

KMYT-TV (My41), Tulsa, OK
Imagicomm Tulsa, LLC

Quarterly Issues/Program List

1st Quarter 2023

KMYT-TV provides its viewers with news and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Weather
- Education
- Municipal Issues
- Crime
- Health

This report contains a representative sample of the issue-responsive programming aired on the station. For more information about the station's issue-responsive programming, please contact the station directly.

1st Quarter 2023 Programming

Matter of Fact with Soledad O'Brien

A news magazine program that explores a variety of topics affecting families, including politics, social justice issues, the economy, and personal health.

Airs on KMYT on Saturdays at 4:00 p.m.

1/7/23

- Mental Health Help. A veteran returns home bringing with him the burdens of war. Now, there's a new crisis lifeline to help prevent the unthinkable.
- The Next Generation. Medical schools are wondering how they'll train OBGYN's in states where abortions are banned, and how the U.S. Supreme Court's decision to overturn Roe v. Wade could change the practice of medicine.
- Homeless Solutions. Cities across the nation are declaring homelessness a state of emergency and exploring what are the best solutions to help unsheltered people living in public spaces.

1/14/23

- In a Chicago community riddled with gun violence, bystanders are jumping in to treat the wounded. A look at the impact of a program that's training neighbors to step in and help.
- A historian who put textbooks to the test was stunned by the emphasis on whiteness.
- A life coach gives advice on sticking to your new-year's resolution.

1/21/23

- One hundred years ago, Asian-American settlers made a Louisiana village their home until they were swept away by a storm's raging tide. What they can teach us about America's coastal communities.
- The hosts of HGTV's Bargain Block are on a mission to update Detroit while battling lending inequality to help people become first-time homebuyers.
- A high-tech helping hand. How a researcher's innovative plan for the roads of Chattanooga, Tennessee could be a blueprint for other cities.

1/28/23

- Affordable housing advocates are in a lopsided battle helping local buyers get homes before they're snapped up by private investment firms.
- A New York mother is using her voice on Tic-Tok to help families just like hers.
- A treaty signed 200 years ago guaranteed a tribal nation a seat in congress. Now, their descendants are demanding what they're owed.

2/04/23

- Artificial Intelligence is turning the academic world upside down and a college student says his software can identify who's behind the writing—a human or a machine.
- The Biden administration winds down the emergency response, but what about COVID long-haulers? What's ahead for those who are still suffering when the rest of the world moves on.

- In February 1979, the Iranian revolution forced a family to flee their homeland. Now, decades later, sisters are documenting the deaths of a new generation of protestors and Iranian women fighting for their freedom.

2/11/23

- A Marine held hostage in Iran for more than 400 days shares his story of survival. How the big game threw a lifeline to Americans in the middle of the Iranian hostage crisis more than 40 years ago.
- Local journalism has deep roots in a small Michigan town, and the owners of the local paper want to retire. What happens to a community if it's newspaper can't survive?
- America is in desperate need of blue-collar professionals. What the future of work looks like.

2/18/23

- Non-stop scrolling on social media is taking a toll on America's teenagers and now, Seattle Public Schools is suing social media companies, blaming them for a worsening mental health crisis in young people.
- A classroom controversy surrounding African-American studies, and how it stirred a national debate.
- Forests are disappearing. What's being done to save the trees before it's too late.

2/25/23

- The youngest black mayor ever in the United States, and his mission to save his hometown. Does he have what it takes to revive the city?
- The 4-day work week experiment. Hear from one of the researchers involved in a first-of-its-kind study. Could it change the way Americans work?
- Cars, wildfires, and power plants have filled our air with pollution. How a satellite can help everyone breathe easier.

3/4/23

- Exploring the power of women as history makers, what a historian discovered traveling the path of the underground railroad, and retracing Harriet Tubman's footsteps on the road to freedom.
- Meet the architect who designed Tyler Perry's studios in Georgia and her creative force who aspire to bring Latino stories to the screen.
- A Brooklyn neighborhood called black girl magic row is where women are creating opportunity so their community can grow and thrive.

3/18/23

- In a small, mid-western town, you can't help but notice the Latin-X population is booming. What the remarkable transformation of Arcadia, Wisconsin says about the changing face of America.
- Los Angeles is producing some of the next big ideas. Exploring the inner workings of a tech hardware accelerator and looking to tomorrow's great successes.
- Too many people living in small towns and on farms don't have a reliable internet connection. How important it is to get rural America online and close the broadband gap.

3/25/23

- A woman is on a mission to combine cocktails with comedy to help give people of color a chance to thrive behind the bar.
- New York gridlock and the city's plan to start charging drivers when going in and out of Manhattan. The problems congestion pricing could have on surrounding areas.
- The highest court in the land is taking up some major cases, but don't expect quick results. A court expert weighs in on what's at stake for your future.

Inside Edition

A news magazine program focusing on current events and interesting national news stories.

Airs on KMYT on Saturdays at 1:00 p.m. and 4:30 p.m.

1/7/23

- New information on the investigation into the murder of college roommates. What the suspect did after the killings.
- Prince Harry's book blowback. What Princess Diana's butler is saying about the tell-all.
- The granny who prayed as her grandson, the pilot, had to make an emergency landing when the plane's engine conked out.

1/14/23

- Remembering Lisa Marie Presley. Her heartbreaking final year, what you need to know about women and cardiac arrest, and how it's been increasing in young women.
- A woman who once dated an accused Idaho killer, and the roommate who froze in fear and didn't call 911. Hear from one woman who says she understands how that could happen as she also once froze in fear.
- Eggflation. How the price of eggs shot up sixty percent and the shortage you're now seeing on supermarket shelves.

1/21/23

- Alec Baldwin's confrontation and his wife's message to America as she defends her man.
- Thou shall not steal. How a nun foiled a suspect's escape.
- Were hairs from one of the roommate's dogs found in the accused Idaho murder suspect's apartment. How dogs have their own genetic profile, and how America is embracing Murphy the dog.
- Airport meltdown. How a passenger lost it at the gate with a fire extinguisher.

1/28/23

- The Microsoft executive assassinated in front of his toddler daughter. Hear from his widow: why she thinks he was targeted.
- The college bar suspended from serving booze after an uproar over what happened to a college sophomore.
- A secret weight loss sensation. The side effects of a popular weight loss drug and why women are saying it's prematurely aging them.

2/04/23

- A doctor mowed down on his bike and then stabbed to death by the driver of the car that hit him.
- What a football wife says happened to her after the playoff game.
- A cancer hoax. Did a woman make the whole thing up? Why she was totally believable.

2/11/23

- A 72-year-old Dominos delivery woman takes a fall as she struggles to deliver food.
- A reporter takedown. He's slammed by police during a liveshot.
- Was a woman's husband trying to poison her by lacing her vitamin supplements with lead for six months?

2/18/23

- America's new "wonder woman," and what we can all learn from her terrifying ordeal at the gym.
- Real housewives warning. What they're saying about the diabetes drug hailed as a weight loss solution.
- New information about the death of Raquel Welch. What was learned about her final days.
- The terrifying drive when a man's accelerator was stuck while going 110 miles an hour, and how he got out alive.

2/25/23

- A gator attack exclusive. The heart-stopping moment a grandmother walking her dog was attacked by an alligator.
- A cross-country predator and the woman who tried to warn everyone that an accused kidnapper was a monster.
- A bride and groom trapped in an elevator for hours on the way to their after-party.
- The mysterious sphere washed ashore in Japan and how a hazmat team approached it with great caution.

3/04/23

- The fall of the house of Murdaugh. Could a boat tragedy be what led to the slayings of his wife and son that destroyed a dynasty?
- A reporter gunned down while on assignment and his heartbroken fiancé is having his baby.
- A former football player sentenced for attacking his ex-girlfriend, and what she's telling Inside Edition.

3/18/23

- A double amputee whose wheelchair was pushed down a flight of stairs, and her message to the guy who did it.
- The family Feud murder investigation. The game show contestant accused of slaying his wife.
- A bank at the center of the banking crisis is being compared to the television show, The Office.

3/25/23

- The story of Stormy Daniels and Melania Trump. How Melania says if the former president is indicted, she doesn't plan to stand by her man.
- An active shooter scare caused a big problem after no one told them it was a drill.
- A husband accused of poisoning his wife with arsenic is in court.
- A meteorologist had a medical emergency on live TV. The diagnosis of why she fainted.

KMYT-TV Community Event Participation and Support — 1st Quarter 2023

American Heart Association Heart Month – KMYT-TV (My41) supported the American Heart Association's public messaging campaign in February 2023. My41 aired a PSA produced by our sister station, KOKI-TV (FOX23), featuring FOX23 News anchors Shae Rozzi and Sara Whaley, encouraging viewers to learn "hands-only" CPR. My41 aired the PSA a total of 69 times during the month.