48 HOURS: "The Soldier's Wife" - an interview with, and a report about Skylar Nemetz, a former Army infantryman who admits that he shot his wife Danielle, in their Lakewood, Washington home in October of 2014, after returning home from a 3-week deployment. He maintains it was an accident and that he did not think the gun was loaded. Eighteen months after the shooting, Skyler Nemetz is on trial, awaiting a jury's verdict. The prosecution maintains a jealous Nemetz shot Danielle in the back of the head while she was seated at a desk looking at her computer. She died instantly. Skyler Nemetz's mother, Danette Heller, believes in her son, and he and his family see the incident as an accident. They have hired a top-notch legal team to defend Skyler. There is no dispute that Nemetz caused Danielle's death; the question is if it was murder or manslaughter. At trial, Skyler is portrayed as a jealous, angry, and controlling husband. The defense called Skyler to testify, and called for the jury to find him guilty of manslaughter, not murder. The case goes to the jury, who deliberated for seven days: the verdict: manslaughter in the first degree. Four jurors agreed to speak to Erin Moriarty about their verdict, and even though they felt Skyler was coached, rehearsed and theatrical, they could not see that the prosecution proved its case. Three weeks later, Skyler received the maximum sentence. On-screen text graphic: Skylar Nemetz is appealing the length of his sentence. Skylar Nemetz will be eligible for parole in 12 years. He will be 33 years old. Interviewed: Skylar Nemetz; Danette Heller (Skyler's mom); James Peltier (Danielle's former neighbor and father figure); Michaela Yingling (Danielle's best friend); Erin Mikolai (Danielle's coach); Anthony Faas (Skyler's army buddy); Greg Greer and Michael Stewart (Deputy Prosecuting Attorneys); Ralph Flick, Mike Duncan, Brad Hardesty, and Shane Vandervloedt (jurors). 05/14/16

48 HOURS: "Death of an Olympian" - a report about the August 2009 death of Olympian Dave Laut, shot to death by his wife, Jane in Oxnard, California. She claimed it was in self-defense. In her first television interview, she relates what happened that night and why she killed him. Dave Laut competed in the 1984 Games and was aiming for the gold when an injury upended his chances. He became a school teacher, athletic director, and coach; married his high school sweetheart Jane; and adopted a son. Jane Laut originally claimed Dave was shot by an intruder, but when detectives discovered a gun hidden inside a grandfather clock, she changed her story, claiming she killed Laut in self-defense. In her first television interview, she claims she never planned to kill her husband that night, but after years of psychological and verbal abuse, Laut went too far that night and she shot him. The Laut family says that Jane is a pathological liar. The police could not confirm any abuse. The evidence collected at the scene told a different story: Laut was shot from behind with a single action revolver -- every shot indicated pre-meditation. Forensic accounting concluded the couple was deeply in debt and that Jane was a reckless spender, in trouble with the IRS. Dave Laut was apparently unaware of their circumstances. In January 2016, the prosecution presented a case of pre-meditated murder with money and divorce as the motives -- and that Jane was never in physical danger from Dave Laut. Jane Laut testified in her own defense, explaining her motivation. After four days of deliberation, the jury found Jane Laut guilty of first degree murder. On-screen text graphic: Jane Laut is expected to be formally sentenced in June. Interviewed: Jane Laut; Don and Rebecca Laut (Dave Laut's brother and sister-in-law); Dotty Laut (mother); Sonya Sanchez (Detective, Oxnard, California Police Department); Mike Young (lead detective); Nabil Khattar (gun expert); Ron Bamieh (defense attorney); Marjorie Hernandez (Ventura County Star reporter/48 HOURS consultant); Gail Pincus (executive director, Los Angeles Country Domestic Abuse Center) (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Judy Rybak, Greg Fisher, Chris Young Ritzen, Dena Goldstein)

Featured are all twelve living directors of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and the focus is on the agency during one of the most controversial periods in its history, marked by the use of enhanced interrogation techniques, secret prisons, drone warfare and even alleged assassination. Key questions discussed are: how far should America go to prevent another terrorist attack; what is fair game in an unfair fight; and has the agency focused too much on lethal paramilitary action at the expense of gathering intelligence. Also included is information on the events leading up to the 9/11 terrorist attacks and the hunt for Osama bin Laden. The twelve directors featured are: former President George H.W. Bush, Stansfield Turner, William Webster, Robert Gates, James Woolsey, John Deutch, George Tenet, Porter Goss, Michael Hayden, Leon Panetta, David Petraeus, and John Brennan. - 05/28/16 48 HOURS: “Highway of Tears” (9:00 - 10:00p) – An updated rebroadcast on the more than twenty girls and women who, since 1969, have disappeared or been killed along the stretch of pavement in rural British Columbia, Canada, known as Highway 16. This week, Canada’s Prime Minister Justin Trudeau has committed more than thirty million dollars to a new national investigation into the missing and murdered women. To locals, the road is now known simply as “The Highway of Tears”, and Maddy Scott may be one of the roadway’s many victims. On May 28, 2012, the 21-year-old went to a party with 50 others at Hogsback Lake, not far from the highway, only to never be seen again. Just six months earlier, in the same town, 15-year-old Loren Leslie’s body was found on a logging road not far from Highway 16. Leslie was brutally beaten and molested. There are signs all along Highway 16 warning women not to hitchhike because a killer might be on the loose, but the murders have not ceased. Police arrested 20-year-old Cody Legebokoff in Leslie’s murder. A patrolman pulled him over, thinking he was poaching game. He had Leslie’s ID in his truck. Her body was just down the road. Legebokoff has since been identified as the alleged killer of three others, though police have not revealed how they’ve connected him to the murders that occurred in 2009 and 2010. Still, because of his age, police know Legebokoff couldn’t be responsible for all of the murders along Highway 16. Just two months ago, officials at the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) got a break in some cases because they linked DNA samples from one of the highway’s victims, Colleen MacMillen, found murdered in 1974, to Bobby Jack Fowler. Police also believe Fowler, a Texas native who worked as a roofer in Prince George, may have killed as many as twenty people in the United States and Canada. Victims of Highway 16 mentioned in this broadcast: Alberta Williams, Delphine Nikal, Lana Derrick, Monica Ignas, Monica Jack, Ramona Wilson, Tamara Chipman, Gail Weyes, Pamela Darlington. Original On-screen text graphics: Cody Legebokoff, accused of murdering Loren Leslie and three other women, is expected to stand trial in September 2013. Investigators believe Bobby Jack Fowler may have killed as many as 20 people across the United States and Canada. On-screen text graphic for the 05/28/16 updated rebroadcast: The RCMP later charged Garry Handlen as the killer of twelve-year-old Monica Jack, the youngest victim on the Highway of Tears. Cody Legebokoff was convicted of first-degree murder for killing teenager Loren Leslie and three other women. He was sentenced to life in prison but just this Wednesday was in court asking that his convictions be overturned. Interviewed: Dawn and Eldon Scott, Parents of Madison (Maddy) Scott; Bob Friel, investigative reporter, Outside magazine, CBS News consultant; Sgt. Ken Floyd and Constable Tom Wamstecker, Royal Canadian Mounted Police; Amanda Fitzpatrick, Jasmine Klassen and Jordy Bolduc, Maddy’s friends; Doug and Donna Leslie, parents of Loren Leslie; Charleine Laing, Loren’s friend; Garett Anatole, Cody’s friend; Sgt. 48 HOURS PRESENTS: “Cal Harris: Final Verdict” (10:00 - 11:00p) – an updated rebroadcast of “Cal Harris: Deadlocked” (OAD: 05/23/15), itself a followup to “A Time to Kill” (OAD: 11/10/07). A review of the case against Cal Harris, whom prosecutors in Northern New York believe is guilty of killing his estranged wife Michele, to preserve his fortune. This followup report includes the first interview with Cal Harris. Twice, he has been tried and found guilty, and twice those convictions have been overturned. Harris has claimed that Michele did not return home on September 11, 2001. He denied any involvement in her disappearance and suggested to investigators that they take a closer look at her personal life. Investigation discovered she was involved with two different men, both of whom had seen her on the night she disappeared. Two days after the initial search, blood specks were found in the home, making it a potential crime scene. Focus shifted to Cal, and in 2005, without a body or a murder weapon, Harris was arrested for his wife’s murder. He was tried and convicted in 2007, but while awaiting his sentencing, a new witness emerged, and the conviction was overturned. In 2009, a jury reached the same verdict. The case was overturned on appeal. In February 2015, Harris went on trial for the third time, but not in Tioga County where he lives, but in Schohane, NY, with a new defense team, a new prosecutor, a new judge and new rules. Despite all this, after 12 days of deliberation, the judge was forced to declare a mistrial. Harris is out on bail, but his future is far from certain. UPDATE: On March 31, 2016, Cal Harris went back to court for his fourth trial. This time, he asked for a bench trial, which means a single judge, not twelve jurors, would decide his fate. The prosecution’s case was essentially the same. The defense pinned their hopes on new witnesses because the judge, unlike earlier ones, allowed testimony pointing to other possible suspects. In the end, after deliberating for twelve hours, Judge Richard Mott reached a verdict: not guilty. Cal Harris’ legal ordeal is over, but the mystery of Michele Harris still remains. Original on-screen text graphic: Lawyers are scheduled to meet in August to set a date for a fourth trial. On-screen text graphic for the 05/28/16 updated rebroadcast: Because of double jeopardy Cal Harris’ criminal case is not officially over. Harris is considering a civil suit. Interviewed: Cal Harris and his children: Cayla Harris, Taylor Harris, Jenna Harris, Tanner Harris; Barb Thayer (nanny); Nikki Burdick (Michele’s friend); Cindy and Tom Turner (friends of the couple); Greg and Shannon Taylor (Michele’s brother and sister-in-law); Bruce Barket and Donna Aldea (Harris’ attorneys); Sue Mulvey (NY State Police senior investigator); Mike Myers and Mike Young (investigators); Steve Anderson (NY State Police forensic specialist); Brian Earley (boyfriend of Michele Harris); Kevin O’Hara (Cal Harris’ friend); Jerry Keene (DA, Tioga County); Kevin Tubbs (local farmer); Kirk Martin (District Attorney); Mark Lester (State Police Captain). “El Chapo” – a report on the recapture of drug lord Joaquin Guzman (aka “el Chapo”) after he escaped Altiplano Prison in Mexico last July through a tunnel. Mexican and U.S. law enforcement reassembled the task force that caught el Chapo in 2014, and after some missed opportunities on both sides, el Chapo was captured in January 2016. Mexican marines infiltrated el Chapo’s safe house, killing five cartel members and taking six into custody, while el Chapo and his associate Cholo Ivan escaped through a hidden tunnel. The two men popped out of a manhole and hijacked two cars before being picked up by federal police and taken to a motel, for unknown reasons. Mexican marines intervened and took el Chapo into custody and sent him back to Altiplano Prison. Includes interviews with: Peter Vincent, Director Counselor for International Policy at BORDERPOL; Jim Dinkins, Ret. Homeland Security Investigations, Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA); Juan Pedro Badillo, el Chapo’s lawyer; and two unidentified Mexican marines who assisted with el Chapo’s capture (through translator). 48 HOURS: "The Doctor's Daughter" (10:00 - 11:00p) - an investigation into the 2012 death of Leslie Neulander, the wife of Dr. Robert Neulander, a prominent New York State obstetrician, and the quest to discover whether her death was an accident or murder. Leslie Neulander suffered a massive head wound while showering, but her body was found on the bedroom floor, near the bed and far from the shower. The Medical Examiner ruled the death an accidental but investigators suspected the husband, Dr. Neulander, of covering up the crime. The couple's daughter, Jenna Neulander, was the only other person in the home at the time, and made the 911 call to summon help. The investigation uncovered a troubled marriage, suggestions of a pending split and declining finances. Eighteen months after Leslie Neulander's death, her husband was charged with her murder. The defense maintained the Neulander's had a loving marriage and that Leslie had died from injuries from the fall in the shower. Prosecutors say it was murder and the doctor covered up the crime. The science of blood spatter and the 911 call for help became focal points in the trial. Jenna Neulander testified in her father's defense. Robert Neulander was found guilty. Original on-screen text graphic: Just this week, Neulander surrendered his license to practice medicine. On-screen text graphic for the 06/04/16 rebroadcast: Robert Neulander plans to appeal his conviction. 48 HOURS: “Hannah Graham: Deadly Connections” (9:00-10:00p) - the first hour of an investigation, told in back-to-back episodes (“Hannah Graham: Stalked by Evil”, 10:00-11:00p), into the 2014 death of University of Virginia college student Hannah Graham. Included is evidence that links the alleged killer to other cases in Virginia involving unsolved attacks against young women; and a report on the life of Jesse Matthew, the man who is allegedly the last person to see Graham alive. This hour concentrates on Graham’s disappearance, the national attention the case garnered, the social media aspects of the case and the subsequent connections between the disappearances and deaths of Morgan Harrington, Trina Murphy and an attempted rape of another young woman. Graham’s mysterious disappearance spread far beyond the Charlottesville, Virginia area in the days following her disappearance, reminding people of the death five years earlier of Morgan Harrington, a Virginia Tech student in 2009. Her case became one of the first to use social media as a crime-fighting tool. After her body was found, clothing was recovered which contained unknown DNA which was eventually linked to the 2005 assault of another woman in Fairfax, Virginia. Still there were no answers. In 2013, when 17-year-old Alexis Murphy disappeared, Morgan Harrington’s parents reached out to the family. Alexis Murphy’s body was never found, but DNA evidence linked Randy Taylor to the crime; he was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison. Now, the families have joined together to help the Graham family through their ordeal and the search for Hannah. Ultimately, police think they have a suspect: Jesse Leroy Matthew, Jr.. (No on-screen text graphic.) Interviewed: Neal Augenstein (WTOP Radio reporter/48 HOURS consultant); Laura French (WTVR reporter/48 HOURS consultant); John Graham (father); Craig Maniglia (Graham’s coach); Leila Nasser (Graham’s friend); Lloyd Snook (attorney); Gil and Dan Harrington (Morgan Harrington’s parents); Lindsey Crisp (Harrington’s friend); Michael Boone (detective); Mark Castro (witness); Trina and Laura Murphy (mother and aunt of Alexis Murphy); William Haith (Jesse Matthew’s acquaintance); Jesse Matthew, Sr. (father of suspect); Lee Vandell (Matthew’s landlady). (NOTE: On 09/14/15, 48 HOURS launched a podcast - “The Hannah Graham Story” - the series’ first-ever five-part, show-specific podcast, produced in conjunction with the 09/26/15 broadcast season premiere. 06/11/16

48 HOURS: “Hannah Graham: Stalked by Evil” (10:00-11:00p) - the second hour of an investigation, told in back-to-back episodes (“Hannah Graham: Deadly Connections”, 9:00-10:00p), detailing the 2014 death of University of Virginia college student Hannah Graham, and the evidence that linked the alleged killer to other cases in Virginia involving unsolved attacks against young women (Morgan Harrington, Alexis Murphy, and an unidentified rape victim). This hour concentrates on Jesse Matthew, the man who was allegedly the last person to see Graham alive. Other crimes in Virginia, in which he became a suspect, are also detailed. Matthew fled from police and was located in Galveston, Texas. He does not cooperate. Thirty-five days after Graham’s disappearance, her body was found. The site is close to where Morgan Harrington’s body was found, near Matthew’s childhood home. The challenge now is to build a case against Jesse Matthew. Meanwhile, a detective believes Matthew could be the suspect in an unsolved rape case in Fairfax, Virginia. A DNA test is taken; it is a match and that DNA is also a match to unknown DNA from the Morgan Harrington case. Matthew is indicted and will stand trial for attempted capital murder and sexual assault in the rape case. Prosecutors are still building the Graham case. Questions are also raised to a connection in the Alexis Murphy case; no link has been found. In early 2015, the rape trial begins. The victim (identified only as R.G.) returns from Asia to testify. As the defense portion of the trial is about to begin, Matthew takes an Alford plea (a kind of guilty plea where the defendant admits guilt, but does not admit to committing the crime). Then, Matthew is handed an indictment for first degree murder in the Morgan Harrington case. The Graham trial is scheduled to begin next summer. No date has been set for the Harrington trial. On-screen graphic epilogue for the 06/11/16 rebroadcast: On March 2, 2016, a few months before the Hannah Graham murder trial was to begin, Jesse Matthew accepted a deal. In exchange for pleading guilty, Matthew no longer faced the death penalty. He will serve four consecutive life terms with not possibility of ever being released. Both the Harrington and the Graham families supported the plea agreement. Original On-screen text graphic: Jesse Matthew will be sentenced in the Fairfax rape case on October 2, 2015. Matthew’s trial for the murder of Hannah Graham is scheduled for July 5, 2016. If alive today, Hannah Graham and Alexis Murphy would be 19 years old. Morgan Harrington would be 26. On-screen text graphic for the 06/11/16 rebroadcast: If alive today, Hannah Graham and Alexis Murphy would be 20 years old. Morgan Harrington would be 26. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 06/18/16 48 HOURS: “Father and Son (9:00-10:00p) - a retitled rebroadcast of “Father and Son: The Verdict”, itself a followup to “Father and Son” (OAD: 04/12/14). A report about the 2011 death of Uta Von Schwedler, and her son Pelle Wall’s efforts to prove that his father, pediatrician Dr. Johnny Wall, was responsible for her death. Von Schwedler, a university research scientist, was found dead in the bathtub of her Salt Lake City, Utah home by her boyfriend Nils Abramson. The cause of death was listed as “undetermined”, leaving open the possibility of suicide. Investigation revealed long-standing issues between the divorced couple. Pelle Wall believed his father to be responsible and was determined to prove it. He risked everything, including his relationship with his father and future financial security, by filing a wrongful death suit against his father. This caused the authorities to re-examine the case. Dr. Wall was charged with murder. The trial began in February 2015. DNA results did nothing to clarify things and the trial became a battle of expert witnesses, with the defense suggesting Nils Abramson was responsible. Although Johnny Wall did not testify in his defense, it was ultimately his own words, in an interview with police, which led to his conviction. Epilogue for the 06/18/16 rebroadcast: Following his conviction, Uta Von Schwedler’s family and friends were reunited at the sentencing hearing for her ex-husband and convicted killer Johnny Wall. Wall, finally broke his silence with a message for his children, emphatically denying any involvement in his ex-wife’s death. The jury recommended Wall serve a sentence of fifteen years-to-life and the Judge agreed. Pelle Wall, like his father plans to be a physician. Original on-screen text graphic: Johnny Wall is expected to stand trial for murder by the end of 2014. Tomorrow, April 13th, is Uta Von Schwedler’s birthday. On-screen text graphic for the 05/09/15 followup: Just a week before her death Uta Von Schwedler had made a breakthrough in childhood leukemia. - 06/18/16 48 HOURS: “The Strange Case of Kurt Sonnenfeld” (10:00-11:00p) - an investigation of Kurt Sonnenfeld, a man wanted for the 2002 murder of his wife, Nancy Sonnenfeld, in the United States, and who is now living with a new life with a new wife in Argentina, a country that has yet to agree to extradite him to the United States. He claims that the United States government wants to silence him for what he saw at Ground Zero following the 2001 terrorist attacks. He also maintains that his wife committed suicide after a New Year’s Eve celebration on January 1, 2002. Police believed it to be a homicide. Her death came during a troubled time in their marriage; Nancy had filed for separation and intended to divorce Kurt. He was arrested for murder, but the charges were dropped shortly before he was to go to trial due to insufficient evidence. The investigation continued, and police eventually refiled the murder charge. By that time, Sonnenfeld had moved to Argentina, remarried and had launched a campaign to clear his name by giving interviews to the local media. He claims that he is wanted in the United States because of something he saw while working as a cameraman for FEMA at the World Trade Center Ground Zero site, and also claims that he is facing the death penalty -- which he is not. The case now drags on through the Argentine court system, and the President of Argentina even says that Kurt Sonnenfeld will not be extradited. Original On-screen text graphic: Tomorrow is Argentina’s presidential election. It’s not clear whether the decision to keep Sonnenfeld in Argentina will stand. On-screen text graphic for the 06/18/16 rebroadcast: Nancy’s family has written to the new president of Argentina asking him to reconsider the extradition of Kurt Sonnenfeld. 48 HOURS (continued)

06/25/16 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "I Remember Everything" (8:00 - 9:00p) - a report about Angela Rose (no last name given) and Delaney Henderson, two women, tied together by having survived sexual assaults and who, by going public, hope to help others. In 1996, Angela Rose was a teenager heading to a Chicago suburban high school graduation party after work. She never made it. Angela was abducted by a man with a long history of criminal acts. He put her in his car, and eventually stopped at a forest preserve where he sexually assaulted her in the car. She survived. Police knew they had a strong case, but it took four years for her attacker to be convicted. Angela Rose turned to activism. She founded an organization called PAVE (Promoting Awareness Victim Empowerment) to help others. One of those she helped was Delaney Henderson, a young woman from California, who in 2011, was sexually assaulted by two schoolmates in her family home. She hid her attack from her parents and the police, fearing she would be further attacked or even killed because one of her attackers was a popular athlete at school. Everything changed when she learned that he had allegedly raped another, younger girl. Eventually the accused, Shane Villalpando, was convicted of three counts of sex with a minor in the younger girl's case and later accepted a plea deal in Delaney's case, leading to one more count. He was sentenced to one year in jail, five years probation and must register as a sex offender. Original On-screen text graphic: Angela Rose does not want her last name used to protect her family's privacy. Delaney and her parents plan to move from California for a fresh start. On-screen text graphic for the 06/25/16 rebroadcast: Angela Rose is married and expecting her first child. The charges against rapper Anthony Murillo were reinstated. He will go on trial in July. Delaney is suing the Archdiocese of Los Angeles and her Catholic high school for allegedly failing to protect her. Interviewed: Angela Rose (no last name given); Delaney Henderson; Gary Ciccola (Sergeant, Schaumburg, Illinois Police); Richard Benbow (Sergeant, Wheeling, Illinois Police); former prosecutor Lawrence M. Lykowski; Kym Henderson (Delaney's mother); Deputy District Attorney Jennifer Karapetian. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Clare Friedland) (OAD: 10/25/14)

CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL

06/26/16 "Religion & Democracy" - an interfaith special examining the challenges America is facing -- as one of the most diverse democratic countries in the world -- when it comes to religious hate and intolerance. In particular, the conditions that are fueling anti-Muslim sentiment are examined. Among those featured on the program: (1) Dalia Mogahed, Director of Research at the Institute for Social Policy & Understanding (ISPU). A recent ISPU survey revealed that last year Muslims reported more religious discrimination than Jews, Protestants and Catholics. Mogahed talks about how living in a climate of fear and intolerance affects the Muslim community and society as a whole. (2) Charles C. Haynes, Founding Director of the Religious Freedom Center at the Newseum Institute, is also a senior scholar at the First Amendment Center, as well as a leading advocate for teaching about religion in public schools. While Islam is the second-largest religion in the world, the majority of Americans are misinformed about the tradition. Haynes argues that the best way to counter intolerance is through religious literacy and that teaching young people about religion is more important now than ever. (3) Chris Murray, a teacher at Walter Johnson High School in Montgomery County, Maryland, says that most students have very little understanding about religion and that his class makes them better citizens and advocates. Includes a world-religions class discussion about how Islam is portrayed in the media, and how students have been affected by the class. (4) Ilhan Omar is a Somali American who is running for Minnesota State Legislature District 60B. Muslims in America are doing what they can to counter religious bigotry by becoming more civically engaged. She shares her story of coming to America as a young refugee and explains what prompted her to run for office in one of the most diverse communities in Minneapolis. Also includes comments from her husband Ahmed Hirsi. (Narrator: Rolland Smith. Executive Producer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Natalie Baxter. Director & Senior Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. Produced in consultation with religious scholars, clergy and others including Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, Islamic, Sikh and various interfaith organizations.)
