Economy	Softite Community Federal Credit Union invites Women of all ages to come to an information session "Women and Financial Independence" at the Black Sheep Vineyard. It is free to attend, and you will learn how to protect your credit rating, avoid fraud, and prepare for "what-if" situations. According to AARP nearly two-thirds of women ages 40 to 79 already have dealt with major financial life crisis. The seminar begins at 6pm.	4/9/14
Education	Right now one local university is working to keep its students, staff and community safe by holding a special planning meeting. Officials from West Liberty University met with law enforcement officers, safety organizations and first responders from three local counties to plan and prepare for potential problems on campus. After discussing the specifics of the University's Emergency Action Plan the group went over three potential on-campus scenarios. They included an active shooter situation, an on-campus fire or explosion and the outbreak of a contagious disease.	4/23/14
Healthcare	New information on how many people from our area are enrolled in healthcare under the affordable care act. Only 6% of West Virginians between 18 and 25 have signed up for the federal exchange. That means the mountain state is tied with Minnesota for the lowest percentage in the country. At 13%, West Virginia is also tied with Arizona and Vermont for the lowest of 26-34 year olds enrolled.	5/5/14
Education	The annual State of the Schools Address is set to take place later this evening. Superintendent Dianna Vargo will speak to an audience of educators, local politicians, and business executives. The superintendent will address several issues facing Ohio County Schools. The address is scheduled to begin at 4pm at the J.B. Chambers Performing Arts Center.	5/8/14
Economy	An Italian based manufacturing company that makes machine parts used in the natural gas and oil industry is calling Wheeling it's first U.S. home. The manufacturer is an international company that currently operates ten factories in five other countries, but this is the first factory to come to the U.S. and it's right here in our back yard. The facility is located on Peninsula Street here in Wheeling. The reason why the company has decided to make Wheeling their American debut is partly because of the influx in natural gas and oil.	6/6/14
Crime	Day three of the Craig Peacock trial resumes with more witnesses taking the stand. Emotional moments filled the courtroom during day one of testimony against Craig Peacock. The family of Wheeling Jesuit student athlete Kevin Figaniak could be seen holding hands while surveillance footage of some of his final moments played in the courtroom yesterday.	6/11/14

Healthcare	Health officials tracking a mumps outbreak in Ohio say 100 of the 153 confirmed cases have been linked to Ohio State University. Local health agencies in the area say that those infected by the viral illness range in age from 9 months to 69 years. They include 78 Ohio State students and nine staff members. The outbreak started in early January. State and local health official are urging residents to make sure they're properly vaccinated with two doses of measles-mumps-rubella, known as MMR.	4/8/14
Education	The fourth annual Great Gala is being put on by West Liberty University. The gala raises money for the university's College of Education Scholarship Fund. The event has become known for its themes and this year it's all about taking it back to one of the proudest times in American history, post World War II. They're planning a patriotic celebration.	4/11/14
Education	Schools all over the nation have stepped up their efforts to curb bullying. But the issue is no longer limited to the classroom. Cyber-bullying occurs when a child or teenager is harassed or tormented online by another student. Today, Wheeling Jesuit University announced an extended partnership with State Farm Insurance to educate students on bullying. State Farm granted the university over $17,000 to the Coalition of Youth Safety. It's a course that is designed to teach Wheeling Jesuit students about child safety issues such as internet safety, bullying, and social media.	5/6/14
Political	Today some politicians will be making a visit to one university right here in Wheeling. Congresswoman Shelley Moore Capito, WV Governor Earl Ray Tomblin, and WV Secretary of State Natalie Tennant will make a stop at Wheeling Jesuit University where nearly 400 teenage girls are together for the annual Rhododendron Girls State program. The girls will be part of hands-on teaching about citizenship, leadership and patriotism.	6/10/14
Political	Today Ohio State Representative Jack Cera will hold a town hall meeting in Martins Ferry. Rep. Cera will provide a brief overview of actions in the legislature and discuss state legislative issues. That meeting will be held in the Martins Ferry Council Chamber on the second floor.	6/16/14
Economy	Coleman's Fish Market is celebrating its 100 th birthday and you are invited to stop by today. It will open this morning at 10am and will close at 7pm. Live music and much more will all be taking place at the Center Market location.	6/24/14

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Crime	In Ohio County, the man accused of attempted murder makes his plea in court. Steven Kyle pleaded guilty to the lesser charge he was facing this morning. The case stems from a shooting on Wheeling Island involving several men from Cleveland.	4/3/14
Crime	One of the men indicted by the grand jury investigating the Steubenville Rape Case is expected to change his plea today. Matthew Bellardine is expected to plea no contest to one count of making a false statement and one count of enabling underage drinking. Dan Tierney, a spokesman with the Ohio Attorney General's Office, says counts of obstructing official business and contributing to the delinquency of a child are expected to be dismissed.	4/22/14
Education	Wheeling Central is getting a one of a kind technological advancement. It's called a TEAL Lab and it stands for Technology Enabled Active Learning. The lab will be equipped with state of the art technology and will be a hands on and a problem solving experience for students. Central will be the first high school in the state to have this lab.	4/28/14
Healthcare	St. Clairsville based Murray Energy has confirmed it will terminate the health benefits of nearly 1,200 Consol Energy retirees who worked in mines Murray purchased last year. The benefits for salaried retirees, including medical, prescription drug, and life insurance, will be cut off December 31. The cut-off will not apply to union members. A letter sent out earlier this month to those affected reads, "Please be advised that Murray Energy does not provide salary retiree benefit coverage for its retirees."	4/29/14
Political	Yesterday's Primary Elections in Ohio had low voter turnout, according to election officials. They are not sure what contributed to the low numbers but one thing that could be a factor, there weren't many contested races locally.	5/7/14
Crime	Another meth lab is busted in Bellaire. This one, early this morning as a home is raided by the Belmont County Drug Task Force. Inside the house, they found not only a meth cooking set-up, but a handicapped child living there.	5/16/14
Education	It's a time when the best spellers in the nation step into the spotlight, but this year four Ohio Valley students are taking part in the 87 th Annual Scripps National Spelling Bee in Washington, DC. Peyton Hall of River Elementary School, Justin Thomas Hamilton of Union Local, Nathan Keenan of Toronto Junior Senior High School, and Lillian Bischof of St. Michaels School in Wheeling. Right now there's no telling how far these Ohio Valley students can go, especially when it comes to crunch time.	5/28/14
Economy	After two and a half years, and $15 million dollars, a state-of-the-art facility is ready for business right here in Wheeling. The new Team Sledd facility in Elm Grove distributes products in bulk to convenient centers across 6 states. They also have an area to show management what layout, food, and technology works best. West Virginia Governor Earl Ray Tomblin was there for the tour and said after, that he's very impressed with the facility and excited about the job and economic opportunities it will provide to the Wheeling area.	6/17/14

Healthcare	OVMC has introduced some new techniques for those dealing with cancer and the stress that comes along with fighting to get healthy. They started introducing programs in the spring. Patients who are diagnosed with Breast Cancer receive a bear named HOPE. Patients are also able to take part in animal assisted activities through Pawsitive Pets, where a lab comes in to visit with patients. Studies show that having pets around can help to reduce stress, something patients need.	6/25/14

Education	Congratulations are in order for one local high school student who will soon be representing his school on a national stage. Wheeling Park senior Austin Gage will compete in Poetry Out Loud; National Recitation Contest in Washington D.C. later this month. Gage recently won the state-level competition in Charleston to advance to the national contest. He received two-hundred dollars for the win and secured another 500 for the school. That money will be used to purchase poetry books for the school.	4/7/14
Crime	Continuing coverage on the bank robbery in Bethlehem Monday. This week we've learned that the maroon 1990 Dodge Spirit used as a getaway was found abandoned in a church parking lot. Now, we learn the rest of the story, where that car came from in the first place. An attorney in Martins Ferry parked it Monday morning on 4 th Street. Because of an ignition malfunction, the keys wouldn't come out. So he left them there, inside the unlocked vehicle. That afternoon when he returned to his parking space, the car was gone.	4/16/14
Economy	There is a potential buyer for a portion of the Ohio Coatings plant in Yorkville and the nearby Wheeling-Pitt mill. That's according to the President of Ohio Coatings, Jim Tennant. We've learned a letter of intent was signed on April 4 th to potentially invest and buy out part of the share of both facilities. Tennant says he's not at liberty to say who it is, but he did say everything should be finalized within the next six weeks. US Representative Bill Johnson is right now touring the Ohio Coatings plant and is discussing these latest developments. If you remember, Esmark purchased the former Wheeling-Pitt plant back in 2012.	4/21/14
Political	One of the races almost everyone in West Virginia will be following is the race for retiring US Senator Jay Rockefeller's seat in Congress. The democratic front-runner for the nomination is current West Virginia Secretary of State Natalie Tennant. Meanwhile the GOP favorite to win the nomination is Congresswoman Shelley Moore Capito. Also on the ballot, several county board of educations, commissions levies. Polls close at 7:30 tomorrow.	5/12/14

Economy	Ormet Corporation has informed the State of Ohio it's laying off the remaining 42 employees at its aluminum smelter in eastern Ohio. The employees remained after the plant in Hannibal ceased operations in October. They will lose their jobs at the end of the month, with a complete closing of the plant by the end of July. Ormet announced that closure after they were not granted their request for a lower electricity rate, and blames the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio for the closure, saying they made it impossible for the company to escape bankruptcy.	5/19/14
Crime	An arrest has been made two weeks after chemical devices were found outside a local city building. 23 year old David Jared Patterson was taken into custody this afternoon. Right now he's being charged at the state level with three counts of criminal use of an explosive device. You may remember, back on May 6 th , the chemical devices were found outside the Weirton City Building, one even under a police cruiser. Officers were able to defuse the devices shortly after finding them. The investigation has been a team effort with The Weirton Police Department working closely with the FBI.	5/21/14
Economy	In Wheeling this weekend a sure sign of summer springs into action. You know warm weather is here when the Wheeling Farmer's Market opens for the first time. This Saturday morning, you can buy fresh fruits, vegetables, and baked goods. It's all held at the St. Michael Parish parking lot on National Road in Wheeling.	5/29/14
Education	A local elementary student's essay is just one of 15 across the state to win an award. Over 3,000 essays were submitted, and Domenic Guidy, a third grader at Liberty Elementary in Weirton was honored today. Guidy won a $500 scholarship as part of the State Treasurer's office Smart 529 'When I Grow Up' essay contest.	6/4/14
Healthcare	It's a startling statistic that shows Jefferson County is ranked as one of the unhealthiest counties in the state. So, now a local health system is looking to turn that around and get people healthy. It's called Trinity Health Zone and it was launched by Trinity Health System as a way to engage people in a healthy lifestyle by developing healthy habits. It's a free program for all Upper Ohio Valley communities, businesses and educational institutions, but Trinity is really looking to improve on workplace wellness where stress plays a major role for employee health.	6/9/14
Economy	West Virginia is receiving more than $6 million in federal funds for job training programs for laid-off workers. The U.S. Department of Labor is awarding more than $154 million nationwide through the Job-Driven National Emergency Grant program. Officials say the funds will be used to train workers who lost a job through no fault of their own for jobs in high-demand industries. The funding will help create or expand employer partnerships and provide career counseling and job placement.	6/26/14

Healthcare	The Kanawha-Charleston health department has been doing its own survey. It should be finished tonight. Meanwhile, members of the health board decided today to join the city of Charleston in a lawsuit over the January 9 th Chemical leak. The department also wants to be paid back $200,000 it has spent responding to the spill.	4/8/14
Economy	Patriot Coal plans to cut production at its Wells Mining complex near Wharton, and its Corridor G complex near Danville. Patriot's president says the company needs to align its production with expected sales.	4/23/14
Political	With less than a week before West Virginia's Primary Election Day, candidates are doing everything they can for last minute votes. One of those things is putting up signs throughout their county. Most of the places you see those signs are actually illegal campaigning spots. One man from Wyoming County along with his club have been policing campaign signs for more than 30 years.	5/8/14
Healthcare/Economy	Camden Clark Medical Center's St. Joseph's Campus will close in November. 60 workers will be laid off, and 163 positions will be cut in Parkersburg. Camden Clark says the other affected workers will be offered jobs within the hospital. Declining demand is the reason for the move, according to hospital executives.	5/21/14
Healthcare/Economy	Mike Garrison, attorney for Fairmont General Hospital, said the sale of the hospital to Alecto Healthcare Services Fairmont LLC has been approved in federal bankruptcy court for the amount of $15.3 million. Garrison said he and his client are very pleased with the outcome and expects the deal to be finalized in the near future.	6/23/14

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Political	Congressman Bill Johnson will be touring the Ohio Coatings plant in Yorkville on Monday. Johnson will also discuss the latest developments at the old Wheeling-Pitt steel mill down the street. The President of Ohio Coatings, the mayor of Yorkville, local labor leaders, and members of the Yorkville council will also be on the tour with Representative Johnson. The old Wheeling-Pitt mill has remained closed since Esmark bought it in October of 2012.	4/19/14
Healthcare	In Marshall County, new signs are going up in several outdoor public areas that aim to help kids, but benefit everyone. Last year, Glen Dale Mayor David Blazer signed a tobacco free policy that prohibits the use of any form of tobacco at any city-owned recreational facility. Today Mayor Blazer held that signed copy with pride as he and representatives from the Marshall County Health Department and American Lung Association put up the first sign of many beginning here at Glen Dale park.	4/30/14
Crime	It's a case so disturbing that even the judge called the defendant "disgusting." In fact, 7 News has learned that no attorney in Belmont County would take Richard Hart's case. And now, the man charged with ten counts of the rape of a child pleads guilty to some of those counts. Judge Frank Fregiato sentenced Hart to the maximum 25 year in prison.	5/13/14
Crime	Authorities say the man that escaped from an Ohio Jail is still at large. Police are asking for your help to find 35 year old Bud Allen Cobb. Cobb escaped from the Guernsey County Jail at 8:30 this morning. Jail records show Cobb was being held on robbery and arson charges. He also has a history of drug charges. The sheriff's office says Cobb has multiple tattoos on his neck and face.	5/24/14
Education	Today 15 high school students from Ohio, Marshall, and Belmont counties were recognized today for their efforts against bullying. Bordas and Bordas honored the students at the Wheeling office as 2014 anti-bully ambassadors. Students were nominated by peers, faculty and the community. Jim Bordas says "It is not the best athlete or the best academic that needs recognized and while many of these students are those as well, sometimes you simply need to recognize good kids for doing the right thing."	6/3/14
Economy	We are learning tonight by the end of the month anyone interested in buying the Ormet Plant will have to submit a bid within the next few weeks. Sources tell us June 24th is the date a bid has to be submitted for the plant, equipment, and land. It's unclear when a decision will be made. We have this statement from Tony Montana of the United Steelworkers who says they are prepared to work with any party that is willing to resume operations at the smelter. You may recall Wayzata Investment Partners wanted to buy the Ormet plant if the company could get a reduced electric rate from AEP. But Ormet didn't get the relief they asked for from the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio and the plant shut down in October.	6/13/14

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Economy	One of the Valley's largest coal producers has filed a lawsuit against the U.S. EPA and the Obama administration's new climate rules. In a press release from Murray Energy, the new rules are called illegal, irrational, and destructive regulations for existing coal fired power plants. The release goes on to say the new regulations will destroy millions of jobs, cripple the American economy, and cause a massive blackout in our country.	6/18/14
Education	The massive renovation project at John Marshall High School is well under way, and you can see the progress if you just drive along route 2 in Glen Dale. Crews are going to be working all summer to get some of the phases ready for this fall. One of the major changes is a new entrance, now that the old white bridge is torn down, and a more secure entrance will be put in. A brand new, covered connector will join the buildings on the north end, and they're adding completely new windows throughout the entire school, along with an new cafeteria, science labs and bathrooms.	6/23/14

Crime	We're learning Matthew Belardine the former Steubenville High School Volunteer Football Coach, indicted by the special grand jury investigating the Steubenville rape case, is expected to enter a guilty plea on April 22 nd in Jefferson County Common Pleas Court. Belardine is facing four misdemeanor counts including allowing an underage person to consume beer or liquor, obstructing official business, falsification and contributing to the unruliness or delinquency of a child.	4/2/14
Economy	It's been a busy day for local tax professionals. We stopped by the H&R Block in Moundsville where they've seen over 50 customers today. They work to make sure an accurate tax return is provided and even complete an extension for customers who need it. Office Manager Amanda Truex says a lot of people who came in today felt anxious and stressed out, and offers some last minute advice for procrastinators.	4/14/14
Economy	Cloud 9 Salon had it's Grand Opening today packed with supporters. The salon now features more hair styling chairs, pedicure and manicure stations, spray tanning and make-up artists. The open house was a huge hit with live music, delicious food and drinks. Mayor Riethmiller was also there to show his gratitude for what these ladies have done for the town.	4/26/14
Economy	Free Comic Book Day is the first Saturday in May each year. This is the day that participating comic book shops across North America, and around the world, give away comic books absolutely free. This offer is good for anyone who comes in the comic book stores. We got to talk to a local shop that participated this year, and workers for the Hobby Shop in Bridgeport, say they couldn't keep their comics on their shelves.	5/4/14

Healthcare	As the summer season approaches, many counties in our area have plans to stage Relay for Life events sponsored by the American Cancer Society. In Moundsville, at Bob's Lunch, the Co-workers for a Cure team served tables as part of their fundraising efforts. Funds raised through Relay for Life go towards cancer research. Marshall County's Relay for Life will take place on June 13 th at Monarch Stadium.	5/14/14
Crime	Ohio Attorney General Mike DeWine and Steubenville Police Chief William McCafferty say more than $1.5 million was seized after authorities served multiple search warrants in the Steubenville area. The warrants were served Friday in connection with an illegal gambling investigation being conducted by authorities with the Attorney General's Bureau of Criminal Investigation and the Steubenville Police Department.	5/20/14
Economy	Some good news this evening, for about 200 of the more than 1,000 employed by Ormet. A meeting was held this evening at the USW union hall, in Clarington, for the laid-off Ormet workers. The purpose of the meeting is to inform workers how to go about receiving any pension benefits they are eligible for. These former workers heard from representatives from the Ohio State Department Job and Family Services as well as union leaders.	5/27/14
Education	It's been nearly half a century since someone other than Al de Jaager took the reigns of the West Liberty University Choruses. The long time conductor retired following this past semester. We sat down with de Jaager today to look back on what so many would call, an amazing career.	6/1/14
Political	Benwood's City Council has scheduled a June 9 hearing on an election contest by a councilman whose name was left off the ballot. Curtis Mele was unopposed in his bid for a third term in the May 13 election. Due to a clerical error, another councilman was listed as the candidate in his district. Mele filed a contest of the election results with the city last week. Council must now decide whether a problem occurred during the election. If they determine there was a problem, they must then decide what remedy is warranted.	6/2/14
Political	Ohio Governor John Kasich signed so many bills this week that it was difficult to keep track. Some, he even signed twice just for show. The pile of legislation landed on the Republican governor's desk after a flurry of legislative activity that preceded the summer break. Kasich signed 27 bills in all, including six midterm budget bills that included tax cuts, graduation and testing requirement changes, and a host of other new policies. He issued three line-item vetoes.	6/21/14

60 MINUTES

04/06/14

"3 Years Later" – a report on the aftermath of the March 11, 2011 earthquake and tsunami in Fukushima, Japan which caused a nuclear accident at the Fukushima-Daiichi nuclear power plant, generating a radiation crisis in the surrounding areas, now uninhabitable. The report focuses on the town of Okuma, where Norio Kimura is still searching for the remains of his seven-year-old daughter, Yuna Kimura. Cleanup is estimated to take thirty to forty years. Includes interviews with Norio Kimura and his mother, Tomeo Kimura (through translator), former Okuma residents; Yoichi Funabashi, chairman of the Rebuild Japan Initiative Foundation and Lake Barrett, nuclear engineer. Also includes comments by various unidentified children who used to live in Okuma. (C: Bob Simon – P: David Schneider) (See also: "Catastrophe", OAD: 03/20/11)

"The Health Wagon" – a report on nurse practitioners who are providing healthcare to the uninsured working poor in Appalachia, specifically six counties in southwestern Virginia. These patients are unable to pay for the Affordable Care Act (Obamacare), but are overqualified for Medicaid. The Health Wagon, which runs mostly on federal grants and corporate and private donations, is their only viable option. Includes interviews with nurse practitioners aboard the Health Wagon: Teresa Gardner and Paula Meade; Dr. Joe Smiddy, a lung specialist and the Health Wagon's volunteer medical director; and patients Glenda Moore (who died 3 months after the interview), Sissy Cantrell, Brittany Phipps and Walter Laney. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Henry Schuster, Rachael Kun Morehouse)

"Discovered" – a report on the billion-dollar missing art trove German authorities discovered in the apartment of Cornelius Gurlitt, the son of Hildebrand Gurlitt, one of Adolf Hitler's leading art dealers. Most of the collection was stolen from museums and Jewish collectors during World War II, leading to a legal battle over who has the rights to the art now. Includes interviews with Ekkehart Gurlitt, Cornelius Gurlitt's cousin; Willi Korte, a lawyer who specializes in tracking down stolen art; Vanessa Voight, art historian; Martha Hinrichsen and David Toren, each of whom had family members whose paintings were confiscated by the Nazis; Hannes Hartung and Tido Park, lawyers who have represented Cornelius Gurlitt; Ingrid Berggreen-Merkel, leader of a task force examining art works potentially looted from Jews and Uwe Hartman, chief researcher of the task force. (C: Morley Safer – P: Katy Textor)

The Mail – selected viewer comments about the segment "Rigged" (OAD: 03/30/14)

04/13/14

"Pope Francis" – a report on the 266th Pope of the Catholic Church, Cardinal Jorge Mario Bergoglio of Buenos Aires, Argentina, and how his actions are restoring faith for Roman Catholics in his first year in the Vatican. The Pope's closest friends describe a pontiff who is surprising the world by spurning tradition. Includes interviews with: Robert Mickens, journalist for The Tablet; Elisabetta Pique, friend and Argentinean journalist; Abraham Skorka, friend and Argentinian Rabbi; Cardinal Gerald Lacroix, newly appointed Cardinal by Pope Francis; and President Barack Obama. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Nicole Young) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT

"Hometown Favorite" – a report on Boston area-native Shalane Flanagan, a top-flight, Nike sponsored, long distance runner with boosted motivation to win the Boston Marathon this year after the bombings at last year's race. Flanagan lives in Portland, Oregon but travels to Boston to train along the route of the race and has a real chance of winning the twenty-six-mile competition after placing fourth last year. Includes interviews with Shalane Flanagan, runner; William Evans, Boston police commissioner; Tom Grilk, executive director of the Boston Athletic Association and Jerry Schumacher, Flanagan's running coach. (C: Anderson Cooper – P: Coleman Cowan)

48 HOURS

04/05/14

48 HOURS: "Wounded by Love" - an investigation into the death of Phillip Peatross, who was shot in the bedroom of his girlfriend, Caryn Kelley. Kelley claimed Peatross shot himself, but the police suspected foul play. After a night of drinking and arguing, Peatross left Kelley's Orlando, Florida home. Later that night, Kelley, believing an intruder had gained access to her home, drew her gun. She then realized the "intruder" was actually Peatross. Kelley says there was a struggle for the gun, with Peatross telling her "I'm not going to live my life without you," and then he shot himself. He was dead at the scene. Police were initially leery of Kelley's story and interviewed her on cell phone video immediately following the shooting. This video became important to the case when police claimed that she changed her version of what happened days later. Famed Orlando Chief Medical Examiner and reality show star Dr. Jan Garavaglia also had doubts about Kelley's version of events. Kelley was arrested and charged with Peatross' murder. Secrets then came to light regarding Peatross: he was still married, which was one of the reasons a previous girlfriend had left him, something Caryn Kelley was unaware of. Throughout her ordeal, Kelley always said that Peatross was responsible for his own death. In May 2013, the trial began, with prosecutors using what they said were Kelley's different stories, along with autopsy findings to build their case. Kelly's lawyer was able to use the cell phone video and differing forensic opinions to Kelly's advantage, and she was found not guilty. On-screen text graphic: Caryn Kelly's gun was legal in Florida. The State does not require gun owners to register firearms. Interviewed: Caryn Kelly; Tamara Lawton, former girlfriend of Phillip Peatross; Diana Tennis, Kelley's defense attorney; Dr. Jan Garavaglia, Orlando Chief Medical Examiner; and Matt Conway, forensic scientist, Florida Department of Law Enforcement. 04/12/14

48 HOURS: "Power and Passion" (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the investigation into the death of Alabama real estate agent Angel Downs, who was found dead from a gunshot wound to the head, by her own weapon, outside her Gulf Shores, Alabama condo in 2010. At the time of her death, she was involved with Stephen Nodine, a well-liked Alabama politician with connections in Washington D.C. Though married and the father of a young son, Nodine dated Downs for six years. Friends and family say Angel wanted him to get a divorce, but he refused to give up his double life. On the night of her death, Nodine says he dropped Downs off, and then left to go back to his wife. Within two weeks, Stephen Nodine was indicted for murder and arrested. The timing raised eyebrows, because District Attorney Judy Newcomb was up for re-election, something which Nodine's attorney says was an opportunity to have some high-profile prosecution immediately before the election. Nodine's problems multiplied: he was charged with a violation of the seldom-used federal statute which prohibits drug users from using guns. Much of the evidence in the case was circumstantial, including alleged stalking and beatings, and a previous suicide attempt by Downs. Even the state's own Medical Examiner Eugene Hart could not settle on the circumstances of death. He called it inconclusive. The Georgia State Medical Examiner was called in; he deemed Downs' death a homicide. Jurors deliberated and a mistrial was declared. Stephen Nodine was a free man for four months; he agreed to plead guilty to the federal gun charge -- possessing a gun while using drugs. After convening a new grand jury, the new District Attorney Hallie Dixon, made the decision that Nodine not be charged again with murder. The family then went over Dixon's head and demanded a Special Prosecutor. Nodine was to be retried for murder. Surprisingly, there was a plea deal and an admission -- the prosecutors did not have proof beyond a reasonable doubt in the case. The state of Alabama dropped the murder and stalking charges. Nodine pled guilty to perjury for lying on a legal form. He also agreed to plead no contest to a charge that he harassed Angel Downs with e-mails and text messages. On Screen Text Graphic: Stephen Nodine is prohibited from having any contact with the family of Angel Downs. After serving his two year sentence, Nodine will be on supervised probation for three years. He says he has no plan to seek public office. Updated 04/12/14 On Screen Text Graphic: Stephen Nodine's wife divorced him in 2010. Nodine lost his work release privileges because he didn't follow the rules of the program. Nodine's two year jail term will end in October 2014. He'll be on supervised probation for three years. Interviewed: Stephen Nodine; Angel Downs' younger sister, Susan Bloodworth, and her mother, Thelma Hinckley; retired Sheriff of Mobile County, Jack Tillman; Angel Downs' best friends Emily Simmons and Kayla King Donald; neighbor Roger Whitehead; neighbor/nurse Ann Myers; Nodine's attorney Denis Knizley; former District Attorney Judy Newcomb; newly-elected District Attorney Hallie Dixon; and Special Prosecutor David Whetstone. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 04/12/14 48 HOURS: "Father and Son" (10:00-11:00p) - a report about the 2011 death of Uta Von Schwedler. Her son, Pelle Wall, believes that his father, pediatrician Dr. Johnny Wall, may have been responsible for her drowning death. Von Schwedler, a university research scientist, was found in the bathtub of her Salt Lake City, Utah, home by her then-boyfriend, Nils Abramson. When the autopsy report was released, the cause of death was stated as drowning, but the manner of her death was listed as "undetermined", leaving open the possibility of suicide. Her son, Pelle Wall, believed it was murder and was determined to prove his father was responsible. Investigation revealed long-standing issues between Von Schwedler and Wall, many existing before their 2006 divorce -- involving affairs, allegations of abuse and lingering anger. Pelle Wall, who lived at the time with his father and siblings, was determined to get people to believe him and risked everything, including his relationship with his father and future financial security, by filing a wrongful death suit against his father. Police and prosecutors became interested and the state now believes there was probable cause for murder. Dr. Johnny Wall is awaiting trial. On Screen Text Graphic: Johnny Wall is expected to stand trial for murder by the end of 2014. Tomorrow, April 13th, is Uta Von Schwedler's birthday. She would have been fifty-two years old. Interviewed: Pelle Wall; family friend Klaus Fiebig; Heidi Schubert and Orly Ardon, friends of Uta Von Schwedler; Johnny Wall's sister, Wendy Wall; defense attorneys Howard Lundgren and Fred Metos; Margaret Olson, family friend; Nils Abramson, Von Schwedler's boyfriend; Amy Oglesby, Pelle Wall's family friend; and Assistant Medical Examiner Dr. Erik D. Christensen. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Josh Gelman, Avi Cohen and Bill Kerig)
- 04/19/14 48 HOURS: "Decades of Deceit" - a report on the investigation into the 1989 murder of 16-year-old Amy Weidner, a young mother who was beaten, sexually assaulted and killed in the bedroom of her Indianapolis, Indiana home while she and Emily, her 2-year-old daughter, were home alone. Even though there was a bloody handprint on the bedroom wall, none of the leads led to an arrest and the case grew cold. In 2011, in response to a newspaper article about the case, the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Cold Case Unit called upon Detective Sgt. William Carter, a nuisance abatement officer, to help them to print pages from the "Remembering Amy Weidner" Facebook page. Carter became obsessed with the case, and on his own time, found a lead others had missed. After 24 years, this led to the eventual arrest of someone the family was familiar with: Rodney Denk. In 2012, Denk accepted a plea bargain and pled guilty to the murder and rape of Amy Weidner during a robbery gone bad. On-Screen Text Graphic: In January 2014, Bill Carter received the Indianapolis Police Department Award of Merit. Carter was offered the opportunity to join the homicide unit. He has decided to remain a nuisance abatement officer. On his own time, he is looking into another cold case of a murdered nineteen-year-old woman. Interviewed: Emily Weidner (daughter); Gloria Weidner (mother); Cassie Gardner (sister); Taunya Strauss (sister); John-Paul Weidner (brother); Jody George, (Weidner's teacher); Amy Somers, Angie Moore, and Joy Haney (Weidner's friends); Captain Jack Geilker, (former Indianapolis Police Department member, now with the Marion County Sheriff's Office); Lt. Roger Spurgeon (Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department Cold Case Unit); Detective Sgt. William Carter; and Bruce Kuegel (Kentucky Commonwealth Attorney) (C: Troy Roberts - P: Ruth Chenetz)

04/26/14 48 HOURS: "Dangerous Beauty" - a report on the 2003 murder of Russel Douglas on Whidbey Island, Washington, and how the investigation led to the involvement of Peggy Sue Thomas, a one-time Washington beauty queen-turned-high-end limo driver. The investigation determined Douglas' marriage was in trouble, his wife Brenna was in debt, and that Thomas had once worked with Brenna. The case went cold until a tipster called police from Florida, saying that his friend and former bandmate, Jim Huden, who was also from Whidbey Island, had admitted to him that he killed Douglas and that Huden's then-girlfriend, Betty Sue Thomas, was also involved. Huden disappeared in 2004, and it was eventually discovered that Huden's wife, Jean Huden, had helped him to get out of the country. In the meantime, Betty Sue Thomas married Mark Allen, a multi-millionaire oilman and thoroughbred horse owner. The marriage was over in seven months with Thomas becoming a wealthy woman. By 2011, Jean Huden's life eventually fell apart, and she began cooperating with investigators. Jim Huden was arrested in Mexico, returned to the U.S., stood trial and was found guilty of murder. Betty Sue Thomas was also arrested. Just weeks before the trial was about to begin, Thomas was offered and accepted a plea deal on a reduced charge of rendering criminal assistance. She still claims she is innocent, but she wouldn't have gotten a fair trial. On-Screen Text Graphic: Under the terms of her plea deal, even if additional evidence is uncovered, Peggy Sue Thomas cannot be charged with murder. Peggy Sue Thomas is eligible for parole on August 12, 2016. Jim and Jean Huden are still legally married. They have not spoken in years. Interviewed: Betty Sue Thomas; Mark Plumberg, lead investigator; Vicky Boyer, Thomas' former friend; Greg Banks, Island County prosecutor; Bill Hill and Jean Huden, informants; Jorge Mabarak, friend of Jim Huden's and CBS News Consultant; Mark Allen, Thomas' former husband; Craig Platt, Thomas' defense attorney; and Brenna Douglas. CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL

04/13/14 "A New Calling" - an interfaith special that explores the motivation behind why some mature adults decide to leave successful secular careers and choose instead to work in their respective Christian, Jewish or Muslim faiths. This program highlights the choices made by four individuals who made the successful move into the world of religion. (1) Mike McCurry, best known as the former press secretary to President Bill Clinton in the mid-1990s, discusses his time in the White House and what led him to attend Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C., where he now teaches a course in religion and politics. (2) Cathy Abbott was a successful energy executive whose career brought her to the upper echelons of management at the Enron Corporation, among other corporations. Abbott shares what led her to, in 2003, to enter the Wesley Theological Seminary. She went on to serve as pastor for seven years at Arlington Temple United Methodist Church in Roslyn, VA. Currently, she is the Arlington District Superintendent for the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church. (3) Samsiah Abdul Majid recently retired from the United Nations after more than thirty years as a public information officer and human resources manager. Originally from Malaysia, Majid is a practicing Muslim who attends the Hartford Seminary in Connecticut. While fulfilling a hospital chaplaincy requirement, she decided to pursue a second career as an Islamic chaplain and will graduate in May. Also includes comments from: Heidi Hadsell, Ph.D., President, Hartford Seminary; and Feryal Salem, Ph.D., Co-Director, Islamic Chaplaincy Program, Hartford Seminary. (4) David Daniel Klipper, a former investment banker, explains his decision to leave behind a lucrative Wall Street career for one in hospital chaplaincy. He is now a rabbinic pastor and supervisor of Stamford Hospital's clinical pastoral education program in Connecticut. (Narrator: Ted Holmes. Producer & Writer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Pilar Belendez-DeSha. Director & Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. Produced in consultation with: National Council of Churches; The Islamic Society of North America; New York Board of Rabbis; A Consortium of Roman Catholic Organizations.)
