PREEMPTION

11/12/16

48 HOURS: "Buried Truth" - a report on the investigation into the case of Todd Kohlhepp, a South Carolina real estate broker, and now a suspected serial killer. His violent history was discovered after a missing woman named Kala Brown was found chained inside a shipping container on his property this month. This led to information that potentially solved a well-known 2003 South Carolina cold case, known as the Superbike Murders. The police investigation into Brown's missing person case led to Kohlhepp's property. Brown, who had once worked for Kohlhepp, told police that Kohlhepp had shot her boyfriend Charles David Carver dead, and that she had been a hostage for two months. Kohlhepp was arrested. While in custody, he asked for three things before starting to talk, then he told police more than they had ever suspected. He admitted to killing a young couple, later identified as Johnny Coxie and Meagan McCraw last December. In the most shocking twist of all, he revealed information known only to police in the well-known 2003 South Carolina cold case of four murders at a Spartanburg motorcycle shop. Also examined are : (1) the life of the self-confessed killer, who on the outside, seemed to be a model citizen, but who after a troubled childhood, moved to Arizona to be with his father. While there, he sexually assaulted a 14-year-old girl at gunpoint and had then served a 15 year sentence in prison. Includes an interview with his mother Regina Tague; (2) the Superbike case and the feelings of the victim's relatives upon hearing the news; and (3) the discovery of the bodies of Johnny Coxie and Meagan McCraw on Kohlhepp's property. On-screen text graphic: Todd Kohlhepp now has a public defender. His next court appearance is in January. Kala Brown continues her recovery and is staying with friends. Charlie Carver will be buried next Saturday on his birthday. He would have been thirty-three. 11/19/16

48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "Sophia's Secret" (9:00 - 10:00p) - the story of Sophia Putney-Wilson, a Michigan teenager, and her work to expose the growing dangers of dating and break-up violence, following her own years of mental and physical abuse at the hands of her ex-boyfriend Adam Shigwadja. After meeting in 2011, the relationship between 14-year-old Putney-Wilson and 16-year-old Shigwadja seemed to be a typical teenage romance, but it quickly evolved into something much darker. Shigwadja often threatened to hurt himself or her family as a way to control Sophia, and after one attack, where he held her at knife point, she broke up with him. Despite a court order of separation, they started secretly seeing each other again. In 2014, she broke up with him again. Days later, he broke into her bedroom, held her at knife point and set her room on fire. Putney-Wilson was badly injured: Adam had escaped and was on the loose, and the family was terrified. Shigwadja was arrested the next day. He said that he had gone there with a knife and that his only intent was to harm himself and not Sophia. He was charged with home invasion with the intent to commit assault, and with felonious assault because he attacked Sophia with a knife. Shigwadja opted for a bench trial. Sophia testified that she felt she would only be safe if Adam was locked up. The defense argued he never meant to harm her and that his purpose for the visit was to kill himself. The judge found him guilty on home invasion and arson counts, but did not find that the burden was met for the charges of assault with intent to murder. The community was outraged. At sentencing, the judge surprised everyone, when she sentenced Adam Shigwadja to a minimum of twenty-nine years in prison. When questioned, Judge Pamela Lightroet said the uproar over her verdict had no influence on her ruling. On-screen text graphic: Sophia continues to speak with high school students about teen dating violence. Caught in an abusive relationship -- call the National Domestic Violence hotline at 800-799-SAFE (7233). Interviewed: Sophia Putney-Wilcox; Kristin Putney (mother); Kiely Putney-Wilcox (brother); Jeff Williams (Assistant District Attorney, Kalamazoo County); Susan Thomas (Adam Shigwadja's mother); Detective Bill Moorjian (Detective, Kalamazoo Public Safety) (C: Tracy Smith - P: Josh Gelman, Jonathan Leach, Chuck Stevenson)

- 11/19/16 48 HOURS: "Hunted" (10:00 - 11:00p) - an investigation into the case of a serial rapist, who preyed on women young and old, in multiple states and over a period of years -- and the search to stop him. The rapist worked with military precision, tracking the women's schedules, photographing them during the attacks and then forcing the women to shower or bathe as a way to clear out any evidence. Investigators from two Colorado police departments (Golden and Westminister) and the FBI pieced together the assailant's trail through smart policing, collaboration and luck. In 2011, a Golden, Colorado case, led to a similar case in nearby Westminister, Colorado. In comparing details of the attacks, detectives realized they were on the trail of a serial rapist. That information and another nearby case led them to Marc O'Leary, a 32-year-old Army veteran, who was eventually arrested. O'Leary ultimately pled guilty to sexual assault charges and then agreed to talk about the crimes. This led to a rare glimpse into the mind of a serial rapist, something detectives could never have imagined. Also featured is the story of a young Washington woman who the detectives discovered had been raped by O'Leary. Initially, the Lynnwood, Washington police did not believe her story. After the truth came out, the police force received training regarding this mistake. On-screen text graphic: Stacy Galbraith is now an agent for the Colorado Bureau of Investigation. Edna Hendershot was promoted to the rank of sergeant with the Westminister Police Department. Galbraith and Hendershot both stay in contact with the women Marc O'Leary attacked. Interviewed: Mary (rape victim, not her real name); Stacy Galbraith (Golden CO police detective); Edna Hendershot (Westminister, CO police detective); Jonny Grusing (FBI Special Agent); Bob Weiner (Deputy Jefferson County District Attorney); Amy Wozny (O'Leary's former girlfriend); Julie Pech (potential victim); Rodney Cohnheim (Lynnwood, WA Police Department Commander). (C: Maureen Maher - P: Chris O'Connell, Lauren Clark, Lindsey Schwartz)
- 11/26/16 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "The Long Road Home" - a report on the recovery of Sebastien Bellin, an international basketball star-turned tech entrepreneur, who was nearly killed in the March 2015 Brussels airport terror attack. His recovery is detailed over the course of eight months as he recovered from the bomb attack that caused him to lose over fifty-percent of his blood and left him with shattered bones and torn muscles. Following his basketball career, Bellin moved to Battle Creek, Michigan with his family and began a new career as a tech entrepreneur. The job involved regular travel to Brussels, including during the tense time in Europe. On March 22, 2015, he arrived at the Brussels airport to fly home and that day ISIS terrorists set off bombs at the airport and at a nearby train station. Bellin was severely wounded. This report takes a look at what it takes to survive an attack and put a life back together -- including Bellin's first-person account of the attack, his refusal to let the terrorists win, how his 15 years as a basketball player in Europe prepared him for the moment his life would change forever, his three months in the hospital, the quest to get back home to his family, hours of intense physical therapy and an inspirational return to the basketball court. On-screen text graphic: Sebastian is back flying to and from Europe. He even flies into Brussels airport. Sebastian is writing a book about his story of survival. 48 HOURS: “The Psychiatrist and The Selfie” - a report on the case against Jacob Nolan, who claims his cousin and psychiatrist, Dr. Pamela Buchbinder, brainwashed him into attempting to kill her former lover, fellow psychiatrist Dr. Michael Weiss, during the time the unmarried couple was going through a custody battle for their son. On November 12, 2012, Nolan attacked Dr. Weiss in his office with a sledgehammer and a knife. Weiss fought back. After the struggle, while covered in blood, Nolan snapped a selfie. He was arrested and charged with attempted murder. At the time of the attack, Nolan was living with Buchbinder, who was also treating him for depression, anxiety, and bipolar disorder. Dr. Buchbinder was also going through a nasty custody battle with Dr. Weiss. Today, Jacob Nolan says that Dr. Buchbinder manipulated and brainwashed him to hate Dr. Weiss and that hatred turned into their plan to kill Dr. Weiss. After the attack, Nolan was in a manic state and taken to the ER. Dr. Buchbinder went to the hospital, but was not allowed to see him. Although there is evidence of Dr. Buchbinder purchasing the sledgehammer, she has not been charged with any crime. Nolan was freed on bail and went to live with his parents in Miami. Dr. Weiss was granted custody of his son. Today Nolan seems rational and insists he was not in control of himself at the time of the incident, and even tried to commit suicide in 2015. In March 2016, the trial began. The prosecution insisted Nolan could have rationalized his thoughts and backed out at any time. The defense argued diminished capacity: Dr. Buchbinder had replaced Nolan’s free will with a cult-like mentality. The verdict: guilty. Nolan was sentenced to nine and a half years in prison. He says he is genuinely remorseful for what happened and still says Dr. Buchbinder needs to take responsibility too. Dr. Weiss is raising his son alone, and his attorney says he still lives in fear. On-screen text graphic: The New York City Police Department says the investigation into the attack on Doctor Michael Weiss is “ongoing”. But a spokesperson would not say whether Doctor Pamela Bookbinder is a suspect. Interviewed: Jacob Nolan; Debbie and Jim Nolan (parents); Charlie Haines (former police officer); Dr. Sasha Barded (psychiatrist); Rebecca Rosenberg (reporter, NY Post); Roland Acevedo (Weiss’ attorney); Steven Brounstein, Robert Stavis, Allison Stavis (defense attorneys); Yale Shih (alternate juror) (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Clare Friedland, Susan Mallie, Chris Young Ritzen, Tamara Weitzman)

48 HOURS: "Target Justice" - an investigation into the murders of Kaufman County, Texas District Attorney Mike McLelland and his wife Cynthia, and Assistant District Attorney Mark Hasse. Following the murder of Assistant District Attorney Mark Hasse, who was shot dead outside the courthouse in 2013, and after McLelland had vowed to find his killer, he and his wife Cynthia were discovered dead in their home. Investigation soon focused on the Aryan Brotherhood, a white supremacist group in Texas, and one of the most violent prison gangs, which had declared it would get revenge against law enforcement. But someone else stood out in the investigation: Eric Williams, a lawyer and justice of the peace. Hasse, under McLelland's guidance, prosecuted a case involving the theft of computer monitors from a county office. Police checked Williams out, and it seemed he had a credible alibi. Weeks later, police received a tip that seemed like a taunt to investigators. Weeks later, Williams was charged with the capital murders of the McLellands and Mark Hasse. In December 2014, Williams went on trial. Prosecutors said Williams murdered the McLellands as an act of revenge after being prosecuted for stealing the monitors. The defense made no opening statement and called no witnesses, stating that the prosecution had not made its case. Jurors had no doubt: Williams was found guilty. The most shocking testimony came during the penalty phase when Eric Williams' wife of 16 years, Kim was called to testify. Kim had also been charged with all three murders and had admitted to driving the getaway car. She confirmed her husband's motive was anger and that there were more potential victims targeted. Eric Williams was sentenced to death. On-screen text graphic: Eric Williams' request for a new trial was denied; he has filed for a stay of execution. It can take more than 20 years of appeals before an execution. Interviewed: Lt. Eric Kasper; Lenda Bush (former police officer); Kelley Blaine (court coordinator); Toby Shook, Bill Wirskye (Dallas attorneys); Lt. Jolie Stewart (lead investigator); Sheriff David Byrnes; J.R. McLelland and Krista Ball (McLelland children); Jack Douglas (KTVT investigative producer); DeWayne Dockery (Texas Ranger); Matt Seymour (defense attorney). 48 HOURS: "The Fight for Melissa" - a followup to "Blaming Melissa", OAD: 02/28/15; Updated 07/18/15. Melissa Calusinski, is a young woman who claims she did not murder 16-month-old Ben Kingan in 2009, while working at a day care center in Lake County, Illinois, despite having confessed to the crime. After new evidence from the coroner's office was brought to light and the cause of Ben Kingan's death was re-classified as undetermined, a hearing was held to determine if Melissa Calusinski would be granted a new trial. Examined are police interrogations, what happens after a confession, and what can happen when a key player in the investigation admits he made a life-altering mistake. Two days after Ben Kingan's death, Calusinski was brought in for questioning; police told her Ben died from a blunt-force trauma to the head and that she was the last adult to have seen him alive. She was interrogated for nine hours, never asked for a lawyer, and eventually confessed to dropping the child in a way that may have led to a head injury. She was convicted of murder, largely on the fact that she had confessed and that the Medical Examiner's report said that the child suffered from fresh injuries to his head. Her family persuaded a newly-elected coroner, Dr. Thomas Rudd, to re-examine the evidence. His findings revealed an older head injury -- a significant discovery. Eventually, state pathologist Dr. Eupil Choi admitted to missing the old injury in his report. With this information, attorney Kathleen Zellner, who specializes in cases pertaining to false confessions, said that Melissa Calusinski did not receive a fair trial. Advocates say that, under extreme conditions, 60% of people confess to crimes they did not commit. The police say they played by the rules. Two courts have allowed the conviction to stand. Attorney Zellner believed the medical evidence needed to be re-examined, but the State Attorney will not pass it on. At the latest hearing, witnesses testified for Melissa, but, the judge decided not to overturn the conviction. Attorney Zellner was not surprised; she says the next step is the State Appellate Court. On-screen text graphic: Dr. Thomas Rudd is no longer Lake County Coroner. He lost the election in November. Kathleen Zellner will file Melissa's latest appeal in January. Interviewed: Melissa Calusinski; Paul and Cheryl Calusinski (parents); Dr. Thomas Rudd (Lake County coroner); Kathleen Zellner (attorney); Paul DeLuca (Melissa's original attorney); Stephen Schiller and Matt DeMartini (Lake County Assistant States Attorneys); Michael Nerheim (States Attorney); Dr. Saul Kassin (professor, John Jay College/CBS News Consultant); Jeff Mueller (imaging expert); Paul Foreman (former deputy coroner); Dr. Robert Zimmerman (pediatric neuroradiologist). Before learning that fact, however, his kidnapers had intended to force him to withdraw $50,000 from his bank account, and had threatened Alpert's own life and that of his father, if Alpert did not cooperate. After his release, police were able, with Alpert's help, to track down his abductors. The kidnapers (identified only as Lucky, Ren, Sen and Louis) received sentences ranging from 15 years to life. On-screen text graphic: Lucky, Ren, Sen and Louis received sentences ranging from fifteen years to life. - 12/24/16 48 HOURS: "Road to Redemption" (10:00-11:00p) - a report about Jeanne Bishop, who for more than two decades struggled to move on after losing both her sister and brother-in-law, Nancy Bishop Langert and Richard Langert -- murdered in their suburban Chicago home in 1990 by 16-year-old David Biro. In seeking closure to the crime, she pursued a face-to-face meeting with Biro in prison – which she eventually had. In 1990, Nancy and Richard Langert were found dead in their Winnetka, Illinois home, in what seemed like a home invasion/robbery. Their killer was identified months later as David Biro, a local high school student, who bragged to a friend that he had done it. Biro was tried as an adult and convicted of murder. He was sentenced to two mandatory life terms for the murders of Nancy and Richard Langert, and the judge gave him a discretionary life sentence for the death of their unborn child. For Jeanne Bishop, the crime was a life-changing moment: her actions during the investigation made authorities think she was uncooperative, and, because of the way she was treated by police, she changed careers, going from being a high-powered corporate attorney to a public defender. Still, for 23 years, in order to forgive, she felt she needed to know what motivated David Biro, thus lifting the crushing burden victims often live with. Biro agreed to meet with her, at Pontiac Correctional Center, where he is serving his time. In June of 2012, the U.S. Supreme Court decision deeming mandatory life sentences for juveniles as "cruel and unusual punishment." meant that David Biro could qualify for a reduced sentence, or even be released. The ruling guarantees that there will be a re-sentencing. Jeanne's mother and sister have ideologically different views about forgiveness and the Supreme Court decision, but have agreed to disagree. Original on-screen text graphic: David Biro is one of approximately 80 offenders convicted as juveniles awaiting re-sentencing in Illinois. Across the country, more than 1,000 offenders may qualify for resentencing under the Supreme Court ruling. On-screen text graphic for the 12/24/16 rebroadcast: A judge denied David Biro's request to consider the discretionary life sentence for killing the unborn child. 12/31/16

48 HOURS: "Mommy Dearest" (9:00–10:00p) - a report on the case of Linda Cooney, a woman who became the center of attention in two shootings - two decades apart - both with the same gun. Linda Cooney, shot her ex-husband, attorney James Cooney, while her 10-year-old son Kevin, peeked out of a hole in his bedroom door. The case rocked their exclusive Palm Beach, Florida enclave and captivated locals when the aspiring socialite went on trial for murder. Investigators say she was found not guilty, largely on the weight of Kevin's testimony. Locals believed she had gotten away with murder. Cooney left Palm Beach, ending up in Las Vegas with her sons. In 2011, Linda Cooney reported another shooting; this time her son Kevin had a gunshot wound to the neck and would end up being paralyzed. Investigation revealed the gun used to shoot Kevin was the same one that had been used to shoot his father. Authorities were shocked when they found out she had asked to have the gun returned to her after the acquittal. Prosecutors believed Linda Cooney was desperate to control her grown sons and tried to kill Kevin because he wanted to move out. The defense painted a different story: Kevin was mentally unstable and accidentally shot himself. But the story that Kevin actually tells about his mother at trial startles everyone -- he himself claims that it was an accident, even though he had told the nurses in the hospital the opposite. However, in the end, it is not enough and Linda Cooney is found guilty on all charges. On-screen text graphic: After the verdict, Bob Cooney tried to visit Kevin. Kevin refused to see him. Updated 06/06/15 On-Screen Text Graphic: After the verdict, Bob Cooney tried to visit Kevin. Kevin refused to see him. 48 HOURS PRESENTS: "Janet's Secret" (10:00–11:00p) - a report on the murder of Janet Walsh and the 34-year search to find her killer, as new forensics technology allows detectives to re-examine evidence left from the initial investigation into the death of the Monaca, Pennsylvania woman in 1979. In a case which confounded investigators from the start, 23-year-old Janet, who had recently separated from her husband, Scott Walsh, was found dead in her bedroom after a night out dancing. Investigation led to a long list of suspects: (1) her husband Scott Walsh; (2) Robert McGrail, a man she met dancing; (3) Ron Ciccozzi, her boss; (4) an unidentified man; (5) Victor Ciccozzi (says he dated her/ no relation to Ron); and (6) Scott Hopkins, a secret lover. The case turned cold; no one was ever arrested. In 2011, a cold case unit took a second look at the case. They re-interviewed the suspects and using technology not available at the time, they were able to identify DNA from the sheets, nightgown and bathrobe tie. Police and prosecutors eliminated everyone except Scott Hopkins, an influential retired businessman/politician. In 2012, Hopkins was arrested. At trial, the prosecution used the DNA evidence to define the case, even calling celebrity forensic pathologist Cyril Wecht to testify. The defense countered with an expert of their own, but in the end, Hopkins was convicted of third-degree murder. Original On-screen text graphic: Hopkins is appealing his conviction based on several arguments. Among them: science cannot determine the time a DNA sample is left at the crime scene. On-screen text graphic for the 12/31/16 rebroadcast: The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has denied Hopkins' request to appeal his conviction.
