Program Title: 7 News @ 5AM

Duration: 5:00AM-6:00AM

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Political	Along with those being sworn in will be newly elected West Virginia Senator Shelly Moore Capito. Prior to her swearing in, she will host a conference where she will lay out her priorities for the 114 th congress and what that means here in the Mountain State.	1/6/15
Crime	Wheeling Police are investigating what they're calling an alleged attempted abduction. It happened yesterday afternoon in the Hil Dar area. Police describe the suspect as a white male, about 5 feet, 9 inches tall with no facial hair. He was reportedly wearing a black jacket and dirty clothes. He appears to be in his mid-30's. The man was driving a blue, older-model sedan with unknown plate, make or model.	1/19/15
Political	Medicinal Marijuana may soon be legal in the Keystone State. Pennsylvania Governor Tom Wolf is vowing to sign a medical marijuana bill that Senators are currently writing. State Senators Daylin Leach and Mike Folmer say they plan to broaden their legislation that overwhelmingly passed the Senate last fall. That bill was opposed by then Governor Tom Corbett and it died when the House didn't act on it at the end of the legislative session. The new bill would expand the list of authorized medical conditions to give doctors more leeway.	1/28/15
Economy/Political	In the Mountain State, the battle over West Virginia's prevailing wage law continues. Yesterday, Senators chose to lay the bill over for another day, allowing more time to compromise. Republicans want to repeal the law, saying it would bring more jobs to the Mountain State. But democrats say a total repeal would hurt workers. The bill is scheduled to be read for the second time on the Senate floor tomorrow.	2/10/15
Education	A Carnegie Mellon University student has been kicked out of school after being accused of videotaping dozens of students in the showers of a campus dorm according to our CBS affiliate KDKA. According to the criminal complaint, two students reported that someone was using a cell phone to take pictures while they were taking a shower back in the fall. In December of 2014, state police say they found several videos on Daniel Jorge, of New York, external hard drive all of young men naked and showering. Jorge turned himself in and is now charged with three counts of invasion of privacy and two counts of criminal attempt.	2/20/15
Crime	In Jefferson County, a man who led police on a chase throughout Steubenville back in September, has been found guilty on all counts. It only took 22 minutes for the jury to come to its guilty verdict against	2/25/15

Jerek Wesley, who will now serve 9 and a half years for all charges, including having a loaded gun in the car and a woman falling out of the vehicle during the chase.

Economy	Beech Bottom could soon be home to two new gas fire power plants. If a New York based company chooses Beech Bottom as the sight of these plants, Business Development Corporation Director Pat Ford says would cost about $650 million each and employ hundreds of construction jobs and 40 permanent jobs each. Last night, community members came together to discuss the potential development that would be located on about 100 acres north of the former Wheeling Corrugating Company Building along Route 2.	3/18/15

Education	Some people in Belmont County are employing a new way to get kids to eat their vegetables by teaching them to grow them. Veggie U is a non profit organization that produces a five-week program for 3 rd and 4 th graders. Right now, two elementary schools, Bellaire and St. Clairsville, are using it. It's a hands-on lesson plan that teaches kids where their food comes from, and how to make healthy choices. It incorporates writing, math, science and fine art, and involves a Tasting Day and a Feast Day.	3/30/15

Program Title: 7 News @ 6AM

Duration: 6:00AM-7:00AM

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Economy	With its Ohio Valley roots dating back to the days of Abraham Lincoln and the Civil War, one local business will be changing hands today for the 6 th time in its 160 year history. Warwood Tool was founded by Henry Warwood in Martins Ferry as a manufacturing plant making gardening and coal mining tools before moving to its current location in wheeling in 1905. The business developed over the centuries, through the industrial revolution and two World Wars.	1/22/15
Healthcare	Today is the 29 th annual American Red Cross Ohio Valley Media Day Blood Drive at Wesbanco Arena. The goal of this year's blood drive is to have 400 successful donations. To meet this goal, just about 500 people will need to come in and donate blood. The blood drive will include a specially designed t-shirt, food and refreshments, free transportation, and free child care services.	1/26/15
Crime	Social media helped police track down the teenager who opened fire in a Pittsburgh mall over the weekend. Police said they were able to find Tarod Thornhill by matching surveillance video with images on social media. Now authorities say they plan to charge the 17-year-old as an adult in the shooting that injured three people at the Monroeville Mall.	2/9/15
Political/Economy	As the prevailing wage law continues to be discussed in the West Virginia legislature, several bus loads of Union workers from around the Ohio Valley are coming together to head to Charleston this morning to show their support for the bill. Last week republicans in the Mountain State, sought to completely repeal the bill, but that was met by opposition from democrats and union members. We're going to try to catch up with some of these workers as they arrive here at the Ohio Valley Mall, before making their departure to arrive in Charleston before the beginning legislative session this morning. Now of course the prevailing wage law would require any	2/16/15 governmental body building to provide all workers comparable wages in the area where the construction will occur.

Education	In the Mountain State, Ohio County boasts some of the best elementary schools in the entire state. The website Niche has rankings of the best schools in each state. Six elementary schools, Woodsdale, Madison, West Liberty, Middle Creek, Bethlehem, and Steenrod all ranked in the top ten in the state. Elm Grove Elementary made it in to the top 20.	3/9/15
Crime	Jury selection begins in the case of Shelby Williams before Judge Vavra. If you recall, Williams is the man accused of throwing Bridgeport's K-9, Santos, over a 300 foot cliff, along with domestic violence charges. Williams had also been court-ordered to have no contact with his girlfriend, the victim of his domestic charges. But authorities say he called her while in the jail, not once, but 76 times.	3/19/15
Education	In Brooke County, the County Board of Education is trying to figure out how they're going to fill the vacancy of current Superintendent Dr. Kathy Kidder after she leaves for Hancock County Schools before next school year. Kidder's last day with Brooke County is July 1, but her replacement must be named by June 1 st . The board met last night and is deciding if they'll do a statewide or local search, or appoint an interim superintendent.	3/31/15

Duration: 12:00PM-12:30PM

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Political	The Belmont County Commission names Mark Thomas its newest president. Commissioner Ginny Favade will serve as Vice President. Thomas says he is looking forward to reassuming the role and helping Belmont County prosper. Top priority is to operate under the revised code and stick to the budget for 2015.	1/12/15
Economy	Right now West Virginia is negotiating a lease with Noble Energy. Noble Energy has submitted the highest bid to lease a one-thousand 400-acre state-owned tract under the river and agreed to pay 35 hundred dollars per acre to lease the land. It's not known what percentage of production royalties Noble will pay the state. A Noble spokeswoman hasn't commented on the deal because it hasn't been finalized.	1/20/15
Healthcare	The American Lung Association released their annual State of Tobacco Control report this week, and the results are not good for the state of West Virginia. The Mountain State received an "F" for Tobacco Prevention and Program Funding along with services available to help quit tobacco. Marshall County received a "B" while Hancock and Brooke Counties got incompletes. Ohio County also received a "B". Health administrator Howard Gamble says there is obviously room for improvements.	1/21/15
Crime	New details on an attempted robbery overnight in Bellaire. Police say a man walked into the BP gas station on Belmont Street, just before 2 this morning with his hand inside his hoodie pocket. That's when customers and the clerk tried to take the man down, but he took off running. Chief Kovalyk says the man was wearing a dark grey hoodie, blue jeans, and a black scarf covering his face. The man never displayed a weapon and didn't get away with anything.	1/30/15
Political	Ohio Governor Kasich is hitting the road for the 4 th consecutive year for his	2/24/15

state of the state address. He'll be in Wilmington where he'll be working to appeal to state lawmakers to support major policy changes. That includes education, tax policy, and social programs that he's proposed in the two-year state operating budget that's moving through the Statehouse. The potential 2016 presidential contender also is expected to touch on sweeping national themes.

Economy	Brooke County receives huge news after finding out that hundreds of millions of dollars could be invested to create and operate a power plant. It was announced during today's County Commissioners meeting that the county could be the site of two natural gas fired power plants, resulting in a 6 to 800 million dollar investment if a New York Company selects Beech Bottom. Energy Solutions spokesman Curtis Wilkerson says the company is eyeing up Beech Bottom because of its natural gas and proximity to a river.	3/3/15
Economy	West Virginia's seasonally adjusted unemployment rate was released, and it remained unchanged. It stayed at 5.9 percent for January. Work Force West Virginia says the number of unemployed state residents dropped by 100. Among the employment gains were 11-hundred educational and health service jobs, and 600 manufacturing jobs. The national unemployment rate is 5.7 percent.	3/5/15
Education/Economy	One in 3 kids in the Mountain State are at risk of starting school behind their peers and never catching up. That's according to the 2014 West Virginia Kids Count Data Book that was released this morning. 32% of kids under the age of 6, live in a family with an income below the federal poverty level. That means 38,000 of the state's youngest kids are at risk of being behind their friends. And the program continues to monitor the well being of the state's kids. Organizations like Catholic Charities offer a number of programs that provide assistance in getting quality care for early childhood years.	3/24/15

Program Title: 7 News @ 5PM

Duration: 5:00PM-5:30PM

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Crime	Charges have been filed for the murder of a Jefferson County man from last week. 53-year-old Jeffery Spring is facing a murder charge with a gun specification for the murder of 47-year-old Steve Boyer II. Police say last Tuesday, Spring shot and killed Boyer on Township Road 242 near Austin Lake. Sheriff Fred Abdalla says Spring was drunk when he shot Boyer and that the two were friends. Spring claims he shot Boyer because he was trying to break into Spring's home. Police are still investigating that case.	1/5/15
Political	The Ohio Valley's newly elected officials want to hear what's on your mind and what kind of issues you'd like to see resolved. A town meeting is being held tonight and you can let your voice be heard. West Virginia Senator Ryan Ferns and West Virginia Delegate Ryan Weld are meeting with Brooke County residents at the county library from 6 to 7 this evening before they head down to Charleston this weekend.	1/7/15
Healthcare	West Virginians who get healthcare benefits through their employers are paying some of the highest premiums in the country. According to a report, company-sponsored health programs have seen a steady increase 6.4% annually since 2010. 31 other states and the District	1/13/15 of Columbia have seen a slow down in premiums since parts of the Affordable Care Act have been enacted.

Education	Snow days have one local school district scrambling to find days that they can use later in the year to make up all of those missed school days. Hancock County Superintendent Sue Smith says the school board has decided to shorten the spring break by four days because students already missed four days of school. They'll now make those days up on March 30 th , 31 st , April 1 st and 2 nd . Those days were previously designated as out of school days, but due to the new state law schools must have 180 full days of school.	1/27/15
Crime	The father of a 2-year-old found dead in Mingo Junction last week has been arrested for child endangerment. 33-year-old Adrian Wolfe turned himself into authorities just a few hours ago. He's facing child endangerment charges for the death of his 2-year-old who police say was found bruised and suffered burns to the top of his feet. The child's mother, Channe Fleischer, was arrested and charged with child endangerment as well.	2/3/15
Education	One school district in Jefferson County is beefing up security in all its schools. The NaviGate Prepared system in Buckeye Local is giving students and staff some extra protection by giving first responders a birds eye view of buildings, classrooms, and hallways. This will help law enforcement officers in the event of an armed intrusion or any other emergency incident.	2/11/15
Economy	Osaka Steakhouse Express and Room for Change Interior Decorating will soon be calling Centre Market home. Osaka will be a mobile restaurant stationed next to Coleman's Fish Market while Room for Change will be located in the Upper Market House. They're the latest businesses to be part of the revamping of Centre Market done by Kurt Zende and the City of Wheeling. Both businesses were voted on and approved at tonight's City Council meeting. They're hoping to be up and running by April.	2/17/15
Healthcare	It's a big birthday and with that you can expect a big celebration. It's called Denim and Diamonds to celebrate 125 years of caring by Ohio Valley Medical Center and East Ohio Regional Hospital. Today representatives from Ohio Valley Health Services and Education announced Shenandoah will perform a May 23 concert in honor of the hospital's birthday at Wesbanco Arena.	3/11/15
Crime	The boyfriend of a missing Monroe County woman has been indicted for her murder. Ralph Ash was originally arrested on a weapons under disability charge. And now, he's facing far more serious charges. If you'll remember, Tracey Heskett was last seen on Valentine's Day getting into a large white truck with two men who were alleged pipeline workers. Earlier this month, Deputies found a body during a search of Ash's home a few weeks ago, but couldn't identify it. Sheriff Charles Black	3/23/15 says preliminary autopsy results indicate the body is Heskett's. Ash, who is a convicted felon, has been charged with aggravated murder, abuse of a corpse, and having weapons under disability. He is being held in the Columbiana County Jail.

Political

You may think it's a bit early to talk about elections, but the polls have opened in Weirton for early voting in April's primary election. On the 2015 City Election ballot, residents can vote for the next mayor, city council seats, and two levies. Current Mayor George Kondik is facing off against Nicholas Fuscardo, Harold "Bubba" Miller, and Karen Harris. Early voting starts today and runs until April 4th, but Mayor Kondik says it's important that residents get out early and cast their vote before the April 7th election day.

Program Title: Tonight Live

Duration: 5:30PM-6:00PM

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Economy	West Virginia is part of a new program looking to hire 10 thousand veterans across the county. It's called Operation Opportunity Initiative. It's a collaboration between WorkForce West Virginia and Hilton Worldwide. The goal is to help veterans with job interviews, skills training, housing searches, and any employment testing that would make travel a necessity during a job search.	1/9/15
Education/Political	This afternoon, lawmakers from the House of Delegates were taking their time with one of Governor Earl Ray Tomblin's proposals. The governor said during his State of the State address he wanted to make it easier for professionals and experts to teach in West Virginia classrooms where teachers are desperately needed even if they don't have a teaching degree or some certifications. A bill was making its way through the House Judiciary Committee this afternoon, and several amendments were discussed.	1/26/15
Healthcare	Many area hospitals cut services and hours the past two days because they couldn't get staff in from the snow. But at Kings Daughters Medical Center in Ashland, operation snowflake went into action yesterday. Security staff took 4 wheel drive vehicles and went out in force to shuttle dozens of remote snowed-in employees into work. At last count, more than 125 Kings Daughters Hospital staffers got to their jobs and back home again, thru operation snowflake.	2/17/15
Economy	Hundreds of students, alumni, and community members packed Fairmont State University's Falcon Center today for its spring job fair. More than 65 companies and agencies were on hand to offer career and employment-related information. Students there could submit resumes to potential employers. FSU says the event always draws a large crowd and is a great networking tool, so students can acquire the skills they need to succeed in the workplace.	2/24/15

Political At the West Virginia State Capitol we are continuing to watch the 3/5/15
Senate to see if and when lawmakers take up a veto to override Governor Earl Ray Tomblin's veto of an abortion ban. As senators walked in for their morning session, members of West Virginia Free and the American Civil Liberties Union of West Virginia greeted them with signs. The two groups have championed the governor's decision to veto a bill that would ban abortions after 20 weeks.
Today was their lobby day at the state capitol and one of the reasons the Senate did not vote to override the governor's veto today.

Crime A Lewis County man accused of murdering two women 15 years 3/18/15 ago appeared before Judge Jacob Reger today in Weston. Joseph Metz and his lawyers asked Judge Reger to compel the prosecutor's office to turn over files related to an overdose at the Waterfront Plantation Inn around the time Maxine Stalnaker and Mary Friend disappeared. Metz' lawyers say there could be evidence in those files clearing Metz' name in the case.

.Economy	A big decision has finally been made in Brooke County. The contractor has been chosen for the proposed lodge at Brooke Hills Park. LDG out of Williamsport, Pennsylvania was the consultant chosen to draw up a plan for the lodge. That according to Business Development Executive Director Pat Ford, Ford says LDG has a very strong team of 4 consultants with a variety of skill sets that are necessary to give them the product that they want. Ford says they will now begin negotiating a contract.	1/9/15
Crime	We're following up tonight on an alert from the Bellaire Police Department, after neighbors reported a strange person knocking on their front door late at night, claiming he was from the census. The man also claimed he was going door to door for a survey. Police Chief Mike Kovalyck said his office was not aware of such a survey and he's advising people to make sure you do not invite this person into your home.	1/17/15
Education	Wheeling Jesuit University's Appalachian Institute is hosting a public forum on drilling for oil and gas under the Ohio River. Gastar recently won a bid to drill wells underneath a 232-acre state-owned tract under the river in Marshall County. The panelists are Wheeling Jesuit professor of biology Ben Stout and Vice President of Gastar Mike McCown. Several state legislators will also be in attendance. The forum will be held this Saturday at 1p.m.	2/2/15
Healthcare	The Ohio Valley is witnessing another big spike in the number of heroin overdoses. Officials in one local community say there could have been as many as 17 in one week. At Trinity Health System in Steubenville, Dr. David Cercone, says they've seen a sudden increase in the amount of heroin overdose cases coming into the ER. Dr. Cercone who heads up the emergency department credits this increase to a bad batch that is circulating throughout the area. This "bad batch" is due to the other substances that the heroin is cut with and now it has made its way here.	2/4/15
Political	All new tonight across the Mountain State, it's been one of the most talked	2/12/15

about issues at the Capitol so far, Prevailing Wage. Republicans wanted to repeal the law and introduced a bill to do so, but democrats and union members have opposed the bill. Today, Senators unveiled a drastic change to the bill, eventually passing it.

Political	New details on a push for medical marijuana in the Mountain State with an unlikely ally. About a dozen people gathered today at the state capitol to show their support. State Senator Mitch Carmichael introduced a bill that would legalize marijuana for medical use only. Carmichael says he was opposed to marijuana and voted against other bills in the past, but has since been convinced of its legitimacy for medical purposes.	2/23/15
Education	The latest now out of West Liberty where the faculty has voted they don't have confidence in President Robin Capehart. In a 13 to 6 vote those in attendance today said they do not have faith in Capehart, who is currently facing violations from the West Virginia Ethics Commission. This stems from accusations he used university money to fund the movie Doughboy. We've also learned the general faculty will meet again to further discuss the situation this Wednesday.	3/2/15
Political	Right now West Virginia Governor Earl Ray Tomblin has a bill sitting on his desk, that if passed into law would eliminate the requirement that a person needs a permit to carry a gun. After much debate, it's passed the necessary hurdles, but is it the safest law to pass?	3/16/15
Education	Surprising news from a local college after it announced 20 positions would be cut. The announcement was made earlier today at Belmont College in St. Clairsville. We're told the job cuts will affect full-time and part-time employees at the college, but would not affect faculty positions. This is part of a bigger process for Belmont College, President Dr. Paul Gasparro had this to say, "implementing this plan has required changes to the college's organizational structure and program offerings that I believe will position the college to not only succeed, but to thrive."	3/27/15

Economy	Buckeye fans in this area were well prepared for tonight's game. For the last few weeks fans have been busy gearing up for the big game getting everything from t-shirts to face tattoos. Several sports stores at the Ohio Valley Mall are even out of some merchandise due to the high demand. A manager at one local sports store said this rush to get the newest Ohio State gear has boosted sales.	1/1/15
Political	Governor Tomblin touched on a number of issues in his State of the State address, including energy production, the state's highways and bridges, and pollution guidelines. Tomblin urged fellow lawmakers of the importance of working together for a common good that will benefit the entire state. He spoke of the partnership between Pierpont and West Virginia Northern Community College, and West Virginia's Teacher of the Year, Gail Adams was honored as well.	1/14/15

Political	Senator Lou Gentile has been selected to serve on the Finance Committee in the Ohio Senate. Committee members are responsible for managing the Governor's two-year budget proposal as it moves through the legislature. The Senate Finance Committee is charged with crafting a budget bill that includes, but is not limited to, funding for K-12 education, economic and workforce development and funding for local governments. For Senator Lou Gentile, focusing the budget on education is something he believes must be prioritized for this region.	2/8/15
Education	Continuing coverage tonight out of Monroe County where this morning dozens of concerned parents, students, and former teachers showed up at a special board of education meeting to discuss the closure of Beallsville High School. Emotions ran high at the more than one hour meeting and tonight, these concerned people aren't much closer to having an answer.	2/18/15
Healthcare	The annual heart ball fundraiser was held tonight at Belmont Hills Country Club. The fundraiser raises money for the American Heart Association each year. A gourmet dinner was served followed by live entertainment and an auction. 7 News anchor Nate Fluharty emceed tonight's event.	2/28/15
Crime	Now to the very latest out of Hancock County. The woman charged in a disturbing animal cruelty case has pleaded guilty to all her charges. Elizabeth Tustin can no longer own or work with animals for 5 years and she must pay the state 35 thousand dollars in restitution. Back in November, Sheriff's Deputies found dogs, under the care of Tustin, living in overcrowded, deplorable conditions. Tustin's case will be dismissed after 5 years, if she abides by the terms of her plea agreement.	3/4/15
Crime	A bizarre arrest to tell you about tonight in Steubenville. Police say a man, dressed as a woman, was arrested after he tried to steal a ring from Kay Jewelers in the Steubenville Mall. He asked the clerk to try on a ring and then ran off with it. According to police, his 14-year-old daughter was driving the getaway car. Police tracked him down in the library parking lot. He was arrested and is being treated at a local hospital.	3/10/15
Political	One of the most highly debated issues this session was a bill that would allow for the formation of Charter schools in the state. The charter schools bill did not pass. Some claim it did not protect the children of gays and lesbians. So, after his appearance on Face the Nation, Senator Joe Manchin spoke about issues affecting the gay community. In some of his strongest language about gay marriage, Senator Manchin said if it was ever brought to a vote, it would be hard to oppose.	3/15/15
Economy	Wheeling's advertising business may see the competition go up a notch. Wheelhouse Creative, the latest advertising agency to form in our area threw a "coming-out" party at Wheeling Island Racetrack and Casino tonight. Agency associates chatted up potential clients, and the live band played on.	3/17/15

"Ending America's Longest War" – a report on the end of America's combat involvement in the ongoing war in Afghanistan. The Afghan military has been trained and equipped by the U.S. to combat the likes of al Qaeda and the Taliban. However, Afghanistan's President Ashraf Ghani is unsure about the hard deadline set by President Obama to end the U.S. mission in December 2016. Includes interviews with: U.S. General John Campbell; Ashraf Ghani Ahmadzai, Afghanistan President; and comments (through a translator) by Qari Abdullah, Taliban fighter. (C: Lara Logan – P: Max McClellan, Jeff Newton)

"Alive and Kickin'" – a report on the musical, "Alive: 55+ and Kickin'," conceived and written by Vy Higginsen, founder of the Mama Foundation for the Arts in Harlem, New York and her husband, Ken Wydro, creative director at the Mama Foundation and a playwright. The musical features a full company of performers ages 55 and over with most of them experiencing their first time on stage while sharing personal stories with the audience. Higginsen has made it her mission to preserve African-American music, both gospel and popular music like soul and rhythm and blues (R&B). Includes excerpts from a performance of "Alive: 55+ and Kickin'". Includes interviews with: Vy Higginsen; and performers Theo Harris and his wife, Phyllis Harris; Debbie Bingham; Renee Walker; Matthew Brown; and Matthew Burke. 01/11/15 “Colorado Pot” – a report on Colorado’s progress after becoming the first state to legalize the recreational use of marijuana as of January 1, 2014. Dispensaries of the green drug are thriving, however most banks refuse to handle the profit due to federal regulations, causing marijuana businesses to be conducted almost entirely in cash. Nebraska and Oklahoma are suing to have the U.S. Supreme Court declare Colorado’s recreational pot market unconstitutional, claiming marijuana is crossing their borders. Includes interviews with: Meg Sanders, CEO of Mindful, a chain of four marijuana retail stores; Phillip Hague, Mindful’s master grower; John Jackson, Greenwood Village Police Chief; Andrew Freedman, Colorado’s Director of Marijuana Coordination; and Governor John Hickenlooper (D-CO) (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Marc Lieberman)

“Obamacare” – a report on the controversy surrounding certain aspects of the Affordable Care Act, or “Obamacare”, namely its failure to control costs involving hospital care and profits for prescription drug companies. Interviewed are: (1) Steven Brill, author of “America’s Bitter Pill”, who contends that although more Americans are obtaining health insurance, “Obamacare” neglects to drive down the cost of health care and leaves taxpayers left to cover the bill. (2) Stephanie and Sean Recchi, “Obamacare” participants who signed up for Medicaid in Ohio, their home state. Sean Recchi was treated for cancer at MD Anderson in Houston and is now facing a bill for eighty-four thousand dollars -- because Texas does not recognize their plan. (3) Jeffrey Romoff, CEO, University of Pittsburgh Medical Center, who advocates the decision of his top-ranked medical research center to have its own health insurance company. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Richard Bonin)

“Up” – a report on The Heroes Project, founded by former Hells Angels biker Tim Medvetz. Its rigorous mountain climbing program challenges and helps wounded war veterans heal emotionally, as they fight to ascend some of the world’s tallest summits. The report focuses on Afghanistan war veteran Marine Corps Private First Class Isaac Blunt, and his journey to climb Mount Kosciuszko (Australia) with Medvetz, two years after losing his legs. Includes interviews with: Tim Medvetz, founder of The Heroes Project; PFC Isaac Blunt; and three other participants in The Heroes Project: Marine Corporal Kionte Storey; Staff Sergeant Mark Zamboni; and Corporal Brad Ivanchan. (C: Lara Logan – P: Coleman Cowan, Max McClellan)

01/25/15 “The Republican Leaders” – an interview with Speaker of the House of Representatives John Boehner (R-OH) and Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell (R-KY), recorded at the Capitol after President Obama’s State of the Union address on January 20th. Among the topics they discuss are: State of the Union address; taxes and income inequality; free college tuition; minimum wage increase; foreign policy; immigration reform; the Tea Party within the Republican Party; terrorist threats like ISIS (ISIL); and Iran’s nuclear program. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Nicole Young)

“The Cleveland Division” – a report on the division between the police and the public in the city of Cleveland, Ohio. The Cleveland Police Department is under investigation by the Justice Department for widespread use of excessive force. Protesters echoed this notion after the recent killing of twelve-year-old Tamir Rice, who was shot and killed by a rookie Cleveland police officer. The city’s chief of police, Calvin Williams, is attempting to reform the department. Includes interview with: Cleveland Police Chief Calvin Williams; Cleveland officers Shane Bauhof and Eric Newton; Cassandra and Joell Anderson, the mother and brother of Tanisha Anderson, a mentally ill woman who died after the use of excessive force by police in an attempt to take her to a hospital. Also includes comments by Cleveland residents Brandon McCruel and John Eberhard Jr. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Michael Radutzky, Guy Campanile, Andrew Bast)

“Li Na” – an interview / profile of the most successful Asian tennis player to date, Li Na of China. Li Na won two Grand Slam singles titles at the 2011 French Open and 2014 Australian Open, sparking a growth in the popularity of tennis in China and making her one of the most well-known athletes in the world. Revered by the youth of China for both her talent and her defiance of the unforgiving Chinese sports system, Li Na -- after multiple surgeries on her knees -- decided to retire at the age of thirty-two. Includes interviews with: Li Na (partly through translator); Jiang Shaan, aka Dennis, Li Na’s husband; and Zhang Bendou, Chinese tennis writer. 01/03/15

48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "Soul Survivor" - a report about Robin Doan, who as a young girl in 2005, played dead to live through the murders of her entire family as they slept in their beds. Before that night, the now 20-year-old Doan was a typical 10-year-old girl in a hardworking family of farmers in Pampa, Texas. They became the targets of an intruder who enjoyed killing just for the thrill of it. The immediate investigation yielded few clues. Doan, however, had a remarkable ability to recall the details of that traumatic night. Investigators would later learn that the gunman who killed Doan's family had killed before, hundreds of miles away in Missouri. A day before the Pampa shootings, Orlie McCool and his daughter-in-law Dawn were killed and the family pickup stolen. Levi King was later found behind the wheel of the stolen vehicle in El Paso, Texas. He also told law enforcement that there were four more bodies in Texas. King told law enforcement officers that the feeling he got from killing the McCools was better than any drug he had ever done. This was the lead needed to solve the Pampa murders. Robin Doan was willing to help by testifying about the night her family was gunned down while they slept. King took a plea deal in Missouri -- to avoid execution he agreed to two consecutive life sentences without the possibility of parole. In Texas, he also took a guilty plea, but the DA refused to take the death penalty off the table. Robin testified at the trial. There was one holdout for the death penalty; King received a life sentence. He will serve his time in Missouri. Robin Doan is satisfied. On-screen text graphic: Robin has decided to leave Pampa. She plans to visit often. Interviewed: Robin Doan; Chad Brooks (former deputy sheriff); Gary Henderson (former Sheriff, Hemphill County); Lynn Switzer (former District Attorney); Lynn Hancock (Pastor, Briarwood Church); Jay Foster (Texas Ranger); Matthew McCool (McCool family member); Michael Hall (sheriff); Don Ruby (former deputy sheriff); Joe Marr Wilson (defense attorney); Denise Mackie (Robin's friend) (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Ruth Chenetz)

48 HOURS: "The Ultimatum" - a report on the investigation into the murder of Vanessa Mintz, who was gunned down at the family-owned Saluda Mountain Lodge, in Saluda, North Carolina on Saturday, February 19, 2011. Mintz, whose family had long-standing ties to the area, had married early in life, divorced and raised two daughters, Jessica Freeman and Andrea Little Gray, as well as becoming a respected businesswoman, realtor and mentor to young girls. Police investigation at the lodge found a crucial piece of evidence only the killer could have left, but questions remained: did Mintz know her killer or was it a random robbery that went bad? The investigation took the case in another direction when police found out that her husband, Travis McGraw, was secretly dating Mary Beth Fisher. His cell phone records revealed he was sending intimate text messages to Fisher. Fisher claims McGraw had told her he wasn't married, and the relationship, though intimate, was not sexual. Fisher found out the truth and gave him an ultimatum -- make up your mind by Sunday. Mintz was shot dead on Saturday. Travis McGraw willingly turned over his cache of guns to police. One of his guns matched the cartridge found at the scene and he was arrested for murder. Mintz's daughters emerged as powerful advocates for their mother, and prosecutors, after consulting with them, offered a plea deal to McGraw: second-degree murder with a sentence of 16-20 years. He accepted, but at the last moment changed his mind about pleading guilty. Three years after the murder the trial began. McGraw was found guilty of first-degree murder. On-screen text graphic: Mary Beth Fisher and Vanessa's daughter Andrea work at the same hospital. They occasionally cross each other's paths. Andrea and Jessica are creating a local family justice center and a trauma intervention program in honor of their mother. Interviewed: Carl Mintz (father); Jessica Freeman and Andrea Little Gray (Mintz's daughters); Willie McGraw (father of Travis McGraw); Marcia Blythe Cunningham (Mintz's friend); Heather Waldbart (mentoring student); Steve Modlin (Chief Investigator); Alex Bass (Prosecutor); Mary Beth Fisher (McGraw's girlfriend); Shane Greene (State Bureau of Investigation) (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Alec Sirken, Elena DiFiore, Michelle Feuer)

- 01/17/15 48 HOURS: "Death in the Parsonage" (8:00-9:00p) - an updated rebroadcast on the suicide of Joseph Musante; the eventual discovery of his wife, Cindy's secret affair with A.B. Schirmer, the pastor of the Reeders United Methodist Church in Reeders, Pennsylvania; and the eventual investigation to determine if the deaths of the pastor's previous wives were really accidental. Musante's sister, Rose Cobb, knew something wasn't right and pressed authorities to keep looking. Musante's daughter, Samantha, told police that she had discovered the affair between her mother and Schirmer and had told her father. Further investigation revealed Musante's death was truly a suicide. This led to questions regarding the death of the pastor's second wife, Betty Schirmer, just three months earlier in an auto accident. Her death was determined to be suspicious and police suspected Schirmer. Questions then arose about the death of Schirmer's first wife, Jewel. The cause of her death, from a fall, was initially classified as undetermined, but was now ruled a homicide. A.B. Schirmer was arrested and charged with the murder of his second wife, Betty. At trial, A.B. Schirmer was found guilty of murder. Cindy Musante continues to stand by him. Original on-screen text graphic: Schirmer is awaiting trial for the murder of his first wife, Jewel. Sam's mother, Cindy told the court she believes "one hundred per cent" in Schirmer's innocence. Epilogue (for the 01/17/15 rebroadcast): a year and a half after his conviction for the murder of his second wife, Betty, A.B. Schirmer struck an unexpected deal with prosecutors. He pled no contest to the charge that he murdered his first wife, Jewel, saying he only took the plea to spare his family the trauma of going through another murder trial. Schirmer was sentenced to twenty to forty years in prison, the maximum allowed, on top of his life sentence. New on-screen comments by Jon Behney, (Jewel Schirmer's brother), James Fully, Julie Campbell (Schirmer's daughter), Tina Fultz (Betty Schirmer's sister). On-screen text graphic for this 01/17/15 rebroadcast: A.B. Schirmer lost an appeal of his conviction for murdering his second wife. Sam's mother Cindy told 48 HOURS she still believes "one hundred percent" in Schirmer's innocence. Interviewed: Rose Cobb, Musante's sister; Samantha, Musante's daughter; Detectives Jim Wagner and Wendy Serfass; Julie Campbell and Amy Wolfgang, Schirmer's daughters by his first wife Jewel; Betty Schirmer's sisters Sandy Weikel and Tina Fultz; Good Samaritan Stan Dickerson; Dr. Wayne Ross, medical examiner; Schirmer's attorney Brandon Reish; and Prosecutor Mike Mancuso. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Sarah Prior, Chuck Stevenson) (OAD: 01/04/14)
- 01/17/15 48 HOURS: "Murder in Pinyon Pines" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on the investigation into the triple murders and the long quest for justice for Vicki Friedli, her boyfriend Jon Hayward, and Vicki's daughter Becky Friedli. In 2006, in Pinyon Pines, California, Friedli and her boyfriend were shot dead and their house set on fire. Outside the home, investigators found the charred remains of Becky Friedli, in a wheelbarrow. She was burned so badly, they could not determine how she died. Retired policeman Ron Friedli, Vicki's ex-husband and Becky's father, had a theory about what happened: Becky was deathly afraid of fire and he suspected she knew her killer. Police searched for clues but the case went cold. Years later, Luis Bolanos, a private investigator and a former colleague of Ron's, asked if he could get involved; he said he could get the case back in the news. He did just that. Seven years after the murders, police arrested Becky's ex-boyfriend Robert Pape and his best friend Christian Smith and charged them with murder. Their families say they are innocent. But an unexpected courtroom twist turned the case upside down. The District Attorney said there was an "issue" in the grand jury proceedings against Pape, and dropped the charges against them both. However, it may not be completely over; the investigation continues. On-screen text graphic: A new DA was sworn in last week. He says he will review the case "with an open mind". Christian Smith has been honorably discharged from the Army. Interviewed: Tanya Friedli, Drew Friedli, Ron Friedli (Becky's sisters and father); Katie Hayward (Hayward's daughter); Daniela Zermeno (Becky's cousin); Luis Bolanos (private investigator); Kathleen Pape and Christy Pape (mother and sister of Robert Pape); John Conrad Smith (Smith's father); Brandon Kugler-Harrison (friend of Pape and Smith); Richard Blumenfeld (Pape attorney); Eduardo Roy (attorney for Becky's friend Javier Garcia Junior) (C: Troy Roberts - P: Lourdes Aguiar, Peter Shaw)

01/24/15 48 HOURS: “Kiss of Death and the Google Exec” - an investigation into the 2013 drug-related death of Google executive Forrest Hayes and an investigation of Alix Tichelman, the woman charged with killing him, whose ex-boyfriend also died of a lethal overdose. Hayes, a successful, wealthy, married Santa Cruz, California technology genius was found dead from a heroin overdose aboard his 46-foot yacht. The yacht had been outfitted with a sophisticated security system, which eventually led investigators to Alix Tichelman, a young woman with whom he had a secret liaison aboard the yacht. Hayes and Tichelman met on an online dating service known for connecting wealthy men with women looking to be spoiled. The video footage recorded Tichelman injecting Hayes, cleaning up the scene and stepping over him to leave. At issue is whether Tichelman knew Hayes was in distress when she left, as police maintain, or if his death was accidental, as public defenders representing Tichelman claim. Tichelman led a troubled life which included eating disorders, drugs, and specialized schools. Investigators learned that just months before Hayes’ death, Tichelman’s then-boyfriend, Dean Riopelle, an Atlanta night club owner, also died from a heroin overdose. After an elaborate sting, Tichelman was arrested for the death of Forrest Hayes. Riopelle’s death, originally classified as accidental, is being given a second look by Georgia authorities. On-screen text graphic: Alix Tichelman pleaded not guilty to manslaughter in the death of Forrest Hayes, and pleaded not guilty to prostitution and drug charges. Tichelman’s next court appearance is on February 23, 2015. If convicted of manslaughter, Tichelman could face a maximum of fifteen years in prison. Interviewed: Stephen Baxter (Santa Cruz Sentinel/48 HOURS Consultant); Michael Daly (Daily Beast investigative reporter/48 HOURS Consultant); Steve Clark (Santa Cruz Deputy Police Chief); Brandon Wade (“Seeking Arrangement” dating website owner); Chad Cornell (Tichelman’s boyfriend); Ashley Kent (dorm mate at the Hyde School); Khristina Brocker (Dean Riopelle’s former assistant); Jerry Christense and Larry Biggam (Tichelman’s public defenders); Alex (no last name/schoolmate); Todd (no last name/friend of Riopelle’s) (C: Maureen Maher - P: Allen Alter, Patti Aronofsky, Elena DiFiore)

01/31/15 48 HOURS: “The Millionaire, The Model & The Hit-Man” - an investigation into the relationship between Dino Guglielmelli, a millionaire health supplement distributor/ wannabe rock star, his model wife, Monica Olsen, his business partner/presumed hitman Richard Fuhrmann, and the $80,000 “hit” Guglielmelli ordered on his wife. In 2008, Olsen, a model-turned-housewife, wanted to re-start her career, Guglielmelli was not happy. He became very controlling, dating other women and eventually filing for divorce. He tried various schemes to discredit his wife. In 2012, when he couldn’t get his way in the divorce, he confided his problems to business associate/friend Richard Fuhrmann, asking him to “take care” of his wife; Fuhrmann told Guglielmelli that he would take the job. Instead of murdering Olsen, he went to the authorities in Los Angeles, California, and agreed to wear a wire. In October 2013, Fuhrmann got Guglielmelli to repeat that he would pay $80,000 to have Olsen killed. To the authorities, it was a clear-cut case of murder for hire; Guglielmelli was arrested. Guglielmelli, in a telephone interview from jail, claims he is the victim; he was conned by Richard Fuhrmann. Authorities agree that Fuhrmann is a con man, but the conspiracy to kill Olsen was very real. In a surprise move, they offered Guglielmelli a plea deal: plead guilty to attempted murder in the second degree and serve only nine years in jail. He accepted. In a telephone interview from prison, Guglielmelli discusses his decision. Olsen is proceeding with the divorce and worries about the future. Fuhrmann fears what will happen when Guglielmelli is released from prison. On-screen text graphic: Because Dino took a plea deal he cannot appeal his conviction. Interviewed: Dino Guglielmelli; Monica Olsen; Rick Fuhrmann; Emilio Guglielmelli (brother), Gino Guglielmelli (brother); Letitia Devine (Dino’s ex-wife); Olya Banar (Monica’s friend); Emily Cole (Deputy District Attorney) (C: Troy Roberts - P: Judy Rybak, Greg Fisher)
