3rd Quarter 2017 News Report

KMYT Local News of Public Interest:

Weather

Heat Advisory in Tulsa

Date: 07/11/2017 5am

Duration: 0:15

Ron Terrell

The deadliest weather events are not tornadoes, hurricanes, or flooding...it is heat. Emergency Medical Services Authority (EMSA) is urging all of us to play it safe and stay hydrated. The Centers for Disease Control Prevention (CDC) reports an average of 658 deaths from the heat each year. Every summer, EMSA sees patient after patient overwhelmed by the heat and humidity.

Another Heat Advisory in Tulsa

Date: 07/17/2017 5am

Duration: 0:20

Michelle Linn

We are off to another warm morning and with triple digit temperatures ahead this week. By 3 pm yesterday, Emergency Medical Services Authority (EMSA) responded to at least five heat related calls but only one was someone doing physical activity. FOX23 talked with people who said even just waiting until the evening to go outside can help.

High Temperatures Causes Car Problems

Date: 07/24/2017 5am

Duration: 0:30

Ron Terrell

The high temperatures are causing some issues for drivers. Several auto mechanics in town say they have seen a tremendous increase in the amount of heat-related car problems this week. Technicians at O'Reilly's Auto Parts say they have seen nearly double the amount of cooling system issues this week compared to last week. They say the other big problems with this weather include tires and batteries. Technicians say the best measure is to be proactive about making sure your tires are properly inflated and that fluid levels aren't low.

More Heat Alerts in Tulsa

Date: 07/26/2017 5am

Duration: 0:15

Ron Terrell

Emergency Medical Services Authority (EMSA) issued another heat alert. They responded to at least six heat-related calls yesterday where 5 of those patients were taken to the hospital. EMSA encourages you to drink more water than you think you need, and keep your phone charged, so you can call for help.

Ozone Alert Issued in Tulsa

Date: 08/03/2017 5am

Duration: 0:20

Naomi Keitt

The Oklahoma Department of Environmental Quality has issued an ozone alert for Tulsa today. That means conditions are favorable for the buildup of ozone near the ground at an unhealthy level which can cause problems with breathing. The department suggests carpooling and not doing any unnecessary driving during an alert.

Tornado Victim in Midtown

Date: 08/08/2017 5am

Duration: 0:45

Michelle Linn

This morning FOX23 is hearing from a woman who was buried in rubble at the TGI's Friday's as the storm blew through. Celia Daniel is covered in cuts and staples from head to toe, and has a fractured skull and vertebra. Her ten-year old son has a concussion. She says they were just about to leave the restaurant when it started pouring-- so they stayed inside and shot this cell phone video. Then she says the tornado hit and debris came crashing through the window. Daniel says "we were trying to run and hide. Something hit in the back of my head and it felt like I got ran over by a car." Daniel says "it was scary. I mean everyone was screaming and stuff and just blood everywhere." She says a restaurant employee put pressure on one of her cuts and a friend applied a tourniquet and kept her stable until medical help could get to them.

Tornado Damage in Midtown

Date: 08/09/2017 8am

Duration: 0:20

Clay Loney

Today FOX23 checked neighborhoods near the worst of the tornado damage in midtown. One homeowner told us his home near 36th and Sandusky is likely a total loss. Two trees fell on his home and the roof caved in on his daughter's bedroom. Tim Blair says he, his wife and his daughter barely made it out. His car also has significant damage.

Remington Tower Hits by EF2 Tornado in Midtown Tulsa

Date: 08/18/2017 5am

Duration: 0:35

Michelle Linn

Tenants at Remington Tower are getting their first look inside at the tornado damage. Yesterday was the first day they were able to go in and grab what they could. FOX23 News were there as a crane stood outside watching for falling shards of glass. David Reed is in downtown Tulsa. He is waiting to hear if Remington Tower can be salvaged. Reed's Architecture Company was in the middle of several projects when the EF2 tornado hit. Thanks to back-up servers, he said some of their projects were saved.

Ozone Alert in Green Country

Date: 09/13/2017 8am

Duration: 0:25

Shae Rozzi

Today was Tulsa's third ozone alert day of the year. These are days without much wind so air pollution hangs around and if it builds up, it can make it hard to breathe for some. During ozone alert days, it is good to avoid filling up your gas tank or mowing the lawn. Air Quality Managers say the air is cleaner than it has been but these days serve as a reminder of the little things we can do to help our environment. Experts say breathing in the pollution is like a sunburn for our lungs, and people with upper respiratory issues will have an even harder time.

Teachers Stem Workshop at Tulsa Tech

Date: 07/12/2017 5am

Duration: 0:15

Ron Terrell

Teachers are learning more about how to better help students compete for the best jobs. The Oklahoma Education and industry partnership hosted 100 local stem teachers at the Tulsa Tech Lemley Memorial Campus yesterday. The workshop helps teachers find new and better ways to prepare students for careers in science and technology.

Teachers Strike at Tulsa' Spartan College of Aeronautics

Date: 07/25/2017 5am

Duration: 0:40

Ron Terrell

The fight over healthcare forced some local aviation instructors to go on strike. Some teachers at Spartan College of Aeronautics say the school wants them to pay more for healthcare, and give employees lower wages. The school says the contract they offered is not final, and they hope teachers try to bargain with them. Some students, hoping to still graduate on time, showed up to support their instructors. The school says it called instructors from Denver and Los Angeles to fill in while the unionized teachers strike. FOX23 found out that this strike does not affect classes at Jones Riverside and Tulsa International Airports.

Mold Found in Broken Arrow Intermediate School (Country Lane)

Date: 07/25/2017 5am

Duration: 0:30

Naomi Keitt

The new school year starts in just three week and they are working to clean up mold in several rooms at the intermediate school in Broken Arrow. FOX23 learned on Friday where parents got an email from the principal telling them they found mold around a majority of the windows at the school. School leaders say the root cause is because windows were installed incorrectly. Water would seep into the windows causing mold. School leaders say they have been dealing with leaks for years. They wanted to get to the bottom of it this summer. The windows were installed incorrectly when the school was built in 2008.

Emergency Teaching Certificates Issued in Tulsa and Broken Arrow

Date: 07/29/2017 7am

Duration: 0:30

Naomi Keitt

Due to Oklahoma's teacher shortage, more than 850 emergency teaching certifications have been approved this year. 118 for the Tulsa Public School District 11 for Union, and 7 for Broken Arrow. The certifications are for those who do not have traditional training in education. This is something parents are not happy to see. One parent says "I don't feel comfortable with that. As a parent you want your child to have a qualified teacher." Most of the emergency certifications are to fill vacancies at early childhood facilities and elementary schools. The State is expected to issue another round of emergency certifications next month.

Tulsa Public Schools' Career Fair

Date: 08/10/2017 5am

Duration: 0:20

Michelle Linn

The new school year begins in less than two weeks but Tulsa Public Schools (TPS) is still trying to hire teachers. A recent career fair was held at Rogers High School. There will be another one today and tomorrow at Bell Elementary near Admiral and Sheridan. District leaders will conduct interviews on the spot.

Drug Testing at Bixby High School

Date: 08/10/2017 5am

Duration: 0:35

Ron Terrell

This year Bixby High School will require everyone who wants a parking permit to get a drug test. Each student will start the year with a test. Then every week after that, students will be randomly selected and tested again. Principal Terry Adams says the school sees it as an opportunity to intervene if kids are using drugs or alcohol off campus. If students test positive, there would not be any academic repercussions but they will be offered counseling regardless of how many times they test positive. The one-time fee of $25 dollars covers the cost of the testing for the rest of the school year.

Pre-K Program Still Available at Tulsa Public Schools

Date: 08/17/2017 5am

Duration: 0:15

Tiffany Alaniz

Officials with Tulsa Public Schools (TPS) want parents to know there is still room in the district's Pre-K classrooms, TPS still has more than 300 spots available in its Pre-K program. It is a free all day program for 4 year olds. If you have a little one you want to enroll, go to www.fox23.com to get more information on this program.

Concerns in Teacher Shortage and Turnover Rate

Date: 08/25/2017 5am

Duration: 0:20

Ron Terrell

School district leaders say the teacher shortage and turnover rate is impacting your kids. Tulsa Public Schools (TPS) has filled almost 500 positions this year. TPS needs to fill 9 more positions and Union Public Schools (UPS) needs to fill 7. Tulsa Superintendent Dr. Deborah Gist says keeping the teachers is also a huge challenge, and losing them affects your kids. UPS's Superintendent says he is concerned about a Supreme Court decision that will put 1.2 billion dollars into education in Kansas which means they could lose teachers to that state.

Chemistry Department Donation to Local High Schools

Date: 09/13/2017 5am

Duration: 0:20

Michelle Linn

Three local high schools have more money for the Chemistry Department. The American Chemical Society presented a five hundred dollar check to McLain High School. Teachers will use the money for the Advance Placement Chemistry Program. The American Chemical Society also gave money to Booker T. Washington and Broken Arrow High Schools.

New St. John Clinic in Jenks

Date: 07/14/2017 5am

Duration: 0:15

Ron Terrell

A new St. John Clinic is coming to Jenks. Crews were beginning construction. The two-story facility will provide multiple services such as urgent care, radiology and lab services. Once completed, the clinic will house about 70-80 doctors and staff.

Groundbreaking at the Gospel Rescue Mission in Muskogee

Date: 07/15/2017 7am

Duration: 1:05

Jackie Delpilar

Bunkbeds line the walls of the Gospel Rescue Mission in Muskogee. Patrons here at the mission say that it is more than just a safe place to sleep. Blake Roberts is staying at the mission right now. Roberts says "this place feels like home to me." Roberts also says programs here have helped him get a job, and back on his feet. Roberts says "I lost my house, lost my job, and pretty much lost everything, but now they give me hope, I hope everybody gets that good feeling inside themselves when they come here. The Mission hopes to serve more people like Blake with a new facility. The rescue mission has broken ground on the Miller Family Center for life change. They will have almost double the beds for men, and triple the beds for women and kids. The new facility will have a dining room big enough room to fit up to 120 people. They will also be able to fit 200 people in the chapel, and have rooms available for people who need more privacy. There is a lot of people on the edge of being homeless, a lot of people on the poverty line right now. Executive Director Rich Schaus says the mission hopes to expand its programming to help more than people who stay here. They are working to help families on the poverty line find stability, and hope.

Revitalization in Bixby

Date: 07/18/2017 5am

Duration: 0:30

Ron Terrell

Plans are underway to help revitalize downtown Bixby and the River Corridor. The City plans to add more seating, sidewalks and businesses downtown plus a new river access park next to Washington Irving Park. The City says it is trying to make good use of spots that people are already visiting in Bixby. Jared Cottle, Bixby City Manager says "we're trying to capitalize on that active community because all those things are active and that's been a hallmark of what has brought people here." The City hopes these projects will help bring more events, development, and visitors to the area.

Main Street Project in Jenks

Date: 07/19/2017 5am

Duration: 0:25

Ron Terrell

A road widening project is underway on Main Street in Jenks from Highway 75 all the way to Elm. Several Bond issues dating back to 2002 are paying for the 10.5-million-dollar project. The Jenks Chamber President says making the road wider will be a big help to the City. The project is set to be finished in July of next year. Workers plan to keep all lanes on Main Street open during construction.

New Development in Broken Arrow

Date: 07/31/2017 5am

Duration: 0:25

Ron Terrell

Plans are underway for new development in Broken Arrow's Rose District. Last year, the City bought the property along Main Street and demolished a church to make room for new businesses. A construction company is looking to build a four story building on the property with retail, restaurants, and office space on the first floor with apartments up top. Business owners nearby say the development will bring people to the north end of Main Street.

Bixby Residents Concerned about a New Development

Date: 08/10/2017 5am

Duration: 0:25

Michelle Linn

Neighbors are worked up about a development in Bixby. Things got heated at a public meeting, last night about the Links Apartment Complex, near 151st and Memorial. The complex wants to add more apartments from five hundred units to eight hundred units. Nearby homeowners are worried about the increase in traffic, and they have other concerns. Later this month, developers will meet with the Bixby Planning Committee to talk more about the plans.

New Dog Parks in Broken Arrow and Owasso

Date: 08/16/2017 5am

Date: 07/15/2017 7am

Duration: 0:20

Naomi Keitt

A big break in a crime spree. A man who Tulsa detectives say was already in jail confessed to robbing five Tulsa businesses. Detectives say Tracy Crawford admitted to robbing the Burger King near Admiral and Memorial in February; the Family Dollar near 55th and Peoria in April; a pawn shop near Admiral and Memorial in May; and a Chinese restaurant near Pine and Peoria...twice.

Serial Rapist Sentenced

Date: 07/19/2017 5am

Duration: 0:20

Ron Terrell

A serial rapist from Claremore was sentenced to 365 years in prison for raping, kidnapping, and robbing women. Earlier this year, a jury convicted 42-year old Shawn Freeman on 14 counts. Starting in 2015, Freeman pretended to be a police officer to attack women. He did it four separate times. On top of the prison sentence, the judge also ordered Freeman to pay $131,000 in fines.

Armed Robbery at Western Pine Apartments

Date: 07/22/2017 7am

Duration: 0:20

Naomi Keitt

New from overnight...Tulsa police are on the hunt for two suspects accused of robbing a delivery driver. Officers say it happened at the Western Pine Apartments near 23rd and Jackson around 12:30 this morning. The victim says she was delivering a pizza when two guys in dark clothes knocked her down, stole her money and then took off. She went to a nearby gas station for help.

Heroin Arrest in Sand Springs

Date: 08/04/2017 5am

Duration: 0:20

Ron Terrell

Sand Springs police arrested a woman who they say admitted to possessing heroin. An officer arrested Mindi Duty on Wednesday following a traffic stop for a broken tail light. The officer had his K-9 search the car and says the dog found heroin and needles. Police say Duty told the officer the drugs belonged to her. She is free on bond this morning.
