issues	9:40 AM	6/20	240	WGN Weekend Morning News	Father's day is tomorrow. Still struggling to find that perfect gift? How about a nice bottle of whiskey? Or vodka? Joining us now is Sebastien Derbomez, a brand ambassador and spirits expert with William Grant and sons. He has some picks to share.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:05 PM	6/20	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Police in west suburban Woodridge are investigating a hit-and-run that claimed the life of a teenaged boy. WGN's Erik Runge joins us live with the latest on the investigation.
9.1	Transportation	5:22 PM	6/20	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	It could be the adventure of a lifetime. Marcella Raymond tells us how you can take the ultimate road trip.
9.1	Politics	9:02 PM	6/20	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Tonight, President Trump took the stage in Tulsa, Oklahoma for his highly anticipated first campaign rally in months. Before the event, the president bragged that the crowd was "unbelievable." But the truth is the crowd was smaller than expected.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	9:15 PM	6/20	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Caring about a community can start with something as simple as cleaning it up. That's exactly what dozens of volunteers did on the west side for the Austin neighborhood. WGN's Sean Lewis has more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:18 PM	6/20	180	WGN Weekend News at Nine	It's summer, and the heat is here! A great way to cool-off -- a jump in the water. But, water safety is critically important. WGN's Judy Wang reports on a water safety seminar today in Gary.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	10:00 PM	6/20	180	WGN Weekend News at Ten	Breaking news from the west side tonight where a three year old boy was shot and killed. WGN's Gaynor Hall has the latest from west suburban hospital in Oak Park.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 PM	6/21	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	One person is hurt after a shooting at a suburban mall. WGN's Erik Runge is live in North Riverside with the very latest.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:20 PM	6/21	150	WGN Weekend Evening News	This is the time of year when markets across Chicago are typically in full swing. But now with COVID-19 restrictions easing, they're gradually opening. Marcella Raymond takes us to a market in Pilsen.
9.1	Government (National)	5:30 PM	6/21	150	WGN Weekend Evening News	Lawmakers from both parties are concerned about the devastating impact COVID-19 has had on nursing homes. Washington correspondent Jessi Turnure takes a look at the actions they are taking.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	5:36 PM	6/21	150	WGN Weekend Evening News	A special father's day salute for a northwest side dad. As WGN's Sean Lewis tells us, this high school soccer coach has spent decades making a difference on and off the field.
9.1	Politics	9:15 PM	6/21	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	On Capitol Hill, lawmakers from both parties say they hear the public cries for police reform. Senate Republicans plan to vote on their proposal soon.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	6/22	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Developing this morning Chicago's father's day weekend proved to be deadly and dangerous. More than 80 people were shot-- 12 were killed.
9.1	Community	5:35 AM	6/22	120	WGN Early Morning News	For the first time since the beginning of the pandemic, the lakefront trail will be open for recreational activities. Judy Wang is live from North Avenue beach with more.
9.1	Politics	6:13 AM	6/22	240	WGN Morning News	President Trump returned to the campaign trail Saturday night for the first time since the COVID pandemic hit. It came amid allegations in a new book by former top aide John Bolton, and also report that president Trump's rally was partly sabotaged by a social media campaign. For all that and more, national political commentator, Jim Warren, executive editor of Newsguard, joins us now.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:10 AM	6/22	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Business & Industry	11:30 AM	6/22	180	WGN Midday News	Chicago's south suburbs are getting an economic boost during these tough times. Amazon has announced expansion plans in the area. WGN's Meghan Dwyer is live with details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:22 PM	6/22	120	WGN Early Evening News	For those living with developmental disorders, understanding the new normal and culture of COVID-19 has been a challenge.
9.1	Education	4:24 PM	6/22	120	WGN Early Evening News	Now to a developing story - the Chicago public school board will decide this week whether to remove police from schools. The vote comes amid national calls for police reform. WGN's Sean Lewis is here with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:02 PM	6/22	150	WGN Evening News	Numbers are stable enough that Illinois and Chicago will move to stage four this Friday. More businesses will reopen but with some restrictions. WGN's Mike Lowe has a look at what's in store.
9.1	Immigration	6:25 PM	6/22	150	WGN Evening News	President Trump heads to the southern border tomorrow to talk immigration and hold his second campaign rally within days. The move comes on the heels of the supreme court decision to uphold DACA. Raquel Martin reports from Washington.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	9:03 PM	6/22	150	WGN News at Nine	Despite the threat of severe weather people gathered to pray for the young children hurt and killed during the weekend violence. WGN's Erik Runge is covering that for us tonight. He's live at Comer Children's Hospital.
9.1	Community	9:05 PM	6/22	150	WGN News at Nine	Dozens gathered at St. Sabina tonight on the city's south side to call for peace after this weekend's gun violence. WGN's Patrick Elwood was there he's live at police headquarters with that part of our coverage.
9.1	Minority Issues	10:28 PM	6/22	120	WGN News at Ten	NASCAR is rallying behind driver Bubba Wallace, holding an emotional tribute one day after a noose was found in his garage stall. The show of support for the circuit's lone black driver comes as the league vows justice, and the FBI Investigates. Nadia Romero has more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:03 AM	6/23	120	WGN Early Morning News	Police and community leaders are searching for answers to stop the gun violence that killed 14 people and more than 90 others wounded.
9.1	Government (Local)	6:30 AM	6/23	120	WGN Morning News	Illinois is moving ahead with phase four of reopening. Shannon Halligan is live near the music box theater with the latest.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:10 AM	6/23	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	7:34 AM	6/23	180	WGN Morning News	Police and community leaders are still looking for answers to stop gun violence after more than 100 shootings happened last weekend. Cook County sheriff tom dart also believes there are problems with the electronic monitoring program.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:21 PM	6/23	120	WGN Midday News	As Chicago gets ready to move into phase four of its reopening plan, the city launched a pilot program to expand COVID-19 testing. It features four mobile testing sites. WGN's Julian Crews is live in Austin with details.
9.1	Transportation	4:06 PM	6/23	120	WGN Early Evening News	A young cyclist is fighting for her life tonight after she was run over by a city of Chicago truck on the city's northwest side. WGN's Mike Lowe is live now at the scene with more.
9.1	Elderly	4:41 PM	6/23	150	WGN Early Evening News	A local college student's side project has morphed into a national movement. WGN's Erin Ivory joins us live from home with the story of groceries for seniors
9.1	Government (Local)	5:00 PM	6/23	150	WGN Evening News	Illinois students will be allowed back in their classrooms, this fall. The governor's announcement, a welcome one for parents and teachers today. But, officials caution the state will not be going back to business as usual, anytime soon. Sean Lewis is here with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:05 PM	6/23	120	WGN Evening News	Today on Capitol Hill, the nation's top disease experts gave congress a grim assessment of where the U.S. Stands on fighting the coronavirus pandemic. Washington, D.C. Correspondent Trevor Shirley reports those experts worry about what's to come— as infections in many areas skyrocket.
9.1	Community	5:08 PM	6/23	150	WGN Evening News	Nuisance fireworks have been exploding at night around Chicago and the suburbs for weeks. It's even more common than usual in the weeks leading up to the fourth of July. WGN's Tonya Francisco has the latest on the issue.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:25 PM	6/23	150	WGN Evening News	People in Roseland are banding together to help a fixture in the community rebuild from recent looting. The locally-owned pharmacy had been serving the area for nearly half a century. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live in Roseland with more
9.1	Minority Issues	5:35 PM	6/23	120	WGN Evening News	It was a private funeral in Atlanta today for Rayshard Brooks, the man killed by a police officer in a Wendy's parking lot this month. Family and friends honored brooks in a church that Doctor Martin Luther King junior called home. Daryl Forges has the story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:41 PM	6/23	180	WGN Evening News	As we get ready to shift into phase four of reopening, we're taking a look at the risks that come with it. Joining us now is Doctor Mickey Caplan. He's the co-medical director of the Chicagoland children's health alliance.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:02 PM	6/23	120	WGN Evening News	Racist graffiti is found in a park on the northwest side, residents and the alderman, shocked by the message. WGN's Dana Rebik joins us live in Avondale
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:03 PM	6/23	120	WGN Evening News	Breaking news- More violence erupting in Chicago. We're hearing several people were shot on South Ellis near 92nd. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live at the scene now with the very latest
9.1	Government (National)	6:33 PM	6/23	120	WGN Evening News	The Senate health committee tackles how the federal government, states and healthcare providers should prepare for another wave of COVID-19 and future pandemics. But democrats say with coronavirus cases still rising in some states- it may be too soon to be planning for the future. Raquel Martin has more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:04 PM	6/23	120	WGN News at Nine	The Lake county health department is urging everyone who attended a basketball tournament in Waukegan on June 14th to self-quarantine until Sunday. This after someone tested positive for COVID-19. WGN's Dana Rebik joins us now with the details, dana.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Government (Local)	9:15 PM	6/23	270	WGN News at Nine	The village of Rosemont has been hit particularly hard from the COVID-19 pandemic. Major conventions had to cancel this spring And its well-known shops and restaurants had to close or adjust their services. But there could be some changes coming as Illinois moves into its phase four reopening this week.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	10:24 PM	6/23	180	WGN News at Ten	Medical researchers here in Chicago applied their skills in detecting cancer, to helping the fight against COVID 19. WGN medical reporter Dina Bair has the story.
9.1	Education	6:31 AM	6/24	120	WGN Morning News	The Chicago school board could decide today on whether to cancel the city's contract with CPD. Shannon Halligan is live with the details.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:36 AM	6/24	120	WGN Morning News	Health officials are stressing the importance of being cautious as some states see spikes in COVID-19 cases. John Lorinc reports.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:13 AM	6/24	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:17 AM	6/24	300	WGN Morning News	So many relationships have been tested these past few months, while people were home together during quarantine. And for some couples, those issues that were under the surface have reached the boiling point. Dr. Ish Major is here for you. He's helping a whole new set of couples in the upcoming season of "Marriage Boot Camp: Hip Hop edition."
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:27 AM	6/24	360	WGN Morning News	As the global pandemic is contained in some areas of the world. And cases of COVID-19 are still mounting in others, we're going to learn a lot more about the outbreak within the next two weeks. But for now, we'll turn to some other health headlines with Dr. Lauren Streicher.
9.1	Business & Industry	9:45 AM	6/24	270	WGN Morning News	You may not be able to travel around the world right now But that doesn't mean you can't experience food from other countries. We're checking out some of Chicago's best restaurants with international flavors.
9.1	Business & Industry	11:05 AM	6/24	120	WGN Midday News	As Chicago moves to phase four of the pandemic reopening, some restaurants are trying to figure out to reduce health risks while recovering financially. WGN's Julian Crews is live in Logan Square with more on the story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Politics	11:25 AM	6/24	180	WGN Midday News	Two big developments today involving associates of president Trump. This morning, a federal appeals court ordered a judge to throw out the case against the president former national security adviser, Michael Flynn. And a former prosecutor in the case against President Trump associate Roger Stone is testifying right now, before the house judiciary committee. WGN political analyst Paul Lisnek joins us now to talk about both cases
9.1	Education	11:35 AM	6/24	120	WGN Midday News	Illinois schools will be allowed to reopen this fall, after COVID-19 forced them to close this past spring. But, there will be a lot of changes mandated by the state. WGN's Kelly Davis has the details.
9.1	Minority Issues	11:54 AM	6/24	270	WGN Midday News	Yesterday, an associate professor at the University of Chicago Harris school of public policy testified before the house budget committee. The topic- The COVID-19 pandemic and how job losses have disproportionately impacted black families. Professor Damon Jones joins us now with more on what he told lawmakers.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:27 AM	6/24	180	WGN Midday News	A little spit goes a long way toward finding COVID-19. Cancer researchers at the University of Chicago switched gears in the pandemic, developing a virus test they say works better than a nasal swab test and it's all thanks to the droplets.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	4:00 PM	6/24	120	WGN Early Evening News	The meeting started this morning and is still underway. Tonya Francisco will have more on the protests in a moment. But first - we start with WGN's Gaynor Hall - she's following the latest on the debate.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:16 PM	6/24	120	WGN Early Evening News	A dramatic water rescue by a Chicago police detective is caught on video. His story may now serve as a reminder to stay safe as Chicago's boating season officially opens this week.
9.1	Children/Youth	4:27 PM	6/24	120	WGN Early Evening News	At the onset of the crisis in Chicago, health experts predicted young people were at a very low risk for contracting COVID-19. Now as months passed, the theory was proven wrong, but even with high levels of infection, babies still do not get terribly sick.
9.1	Education	5:01 PM	6/24	120	WGN Evening News	We begin with breaking news. The Chicago school board has just voted to keep police in public schools. WGN's Gaynor Hall has the update.
9.1	Education	5:03 PM	6/24	120	WGN Evening News	The issue of Chicago police in Chicago public schools has galvanized protesters throughout downtown. WGN's Tonya Francisco is live in Daley Plaza with the latest.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:08 PM	6/24	180	WGN Evening News	A new effort is underway to convince Chicago's lane tech high school to drop its "Indian" mascot. Alumni are asking for the change. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live from Western and Addison with the story.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Politics	5:27 PM	6/24	180	WGN Evening News	Next stop for president Trump, Wisconsin. He's scheduled to take his re-election campaign to Green Bay tomorrow. He'll visit a shipyard that received a multi-million dollar federal award that could create some 100-jobs. More on the president's trip from our Washington correspondent Raquel Martin.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:33 PM	6/24	120	WGN Evening News	More than half of the country is currently going in the wrong direction in the fight against COVID-19. The latest numbers from Johns Hopkins University show a majority of states are seeing an acceleration in coronavirus cases. Darryl Forges has the very latest.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00 PM	6/24	150	WGN Evening News	New at six --nearly three years ago -- an off-duty Chicago police officer was killed in a crash -- after he was chased by a marked squad car. No charges were ever filed in the case. But the officer's family is now asking for action.
9.1	Minority Issues	6:29 PM	6/24	120	WGN Evening News	Illinois lieutenant Governor Juliana Stratton is using her platform to call for more justice and accountability in light of recent events surrounding police brutality.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Immigration	6:36 PM	6/24	120	WGN Evening News	President Trump issued an executive order this week suspending new work visas in a wide variety of categories. From high skilled tech industry workers – to low skilled seasonal workers. Critics of the change include business leaders and CEO's who say the restrictions will actually slow growth and job creation. Washington correspondent Alexandra Limon reports
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:06 PM	6/24	120	WGN News at Nine	New at nine -- family and friends are remembering a DePaul student who was gunned down during last weekend's deadly violence. WGN's Dana Rebik is live at the police district in Rogers Park with details.
9.1	Minority Issues	9:45 PM	6/24	360	WGN News at Nine	Headlines earlier this month caught some Americans by surprise, referencing historic events right here in this country that many had never heard of. The overwhelming response was that very little "black history" is taught in schools. But while most educators argue its American history, decades of obstacles have kept it out of their classrooms.
9.1	Business & Industry	6:31 AM	6/25	120	WGN Morning News	Tomorrow marks a big day for Chicago restaurant owners, as the city finally allows the return of indoor dining -- with limitations. Erik Runge is live in Lakeview with a preview.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:35 AM	6/25	120	WGN Morning News	A new report exposes serious problems in the care of Massachusetts veterans with COVID-19. Christina Hager has more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:13 AM	6/25	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Education	7:32 AM	6/25	180	WGN Morning News	The Chicago school board voted yesterday to keep its contract with Chicago police. Joining us live now is Chicago teachers union Vice President Stacy Davis Gates.
9.1	Minority Issues	8:16 AM	6/25	180	WGN Morning News	A popular restaurant group in Maryland apologized after a woman's video appears to show a manager selectively enforcing rules. Ava Joye Burnett has more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:35 AM	6/25	210	WGN Morning News	Doctor Gary Slutkin is here to discuss the recent surge in COVID cases. He studies epidemics and spent 20 years working to reduce rates of infectious diseases

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Cultural	9:40 AM	6/25	360	WGN Morning News	Most of us in the US have been raised with the idea and taught in school that we live in the most free and just country in the world. So, we're talking about American exceptionalism this morning And the history of all the myths that have created our view of America. That's the tricky topic addressed in the book co-authored by Danny Haiphong.
9.1	Business & Industry	11:37 AM	6/25	120	WGN Midday News	The non-profit organization, "My Block, My Hood, My City" Is offering financial grants to small businesses To help them bounce back from the pandemic and protests. WGN's Julian Crews is live in the south loop with details on this effort.
9.1	Elderly	11:48 AM	6/25	240	WGN Midday News	When COVID-19 began to spread in the US It became apparent that nursing homes are a hotbed for the virus. Thousands have died in nursing homes, assisted living and other long-term care facilities. Joining us today is Bob Gallo the AARP Illinois state director.
9.1	Government (Local)	4:00 PM	6/25	120	WGN Early Evening News	Phase 4 includes indoor dining as well as reopening movie theaters, bars, breweries, gyms and more. All with limits. Joining us now with more on these changes - WGN's Dana Rebik .

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Education	4:05 PM	6/25	120	WGN Early Evening News	Chicago public school students who can't get online could soon have high-speed internet access, thanks to a plan unveiled by mayor Lori Lightfoot. WGN's Gaynor Hall joins us live with details.
9.1	National Security	4:24 PM	6/25	120	WGN Early Evening News	More than 42-thousand sailors were kept in place as the coronavirus pandemic first hit the united states -- that's 53% of the moves conducted through the year.
9.1	Elderly	4:40 PM	6/25	180	WGN Early Evening News	For weeks now, a handful of care facilities have been receiving ornate cards from a stranger. WGN's Erin Ivory joins us now with the story.
9.1	Government (Local)	5:00 PM	6/25	120	WGN Evening News	Indoor dining, movie theaters, gyms and more are reopening across Illinois. It's all with limits of course, as Chicago and the rest of the state move into phase four. WGN's Dana Rebik is here to fill us in on the details.
9.1	Community	5:23 PM	6/25	120	WGN Evening News	A memorial garden is providing both food and purpose in DuPage county. WGN's Marcella Raymond is live in Wheaton with that story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:27 PM	6/25	180	WGN Evening News	A witness to one of last weekend's 14 homicides is calling the killing of her friend "random and evil" tonight. She spoke exclusively with WGN's Mike Lowe. He's live in Bucktown with more

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Employment	5:45 PM	6/25	240	WGN Evening News	For those still working, they might be afraid to take paid time off in light of the state of the economy. Joining us now with some tips on how to talk to your employer about taking time off during the pandemic is Jessica Schaeffer, a senior director at the LaSalle network.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:37 PM	6/25	240	WGN Evening News	Governor Pritzker and health officials praise Illinoisans for their efforts to slow the spread of COVID-19 as the state moves into phase four. The Governor said he's not afraid to move backwards if he sees a spike in numbers. Joining us now to talk about the next phase is Doctor Rachel Rubin - senior medical officer of the Cook County department of public health.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:02 PM	6/25	120	WGN News at Nine	Video images of a suspect distributed by Chicago police, have led to his arrest. WGN's Gaynor Hall is live at police headquarters with late details.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:10 PM	6/25	120	WGN News at Nine	An emotional vigil in the shooting death of Jamal Williams. The former college football player remembered today outside the Indiana hospital where he was killed. This, as a prominent attorney takes up the case. WGN's Patrick Elwood joins us now with more

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	5:15 AM	6/26	120	WGN Early Morning News	It's now been one month since George Floyd was killed in custody of Minneapolis police. Since then protests have rocked the country in a renewed effort to combat police brutality.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:33 AM	6/26	120	WGN Early Morning News	Also reopening today are gyms and pools -- with some restrictions. Erik Runge is live at a gym in river north
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:04 AM	6/26	210	WGN Early Morning News	The total number of reported COVID 19 cases in the US is less than two and a half million. But the actual number could be ten times higher. The CDC director says, antibody tests are giving a glimpse into how widespread the virus really is. Dr. Alok Patel joins us from San Francisco.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:13 AM	6/26	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:08 AM	6/26	180	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr. Allison Arwady, commissioner of the Chicago department of public health
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	8:31 AM	6/26	180	WGN Morning News	Joining us now is Dr. Howard Henderson, Director of the Center for Justice Research at Texas Southern University. He helped create a national police reform advisory group.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Employment	11:26 AM	6/26	270	WGN Midday News	Interviewing is stressful enough without a pandemic complicating matters Many companies have been conducting virtual interviews, some even hiring sight unseen. And now, there is new method being tested - drive-thru job interviews. Joining us now via skype to talk about these 'out of the box' hiring ideas Is Andy Challenger, senior vice president of the outplacement firm, Challenger, Gray and Christmas.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:00 PM	6/26	120	WGN Midday News	Two dozen Chicago gang members have been arrested and charged in a violent drug operation on the west side. WGN's Julian Crews is live at the Dirksen Federal building with details.
9.1	Business & Industry	4:05 PM	6/26	120	WGN Early Evening News	Today Chicagoans can go back to dining inside restaurants for the first time since the COVID-19 pandemic hit. This comes as the city and the rest of Illinois officially progress into phase 4 of the reopening plan. WGN's Marcella Raymond is live now with more.
9.1	Education	4:15 PM	6/26	180	WGN Early Evening News	The Governor recently announced, students will return to classrooms this fall. But with it, comes safety guidelines for schools. Joining us now to discuss some of the issues educators and students are facing Crystal Lake elementary district 47 school board president Robert Fetzner.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:27 PM	6/26	120	WGN Early Evening News	During the COVID-19 pandemic, gastroenterologist Dr. Benjamin Levy, an avid cellist and piano player first started a virtual concert series. He teamed up musicians with doctors and nurses on the frontlines to give them a voice to teach the public about COVID-19 prevention.
9.1	Children/Youth	4:33 PM	6/26	120	WGN Early Evening News	The pandemic has been particularly difficult for kids. Many have been stuck inside for months. But today Chicago announced efforts to make the rest of the summer as normal as possible for them.
9.1	Politics	4:36 PM	6/26	180	WGN Early Evening News	Late last night, the justice department asked the supreme court to overturn the affordable care act. The high court will hear the case sometime next term. Joining us with more on this issue - WGN legal analyst Paul Lisnek.
9.1	Employment	4:44 PM	6/26	120	WGN Early Evening News	Soon, having a college degree may not be a huge boost if you want to work for the federal government. Washington D.C. Correspondent Trevor Shirley reports on president Trumps decision to focus on skills, rather than education for government workers.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:06 PM	6/26	120	WGN Evening News	We're following breaking news in the loop. There's a report of a bank robbery. WGN's Julian Crews is near the scene at the PNC center with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Minority Issues	6:38 PM	6/26	240	WGN Evening News	Recent protests over police reform across the country have shed light on who some of the demonstrators are, including children. An associate professor of sociology from Northern Illinois University says it should come as no surprise that kids under the age of 18 have been part of social justice movements for centuries.
9.1	Environment	9:03 PM	6/26	120	WGN News at Nine	The storms have been causing problems and damage across the Chicago area this evening. WGN's Gaynor Hall is live in Glencoe and she's tracking all of the activity.
9.1	Politics	9:15 PM	6/26	330	WGN News at Nine	The justice department is asking the Supreme Court to overturn the Affordable Care Act. Joining us now live is Stephen Caliendo. He's the dean of the college of arts and sciences and political science professor at North Central College.
9.1	Community	9:46 PM	6/26	330	WGN News at Nine	She is the founder of an organization that teaches children how to better care for our planet. But with the pandemic upon us and recent looting in some areas of the city, she came up with a creative way to provide food for those in need. Toni Anderson is one of Chicago's Very Own. WGN's Micah Materre has more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Politics	8:02 AM	6/27	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	In a letter to Governor Pritzker and Mayor Lightfoot, President Trump says Chicago deserves better when it comes to combating violence. Erik Runge is live with more on the letter, and Mayor Lightfoot's response.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:15 PM	6/27	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Five months after the first case of coronavirus was diagnosed in the US The nation is facing its highest number of infections. And a handful of states are posting their largest single day numbers. We get more on the story from reporter Whitney Wild.
9.1	Community	5:23 PM	6/27	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Like many other festivals, this year's pride fest and parade were canceled because of COVID-19. However the cancellation is not stopping two friends from bringing a sense of pride to the world of golf. WGN's Sean Lewis shares their story.
9.1	Business & Industry	5:30 PM	6/27	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A familiar face in northwest Indiana is calling it a career. As WGN's Marcella Raymond tells us, a beloved barber says it's time to put away the scissors and take out the golf clubs.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:40 PM	6/27	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Now a breaking news update. Chicago police are holding a press conference on a shooting that left a one year old girl wounded. It happened in Englewood just before two this afternoon.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	9:15 PM	6/27	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	The nation's COVID count is increasing at an alarming rate. Analysis from Johns Hopkins University shows the number of cases in the US jumped by 34 percent in just one week.
9.1	Education	8:06 AM	6/28	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Although summer break is officially just beginning many parents are anxious to know whether schools will reopen this fall. The answer seems to change day by day from state to state. Whitney Wild has the latest from Washington.
9.1	Minority Issues	8:12 AM	6/28	120	WGN Weekend Morning News	Thousands of protesters took to the streets in Aurora, Colorado fighting for justice for Elijah McClain. Nicole Fierro reports
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:03 PM	6/28	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A group of Englewood business owners is teaming up to try to get a handle on violence in their neighborhood. WGN's Erik Runge has more on how the group "I'm Telling, Don't Shoot" is putting up a lot of money to stop violence.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:13 PM	6/28	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	A dire warning from the head of the department of health and human services: the window is closing to get the new coronavirus under control in the United States.
9.1	Community	5:24 PM	6/28	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Polo season is just about to get started again. You can watch matches or even learn how to play. WGN's Marcella Raymond went to the Oak Brook polo academy where she had the horses eating out of her hand.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	5:29 PM	6/28	120	WGN Weekend Evening News	Chicago's annual pride parade has resembled a party with hundreds of thousands coming out. But this year it was cancelled because of the coronavirus. However a large gathering still took place, with a more serious tone. WGN's Mike Lowe is live in Boystown tonight with the story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:19 PM	6/28	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	Police solve a cold case in Ohio, 40 years after a young girl was murdered. Hayley Nelson reports.
9.1	Community	9:45 PM	6/28	120	WGN Weekend News at Nine	The COVID-19 pandemic has changed the way we do a lot of things. It's also canceled big events, including weddings. Tom Foreman shows us how couples are adapting.
9.1	Politics	10:24 PM	6/28	120	WGN Weekend News at Ten	Lawmakers in Mississippi voted today to change the state's flag, removing its confederate symbol. The state's Governor says he will sign it into law. Gerald Harris has more on the historic move.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:01 AM	6/29	120	WGN Early Morning News	A violent weekend in Chicago ends with several children shot and killed. Courtney Gousman is live at police headquarters at 35th and Michigan with more.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:32 AM	6/29	120	WGN Morning News	The surge of COVID 19 cases continues in the south and west states. But Illinois saw only a slight uptick in cases, as the state entered phase 4 of reopening. Erik is live with the details.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:13 AM	6/29	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	7:33 AM	6/29	210	WGN Morning News	Dr. Gary Slutkin has been saying that for years. He joins us live with more on Chicago gun violence
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:16 AM	6/29	180	WGN Morning News	Washington post reporter Rhonda Colvin, took a deeper look at the impact COVID-19 has had on the African American communities in Chicago. She joins us now with more.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	12:13 PM	6/29	120	WGN Midday News	The family of a Roseland teen run over by a Chicago police squad car is suing the city. The 15-year-old girl has a number of what her attorney calls, life altering injuries. WGN's Erik Runge is live in the loop with more.
9.1	Politics	12:19 PM	6/29	240	WGN Midday News	Joining us with more on the Supreme Court's decisions today, WGN political analyst, Paul Lisnek.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:05 PM	6/29	180	WGN Early Evening News	Now to our other top story - city leaders speaking out, after a particularly violent weekend where 18 people including 3 children were killed. It's another Monday in which the mayor and police superintendent are vowing to crackdown on crime.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:08 PM	6/29	180	WGN Evening News	Illinois entered phase four of the re-opening last Friday – and in Chicago that brought weekend crowds back to the bars. But after spikes in COVID-19 numbers in other states there are new concerns that a large number of customers here in the city didn't follow public health guidelines.
9.1	Legal Matters	5:31 PM	6/29	120	WGN Evening News	Abortion rights groups in Chicago are reacting to a narrow Supreme Court victory regarding a controversial Louisiana law. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live in the Loop tonight.
9.1	Minority Issues	5:40 PM	6/29	180	WGN Evening News	With conversations about diversity and inclusion on the rise, one local executive says those discussions need to extend into the board room. John Rogers is the co-CEO and chief investment officer of Ariel Investments. He joins us now live.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:00 PM	6/29	120	WGN Evening News	We're following breaking news as the city releases body cam video from the night former police superintendent Eddie Johnson was found asleep at the wheel. That of course led to the mayor firing him. WGN's Sean Lewis is here with details.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:04 PM	6/29	180	WGN Evening News	Chicago saw an explosion of gun violence over the weekend with devastating consequences. It's an all too familiar story in this city. But organizations are actively trying to stop the shootings and help young people so they can resolve issues before they escalate to bloodshed. WGN's Tonya Francisco is live from Bronzeville with the story. Tonya.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	6:15 PM	6/29	180	WGN Evening News	There are new concerns that large crowds at Chicago bars didn't follow public health guidelines about masks and social distancing. WGN's Mike Lowe is live in Wrigleyville with more
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:06 PM	6/29	120	WGN News at Nine	Much of Chicago is still reeling from the shootings that claimed the lives of several children over the weekend. Tonight, a vigil for a ten- year- old girl who died when a bullet broke through her apartment window. WGN's Shannon Halligan is live in Logan Square tonight, where a vigil was held for that child.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:10 PM	6/29	120	WGN News at Nine	After another violent weekend in Chicago, police are turning to the public for help. It's what the police are again calling "operation wakeup." WGN's Patrick Elwood is live with that story.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 AM	6/30	120	WGN Early Morning News	Four people were shot overnight at a gas station downtown. Courtney Gousman is live with details, Courtney.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:30 AM	6/30	120	WGN Early Morning News	For the first time, we're seeing bodycam video of the incident that cost Chicago police superintendent Eddie Johnson his job. It's a story "WGN Investigates" broke, nine months ago. Erik Runge joins us with the newest developments.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	7:13 AM	6/30	300	WGN Morning News	Joining us now to answer your questions about COVID-19 is Dr. Robert Murphy. He is a professor of Infectious Diseases at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.
9.1	National Security	7:16 AM	6/30	180	WGN Morning News	Top White House officials may have known much earlier than previously reported about Russia secretly offering bounties to kill Americans in Afghanistan. Joining us now on skype is Congressman Adam Kinzinger.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	8:33 AM	6/30	180	WGN Morning News	A family from Carol Stream is speaking out about their experience with COVID-19. All four family members, except Barb, were hospitalized and put on ventilators. Diane and Chuck join us to tell us more about their experience. And, Doctor Jeffrey Huml from Northwestern Medicine also joins us via zoom.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	11:38 AM	6/30	120	WGN Midday News	A man involved in an altercation with CTA employees that became a viral video is demanding justice. WGN's Erik Runge is live in the west loop with more.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Economy	11:51 AM	6/30	270	WGN Midday News	Now may be a good time to sharpen your money management skills We're getting advice from Richard Chew, principal owner of 1st Capital Insurance group.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	12:01 PM	6/30	120	WGN Midday News	100-thousand new cases per day. That's what Dr. Anthony Fauci is warning the US could be reporting if states don't follow reopening guidelines. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us with more on today's testimony and the alarming case numbers.
9.1	Politics	12:23 PM	6/30	180	WGN Midday News	White House and intelligence officials are painting an unsettling picture of President Trump's phone calls with other world leaders during his time in office. Joining us now with more, WGN political analyst Paul Lisnek.
9.1	Technology	12:40 PM	6/30	180	WGN Midday News	Gaming technology enters the operating room. A local doctor is using augmented reality to sharpen his visuals during spine procedures and he says it's a game changer.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:00 PM	6/30	120	WGN Early Evening News	The nation's top infectious disease expert told congress today the COVID-19 pandemic is far from over. WGN's Kelly Davis joins us now with more on today's testimony.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:05 PM	6/30	120	WGN Early Evening News	Breaking news - CPD on the scene of a shooting. WGN's Shannon Halligan is live above in Skycam Nine.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Community	4:12 PM	6/30	120	WGN Early Evening News	With less than two weeks until the re-start of the NHL season, the league is set to announce the two 'hub cities' that will host the playoffs. Chicago is one of four finalists. WGN's Mike Lowe is live at McCormick Place with details on the city's plan.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	4:26 PM	6/30	120	WGN Early Evening News	As doctor's offices shifted to telehealth in the pandemic, vaccines for flu, measles, mumps and hpv were not given on their regular schedule. And doctors say it is critical to catch up.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	4:30 PM	6/30	120	WGN Early Evening News	Caught on camera. Federal officials and Chicago police release videos of suspected arsonists from last month's protests. They're hoping you can help identify them. WGN's Meghan Dwyer joins us live with the story.
9.1	Transportation	4:43 PM	6/30	120	WGN Early Evening News	Airports across the country will soon be getting federal funds for improvements. It's all part of an effort to help the struggling industry keep operations going. Washington D.C. Correspondent Trevor Shirley reports.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:00 PM	6/30	120	WGN Evening News	A list of Chicago police officers up for a promotion is raising eyebrows tonight. That's because most are white, and there are no women on the list.
9.1	Health/Healthcare	5:26 PM	6/30	240	WGN Evening News	As you can see from the seven day forecast, the heat will be around for a while. And that can make wearing a mask uncomfortable. But it's still important to do. Doctor Jenny Lu from Cook County Health joins us now live.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:30 PM	6/30	120	WGN Evening News	A man was shot and killed, and another wounded, in a shooting on the west side. WGN's Mike Lowe is live at 26th and Pulaski with the latest details.
9.1	Employment	5:32 PM	6/30	120	WGN Evening News	The minimum wage in both the city and state is going up tomorrow. WGN's Tonya Francisco joins us live now with more on what that means for businesses and employees.
9.1	National Security	5:38 PM	6/30	120	WGN Evening News	Lawmakers are demanding answers amid reports that Russian authorities put out bounties for the deaths of American soldiers. And there are new reports tonight that the White House knew about the bounties far earlier than originally thought. Washington correspondent Joe Khalil reports.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:29 PM	6/30	180	WGN Evening News	A man seen on a viral video being body slammed by a CTA bus driver says he may file a lawsuit. The union that represents the two drivers involved in the fight say they were just protecting themselves. WGN's Erik Runge has the exclusive interview with one of the drivers involved.
9.1	Technology	6:34 PM	6/30	180	WGN Evening News	Facebook is setting down roots in DeKalb. The company plans to build an 800 million dollar data center there, and create about 100 jobs. Facebook says it chose the western community because of its access to renewable energy, and a strong talent pool. This will be Facebook's first data center in Illinois.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 PM	6/30	120	WGN News at Nine	We begin with breaking news -- more gun violence in Chicago. Tonight a 3-year-old child is the latest victim. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live in west Englewood with breaking details.
9.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:02 PM	6/30	120	WGN News at Nine	A strong show of solidarity tonight, in another community impacted by violence: the death of a 10-year old girl. WGN's Sean Lewis is live in Logan Square with more on tonight's "operation wake-up".
9.1	National Security	9:14 PM	6/30	360	WGN News at Nine	According to the times, investigators are reportedly focusing on two deadly attacks on Americans in Afghanistan. Joining us now with more is Illinois Congressman Mike Quigley.
9.1	Transportation	9:50 PM	6/30	120	WGN News at Nine	Beginning tomorrow American Airlines will resume filling planes to capacity A move the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention calls disappointing during the pandemic. WGN's Shannon Halligan shows us what changes the airline is making, and why it believes customers will be safe.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

The station also aired the following public service announcements during the instant quarter:

Type of Issue	Duration (Seconds)	Title or Narrative
National Security	15	Guard
National Security	30	Guard
Health/Healthcare	30	COVID 19 PSA
Children/Youth	30	Boys Town Isn't Easy
Health/Healthcare	20	SAMSHA Building Rec
Health/Healthcare	15	COVID 19 PSA
Crime/Law Enforcement	30	Lifeddoors
Crime/Law Enforcement	30	Viral Consequences
Crime/Law Enforcement	30	Bad Daters
Crime/Law Enforcement	30	Neon Signs
Health/Healthcare	30	Leukemia Lymphoma
Children/Youth	15	Fatherhood Dance
Health/Healthcare	15	Banfield Foundation
Health/Healthcare	15	Skin Cancer Foundation Skateboarder
Environment	15	Discovering Nature
Health/Healthcare	30	Special Olympics
Health/Healthcare	15	Standup To Cancer MLB
National Security	30	Live Hear
National Security	30	Travis Manion Foundation
Transportation	15	Operation Lifesaver
Children/Youth	15	Boys Town Me
Health/Healthcare	30	Aha Workplace Mental Health
Health/Healthcare	30	COVID 19 Break Germ
Health/Healthcare	30	Caring For Urself
Health/Healthcare	15	Aha Workplace Mental Health
Children/Youth	15	Connect 360 Voice

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Health/Healthcare	60	Special Olympics
Technology	60	Texting Good Habit
Health/Healthcare	30	Aha - Bassett Know Diabetes
National Security	30	Travis Manion Foundation
Health/Healthcare	15	Aha - Quit Lying
Health/Healthcare	60	Leukemia Lymphoma
Children/Youth	60	Connect 360 Voice
Technology	60	Texting One Decision
Education	30	Empowering Girls
National Security	30	Wounded Warrior Mark Lalli
Children/Youth	15	ALSAC St Jude's Voice Of
National Security	60	Salute Americas Heroes Sgt. Herrera
Women's Issues	60	Susan G. Komen
Health/Healthcare	30	Nat'l Kidney/Stats
National Security	30	Wounded Warrior
Health/Healthcare	20	SAMSHA Post Recovery
Children/Youth	30	ALSAC St Jude's
Health/Healthcare	30	Stand Up 2 Cancer MLB
Health/Healthcare	30	Nat'l Kidney/ Invincible
Health/Healthcare	60	AHA HBP Numbers
Children/Youth	30	Connect 360 Voice
Health/Healthcare	30	ALS Association Challenge
Health/Healthcare	15	Alone Gen
National Security	30	Salute Americas Heroes
Government (Local)	30	City Of Chicago Baller Decorator
Government (Local)	15	City Of Chicago The Real Friend
Government (Local)	20	City Of Chicago The Fan
Government (Local)	30	City Of Chicago Baker Beginner
Children/Youth	60	Play Catch
Children/Youth	10	Fatherhood / NASCAR

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Health/Healthcare	60	Higher Risk
Government (Local)	15	City Of Chicago The Scroller
Government (Local)	15	City Of Chicago Voice Of Reason
Health/Healthcare	30	Banfield Foundation
Education	30	Empowering Girls Stem Bon
Health/Healthcare	60	Skin Cancer Foundation Big See Long
Children/Youth	60	ALSAC St Jude's
Health/Healthcare	15	COVID 19 Help
Health/Healthcare	60	ALS Association Challenge Me
Health/Healthcare	30	Leukemia Lymphoma
Health/Healthcare	30	COVID 19 Help
Health/Healthcare	30	CDC COVID/ McConaughey
Health/Healthcare	30	FDA Acetaminophen
Health/Healthcare	30	Better Business Bureau - COVID 19
Crime/Law Enforcement	15	Rainn Won't Stay Quiet
Politics	30	Vote Smart Facts Matter
Crime/Law Enforcement	30	Rainn Won't Stay Quiet
Government (Local)	30	IEMA New I'm Bored
Health/Healthcare	30	Poison Help HRSA Make The Call
Children/Youth	30	Save The Children 30
Government (Local)	30	IEMA New Do Your Part
Children/Youth	15	Save The Children 15
Health/Healthcare	30	UNICEF 30 COVID
Politics	60	Vote Smart Facts Matter
Government (Local)	15	IEMA New Stay Home
Health/Healthcare	5	Stand Up 2 Cancer MLB
Health/Healthcare	60	UNICEF 60 COVID
Health/Healthcare	15	Skin Cancer Foundation