WBWZ
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

---

WBWZ provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Community : Christina Novak, Community Network Liason for Westcop SSVF, talks about the agency, what their mission is, how to volunteer and/or sponsorship opportunities.
- Community Awareness: Laleen Ali, Facts Coordinator and Aimee Rubin, 2019 Honor of the March on Brain Injury Foundation, speak about the history of the foundation. Aimee discusses how she was injured, her rehabilitation and recovery and how the Brain Injury Foundation played a part in her recovery. Aimee also spoke about her new role with the Foundation. They also spoke about the upcoming Walk on 9/14/19, how to get involved, sponsor and/or contribute.
- Community Event: Gary Newkirk, Manager of the Ulster County Fair, spoke about his history with the fair, how he got to be manager of it. He also spoke about what goes into putting the fair together each year. The highlights of this year's fair schedule and entertainment were discussed and links and phone numbers were given for more information.
- Community Events: Mary Albrecht, Committee Chair, and Kathy Kruger, Vendor & Sponsor Chair, of the Pleasant Valley Weekend 2019 discuss how they came to be involved in the event. They also spoke on how the tradition of the event got started and where it's heading now. They spoke about the upcoming event, it's sponsors, vendors and entertainment. Also about volunteering and outreach for the different charities involved.
- County Government: Marcus Molinaro, Dutchess County Executive, discussed his last eight years in office, the different programs available throughout the county, the events that took place this past summer. He also spoke about the problems facing the county and some of the solutions being implemented to fix them.
