Duration: 5:00AM-6:00AM

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Healthcare	It's official, Hancock County is now smoke-free. The county-wide smoking ban took affect today. It's been almost a year since it was approved by the county board of health. Many businesses argued it would hurt their business, others took matters into their own hands in response. Mountaineer Casino, Racetrack & Resort has actually opened a smoking pavilion so their customers can continue to smoke while the rest of the casino goes smoke-free.	7/1/15
Healthcare	Trinity Sports Medicine will be offering a free concussion in sports lecture. Tonight's discussion is called "What every parent, athlete and coach needs to know," and will highlight how to prevent, recognize, and recover from concussions. The one hour lecture is free, starting 5:30pm at Steubenville YMCA arena.	7/14/15
Education	Happening today, it's the Back to School Fun Fair we've been telling you about. This morning thousands of students and their parents in Marshall County will head to the former Moundsville Penitentiary for the 15 th annual event for lots of fun and free back to school supplies. More than 55 agencies are involved in this years event. It runs from 8am until noon.	8/5/15
Economy	In Ohio, liquor sales have set another record, nearly topping $1 billion in the past fiscal year. The Ohio Department of Commerce says that revenue from liquor sales in 2015 were up by 7 percent to just over $982 million. Commerce Director Jacqueline Williams says one reason is that consumers are buying higher-priced premium brands and specialty spirits. It's a trend that also helped break revenue records in 2014.	8/17/15
Crime	A Wheeling man facing charges of felony incest is expected to be in Judge Sim's court this morning. 48-year-old Daniel Bloomfield was arrested after officers from the Wheeling Police Department responded to a domestic call at a home in Mozart back in May. A woman on the scene of that call reported the relationship she was allegedly having with her family member. We'll keep you updated on what happens in court.	9/2/15
Healthcare	One local community held their Labor Day celebrations a little bit early honoring those who help to save lives in their community everyday as well as to raise some money. The Cameron community EMS squad held a special cook-out with fun and games for local kids. And while it was a good time, EMS Squad and their supporters know the Labor Day Bash can help save lives in the future with the money they were able to raise.	9/7/15

Education	Ohio education officials are starting work on a new series of tests to be administered to students starting in the upcoming school year. Superintendent Richard Ross said yesterday that the state has contracted with the American Institutes for Research on developing the assessments in English/Language Arts and Math that will be used in the 2015-16 school year. After an outcry from parents in Ohio and across the country, the state has dropped and defunded tests from the PARCC. A new law requires replacement tests to be shorter and to return results faster.	7/2/15
Economy	All new this morning, the abandoned railroad property where 20 arches stand, also known as the Great Stone Viaduct is being purchased by The Great Stone Viaduct Historical Education Society. The society and current owner, CSX transportation, have been in negotiations for more than a year now settling on a price of $83-thousand for the 5 and half acres on which the arches and bridge sit. Once the purchase is final, GSV, along with others, plan to develop the site, highlighting its historical significance and making a visitors attraction in Belmont County.	7/29/15
Economy	A West Virginia workforce for women might shut down by the end of the year. West Virginia Women Work helps train women for higher paying jobs. The executive board plans to close locations in Morgantown, Charleston and Martinsburg if it doesn't get more funding soon. For more than a decade, the non-profit has offered an 11 week program to train women for careers like carpentry and iron work. The executive board says they're working with state and federal officials to get funding.	8/11/15
Education	Our last big group of schools heading back today. Harrison Hills, Southern Local, Union Local, and Marshall County schools all start today. It was a special first day for the students at all Saints Catholic School. If you remember, back in March, a massive fire destroyed St. John's Church in Benwood, as well as St. James and Johns Catholic School, leaving the community heartbroken yet ready to rebuild. Support from all across the Ohio Valley poured in which lead to the opening of All Saints Catholic School which serves pre-school through eighth grad students from all different parishes.	8/27/15

Political	West Virginia's senior senator is addressing the nuclear deal with Iran. Several hundred concerned citizens met with Senator Joe Manchin yesterday at the University of Charleston for a Town Hall Meeting, with the Iran Deal as the main topic of discussion. So many people were in attendance that the meeting had to be moved to a different part of campus than originally intended. Manchin says accepting the deal is a matter of preserving peace.	9/4/15
Education	In a little over a week, the pope will be stateside and Wheeling Jesuit University is getting ready between now and then for his visit. Starting tonight, they'll be holding a number of events on campus to engage students and the community.	9/14/15

Program Title: 7 News @ 12PM*Duration: 12:00PM-12:30PM

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Crime	Ohio County Judge David Sims says he's not happy with tactics the county prosecutor's office is using to obtain criminal indictments. Recently in a criminal case, a Wheeling police detective who wasn't among the case's initial investigators testified before the grand jury. Judge Sims says this is legal, but it undermines the grand jury process. Prosecutor Scott Smith says his office complies with the law. We're working to get more information on exactly what tactics were used by the prosecutor's office.	7/6/15
Political	Ohio Republican Governor John Kasich will run for the 2016 presidential election. Gov. Kasich says he has experience with the federal budget, national security, and running a state, and that will make him unique in the Republican presidential field. Kasich ran for president once before, briefly seeking the 2000 nomination after helping seal a federal balanced budget deal as House Budget Chairman in 1997. Kasich is formally joining 15 other Republicans running for the party's presidential nomination.	7/21/15
Crime	To Hancock County now, where police seized a significant amount of drugs and money from a home in Weirton. It all happened at home on Sellitti Lane. Officers discovered that Michale Cottrill and Bryan Cottrill have been allegedly allowing Corey Gaston From Steubenville and Carlos Molina from New York to use their home to distribute the illegal controlled substances. Police say all 4 people have been arrested. Chief Rob Alexander says resident tips, increased traffic at the home, and out of state licenses in the neighborhood is what lead them to this investigation into the illegal distribution of heroin and crack cocaine from the residence.	7/22/15
Crime	The murder trial for Jeffery Spring started today in Jefferson County. Spring is charged with murder with firearm specification and tampering with evidence. Spring allegedly shot and killed Stephen Boyer at his home near Austin Lake in December 2014. He originally told authorities he believed Boyer was armed with a knife and broke into his home, shooting him in self defense.	7/28/15

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Healthcare	With school just a few weeks away, you'll need to talk with your child's doctor to make sure they have all of their immunizations, but don't be shocked if your doctor tells you there are some changes this year. Before your child can head into 7 th and 12 th grade, they are required to have boosters of pertussis and meningitis. Right now, the only way to get out of those shots in West Virginia is to apply for a medical exemption through Charleston.	8/4/15
Healthcare	While a lot of us are focused on getting back to school, there is one organization needing our attention. The Red Cross is in urgent need of donors with types O negative, B negative, and A negative blood. Across the Ohio Valley in the next week, several drives will be held. The first is tomorrow at the Riesbeck's Corporate Office in St. Clairsville, from 9:00am to 2:30pm.	8/18/15
Economy	Locally owned businesses are moving in and opening up in Centre Market. From food to antiques and even stores for children, the neighborhood continues to expand, offering an experience everyone can appreciate. A new bridal shop has selected Centre Market as its new home. It should be open for business by December. Just last week, Osaka Japanese Steakhouse moved in and has many excited about new food options at the market.	8/25/15
Healthcare	UPMC has re-opened its organ transplant program, six days after closing it because of concerns that old contributed to the deaths of three transplant patients who had fungal infections. Procedures and treatments were reviewed by the PA Department of Health and the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention before they reopened yesterday. Right now, a fourth patient is fighting a fungal infection.	9/28/15

Crime	Jury selection for the man accused of killing a 30-year-old Jason Pratz at his McKinleville home almost three years ago has just concluded. The trial began today for Rocco Zuccaro at 9 this morning with jury selection running well into the afternoon. The selected jury members are now being taken to the scene of the alleged murder. Opening statements are expected to begin promptly at 8:30 tomorrow morning.	7/20/15
Economy	To Ohio County tonight, where the start of a new school year can be a fun and exciting time for a lot of kids. Many parents, on the other hand, are dreading the cost of school supplies,, new clothes, and other expenses that go along with back to school. Right now one local organization is reaching out to businesses and community members for help. Over the weekend, the North Wheeling Community Youth Center held their stuff a bus event. They asked shoppers at a local Wal-Mart to purchase supplies that would later be given away at their Adopt-A-Student Program on August 8.	7/27/15
Education	Wheeling Jesuit University has agreed to pay $2.3 million after allegedly misusing grant funds given to them by NASA. The University will pay back the money over the next 5 years. Allegations over the use of funds surfaced after an audit conducted by NASA in February of 2012. United States Attorney William Ihlenfeld released the following statement after the agreement was reached today. He says, "Educational institutions, like everyone else, must be held accountable when the rules are broken...I'm hopeful that this agreement will allow the University to move forward and to be an important and integral part of the community."	8/3/15
Education	With school just two days away for Edison Local students, teachers are meeting in advance to discuss what they need to do to make sure each student succeeds. It's called Professional Development Day. Each month, Edison Local School District teachers meet with Mike White, a consultant, who provides them with instruction and teaching strategies in order to find out what they need to do for their students to succeed. Today's topic was "Professional Learning Communities" and Assistant Superintendent Kim Wades says teachers are learning through this process by working with other teachers.	8/24/15
Crime	Police are looking for someone who stole a safe full of money donated to the House of the Carpenter in Wheeling. Executive Director Michael Linger said they were busy hosting a number of events at their facility yesterday, but someone took advantage of a gap in time to make their move.	9/16/15
Political	The search for Speaker John Boehner's replacement continues in Ohio. Senator Bill Beagle and teacher JD Winteregg have both announced they are running. Primary and general election dates for the seat haven't been determined.	9/29/15

Program Title: Tonight Live

Duration: 5:30PM-6:00PM

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Political	Debate over prayer, it's an issue we first told you about on Tonight Live. The city of Parkersburg coming under fire asked to eliminate prayer from all city council meetings. But tonight the mayor of Parkersburg is telling us the city will not back down. Last week the Freedom From Religion Foundation sent a letter to city council members urging them to discontinue prayer. The national group says the city is violating the law by reciting the Lord's Prayer before every public meeting. They're calling the practice inappropriate and unnecessary. But the city's mayor says prayer will go on and has support from the city.	7/8/15
Political	Monongalia County will be the first in the nation to fully use new voting technology in upcoming elections. Earlier this month, the county commissioners unanimously approved the purchase of new voting equipment. The system is called the Election Systems and Software Express Vote. In the next vote units to mark their ballots. The county clerk says the biggest benefit of the new system is how it prints out the finished ballot after each vote is cast. That way, voters will leave the polls knowing their votes will be accurately tallied.	7/22/15
Economy	The coal industry continues to take hits in the Mountain State but companies are trying to help miners out. Today Workforce West Virginia held an informational meeting for recently laid off miners. The miners learned about resources like unemployment insurance, rehab services, 401k information and a grant for out of work miners. Some miners say this program is helpful in these tough times.	8/5/15
Healthcare	The VA Hospital in Clarksburg has added a new state of the art facility to its constantly expanding campus. The new community building was showcased to the public this afternoon. It is designed to give personal care to combat veterans who need help with PTSD, substance abuse, and psych social issues. It features a rec room, dining facilities and other amenities not available at the hospital.	8/27/15
Education/Healthcare	Children in our society are faced with a number of obstacles that they must overcome and currently childhood obesity is one of those obstacles. A local school is helping their children to fight back and Dave teamed up with a major sponsor. Students at Glendale Elementary School in Marshall County are taking part in the New Balance Foundation Billion Mile Race to get kids moving in all 50 states. Now the purpose of this challenge is you get children more engaged through physical education at school.	9/16/15

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Healthcare	Continuing Coverage right now out of Marshall County, where a doctor who is facing 3 civil suits, has filed a suit of his own. Dr. Roland Chalifoux of the Valley Pain Management in McMechen has filed his suit claiming damages after a report from the West Virginia Bureau of Public Health claimed his practice was unsafe. In the meantime, Chalifoux still faces lawsuits from several of his former patients, all saying they received improper care from the doctor.	8/12/15
Healthcare	In the wake of the tragic TV crew shooting, experts at Northwood have some advice. They say if you suspect that someone is disturbed to the extent that they could be a danger to themselves or others, you can and should take action. You have the option to get them professional help, whether they agree to it or not. They say you can have that person examined, even if it's an involuntary commitment. Dr. Perry Stanley, Northwood's clinical director, says you can go to your local sheriff's department or mental health facility.	8/26/15
Education	A malfunctioning school zone light in front of one local school has parents concerned about their kids' safety. The light in front of Corpus Christi School in Warwood is not maintained by the city, in fact it belongs to the school so it's their responsibility to make sure that any time there are issues with these lights, they're responsible for the repairs. Parents say with or without school zone lights people seem to be flying past the school with no regard to children being in the area throughout the day. The school is anticipating having the lights back up and operating soon and they do stress that no one is more concerned about the safety of the children during school hours than the staff.	8/31/15
Crime	Attorneys for former Massey Energy CEO Don Blankenship are asking a judge to delay his criminal trial. Blankenship is charged with violating mine safety standards at the Upper Big Branch Mine, where an explosion killed 29 men in 2010. Media outlets report that defense attorneys filed a motion late yesterday to delay the trial until at least January. The attorneys say they received a computer disc from prosecutors, containing more than 72 thousand pages of records from the federal Mine Safety and Health Administration. They say it's impossible for them to review the records before October 1 st court date.	9/12/15
Healthcare	Health officials in Ohio County are launching a program geared toward keeping used needles off the streets. Today the Ohio County Board of Health met to discuss the Needle Exchange Program. This will give drug users the chance to dispose of their needles in a clean way. We spoke to Ohio County Health Director Howard Gamble about what this could mean for treating those using drugs and how to also keep the community safe.	9/15/15

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Crime	We have an update for you on a murder trial in Harrison County. A trial date has now been set for Wesley Clark. Clark will appear in Harrison County Common Pleas Court on October 22 for a jury trial. He faces a number of charges in connection with the shooting death of twenty-six year old Dustin Moreland back in May. Clark waved his right to an attorney during his arraignment. A not guilty plea was entered by the court on his behalf. Clark's bond was set at five million dollars. A pre-trial hearing is set for next Tuesday.	7/8/15
Economy	Right now, hundreds of workers in the energy industry are without jobs. Nearly 500 workers from the natural gas and corporate divisions of Consol Energy are being laid off. The company is cutting 290 jobs from its gas and corporate divisions and 180 workers in its Pennsylvania coal mines. That's roughly 10 percent of the company's workforce. Spokesman Brian Aiello says the latest round of job cuts is "difficult but prudent," given the "depressed nature of the commodity prices."	7/15/15
Crime	A busy scene in North Wheeling this afternoon as the Ohio County Drug Task Force, Wheeling Police and a SWAT Team raided a business. RedBoyz and a home nearby were raided around 3 o'clock. Officers were looking for drugs, money, and guns. Deputy Police Chief Mary Kimball says his department has been preparing to help with the raid.	7/30/15
Economy	The City of Wheeling just closed on the deal that hopes to bring new life to one area downtown. The city now owns three buildings, all on the 14-hundred block of Market Street, and they're hoping to attract investors from the private sector to buy and rehab them. They formerly housed the Sportsmen's Club, the G and G Bar, and another bar that closed long ago. Now they could become offices, restaurants, retail stores, apartments, or more.	8/7/15
Healthcare/Education	Belmont College President Paul Gasparro says most college students remember their higher degrees but tend to forget if they started their education. Today the school unveiled their brand new state of the art Health Sciences Center to help students remember they started at Belmont College. 7 News Reporter Jake Kauffman has a look inside the new facility.	8/15/15

- 07/05/15      “Dead or Alive” – a report on the errors of the Social Security Administration’s Death Master File. Those who are alive and mistakenly put onto the list, can be cut out of existence by banks, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Medicare, credit agencies and the like. On the other hand, there have been continued payments to deceased citizens whose names were never put on the list. To combat these errors, the Social Security Administration has started cross-checking with a Medicare list to see who is using Medicare, and if a citizen has been off the list for three years, they gather more information to see if they are dead or alive. Includes interviews with: living Americans declared dead by the Social Security Administration: Don Pilger, Kristina Pace, Betty Denault, and Judy Rivers; Patrick O’Carroll, Social Security Administration’s inspector general; and Sandra Kimbro, who pleaded guilty to accepting her mother’s Social Security benefits, but says it was done so unknowingly. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Patricia Shevlin, Gabrielle Schonder) (OAD: 03/15/15 - includes an update)
- “Breeding Out Disease” - a report on how advances in the science and technology of reproductive genetics and in vitro fertilization are allowing scientists to weed out many dangerous diseases -- such as breast cancer, muscular dystrophy, and hemophilia -- from the gene pool. Includes interviews with: Dr. Mark Hughes, geneticist and founder of Genesis Genetics, who pioneered the technique of preimplantation genetic diagnosis (PGD), an embryo screening procedure; Melinda (no last name given), breast cancer victim and mother; Anne Morriss, mother and co-founder of GenePeeks, a computerized technique which uses DNA information from the saliva of prospective parents to create a thousand digital/virtual embryos; Lee Silver, molecular biologist, Princeton University, and co-founder of GenePeeks. (C: Norah O’Donnell - P: Tanya Simon) (OAD: 10/26/14)
- “Steve Carell” – an interview / profile of Steve Carell, the Hollywood actor. He discusses his past career and his performance in the soon-to-be released psychodrama “Foxcatcher”. Carell has long been known for his roles in comedic movies and his hit TV series “The Office”, which concluded last year. Includes comments from Carell’s wife, Nancy Carell. (C: Steve Kroft – P: Michael Karzis) (OAD: 11/09/14)
- 07/12/15      “The Swiss Leaks” – an investigation conducted by 60 MINUTES and the International Consortium of Investigative Journalists into the biggest leak in Swiss banking history. Herve Falciani, a former HSBC computer security specialist in Switzerland, stole -- with questionable motives -- computer files with over one hundred thousand names tied to Swiss bank accounts in 2007 and gave it to the French government. The list is being used to go after tax cheats, arms dealers, and drug smugglers around the world. HSBC declined to respond on camera about the files, but acknowledged the bank had been used to evade taxes in the past and says it will no longer engage in those activities with future clients. Falciani is now a fugitive living in France because Swiss authorities charged him with industrial espionage. Includes interviews with: Jack Blum, former U.S. Senate staff investigator; Herve Falciani, former HSBC computer security specialist; Christian Eckert (through translator), France’s Secretary of State for the Budget; and Serge Michel, editor of French newspaper Le Monde. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Ira Rosen, Habiba Nosheen) (OAD: 02/08/15 - includes an update)
- “Alive and Kickin’” – a report on the musical, "Alive: 55+ and Kickin'," conceived and written by Vy Higginsen, founder of the Mama Foundation for the Arts in Harlem, New York and her husband, Ken Wydro, creative director at the Mama Foundation and a playwright. The musical features a full company of performers ages 55 and over with most of them experiencing their first time on stage while sharing personal stories with the audience. Higginsen has made it her mission to preserve African-American music, both gospel and popular music like soul and rhythm and blues (R&B). Includes excerpts from a performance of “Alive: 55+ and Kickin’”. Includes interviews with: Vy Higginsen; and performers Theo Harris and his wife, Phyllis Harris; Debbie Bingham; Renee Walker; Matthew Brown; and Matthew Burke. Also includes comments by Ken Wydro; Greg Kelly, pianist; and Roberta Ross, singer. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Shari Finkelstein) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT (OAD: 01/04/15)

- 07/19/15      “Rare Earth Elements” – a report on how China has become the world leader of rare earth metals, essential ingredients used in everything from smart phones and computers, to cars and missiles. The U.S. began the cultivation of these materials at Molycorp, Inc.’s mine in Mountain Pass, California after geologists identified rare earth elements in the Mojave Desert, but it was shut down in 1998 due to environmental concerns. Meanwhile, China took over the industry since they have less environmental constraints around mining and lower labor costs, which translates into lower pricing. Molycorp Inc.’s Mountain Pass mine reopened in 2010. Includes interviews with: Constantine Karayannopoulos, chairman of Molycorp, Inc.; Daniel McGroarty, principal of Carmot Strategic Group; and Ed Richardson, president of the U.S. Magnetic Materials Association. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Graham Messick, Kevin Livelli) (OAD: 03/22/15 - includes an update)
- “Ending Life” - a report on the ongoing state-by-state battle over assisted suicide, focusing on an interview with Barbara Mancini of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, who was arrested and accused of helping her 93-year-old terminally ill father, Joe Yourshaw, to kill himself. Also interviewed: Barbara Coombs Lee, president, Compassion & Choices, an advocacy group on end-of-life issues; Dr. Ira Byock, professor, Dartmouth College, and head of the Providence Health System’s Institute for Human Caring. (C: Anderson Cooper - P: Andy Court) (OAD: 10/19/14)
- “All-American” – an interview / profile of "patriotic philanthropist" David Rubenstein, billionaire co-founder of the Carlyle Group -- one of the world’s largest private equity firms, who is giving away most of his money to support the preservation of some of America’s most iconic monuments and documents. Among his recipients: The Washington Monument; Thomas Jefferson’s home, Monticello; the Declaration of Independence; the Iwo Jima Memorial; and the National Zoological Park’s Giant Panda Habitat. Also includes interviews with: Warren Buffett, billionaire philanthropist and investor; and Jonathan Jarvis, director of the National Park Service; and comments from Bettie Rubenstein, David’s mother. (C: Morley Safer – P: Katy Textor) (OAD: 05/03/15)
- 07/26/15      “The Gaskos” – a report on the capture of the FBI’s most wanted man, Boston mobster James “Whitey” Bulger, and his girlfriend, Catherine Greig. For over 14 years the couple avoided an international manhunt by living a quiet, secluded life in Santa Monica, California posing as “Charley and Carol Gasko”. Federal law enforcement trackers explain how a breast augmentation by Greig and the couple’s shared love for animals led to their arrest. Includes interviews with Josh Bond, manager of the Princess Eugenia Apartments; Janus Goodwin and Barbara Gluck, tenants of the Princess Eugenia Apartments; Scott Garriola, Rich Teahan, Tommy MacDonald and Phil Torsney (Ret.), FBI Special Agents; and Neil Sullivan, Deputy U.S. Marshall. (C: Steve Kroft – P: Tanya Simon) (OAD: 11/24/13 - includes an update)
- “Wikimania” – a report on Wikipedia, the free Internet encyclopedia, and how the non-profit Wikimedia Foundation has kept the website among the ten most popular advertisement-free sites. Jimmy Wales, founder of Wikimedia Foundation and co-founder of Wikipedia, discusses his vision of this charity and how he’s trying to get more women involved as Wikipedians, the volunteers who write and edit Wikipedia’s articles. Includes interviews with: Jimmy Wales; Sue Gardner, former executive director of the Wikimedia Foundation; Lila Tretikov, executive director of the Wikimedia Foundation; Amanda Levendowski, Wikipedian; and Dumitru N. Dumitru, engineer and Wikipedian. Also includes comments by unidentified people attending Wikimania event. (C: Morley Safer – P: David Browning, Jonathan Schienberg) (OAD: 04/05/15)
- “Star-Struck” – an interview / profile of astrophysicist Neil deGrasse Tyson, director of the American Museum of Natural History’s Hayden Planetarium. With millions of followers on Twitter, he is perhaps America’s most popular scientist. Tyson hosts a weekly radio show, “StarTalk” and hosted the 2014 television documentary series, “Cosmos: A Spacetime Odyssey”. (C: Charlie Rose – P: Robert G. Anderson, Aaron Weisz) (OAD: 03/22/15)

48 HOURS PRESENTS: "Murder At Sea?" – an updated rebroadcast of a report on the disappearance of newlywed George Smith, who vanished in 2005 from a cruise ship in the Mediterranean while on his honeymoon, as first reported in "Love Lost" (OAD: 04/08/06) and mentioned in "Dark Voyage" (OAD: 09/23/06). This report uncovers the questionable alibis, failed polygraphs and a provocative video that involves the three men who last saw Smith alive. In the years since Smith went missing, his family has been seeking answers to what happened to him after a night of heavy drinking and gambling in the ship's casino. His disappearance was ruled a likely accident and the case has gone nowhere, despite reports of arguments on the stateroom balcony, furniture being moved and a bloodstain on the overhang of the lifeboats. Mike Jones, an attorney for the Smith family, is now trying to get the case moving again. He has gained access to Royal Caribbean's internal investigation and has learned about the existence of a videotape in the possession of the FBI, which was recorded just hours after Smith went missing by three of the four men to last see Smith alive: cousins Zach Rozenberg and Greg Rozenberg and their friend Rusty Kofman. The other passenger, Josh Askin, is not on the video. Attorneys for Rusty Kofman and Zach Rozenberg have declined to comment. Greg Rozenberg's attorney says his client just made stupid comments. While initially cooperating, Askin's attorney has now told him to take the Fifth Amendment in all questioning. All four men say they had nothing to do with Smith's death but the men are still on the FBI's radar in this cold case. Mike Jones believes that Josh Askin knows what happened. He continues to prod the FBI to re-open the case. On-screen text graphic: The FBI's field office has agreed to review the George Smith case.

EPILOGUE: On January 9, 2015, the FBI announced the closing of the case. His family stands by the reward offer and still believes it was murder. They are hoping the FBI will re-open the investigation.

On-screen text graphic introduction for the 07/05/14 rebroadcast: "9 years ago today George Smith disappeared from his honeymoon cruise. This week, his family announced a $100,000 reward for information leading "to the arrest and conviction of the person (s) responsible." On-screen text graphic for 07/05/14 rebroadcast: Anyone with information should call 1-844-651-1936. On-screen text graphic for the 07/04/15 rebroadcast: Anyone with information should call 1-844-651-1936. The Smith family is pushing for a bill to require cruise ships to be equipped with man overboard technology. Interviewed: George Smith's parents, George Smith III and Maureen Smith; his sister Bree Smith; cruise ship passengers Paul and Galina Kvitnisky; Emilie Rausch; Clete Hyman; Greg and Pat Lawyer; Christian Ruiz; Keith Greer, attorney for Josh Askin; Albert Dayan, attorney for Rusty Kofman; Phil Houston, an expert in detecting deception; Mike Jones, Smith family investigator/attorney. NOTE: In this broadcast, Zach Rozenberg, Greg Rozenberg, and Josh Askin all appear in interrogation videos. They are not specifically interviewed for this report. Rusty Kofman appears saying no comment. 07/11/15

48 HOURS: "The Hit" - a report on the death of colorful entrepreneur and Las Vegas gambler Gary Triano, who was blown up in his car after finishing a round of golf at the exclusive La Paloma Country Club in Tucson, Arizona in 1996. His ex-wife, socialite Pamela Phillips, speaks out for the first time and proclaims her innocence. The Trianos were a power couple who were part of the local social set and hobnobbed with Donald Trump. Triano had made a fortune in the tribal gaming business, but the bottom fell out and he was pushed out of the business. The income loss put a strain on the couple. He owed millions of dollars to creditors. The Trianos separated in 1993 and eventually divorced. He was killed in 1996. Was it a mob hit? Were friends or family involved? Investigation led to endless leads, curious characters and many theories. Eventually the investigation led to the involvement of Ron Young, once an acquaintance and possible lover of Pamela Phillips. He was arrested along with Pamela Phillips on charges of conspiracy and murder. In separate trials, Young denied everything, and was found guilty. Pamela Phillips was portrayed as a desperate woman out for life insurance at her trial. Her attorneys said that someone else was responsible. She too was found guilty. On-screen text graphic: Gary Triano's family sued Pam Phillips and Ron Young for wrongful death. They were awarded $10 million dollars. Interviewed: Pamela Phillips; one-time friend of the couple Laura Chapman; Pima County Investigator Gene Reedy; ATF Special Agents Tom Mangan and Tony May; Detective James Gamber; Triano friend Dr. Lawrence D'Antonio; defense attorney Paul Edkerstrom. 48 HOURS: "Blaming Melissa" (9:00 - 10:00p) - an updated rebroadcast, after new evidence from the coroner's office is brought to light, detailing the investigation into the case of Melissa Calusinski, a young woman who claims she did not murder 16-month-old Ben Kingan in 2009, while working at a day care center in Lake County, Illinois, despite having confessed to the crime. Also examined are police interrogations, what happens after a confession, and what can happen when a key player in the investigation admits he made a life-altering mistake. Two days after Ben Kingan's death, Calusinski was brought in for questioning; police told her Ben died from a blunt-force trauma to the head and that she was the last adult to have seen him alive. She was interrogated for nine hours, never asked for a lawyer, and eventually confessed to dropping the child in a way that may have led to a head injury. She was convicted of murder, largely on the fact that she had confessed and that the Medical Examiner's report said that the child suffered from fresh injuries to his head. Her family persuaded a newly-elected coroner, Dr. Thomas Rudd, to re-examine the evidence. His findings revealed an older head injury -- a significant discovery. Eventually, state pathologist Dr. Eupil Choi, admitted to missing the old injury in his report. With this information, attorney Kathleen Zellner, who specializes in cases pertaining to false confessions, says that Melissa Calusinski did not receive a fair trial. Advocates say that, under extreme conditions, 60% of people confess to crimes they did not commit. The police say they played by the rules. Two courts have allowed the conviction to stand. Attorney Zellner believes the medical evidence needs to be re-examined, but the State Attorney will not pass it on. Family and friends vow not to give up. Update for the 07/18/15 rebroadcast: after a phone call suggesting x-ray images from the autopsy existed that contradicted testimony, Melissa's lawyer petitioned to void her conviction. The cause of death was changed from homicide to undetermined. In September, the trial judge will decide whether to hold a new hearing that could be a first step to a new trial. On-screen text graphic: Melissa lost her first appeal. She plan to try again based on the new medical evidence. On-screen text graphic for the 07/18/15 rebroadcast: Melissa's parents visit her often. They are confident they'll bring her home one day. Interviewed: Melissa Calusinski; Paul and Cheryl Calusinski (parents); Crystal Calusinski (sister); Ruth Fuller (journalist); Dr. Thomas Rudd (Lake County coroner); Kathleen Zellner (attorney); Deborah Teurkheimer (law professor); Michael Nerheim (States Attorney). 48 HOURS: "The Girl Next Door" (10:00 – 11:00p) - a report featuring an exclusive interview with Tracey Grissom, who is on trial for the murder of her former husband, Hunter Grissom. Tracey details the abuse she claims to have suffered and the events that led her to shoot and kill him, in an Alabama parking lot in 2012. A young mother herself, Tracey and Hunter Grissom had eloped in 2004. Theirs was a troubled relationship from the beginning. In 2010 Tracey filed for divorce; she then says Hunter became abusive and in November, after she spent the night at a boyfriend's house, Hunter raped her. He was arrested. Soon after, Hunter stopped paying spousal support and child support for his daughter, Anna Grace, claiming he was not working. One day, Tracey noticed his truck and wanted to take a picture to disprove his claim. She claims that he approached her car, intending to hurt her. She then shot six times. She was arrested on murder charges. The hour includes interviews with: Tracey Grissom's friends; her attorney; Hunter's mother and aunt; two of the employees who witnessed the incident that took Hunter's life; and Hunter's lawyer, who uncovered some damaging information about Tracey. The trial lasted two days, but before the case went to jury, the judge made a stunning reversal: he said it was a manslaughter case and if both sides could agree, he would let the jury consider manslaughter. They did, but Tracey did not agree and decided to take her chances of not being convicted of murder. The verdict: guilty. At sentencing, her lawyer argued that she was a battered woman, hoping to receive a lighter sentence. The judge gave her twenty-five years, neither the minimum, nor the maximum sentence. On-screen text graphic: Tracey Grissom must serve at least fifteen years of her sentence. She will be eligible for parole in 2029. Anna Grace will be twenty years old. On-screen text graphic for the 07/18/15 rebroadcast: On July 2, the Alabama court of criminal appeals unanimously upheld Tracey Grissom's murder conviction. Her defense has files for another hearing. Tracey will be eligible for parole in 2029. She'll be 47. Interviewed: Tracey Grissom; her attorney, Warren Freeman; her friend Loren Richards; her brother Travis Waters; Hunter Grissom's mother Melanie Garner and his aunt, Gina Priscock; Tuscaloosa Times journalist Stephanie Taylor; Hunter Grissom's employees William Dockery and Dale Dockery (brothers); Hunter Grissom's attorney Shelly Standridge; social worker Marian Waters; and juror Janice Kelly. 07/25/15

48 HOURS: "Paradise Lost" - an updated report on the investigation into the 2010 shooting death of Wall Street millionaire John Bender, who was killed in his exotic home in Costa Rica. His wife, Ann, is charged with the crime, but she claims innocence. After making a $100 million fortune on Wall Street, Bender and his wife bought land in Costa Rica where they built a nature preserve, along with an elaborate, four-story hilltop home with no walls or windows as the centerpiece. The couple seemed to have everything; but both suffered from severe depression, became isolated, and were not entirely welcomed by the locals. They lived in fear after an abduction attempt and a break-in, and were forced to arm themselves and hire a security team. On January 8, 2010, John Bender died from a bullet wound to the back of the head. Was it murder, suicide or accident? Prosecutors say it was murder. Ann Bender says her husband was trying to kill himself and had been suicidal for some time. Other issues in the investigation include: allegations that the trustee of the Bender's $100 Million fortune siphoned money from the trust, and the Bender gem collection, which to the Costa Rican authorities, looked like it could have been a smuggling operation. Nineteen months after the shooting, Ann Bender was charged with murder. At trial, Ann was found not guilty of murder; but in Costa Rica, there is no double jeopardy rule and Ann was brought up on the same charges again and this time was found guilty. 48 HOURS brought in the world-famous independent forensic team of Richard and Selma Eikelenboom, who, after examining all the evidence, say there were problems with the conclusion drawn by the prosecution. Today, Ann Bender is in prison continuing to fight for her innocence. Original On screen text graphic: The Bender gems, worth an estimated $20 million, were confiscated by the Costa Rican authorities. 07/25/15 EPILOGUE: Last February, nine months after Ann Bender was convicted, an appeals court overturned that decision. Its finding was that the prosecution's evidence was insufficient proof of murder. Ann was released from prison. The court has ordered a third trial. Her boyfriend, who fought to bring attention to her case, died while she was in prison. She must remain in Costa Rica, pending her next trial. On-screen text graphic for the 07/25/15 rebroadcast: The trial is scheduled to begin next month. Interviewed: Ann Bender; John Bender's friend Pete DeLisi; CBS News consultant/reporter Ned Zeman; prosecutor Edgar Ramirez; Ann's psychiatrist Dr. Carlos Lizano; Bender friend, Paul Meyer; Bender Trust administrator Juan Alvarez; Ann's current boyfriend Greg Fischer; Ann's attorney Fabio Oconitrillo; security guard Oswaldo Aguilar; Ann's brother Ken Patton; forensic experts Richard and Selma Eikelenboom.
