Program Title: MY OV NEWS

Duration: 10PM-11PM

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
POLITICAL	Ohio will still recognize concealed-handgun permits issued in Virginia-- even after Ohio permits will not be recognized by Virginia after February 1st. Last month officials in Virginia announced the state will stop recognizing the permits from Ohio and 24 other states that have less-stringent gun permit laws. Ohio residents will have to obtain a non-resident license to carry a concealed handgun in Virginia.	1/18/2016
POLITICAL	Some developing news tonight at 10 as the Aetnaville Bridge is set to be closed to all traffic tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock. The West Virginia Division of Highways is shutting the bridge down because of its declining condition. The 125-year-old bridge connects Wheeling Island to South Zane Highway-- just off of Route 7. Officials say they have no plans on making repairs to the structure. People living on Wheeling Island like Karen Coronoa Merritt use this bridge everyday to get into Ohio for work, groceries, and other daily needs.	1/19/2016
POLITICAL	It was a packed house inside tonight's City Council meeting, where many in attendance just wanted to know what will happen in the future when it comes to city services and even jobs. Cameron is thousands in the red and tonight they discussed how to get back on track, whether cutting employee hours or even eliminating some positions. In the end, many were surprised to hear the emotional announcement from the Mayor.	1/20/2016
CRIME	Police now say they have descriptions of the two men. According to police, one suspect was described as a white male in his mid 20s, six foot tall, with a lanky build. He was wearing blue jeans and a longer blue or green colored coat. The other suspect was described as a white male in his mid 20s, 5'8", stocky build, with sandy colored hair. He was wearing blue jeans and a shorter blue or green jacket. It is believed that the two left ball caps at the scene. We will continue to keep you update on the search.	1/21/2016

CRIME	A Moundsville woman has been convicted of unlawful possession of firearms today in federal court. 36 year-old Tricia Renee Thames also pled guilty to a charge of a felon in possession of a firearm. She could face up to 10 years in prison and a fine of $250 thousand dollars. Thames is scheduled to be sentenced in the near future, we'll keep you updated on her case.	1/22/2016
HEALTH	Media Blood Donor Day begins at 10 a.m. at WesBanco Arena. It's one of the largest blood drives in the entire region. The 30th annual event is held to help with the urgent need for blood in the winter months.	1/24/2016
CRIME	Take a look at these surveillance pictures we have received from police. It shows a white man-- police estimate about 6 feet 2 inches-- thin build-- wearing a dark mask with the hood of his grey jacket up. Authorities say he used a silver hand gun. Police Chief Bill McCafferty says they believe the suspect got away in a car after running away from the bank.	2/6/2016
POLITICAL	Senators voted 32-2 for the three-year statewide drug-testing pilot program for applicants of the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families Program. The bill would seek federal approval to test applicants determined to have a "reasonable suspicion" of drug use. A caseworker would decide if someone demonstrates "qualities indicative of substance abuse."	2/9/2016
HEALTH	The Ohio Department of Health is reporting the state's third and fourth cases of Zika virus in returning travelers. The two new cases are in Butler and Licking Counties. One of them just returned from Guyana and the other from Haiti. The CDC has reported 52 travel-associated cases of Zika virus in 16 states and the District of Columbia prior to Ohio's new cases. Experts say the expect the number to keep rising.	2/12/2016
POLITICAL	Tonight I spoke with John Marshall Principal and Vice President of the West Virginia SSAC Rick Jones--who believes students should attend the school they are representing on a sports team. He said he hears appeals throughout the state for eligibility and could foresee students who couldn't make the 2.0 grademark playing the system and declaring homeschool status in order to play. The bill does requires that homeschooled students meet the same academic requirements--but Jones said interactions with athletes during the school day goes beyond the grade book.	2/17/2016

POLITICAL
Bond has been set at $1 million dollars for the man accused of shooting a 17-year-old in Mingo Junction over the weekend. Police say 19-year-old Dan Michael Thompson shot the teenager at a home on Logan Avenue just after midnight yesterday. At 5 p-m we incorrectly reported the victim had passed away. The investigation is ongoing-- stay with us for updates. 2/22/2016

MEDICAL
On the outside, Tim Wallace seems like your average guy, he works in a warehouse, enjoys being active, and spending time with his family. But talking with Tim, you'll see another side of him... A survivor, a fighter, and an inspiration. Tim has been battling Ulcerative Colitis for three years now, putting him in the hospital three different times. Once a healthy man who could bike 150-200 miles in a DAY-- Tim's weight dropped to just 145 pounds. Weak, but not discouraged- Tim got back up on his feet and back to work. Before his diagnosis, Tim was riding his bike to raise money for Relay for Life, and training for a half-Ironman competition. And now-- he needs to raise $5,000 to compete in an Ironman Challenge in Chattanooga, Tennessee. He has one of eight spots on "Team Challenge" - and all of the money will go to the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America. The competition consists of-- get this-- a 2.4 mile swim in the Tennessee River, 112 miles on a bike, and 26.2 mile run. 3/3/2016

POLITICAL
Check this out!
emotions were running high tonight in the city of Chicago when thousands took to the streets to protest the leading GOP lead contender for the White House, Donald Trump... 3/11/2016
Trump was scheduled to speak at his rally tonight at the University of Chicago

DRUGS
According to the CDC, law enforcement and other agencies need to pay more attention to specific counties, where the majority of drug overdose deaths are taking place. Their results also indicated the majority of those affected by overdose deaths are white middle-aged men 3/22/2016

CRIME
A local driver pulled over just days after West Virginia lawmakers pass new legislation to make sure your kids are safe at the bus stop. This morning a driver was going over 40 miles an hour in the Triadelphia Middle School zone on National Road--past busses and kids. 3/29/2016
