ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Education	A free educational program will be held later today for those interested in learning more about oil and gas leases. The West Virginia University Extension Service is presenting Understanding Renegotiation and Renewal of Natural Gas Leases at West Virginia Northern Community College.	7/22/14
Education	For the first time in school board history, Ohio County has selected a vice-president to serve on the board. In a special meeting yesterday, Gary Kestner was named the new Vice-President. Kestner has been employed with the district for the last 27 years. He started out as a mechanic working in the bus garage, then a driver for 19 years before becoming the director of transportation. Kestner was elected to the board of education two years ago. He says the goal is to provide students with the best opportunities to achieve and to get more public participation during their meetings.	7/30/14
Political	The city of Wheeling is looking into an idea other cities in West Virginia have already adopted. It's a user fee that would keep the city on a balanced budget and keep some city jobs. Wheeling City Councilman, Ken Imer, is the one suggesting the idea of a new tax that would help to save jobs in the Friendly City. The fee would affect every person who works within the city, you'd be responsible for paying a set dollar amount each week, that amount usually totals about $2 or $3 and could cost you about $144 annually.	8/7/14
Economy	Counties right here in the Northern Panhandle could see spin off benefits from this huge development. Consol Energy is constructing as part of a 1 billion dollar investment being made in the Pittsburgh region. President and CEO of Consol Energy Nick Deluliis says that all of this money that is being invested will create a downstream effect for all of the neighboring areas including counties in the upper Ohio Valley. From restaurants to hotels to specialty services for drilling production, the northern panhandle could soon be seeing another huge boom in business.	8/25/14
Healthcare	Taking a look across the Mountain State right now where four confirmed cases of Enterovirus EV-D68 are now being reported according to the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources. West Virginia is not the 23 rd state known to have the virus circulating. So far the virus has caused a total of 160 people to become ill. Symptoms may include fever, runny nose, sneezing, cough, and body and muscle aches.	9/23/14

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Economy	A local restaurant is celebrating 20 years in business. The First Ward Restaurant in Martins Ferry will officially be open for 20 years tomorrow. They're celebrating all day long, starting at 7am with a buy one get one free breakfast special that runs through 11am. They'll also have raffles and music for customers to enjoy.	7/11/14
Political	Congresswoman Shelly Moore Capito will be visiting a local business this morning to congratulate them on their Presidential award. U.S. Secretary of Commerce Penny Pritzker presented Wheeling Truck Center with the President's "E" Award for Exports at a ceremony in Washington, D.C. a couple months ago.	8/5/14
Crime	The man wanted in connection with a robbery that took place on Wheeling Island in early April is expected to have a pre-trial hearing today. 19 year old Treyvon Montgomery is charged with the felony offense of Robbery in the First Degree and conspiracy. The incident happened on Maryland Street on April 4 th . Montgomery will appear before Ohio County Judge Sims later today. We will continue to keep you updated.	8/20/14
Education	West Liberty University now has a new masters degree program, Masters of Professional studies with two courses of study, Organizational Leadership and Justice Leadership. The university says the new graduate courses have been developed with the working adult in mind. The faculty and staff understands completing higher education is important to many of you, and they also know most of us have to work too, that's why they have developed a more non-traditional schedule to make getting your education that much easier.	9/8/14
Economy	WTRF is holding an Ohio Valley Job and Career Fair. It takes place next week on September 25 th at WesBanco Arena in Wheeling. It's an excellent opportunity for employers to meet people looking for work. But first impressions are critical. DK Wright went to the experts for a look at how to dress for the best result at the job fair.	9/19/14

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Political	Representative David McKinley made his first stop of the day in the northern panhandle of the state as he met with elected officials in Wellsburg. McKinley has always worked for rural America and makes stops such as this one to hear what's going on in smaller towns like Wellsburg. During the meeting, the issue of the city struggling to pay for sewage and water line separation was brought up. McKinley says he will work to get grants to help the city pay for the high cost.	7/3/14
Economy	Wheeling Council members and concerned residents were back in chambers once again today, as proposed budget cuts for the city were talked about. The Wheeling Fire and Police Department were asked to present alternative options today instead of cutting positions. One option presented, was to raise sales tax and another was to think about future royalties coming in from oil and gas. But the biggest point that came out of today's meeting was the importance of coming together.	7/16/14
Healthcare	Patients of one Ohio Valley pain clinic are being urged to go to their primary care doctors as soon as possible. State Health officials in both Ohio and West Virginia say that Valley Pain Management Clinic in McMechen may have exposed patients to HIV and Hepatitis B and C.	7/21/14
Crime	Police in Belmont County warn drivers to not allow yourself to be pulled over by anyone who is not a police officer, and is not in a cruiser. Sheriff Dave Lucas says a woman driving on State Route 148 in the Captina area saw a flashing red light behind her and pulled over. It turns out it was a man in a ski mask, who started walking toward her. She quickly pulled away. The sheriff says the man was driving a white extended cab pickup truck.	8/6/14
Crime	In Jefferson County 65 year old Stanley Rusnak of Cleveland entered not guilty pleas to 3 counts of murder. Rusnak is believed to have murdered his uncle, James Kelsie Noble, and Noble's sister-in-law and caretaker, Sophie Groch Bell during a home invasion in Piney Fork back in 1975. Rusnak is also believed to have murdered Robert Scott in 1977. Scott's body has never been found, however authorities at the time did find evidence of a home invasion and homicide at Scott's residence in Rayland.	8/13/14
Education	Negotiations between a local school district and its employees continued today despite the school board offering to put more money on the table. Buckeye Local Superintendent Mark Miller says the school board and the Ohio Association of Public School Employees union met again last night to see if there is any agreement the parties can come to before school starts. Miller says all 5 board members agreed verbally to offer the union more money. OAPSE needs to vote on it though. Miller says school will carry on as normal on the 27 th despite the possible strike on the 25 th .	8/15/14

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Economy	We have learned a Delaware bankruptcy judge gave Ormet approval this week to sell mineral rights to Triad Hunter. It is a $22 million dollar private sale. U.S. Bankruptcy Judge Mary Walrath said she would sign a sale of order. No one is confirming a sale date for the plant or for the sale of mineral rights.	7/2/14
Education	It's a subject full of strong opinions and skepticism across the Ohio Valley, but one local company is working to educate the public on it, and they're starting with our youth. Today at Moundsville Middle School, Williams Energy held a class to teach these kids about the booming energy industries in the area. With so many heated opinions, Williams thought it would be a good idea to help them learn more about the industry and give them an opportunity to make their own decisions.	7/9/14
Political	We've all seen demonstrations and commercials on the latest technology, but one local county saw through the glamour, and decided to wait for something more affordable. Earlier today Marshall County Clerk, Jan Pest presented what they thought would be her proposal for new electronic polling machines that would be tablets hooked to a printer. Even the price of the tablets and equipment was affordable, but they were asking for an annual licensing fee which was a deal breaker.	7/15/14
Education/Healthcare	The National Institutes of Health has awarded more than $1 million dollars to Wheeling Jesuit University to develop an education program that uses simulated pandemic flu outbreaks to teach high school students about biology. The project is called Pandem-Sim: Saving the World with Biology.	7/17/14

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Healthcare/Education	Many residents and their kids are getting ready for the next school year by getting supplies, new clothes and of course, vaccinations. Students of all ages are required by law to get their shots which vary depending on their age. Medical facilities are filling up already with students and their parents. Marshall County Health Department Administrator Ronda Frances says, the sooner you come in , the faster and easier it will be to get these dreaded shots over with.	7/28/14
Economy	Developing news for the tri-state area, a company is planning a $1.75 billion project that includes laying 160 miles of natural gas pipeline in West Virginia and Ohio. Columbia Pipeline Group says the proposal would help transport up to 1.5 billion cubic feet per day of natural gas. Columbia expects to start construction in fall 2016 before putting the pipeline in service in the second half of 2017. It will support natural gas development in western Pennsylvania, northern West Virginia and eastern Ohio.	8/12/14
Crime	Taking you to Jefferson County, where heroin, cash, 2 bullet proof vests, a handgun and ammunition all seized at a home in Steubenville as a result of a drug bust. Around 7 last night, officers from the Jefferson County Drug Task Force, Jefferson County Special Response Team and the Steubenville Police Department conducted a search warrant at 729 Kendall Avenue. Officers arrested Robert Lee Miller and John Nellum. Miller is facing two counts of trafficking in drugs and Nellum is facing one count of possession of heroin, more charges could be filed.	8/27/14
Political	A federal judge has blocked an Ohio law trimming early voting and ordered the state's elections chief to set an expanded voting schedule. The ruling comes in a lawsuit filed by civil rights groups and others, challenging two early voting measures. One is a directive setting uniform voting times that restricted weekend and evening hours. Another is a law that eliminates a so-called "golden week" where people could both register to vote and cast ballots. Under the judge's order, early voting would begin Sept. 30.	9/4/14
Healthcare	The West Nile virus is sparking new concern following the death of a 66 year old Northern Ohio woman who contracted the mosquito-borne disease. Ohio County Health Department Administrator Howard Gamble says there is no vaccine for the West Nile virus. He advises eliminating standing water, using protectant and wearing long sleeves and pants avoid being bitten. The CDC reports as of September 16 of this year there are 725 cases of the West Nile Virus disease across the nation.	9/22/14
Education	One local college received some good news today, Congressman Bill Johnson announced that Eastern Gateway Community College will receive a grant from the Department of Labor. The grant will be worth almost 2.5 million dollars. Eastern Gateway will be able to develop a new manufacturing training center. This grant program has helped 1,060 colleges in the last 4 years.	9/29/14

Education	West Virginia officials are introducing the state's next schools superintendent. It happened this afternoon during a news conference with the West Virginia Board of Education and Governor Earl Ray Tomblin. Michael Martirano comes from Maryland, where he has served as a teacher, principal, and district superintendent. He says he wants to bring the best to West Virginia.	7/8/14
Crime	82-year-old Theodore Newlon is accused of shooting his wife Dora Newlon in 2012. Prosecutors say a judge has set a date for August 7 to hear from experts about whether Newlon is criminally responsible. Once that's been determined a trial date will be scheduled.	7/17/14
Healthcare	The West Virginia Board of Medicine says a Martinsburg doctor isn't qualified to practice medicine. The complaint accuses Dr. Tressie Montene Duffy, pre-signed prescription pads and directed non-physician staff to prescribe controlled substances while she wasn't in the office. They also say she dispensed prescription medication without being registered as a dispensing physician. Dr. Duffy denies any wrong-doing. A hearing is set for November 17 th .	8/13/14
Education	Another WVU Student is getting ready for a different kind of contest. Saira Blair is an 18 year old freshman. The Martinsburg native announced in July 2013 that she's running for the West Virginia House of Delegates for District 59. Blair beat the incumbent republican candidate in May. We talked with Blair today, and she told us that in high school, she participated in the Youth in Government program which made her believe age is nothing but a number.	9/2/14
Political	The State Department of Environmental Protection has created three classifications for aboveground storage tanks. Each class will require different inspections, under the new law, passed after the chemical leak and water crisis earlier this year. Governor Tomblin issued a statement. In it two important deadlines. First, tanks still have to be registered by October 1. And it creates a risk assessment scale that still requires all tanks in critical concern areas to be professionally inspected and certified by the Jan. 1 deadline.	9/9/14
Healthcare	In Morgantown, leaders just finished breaking ground on a big new project at the WVU Children's Hospital. The hospital is expanding its walls to meet the growing needs for community. The project will take some time to finish. We'll keep you posted on how things are going.	9/15/14
Economy	About 300 vendors have signed up for the fourth annual West Virginia Oil & Gas Expo. It's this Wednesday at Mylan Park's Expo Center in Morgantown. If you're planning to go, maybe look for a job, you will need to sign up in advance.	9/29/14

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Healthcare	In Belmont County, a mental facility for young people has a new owner, and an expanded mission. New Horizon and North Point will now be part of the Village Network. And kids will have an even better chance at recovery and transition back to family life.	7/1/14
Political	Residents of Weirton's Ward 1 have new representation on city council. Bill Zanieski is now the newest council person after being named to the position this evening at the regularly scheduled council meeting. Zanieski replaces Ronnie Jones as Ward 1 councilman who resigned from the position last month.	7/7/14
Crime	The Weirton Police were able to track down a man that has been on the run from police in Columbus. Weirton Police found 33 year old Paul Elswick after they received a tip that he was in the area. Elswick was wanted for the sexual assault of a 13 year old in the Columbus area. Authorities say Elswick has a lengthy arrest record and is considered violent. Officers tracked him down on Heather-Moore Drive.	7/23/14
Healthcare	West Virginia is receiving nearly $1 million in federal funding for mental health services. US Secretary of Health and Human Services Sylvia Burwell said the money will help support four health centers in the state to establish or expand behavioral health services. Officials say the new funds will help nearly 29,000 people in West Virginia. Health centers will use the money for efforts such as hiring new mental health professionals and adding mental health and substance use disorder health services.	8/2/14
Crime	New developments in a case we have been following out of Ohio County. Chad Kendle pled guilty to one felony count of child abuse resulting in serious bodily injury. Kendle could face a maximum of 2 to 20 years in a state prison. He appeared before Judge James Mazzone and admitted to shaking a young child causing injury to the child's neck and head. Kendle will have to register with the National Child Abuse Registry upon his release. A sentencing hearing is set for August 26 th .	8/11/14
Political	Former Massachusetts Governor Mitt Romney made a stop in the Mountain State today. He stopped by to endorse several West Virginia Republican candidates. The "working for West Virginia Jobs" Rally was held this afternoon in Beckley at Tamarack in Ballroom A. While he was there Romney endorsed Shelly Moore Capito, Evan Jenkins, and Alex Mooney in their bids for office, but also criticized the Obama Administration.	8/19/14
Crime	Martins Ferry Police are still investigating, after a robbery late yesterday morning around 11:30. The robbery happened on Washington Street in Martins Ferry. The victim tells 7 News that two men came into his home, held a knife to his throat and took his money. The victim says he thought the men who robbed him, were his friends, and he was going to lend them some money, but instead, they took advantage of him. He said more than anything, he is hurt by the suspects' betrayal, and has full faith that the Martins Ferry Police Department will find and arrest them.	8/31/14

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Political	Your vote 2014 tonight, where Republican Congressman David McKinley was in the Northern Panhandle today fielding questions from some of the younger voters in the area. McKinley was at Brooke High School where a group of about 10 students had the chance to sit down and ask him a number of questions, pertaining to the business climate, immigration, and food programs for students. It even gave some of these students ideas about their future.	9/3/14
Economy	A city in Belmont County will soon add more than 1.6 million dollars to its budget, as a result of the natural oil and gas industry. St. Clairsville Mayor Bob Vincenzo signed a lease with Rice Energy for 196 acres of property owned by the city. Mayor Vincenzo says the top priority will be to pay off the city's outstanding debts. After production is underway, the city will receive twenty percent royalties from the company throughout the duration of the lease contract.	9/16/14
Crime	A man is in a local hospital under round-the-clock guard, and when he gets out, he'll go straight to the Belmont County Jail. It all happened in a routine traffic stop, where deputies found 7 thousand dollars, 81 grams of heroin, cocaine and crack, and 7 cell phones. Deputies pulled over a pickup truck for a traffic stop at the top of Blaine Hill last night. The driver was not cooperative and deputies found he was on federal parole.	9/26/14

Healthcare	Medical students from all over the country are making their way to the Ohio Valley to conduct their residencies at some of our hospitals. Many of them say they never thought they'd end up practicing medicine in the Mountain State, but once they got here they fell in love with the scenery and the intensive education provided by our local hospitals.	7/10/14
Education	Some good news tonight for a Wheeling Park Senior. Alison Irvin was recognized in front of those present at the Ohio County School Board meeting for placing seventh in the nation in a prepared speech contest she participated in that took place in Kansas City Missouri. Alison says that it was a great experience, because she got to meet other students from all over the country and she is chasing her dream to be a broadcaster.	7/14/14
Education	The 2014 Italian Festival scholarship winners were announced and honored at the Heritage Port today. There were 14 total winners from 6 surrounding counties, and they each received a commemorative scholarship plaque. The Italian Festival Foundation has awarded more than $265,000 in scholarships since it's inception 32 years ago.	7/26/14

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Political	While Ohio Governor John Kasich was in town for his endorsement from the Ohio Restaurant Association, we caught up with him to ask him about the huge coal rally happening tomorrow in Pittsburgh. Ohio Lieutenant Governor Mary Taylor will be filling in for Kasich as she's joined by West Virginia Governor Earl Ray Tomblin, Attorney General Patrick Morrisey and hundreds of WV Coal Supporters all in favor of keeping the coal industry alive.	7/29/14
Education	West Virginia was ranked the 7 th worst school system in the nation by a WalletHub study. WalletHub looked at 12 key metrics, including test scores, bullying rates, and dropout rates. New Jersey was rated the best school system, while Washington DC had the worst.	8/4/14
Crime	The three suspects in the Jewett home invasion and beating of an elderly man were in court today for their bond hearings. Kara Clark, Autumn Stabile and Bryan Nicosia all appeared before Judge Shawn Hervey. He set bond for Nicosia at $200,000 and $100,000 for Clark and Stabile. Nicosia is charged with aggravated burglary and kidnapping. Clark and Stabile are charged with complicity to aggravated burglary and complicity to kidnapping. Clark is also charged with obstructing justice.	8/18/14
Crime	The suspect wanted for robbing not one, but two Ohio Valley banks at gunpoint is in police custody. Just after 11 a.m. Wheeling police were called to the Wheeling Island Wesbanco where they say the suspect later identified as William McBride Jr. of Columbus had brandished a gun and demanded money. McBride then fled to St. Clairsville where at about 4:45pm police say he robbed the Wesbanco at the Ohio Valley Mall.	8/23/14
Economy	Some good news out of Ohio County that could mean jobs. Right now half a dozen businesses are looking to call the Highlands their new home. Many of the empty spaces you see will soon be disappearing. In their place, hotels, restaurants and so much more.	8/26/14
Economy	Wheeling's Police Chief is looking into some creative ways to address staffing issues now that 11 vacant positions aren't being filled. It's been a few months since the budget cuts in Wheeling were first presented, and if they aren't adjusted, police may need to take a new approach. Wheeling Police Chief Shawn Schwertfeger presented a solution to City Manager Bob Herron about getting more civilian employees to free up officers. He suggested having a citizen at the front desk to answer phones, like many other modern police agencies across the country.	9/2/14

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Education	New details tonight, as we are learning the teacher who pleaded guilty to drug charges earlier this month has been let go from Ohio County Schools. All five board members voted unanimously to let Kristyn Fetcko, a counselor at Ritchie Elementary School, go earlier this evening. Fetcko pleaded guilty to distributing Oxycodone. Ohio County Board of Education President Shane Mallett says this issue is something the board, the teachers and staff, and the community all take very seriously. He says the board was not able to take action until the legal process was concluded.	9/15/14
Healthcare	The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services has awarded nearly 8 million dollars in grants to Ohio to support programs aimed at preventing chronic diseases such as diabetes and heart disease. In total, 7 grants will be handed out. The CDC will administer the grants, which are funded in part by the federal health care law. The money will help boost both state and local programs. Federal health officials say chronic diseases are responsible for 7 out of 10 deaths among Americans each year.	9/28/14

48 HOURS

07/05/14

48 HOURS: "Murder At Sea?" - a rebroadcast of a report on the disappearance of newlywed George Smith, who vanished in 2005 from a cruise ship in the Mediterranean while on his honeymoon, as first reported in "Love Lost" (OAD: 04/08/06) and mentioned in "Dark Voyage" (OAD: 09/23/06). This report uncovers the questionable alibis, failed polygraphs and a provocative video that involves the three men who last saw Smith alive. In the years since Smith went missing, his family has been seeking answers to what happened to him after a night of heavy drinking and gambling in the ship's casino. His disappearance was ruled a likely accident and the case has gone nowhere, despite reports of arguments on the stateroom balcony, furniture being moved and a bloodstain on the overhang of the lifeboats. Mike Jones, an attorney for the Smith family, is now trying to get the case moving again. He has gained access to Royal Caribbean's internal investigation and has learned about the existence of a videotape in the possession of the FBI, which was recorded just hours after Smith went missing by three of the four men to last see Smith alive: cousins Zach Rozenberg and Greg Rozenberg and their friend Rusty Kofman. The other passenger, Josh Askin, is not on the video. Attorneys for Rusty Kofman and Zach Rozenberg have declined to comment. Greg Rozenberg's attorney says his client just made stupid comments. While initially cooperating, Askin's attorney has now told him to take the Fifth Amendment in all questioning. All four men say they had nothing to do with Smith's death but the men are still on the FBI's radar in this cold case. Mike Jones believes that Josh Askin knows what happened. He continues to prod the FBI to re-open the case. On-screen text graphic: The FBI's field office has agreed to review the George Smith case. On-screen text graphic introduction for the 07/05/14 rebroadcast: "9 years ago today George Smith disappeared from his honeymoon cruise. This week, his family announced a $100,000 reward for information leading "to the arrest and conviction of the person (s) responsible." On-screen text graphic for 07/05/14 rebroadcast: Anyone with information should call 1-844-651-1936. Interviewed: George Smith's parents, George Smith III and Maureen Smith; his sister Bree Smith; cruise ship passengers Paul and Galina Kvitnisky; Emilie Rausch; Clete Hyman; Greg and Pat Lawyer; Christian Ruiz; Keith Greer, attorney for Josh Askin; Albert Dayan, attorney for Rusty Kofman; Phil Houston, an expert in detecting deception; Mike Jones, Smith family investigator/attorney. NOTE: In this broadcast, Zach Rozenberg, Greg Rozenberg, and Josh Askin all appear in interrogation videos. They are not specifically interviewed for this report. Rusty Kofman appears saying no comment. 48 HOURS (continued)

07/12/14      48 HOURS: "Death at Soho House" - a report into the death of swimsuit designer Sylvie Cachay and her ties to the son of an Oscar-winning songwriter. Sylvie Cachay was a rising swimsuit designer, working with top companies like Victoria's Secret, before launching her own line of swimwear. In 2010, she was found dead and partially clothed in an overflowing tub at the Soho House in New York City. Police learned Cachay had checked into the hotel with her boyfriend, Nicholas Brooks, the son of troubled Academy Award-winning songwriter Joseph Brooks. Although there was an empty bottle of prescription pills nearby, the on-scene medical examiner found marks on Sylvie's neck that suggested strangulation and the investigation quickly turned to Brooks. He was arrested. At trial, Brooks was found guilty of second degree murder. Through interviews with Cachay's family and friends, a picture of a successful woman with everything to live for is revealed, but one who was also having second thoughts about her much younger boyfriend. Nicholas Brooks' sister, Amanda Brooks, discusses their childhood, how their family was torn apart by divorce and how their father's famous name and his own troubled life brought nothing but notoriety to the case. On-screen text graphic: Nick Brooks is appealing his conviction arguing the jury should have heard his "rough sex" allegation. District Attorney Vance's domestic violence initiative will be fully operational this spring and he expects to help thousands of women each year. On-screen text graphic for the 07/12/14 rebroadcast: On-screen text graphic: Nick Brooks is appealing his conviction arguing the jury should have heard his "rough sex" allegation. 48 HOURS (continued)

07/19/14 48 HOURS: "The Writing on the Wall" (8:00-9:00p) - a report on the investigation into the May 5, 2009 murders of the wife and two children of Christopher Coleman, the security chief for televangelist Joyce Meyer Ministries. In Columbia, Illinois on the morning of May 5, Coleman called his neighbor, police detective Justin Barlow, and asked him to check on his wife, Sheri, and their two young sons, Gavin and Garrett, after his own calls had gone unanswered. In months prior he had made local police aware of explicit death threats he was receiving regarding his involvement in Meyer's ministry. Barlow entered the house that morning through an unlocked basement window and upon entry he found spray-painted messages on the walls, with the phrases "you have paid" and "punished", and when he went upstairs he discovered the bodies of Coleman's family strangled to death in each of their beds. An investigation began and soon after police discovered Coleman was having a serious affair with cocktail waitress Tara Lintz, a high school friend of Sheri's. Sheri's friends came to her defense telling police Sheri said her husband was having an affair and if anything happened to her, Chris did it. Moreover, the crime scene lab found the handwriting on the wall matched up to Coleman's script. Two weeks after the murders police had enough evidence to charge Coleman with first-degree murder of his family. The trial for Coleman began two years later and the prosecution's computer experts discovered the e-mail threats came from Coleman's laptop, and one can of the spray paint used on the walls of his house was purchased at a local hardware store with a computerized signature linked to Coleman. The jury needed more evidence though, and it came from one of the jurors who noticed the date on a picture of Coleman and Lintz kissing which proved Coleman lied to them about when the affair began. After a guilty verdict, the judge sentenced Coleman to life in prison. 48 HOURS MYSTERY spoke to Coleman by phone and he denied planning to divorce Sheri to marry his mistress and said he did not know who murdered his family. On-Screen Text Graphics: Sheri's family is suing Joyce Meyer Ministries. They claim the murders might have been prevented if the Ministries had investigated the threats more seriously. May 5th is the three-year anniversary of the murders of Sheri, Garrett and Gavin Coleman. On-screen text graphics for the 03/30/13 rebroadcast: In December 2012, after a long legal battle with the Colemans, Sheri's family was allowed to rebury Sheri and her sons in a cemetery closer to their home in Chicago. On-screen text graphic for the 07/19/14 rebroadcast: After a long legal battle with the Colemans, Sheri's family was allowed to rebury Sheri and her sons in a cemetery closer to their home in Chicago. 07/19/14 48 HOURS: "A Bad Bet" (10:00-11:00p) - an investigation into the deaths of South Carolina sports bookie Brett Parker's wife, Tammy Parker, and his associate, Bryan Capnerhurst, who Parker claims he shot while Capnerhurst was attempting to rob Parker's safe. Though sports betting in South Carolina is illegal, Brett Parker and his father ran an honest family bookmaking operation that was generally left alone by police. At first police took Parker's story at face value, but as the investigation continued, they discovered a co-worker (Capnerhurst) with financial problems who was demanding money he was owed from Parker, and a marriage not as solid as they were led to believe. Police determined that Capnerhurst was a victim, rather than a killer, and that the adulterous Parker had murdered his wife, in part to collect on a life insurance policy. At trial, he was found guilty on two murder charges and sentenced to two consecutive life sentences with no parole. On Screen Text Graphic: Four months after the murder conviction, Brett Parker and his father Jack were indicted on federal charges of operating an illegal gambling business. Brett Parker was sentenced to two years. His father Jack was sentenced to five months. On-screen text graphic for the 07/19/14 rebroadcast: Four months after the murder conviction, Brett Parker and his father Jack were found guilty on federal charges of operating an illegal gambling business. 07/26/14 48 HOURS: "Honor and Dishonor" (8:00-9:00p) - a report on Sgt. Brent Burke, who was court-martialed for the 2007 murders of Tracy Burke, his estranged wife and his former mother-in-law, Karen Comer. Four civilian trials, with no physical evidence, had already led to three mistrials and a hung jury; but the military decided to move forward with action under the uniform code of military justice. Tracy Burke and Karen Comer were discovered shot to death in Comer's Rineyville, Kentucky home. When it was discovered that Tracy was in the process of going through a divorce, Sgt. Brent Burke was taken into custody and booked for murder. There was little physical evidence and no murder weapon, but during an interview, Eion Burke, a young child of four, said that Sgt. Burke was the killer. When charges were dropped and he was released from jail, Kentucky State Police spoke to the Army and they came to the same conclusion: a case for murder, this time to be tried by the Army's Judge Advocate Generals Corps (JAG) because Burke on active duty at Fort Campbell when the crimes were committed. He would face a court martial trial which is very different from a civilian court trial -- there is always a verdict and never a hung jury. The trial commenced and the JAG prosecution team was able to present physical evidence -- a tiny piece of glass taken off of Burke's coat, which was similar to the shattered glass door at the crime scene. The panel decided that Sgt. Burke was guilty and that he would serve a life sentence without parole. He would also be dishonorably discharged and stripped of his rank. On-screen text graphic for the original and 09/21/13 rebroadcast: Tracy Burke's children visit each other regularly. According to military law, Brent Burke will get an automatic appeal. On-screen text graphic for the 07/26/14 rebroadcast: Tracy Burke's children visit each other regularly. 07/26/14 48 HOURS: "The Last Confession" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on the investigation into the 1960 murder of Irena Garza, in McAllen, Texas, and the efforts family members and police have taken to bring the suspect, a Roman Catholic priest, to trial for the crime. The night before Easter, Irene Garza went to church and disappeared. Five days later she was found dead in a canal. Police said she was sexually assaulted and suffocated. There was one immediate suspect, Father John Feit, the priest who admitted to hearing Garza's confession that night, but who has denied any involvement in the murder. Noemi Ponce Sigler, the original investigator's daughter, says her father was told to step away from the case because a deal had been made between the Church and the police regarding Feit. In 2002, the McAllen Police Department asked the Texas Rangers Cold Case unit to re-examine the murder. The investigation took a dramatic turn when a former monk, Dale Tacheny, told police that Feit admitted to killing a young woman while Tacheny was a counselor at a monastery. Joseph O'Brien, an assistant pastor at the church in 1960 also told investigators that Feit told him that he did it. Despite these new findings, Hidalgo County District Attorney Rene Guerra doesn't believe the case is strong enough to take to court, though he would have prosecuted Feit in 1962 on the charges. Members of the Garza family have pinned their hopes on Ricardo Rodriguez, a candidate for Hidalgo County District Attorney, who has said he would look into the case.
