United Way of Southeast Missouri wants to hear from you!

United Way of Southeast Missouri is asking citizens in Scott County to participate in a Community Conversation to guide the nonprofit's next funding cycle.

Community Conversations are open forums to help us identify the needs and gaps in each community that our United Way network can collectively tackle. The information will help guide the volunteers who determine which organizations we will invest in with our next funding cycle beginning in July of 2022.

United Way is more than one organization. We are an influential, powerful network of community services. Together we help the underserved, the vulnerable, and our neighbors at greatest risk. But we also invest in partners and programs that work together to eliminate what creates vulnerability and need in the first place.

Together we change lives.

Additional events are scheduled in Bollinger County, Perry County, Cape Girardeau, and Jackson.

*Light snacks and beverages will be provided.

**FREE DIAPERS WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR ALL PARTICIPANTS
