ISSUES REPORT WGN-TV 3rd Quarter 2016

THE FOLLOWING IS A REPRESENTATIVE LIST OF ISSUES AND SOME TYPICAL AND ILLUSTRATIVE NEWS PROGRAMS & STORIES DESIGNED TO FOCUS ON THEM.

ARTS AND CULTURE

7/1 12:32pm Cruising Wisconsin/New Glarus reporter package TRT 4:35
A place to get away right near here and discover another country. It's America's Little Switzerland. The enchanting Wisconsin village of New Glarus. It was settled by the Swiss in the 1800's, and it has a lot of old-world charm. It's about a three-hour drive from Chicago. Leading the way is our own Julian Crews.

7/4 5:00pm Fireworks Navy Pier reporter package TRT 2:15
American flags are waving along Michigan Avenue on this Fourth of July evening. Parades are winding down, but people are gearing up for the fireworks. WGN's Patrick Elwood is live there tonight with what you need to know about the big show.

7/5 11:56am Frank Catalano/Jazz studio guest interview/music performance TRT 3:30
In Today's Midday Fix... we're getting in a smooth mood with some jazz. Frank Catalano and Jimmy Chamberlin have a new CD out right now called, "Bye Bye Blackbird".

7/6 11:06am Taste of Chicago reporter live with package TRT 2:05
It's the first day of the taste of Chicago in Grant Park. WGN's Tonya Francisco has more on the fun and delicious food options this year.

7/11 11:03am Chicago Protests reporter live with package TRT 2:15
Protesters will hold more demonstrations this afternoon in downtown Chicago. It follows a weekend of vocal protests against police violence. WGN's Mike Lowe has more on the story.

7/11 11:56am Jazz up in Glen Ellyn interview with guest in studio TRT 4:10
In today's Midday Fix... We're learning about what's ahead for the "Jazz up Glen Ellyn" event this weekend. Fareed Haque is the artistic director, and is here with "The Fareed Haque Group".

7/11 9:53pm New Pokemon Dangers reporter package TRT 1:55
A new app has quickly created a nationwide craze. People everywhere are walking around staring at their phones, searching for virtual Pokemon characters to capture. But just as quickly, police say, criminals have spotted an opening. They are targeting people who aren't paying attention while on the hunt for Pokemon.

7/12 9:44pm Screwball Press reporter package TRT 4:55
It takes a brave soul to do business with a screwball... Unless that screwball is Steve Walters of Chicago. Walters is a poster artist who was inspired by the psychedelic posters of the sixties, and led a revival of poster art in the nineties. As WGN's Steve Sanders reports, 25 years of screwball press is reason to party.

7/13 4:54pm Hamilton's New Cast reporter package TRT 1:15
It's the biggest announcement in Chicago theater since "Hamilton" tickets went on sale. Now we know who'll be starring in Chicago's production of the blockbuster musical. WGN's Dean Richards has a look at the cast.

7/15 12:17pm Pokemon Go Craze reporter package TRT 3:20
Thousands of "Pokemon Go" players are expected to show-up at Millennium Park's Bean on Sunday. WGN's Julie Unruh has more on the new craze; a virtual game you play in the real world.

The Cuban festival has become a favorite here in Chicago...and as we learn more about the country because of easing travel restrictions...the festival is more popular than ever. The festival is kicking off soon. What to expect at this year's big party.

Adelante

7/30 5:56a TRT 6:47
Host: Lourdes Duarte
The Miracle Center has put on a brand new production...and it's based on a popular book by a well-known Chicago businessman. It details the rags to riches story of a Los Angeles man who now calls Chicago home. From the Barrio to the Boardroom is now a theatre production. How the Miracle Center has brought the book to life.

7/30 5:35pm Tall Ships at Navy Pier anchor reads over video with interviews TRT 1:10
The "Tall Ships Festival" is drawing crowds at Navy Pier. This year's lineup includes two notable visitors from across the Atlantic. A dragon Viking warship is docked at Navy Pier, coming all the way from Norway. It's billed as the most authentic Viking ship to set sail in almost one thousand years. The other star attraction is a Spanish Galleon making its first appearance in the great lakes. Many people liken it to something out of a popular Disney pirate movie.

7/31 5:39pm New Harry Potter Release reporter package TRT 2:05
There was midnight magic everywhere for Harry Potter fans, as they flocked to book stores to pick up "Harry Potter and the Cursed Child". It's not a novel, and it wasn't written by Harry's creator, J-K Rowling. But nobody seems to mind. WGN's Sean Lewis reports.

8/8 9:48pm Mural Artist reporter package TRT 2:50
Tonight -- meet one of Chicago's most prolific painters. You may not know Nora Balayti by name - but chances are, you've seen her work. In tonight's cover story, WGN's Mike Lowe introduces you to the artist behind more than 60 Chicago murals as she reveals how each one is guided by brushstrokes, not blueprints.

8/9 5:21pm Little Houses reporter in studio with package TRT 4:20

7/29 12:25pm NFL Youth Concussion Program Not Helping

anchor reads TRT 1:00

A concussion program for youth football players, pushed by the n-f-l. May not be working. The New York Times took a closer look at research on the program and found it hasn't had a demonstrable effect on concussions." The Times also found the program had significantly less effect" on all injuries than what the NFL and USA football have been touting. Both groups say they erroneously shared preliminary data, which turned out to be much rosier than the final results published five months later.

7/30 5:39pm Players Giving Back reporter package TRT 2:20
Now to a story of football, friendship and a pact to give back to the Chicago communities where they grew up. These friends say success on the football field prepared them for successful careers. Now they're sharing those lessons with kids on the south side. WGN's Sean Lewis has their story.

8/5 11:43am Senior World Series anchor reads story TRT 1:05
viewing parties are being planned on the city's southwest side... to watch tomorrow the clear ridge baseball team make a run for the senior league baseball world series championships. Family and fans gathered at lindy's restaurant in Garfield Ridge yesterday afternoon to support the team as they headed into the semi-final game in Bangor, Maine.

8/8 5:39pm Alopecia Scarves reporter on set with package TRT 3:50
When Rosie Quinn was first diagnosed with alopecia. Her parents tried every treatment they could find - hoping for some hair growth. When nothing worked - Rosie's head stayed covered under a slew of different hats and their focus turned to her favorite activities - like painting - to boost her spirits. Two years later - the hats are gone and the family is using Rosie's art work to make sure other kids struggling with baldness find their happiness too.

8/9 11:29am Kids Have Hope studio guest interview TRT 3:25
We have the Executive Director Melissa Moss on, who tells us about helping kids who are being cyber-bullied. What are the signs, and what can you do as a parent or member of the family? Melissa is here to help answer some of those questions.

8/11 11:47am Ice Box Derby guest interview and demonstration TRT 4:45
