11/21/15

48 HOURS: "The Accidental Husband" (9:00–10:00p) – an updated rebroadcast about Harold Henthorn, a twice-widowed man from Colorado whose two wives both died in unusual accidents, and whose changing account of events led family members to suspect that he murdered them. In 2012, Harold Henthorn surprised his wife Dr. Toni Henthorn, a successful ophthalmologist, with a weekend hike in Rocky Mountain National Park to celebrate their anniversary -- only to have it end in her death from a fall. Henthorn's version of events to family members changed several times and they began to doubt his account of events and to suspect he was responsible for her death. While reporting on the case, investigative reporter Brian Maass received an anonymous email stating Henthorn's first wife died in a freak accident as well. Maass looked into the accident and discovered first wife Lynn Henthorn had died 17 years earlier in another freak accident. He found: (1) both accidents occurred in very remote locations in Colorado; (2) Henthorn was the only witness; (3) the accidents were extremely unusual; (4) he had told numerous versions of the events; and (5) both wives had large life insurance policies, with him as the sole beneficiary. Federal investigators also discovered that Henthorn had not worked for the past twenty years. He had also taken out a fraudulent policy worth millions on his ex-sister-in-law, Grace Rishell, who now believes she was to be his next target. In 2014, two years after Toni Henthorn's tragic death, federal authorities arrested and charged Harold Henthorn with her murder. His trial is scheduled to begin in the fall. On-screen text graphic: A judge will decide if Lynn's death can be included in Henthorn's trial for the murder of Toni. Henthorn has yet to receive any proceeds from Toni's life insurance. Harold Henthorn declined our request for an interview. 11/21/15 UPDATE: This September, Henthorn's trial began. Prosecutors were confident they would win this largely circumstantial case. The defense rested without calling a single witness. Harold Henthorn was convicted of murder. On-screen text graphic for the 11/21/15 updated rebroadcast: Henthorn will be sentenced on December 8th. He faces a mandatory life sentence with no chance of parole. Harold Henthorn declined our request for an interview. 48 HOURS (continued)

11/21/15

48 HOURS: "The Strange Case of Kurt Sonnenfeld" (10:00-11:00p) - an investigation of Kurt Sonnenfeld, a man wanted for the 2002 murder of his wife, Nancy Sonnenfeld, in the United States, and who is now living with a new life with a new wife in Argentina, a country that has yet to agree to extradite him to the United States. He claims that the United States government wants to silence him for what he saw at Ground Zero following the 2001 terrorist attacks. He also maintains that his wife committed suicide after a New Year's Eve celebration on January 1, 2002. Police believed it to be a homicide. Her death came during a troubled time in their marriage; Nancy had filed for separation and intended to divorce Kurt. He was arrested for murder, but the charges were dropped shortly before he was to go to trial due to insufficient evidence. The investigation continued, and police eventually refiled the murder charge. By that time, Sonnenfeld had moved to Argentina, remarried and had launched a campaign to clear his name by giving interviews to the local media. He claims that he is wanted in the United States because of something he saw while working as a cameraman for FEMA at the World Trade Center Ground Zero site, and also claims that he is facing the death penalty -- which he is not. The case now drags on through the Argentine court system, and the President of Argentina even says that Kurt Sonnenfeld will not be extradited. On-screen text graphic: Tomorrow is Argentina's presidential election. It's not clear whether the decision to keep Sonnenfeld in Argentina will stand. Interviewed: Paula Sonnenfeld (second wife); Amy Leek (Nancy's sister); Leslie Lindberg (Nancy's cousin); Jonathan Priest (retired Denver detective); Dr. Amy Martin (Denver assistant Medical Examiner); Carrie Thompson (defense attorney); Bill Ritter (District Attorney); Robert Dreyer (informant); Bill Owens (former Colorado governor); Dolores and Jorge Richar (Sonnenfeld supporters/ through translation); Adolfo Perez Esquivel (Nobel Prize winner, Sonnenfeld supporter); Rolondo Grana (Argentine TV personality); Kirk Mitchell (Denver Post reporter/48 HOURS consultant). 11/28/15

48 HOURS: "Road to Redemption" - a report about Jeanne Bishop, who for more than two decades struggled to move on after losing both her sister and brother-in-law, Nancy Bishop Langert and Richard Langert -- murdered in their suburban Chicago home in 1990 by 16-year-old David Biro. In seeking closure to the crime, she pursued a face-to-face meeting with Biro in prison -- which she eventually had. In 1990, Nancy and Richard Langert were found dead in their Winnetka, Illinois home, in what seemed like a home invasion/robbery. Their killer was identified months later as David Biro, a local high school student, who bragged to a friend that he had done it. Biro was tried as an adult and convicted of murder. He was sentenced to two mandatory life terms for the murders of Nancy and Richard Langert, and the judge gave him a discretionary life sentence for the death of their unborn child. For Jeanne Bishop, the crime was a life-changing moment: her actions during the investigation made authorities think she was uncooperative, and, because of the way she was treated by police, she changed careers, going from being a high-powered corporate attorney to a public defender. Still, for 23 years, in order to forgive, she felt she needed to know what motivated David Biro, thus lifting the crushing burden victims often live with. Biro agreed to meet with her, at Pontiac Correctional Center, where he is serving his time. In June of 2012, the U.S. Supreme Court decision deeming mandatory life sentences for juveniles as "cruel and unusual punishment." meant that David Biro could qualify for a reduced sentence, or even be released. The ruling guarantees that there will be a re-sentencing. Jeanne's mother and sister have ideologically different views about forgiveness and the Supreme Court decision, but have agreed to disagree. On-screen text graphic: David Biro is one of approximately 80 offenders convicted as juveniles awaiting re-sentencing in Illinois. Across the country, more than 1,000 offenders may qualify for resentencing under the Supreme Court ruling. Interviewed: Jeanne Bishop (sister); Joyce Bishop (mother); Jennifer Bishop-Jenkins (sister); Gene Kalvaitis (Sergeant, multi-town task force); Patty McConnell (Sergeant, Winnetka Police Department); Gerald Kolarik (true-crime writer); Mark Osler (law professor). 12/05/15

48 HOURS: "Dear Savanna" - a report on how Dorothy Lee Barnett ("Lee Barnett") eluded the FBI for over two decades after fleeing the United States with her daughter Savanna, after losing custody of the child. Their 1994 disappearance launched an international search for Barnett and Savanna that did not end until she was arrested in Australia. Lee Barnett was in the midst of a bitter divorce with then-husband Harris Todd. Barnett had married him even though he said he did not want children. Problems began after she became pregnant. They went to counseling, and during this period a doctor diagnosed her as having hyperthymic temperament, a form of bipolar disorder. After Savanna was born, she filed for divorce. Harris counter-sued. The judge sided with Todd. Barnett then started to make plans to leave with 11-month-old Savanna. She obtained fake documents (birth certificates and passports) and disappeared. An FBI manhunt ensued. She was vilified in the press. In 1999, Harris Todd told 48 HOURS that she was mentally ill. Barnett countered with her side of the story: she cut off all contact with her family and headed to Europe, then Malaysia, Singapore, South Africa, Botswana and Australia. Along the way, she met and married Alex Geldenhuys, and had another child, Reece. Unbeknownst to Savanna, she became Samantha Geldenhuys. While they were on the run, Barnett also kept a secret diary for her daughter, planning one day to tell her the story of her life. In 2011, the FBI got a tip that Barnett was living in Australia. Samantha learned about her past from the agents. In 2013, Barnett was extradited to the United States. Samantha has read all the transcripts and the diaries and has a new understanding of her mother. Barnett pled guilty to all charges and spent 21 months in prison. Samantha eventually met her father and described it as a surreal experience. She remains open to a relationship, but stands behind her mother. On-screen text graphic: Samantha graduates college in Australia next year. Reece is attending Auburn University in Alabama. Lee is living with friend in Charleston. Interviewed: Lee Barnett; Samantha Geldenhuys (Savanna); Reece Geldenhuys (son); Susie Poag, Bruce Michell, Patty Roth, Gordon King, Ken Gizzard (Lee's friends); Cliff Barnett (brother); Chris Quick (FBI agent); Nathan Williams (assistant U.S. Attorney); Harris Todd (1999 interview). 48 HOURS: "The Two Faces of Todd Winkler" - a report on the investigation into the February 2012 death of Rachel Winkler, who was fatally stabbed with scissors by her husband, Todd Winkler, a former fighter jet pilot, in their Cameron Park, California home. He claims it was self-defense, triggered by an extreme psychotic episode -- they were fighting. He told police she was stabbed during the prolonged struggle when she grabbed the scissors. Investigation revealed: a fractured marriage; Rachel's affair; a potential divorce; and Todd Winkler's shocking past which prosecutors believe held clues to what happened to Rachel. Rachel's father, renowned impressionist painter Don Hatfield, believes Todd killed Rachel because she knew his secrets: a past that included possible psychotic outbursts and erratic behavior to get out of problems in the military and in his professional life, and that there was more to the story behind the fiery crash which claimed the life of his previous wife, Catherine Winkler. Todd Winkler's mental health became a major issue when he seemed to have a psychotic outburst during the trial. Prosecutors suggested he was faking and that it was a ploy to sway the jury. The verdict: guilty of the crime of first-degree murder as charged. On-screen text graphic: Todd Winkler plans to appeal. He says evidence of Catherine's death should not have been allowed at trial. On-screen text graphic for the 12/12/15 rebroadcast: Todd Winkler is appealing his conviction. 48 HOURS: "Murder in Aspen" – a updated rebroadcast on the 2013 murder of Nancy Pfister, an Aspen, Colorado socialite / ski resort heiress, and the investigation to find her killer. Pfister came from a family of high achievers, but was also known for a demanding demeanor; even her friends were treated with disrespect, as friend Kathy Carpenter had personally experienced. Nancy Pfister was found dead from blunt force trauma, in the bedroom closet of her home by Kathy Carpenter. She had been alerted that something was amiss by Nancy Styler, who had recently rented the place with her husband Trey Styler, and was in the process of moving out. Police focused on the Stylers because they were involved in a public dispute with Pfister involving the rental home. Pfister came back three months earlier than expected, saying the couple had owed her a large amount of money. Police believed Nancy Styler harbored anger over the way Pfister treated the couple. They also believed Trey Styler, who suffered from a neurological disorder, was incapable of killing anyone. Days after the murder, both were arrested and charged with murder. Soon after, Kathy Carpenter was also arrested, and charged with murder. Police believed the women had bonded over Pfister's seeming indifference to them. Three months later, a bombshell: Trey Styler confessed and said that he and he alone had killed Nancy Pfister. He agreed to tell the details of the crime in exchange for a 20-year sentence and his wife's unconditional freedom. The charges were dropped against both women, but they claim that the prosecution's continued insistence that they were somehow involved in the murder has convicted them in the court of public opinion. Kathy Carpenter still faces the threat of prosecution should more evidence be found. Nancy Styler can never be charged. Original on-screen text graphic: Nancy Styler has filed for divorce, gone back to take her maiden name and moved to another state. Epilogue for the 12/19/15 rebroadcast: After thirteen months behind bars, Trey Styler sat down with author Dalleen Berry, who is writing a book with Nancy Styler in an effort to clear her name. He insisted he had acted alone. Four months after the interview, Trey Styler hanged himself in his prison cell. Nancy Styler changed her name, and moved to another state. Interviewed: Nancy Styler; Kathy Carpenter; Mark Seal (writer/48 HOURS consultant); Tim Mooney, David Koffend, Michael Cleverly (Pfister friends); Juliana Pfister (daughter); Andrea Bryan (Assistant District Attorney); Lisa Miller (DA Chief Investigator); Sherry Caloia (District Attorney); Greg Greer (Carpenter defense attorney); Garth McCarthy (Styler defense attorney). On May 2, 1996, the body of Kent Leppink was found off a deserted road 90 miles south of Anchorage, Alaska. He had been shot three times. Police investigation discovered that he had been involved with Mechele Hughes, a young woman who worked as a stripper in a club called the Great Alaskan Bush Company. Mechele was also involved with two other men -- John Carlin III and Scott Hilke. Ten years later, after further investigation, Mechele (now Mechele Linehan) and John Carlin were indicted for Leppink's murder. At his trial, Carlin was found guilty of first degree murder and sentenced to 99 years in prison. At her trial, she was also found guilty of first degree murder. She awaits sentencing. Among those interviewed are: Mechele Linehan; Linda Branchflower, detective; Ken and Betsy Leppink, parents of Kent; Scott Hilke, salesman; John Carlin III; John Carlin IV; Megan Holland, reporter, Anchorage Daily News; Tina Brady, stripper; Kristina Hermach, friend of Mechele Linehan; Colin Linehan, Mechele's husband; Pat Gullufsen, special cold case prosecutor; Sydney Billingslea, lawyer for John Carlin III; Kevin Fitzgerald, lawyer for Mechele Linehan. 08/07/10 Update: In February 2010, an appeals court reversed Mechele's conviction for murder and she will be given a new trial. John Carlin III was involved in a prison fight in 2008 and beaten to death. Because his appeal was pending at the time he died, the court has thrown out his entire case. In Mechele's new trial, prosecutors can't mention Carlin ever was convicted. Onscreen graphics update: Mechele Linehan's retrial is expected to begin next year. Epilogue for the 12/26/15 updated rebroadcast: In 2011, nearly two years after the court reversed her conviction – authorities dismissed Mechele Linehan's murder indictment, and it is unlikely that she will be charged again. John Carlin's son sued the State of Alaska for wrongful death and was awarded a $160,000 settlement. Today, Mechele and Colin are living apart, though they work together. Kent Leppink's mother struggles with the feeling that nobody was really held accountable for his murder. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Josh Yager, Mark H. "The Spy Among Us" – an interview / profile of Jack Barsky, a former spy for the Soviet Union's KGB, assigned to the United States during the last years of the Cold War, with the aim of infiltrating President Jimmy Carter's White House. Barsky, born Albrecht Dittrich in East Germany, was recruited by a Russian KGB agent. Failing at his original mission, he then worked at MetLife in IT, where he stole IBM source code for the Soviets. He also led a double life, with a wife and son in Germany and a wife and daughter in the United States. Recalled by the KGB in 1988, he made the decision to stay in the U.S. with his daughter. He lied to the KGB by telling them that he was dying of AIDS. He had another child, a son, and settled down with his family in Mount Bethel, Pennsylvania. The FBI started observing Barsky, and in May of 1997 had gathered enough evidence to question him. After the interrogation, the FBI concluded that his spy days were over and that he would be most useful in supplying information as to how the KGB operated. He now lives in upstate New York as director of software development for an undisclosed company that manages New York's high-voltage power grid. Also includes interviews with: Joe Reilly, former FBI agent; and Chelsea (last name not disclosed), Barsky's daughter. (C: Steve Kroft – P: Draggan Mihailovich) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT (OAD: 05/10/15)

60 MINUTES PRESENTS: "Mob Stories"

"The Gaskos" – a report on the capture of the FBI's most wanted man, Boston mobster James "Whitey" Bulger, and his girlfriend, Catherine Greig. For over 14 years the couple avoided an international manhunt by living a quiet, secluded life in Santa Monica, California posing as "Charley and Carol Gasko". Federal law enforcement trackers explain how a breast augmentation by Greig and the couple's shared love for animals led to their arrest. Includes interviews with Josh Bond, manager of the Princess Eugenia Apartments; Janus Goodwin and Barbara Gluck, tenants of the Princess Eugenia Apartments; Scott Garriola, Rich Teahan, Tommy MacDonald and Phil Torsney (Ret.), FBI Special Agents; and Neil Sullivan, Deputy U.S. Marshall. "Gotti" - an interview and profile of John Gotti Jr., son of the late convicted mafia boss John Gotti, head of the Gambino crime family. He discusses his infamous father, whom he strove to please by living a life of crime, and his eventual decision to leave that life. Also includes comments by his lawyer, Charles Carnesi, who was present during the interview. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Ira Rosen) (OAD: 04/11/10 as a DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT; includes an update)

"The FBI's Wise Guy" - an interview with Joaquin "Jack" Garcia, the Cuban-American FBI agent who infiltrated the Gambino crime family as Jack Falcone, an Italian gangster character he created in 2002 to take down one of the most powerful mobsters in America. Extremely successful, he gained the trust of Gambino capo Greg DePalma, who offered to make Falcone a "made member" of the Mafia -- a proposal which would have made him the first law enforcement agent in history to ever achieve that position. Recently retired after 26 years, he is the author of "Making Jack Falcone". (C: Armen Keteyian - P: Pat Milton, Michael Radutzky) (OAD: 10/12/08)

CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIALS

- 12/13/15 “Marriage, Religion & Modern Life” – an interfaith special that looks at how the tradition of matrimony has evolved throughout the ages and what it looks like today. Marriage is a ritual that is celebrated in many different religions and cultures all over the world. Today, nearly 30 percent of adults are married or living with a partner who has a religion different than their own and there is a growing population of families who are making a conscious choice to raise their children in both faith traditions. Featured are: (1) Historian Stephanie Coontz (author, “Marriage, A History” and “The Way We Never Were”) and sociologist Dr. Andrew J. Cherlin (author, “Labor’s Love Lost”, Sociology Prof., Johns Hopkins University) discuss how marriage has evolved over the centuries and why the public debate around same-sex marriage went from unfavorable to favorable. (2) Changes in attitudes toward marriage and religion are also evident among millennials, who are increasingly deferring the decision to tie the knot. Reverend Dale Rosenberger (author, “Sex and the Spirit”) is the Senior Pastor of the First Congregational Church of Darien, Connecticut. He discusses how the culture of marriage has changed in the United States, how this affects millennials’ spiritual lives, and how he ministers to young couples who are ready for this commitment. (3) The Interfaith Family Project (IFFP) of Greater Washington in Washington, D.C. is an educational organization for families who want to raise their children both Christian and Jewish. IFFP’s spiritual leaders, Reverend Julia Jarvis and Rabbi Rain Zohav, discuss why more families are intentionally raising their children with an understanding of both traditions. IFFP member Susan Katz, author of “Being Both: Embracing Two Religions in One Interfaith Family”, explains why more and more families are embracing this grassroots movement. (Narrator: Rolland Smith.
