Text of Announcement:

On September 20, 2004, WJQK was granted a license by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as a public trustee until October 1, 2012.

Our license will expire on October 1, 2012. We must file an application for renewal with the FCC by June 1, 2012. When filed, a copy of this application will be available for public inspection during our regular business hours. It contains information concerning this station's performance during the last license term commencing on October 1, 2004.

Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application and to whether this station has operated in the public interest should file comments and petitions with the FCC by September 1, 2012.

Further information concerning the FCC's broadcast license renewal process is available at Station WJQK, (insert Public Inspection file address), or may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, D.C. 20554.
