ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
HEALTH	A wild raccoon has tested positive for rabies in Ohio County. The Health Department says the raccoon was found in the Elm Terrace area of Wheeling this week. People living in Ohio County should be cautious of animals acting strangely or aggressively-- and keep your pet's vaccinations up to date. This is the first confirmed animal rabies case in Ohio County this year.	1/6/2016
CRIME	People from all over the country are reaching out, showing their support for the K9 officer lost in Canton, and here in Weirton, they're doing the same. Weirton's entire K9 unit will be headed to Stark County, Ohio, to show their support for fallen officer Jethro and his handler, officer Ryan Davis-- along with dozens more from across the Ohio Valley-- including Wintersville, Martins Ferry, Steubenville PD, and others.	1/12/2016
DRUGS	One of them will focus on studying the substance abuse issue in the state. Delegate Erikka Storch is among 11 people from different cities appointed. She says she finds it beneficial to reach out to the community and be able to take the ideas to the table.	1/17/2016
CRIME	Happening right now-- U-S Marshals are looking for this woman-- wanted for a federal probation violation. Nikki Koffel was originally charged with aiding and abetting the distribution of cocaine base.	1/20/2016

POLITICAL Former New York Mayor Michael Bloomberg is considering a presidential bid for 2016. Bloomberg has been considering a White House run since 2006. But don't expect him to join the Democrat or Republican Ticket. If he runs, it will most likely be as an independent Candidate. Reportedly he will make his decision by sometime in March -- after the primaries and caucuses in Iowa, New Hampshire, Nevada, and South Carolina. 1/24/2016

CRIME The Belmont County Sheriff is increasing the manpower devoted to targeting drug traffickers. Just this past weekend a routine traffic stop took 2 men off the streets. Donald Farris of Wheeling was arrested Friday night on charges including drug trafficking and possession after being found with cocaine and heroin. This man, Marc McPherson was also arrested during the stop on an outstanding warrant. 2/15/2016

EDUCATION The Bellaire School system will soon emerge from their long-time financial crisis. So now they're able to concentrate on academic programming. And that's why they're holding a community forum just a half hour from now. It starts at 6:30 at the Bellaire High School auditorium, and includes a feature film called "Most Likely To Succeed" and a discussion. Parents, grandparents and all community members are invited. 2/22/2016

POLITICAL New Jersey governor and former presidential candidate Chris Christie is endorsing Donald Trump for President. He appeared with Trump in Ft. Worth, Texas just days before Texas takes part in the Super Tuesday primaries. He says of the contenders remaining in the race-- Trump is the only one capable of leading America. He says Trump is a man who keeps his word. 2/26/2016

POLITICAL A bill allowing West Virginia residents to carry a concealed handgun without a permit was shot down by Governor Tomblin today. He joined law enforcement and state legislators by vetoing the bill saying it's in the interest of officers' safety. The bill was passed by the house of delegates on February 24th. Tomblin said he hopes legislators will reconsider their positions when the veto is reviewed by the Senate. 3/3/2016

POLITICAL The GOP-led House has voted to override Governor Earl Ray Tomblin's veto of the concealed carry bill. Now the bill heads back to the Senate--which will likely to vote in favor of the house to override the veto. 3/4/2016

ECONOMY A proposal to drug-test some West Virginia welfare applicants could soon head to Governor Earl Ray Tomblin. The House voted today for the three-year statewide drug-testing pilot program for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families Program applicants. 3/9/2016
 Senators previously passed it-- and would need at least another vote before sending it to Tomblin.

ECONOMY 7News is Your Local Election Headquarters. Ohio is heating up with less than 24 hours until the Primary Election. And as the saying goes... as Ohio goes, so goes the nation. We were out and about today asking if *you were excited and ready for the elections. Many people, of course, don't want to say who they're choosing, just that they are exercising their right, an are excited to see who Ohio voters choose. 3/14/2016

CRIME Happening now-- Wheeling Police are looking for 2 men who are believed to have been involved a stabbing earlier today. Officials say they responded to an apartment building on the 1000 block of Chaplin Street and found a man with a non-life-threatening knife wound on his hand. 3/20/2016
 The 2 suspects got away before the officers arrived. Officials say they are light-skinned black men wearing hooded sweatshirts-- and one of the men has dreadlocks.

CRIME Barnesville Police say they're investigating notices drivers are receiving that say their vehicle warranties are expiring. 3/25/2016
 If you believe you are a victim of this possible scam-- call your local law enforcement agency.

“Lost In The Bermuda Triangle” – a report on the worst U.S. maritime disaster in 35 years, the sinking of the cargo ship El Faro, that left 33 dead when it sank in the Atlantic Ocean during Hurricane Joaquin in October of 2015. The National Transportation Safety Board (NTSB) conducted its investigation of the vessel and allowed 60 MINUTES to broadcast footage of the sunken cargo ship. Includes interviews with: Captain Gregg Baumann, Navy supervisor of salvage and diving; Tom Roth-Roffy, NTSB investigator; Charles Kapica, chief sonar operator; and families of crew on El Faro: Glen Jackson, whose brother Jack died; Tinisha Thomas, whose husband Shawn died; Tina Riehm, whose husband Jeremie died; Deb Roberts, whose son Michael Holland died; and Frank Pusatere, whose son Richard Pusatere died. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Patricia Shevlin, Miles Doran)

“Agromafia” – a report on how the Mafia and other criminal groups in Italy are making huge profits by exporting olive oil imitations, falsely labeled as extra-virgin. Italian police nabbed seven thousand tons of phony olive oil last month. Mafia copies of fine olive oil, wine, and cheese have fueled food crime in Italy. The Italians call it “Agromafia”. From harvesting to the supermarkets, the Mafia has infiltrated the food chain, but groups such as Addiopizzo and Libera Terra are resolute in their mission to stop the cycle. Includes interviews with: Major Sergio Tirro, Italian Carabinieri police food fraud investigator; Tom Mueller, journalist; Nicola Clemenza (through translator), Sicilian olive oil producer; Ermes Riccobono, trip leader for Addiopizzo (mafia-free tourism); and Pietro D’Aleo, marketing manager for Libera Terra. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Guy Campanile, Sabina Castelfranco)

“Little Jazz Man” – an interview / profile of Joey Alexander, a 12-year-old jazz prodigy who was born in Bali, Indonesia but now lives in New York City with his parents. Joey’s first album, “My Favorite Things”, has been nominated for two Grammys. Also includes interviews with: Wynton Marsalis, CBS News Cultural Correspondent and artistic director of Jazz at Lincoln Center; Denny and Fara Silas, Joey’s parents; and Gary Walker, music director at jazz radio station WBGO. (Includes a performance with Joey Alexander on piano and Wynton Marsalis on trumpet.) (C: Anderson Cooper – P: Michael H. Gavshon, David M. Levine)

01/10/16

“The Road To Syria” – a report from inside Latakia airbase in Syria where Russia is launching air strikes against the enemies of Syrian dictator Bashar al-Assad, such as: ISIS, al-Nusra, and the Free Syrian Army. Since the summer, the Russians have built barracks, brought in four thousand personnel, and paved roads in Latakia. 60 MINUTES cameras were permitted to visit and captured armed warplanes taking off, including Russia’s newest fighter-bomber, the SU-34. 60 MINUTES was also permitted aboard the Moscow, a Russian guided missile cruiser in Tartus, Syria, that was reassigned to provide anti-aircraft defense. Includes interviews with: Major General Igor Konashenkov (through translator), chief spokesman for the Ministry of Defense; Admiral Vladimir Komoyedov (through translator), chief spokesman for the Ministry of Defense; and Maria Lipman, political analyst in Moscow, Russia. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Henry Schuster, Rachael Morehouse)

“Life After Death Row” – a report about three unjustly convicted people in the American justice system: Ray Hinton, Ken Ireland and Julie Baumer, who spent years in prison, then were exonerated, and now they are adjusting to freedom. Most states offer no immediate assistance to the recently exonerated, and twenty states offer no compensation at all. Includes interviews with: people convicted and then exonerated: Ray Hinton, Ken Ireland, and Julie Baumer; and Bryan Stevenson, attorney. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Henry Schuster)

“Hamilton” – a report about “Hamilton”, the unorthodox musical currently selling out on Broadway and attracting such luminaries as President Barack Obama and former Vice President Dick Cheney. The lead actor and playwright of “Hamilton” is Lin-Manuel Miranda, and he uses a combination of hip-hop and rap along with popular music to portray Alexander Hamilton’s life -- all sung and danced by a diverse cast. Miranda also created the winner of the 2008 Tony for best musical, “In The Heights”. Includes interviews with: Lin-Manuel Miranda; Luis Miranda and Luz Towns-Miranda, Miranda’s parents; and Ron Chernow, author of “Alexander Hamilton” and the show’s historical advisor. 60 MINUTES (8:00 – 9:00p)

“The Great Brain Robbery” – a report on economic espionage committed by the Chinese government, despite President Xi Jinping’s pledge last September that China would not engage in cybertheft, and how it is costing U.S. corporations hundreds of billions of dollars and more than two million jobs. The Massachusetts company, American Superconductor, was partnering with Chinese company, Sinovel, to make controls for wind turbines until Sinovel stole the heavily encrypted proprietary computer codes by corrupting an American Superconductor employee who traveled to China often. When the American company tried to pursue legal options, Sinovel hacked their system to spy on their legal strategy. The Justice Department constitutes China’s corporate spying as a national security emergency. The government of China declined an interview but gave a comment that can be found in the transcript. Includes interviews with: John Carlin, assistant attorney general for national security; Daniel McGahn, president and CEO of American Superconductor; and Dmitri Alperovitch and George Kurtz, co-founders of CrowdStrike. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Richard Bonin)

“Sean Penn” – an interview with Sean Penn, two-time Oscar winning actor and self-described experiential journalist, about his interview with drug lord Joaquin Guzman (“El Chapo”) for Rolling Stone magazine. The interview was arranged through Mexican actress Kate del Castillo and took place in cartel-controlled territory where El Chapo was hiding out. After the manhunt grew too risky, a face-to-face interview was not possible. Penn sent a list of questions and El Chapo recorded his answers. El Chapo was recaptured by Mexican marines on January 8th, and Penn’s article was published the next day. Penn believes his article is a failure because it did not spur conversation about U.S. policy in the War on Drugs. (C: Charlie Rose – P: David Schneider, Joyce Gesundheit)

“Mountain Lions of L.A.” - a report on mountain lions, also referred to as pumas or cougars, reigning over the hills of Los Angeles, California. The National Park Service has been studying this for 13 years by tracking some mountain lions to see how they survive in an area filled with people and freeways. Includes interviews with: residents of L.A. who have had a mountain lion encounter; Jason and wife, Paula Archinaco, Nancy Vandermey and Eric Barkalow; National Park Service biologists: Jeff Sikich and Seth Riley; Johanna Turner, sound effects editor for Universal Studios; and Bob Wayne, evolutionary biologist at UCLA. 60 MINUTES SPECIAL EDITION (8:00-9:00p)

“Heroin In The Heartland” – a report on the increasing accessibility and use of heroin in the United States. Federal and local authorities across America believe it’s the biggest drug epidemic today. Drug dealers, connected to Mexican drug cartels, have expanded from an inner-city focus to the suburbs for a new set of consumers: high school students, college athletes, teachers and professionals. Focusing on families in the Columbus, Ohio suburbs dealing with this problem, the reasons for the rise of this epidemic are discussed. The drug that reverses the effects of opiates in the brain, Naloxone Hydrochloride (Narcan), is now available in Ohio without a prescription. Includes interviews with: former heroin addicts: Hannah Morris and Jenna Morrison; Mike DeWine, Ohio Attorney General; Jessica Kaiser, forensic scientist for Ohio Attorney General; and parents of heroin addicts: Wayne and Christy Campbell (whose son Tyler died); T.J. and Heidi Riggs (whose daughter Marin died); Brian Malone and Lea Heidman (whose daughter Alyssa died); Brenda Stewart (whose two sons are in recovery), Tracy Morrison, (whose two daughters are in recovery); and Rob Brandt (whose son Robby died). (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Tom Anderson, Michelle St. John) (OAD: 11/01/15 on 60 MINUTES)

“Alive and Kickin’” – a report on the musical, "Alive: 55+ and Kickin'," conceived and written by Vy Higginsen, founder of the Mama Foundation for the Arts in Harlem, New York and her husband, Ken Wydro, creative director at the Mama Foundation and a playwright. The musical features a full company of performers ages 55 and over with most of them experiencing their first time on stage while sharing personal stories with the audience. Higginsen has made it her mission to preserve African-American music, both gospel and popular music like soul and rhythm and blues (R&B). Includes excerpts from a performance of “Alive: 55+ and Kickin’”. Includes interviews with: Vy Higginsen; and performers Theo Harris and his wife, Phyllis Harris; Debbie Bingham; Renee Walker; Matthew Brown; and Matthew Burke. Also includes comments by Ken Wydro; Greg Kelly, pianist; and Roberta Ross, singer. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Shari Finkelstein) (OAD: 01/04/15 on 60 MINUTES as a DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT. “Anonymous Inc.” – an investigation into money laundering in the United States and how it is becoming known as a go-to place for corrupt foreigners to launder their ill-gotten money into anonymous shell companies. The London-based non-profit watchdog Global Witness sent an investigator undercover as a representative of a fictitious African government minister who wants to move millions in suspicious funds. Equipped with a hidden camera, the investigator, going by “Ralph Kayser” met with 16 different law firms in New York City to see if they would be willing to assist in concealing the suspicious funds. Of the sixteen lawyers Global Witness met with, only one attorney, Jeffrey Herrmann, flatly declined to participate. Includes interviews with: Charmian Gooch, co-founder of Global Witness; Chip Poncy, co-founder of the Financial Integrity Network; Bill Simon, law professor at Columbia University; and Fmr. Senator Carl Levin (D-MI) who served as Chairman, Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations. Also includes excerpts of Global Witness’ hidden camera interviews with the following New York City lawyers: Lawrence M. Gabe, Gerald Ross, Mark Koplik, Albert Grant, James Silkenat; Jeffrey Herrmann; Hugh Finnegan; and John H. Jankoff. (C: Steve Kroft – P: Graham Messick, Kevin Livelli) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT

“Top of the World” – a report on how researchers are trying to get to the bottom of climate change and sea level rise by studying the Petermann Glacier, one of the largest glaciers in Greenland. Includes interviews with: Malik Jensen, native Greenlander and pilot; Alan Mix, native Greenlander and expedition leader; Keith Nicholls, oceanographer for the British Antarctic Survey; Shaun Marcott, geologist; Larry Mayer, geologist; Anne Jennings, research scientist for the Institute of Arctic and Alpine Research; and Peter Demenocal, paleoclimatologist at Columbia University. 48 HOURS

01/02/16

48 HOURS: “The Sober Truth” – an investigation into the death of Karla Mendez Brada, a woman struggling with addiction, who sought help in an Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) program in California; the ex-con she fell in love with; and the circumstances that caused police to suspect him in her murder, when she was found dead in 2011, in the condo they shared. Also included is an examination of how judges around the country sentence some criminals to attend AA meetings, and that AA’s own non-disclosure guidelines put them side-by-side with those who are vulnerable in recovery. Brada battled an addiction to alcohol and prescription pills. She entered a program, got her life together, and bought a condo. Then she relapsed and re-entered a program where she was bussed to meetings of Narcotics Anonymous and Alcoholics Anonymous. Brada crossed paths with Eric Earle, who was in a sober living facility that required him to attend AA meetings. They fell in love and he moved in with her. She soon discovered he was abusive. The investigation into what happened to Brada exposes the risks of a recovery system that mixes convicted criminals in with the general population without the knowledge of many of those new to AA. Also included is what some AA members refer to as the secret “13th Step”, where male members take advantage of vulnerable women. In 2014, the case went to jury. Eric Alan Earle was found guilty of first-degree murder. Brada’s parents have filed a lawsuit against Alcoholics Anonymous, the organization they also hold responsible for their daughter’s death because they did not warn attendees that violent criminals could be at the same meetings they attend. Original On-screen text graphic: Alcoholics Anonymous has not filed a response to the Mendez family’s lawsuit. It is due December 1st. On-screen text graphic for the 01/02/16 rebroadcast: The Mendez family’s lawsuit against Alcoholics Anonymous is still pending. Interviewed: family members Sasha Mendez (sister), Jaroslava Mendez (mother), Hector Mendez (father); Jenny Rodriguez (best friend); Gabrielle Glazer (journalist); Johnny Dos Santos (friend of Earle); David Arrendondo (Earle’s attorney); Monica Richardson (documentary filmmaker); Judge Rogelio Flores; John Noland (Mendez’ civil attorney); and Elena Abramson (Deputy District Attorney) (C: Maureen Maher - P: James Stolz) (OAD: 11/29/14)

01/16/16

48 HOURS: “The Verdict” - an investigation into the 2010 death of Robert Cline in Seminole County, Florida, and the case against Anita Smithey, who was convicted of second-degree murder for killing him, her estranged husband. While the two were in bed, she claims that she was being violently raped and that she feared for her life. Smithey admits she shot and killed Cline, but she asserts it was not murder. Their relationship started out with promise: Cline was a widower with children and Smithey also had kids. After they married, things began to change in their relationship, which Smithey attributed to Cline’s addiction to marijuana. He also demanded rough sex. They eventually separated, but continued to meet every Monday for sex. During their last fateful encounter, she says he started to rape her, and then she shot him. She also said he stabbed her with a knife. During a police interrogation, Smithey went from being a victim to a murder suspect when she admitted to stabbing herself. Her attorney maintained that police bullied her into making that statement. The case pitted the couple’s extended families against each other, raised questions about their relationship and whether the shooting was justifiable homicide or murder. Prosecutors argued there was no rape and say the knife wounds were self-inflicted. At the trial’s end, which many believe was going the way of the defense, Smithey’s attorney Rick Jancha, mistakenly opened the door to the jury being able to hear the 911 call that had been forbidden to be used. Smithey was found guilty. Just before sentencing, her attorney suffered a fatal heart attack, and another attorney has stepped in to plan an appeal. The Cline family continues to maintain that Smithey was the abuser. On-screen text graphic for the original and 01/16/16 rebroadcast: Robert Cline’s children were adopted by his sister, Belinda. Anita’s children are being raised by her first husband. Interviewed: Anita Smithey; Drew Smithey (son); Stephanie Cline (daughter); Belinda Cline (Cline’s sister); Jessica Flores (Smithey’s best friend); Daniel Mattingly and Matthew DePanicis (detectives); Whitney Boan (Smithey’s current attorney); Phil Andry, Audie Andry (Smithey’s father and brother); Stacey Salmons and Kelly Jo Hines (prosecutors). 01/23/16 48 HOURS: "A Vision of Murder" (9:00-10:00p) - an investigation into the 2010 death of Kelly Brennan, and her friend Sheila Trott's dream in which she perceived Brennan to be in danger. Brennan was later found bludgeoned to death near Mark's Landing in Indiatlantic, Florida and Trott was subsequently arrested for her murder. To some, Trott is a clairvoyant who was able to provide information to help the police; to others, she is a killer. The investigation uncovered an alleged love triangle between Trott, Brennan and Trott's estranged husband, Dan Trott. Trott says she encouraged the match to free herself from a bad marriage; prosecutors believe the relationship led to murder. Prosecutors say Trott spoke about the dream to her mother and her sons, making statements that she had hurt someone -- basically confessing to the crime, as her mother related in a 911 call to police. Four-and-a-half years later, Sheila Trott remains behind bars, awaiting trial. Though the case is admittedly circumstantial, prosecutors believe they have a strong case. As the trial is scheduled to begin, Trott has her own problems. Her lawyer has been disbarred and she must rely on a public defender. They plan to point the finger at Dan Trott. In 2014, as the trial progresses, her two sons take the stand against her -- testifying for the prosecution. Sheila Trott then had a new defense - her dream was really an eyewitness account of what had really happened to Kelly. Her attorneys make no mention of this, but try to pick apart the State's case, pointing the finger at Kelly's jealous husband, Gino Rallo. The jurors reach a verdict: Sheila Trott is guilty of first-degree, premeditated murder. Original on-screen text graphic: Creighton and Graham Trott recently visited their mother in prison. They told 48 HOURS "...We unequivocally believe in our mother's innocence and stand by her." On-screen text graphic for the 01/23/16 rebroadcast: Sheila's sons, Creighton and Graham, told 48 HOURS "...We unequivocally believe in our mother's innocence and stand by her." Sheila Trott is appealing her conviction. Interviewed: John Copola (Brevard County Sheriff's Department); Lou Iervasi (friend of Kelly Brennan); Sheila Trott; Margaret Byers (Sheila Trott's mother); Major Tod Goodyear (lead investigator); Alison Bartlett (friend of Sheila Trott); Samantha Barrett and Jim McMaster (prosecutors); Todd Deratany (former defense attorney). 01/23/16 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "My Name is Victoria" (10:00-11:00p) -- a report about California woman kidnapped, tortured and left for dead, who reveals her extraordinary tale of survival and the 18-year-hunt for her assailants that led to the arrest of an "Austin Powers: International Man of Mystery" actor. This is the story of one woman's will to live through a brutal attack, how that night changed her life forever, and the investigation and changing technology that would help police track down her attackers 18 years later. Victoria, whose name was changed for this 48 HOURS broadcast, was just 19-years-old on Christmas Eve in 1990, when two men came out of nowhere as she approached her apartment and attacked her. The force of the attack knocked her out. She came to just as she was being thrown into the back of a car. With sheer will and quick thinking, she survived a series of terrible events, including multiple sexual assaults. Surviving that night was just the start of the investigation and the healing, which continues today. Unfortunately, the case went cold. Eighteen years later, police got the break they needed when DNA taken from Victoria's body the night of the attack matched someone in the system. The suspect, Joseph Son, was an actor in "Austin Powers: International Man of Mystery". Son's high school friend Santiago Gaitan was later arrested. Before trial, Deputy District Attorney Eric Scarbrough made a sickening discovery -- the statute of limitations for rape and kidnapping had long expired. Ultimately, Scarbrough found another way to legally prosecute the case. On-screen text graphic: Joseph Son's trial is scheduled for March 2016. Santiago Gaitan could be paroled as early as 2018. Last week, Victoria became a grandmother for the first time. She and her family are excited for a new beginning. Interviewed: "Victoria" (not her real name); Don Howell (Detective, Huntington Beach Police Department); Eric Scarbrough (Deputy DA, Orange County, CA). - 01/30/16 48 HOURS: “Ryan Ferguson: Wrongful Conviction” (8:00-9:00p) - a retitled rebroadcast and a followup to “Dream Killer” (OAD: 02/18/06), “The Lost Night” (OAD: 03/26/11), and “The Accuser (OAD: 02/23/13)”, all dealing with the case of Ryan Ferguson, who was released from prison in November 2013, after nearly 10 years behind bars for the murder of Ken Heitholt, a Columbia Daily Tribune sports editor who was killed in 2001. Correspondent Erin Moriarty and the 48 HOURS team have been investigating the murder and the bizarre circumstances that put Ryan Ferguson in prison for the crime since 2006 and were with Ferguson when he was released from prison. Details of the case, which were presented in the original broadcasts, are interwoven into this report along with past interviews. Also included are new interviews with Ryan Ferguson; his parents, Bill and Leslie Ferguson; his attorney, Kathleen Zellner; his accuser, Charles “Chuck” Erickson; and his new girlfriend Myka Cain. Ultimately, Erickson, even after confessing, believes that he was not responsible for the crime and has a new attorney, the interest of the Midwest Innocence Project and the support of Ryan Ferguson. For now, Ferguson is concentrating on what he will do now: he is thinking about going back to college and may follow his father into the real estate business. On-screen text graphic: Ryan Ferguson has written a book that will be published in 2015. If Charles Erickson's appeals fail, his earliest parole date is March 2026. On-screen text graphic for the 01/30/16 rebroadcast: If Charles Erickson's appeals fail, his earliest parole date is March 2020. - 01/30/16 48 HOURS: “Murder 90210” (10:00-11:00p) – a followup to 48 HOURS PRESENTS: “The Bizarre Saga of Robert Durst” (OAD: 03/21/15) - a report on new details in the case of millionaire Robert Durst. In a dramatic and unusual turn in the bizarre story of Robert Durst, next week, the millionaire is expected to agree to a plea deal on a gun charge in New Orleans so he can face trial in California for the murder of his friend Susan Berman, who was shot dead in her California home 15 years ago. Will that trial clear his name in a case that has dogged him for years -- as attorney Dick DeGuerin suggests -- or will he end up spending the rest of his life in jail, where investigators say he should have been all along? The story of Robert Durst includes allegations about his missing wife, his alleged ties to the murder of Berman, and the police who have spent years trying to solve the case. In 2000, Berman was found shot dead in her home. She was the daughter of a well-known Las Vegas mobster, which initially led to speculation that she was a victim of a mob hit. At the time of Berman’s death, Durst was hiding in Galveston, Texas, where he took on the identity of a mute woman. Durst and Berman were friends, and she publicly defended him from allegations that he knew more about his wife’s disappearance than he had told police. Durst wasn’t considered a suspect in Berman’s death until nine months later when he was involved with the death of Morris Black in Galveston. Durst maintained he accidentally killed Black in self-defense. He then cut up Black’s body. A jury eventually acquitted him of murder. Durst is currently in a New Orleans jail, since he was arrested in 2015 after the HBO documentary “The Jinx” aired and raised questions in the Berman case. On-screen text graphic: Family members of Durst's first wife Kathy have filed a hundred-million-dollar lawsuit against him. The lawsuit claims the family has a right to Kathy's body for burial. Included are new interviews with: Jeanine Pirro (former Westchester DA), Dick DeGuerin (Durst’s attorney); and Steve Cooley (former LA District Attorney). Also featured are previous interviews with: Jim McCormack (Kathie Durst’s brother); Dr. Alexander Sasha Bardey (forensic psychiatrist); Lisa DePaulo (writer); Paul Coulter (retired Los Angeles Detective); Cody Cazalas (Galveston Detective Sergeant); Emily and Stuart Altman (Durst’s friends); Chip Lewis (former Durst attorney); Dr. Milton Altschler; Dr. Lawson Bernstein (forensic psychiatrist); Andrew Jarecki (filmmaker).
