ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Political	It is Steubenville's new city manager's first day on the job. Tim Boland accepted and signed the contract for the position last month. Boland comes from a suburb of Columbus where he served as their city manager for about 6 years.	1/6/14
Education	In Ohio County, School administrators are asking the public for their opinion on the Ohio County Schools calendar for the first time ever. Superintendent Diana Vargo opened the meeting by stressing there is no academic calendar set for next year. Several changes imposed by the WV Board of Education has the district revising their calendar, and the public hearings are a part of those requirements.	1/10/14
Crime	We're learning the case against the man who allegedly raped and murdered a 92 year old Bellaire woman will begin Monday in Belmont County. Officials say a jury for the Devon Fuller trial should be seated sometime this morning. Fuller is charged with the rape, aggravated robbery and murder of Lydia Ashworth in her home. If convicted, he could face the death penalty.	2/27/14
Political	A bill that would ban anyone in WV from owning a "dangerous, wild animal," is getting criticism from pet enthusiasts and pet shop owners, because it's not clear yet what a "dangerous wild animal" is. West Virginia House Bill 43-93 passed the full legislature yesterday.	3/7/14
Economy	Good news if you're looking for a job. We're sponsoring the Ohio Valley Job and Career Fair. Several businesses in our area are participating including OVMC and East Ohio Regional Hospital, West Liberty University, Williams Lea, and Oglebay. It's scheduled for March 27 th from 1 until 7pm at Wesbanco Arena.	3/19/14

60 MINUTES

- 01/05/14 "The Cleantech Crash" - a report on the economic feasibility of clean technology ("Cleantech"), an ongoing effort by the energy sector to create and use energy alternatives to fossil fuels. Despite billions in taxpayer dollars invested by the U.S. government under the Obama Stimulus Act, Washington and Silicon Valley have been confronted with more failed companies, such as Solyndra, than success stories, such as Tesla. Includes interviews with: Vinod Khosla, investor; Steven Koonin, former Energy Department Undersecretary and physicist; Robert Rapier, chemical engineer; and Pin Ni, president of Wanxiang America Corporation. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Shachar Bar-On)
- "Hollywood's Villain" – an interview / profile of Kim Dotcom, an internet entrepreneur who created "Megaupload", a file-sharing website which eventually allowed users to access copyrighted films, music, books and video games. The U.S. government filed an indictment against Kim for copyright infringement, racketeering and money-laundering and has requested his extradition from New Zealand, where he resides in his mansion. Also includes interviews with Eriq Gardner, senior editor at The Hollywood Reporter, Wayne Tempero, Kim's head of security and Shawn Henry, fmr. executive assistant director of the FBI. (C: Bob Simon – P: Michael H. Gavshon, David M. Levine)
- "Volcano" – a report on three of the earth's active volcanoes: Eyjafjallajokull in Iceland, Vesuvius in southern Italy and the supervolcano beneath Yellowstone National Park in the United States. Includes interviews with volcanologists Haraldur Sigurdsson, Mike Sheridan and Giuseppe Mastrolorenzo. Also includes comments by 60 MINUTES cameraman Aaron Tomlinson. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Nicole Young)
- Update: "Crackdown in Russia" (OAD: 03/24/13)
- 01/12/14 "The Case of Alex Rodriguez" – a report on the details of the evidence involved in the full season suspension of New York Yankees slugger Alex Rodriguez for perceived use of banned performance enhancing substances. Major League Baseball (MLB) has suspended the third baseman for all of next season, which is the longest doping suspension to date. There is no positive drug test for Rodriguez and he has repeatedly denied ever using performance-enhancing drugs during the years he played in New York. Major League Baseball's chief witness against him, Anthony (Tony) Bosch, founder of the former Florida clinic, Biogenesis, says he injected Rodriguez with banned substances and shared text messages from Blackberry "BBM" messages as confirmation. Includes interviews with: Anthony Bosch; Rob Manfred, chief operating officer of MLB; and Joe Tacopina, Rodriguez's attorney. Includes an excerpt from a radio interview with Rodriguez on WFAN by Mike Francesa. (See also: "A-Rod", OAD: 12/16/07) (C: Scott Pelley – Producers for Part I: Michael Radutzky, Andrew Bast, Emily Rand; Producers for Part II: Michael Radutzky, Emily Rand, Andrew Bast) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT
- "Memory Wizards" – a follow-up report on people who have "superior autobiographical memory" – which entails the ability to recall details from almost every day of one's life. Since the initial report in 2010, the number of persons known to science who have this rare capability has grown from six to more than fifty, including the first child whom scientists have seen with this astonishing ability. Includes interviews with Dr. James McGaugh, professor of neurobiology at University of California Irvine (UCI); and Aurora LePort, UCI researcher. Also includes new interviews with the previous interviewed memory wizards: Bob Petrella, Marilu Henner, Louise Owen -- and the new subjects: Joey DeGrandis, Tracy Fersan, Jerrard Heard, and Jake Hausler, a 10-year-old accompanied by his parents, Sari and Eric Hauser. 48 HOURS

01/04/14 48 HOURS - "Death at the Parsonage" - a report on the suicide of Joseph Musante; the eventual discovery of his wife, Cindy's secret affair with A.B. Schirmer, the pastor of the Reeders United Methodist Church in Reeders Pennsylvania; and the eventual investigation to determine if the deaths of the pastor's previous wives were really accidental. Musante's sister, Rose Cobb, knew something wasn't right and pressed authorities to keep looking. Musante's daughter, Samantha, told police that she had discovered the affair between her mother and Schirmer and had told her father. In the course of the investigation, police determined that Musante's death was truly a suicide but this led to questions regarding the death of the pastor's second wife, Betty Schirmer, just three months earlier in an auto accident. Further investigation determined her death to be suspicious and police suspected Schirmer. Questions then arose about the death of Schirmer's first wife, Jewel. The cause of her death, from a fall, was initially classified as undetermined, but was now ruled a homicide. A.B. Schirmer was arrested and charged with the murder of his second wife, Betty. At trial, A.B. Schirmer was found guilty of murder. Cindy Musante continues to stand by him. On Screen Text Graphic: Schirmer is awaiting trial for the murder of his first wife, Jewel. Sam's mother, Cindy told the court she believes "one hundred per cent" in Schirmer's innocence. Interviewed: Rose Cobb, Musante's sister; and Samantha, Musante's daughter; detectives Jim Wagner and Wendy Serfass; Julie Campbell and Amy Wolfgang, Schirmer's daughters by his first wife Jewel; Betty Schirmer's sisters Sandy Weikel and Tina Fultz; good Samaritan Stan Dickerson; Dr. Wayne Ross, medical examiner; Schirmer's attorney Brandon Reish; and Prosecutor Mike Mancuso. 48 HOURS (continued)

01/18/14 48 HOURS - "Perilous Journey" - an investigation into the sometimes questionable practices in the business of international adoptions; the lengths some families will go to in order to bring children home to the United States; and how some overseas facilitators walk a fine line between adoption and child trafficking. This broadcast focuses on (1) Ryan and Jeri Lynn Owen's journey to the Democratic Republic of Congo, the questionable practices of the adoption agency Celebrate Children International (CCI), they had chosen, and their ultimate success in adopting their children Ava and Zoey. (2) The story of Betsy Emanuel and her attempt to adopt a child from Guatemala, through the same international adoption agency, CCI. This ultimately led to the discovery of Guatemalan children being in effect abducted for adoption. Emanuel travels to Guatemala to meet a mother whom Emanuel helped to reunite with the children who were taken from her and placed for adoption. (3) The practices of the international adoption agency Celebrate Children International, a small Florida agency, run by Sue Hedberg. On Screen Text Graphic: 3 months after the Owens left Congo, local officials suspended all new adoptions. Just Last November Ava and Zoey's orphanage was destroyed in a fire. No children were injured. If CCI is not Hague-accredited by July, it will no longer be able to initiate international adoptions. Interviewed: adoptive parents/CCI clients Ryan and Jeri Lynn Owen; adoptive parent/CCI client Betsy Emanuel; satisfied CCI client Sarah Grandstaff; Guatemalan mother Mildred Alvarado; investigative reporter/CBS News Consultant Erin Siegal; State Department Special Representative Susan Jacobs; adoption consultant Duni Zenaye; Congolese orphanage operator Elizabeth Fochive; Congolese attorney Jean-Baptiste Kombo; Sue Hedberg, operator of the agency Celebrate Children International. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Joshua Yager, Doug Longhini, Jonathan Leach, Ana Real)

01/25/14 48 HOURS: "A Bad Bet" - an investigation into the deaths of South Carolina sports bookie Brett Parker's wife, Tammy Parker, and his associate, Bryan Capnerhurst, who Parker claims he shot while Capnerhurst was attempting to rob Parker's safe. Though sports betting in South Carolina is illegal, Brett Parker and his father ran an honest family bookmaking operation that was generally left alone by police. At first police took Parker's story at face value, but as the investigation continued, they discovered a co-worker (Capnerhurst) with financial problems who was demanding money he was owed from Parker, and a marriage not as solid as they were led to believe. Police determined that Capnerhurst was a victim, rather than a killer, and that the adulterous Parker had murdered his wife, in part to collect on a life insurance policy. At trial, he was found guilty on two murder charges and sentenced to two consecutive life sentences with no parole. On Screen Text Graphic: Four months after the murder conviction, Brett Parker and his father Jack were indicted on federal charges of operating an illegal gambling business. Brett Parker was sentenced to two years. His father Jack was sentenced to five months. Interviewed: Brett Parker's parents Jack and Linda Parker; his daughter Brooke Parker; Angela Rickard and Angela Leon, friends of Tammy Parker; Tammy Parker's mother Libby Carswell; Sheriff Leon Lott; investigator Stan Smith; Brett Parker's attorney Dave Fedor; and medical examiner Dr. Bradley Marcus.
