WBWZ
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WBWZ provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- ChangePoint Theatre, community: Jacques Patel, Executive Director, and Anne Lucccente, Media Coordinator, of ChangePoint Theater discussed their involvement in the organization, the origin of the community based organization, what it has to offer, past and upcoming shows, what the future holds and how the public can get involved.
- Charities: Christina Boryck, Executive Director of Rebuilding Together Dutchess County and Mike Mulaney, owner of Hudson Cadillac, Buick, GMC, discussed the upcoming Poughkeepsie Rotary 8th Annual Car Show at the Mid Hudson Civic Center, how they became involved in the Rotary, the Rotary's purpose, successes and opportunities.
- Community : Dutchess County Vet2 Vet Program
- Community Involvement: Joe spoke about his education and background in communications and his 40th year in radio in the Hudson Valley. Joe also spoke about all the charity and public service organizations that he was been involved with over his forty years, the impact that local radio has on the community and what changes he has seen and been apart of.
- Community Services: John Tumminia, founder of the Baseball Miracle Foundation, discussed the history and mission of the foundation which is to bring the game of baseball to deserving children around the world. Through this they teach the children valuable life lessons, provide communities with resources to help children play safely and confidently and most importantly bring some light into their lives. This is all done through their core values of Servitude, Teamwork, Enjoyment and Excellence. John also spoke on the sixteen trips that they have already taken, opportunities of local volunteers and where they are going from here.
- Government & Community: Dutchess County Executive Marc Molinaro talks about the State of the County address, the County Park System - how it operates and the new park additions. He also spoke about the tourism in the county, the upcoming tourism season and how it's grown. Marc also spoke about the Think Differently program which is a program whose initiative seeks to change the way individuals, businesses, organizations and communities relate to our neighbors with all abilities and how well it is doing.

- Military Support: Talk on Frank's history with Percevon Horses and his carriage business and how he turned that concept into the Warrior Wagon, Veteran Appreciation Project. Discussion on the mission and successes of the program to date, their fundraising missions and what volunteer opportunities they have available and where they go from here.
- Transgender Community: Founders of Dutchess Pride Center, a non-profit groups that deals the transgender children. Discussion on the current perception and how they've dealt with being parents of a transgender child, their research and current set of groups that meet, their hopes and plans to grow the non-profit to spread awareness and offer solutions and guidance for all involved with gender issues. Also spoke on fundraising issues and outreach programs in the works.
- Veterans: Marc Coviello, Director of Dutchess Cty Veterans Services and Adam Roche, Program Director of MHA Vet2Vet discussed their backgrounds and what lead them to serve their country and now their fellow veterans. They discussed what each of their organizations has to offer Veterans and how to access the help that their organization has. They also discussed the current problems that Veterans are having in the Hudson Valley, fundraising and volunteer opportunities as well as upcoming events.
- Veterans and Homelessness: Christa Hines, Executive Director of Hudson River Housing and Tom Zurhellen, Commander of VFW Post #170, discussed the homeless problem in the community especially the problem with Veteran homelessness.
