- 04/03/16 “Crime and Punishment” – a report on the German prison system, focusing primarily on Waldeck -- a maximum-security prison. Their system emphasizes humane treatment and rehabilitation, rather than punishment, and allows convicts an amount of freedom American prisoners do not have. German prisons cost less than those in America and produce fewer convicts who return. American politicians and prison supervisors are looking at Germany’s model to see what they can implement in America. Includes interviews with: German prisoners: Bernd Junge, Joerg Muehlbach (through translator) and Chris Templiner; Joerg Jesse, director of prisons in Mecklenburg-Western Pomerania; Governor Dannel Malloy, (D-CT); and John Wetzel, Pennsylvania’s secretary of corrections. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Marc Lieberman)
- “Christopher Wheeldon” – an interview / profile of Christopher Wheeldon, one of the most celebrated ballet choreographers today. Wheeldon choreographed and directed the Broadway musical “An American in Paris”, and won a Tony award last year for his work. Includes excerpts from a performance of “An American in Paris” and a clip from “The Late Show with Stephen Colbert”. Also includes comments by: Anna Tsygankova, Russian ballerina and principal of the Dutch National Ballet. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Ruth Streeker, Kaylee Tully)
- “Bubba” – an interview / profile of professional golfer Gerry “Bubba” Watson on the eve of his attempt to win a third green jacket at the 2016 Masters. Unlike most professional golfers, Bubba is left-handed, self-taught, and struggles with the mental part of the game, because he has a fear of mostly everything. Also includes interviews with: Angie Watson, Bubba’s wife; Ted Scott, Bubba’s caddy; and Ricky Fowler, professional golfer. Also includes comments by Hiram Cook, general manager at Tanglewood Golf & Country Club. (C: Sharyn Alfonsi – P: Rome Hartman)
- The Mail – selected viewer comments about the 03/27/16 (Easter Sunday) edition of 60 MINUTES
- 04/10/16 “28 Pages” - a report about the classified “twenty-eight pages” from a 2003 Congressional report on the intelligence community’s preparedness for and response to the 9/11 attacks. Current and former members of Congress are urging the Obama Administration to make public and declassify the top secret section of the report that some say could show possible Saudi support for some of the 9/11 hijackers, in addition to terrorist connections to al Qaeda and Anwar al-Awlaki. Includes interviews with: Fmr. Senator Bob Graham (D-FL), chair of the Select Committee on Intelligence and co-chair of the Joint 9/11 Intelligence Inquiry; Fmr. CIA Director and Rep. Porter Goss (R-FL), co-chair of the Joint 9/11 Intelligence Inquiry; Fmr. Rep. Tim Roemer (D-IN), member of the Joint 9/11 Intelligence Inquiry; Fmr. Senator Bob Kerrey (D-NE), member of the 9/11 commission; Fmr. Secretary of the Navy John Lehman, member of the 9/11 commission; and attorneys representing family members of the 9/11 victims: Jim Kreindler and Sean Carter. (C: Steve Kroft – P: Howard L. Rosenberg, Julie Holstein)
- “Rising in the East” – a report on China’s rapidly expanding film industry and how it is hoping to compete with Hollywood. There are twenty-two new movie theaters opening every day in China, and Chinese and American filmmakers are taking notice by considering the Chinese audience before greenlighting projects. China is also home to the world’s largest film lot, Hengdian World Studios, which boasts fifteen million tourists each year. Includes interviews with: Xu Wenrong, founder of Hengdian World Studios (through translator); Li Bingbing, Chinese actress; Dennis Wang, chairman of Huayi Brothers (through translator); James Wang, CEO of Huayi Brothers (through translator); Dede Nickerson, American film producer in China; James Fong, CEO of Oriental DreamWorks; Chen Kaige, Chinese filmmaker; and Lu Chuan, Chinese filmmaker. (C: Holly Williams – P: Michael H. Gavshon, David M. Levine)
- “Switching Teams” – an interview / profile of Harvard University swimmer Schuyler Bailar, who may be the first openly transgender male athlete to compete in an NCAA Division I men’s sport. Also includes interviews with Stephanie Morawski, Harvard women’s swim coach; Kevin Tyrrell, Harvard men’s swim coach; and Terry and Gregor Bailar, Schuyler’s parents. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Shari Finkelstein)

“Not Paid” – a report on how audits of the nation’s biggest insurance companies have uncovered a systemic practice of insurers not paying benefits on millions of policies, even when the insurance companies knew the policyholder was deceased. Although twenty-five of the nation’s biggest life insurance companies agreed to pay out over seven and a half billion dollars, about thirty-five insurance companies have not settled, and remain under investigation for not paying when the beneficiary was unaware there was a policy. Includes interviews with: Kevin McCarty, insurance commissioner of Florida; Joseph Bigony, West Virginia native and beneficiary on his sister’s insurance policy; Jeff Atwater, chief financial officer of Florida; Jeff Drubner and Jim Hartley, co-founders of Verus Financial; Betty Yee, California state controller; Ken Miller, Oklahoma state treasurer; Steve Weisbart, senior vice president and chief economist for the Insurance Information Institute Also includes comments by: John Perdue, West Virginia state treasurer. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Richard Bonin)

“Rikers Island” – a report on Rikers Island Correctional Facility, New York City’s main jail complex, and how mentally ill prisoners there are being mistreated. The mentally ill inmates in Rikers make up over forty percent of the population. A two-year investigation, led by U.S. attorney Preet Bharara, found issues relating to violence, care, and undisciplined officers. Bharara has teamed up with the Legal Aid Society and private attorney Jonathan Abady in a class action lawsuit on behalf of a dozen Rikers inmates. Includes footage of mistreated prisoners obtained from inside Rikers. Includes interviews with: Preet Bharara, U.S. attorney for the Southern District of New York; Jonathan Abady, attorney; Norman Seabrook, president of the New York City Correction Officer’s Benevolent Association (COBA); Dr. Daniel Selling, former executive director of Mental Health at Rikers; and Ramon Echevarria, whose son, Jason Echevarria, died while incarcerated at Rikers. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Sarah Koch, Deirdre Cohen)

“Hacking Your Phone” – a report on how cellphones, and the networks that carry their signals, can be vulnerable to hackers. Professional hackers, some of whom act as security consultants by day, demonstrate how they hacked into Sharon Alfonsi’s phone and U.S. Representative Ted Lieu’s phone by using a flaw in the global mobile network called Signaling System Seven (SS7). The flaw in SS7 affects all smartphone carriers, including iPhones and Androids. Includes interviews with: Karsten Nohl, German hacker and chief scientist at Security Research Labs; Rep. Ted Lieu, (D-CA); John Hering, founder of Lookout; and mobile device hackers: Adam Laurie and Jon Oberheide. (C: Sharyn Alfonsi – P: Howard L. Rosenberg, Julie Holstein)

04/24/16 "The Heroin Epidemic" – a follow-up report on how Ohio is trying to solve its increasing heroin addiction problem. Ohio, often referred to as Middle America, is combating heroin by creating drug courts to reduce the deaths and the incarcerations caused by the drug. However, former users with felony charges struggle to integrate back into society due to their criminal records, and rehab facilities are filled to capacity. Includes interviews with: Angie Pelfrey, recovery administrator at New Beginnings Freedom Hall Recovery Center; Mike DeWine, Ohio Attorney General; (Ret.) Judge Scott VanDerKarr, who created a drug court in Franklin County, Ohio; former heroin addicts Caitlyn and Robert (real names undisclosed); Jenna Morrison, recovering heroin addict; Tracy Morrison, Jenna's mother; Todd Anderson, Jenna's lawyer; Bradford Bailey, prosecutor in Hardin County, Ohio; Wayne and Christy Campbell, whose son Tyler died of a heroin overdose. Also includes comments by Greg Peterson, mayor of Dublin, Ohio. (C: Bill Whitaker – Tom Anderson)

"Dialing For Dollars" – a report on the amount of time Congressmen spend fundraising at Democratic and Republican "call centers" on Capitol Hill, to raise money for their party and re-election campaigns. The Supreme Court's Citizens United decision in 2010 allowed unlimited spending by corporations, unions and individuals in elections, placing more pressure on candidates to raise money. Representative David Jolly (R-FL) introduced a bill called the Stop Act in February that would ban all federal-elected officials from directly soliciting donations, but only six colleagues are currently supporting his bill. With the help of a staffer at the Republican call center, 60 MINUTES gathered footage using a hidden camera to expose the inside of the call center. Includes interviews with: Rep. David Jolly (R-FL); Rep. Reid Ribble (R-WI), co-sponsor of the Stop Act; Rep. Rick Nolan (D-MN), co-sponsor of the Stop Act; and Rep. Steve Israel (D-NY). (C: Norah O'Donnell – P: Patricia Shevlin, Miles Doran)

"Gold Star Parents" – a report on the annual gathering of California's Gold Star Parents, whose children died while serving in the military. At the event, Gold Star Parents can honor their fallen family member and relate to other people who share their pain. The event began eleven years ago in part by the Blue Star Moms of the East Bay area, whose children served in the military, by reaching out to the Marines' Memorial Association in hopes of providing comfort for grieving families. Includes interviews with: Gold Star Parents: Mary and Bill Shea (whose son Tim died), Yolanda Vega (whose son Jonathan died), Claire and Paul Good (whose daughter Alecia died), and Mike Anderson Sr. (whose son Mike Jr. died); Blue Star Moms of the East Bay area: Nancy Totman and Deb Saunders; and (Ret.) Marine Major General Mike Myatt, president and CEO of the Marines' Memorial Association. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Nicole Young)

48 HOURS

04/02/16 48 HOURS: "Gone" (9:00 – 10:00p) - a report about Mark Castellano, a man who claimed to be so desperate to find Michelle Warner, the mother of his three-year-old son, that he agreed to talk to Dr. Phil McGraw on McGraw's daytime talk show regarding her 2012 disappearance. Within forty-eight hours, Castellano then told police a much different version of events. Warner had been living in Houston, Texas with Castellano, her on-again/off-again boyfriend. Castellano claimed Warner stormed out of the house after a fight and vanished without a trace, leaving her child behind. Warner's family did not believe it and filed a missing persons report. Houston homicide detectives later received the case. Castellano agreed to appear on "The Dr. Phil Show". Dr. Phil interviewed Castellano at his parents' home in West Texas; he wasn't buying Castellano's version of events and had serious doubts about his story. The police investigation continued, but there were few if any clues. Two days after the interview with Dr. Phil, Castellano voluntarily went in for an interview with the police. During the interrogation, Castellano finally cracked and admitted that he had killed Warner, put her body in his car, and buried it in a shallow grave outside of Midland, Texas. Local police and the FBI tried to locate her body but were unsuccessful. Eventually, using Apple's Face Time app and an iPhone, and with help from Castellano, police were able to scan the area and locate Warner's body. Castellano was arrested and charged with murder. Eight days later, "The Dr. Phil Show" aired its episode about the case. Also includes: Tracy Smith's interview with Mark Castellano in which he reveals deep-seated anger and resentment towards women and claims it was all an accident. At his trial, attorneys presented a new version of what he now says is the truth. After more than a week of testimony, Castellano was found guilty in the strangling death of Michelle Warner. Original on-screen text graphic: Mark Castellano will be eligible for parole in thirteen and a half years. He will be fifty-three years old. On-screen text graphic for the 04/02/16 rebroadcast: Mark Castellano will be eligible for parole in 2026. He will be 51 years old. 48 HOURS: "What Happened in Apartment 1601?" (10:00 – 11:00p) - a report on the 2013 death of Mark Waugh, a 23-year-old man murdered in an apartment in Silver Spring, Maryland after a night of bar-hopping with two friends. Since neither of them could remember what had happened, police employed an unusual method of interrogation. Waugh was stabbed to death in the apartment where his friends Rahul Gupta and his girlfriend Taylor Gould lived. Both Gupta and Gould were bloody and drunk, according to police, and were immediately interrogated, with Gupta apparently confessing to the crime, saying he had caught Mark and Taylor together. Then after the alcohol wore off, everything changed, with both insisting they had no idea what had happened. Gupta and Waugh were longtime friends, with successful jobs. Police struggled to understand what had happened. Police initially believed Taylor Gould's version of events, but took the unusual step of putting Gupta and Gould together alone, and monitored their conversations. Gupta kept trying to blame Gould, yet police still believed Gould's version of events. Further investigation revealed Gupta had a temper and smoked marijuana. Investigation also discovered information from a phone call between father and son after Gupta was arrested in which he told his father what had happened. Gupta was arrested and charged with murder. At trial, Gupta's defense was to point the finger at Taylor Gould. She herself was not much help on the stand; but she never blamed Gupta; she just stated she did not kill Mark Waugh. The jury found Gupta guilty. Though Taylor Gould is legally not guilty, Detective Paula Hamill believes she may have played some role in what happened that night, and that she may have possibly been involved in a relationship with Waugh behind Gupta's back. On-screen text graphic: Rahul Gupta is appealing his conviction. Interviewed: Officer Dean Skiba and Detective Paula Hamill (Montgomery County, Maryland Police); Phil Armstrong and Jennifer Page (Gupta's defense attorneys); Jason Peters (childhood friend of Mark Waugh); Sherene Gupta Rapoport (sister of Rahul Gupta); Dan Morse (Washington Post reporter); Timothy Hagan and Patrick Mays (Prosecutors). 48 HOURS: "A Mother Accused" - an exclusive interview with Lacey Spears, a mother who, in 2014, was tried and convicted of poisoning her 5-year-old son Garnett with salt, and who claims she is innocent of the crime. Garnett Spears died after what Spears maintains was a lifetime of illness, and for which doctors struggled to find answers. His eventual death was due to a life-threatening level of sodium in his bloodstream which investigators believe was administered through a feeding tube Garnett used for nutrition. Investigators say Spears visited multiple medical facilities, often without sharing information about what doctors said. She also moved frequently, from Alabama to Florida and then to Rockland County, NY. 48 HOURS' discussion with Spears, her attorney, investigators and others uncovered allegations that Spears suffers from Munchausen Syndrome by Proxy and warning signs which might have been missed along the way that could have saved Garnett's life. Spears and her attorneys maintain she is innocent. Investigators and law enforcement thought otherwise. Spears was charged with murder and stood trial in Westchester County, New York. On-screen text graphic: Lacey Spears will be 46 when eligible for parole. Lacey Spears' attorneys are considering filing a malpractice suit against Garnett's medical providers. Interviewed: Lacey Spears; Shawna Lynch, Christy Burnham, Valerie Plaque (former Spears friends); Dr. Ivan Darenkov (doctor who treated Garnett); Dr. Mary Sanders (clinical psychologist, associate professor, Stanford University); Dan Carfi (Westchester detective); Kirk Budnick, Greg Dunn (Ramapo detectives); Johnny Coker (investigator, Decatur Alabama DA's office and childhood friend of Spears); David Sachs and Stephen Riebling (Spears' attorneys) (C: Troy Roberts - P: Ruth Chenetz, Doug Longhini)

48 HOURS: "The Last Confession" - an updated rebroadcast on the investigation into the 1960 murder of Irena Garza, in McAllen, Texas, and the efforts which family members and police have taken to bring the suspect, a Roman Catholic priest, to trial for the crime. The night before Easter, Irene Garza went to church and disappeared. Five days later she was found dead in a canal. Police said she was sexually assaulted and suffocated. There was one immediate suspect: Father John Feit, the priest who admitted to hearing Garza's confession that night, but who has denied any involvement in the murder. Noemi Ponce Sigler, the original investigator's daughter, claims her father was told to step away from the case because a deal had been made between the Church and the police regarding Feit. In 2002, the McAllen Police Department asked the Texas Rangers Cold Case unit to re-examine the murder. The investigation took a dramatic turn when a former monk, Dale Tacheny, told police that Feit admitted to killing a young woman while Tacheny was a counselor at a monastery. Joseph O'Brien, an assistant pastor at the church in 1960, also told investigators that Feit told him that he did it. Despite these new findings, Hidalgo County District Attorney Rene Guerra doesn't believe the case is strong enough to take to court, though he would have prosecuted Feit in 1962 on the charges. Members of the Garza family have pinned their hopes on Ricardo Rodriguez, a candidate for Hidalgo County District Attorney, who has said he would look into the case. 04/16/16 Update: the new District Attorney Richard Rodriguez did as he promised: he looked into the case. Rodriguez says he has new facts and evidence and is confident that a jury will get past the threshold of beyond a reasonable doubt in this case. Fifty-six years after the murder, John Feit was flown back to Texas. Original (03/01/14) on-screen text graphic: The primary election for Hidalgo County District Attorney is Tuesday. On-screen text graphic for the 07/26/14 rebroadcast: Rene Guerra lost the election for Hidalgo County District Attorney in March 2014. District Attorney-elect Ricardo Rodriguez has promised to revisit the case when he takes office in January 2015. On-screen text graphic for the 04/16/16 updated rebroadcast: John Feit has pled not guilty. Prosecutors hope to take this to trial within the year. Interviewed: family members Noemi Ponce Sigler and Lynda De La Vana; journalist/48 HOURS consultant Pamela Colloff; Texas Ranger Rudy Jarmillo; McAllen Police Chief Victor Rodriguez; former monk Dale Tacheny; San Antonio Police Detective George Saidler; Hidalgo County District Attorney Rene Guerra. 48 HOURS: "Breaking Point" (9:00 – 10:00p) – the first hour of back-to-back editions dealing with the investigation into the 2012 death of 29-year-old lawyer Ryan Poston, at the hands of his on-again/off-again girlfriend Shayna Hubers, who admits to killing him, but who claims it was self-defense. At the time of his death, Ryan Poston was a young successful attorney with a bright future ahead of him. Shayna Hubers' family and friends also thought she would be successful in all she did. The couple met on Facebook and dated on and off for 18 months. Ryan was busy with his career and not ready to settle down, but found it hard to let go of Shayna. According to Ryan's friends, Shayna's behavior became obsessive. He told her he was not seeing her on the weekend of October 12, 2012, but did not tell her that he had a date with another woman. He did not make the date: a 911 call to police was made by Shayna, telling police she had shot her boyfriend in self-defense. Police were suspicious from the start. She had shot him six times. Shayna also talked endlessly during the 3-hour interrogation video and then, when alone, she danced and sang songs. Friends said Ryan was not an abuser. She was charged with murder. Investigation revealed that, after the shooting, she waited 10 minutes to call 911. She also texted endlessly; there were thousands of text messages to Ryan, most of which he did not answer. Yet, because of Kentucky laws, he could not get a restraining order. Prosecutors believe that Shayna could not deal with Ryan's rejection and that her rage sent her over the edge. She believed it was over for good and would have none of it. Now it is 2014, and she has been jailed since 2012 awaiting trial. Interviewed: friends of Ryan Poston's: Matt Herron and Allie Wagner; mentor, attorney Ken Hawley and his assistant Lori Zimmerman; Shayna's friend, Sarah Robinson; Ryan's neighbor, Nikki Carnes; Lieutenant Dave Fornash; Highland Heights, Kentucky Police Chief Bill Birkenhour; Prosecutor Michelle Snodgrass; Shayna's mother, Sharon Hubers ; and neighbor Doris West. 04/23/16 48 HOURS: "Obsessed" (10:00 – 11:00p) - the second hour of back-to-back editions dealing with the investigation into the 2012 death of 29-year-old lawyer Ryan Poston, at the hands of his on-again/off-again girlfriend Shayna Hubers, who admits to killing him, but who claims it was self-defense. In 2014, two and a half years after the crime, the trial is set to begin. Central to the trial is what Shayna told police. Prosecutors believe the only person in danger that night was Ryan Poston, and that Shayna acted out of hate. Ryan did not want to see Shayna anymore. There were no signs of a violent struggle, as Shayna had suggested happening. Shayna's mother, Sharon Hubers, cannot comprehend what is happening to her daughter. The defense must convince the jury that Ryan was the aggressor. A verdict is reached: guilty of murder. The court re-convenes for sentencing. Shayna Hubers, who has been diagnosed as a narcissist, addresses the court, but never apologizes to Ryan's family. Shayna Hubers is sentenced to 40 years. On-screen text graphic: Shayna Hubers' appeals attorney is asking for a new trial. A convicted felon served on the jury and should have been disqualified. Interviewed: friends of Ryan Poston's: Matt Herron and Allie Wagner; mentor, attorney Ken Hawley; Highland Heights, Kentucky Police Chief Bill Birkenhour; Prosecutor Michelle Snodgrass; Shayna's mother, Sharon Hubers; and Ryan's cousin Carissa Carlisle. 04/30/16 48 HOURS: "Blood in the Sand" - an investigation into the murders of two teenage girls, Barbara Nantais and Claire Hough, who were found dead on the same California beach, six years apart; the incredible similarities between the two killings; and the new technology that would lead police to ultimately investigate one of their own. In August 1978, 15-year-old Barbara Nantais was murdered on Torrey Pines State Beach, where she had gone camping with her boyfriend, Jim Alt. She was sexually assaulted, beaten, strangled and mutilated. Then in August 1984, 14-year-old Claire Hough was found murdered on the same beach -- sexually assaulted, beaten, strangled and mutilated in a similar way. Police had few clues to go on, but believed the cases were connected. Both cases were never solved. The cases went cold until 2012, when through improved technology, DNA hits from Hough's crime scene led to two suspects. The first was Kevin Brown, a criminalist who had worked for the San Diego Police Department crime lab and was well-known for his kinky behavior. The second was Ronald Tatro, a convicted rapist. Tatro died in a 2011 boating accident. Brown denied knowing Tatro. He took and failed a lie detector test. In 2014, as the case dragged on, he committed suicide. His wife Rebecca Brown and her attorneys say Kevin Brown was a man wrongly accused, and that his suicide was not an admission of guilt. After his death, San Diego Police publicly named Brown as one of two suspects in the Claire Hough murder case. For the Nantais family, there is no closure. Police had initially believed a suspect named William Wheeler was responsible, but have ruled him out as the killer, and the case remains unsolved. On-screen text graphic: Barbara Nantais' case remains open. The San Diego Police Department considers the Clair Hough case solved. Rebecca Brown's lawsuit against the City of San Diego is expected to go to trial in 2017. Interviewed: Jim Alt (Barbara Nantais' boyfriend); Rick Selga (friend of Jim Alt's); Ralph and Sue Nantais (parents); Judy Nantais (sister); Paul Ybarrondo (Sergeant, San Diego Police Department); Kim Jamer (Claire Hough's best friend); Penny and Sam Hough (parents); Rebecca Brown (Kevin Brown's widow); Jim Stam and John Durina (retired criminalists); Rocky Forgunson (photographer); Gretchen Von Helms and Gene Iredale (Brown family attorneys) (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Lourdes Aguiar, Cindy Cesare)

CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL

04/03/16

“Faith, Spirituality & the Future” – an interfaith special that looks at how spirituality is evolving in our culture and what it means for religious institutions. While more Americans move away from organized religion, many still profess a belief in God and consider themselves spiritual, claiming to encounter God and the sacred in nature and in their relationships with friends and family, rather than within the traditional setting of a church. Featured are: (1) Diana Butler Bass, theologian and author of “Grounded: Finding God in the World—A Spiritual Revolution”. Butler Bass believes this is one of the most important shifts happening in the history of religion and that religious institutions have to figure out new ways of talking about God. (2) One of the largest demographics driving this shift in spirituality are millennials, young people between the ages of 18 to 33. Tom Beaudoin, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Religion at Fordham University, discusses why many millennials do not want to be defined by one particular religious tradition, even if they were raised in one. (3) Meditation is on the rise, acting as a spiritual outlet for many people who are unaffiliated with traditional religious organizations. New York City’s first drop-in meditation studio – MNDFL -- was co-founded by Western Buddhist meditation teacher Lodro Rinzler and Ellie Burrows, and they discuss the growing interest in the practice. (4) Rev. Erik Martínez Resly, a Unitarian Universalist minister in Washington, DC, created The Sanctuaries in 2013. Comprised of both religious and secular participants, this group of artists and community organizers explore their spirituality through art and music with the hope that it inspires positive change for the greater good. “Faith, Spirituality & the Future” also includes comments from: Julie Pennington-Russell, Baptist minister, Senior Pastor at the First Baptist Church of the City of Washington, DC; Rev. Rich Tafel, pastor, The Emanuel Swedenborg Center, Church of the Holy City, Washington, DC; Luis Davila, yoga teacher at Brahman Yoga in West Harlem, NY; and those involved in The Sanctuaries: Erin Johnson, James Bevel, Osa Obaseki, Noreen Nasir, Kevin Akiva Landsman, and Alana Gardner. (Narrator: Rolland Smith. Executive Producer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Natalie Baxter. Director & Senior Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. Produced in consultation with religious scholars, clergy and others including Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, Islamic, Sikh and various interfaith organizations.)
