Political Campaign

REF:

Title 47 Code of Federal Regulations Section 315 (b) (2) (D) states:

RADIO BROADCASTERS. - A candidate meets the requirements of this subparagraph if, in the case of radio broadcast, the broadcast includes a personal audio statement by the candidate that identifies the candidate, the office the candidate is seeking, and indicates that the candidate has approved the broadcast.

While there is not a local requirement for this personal audio statement in Guam Code Annotated, it is a Federal requirement to be in all campaign commercials airing on radio.

This requirement is for all Federal and Local elections. This memorandum is to inform the appropriate campaign official which authorizes the radio broadcast of the requirement for the personal audio statement by the candidate.

Political Advertising packet Political Advertising Disclosure Statement

The purpose of this Disclosure Statement is to make those parties who purchase political programming time fully aware of the application of the "lowest unit charge" provisions of Section 315(b) of the Communications Act.

The lowest unit charge provisions apply only during the 45 days preceding a primary or run-off election and the 60 days preceding the general or special election ("the Election Periods") and to legally qualified candidates for public office or their authorized campaign organizations to promote their candidacy; they are not applicable to political action committees or to non-candidate issue advertising. At times other than the Election Periods, the rates charges candidates shall not exceed the charges made for comparable uses of the station by other advertisers.

Guam Political Season:

- The political window on Guam for the 2022 season open on June 2022
- The Primary Election will take place on August 27, 2022 and the General Election will take place on November 8, 2022

Orders of Political Time & Credit Policy:

Orders of political time will not be considered firm until a completed and signed Agreement Form for Political Candidates/Issues (NAB For PB-18) has been delivered with prompt payment, and/or the net cash payment has been received at least one week in advance of the air of the first spot in the schedule.

Proper Sponsor Identification:

In the case of any Radio political advertising concerning candidate issues or candidates for public office, all ads must comply with sponsorship identification requirements of the Communications Act. The identification must state that the broadcast is "sponsored, paid for or furnished by" the identified sponsor at the end of the spot.

In the case of any Television political advertising concerning candidates for public office, the sponsor shall be identified with letters equal to or greater than four-percent of the vertical picture height that air for not less than four-seconds. A pre-airing submission of all ads is requested to permit the station to verify compliance with the identification requirements. Should a candidate's ad not be submitted in a sufficient amount of time for a pre-airing review or not contain the proper identification, the Station reserves the right to add the required material within the quantity of the time purchased. The identification must appear at the beginning and end of any radio or television spot that is longer than five minutes.
