Education	The West Virginia Supreme Court is considering whether the state Board of Education can be sued by a former superintendent over her firing. Marple was fired in 2012. She sued the board and a former board president last year, alleging defamation, violation of due process rights, and violation of open meetings law. The Supreme Court will hear arguments on the appeal on Tuesday.	10/5/15
Education	In conjunction with October being Farm to School month, students from Glen Dale and Center McMechen Elementary visited the local USDA service center to harvest crops they planted in the spring as fourth graders. JM Horticulture students grew the crops from seeds and then helped the students plant them in the garden in McMechen. Tomorrow the cooks at the two schools will serve the vegetables to the students who grew them.	10/15/15
Political	Happening today, Ohio State Senator Lou Gentile will be recognized by the Jefferson County Veterans Service Commission for his work on Senate Bills thirteen and eighteen. Bill thirsteen establishes a process for giving college credit for military service, while bill eighteen gives tax credits to businesses who hire qualified veterans, members of the National Guard, and members of the Armed Forces Reserve.	11/5/15
Healthcare	A deadly insect already in 20 states may be making its way to West Virginia. The insect is called the kissing bug because it bites people in the face and lips. These bugs can live indoors in the cracks and holes of substandard housing and in a variety of outdoor setting including beneath porches, in dog houses or kennels and under cement. According to the CDC, when the insect sucks your blood it defecates, releasing a parasite which leads to Chagas Disease infecting the heart and digestive muscles. If you think you are infected, you are encouraged to contact your healthcare provider.	11/25/15
Economy	The Belmont County Ethane Cracker continues to grow, with another new global partner signing on. IN-EOS technologies joined Thailand based PTT Global Chemical and Technip SA of Paris, to work on the science of the operation. They will focus specifically how the plant will manufacture polyethylene. All of the companies involved say they are excited and ready to work together. The cracker plant is set to be a multi-billion dollar operation bringing many new jobs to Belmont County.	11/30/15

Education	The West Virginia House Education Committee plans to meet with the State Board of Education president to talk more about changes in required curriculum. It comes after recommendations that the state drops the educational standards based on Common Core. The State Department of Education is now considering changes to the state's K through 12 math and English language arts standards. The department has recommended new standards that include handwriting instructions in grades K through 4 and the expectation for students to learn multiplication tables by the end of third grade.	12/14/15
Political	More than 100 million dollars is coming to improve transportation in rural areas of West Virginia. It's all thanks to the FAST Act, signed into law by President Obama earlier this month. The five-year transportation plan will provide billions of dollars to help rebuild roads and bridges, as well as highway projects around the nation. Yesterday, Republican Congressman Evan Jenkins held a press conference to talk about how the law will help the New River Transport Authority.	12/23/15

Economy	In just hours from now more than 200 people are expected to be at the Wheeling Economic Outlook Conference. This year the focus will be on natural gas and coal markets, with what organizers say are interesting outlooks on energy consumption production, pricing and impact on the local economy. The conference will be held at the meeting room of the Wheeling Island Hotel Casino Racetrack starting at 7:30 this morning and last until noon. The event is hosted by the Wheeling Chamber, WVU's College of Business and McKinley Carter Wealth Services.	10/7/15
Crime	Five people are behind bars in Belmont County after local law enforcement recover a large amount of marijuana, 2 handguns, nearly $3,000 in cash from a home near St. Clairsville High School. The Belmont County Major Crimes Unit executed a search warrant at the residence on Woodrow Avenue, over the weekend. Five people were arrested facing charges including trafficking marijuana in the vicinity of a school. Officials believe the marijuana may have been purchased in Colorado. More charges and arrests could follow.	10/27/15
Political	Happening today in Belmont County, Ohio State Senator Lou Gentile discussing another veterans bill in a town hall meeting at the Martins Ferry Library. The bill pending in the Ohio State Senate known as Senate Bill 18 will encourage small businesses to hire military veterans. Last week, Gentile was recognized by local veterans after helping to pass Senate Bill 13, which allows veterans to receive college credit for their military service. The meeting will take place this evening at 5:30.	11/9/15

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Education	Public School enrollment in West Virginia has dropped. According to the West Virginia Department of Education, public schools in the state dropped by nearly 27-hundred students this year. Kanawha and Cabell counties saw the biggest drops; they are home to West Virginia's two largest cities. Counties with fewer students will receive less money from the state next year. Only 9 of the 55 counties in the state saw increases.	11/23/15
Education/Healthcare	Students in one middle school in the Ohio Valley will today focus on living an active life style. In Moundsville Middle School, health students will be walking into what is called a Moving Minds Classroom. Moving Minds is a type of class that involves increasing physical activity in a classroom. This means when students walk into class today, they will be sitting on seats with stability disks as well as participating in exercises involving an exercise bike and 2 standing elliptical desks. The event celebrates the funding that was achieved after two years of receiving Highmark Healthy Grants.	12/9/15
Crime	The man wanted in the shooting death of Lemroy Coleman back in October was found late last night. According to Wheeling Police Chief Shawn Schwertfeger, Dallas Acoff was arrested in Cleveland. The investigation revealed Acoff had been traveling to and from Wheeling to avoid arrest. After conducting surveillance video last night, police found and arrested Acoff who was reportedly found with a firearm. He is expected to be extradited back to Wheeling to face charges.	12/16/15

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Crime	The search continues right now for the person responsible for shooting and killing one man and wounding another. The man murdered is Lemroy Coleman, also known as B.G. Coleman, and another man were shot in the 100 Block of 15 th Street in East Wheeling around 1 this morning. Coleman's last known address is out of Cleveland, but officials say he is well known to law enforcement in the Wheeling area. Police also say the surviving victim, who was shot in the leg before walking to the Wheeling Police Station, also has a Cleveland address.	10/9/15
Economy	A local park is expanding and creating opportunities for adventure lovers and job seekers. Officials at Grand Vue Park say the new additions will make the park one of the top tourist attractions in the Mountain State.	10/19/15
Political	Voters in Ohio have rejected the ballot measure that would have made the state the first to make marijuana legal for both recreational and medical use in a single vote. The initiative's failure follows an expensive campaign, a legal fight over its ballot wording and an investigation into the proposal's petition signatures. Organizers with Responsible Ohio thanked the many people who helped to get the issue on the ballot.	11/4/15
Economy	West Virginia Congressman David McKinley is standing by the Mountain	11/11/15

State's decision to gradually increase wages which are currently at $8 per hour. On January 1st wages are set to increase to $8.75 an hour, which is more than both Pennsylvania and Ohio's minimum wage.

Economy	The federal government is stepping in to help hundreds of people in Wetzel County who lost money after a business suddenly closes. Budget Finance Company shut its doors in New Martinsville a few weeks ago and now the state and federal government are stepping in to help people pick up the pieces. At the meeting, Wetzel County Prosecutor Tim Haught urged people to file a claim if they think they've lost money.	12/1/15

Program Title: 7 News @ 5PM

Duration: 5:00PM-5:30PM

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Healthcare	Wheeling Hospital is building on their recognition of low infection rates by utilizing some new equipment. They're using the MRSA-UV Helix and the Turbo-UV ultraviolet lights to enhance their current cleaning and disinfection practices. The machines can be moved from room to room and will be used to sanitize operating rooms, patient rooms and restrooms.	10/6/15
Political	Tomorrow makes just three weeks until election day in Ohio. Issue 3 is something everyone is talking about. A majority "yes" vote on Issue 3 will create ten sanctioned marijuana grow sites across the state, allow anyone over 21 to grow small batches for personal use, as well as allow anyone of any age with a prescription to consume or smoke it for medical reasons.	10/12/15

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Crime	A Wheeling man lands himself behind bars for not holding up his end of the bargain after being arrested for possessing drugs. Jay Scott Smith was pulled over on Route 2 in Marshall County for faulty registration back on October 18 th . During the stop, West Virginia State Police searched Smith's car and reportedly found several prescription pills and marijuana seeds. Troopers say Smith offered to do buys for the Drug Task Force. Smith was given the chance to, but did not cooperate, so a warrant was issued for his arrest.	11/13/15
Healthcare	Dr. Roland Chalifoux of Valley Pain Management has been cleared of any wrongdoing in an investigation by the West Virginia Board of Osteopathic Medicine. It was alleged that Doctor Chalifoux failed to follow proper sterile techniques with needles. But following an investigation, the board determined there is no probable cause to believe he acted unprofessionally, and the case against him has been dropped.	11/17/15
Economy	The Health Plan is heading back to the Friendly City. This major announcement means the corporation won't only bring their more than 300 current employees into the city, but they'll look to hire an estimated 100 additional workers within their first two years. With this relocation of the Health Plan's corporate offices from Ohio into Wheeling, city officials say there will be more people working in downtown than ever before in the history of the city. With increased jobs, means increased tax revenue for the city and more money being spent at downtown stores and restaurants, but the project wouldn't have been possible with the ongoing work of several organizations.	12/2/15
Crime	The search for an East Wheeling murder suspect and his accomplice is expanding. There is a nation wide search right now for Dallas Acoff and Rocco Pandoli. Acoff is the man police believe fired the shot that killed BG Coleman in October, and Pandoli is said to be an accomplice. Sergeant Gregg McKenzie with the Wheeling Police Department says both men have been entered into the National Crime Information Center database. If either of them has an encounter with police in the US and their information is run through the database, information will be returned to the officer showing they are wanted for the murder.	12/10/15
Education	One local university has been named as one of the top 50 best values for private schools. Kiplinger's Personal Finance says Franciscan University is 45 th in the nation when it comes to academic quality at an affordable cost. Three of the top 5 schools on the list are Ivy League Schools, which are known for their financial aid packages for students who qualify to attend, but cannot afford it.	12/22/15

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Economy	Workers in West Virginia are no strangers to hard labor, they make a living in the hot sun wearing heavy boots and hard hats. But those workers have been a hot button issue to the state. Workers hired for construction on public improvements have been paid prevailing wage rates, but last year when Republicans took control of the State Legislature, they worked on a method to recalculate those rates. It was not an easy process, and the state even spent a few months this summer with no prevailing wage in place, but now new rates have been decided. It's up to Legislative leaders now to honor the rates or to try to repeal them all together when the next legislative session begins in January.	10/9/15
Education	West Liberty University has a new president tonight. The Board of Governors named Dr. Stephen Greiner to the post just a short time ago at a press conference. The Board spent most of the day in executive session before making the big announcement. Greiner will officially start his new job in January. He will be succeeding Dr. John McCullough who has been serving as intern president.	10/29/15
Crime	Belmont County Deputies get their man in a double murder investigation. Okie Eugene Barton the third was formally charged for shooting and killing his own parents. The incident happened last night at home on Garrett Hill Road in Glencoe. Deputies say Barton called 911 after the shooting. They later determined the 18 year old was the prime suspect.	11/10/15
Crime	A West Virginia couple is facing charges after reportedly conspiring to murder a Sissonville man. Kanawha County deputies say Brandy Skeens and Joseph Lawrence planned to kill Skeens' husband inside a home on Grapevine Road. They allegedly tried to execute the murder last Tuesday under the façade of a burglary. Investigators say Mr. Skeens abused his wife repeatedly, which they believe is the motive behind this murder scheme.	11/23/15
Healthcare	The holiday season is supposed to be a time of joy and happiness, but often times people can get holiday time depression, anxiety, or even feel lonely. A class open to the public at the University of Charleston tomorrow night is working to help with all that. Lynn Eldridge will present as part of the First Class Health Education 101 series to help you deal with the holiday anxieties. It's all so the holidays go on as they should.	12/7/15

Economy	Help could be on the way. Applications are being accepted for a program that helps low-income West Virginia households pay utility bills. The nonprofit Dollar Energy Fund partners with companies across the state to administer the Utility Assistance Program. The program provides grants to maintain or restore gas, electric, and water service. Eligible households can apply once per utility until Sept. 30 th next year to avoid termination or have their service restored. The maximum grant amount is $500.	10/1/15
Healthcare	More than 500 walkers came out to Heritage port this morning to get active and support heart health with the American Heart Association. One special little boy got to lead the walk, which raised thousands of dollars for others fighting heart disease and congenital heart defects just like him.	10/24/15
Economy	Looking Across the Mountain State, Hunters Helping the Hungry is accepting donations of money and harvested deer. Hunters can donate legally harvested deer by delivering them to the nearest participating meat processor. Food banks will pick up the venison and distribute it to more than 500 food programs.	10/28/15
Political	In Belmont County, voters took full advantage of early voting, up to the last possible moment. The cut-off for early voting was mid afternoon, and up to the last minute, the Belmont County Election Board lobby was packed. Five thousand people have already voted.	11/2/15
Political	In West Virginia, a petition has been filed to prevent un-checked Syrian refugees from entering the state. Today the West Virginia Chair of Veteran Affairs, Joshua Nelson, sent the formal request to Governor Tomblin requesting that background checks be done on every person wanting to enter the Mountain State. Nelson argues that some of the refugees could cause significant problems.	11/16/15
Education/Crime	Amid an increase in reports of domestic violence and stalking, West Virginia University's governing board is broadening its definition of sexual harassment. Proposed changes involve recent amendments to federal regulations as well as additional guidance. In 2014, 23 cases of domestic violence were reported at WVU. They included 14 on campus and seven at fraternities and sororities. Two were off-campus.	12/6/15

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Crime	In Belmont County, today Joe Barton's defense started their case in his murder trial. Barton is accused of killing 69-year-old Julian Townsend of Wegee Road. In court this morning, Detective Ryan Allar was called to the stand to recount the investigation and the days he spent at the crime scenes back in 2012. The defense cross examined Allar and asked about a number of pieces of evidence found, but the most interesting thing was the defense questioning the detective about why it took so long for the case to be presented to the grand jury.	12/15/15

Education	Two finalists have been named to take over as president of West Liberty University. Dr. Ron Dempsey and Dr. Stephen Greiner were announced as the finalists today at the Board of Governors meeting. At the end of the month the two will go through more interviews. The West Virginia Higher Education Policy Commission will then have to approve the man chosen.	10/14/15
Economy	East Coast Metal will be building an all new warehouse near the current Silgan Warehouse. East Coast is part of Kalkreuth Roofing and Sheet Metal, and will provide jobs for 125 employees in the 57,000 square foot building. Blue Racer Oil and Gas will be moving into an open office in the current AT&T building. The company, based in Marshall County, is expected to bring jobs for roughly 12-15 employees. The 8,400 square foot Sears store will be transformed by OVMC into a physical therapy studio, which will also provide several job opportunities. East Coast Metal hopes to have the new building built within the first quarter of next year. They are also looking into a possible training center next to the building.	10/20/15
Crime	Dozens of people were arrested following Halloween parties around Ohio University. Athens Police arrested 28 people last night, and University police arrested 43 people on 47 different charges, including two felony arrests for cocaine possession and marijuana trafficking.	11/1/15
Healthcare	An expansion of the smoking ban in the Friendly City and Ohio County will now make even more areas smoke-free. The Wheeling-Ohio County Health Department voted today to expand the current smoking ban set in place back in 2005. The expansion makes outdoor seating at restaurants, 20 feet from all buildings, all healthcare property, and government owned property including Heritage Port smoke-free in the county. The new regulations also ban e-cigarettes in the smoke-free zones.	11/10/15
Political/Economy	Is tobacco the answer to some of West Virginia's money problems? That's a question lawmakers will face in the upcoming legislative session when they will likely consider boosting the cigarette tax.	11/19/15
Education	Today U.S. Senator Joe Manchin announced he will nominate 40 West Virginia students from 20 counties to the US Service Academies, which include the US Air Force, US Naval, US Military, and the Merchant Marine Academy. Locally 7 students were among those nominated. Final admission is determined by the respective academy.	11/28/15

Economy	The Highlands just continues to grow and tonight we are learning that a home improvement store and a Pittsburgh-based restaurant are among the list of new businesses making the Highlands their new home. The Ohio County Authority approved the purchase agreement for Menards, a Wisconsin based home improvement store that they anticipate will bring nearly 150 jobs. This will be the first Menards in the state of West Virginia. What stands out the most about them is the variety of products they sell. Tonight the Development Authority also approved a Pittsburgh based restaurant that will move into the old Indigo Joes location. The restaurant has not yet been named.	12/8/15
Political	Developing news across the Mountain State tonight, as we're learning United States Attorney Booth Goodwin is stepping down. Goodwin has been in service for 5 years as US Attorney, and had a 15 year career with the office. Goodwin has cited a desire to return to his family's private law practice. This has fueled speculation that Goodwin may launch a bid for the Democratic nomination for Governor.	12/28/15

“Hands Off The Wheel” – a report on the advancement of self-driving cars powered by a form of artificial intelligence. In Silicon Valley, Bill Whitaker takes a test drive in the Mercedes-Benz self-driving automobile and sits inside Google’s version of the driverless car. Unlike current cars, the issues consumers will face with self-driving cars will be related to cybersecurity and privacy. The car industry plans to automate the driving experience feature-by-feature first, before a driverless car is introduced to the market. Mercedes-Benz shared their vision for a car in the year 2030, the F015, a design where the driver turns its back to the steering wheel. (Includes an excerpt from an Infiniti ad) Includes interviews with: Ralf Herrtwich, director of driver assistance and chassis systems at Daimler AG/Mercedes-Benz; Chris Urmson, director self-driving cars at Google; Jaime Waydo, systems engineer at Google; Peter Lehmann, engineer at Daimler AG/Mercedes-Benz; and Mark Rosekind, Administrator of the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA). (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Marc Lieberman)

“Patrick Kennedy” – an interview / profile of Patrick Kennedy, former Democratic Representative for Rhode Island and the youngest son of deceased Senator Edward “Ted” Kennedy and Joan Kennedy. Patrick discusses his memoir, “A Common Struggle”, co-authored with Stephen Fried, in which he describes not only his own alcoholism struggles, but that of his parents too. Mental illness, anxiety, depression and bipolar disorder have also been prevalent in Patrick’s life. Patrick’s purpose for revealing these Kennedy family secrets is to help break the silence about mental illness and addiction, and he continues to champion this cause through the behavioral health policy organization he has founded, The Kennedy Forum. (Includes an excerpt of Walter Cronkite and Ted Kennedy) (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Richard Bonin)

“Hidden Holocaust” – a report about Father Patrick Desbois, a French Catholic priest who is the President of Yahad-In Unum, an organization founded in 2004 that seeks to unsilence nearly half of the six million Jewish victims of the Holocaust whose bodies lie in unmarked mass graves, killed by Nazi soldiers in mass shootings in the former USSR. Investigating and speaking to eyewitnesses have led Yahad-In Unum to more than seventeen hundred of Hitler’s hidden killing fields, and each site is memorialized by recording the GPS coordinates. Includes interviews with: Father Patrick Desbois; Paul Shapiro, director of Advanced Studies at the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum; and eyewitnesses to the Holocaust in Moldova (all through translator): Gheorghe of Hiriseni; and Anatoli and Dimitri of Dubassary. Also includes comments by unidentified eyewitnesses through on-screen graphics translation. (C: Lara Logan – P: Alan B. Goldberg)

The Mail - selected viewer comments about the segments “President Putin” (OAD: 09/27/15) and “Trump” (OAD: 09/27/15)

10/11/15

“President Obama” – an interview with President Barack Obama, recorded in the Roosevelt Room of the White House on Tuesday, October 6. Among the topics discussed: Russia’s military mission in Syria led by President Vladimir Putin in support of Syrian President Bashar al-Assad; strategy in dealing with terrorist organizations in the Middle East including ISIS (ISIL) and al Qaeda after the failed program that attempted to train and equip Syrian rebels; presidential primary campaigns; Donald Trump; Hillary Clinton and her use of a private e-mail server; Vice President Joe Biden’s possible run for president; and his thoughts about his last fifteen months in office. (C: Steve Kroft – P: L. Franklin Devine, Maria Gavrilovic, Michael Karzis) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT

“30 Years on Death Row” – a report on the wrongful murder conviction of Glenn Ford, a man who spent nearly 30 years on death row in Louisiana’s Angola prison. Ford was released after Jake Robinson told the police he robbed and killed jewelry store owner Isadore Rozeman. Marty Stroud served as the prosecutor in Ford’s case and confesses he ignored evidence and composed a jury with no African-Americans. Stroud has asked the Louisiana Bar Association to discipline him for his role in the case. Ford was denied restitution from the state because they believe he knew about the robbery and did nothing about it. Shortly after Ford’s release last year, he was diagnosed with stage IV lung cancer, and died three weeks after his interview with 60 MINUTES. Includes interviews with: Glenn Ford; exonerated death row inmate; Marty Stroud, attorney and lead prosecutor on Ford’s case; and Dale Cox, acting district attorney of Caddo Parish, Louisiana. 10/18/15 “Seeking Asylum” – a report on the hundreds of thousands of people arriving in Europe who have fled war or poverty in the Middle East in hopes of reaching Germany. 60 MINUTES follows migrants from Syria, Iraq or Afghanistan who are paying Turkish traffickers to take them across the Aegean Sea in overcrowded boats to land on the Greek island of Lesbos. Once in Greece, migrants are fingerprinted and registered and then they travel through Macedonia, Serbia, Croatia, Slovenia, and Austria, to end up in Germany. German Chancellor Angela Merkel welcomes asylum seekers, but the influx is overwhelming. Includes interviews with: Kirk Day, emergency field director for the International Rescue Committee on Lesbos; Heinz Schaden, mayor of Salzburg, Germany; Katharina El Masri, project management for Save Me Munich; Wolfgang Panzer, mayor of Unterhaching, Germany; and asylum seekers: Ahmed Dosum (through translator), Dr. Bassam al-Tarifi (through translator), and Mohammad Pathlavay. (C: Anderson Cooper – P: Patricia Shevlin, Miles Doran)

“Make-A-Wish” – a report on a local chapter of the “Make-A-Wish” Foundation, a non-profit organization established to grant wishes to children around the world who are living with life-threatening illnesses. The volunteers at the local chapter in northeast Arkansas collect as many donations as possible one day a year to fund the wishes. Kaden Erickson was battling leukemia and had his wish of visiting Australia with his family granted, but died a month ago. Gavin Grubbs suffers from debilitating muscular dystrophy and had his wish granted five years ago to attend the Daytona 500 and meet race car driver Joey Logano, and the two are still close. Includes interviews with: Christie Matthews and Danna Johnson, “Make-A-Wish” volunteers; Kendra Street, “Make-A-Wish” volunteer, former recipient, and a teacher at Marmaduke Elementary School; Kaden Erickson (now deceased) and Gavin Grubbs, “Make-A-Wish” recipients from Arkansas chapter; Joey Logano, NASCAR driver; and Jeanne Erickson, Kaden’s mother. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Robert G. Anderson, Magalie Laguerre-Wilkinson, Aaron Weisz)

“Revis Island” – an interview / profile of the New York Jets All-Pro National Football League (NFL) cornerback, Darrelle Revis, and how his defense shuts down the best receivers in the league. Revis has had five contracts in seven years, and negotiates each salary as hard as he plays. Also includes interviews with: Will Sullivan; speed training coach and owner of Sullivan PROformance; and Sean Gilbert, former NFL defensive lineman and Revis’ uncle. Includes comments by: Brandon Marshall, NFL wide receiver; and Diana Askew, Revis’ mother. (Includes excerpts from HBO’s “Hard Knocks”.) (C: Armen Keteyian – P: Alan B. Goldberg)

10/25/15 “Vice President Biden” – an interview with Vice President Joe Biden and his wife, Dr. Jill Biden, recorded at their official residence on the grounds of the Naval Observatory on Saturday, October 24 after the vice president announced on Wednesday that he would not seek the Democratic presidential nomination. Together, they discussed the reasoning behind the decision to not run for president or any future political office, and the death of their son Beau Biden to brain cancer in May. Separately, Joe discussed: how he wants to influence the Democratic Party; Hillary Clinton; Donald Trump; and what he would like to get done in his last fifteen months in office. (C: Norah O’Donnell – P: Michael Radutzky, Guy Campanile)

“Inside The Air War” – a report on the 14-month-old air war against ISIS (ISIL, Daesh) from inside the military operations floor at Al Udeid Air Base in Qatar. Every plane flying over Iraq and Syria is being tracked from here. 60 MINUTES cameras capture a B-1 bomber, in real-time, striking a car-bomb factory with secondary explosions indicating explosives were inside. The air war costs the U.S. $10 million a day, launching aircraft from bases in Kuwait, Qatar, the United Arab Emirates, Jordan and Turkey. The estimated number of enemy fighters remains unchanged, twenty to thirty thousand, because ISIS has been able to replace the dead with new recruits. Includes interviews with: various American air crew flyers (unidentified due to potential death threats); Lieutenant Colonel David Haworth; and Lieutenant General Charles Brown, commander of the air war. (C: David Martin – P: Mary Walsh)

“The New Burma” – a report on the democratic movement in Burma (also known as Myanmar) before the country’s elections November 8th and the woman most responsible for it, Nobel Prize-winning activist Aung San Suu Kyi. The National League for Democracy (NLD) party lead by Suu Kyi is poised to win control of parliament after the election, and Burma President Thein Sein believes this year’s election will be free and fair, unlike 1990. Another issue in the pursuit for democracy is the violent conflict between Buddhists and a Muslim minority called the Rohingya. Includes interviews with: Aung San Suu Kyi, human rights activist, former political prisoner and current chairperson of the NLD; Ashin Wirathu (through translator), Burmese monk and militant Buddhist; and President Thein Sein (through translator), Burma’s president. Also includes comments by Abdusalem (through translator), Muslim in a refugee camp. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Rachael Morehouse, Henry Schuster)

Update: “Drones Over America” (OAD: 03/16/14)

48 HOURS

10/03/15 48 HOURS: “The Doctor’s Daughter” - an investigation into the 2012 death of Leslie Neulander, the wife of Dr. Robert Neulander, a prominent New York State obstetrician, and the quest to discover whether her death was an accident or murder. Leslie Neulander suffered a massive head wound while showering, but her body was found on the bedroom floor, near the bed and far from the shower. The Medical Examiner ruled the death an accidental but investigators suspected the husband, Dr. Neulander, of covering up the crime. The couple’s daughter, Jenna Neulander, was the only other person in the home at the time, and made the 911 call to summon help. The investigation uncovered a troubled marriage, suggestions of a pending split and declining finances. Eighteen months after Leslie Neulander’s death, her husband was charged with her murder. The defense maintained the Neulander’s had a loving marriage and that Leslie had died from injuries from the fall in the shower. Prosecutors say it was murder and the doctor covered up the crime. The science of blood spatter and the 911 call for help became focal points in the trial. Jenna Neulander testified in her father’s defense. Robert Neulander was found guilty. On-screen text graphic: Just this week, Neulander surrendered his license to practice medicine. Interviewed: Scott Kapral (NY Police Sergeant); Jim Stevens (attorney/CBS News Consultant); Bill Fitzpatrick (Onondage County DA); Dr. Mary Jumbelic (friend of Leslie Neulander); July Crosby (Neulander employee); Edward Menkin (defense attorney); Karen Green (forensic scientist). 48 HOURS (continued)

- 10/10/15 48 HOURS: “Shadow of Death” - a report on the murders of Andra and Brad Sachs, who in 2014 were killed during a suspected home invasion, in which their younger son was left paralyzed. Evidence in the crime points towards one of their older sons, Ashton Sachs, who was allegedly fascinated by the 1989 Menendez brothers murder case. The Sachs were a wealthy couple with five children, who had divorced, but continued to live together in upscale San Juan Capistrano, California. Investigation first led to the theory of a business deal gone bad, but a month after the shootings, then-19-year-old Ashton Sachs was charged with murder. Family members say that Sachs was an avid player of violent video games and had been fascinated with the sensational 1989 Menendez murders. Through interviews with various family members and experts, including highly respected child psychologist Ali Mattu of Columbia University, a portrait of Ashton Sachs emerges as a very troubled individual potentially suffering from mental illness. Warning signs of a troubled life were on the surface, and family dynamics played a part in the case. Sachs remains in a California jail and is scheduled to go on trial for the murders in March 2016. On-screen text graphic: Ashton Sachs is being held in solitary confinement. Authorities will not confirm reports he has tried again to take his own life. Interviewed: Orange County Register Meghann Cuniff; reporter/48 HOURS consultant Jack Leonard; Orange County realtor Monte Burghardt; Andra’s close friend Nina Lifshultz; weapons expert Nabil Khattar; trauma surgeon Dr. Enrique Ginzburg; Ashton’s friend Connor Ward; attorney Mary Fulginiti; Columbia University child psychologist, Ali Mattu; Andra’s sisters Lesley Summers and Stephanie Garber. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Chuck Stevenson, Judy Ryback)
- 10/17/15 48 HOURS: “Vengeance in Vegas” – an investigation into the 2012 murder of Shauna Tiaffay, a Las Vegas casino cocktail waitress who was brutally beaten to death in her townhouse, while her husband George Tiaffay, a West Point military graduate and firefighter, worked an all-night shift at the firehouse. Investigation revealed that the Tiaffay marriage had begun to crumble; they had separated, but shared custody of their daughter. Police focused on the husband, but George had a solid alibi. Police also discovered an earlier robbery and a strange clue the robber left behind. Forty-eight hours into the investigation, detectives received a crucial tip from a local resident, William Pennix (aka “Big Will”) – a friend had told him that he had just killed a woman. The tip led investigators to a homeless man named “Greyhound” (Noel Stevens) who lived in the desert away from the Las Vegas strip. Police believed that George Tiaffay had befriended Stevens, and manipulated his friend with the promise of cash if he would kill his wife. They also matched the murder weapon with merchandise that the two men are seen shopping for, on video footage acquired by the police. Stevens and Tiaffay were arrested. Stevens pleaded guilty in 2013 to Shauna’s murder. In a pre-trial deal, he agreed to testify against George Tiaffay once prosecutors promised not to seek the death penalty against him. George Tiaffay was found guilty. On-screen text graphic: Shauna's family is raising awareness for domestic violence through their group Justice4Shauna. Noel Stevens will be sentenced in November for Shauna's murder. He faces a maximum of life in prison without the possibility of parole. Interviewed: William Pennix (informant); Paula Stokes-Richards (Shauna’s sister); Randee Emmett, Siana Nikolav (Shauna’s friends); Bernadette Tiaffay and Maria McGrew (George’s sisters); Roc Ryder (George’s West Point friend); Dan Long and Terri Miller (Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department investigators); Detective Sam Smith; Marc DiGiacomo (prosecutor); Robert Langfore (Tiaffay’s defense attorney); Pam Weckerly (Assistant Clark County DA) (C: Peter Van Sant – P: Allen Alter, Alec Sirken, Chris Young Ritzen, Cindy Cesare, Chris O’Connell)

- 10/24/15 48 HOURS: “The Hunter” - a report on the 2012 disappearance of Kelli Bordeaux, a young army combat medic who went missing in Fort Bragg, North Carolina, and one local bounty hunter’s own efforts to find her -- his first case after he receiving his private investigator’s license. Bordeaux had gone to a local bar and never returned home. A massive search was conducted, but no clues turned up. Police had several suspects, including Mike Bordeaux, her estranged husband; Justin Thompson, a man she was dating; and Nicholas Holbert, a man who was last seen with her the night she went missing. Without telling the police, bounty hunter David Marshburn (now a 48 HOURS consultant), launched his own investigation. Alibis for Bordeaux and Thompson were airtight, so Marshburn befriended Holbert, putting him at ease and sometimes paying him to open up with information. Finally, Marshburn told police what he was up to and they told him to continue with his investigation. Holbert confessed to Marshburn, that Bordeaux had learned that Holbert was a sex offender, which offered a motive. In 2014, Marshburn decided time was up and convinced Holbert to lead him to Kelly Bordeaux’s body. The footage shown from the subsequent arrest video is the first broadcast of a confession captured by a police officer’s bodycam. On-screen text graphic: Under his plea deal, Nicholas Holbert waived all rights to an appeal. Nicholas Holbert will receive psychiatric counseling and substance abuse treatment in prison. David Marshburn is investigating a new missing person’s case. Interviewed: David Marshburn (private detective/48 HOURS Consultant); Johnna Henson (Bordeaux’s mother); Olivia Cox and Matt Henson (Bordeaux’s sister and brother); Justin Thompson (boyfriend); Jeff Locklear (Fayetteville, North Carolina detective); Billy West (District Attorney). (C: Troy Roberts - P: Marc B. Goldbaum, Paul LaRosa, Jonathan Leach)
- 10/31/15 48 HOURS: “The Pact” (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the murder of 15-year-old John McCabe of Tewksbury, Massachusetts, who was murdered after a dance in 1969, and his family’s decades-long quest to find out what really happened to him. Police launched a massive investigation; there were suspicions that John’s schoolmates may have been involved. One, Walter Shelley, was driving in a car that matched the description of a car spotted near the crime scene, but there was no forensic evidence and the case went cold. In 2000, Bill McCabe got a tip from John’s childhood friend, Jack Ward: he heard at a BBQ, that the motive for the murder was jealousy and John had been flirting with Shelley’s girlfriend, Marla Shiner. The case stalled again. In 2007, a new investigation was launched which led to Edward Alan Brown, who shared details of what happened that night. Mike Ferreira and Walter Shelley were arrested for the murder. Ferreira was tried first and was found not guilty: the jury did not believe Brown’s story. Bill McCabe died four days after the verdict. Evelyn McCabe took up the quest for justice. Walter Shelley stood trial. This jury believed Brown and he was convicted of murder. On-screen text graphic for original and rebroadcast: Evelyn McCabe has filed a wrongful death suit against Michael Ferreira, Walter Shelley and Edward Allen Brown. Interviewed: Bill and Evelyn McCabe (parents); Debbie McCabe, Roberta McCabe (sisters); Gerry Leone (former District Attorney); Mike Ferreira and his wife Nancy Williams; Jack Ward (childhood friend); Detective Linda Coughlin; Ken Lavalee (police); Eric Wilson (Ferreira’s attorney); Michael Duquett (juror). (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Judy Rybak, Peter Henderson) (OAD: 10/25/14)
- 10/31/15 48 HOURS: “The Bugs Bunny Defense” (10:00-11:00p) – a report on the 2007 death of Patrick Duffey and the incredible story his wife, Linda told police about what actually happened: she and her husband had reenacted a moment from a Bugs Bunny cartoon and she accidentally shot and killed her husband with a gun. Police questioned whether what happened in the suburban Whittier, California home was a freak accident, or an intentional murder. The investigation dragged on for five years, and the case grew cold. Lindy Duffey remarried and was now living with her husband Larry Gwozdz, a well-known jazz musician in Mississippi. In 2012, with a new prosecutor urging them on, police arrested and charged Linda Duffey Gwozdz with murder. At the trial, her team used the Bugs Bunny defense and the case ended with a deadlocked jury. One year later, for her second trial, prosecutors did not rely on the interrogation videos in which Linda spoke about the cartoon defense. Instead they claimed that it was a pre-meditated, deliberate murder. In order to bring up the cartoon defense, Linda Duffey Gwozdz would have to testify herself. She declined to do so. She was found guilty of murder. On-screen text graphic: Linda Duffey Gwozdz is appealing her conviction. Interviewed: Shaun McCarthy and Shannon Laren (Los Angeles County detectives); Julie Prendergast (Linda Duffey’s former friend); Katherine Hunt (Patrick Duffey’s sister); Tracy Peck (Los Angeles Country firearms expert); Paul Delhauer (blood evidence expert); Robert Villa (Deputy District Attorney); Brandi Jones, Andrew Dixon, Danielle Wong, Patricia Enriquez (jurors from first and second trials). “Veterans Journey Home: Faith, Hope & War”: an interfaith special examining the issues veterans face as they transition to civilian life. According to the Department of Veterans Affairs, there are 22 million veterans in the U.S. This program highlights the stories of some of these men and women who have volunteered to serve their country. Featured on the program are: (1) Rev. Dr. Rita Nakashima Brock is founding Co-Director of the Soul Repair Center at Brite Divinity School in Ft. Worth, Texas. A widely recognized expert on the emerging study of moral injury and recovery, she talks about moral injury and what it takes to rebuild a moral identity. (2) Rev. Dr. Craig Combs, a retired chaplain with the Texas National Guard, served two tours in Iraq. Currently a Faith & Community Based Initiative Coordinator with the Military Veteran Peer Network, he discusses how society needs to do a better job in helping veterans transition from a “war mind to a peace mind”. Also includes footage of Rev. Dr. Combs leading a discussion with a group of Texas veterans. (3) Traumatic brain injury and post-traumatic stress (PTS) are often referred to as the unseen wounds of war. It’s estimated that 500,000 veterans have returned from the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan with symptoms of PTS. Less than half seek help for their condition, and many self-medicate with drugs and alcohol. Among the areas impacted is the criminal justice system in Denton County, Texas, where a Veterans Treatment Court Program is offered as an alternative to serving time in jail. Includes interviews with Judge David D. Garcia and Ginger Simonson, a Veteran Peer Services Coordinator with the Military Veteran Peer Network. (4) Olivia Bush, Program Coordinator for The Lotus Project for Women Veterans, discusses the challenges that are unique to women vets. In addition to mental health referrals and basic needs support, the organization offers permanent, supportive housing options for disabled women veterans. Also features two female veterans who found permanent housing and support through the program. (5) Rev. Dr. Robert Lee Hill, Minister Emeritus of the Community Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Kansas City, Missouri, talks about how the faith community can help foster a “repair of the soul”. (Narrator: Rolland Smith. Executive Producer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Natalie Baxter. Director & Senior Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. Produced in consultation with: National Council of Churches; The Islamic Society of North America; New York Board of Rabbis; A Consortium of Roman Catholic Organizations.)
