

Issues and Programs

First Quarter 2024

Community Affairs Programming

KPPF 1040AM Monument, CO

K239CH 95.7FM, Colorado Springs - K2253AH 98.5, Colorado Springs

ISSUES

1 Education

2 Military

1 Education Issues

The Huntington Way Show (THW) with Lenie de Castro and Yvonne Strachan discuss local community issues with regards to K-12 education
Date	Time	Title	Description
6 Jan	10:00 – 10:30	EP 53 LaNissir James	LaNissir James is a homeschooling mom of seven, a HSLDA high school consultant, and a speaker, LaNissir loves to encourage and support homeschool parents. She provides social, spiritual, academic, and supervisory support for families in local groups and encourages and equips homeschool graduates to transition into colleges, careers, and vocational schools. She also enjoys helping others as an independent Certified Coach, Teacher, Trainer, and Speaker with the John Maxwell Team. In her book, Mom's Manual, LaNissir inspires parents to create an organizational strategy to bring joy to the world's most important responsibility - Motherhood!
6 Jan	10:30 – 11:00	EP 54 LaNissir James	LaNissir James is a homeschooling mom of seven, a HSLDA high school consultant, and a speaker, LaNissir loves to encourage and support homeschool parents. She provides social, spiritual, academic, and supervisory support for families in local groups and encourages and equips homeschool graduates to transition into colleges, careers, and vocational schools. She also enjoys helping others as an independent Certified Coach, Teacher, Trainer, and Speaker with the John Maxwell Team. In her book, Mom's Manual, LaNissir inspires parents to create an organizational strategy to bring joy to the world's most important responsibility - Motherhood!

6 Jan	13:00 – 13:30	EP 54 LaNissir James	LaNissir James is a homeschooling mom of seven, a HSLDA high school consultant, and a speaker, LaNissir loves to encourage and support homeschool parents. She provides social, spiritual, academic, and supervisory support for families in local groups and encourages and equips homeschool graduates to transition into colleges, careers, and vocational schools. She also enjoys helping others as an independent Certified Coach, Teacher, Trainer, and Speaker with the John Maxwell Team. In her book, Mom's Manual, LaNissir inspires parents to create an organizational strategy to bring joy to the world's most important responsibility - Motherhood!
6 Jan	13:30 – 14:00	EP 01 Ethan Gonzales	Based in Colorado, USA, Ethan Gonzales has always been proud to share and express his identity and culture to people around him. Alongside martial arts and learning different languages such as Spanish and Korean, Ethan is an aspiring video-creator on YouTube, known on his several platforms as TheEthanGonzales.
7 Jan	10:00 – 10:30	EP 32 Shawnalee Martinez	After graduating from the University of Oklahoma, Shawnalee Martinez became passionate about helping people in her community. She strives to help in any way possible from coaching little league to volunteering with local youth groups. A native of the San Luis Valley, Shawnalee Martinez now resides in Colorado Springs, Colorado with her husband Anthony and their 4 children where she currently serves her community as the outreach advocate for Rodeo Dental and Orthodontics.
7 Jan	10:30 – 11:00	EP 53 LaNissir James	LaNissir James is a homeschooling mom of seven, a HSLDA high school consultant, and a speaker, LaNissir loves to encourage and

			support homeschool parents. She provides social, spiritual, academic, and supervisory support for families in local groups and encourages and equips homeschool graduates to transition into colleges, careers, and vocational schools. She also enjoys helping others as an independent Certified Coach, Teacher, Trainer, and Speaker with the John Maxwell Team. In her book, Mom's Manual, LaNissir inspires parents to create an organizational strategy to bring joy to the world's most important responsibility - Motherhood!
13 Jan	10:00 – 10:30	EP 55 Laura Kotrosa	Laura started educating her children in 2009. She finds Charlotte Mason to be the most rewarding way of providing the atmosphere, the discipline, and the life that leads to a lifetime of joyful learning and appreciating all of God's creation. Her background includes: curriculum development, creative lesson planning, multi-age classroom management, instruction in all subjects – including hands-on art, science, and math, progress assessment, performance coaching, organizing group field trips, service opportunities, extra-curricular activities, forming co-ops, teacher recruitment, scheduling, creating guidelines and policies, yearbook creation, conflict resolution, support group leadership, homeschool training, fundraising, photographing events, standardized testing, state homeschool convention workshop assistant and silent auction coordinator. She teaches Zoom classes based on the Charlotte Mason philosophy and methods and has produced An Edifying Education curriculum for families and is working on publishing a family night book.
13 Jan	10:30 – 11:00	EP 05 Ben Honeycutt	Benjamin Honeycutt is a Middle School Technology and STEAM Teacher at Woodland Park Middle School.
13 Jan	13:00 – 13:30	EP 55 Laura Kotrosa	Laura started educating her children in 2009. She finds Charlotte Mason to be the most rewarding way of providing the atmosphere, the discipline, and the life that leads to a lifetime of joyful learning and appreciating all of God's creation. Her background includes: curriculum development, creative lesson planning, multi-age classroom management, instruction in all

			subjects – including hands-on art, science, and math, progress assessment, performance coaching, organizing group field trips, service opportunities, extra-curricular activities, forming co-ops, teacher recruitment, scheduling, creating guidelines and policies, yearbook creation, conflict resolution, support group leadership, homeschool training, fundraising, photographing events, standardized testing, state homeschool convention workshop assistant and silent auction coordinator. She teaches Zoom classes based on the Charlotte Mason philosophy and methods and has produced An Edifying Education curriculum for families and is working on publishing a family night book.
13 Jan	13:30 – 14:00	EP 06 Lenie de Castro	Lenie de Castro has been a school teacher in the Philippines, Child Development Lead for the US Air Force’s Child Development Center and the owner of Huntington Learning Center Colorado Springs
14 Jan	10:00 – 10:30	EP 55 Laura Kotrosa	Laura started educating her children in 2009. She finds Charlotte Mason to be the most rewarding way of providing the atmosphere, the discipline, and the life that leads to a lifetime of joyful learning and appreciating all of God’s creation. Her background includes: curriculum development, creative lesson planning, multi-age classroom management, instruction in all subjects – including hands-on art, science, and math, progress assessment, performance coaching, organizing group field trips, service opportunities, extra-curricular activities, forming co-ops, teacher recruitment, scheduling, creating guidelines and policies, yearbook creation, conflict resolution, support group leadership, homeschool training, fundraising, photographing events, standardized testing, state homeschool convention workshop assistant and silent auction coordinator. She teaches Zoom classes based on the Charlotte Mason philosophy and methods and has produced An Edifying Education curriculum for families and is working on publishing a family night book.
14 Jan	10:30 – 11:00	EP 07 Steve Schuck	Steve Schuck’s career resume reads more like an adventure, a mission to succeed and to lead.

			Steve talks about how our schools are failing are children.
20 Jan	10:00 – 10:30	EP 55 Laura Kotrosa	Laura started educating her children in 2009. She finds Charlotte Mason to be the most rewarding way of providing the atmosphere, the discipline, and the life that leads to a lifetime of joyful learning and appreciating all of God’s creation. Her background includes: curriculum development, creative lesson planning, multi-age classroom management, instruction in all subjects – including hands-on art, science, and math, progress assessment, performance coaching, organizing group field trips, service opportunities, extra-curricular activities, forming co-ops, teacher recruitment, scheduling, creating guidelines and policies, yearbook creation, conflict resolution, support group leadership, homeschool training, fundraising, photographing events, standardized testing, state homeschool convention workshop assistant and silent auction coordinator. She teaches Zoom classes based on the Charlotte Mason philosophy and methods and has produced An Edifying Education curriculum for families and is working on publishing a family night book.
20 Jan	10:30 – 11:00	EP 08 Jenna Hinkle	Jenna is the Assistant Director of Development for Alpenglow Music Program is an organization of small ensembles providing affordable and flexible music education to students of all ages and skill levels.
20 Jan	13:00 – 13:30	EP 55 Laura Kotrosa	Laura started educating her children in 2009. She finds Charlotte Mason to be the most rewarding way of providing the atmosphere, the discipline, and the life that leads to a lifetime of joyful learning and appreciating all of God’s creation. Her background includes: curriculum development, creative lesson planning, multi-age classroom management, instruction in all subjects – including hands-on art, science, and math, progress assessment, performance coaching, organizing group field trips, service opportunities, extra-curricular activities, forming co-ops, teacher recruitment, scheduling, creating guidelines and policies, yearbook creation, conflict resolution, support group leadership, homeschool training, fundraising, photographing events, standardized testing, state homeschool convention workshop assistant and silent auction coordinator. She teaches Zoom classes based on the Charlotte Mason philosophy and methods and has produced An Edifying Education curriculum for families and is working on publishing a family night book.

20 Jan	13:30 – 14:00	EP 09 Jenna Hinkle	Jenna is the Assistant Director of Development for Alpenglow Music Program is an organization of small ensembles providing affordable and flexible music education to students of all ages and skill levels.
21 Jan	10:00 – 10:30	EP 55 Laura Kotrosa	Laura started educating her children in 2009. She finds Charlotte Mason to be the most rewarding way of providing the atmosphere, the discipline, and the life that leads to a lifetime of joyful learning and appreciating all of God's creation. Her background includes: curriculum development, creative lesson planning, multi-age classroom management, instruction in all subjects – including hands-on art, science, and math, progress assessment, performance coaching, organizing group field trips, service opportunities, extra-curricular activities, forming co-ops, teacher recruitment, scheduling, creating guidelines and policies, yearbook creation, conflict resolution, support group leadership, homeschool training, fundraising, photographing events, standardized testing, state homeschool convention workshop assistant and silent auction coordinator. She teaches Zoom classes based on the Charlotte Mason philosophy and methods and has produced An Edifying Education curriculum for families and is working on publishing a family night book.
21 Jan	10:30 – 11:00	EP 10 Yvonne Strachman	Yvonne is the author of Inspirational Homeschooling. Her work has been published In Christian Home Educators of Colorado's Update Magazine and the book, "Just Like You: A Collection of Homeschool Journeys" from HomeWorks by Precept. She also writes blog posts for HomeschoolHelp.com, the Christian Home Educators of Colorado (CHEC) blog, MyHomeschoolHub.com. and InspirationalHomeschooling.com.

27 Jan	10:00 – 10:30	EP 55 Laura Kotrosa	Laura started educating her children in 2009. She finds Charlotte Mason to be the most rewarding way of providing the atmosphere, the discipline, and the life that leads to a lifetime of joyful learning and appreciating all of God's creation. Her background includes: curriculum development, creative lesson planning, multi-age classroom management, instruction in all subjects – including hands-on art, science, and math, progress assessment, performance coaching, organizing group field trips, service opportunities, extra-curricular activities, forming co-ops, teacher recruitment, scheduling, creating guidelines and policies, yearbook creation, conflict resolution, support group leadership, homeschool training, fundraising, photographing events, standardized testing, state homeschool convention workshop assistant and silent auction coordinator. She teaches Zoom classes based on the Charlotte Mason philosophy and methods and has produced An Edifying Education curriculum for families and is working on publishing a family night book.
27 Jan	10:30 – 11:00	EP 11 David Hamby	Mr. Hamby holds a Master of Education in Educational Leadership from Troy State University and a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering from the US Air Force Academy. He spent over 22 years as a Combat Search and Rescue Helicopter Pilot serving all over the world to include living in Iceland and Japan (Okinawa), as well as deployments to South Korea, Turkey, Qatar and combat tours in Afghanistan and Iraq. Mr. Hamby retired from the Air Force in 2013 with over 2,300 flying hours in nine different aircraft and received many military awards and decorations to include the Meritorious Service Medal, Combat Action Ribbon and Bronze Star Medal. He completed his certification to teach both middle and high school math classes in 2016 and has taught Algebra 1, Algebra II, Geometry, Pre-Calculus, Probability & Statistics, and AP Probability & Statistics. Mr. Hamby currently works at the Huntington Learning Center in Colorado Springs as a tutor for ACT/SAT math test preparation and help with homework in different math subjects. He enjoys

			sports (he has coached recreational soccer and middle school track & field and soccer), reading, movies, music, flying, and spending time with his family.
27 Jan	13:00 – 13:30	EP 55 Laura Kotrosa	Laura started educating her children in 2009. She finds Charlotte Mason to be the most rewarding way of providing the atmosphere, the discipline, and the life that leads to a lifetime of joyful learning and appreciating all of God’s creation. Her background includes: curriculum development, creative lesson planning, multi-age classroom management, instruction in all subjects – including hands-on art, science, and math, progress assessment, performance coaching, organizing group field trips, service opportunities, extra-curricular activities, forming co-ops, teacher recruitment, scheduling, creating guidelines and policies, yearbook creation, conflict resolution, support group leadership, homeschool training, fundraising, photographing events, standardized testing, state homeschool convention workshop assistant and silent auction coordinator. She teaches Zoom classes based on the Charlotte Mason philosophy and methods and has produced An Edifying Education curriculum for families and is working on publishing a family night book.
27 Jan	13:30 – 14:00	EP 13 Dr Margaret	Dr. Margaret B. Wright, President/CEO of Collaborative Educational Supportive Services, LLC (CESS, LLC) in Pueblo, is an author, an education advocate/consultant/; a Formational Prayer Counselor; a Colorado Certified Addiction Specialist; a Competency Restoration Education Provider; an ordained minister of the gospel; and a professional performing artist. She holds a PhD in educational research and policy analysis with a concentration in curriculum and instruction; a MSA in School Administration and a BA and MFA in Theatre Arts. She is a graduate of the certificate program in formational prayer (Terry Wardle’s) from Ashland Theological Seminary in Ashland, Ohio and the certificate program in theology from the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta, Georgia. She currently serves as the CEO of CESS, LLC; Exec. Dir/Consultant with Pueblo Empowerment

			Community Development Corporation; and co-founder/apostle of Pueblo Center of Worship and Empowerment.
28 Jan	10:00 – 10:30	EP 55 Laura Kotrosa	Laura started educating her children in 2009. She finds Charlotte Mason to be the most rewarding way of providing the atmosphere, the discipline, and the life that leads to a lifetime of joyful learning and appreciating all of God's creation. Her background includes: curriculum development, creative lesson planning, multi-age classroom management, instruction in all subjects – including hands-on art, science, and math, progress assessment, performance coaching, organizing group field trips, service opportunities, extra-curricular activities, forming co-ops, teacher recruitment, scheduling, creating guidelines and policies, yearbook creation, conflict resolution, support group leadership, homeschool training, fundraising, photographing events, standardized testing, state homeschool convention workshop assistant and silent auction coordinator. She teaches Zoom classes based on the Charlotte Mason philosophy and methods and has produced An Edifying Education curriculum for families and is working on publishing a family night book.
28 Jan	10:30 – 11:00	EP 12 Sarah Knox	Sarah has a career spanning more than 20 years and a variety of educational roles including classroom teacher, early childhood education, paraeducator, and STEM instructor. She has a bachelor's degree in History, and Elementary Teaching post-grad certification, and a Master's in Education Curriculum and Instruction. Sarah is passionate about bringing the love of STEM to youth of all ages and backgrounds. After moving back and forth between the USA and Europe several times as an Air Force spouse, her family settled in Colorado Springs in 2014. She taught 5th grade for two years in D11, bringing her students to STARBASE both years before joining the STARBASE team as a full time instructor in 2017. In October 2021 Sarah moved into the role of Director where she continues to share the "hands-on/minds-on" STARBASE program with students throughout the Colorado Springs area.

3 Feb	10:00 – 10:30	EP 55 Laura Kotrosa	Laura started educating her children in 2009. She finds Charlotte Mason to be the most rewarding way of providing the atmosphere, the discipline, and the life that leads to a lifetime of joyful learning and appreciating all of God’s creation. Her background includes: curriculum development, creative lesson planning, multi-age classroom management, instruction in all subjects – including hands-on art, science, and math, progress assessment, performance coaching, organizing group field trips, service opportunities, extra-curricular activities, forming co-ops, teacher recruitment, scheduling, creating guidelines and policies, yearbook creation, conflict resolution, support group leadership, homeschool training, fundraising, photographing events, standardized testing, state homeschool convention workshop assistant and silent auction coordinator. She teaches Zoom classes based on the Charlotte Mason philosophy and methods and has produced An Edifying Education curriculum for families and is working on publishing a family night book.
3 Feb	10:30 – 11:00	EP 14 Abbie Holman & Theresa Klinitski	Abbie Kohlman currently serves as the Program Support Specialist for the Pikes Peak Business and Education Alliance (PPBEA). Theresa Klinitski, Operations Manager and Education Coordinator with the Pikes Peak Business and Education Alliance (PPBEA).
3 Feb	13:00 – 13:30	EP 55 Laura Kotrosa	Laura started educating her children in 2009. She finds Charlotte Mason to be the most rewarding way of providing the atmosphere, the discipline, and the life that leads to a lifetime of joyful learning and appreciating all of God’s creation. Her background includes: curriculum development, creative lesson planning, multi-age classroom management, instruction in all subjects – including hands-on art, science, and math, progress assessment, performance coaching, organizing group field trips, service opportunities, extra-curricular activities, forming co-ops, teacher recruitment, scheduling, creating guidelines and policies, yearbook creation, conflict resolution, support group leadership, homeschool training, fundraising, photographing events, standardized testing, state homeschool

			convention workshop assistant and silent auction coordinator. She teaches Zoom classes based on the Charlotte Mason philosophy and methods and has produced An Edifying Education curriculum for families and is working on publishing a family night book.
3 Feb	13:30 – 14:00	EP 15 Yvonne Strachan	While homeschooling five children over the past thirteen years, Yvonne has overcome many challenges; she teaches multiple children, a special needs child, and high school students while dealing with chronic illness, providing care for a parent, and working. Being uniquely equipped through her experiences, Yvonne guides and encourages homeschool parents by consulting with homeschool families and speaking at homeschool conventions and for homeschool groups nationwide. Yvonne is the author of Inspirational Homeschooling. Her work has been published in Christian Home Educators of Colorado's Update Magazine and the book, "Just Like You: A Collection of Homeschool Journeys" from HomeWorks by Precept. She also writes blog posts for HomeschoolHelp.com, the Christian Home Educators of Colorado (CHEC) blog, MyHomeschoolHub.com. and InspirationalHomeschooling.com. Yvonne resides in Colorado Springs with her five children and husband of twenty-five years.
4 Feb	10:00 – 10:30	EP 55 Laura Kotrosa	Laura started educating her children in 2009. She finds Charlotte Mason to be the most rewarding way of providing the atmosphere, the discipline, and the life that leads to a lifetime of joyful learning and appreciating all of God's creation. Her background includes: curriculum development, creative lesson planning, multi-age classroom management, instruction in all subjects – including hands-on art, science, and math, progress assessment, performance coaching, organizing group field trips, service opportunities, extra-curricular activities, forming co-ops, teacher recruitment, scheduling, creating guidelines and policies, yearbook creation, conflict resolution, support group leadership, homeschool training, fundraising, photographing events, standardized testing, state homeschool convention workshop assistant and silent auction

			coordinator. She teaches Zoom classes based on the Charlotte Mason philosophy and methods and has produced An Edifying Education curriculum for families and is working on publishing a family night book.
4 Feb	10:30 – 11:00	EP 16 Marsha Brower	Marsha Brower started playing instruments at age three and has never stopped. Though teaching music was not her career goal, her interest in and enjoyment of music guided her passion to teach music to others. She taught music classes in school and offered private lessons, growing in knowledge as she prepared for and taught each class. She began teaching music to students in homeschool co-ops and enrichment programs. As an assistant for two homeschool band programs her understanding of music instruction grew. When the instructors for these programs could no longer teach, she picked up the baton and carried on. Hence, Colorado Homeschool Music was born.
10 Feb	10:00 – 10:30	EP 56 LaNissir James	LaNissir James is a homeschooling mom of seven, a HSLDA high school consultant, and a speaker, LaNissir loves to encourage and support homeschool parents. She provides social, spiritual, academic, and supervisory support for families in local groups and encourages and equips homeschool graduates to transition into colleges, careers, and vocational schools. She also enjoys helping others as an independent Certified Coach, Teacher, Trainer, and Speaker with the John Maxwell Team. In her book, Mom's Manual, LaNissir inspires parents to create an organizational strategy to bring joy to the world's most important responsibility - Motherhood!
10 Feb	10:30 – 11:00	EP 17 Deborah Randall	Deborah Randall is a homeschooling parent of 14 years and a Colorado Licensed Educator with an elementary education degree. She taught in the public classroom setting in Tulsa, OK for eight years. While homeschooling her two daughters over the past 14 years in Colorado, she has taught in homeschool co-ops. During the last 10 years, she has assisted Colorado families in the evaluation and testing process for homeschooling. Deborah enjoys learning about an individual's passions in their learning. She

			would be honored to discuss various options and/or assist your family in the Colorado home-based education evaluation process.
10 Feb	13:00 – 13:30	EP 56 LaNissir James	LaNissir James is a homeschooling mom of seven, a HSLDA high school consultant, and a speaker, LaNissir loves to encourage and support homeschool parents. She provides social, spiritual, academic, and supervisory support for families in local groups and encourages and equips homeschool graduates to transition into colleges, careers, and vocational schools. She also enjoys helping others as an independent Certified Coach, Teacher, Trainer, and Speaker with the John Maxwell Team. In her book, Mom's Manual, LaNissir inspires parents to create an organizational strategy to bring joy to the world's most important responsibility - Motherhood!
10 Feb	13:30 – 14:00	EP 18 Mark Hyatt	Mark Hyatt, founder and CEO of Falcon AeroLab. Mark served as a fighter pilot squadron commander in the Air Force, advisor to Secretary of Defense and the past two White House Administrations on school choice, safety, social climate and culture issues. He's also served as Vice Commandant at the USAF Academy, Director of their Center for Character and Leadership Development, President of the largest charter school in Colorado, The Classical Academy, and Executive Director of the Charter School Institute in Denver. He's testified at the Colorado Legislature to keep partial funding to public schools for home school students. Mark's journey through the education industry combined with his wife, Debbie's, experience advocating for youth brought them to the realization that children thrive when education is tailored to their needs and interests. Together, they founded Falcon AeroLab.
11 Feb	10:00 – 10:30	EP 56 LaNissir James	LaNissir James is a homeschooling mom of seven, a HSLDA high school consultant, and a speaker, LaNissir loves to encourage and support homeschool parents. She provides social, spiritual, academic, and supervisory support for families in local groups and encourages and equips homeschool graduates to transition into colleges, careers, and vocational schools. She also enjoys helping others as an independent Certified Coach, Teacher, Trainer, and Speaker with the John Maxwell Team. In her book, Mom's Manual, LaNissir inspires parents to create an organizational strategy to bring joy to the world's most important responsibility - Motherhood!

11 Feb	10:30 – 11:00	EP 20 Hudson Puhek	Hudson Puhek has competed with Homeschool Science Colorado for seven years, serving as team captain for the past two seasons. Competing in every category of science and engineering from optics and astronomy to genetics and ornithology, Hudson has earned more than 50 regional, state, and national level medals. After graduating from homeschool in 2023, he will study aerospace engineering in college.
17 Feb	10:00 – 10:30	EP 57 Garrett Thiesen	Garrett Thiesen was homeschooled from the start. During his homeschool years, he was involved at his church. He also held several lead roles throughout his time acting in front of hundreds of people in fifteen separate plays! He has been active in his local Civil Air Patrol squadron which has grown his leadership capabilities. Civil Air Patrol also opened doors to travel and serve at the EAA Airshow in Wisconsin and learn at the Civic Leadership Academy in Washington D.C. He is looking forward to visiting Australia through the International Air Cadet Exchange this summer. Civil Air Patrol also equipped Garrett with knowledge which contributed to his interest in flying. Garrett graduated high school with dual credits and is looking forward to pursuing his career as a pilot by attending and graduating from the United Aviate Academy.
17 Feb	10:30 – 11:00	EP 24 Sara Hurley	Sara Hurley teaches her four children at home, surrounded by their 70 acre family farm in southeast Colorado. She is dedicated to bringing educational opportunities to rural Colorado homeschool students and is passionate about innovation in education. Sara also grew passionate about the Falcon AeroLab program as her children began to attend. Therefore, she asked what she could do to help the Falcon AeroLab program grow and be around to serve future generations. She has been working hard to minister to families through Falcon AeroLab ever since!

17 Feb	13:00 – 13:30	EP 57 Garrett Thiesen	Garrett Thiesen was homeschooled from the start. During his homeschool years, he was involved at his church. He also held several lead roles throughout his time acting in front of hundreds of people in fifteen separate plays! He has been active in his local Civil Air Patrol squadron which has grown his leadership capabilities. Civil Air Patrol also opened doors to travel and serve at the EAA Airshow in Wisconsin and learn at the Civic Leadership Academy in Washington D.C. He is looking forward to visiting Australia through the International Air Cadet Exchange this summer. Civil Air Patrol also equipped Garrett with knowledge which contributed to his interest in flying. Garrett graduated high school with dual credits and is looking forward to pursuing his career as a pilot by attending and graduating from the United Aviate Academy.
17 Feb	13:30 – 14:00	EP 25 Sara Hurley	Sara Hurley teaches her four children at home, surrounded by their 70 acre family farm in southeast Colorado. She is dedicated to bringing educational opportunities to rural Colorado homeschool students and is passionate about innovation in education. Sara also grew passionate about the Falcon AeroLab program as her children began to attend. Therefore, she asked what she could do to help the Falcon AeroLab program grow and be around to serve future generations. She has been working hard to minister to families through Falcon AeroLab ever since!
18 Feb	10:00 – 10:30	EP 57 Garrett Thiesen	Garrett Thiesen was homeschooled from the start. During his homeschool years, he was involved at his church. He also held several lead roles throughout his time acting in front of hundreds of people in fifteen separate plays! He has been active in his local Civil Air Patrol squadron which has grown his leadership capabilities. Civil Air Patrol also opened doors to travel and serve at the EAA Airshow in Wisconsin and learn at the Civic Leadership Academy in Washington D.C. He is looking forward to visiting

			Australia through the International Air Cadet Exchange this summer. Civil Air Patrol also equipped Garrett with knowledge which contributed to his interest in flying. Garrett graduated high school with dual credits and is looking forward to pursuing his career as a pilot by attending and graduating from the United Aviate Academy.
18 Feb	10:30 – 11:00	EP 26 Barb West	Barbara West started homeschooling the oldest of their 5 children in 1988. She has experience homeschooling in seven states and overseas. In addition to homeschooling, Barbara has been a speaker at homeschool conferences in the U.S. and abroad. She has written articles and devotions for several homeschool publications. Barbara also manages the Facebook page, “Homeschooling Colorado.” She currently serves on the board of the Global Home Education Exchange, promoting the parental right to homeschool around the globe. Familiar with serving through and creating homeschool support groups and co-ops, Barbara and her husband, Bruce, serve local homeschool families through the Colorado Springs Homeschool Sports League.
24 Feb	10:00 – 10:30	EP 58 Garrett Thiesen	Garrett Thiesen was homeschooled from the start. During his homeschool years, he was involved at his church. He also held several lead roles throughout his time acting in front of hundreds of people in fifteen separate plays! He has been active in his local Civil Air Patrol squadron which has grown his leadership capabilities. Civil Air Patrol also opened doors to travel and serve at the EAA Airshow in Wisconsin and learn at the Civic Leadership Academy in Washington D.C. He is looking forward to visiting Australia through the International Air Cadet Exchange this summer. Civil Air Patrol also equipped Garrett with knowledge which contributed to his interest in flying. Garrett graduated high school with dual credits and is looking forward to pursuing his career as a pilot by attending and graduating from the United Aviate Academy.
24 Feb	10:30 – 11:00	EP 27 Barb West	Barbara West started homeschooling the oldest of their 5 children in 1988. She has experience

			homeschooling in seven states and overseas. In addition to homeschooling, Barbara has been a speaker at homeschool conferences in the U.S. and abroad. She has written articles and devotions for several homeschool publications. Barbara also manages the Facebook page, "Homeschooling Colorado." She currently serves on the board of the Global Home Education Exchange, promoting the parental right to homeschool around the globe. Familiar with serving through and creating homeschool support groups and co-ops, Barbara and her husband, Bruce, serve local homeschool families through the Colorado Springs Homeschool Sports League.
24 Feb	13:00 – 13:30	EP 57 Garrett Thiesen	Garrett Thiesen was homeschooled from the start. During his homeschool years, he was involved at his church. He also held several lead roles throughout his time acting in front of hundreds of people in fifteen separate plays! He has been active in his local Civil Air Patrol squadron which has grown his leadership capabilities. Civil Air Patrol also opened doors to travel and serve at the EAA Airshow in Wisconsin and learn at the Civic Leadership Academy in Washington D.C. He is looking forward to visiting Australia through the International Air Cadet Exchange this summer. Civil Air Patrol also equipped Garrett with knowledge which contributed to his interest in flying. Garrett graduated high school with dual credits and is looking forward to pursuing his career as a pilot by attending and graduating from the United Aviate Academy.
24 Feb	13:30 – 14:00	EP 28 Deborah Wuehler	Deborah Wuehler is the Senior Editor of The Old Schoolhouse® Magazine, wife to Richard, and homeschool mom of eight for over 20 years. She also speaks at homeschool conventions and for homeschool groups nationwide. Deborah's passion is to encourage homeschool families to keep their focus on Christ and His Word, and to keep their children home . . . where they belong!
25 Feb	10:00 – 10:30	EP 58 Garrett Thiesen	Garrett Thiesen was homeschooled from the start. During his homeschool years, he was involved at his church. He also held several lead roles throughout his time acting in front of

			hundreds of people in fifteen separate plays! He has been active in his local Civil Air Patrol squadron which has grown his leadership capabilities. Civil Air Patrol also opened doors to travel and serve at the EAA Airshow in Wisconsin and learn at the Civic Leadership Academy in Washington D.C. He is looking forward to visiting Australia through the International Air Cadet Exchange this summer. Civil Air Patrol also equipped Garrett with knowledge which contributed to his interest in flying. Garrett graduated high school with dual credits and is looking forward to pursuing his career as a pilot by attending and graduating from the United Aviate Academy.
25 Feb	10:30 – 11:00	EP 29 Deborah Wuehler	Deborah Wuehler is the Senior Editor of The Old Schoolhouse® Magazine, wife to Richard, and homeschool mom of eight for over 20 years. She also speaks at homeschool conventions and for homeschool groups nationwide. Deborah's passion is to encourage homeschool families to keep their focus on Christ and His Word, and to keep their children home . . . where they belong!
2 Mar	10:00 – 10:30	EP 59 Carolyn Martin	Carolyn Martin is the Director of Public Relations for Christian Home Educators of Colorado (CHEC). Her passion and aim is to help keep our homeschooling freedoms intact in Colorado. Carolyn also works to uphold our parental rights and religious freedom. She works with legislative issues at the capital and keeps us parents updated regularly.
2 Mar	10:30 – 11:00	EP 30 Shari McMinn	Shari McMinn is a mom of 11. Having graduated from 28 years of homeschool teaching, she focuses on her work as a professional editor, author, blogger, and speaker. She also serves as the advertising manager for Christian Home Educators of Colorado (CHEC), the editor for CHEC's Homeschool Update magazine and the Exhibitor and Sponsor chair for CHEC's annual in-person Rocky Mountain Homeschool Conference and Homeschool Summits biannual virtual events. After 45 years of life in Colorado, she now resides in the Fort Myers, Florida area, working remotely for CHEC and writing her compelling, non-fiction Christian worldview books.

2 Mar	13:00 – 13:30	EP 59 Carolyn Martin	Carolyn Martin is the Director of Public Relations for Christian Home Educators of Colorado (CHEC). Her passion and aim is to help keep our homeschooling freedoms intact in Colorado. Carolyn also works to uphold our parental rights and religious freedom. She works with legislative issues at the capital and keeps us parents updated regularly.
2 Mar	13:30 – 14:00	EP 31 Shari McMinn	Shari McMinn is a mom of 11. Having graduated from 28 years of homeschool teaching, she focuses on her work as a professional editor, author, blogger, and speaker. She also serves as the advertising manager for Christian Home Educators of Colorado (CHEC), the editor for CHEC's Homeschool Update magazine and the Exhibitor and Sponsor chair for CHEC's annual in-person Rocky Mountain Homeschool Conference and Homeschool Summits biannual virtual events. After 45 years of life in Colorado, she now resides in the Fort Myers, Florida area, working remotely for CHEC and writing her compelling, non-fiction Christian worldview books.
3 Mar	10:00 – 10:30	EP 59 Carolyn Martin	Carolyn Martin is the Director of Public Relations for Christian Home Educators of Colorado (CHEC). Her passion and aim is to help keep our homeschooling freedoms intact in Colorado. Carolyn also works to uphold our parental rights and religious freedom. She works with legislative issues at the capital and keeps us parents updated regularly.
3 Mar	10:30 – 11:00	EP 32 Shawnalee Martinez	After graduating from the University of Oklahoma, Shawnalee Martinez became passionate about helping people in her community. She strives to help in any way possible from coaching little league to volunteering with local youth groups. A native of the San Luis Valley, Shawnalee Martinez now resides in Colorado Springs, Colorado with her husband Anthony and their 4 children where she currently serves her community as the outreach advocate for Rodeo Dental and Orthodontics.
9 Mar	10:00 – 10:30	EP 60 Kevin McConnel	Kevin McConnell is the director of PALS coordinates with schools, hiring and ongoing training of chess coaches and positioning PALS for new opportunities and growth.

9 Mar	10:30 – 11:00	EP 34 Cory Scott	Corey Scott founded one of the largest privately funded faith-based homeschool music, arts, and enrichment programs in Colorado, serving 50+ families and 150+ students across the Colorado Front Range since 2020. The successes and failures they have experienced while raising and homeschooling six children give Corey and Helen unique perspectives on business, entrepreneurship, and family life.
9 Mar	13:00 – 13:30	EP 60 Kevin McConnel	Kevin McConnell is the director of PALS coordinates with schools, hiring and ongoing training of chess coaches and positioning PALS for new opportunities and growth.
9 Mar	13:30 – 14:00	EP 35 Carolyn Martin	Carolyn Martin is the Director of Public Relations for Christian Home Educators of Colorado (CHEC). Her passion and aim is to help keep our homeschooling freedoms intact in Colorado. Carolyn also works to uphold our parental rights and religious freedom. She works with legislative issues at the capital and keeps us parents updated regularly.
10 Mar	10:00 – 10:30	EP 60 Kevin McConnel	Kevin McConnell is the director of PALS coordinates with schools, hiring and ongoing training of chess coaches and positioning PALS for new opportunities and growth.
10 Mar	10:30 – 11:00	EP 36 Carolyn Martin	Carolyn Martin is the Director of Public Relations for Christian Home Educators of Colorado (CHEC). Her passion and aim is to help keep our homeschooling freedoms intact in Colorado. Carolyn also works to uphold our parental rights and religious freedom. She works with legislative issues at the capital and keeps us parents updated regularly.
16 Mar	10:00 – 10:30	EP 60 Kevin McConnel	Kevin McConnell is the director of PALS coordinates with schools, hiring and ongoing training of chess coaches and positioning PALS for new opportunities and growth.
16 Mar	10:30 – 11:00	EP 37 Kevin Swanson	Kevin Swanson has 55 years of experience in the homeschooling movement. First being homeschooled himself in the 1960's and 70's, Kevin Swanson and his wife, Brenda, homeschooled their children and are now grandparents of four. Kevin wrote 30-40 books on homeschool vision and resources. Kevin is also the Director of Generations – a ministry he founded to strengthen homeschool families

			around the country. He has been speaking at homeschool conferences for over 30 years in the United States and often speaks about homeschooling in other countries. In addition, Kevin hosts a daily radio program reaching tens of thousands of homeschooling families. As a father who wants to leave a godly heritage for his own five children, Kevin's passion is to strengthen and encourage the homeschooling movement all over the world, and to cast a vision for generations to come.
16 Mar	13:00 – 13:30	EP 60 Kevin McConnel	Kevin McConnell is the director of PALS coordinates with schools, hiring and ongoing training of chess coaches and positioning PALS for new opportunities and growth.
16 Mar	13:30 – 14:00	EP 38 Kevin Swanson	Kevin Swanson has 55 years of experience in the homeschooling movement. First being homeschooled himself in the 1960's and 70's, Kevin Swanson and his wife, Brenda, homeschooled their children and are now grandparents of four. Kevin wrote 30-40 books on homeschool vision and resources. Kevin is also the Director of Generations – a ministry he founded to strengthen homeschool families around the country. He has been speaking at homeschool conferences for over 30 years in the United States and often speaks about homeschooling in other countries. In addition, Kevin hosts a daily radio program reaching tens of thousands of homeschooling families. As a father who wants to leave a godly heritage for his own five children, Kevin's passion is to strengthen and encourage the homeschooling movement all over the world, and to cast a vision for generations to come.
17 Mar	10:00 – 10:30	EP 60 Kevin McConnel	Kevin McConnell is the director of PALS coordinates with schools, hiring and ongoing training of chess coaches and positioning PALS for new opportunities and growth.
17 Mar	10:30 – 11:00	EP 39 Braxton Rogers	Braxton Rogers is a 16 year old banjo player originating from Lawton, OK. However, if you ask him where he's from he may struggle to tell you because he has been traveling the country in an RV with his parents the past 4 years exploring the National Parks and attending music festivals and banjo camps. He has been studying and

			playing banjo seriously for about two years now and loves it more everyday. Last fall he won first place in the Oklahoma International Bluegrass Festival Banjo Competition. He recently filmed an episode for Season 2 of Woodsongs Kids and played at MerleFest in Wilkesboro, NC as an Ambassador for the Andy May's Acoustic Kids Program. He is also a cast member of Smoky Mountain Tunes and Tales in Gatlinburg, TN. He has written and released his first single "Miss You to the Moon" which can be found on all your music streaming platforms.
23 Mar	10:00 – 10:30	EP 61 Dr. Douglas Pietersma	Dr Douglas Pietersma holds a Doctor of Education degree with a concentration of Christian Education Leadership from Regent University, in addition to undergraduate degrees in Bible, Spanish, and Communications and a graduate degree with a concentration in Latin American studies. Dr. Pietersma is a researcher for The National Home Education Research Institute and an adjunct professor for Regent University. He is the Director of Homestead Homeschool Cooperative, with the mission of "partnering with homeschool families to enable parent-directed Christian home education intended to facilitate development of a Biblical worldview and academic excellence in students." As a small business owner in Cheyenne, Wyoming he provides personal character-enhancing educational services through public speaking, Christian homeschool support, education journal editing, private tutoring, tailored language learning programs, and martial arts. He is also an editor, author, Spanish linguist, and the primary homeschool instructor for his two children.
23 Mar	10:30 – 11:00	EP 57 Garrett Thiesen	Garrett Thiesen was homeschooled from the start. During his homeschool years, he was involved at his church. He also held several lead roles throughout his time acting in front of hundreds of people in fifteen separate plays! He has been active in his local Civil Air Patrol squadron which has grown his leadership

			capabilities. Civil Air Patrol also opened doors to travel and serve at the EAA Airshow in Wisconsin and learn at the Civic Leadership Academy in Washington D.C. He is looking forward to visiting Australia through the International Air Cadet Exchange this summer. Civil Air Patrol also equipped Garrett with knowledge which contributed to his interest in flying. Garrett graduated high school with dual credits and is looking forward to pursuing his career as a pilot by attending and graduating from the United Aviate Academy.
23 Mar	13:00 – 13:30	EP 61 Dr. Douglas Pietersma	Dr Douglas Pietersma holds a Doctor of Education degree with a concentration of Christian Education Leadership from Regent University, in addition to undergraduate degrees in Bible, Spanish, and Communications and a graduate degree with a concentration in Latin American studies. Dr. Pietersma is a researcher for The National Home Education Research Institute and an adjunct professor for Regent University. He is the Director of Homestead Homeschool Cooperative, with the mission of “partnering with homeschool families to enable parent-directed Christian home education intended to facilitate development of a Biblical worldview and academic excellence in students.” As a small business owner in Cheyenne, Wyoming he provides personal character-enhancing educational services through public speaking, Christian homeschool support, education journal editing, private tutoring, tailored language learning programs, and martial arts. He is also an editor, author, Spanish linguist, and the primary homeschool instructor for his two children.
23 Mar	13:30 – 14:00	EP 58 Garrett Thiesen	Garrett Thiesen was homeschooled from the start. During his homeschool years, he was involved at his church. He also held several lead roles throughout his time acting in front of hundreds of people in fifteen separate plays! He has been active in his local Civil Air Patrol squadron which has grown his leadership

			capabilities. Civil Air Patrol also opened doors to travel and serve at the EAA Airshow in Wisconsin and learn at the Civic Leadership Academy in Washington D.C. He is looking forward to visiting Australia through the International Air Cadet Exchange this summer. Civil Air Patrol also equipped Garrett with knowledge which contributed to his interest in flying. Garrett graduated high school with dual credits and is looking forward to pursuing his career as a pilot by attending and graduating from the United Aviate Academy.
24 Mar	10:00 – 10:30	EP 61 Dr. Douglas Pietersma	Dr Douglas Pietersma holds a Doctor of Education degree with a concentration of Christian Education Leadership from Regent University, in addition to undergraduate degrees in Bible, Spanish, and Communications and a graduate degree with a concentration in Latin American studies. Dr. Pietersma is a researcher for The National Home Education Research Institute and an adjunct professor for Regent University. He is the Director of Homestead Homeschool Cooperative, with the mission of “partnering with homeschool families to enable parent-directed Christian home education intended to facilitate development of a Biblical worldview and academic excellence in students.” As a small business owner in Cheyenne, Wyoming he provides personal character-enhancing educational services through public speaking, Christian homeschool support, education journal editing, private tutoring, tailored language learning programs, and martial arts. He is also an editor, author, Spanish linguist, and the primary homeschool instructor for his two children.
24 Mar	10:30 – 11:00	EP 59 Carolyn Martin	Carolyn Martin is the Director of Public Relations for Christian Home Educators of Colorado (CHEC). Her passion and aim is to help keep our homeschooling freedoms intact in Colorado. Carolyn also works to uphold our parental rights and religious freedom. She works with legislative

			issues at the capital and keeps us parents updated regularly.
30 Mar	10:00 – 10:30	EP 61 Dr. Douglas Pietersma	Dr Douglas Pietersma holds a Doctor of Education degree with a concentration of Christian Education Leadership from Regent University, in addition to undergraduate degrees in Bible, Spanish, and Communications and a graduate degree with a concentration in Latin American studies. Dr. Pietersma is a researcher for The National Home Education Research Institute and an adjunct professor for Regent University. He is the Director of Homestead Homeschool Cooperative, with the mission of “partnering with homeschool families to enable parent-directed Christian home education intended to facilitate development of a Biblical worldview and academic excellence in students.” As a small business owner in Cheyenne, Wyoming he provides personal character-enhancing educational services through public speaking, Christian homeschool support, education journal editing, private tutoring, tailored language learning programs, and martial arts. He is also an editor, author, Spanish linguist, and the primary homeschool instructor for his two children.
30 Mar	10:30 – 11:00	EP 60 Kevin McConnel	Kevin McConnell is the director of PALS coordinates with schools, hiring and ongoing training of chess coaches and positioning PALS for new opportunities and growth.
30 Mar	13:00 – 13:30	EP 61 Dr. Douglas Pietersma	Dr Douglas Pietersma holds a Doctor of Education degree with a concentration of Christian Education Leadership from Regent University, in addition to undergraduate degrees in Bible, Spanish, and Communications and a graduate degree with a concentration in Latin American studies. Dr. Pietersma is a researcher for The National Home Education Research Institute and an adjunct professor for Regent University. He is the Director of Homestead Homeschool Cooperative, with the mission of “partnering with homeschool

			families to enable parent-directed Christian home education intended to facilitate development of a Biblical worldview and academic excellence in students.” As a small business owner in Cheyenne, Wyoming he provides personal character-enhancing educational services through public speaking, Christian homeschool support, education journal editing, private tutoring, tailored language learning programs, and martial arts. He is also an editor, author, Spanish linguist, and the primary homeschool instructor for his two children.
30 Mar	13:30 – 14:00	EP 61 Dr. Douglas Pietersma	Dr Douglas Pietersma holds a Doctor of Education degree with a concentration of Christian Education Leadership from Regent University, in addition to undergraduate degrees in Bible, Spanish, and Communications and a graduate degree with a concentration in Latin American studies. Dr. Pietersma is a researcher for The National Home Education Research Institute and an adjunct professor for Regent University. He is the Director of Homestead Homeschool Cooperative, with the mission of “partnering with homeschool families to enable parent-directed Christian home education intended to facilitate development of a Biblical worldview and academic excellence in students.” As a small business owner in Cheyenne, Wyoming he provides personal character-enhancing educational services through public speaking, Christian homeschool support, education journal editing, private tutoring, tailored language learning programs, and martial arts. He is also an editor, author, Spanish linguist, and the primary homeschool instructor for his two children.
31 Mar	10:00 – 10:30	EP 61 Dr. Douglas Pietersma	Dr Douglas Pietersma holds a Doctor of Education degree with a concentration of Christian Education Leadership from Regent University, in addition to undergraduate degrees in Bible, Spanish, and Communications and a

			graduate degree with a concentration in Latin American studies. Dr. Pietersma is a researcher for The National Home Education Research Institute and an adjunct professor for Regent University. He is the Director of Homestead Homeschool Cooperative, with the mission of “partnering with homeschool families to enable parent-directed Christian home education intended to facilitate development of a Biblical worldview and academic excellence in students.” As a small business owner in Cheyenne, Wyoming he provides personal character-enhancing educational services through public speaking, Christian homeschool support, education journal editing, private tutoring, tailored language learning programs, and martial arts. He is also an editor, author, Spanish linguist, and the primary homeschool instructor for his two children.
31 Mar	10:30 – 11:00	EP 01 Ethan Gonzales	Based in Colorado, USA, Ethan Gonzales has always been proud to share and express his identity and culture to people around him. Alongside martial arts and learning different languages such as Spanish and Korean, Ethan is an aspiring video-creator on YouTube, known on his several platforms as TheEthanGonzales.

2 Military

American Warrior Radio (AWR) hosted by Ben Buehler-Garcia. AWR tells the stories of the men and women of the military who have served or sacrificed, succeeds in life or have dedicated their lives in service to others
Date	Time	Title	Description
6 Jan	23:00 – 00:00	John “Lucky” Luckadoo - WWII “Bloody 100th” Bomb group	Today, John “Lucky” Luckadoo is the last surviving member of the 100th Bomb Group from World War II. Most of the bomber crews of the 100th only survived 5 missions, earning the group the unenviable nickname “The Bloody Hundredth”. It not until 50 years after the end of the war that John began to talk about his time at war because “those were not the happiest days of our lives and recalling them was not a happy experience.”

7 Jan	02:00-03:00 12:00-13:00	John “Lucky” Luckadoo - WWII “Bloody 100th” Bomb group	Today, John “Lucky” Luckadoo is the last surviving member of the 100th Bomb Group from World War II. Most of the bomber crews of the 100th only survived 5 missions, earning the group the unenviable nickname “The Bloody Hundredth”. It not until 50 years after the end of the war that John began to talk about his time at war because “those were not the happiest days of our lives and recalling them was not a happy experience.”
13 Jan	23:00 – 00:00	Joe Lowrey - A Green Beret’s Recovery	Joe Lowrey was deployed with the 7th Special Forces Group in Afghanistan. In July of 2014 an enemy machine gun round pierced the front of his helmet, traveled across the top of his skull and exited the back of his head. He was given an 11% chance of survival and his Green Beret teammates gathered by his bedside while Joe was administered the Last Rites.
14 Jan	02:00-03:00 12:00-13:00	Joe Lowrey - A Green Beret’s Recovery	Joe Lowrey was deployed with the 7th Special Forces Group in Afghanistan. In July of 2014 an enemy machine gun round pierced the front of his helmet, traveled across the top of his skull and exited the back of his head. He was given an 11% chance of survival and his Green Beret teammates gathered by his bedside while Joe was administered the Last Rites.
20 Jan	23:00 – 00:00	Distinguished Flying Cross – Loadmaster Jim Lopez	Jim Lopez flew an amazing one thousand combat missions. For perspective, World War II bomber crews were required to fly 25-35 missions before they rotated out. Even in today’s high paced combat, the 1,000 mission threshold is still rather rare. Jim joins us as part of our educational partnership with the Distinguished Flying Cross Society.
21 Jan	02:00-03:00 12:00-13:00	Distinguished Flying Cross – Loadmaster Jim Lopez	Jim Lopez flew an amazing one thousand combat missions. For perspective, World War II bomber crews were required to fly 25-35 missions before they rotated out. Even in today’s high paced combat, the 1,000 mission threshold is still rather rare. Jim joins us as part of our educational partnership with the Distinguished Flying Cross Society.
3 Feb	23:00 – 00:00	“Dead Man’s Hand” – Brad Taylor	“Dead Man’s Hand” is Brad Taylor’s 18th installment in the Pike Logan series. Brad served more than 21 years in our nation's military, 8 years as a member of the elite 1st Special Forces Operational Detachment – Delta, more commonly known at Delta Force. He holds a Master's of Science in Defense Analysis from the Naval Postgraduate School, with a concentration in irregular warfare.

4 Feb	02:00-03:00 12:00-13:00	"Dead Man's Hand" – Brad Taylor	"Dead Man's Hand" is Brad Taylor's 18th installment in the Pike Logan series. Brad served more than 21 years in our nation's military, 8 years as a member of the elite 1st Special Forces Operational Detachment – Delta, more commonly known at Delta Force. He holds a Master's of Science in Defense Analysis from the Naval Postgraduate School, with a concentration in irregular warfare.
17 Feb	23:00 – 00:00	"Damn the Valley" – Will Yeske	"Damn the Valley" was written by Will Yeske and describes his deployment to the Arghandab River Valley in Afghanistan. The valley has seen its share of conflict. From Alexander the Great up to the Russians – and now Americans. To US troops it became known as "the meat grinder". Will was posted there with Bravo Company of the 508th Parachute Infantry Regiment of the 82nd Airborne. During their time there, his unit suffered a 52% casualty rate.
18 Feb	02:00-03:00 12:00-13:00	"Damn the Valley" – Will Yeske	"Damn the Valley" was written by Will Yeske and describes his deployment to the Arghandab River Valley in Afghanistan. The valley has seen its share of conflict. From Alexander the Great up to the Russians – and now Americans. To US troops it became known as "the meat grinder". Will was posted there with Bravo Company of the 508th Parachute Infantry Regiment of the 82nd Airborne. During their time there, his unit suffered a 52% casualty rate.
24 Feb	23:00 – 00:00	Havok Journal Update – Charles Faint	We begin by discussing the latest on the Israel/Gaza conflict. Charles expects Iran to continue supporting terrorist proxies but will avoid a direct confrontation with the US. His rationale is twofold; Iran knows they cannot win a direct fight with the US and are not going to risk doing so over an issue like Gaza. They also don't feel an existential threat to their key interests.

25 Feb	02:00-03:00 12:00-13:00	Havok Journal Update – Charles Faint	We begin by discussing the latest on the Israel/Gaza conflict. Charles expects Iran to continue supporting terrorist proxies but will avoid a direct confrontation with the US. His rationale is twofold; Iran knows they cannot win a direct fight with the US and are not going to risk doing so over an issue like Gaza. They also don't feel an existential threat to their key interests.
2 Mar	23:00 – 00:00	Blackwater Mercenary in Iraq – Morgan Lerette	Blackwater Security Company developed quite a reputation. Morgan Lerette was a contractor with Blackwater in Iraq for 18 months from 2004-2005. His sometimes funny, sometimes tragic experience is documented in his book "Guns, Girls & Greed: I was a Blackwater Mercenary in Iraq"
3 Mar	02:00-03:00 12:00-13:00	Blackwater Mercenary in Iraq – Morgan Lerette	Blackwater Security Company developed quite a reputation. Morgan Lerette was a contractor with Blackwater in Iraq for 18 months from 2004-2005. His sometimes funny, sometimes tragic experience is documented in his book "Guns, Girls & Greed: I was a Blackwater Mercenary in Iraq"
9 Mar	23:00 – 00:00	"Service to CEO" Podcast Creator Kristen Costlow	"Service to CEO" podcast creator Kristen Costlow left a promising military career to pursue her dream. She served as an air traffic controller in the Navy and was rising fast in rank. She soon found herself supervising sailors 10 years her senior. The day after she notified her supervisor of her plans to leave the military, she was promoted to Chief Petty Officer – quite the accomplishment for someone of her age.
10 Mar	02:00-03:00 12:00-13:00	"Service to CEO" Podcast Creator Kristen Costlow	"Service to CEO" podcast creator Kristen Costlow left a promising military career to pursue her dream. She served as an air traffic controller in the Navy and was rising fast in rank. She soon found herself supervising sailors 10 years her senior. The day after she notified her supervisor of her plans to leave the military, she was promoted to Chief Petty Officer – quite the accomplishment for someone of her age.
16 Mar	23:00 – 00:00	Stephen Paul Campos – Vietnam Veteran	Stephen Paul Campos surmised it would be better to volunteer and choose his military specialty rather than be drafted during the Vietnam War. The recruiter asked what he wanted to do and Campos replied "I don't know what I WANT to do but I know I DON'T want to be infantry." Based upon his intake evaluations the recruiter told him he could be sent to Germany or Hawaii. Immediately upon graduation he was assigned to the infantry and soon after sent to Vietnam.

17 Mar	02:00-03:00 12:00-13:00	Stephen Paul Campos – Vietnam Veteran	Stephen Paul Campos surmised it would be better to volunteer and choose his military specialty rather than be drafted during the Vietnam War. The recruiter asked what he wanted to do and Campos replied "I don't know what I WANT to do but I know I DON'T want to be infantry." Based upon his intake evaluations the recruiter told him he could be sent to Germany or Hawaii. Immediately upon graduation he was assigned to the infantry and soon after sent to Vietnam.
23 Mar	23:00 – 00:00	DPAA – Sean Everette & Clark Baldwin	The Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency (DPAA) has the principle responsibility to provide the fullest possible accounting for our missing personnel to their families and our nation. It was created in January of 2015 by merging the Defense POW/Missing Personnel Office and the Joint POW/MIA Accounting Command along with several functions of the Air Force Life Sciences Equipment Laboratory.
24 Mar	02:00-03:00 12:00-13:00	DPAA – Sean Everette & Clark Baldwin	The Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency (DPAA) has the principle responsibility to provide the fullest possible accounting for our missing personnel to their families and our nation. It was created in January of 2015 by merging the Defense POW/Missing Personnel Office and the Joint POW/MIA Accounting Command along with several functions of the Air Force Life Sciences Equipment Laboratory.
30 Mar	23:00 – 00:00	Victoria Kelley	"Homefront Stories" is a collection of fictional short stories written by Victoria Kelly inspired by her life as a military spouse. Her 2015 work, "When Men Go Off to War" is a collection of poems written while her husband was deployed in Iraq and Afghanistan and captures the hopes, anxieties and intimacies of the military spouse during times of war. "Prayers of an American Wife" is a collection of poems that highlights the displacement women experience when their husbands deploy and the battles fought by those left at home

31 Mar	02:00-03:00 12:00-13:00	Victoria Kelley	“Homefront Stories” is a collection of fictional short stories written by Victoria Kelly inspired by her life as a military spouse. Her 2015 work, “When Men Go Off to War” is a collection of poems written while her husband was deployed in Iraq and Afghanistan and captures the hopes, anxieties and intimacies of the military spouse during times of war. “Prayers of an American Wife” is a collection of poems that highlights the displacement women experience when their husbands deploy and the battles fought by those left at home