	Politics	Chaffetz Reaction	Utah Representative Jason Chaffetz admits his bid to become U.S. House Speaker is a "long shot".
	Health	Orem PD Pink	Pink is the color of the month in October when people show their support for those battling breast cancer, and for finding a cure. Here in Orem, police officers and firefighters are showing their colors to get the whole community involved.
October 6, 2015
	Crime	Suspicious Man	There's been reports of what could be the same "suspicious" man approaching children at elementary schools and bus stops.
	Crime	Bountiful Dog	A Bountiful man is asking for your help tonight. He found his dog beaten and struggling to walk in his own backyard. The dog's injuries were so severe he had to be put down.
	Technology	My Car Does What	If you've bought a new car recently, you've likely seen some of these symbols. No, this one doesn't mean your car will make you a cup of coffee. It means you might be getting drowsy!
	Community	Voice Contestant	We heard Utah's own Dustin Christensen last night as he wowed judges on the Voice. I asked him today how on earth a finance major and MBA ended up in music.
October 7, 2015
	Crime	Taylorsville Assault	It was nearly 2 weeks before police told residents or the news media about a violent attack at a public park. Police say a woman was assaulted and raped, and now tonight they made some mistakes.
	Safety	Safety Advice	We often talk about the importance of self-defense training after an incident like this, but police say your safety also has a lot to do with mental preparedness. During a special safety training for our own staff today, Police talked about the four -A's of personal safety.
	Community	Oops 911	By now, we're all familiar with the term butt dial that accidental call we make when we put our phone away, and the screen is not locked. For the dispatchers here at the Valley Emergency Communication Center, or VECC, accidental dials and hang-ups are now nearly 1/3 of their calls.
	Government	Geneva Halt	Gravel mining at the Point of the Mountain is about to stop at least in one spot! That's because a State agency says the company is mining where it isn't supposed to!
	Politics	Ann Romney No Regrets	Ann Romney weighing in on the race for the White House today on CNN. She told Jake Tapper she's concerned about the tone in the Republican party.

October 8, 2015
	Politics	McCarthy Withdraws	Shockwaves are still echoing in Washington tonight after a bombshell announcement threw the House Speaker's race into chaos. The question now becomes can Utah's Jason Chaffetz capitalize?
	Religion	Nelson Honor	A big honor at the U tonight for President Russell M. Nelson, of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. But as News Specialist Sam Penrod shows us he wasn't recognized for his religious service.
	Economy	Tourism Success	Utah has been discovered. We're on everybody's bucket list. Not just in the U.S., around the world. It's the Greatest Snow on Earth, and now our Mighty 5 National Parks that are building a reputation for our state as a destination that everyone must experience.
	Community	Anti-Bullying	All day today we have brought you information, solutions, and ways to cope with bullying as a student, parent or teacher. But, how do you define bullying. How far is too far?
October 9, 2015
	Politics	Speaker Shakeup	Mitt Romney's now weighing in on who should be the next Speaker of the House. His choice? His former running mate Paul Ryan. Romney called him today urging him to run, and a lot of other republicans are on "Team Ryan" as well even current speaker candidate Utah's Jason Chaffetz.
	Government	Obama Roseburg	President Obama met with victims of the Oregon college shooting today while police were called to two more campus shootings in other states.
	Drugs	Pot Bust	Federal agents believe they've broken up a drug trafficking ring that brought large amounts of Marijuana to Utah every month for the past five years. The pot came from a farm in Northern California. According to investigators, five men coordinated the 100 pound shipments.
	Community	Long May She Wave	There's something special about seeing people fight for what they believe in. But, in this case it wasn't for controversial topics like gun control, immigration, or healthcare. It was just to be able to fly the American flag in a Murray neighborhood.
	Sports	Utah Game Day	Fans have their ESPN signs in the hopes of making it on national TV. From now, until the Ute walk tomorrow night, there are opportunities to take part in the buildup before this big game. It's even homecoming, as if they need any more excitement, which means new "throwback jerseys".
October 10, 2015
	Community	USU Meat	It's a program that started 10 years ago as a service project to benefit the Utah Food Bank. 4-H'ers in Cache County raising animals to provide meat. In the beginning, they produced a few hundred pounds, today, it was a million pounds!

	Arts	Tosca	Utah Opera company brings back an audience favorite, "Tosca."
	Technology	Hack Day	Hacking is usually seen as a bad thing, but today's first ever Utah Hack Day brought together kids who just want to learn how to program. One student says sometimes programming is frustrating, but his favorite part is the end product.
October 11, 2015
	Crime	WVC Deaths	Two bodies were discovered in a mobile home. West Valley City police say they now believe they have a murder suicide on their hands. One of the victims, 39 year old Noelia Popoco of Salt Lake City. Something that has neighbors on edge.
	Community	AF Band Pocatello	The American Fork High School Marching Band's received plenty of accolades over the years, and spent a lot of time traveling they've even performed in New York City for Macy's Annual Thanksgiving Parade. But there's one place they've avoided, one competition at Idaho State University in Pocatello they've skipped for six years. This weekend, that all changed and through performing, they found peace.
	Health	Elephant Cancer	Last week, researchers in Utah made headlines around the world because of their studies into the question of why elephants almost never get cancer. They pointed a finger at a "superhero" gene called p53 which could open a new front in the war on cancer. KSL has more details in a one-on-one interview with the lead scientist.
October 12, 2015
	Safety	Hunting Accident	Cache County Sheriff's investigators have identified a 10-year-old boy -killed in a hunting accident over the weekend. Hunting safety is something state officers really try to drive home because of the consequences when things go wrong.
	Economy	No Social Security Increase	Millions of Americans hoping for a "cost of living" increase to Federal payments will likely be out of luck this year.
	Government	Medicaid Poll	In Utah, a straw poll scheduled for tomorrow, could 'make or break' the legislature's newest alternative to Medicaid expansion.
	Education	Governor Learns	Education is another high profile issue in our state. Today, Governor Herbert and other lawmakers wanted to learn first-hand the -challenges teachers face. And what better place to do it than a school where 80-percent live in poverty and 25-percent come from the -homeless shelter.
	Science	Wendover Find	A Utah rock hound recently stumbled across the find of a lifetime in the west desert. Now, he's waiting on the Air Force to check it out.
October 13, 2015

November 1, 2015
	Environment	Salt Crust	It's the northwestern part of the Great Salt Lake. You'd probably never visit; you can hardly get there unless you have your own helicopter. We have one, so we used Chopper 5 to help scientists studying what must be one of the largest man-made objects on Earth.
	Politics	Sugar House Presser	Salt Lake City mayoral candidate Jackie Biskupski spoke out today about a proposed development in Sugar House.  Biskupski and other leaders spoke at the Old Granite warehouse site the proposed site of a new building with nearly 500 apartments. She took shots at incumbent Mayor Ralph Becker saying the developer is donating to Becker's campaign and Becker was wrong to take away impact fees.
	Economy	Arches Comment	As the tourist season in Moab winds down, many are looking back at this: the unofficial start of summer: Memorial Day, when cars spilled out of the entrance to Arches National Park, stretching miles down the road to town.  The problem was so bad, the highway patrol closed the park's entrance. The National Park Service says it's not just an issue of getting into the park, it's managing the crowds once they're inside. They've been working on solutions for years, and now, they're asking for your help.
	Politics	Presidential Politics	Republicans are still buzzing about last week's presidential debate hosted by CNBC. Several of the Republican candidates complain they didn't get a fair shake from the moderators... and this evening, they're discussing a shakeup in the rules. Jeb Bush is one of the candidates hoping the next debate in just nine days will allow him an opportunity to 'reset'.
November 2, 2015
	Safety	Aggressive Driving	Over the last several months the UHP put "aggressive driving" on their radar to reign in deadly crashes.
	Health	McKay Hep C	Thousands of Utahns are being told to get their blood tested tonight. The reason they could have been exposed to Hepatitis-C at Ogden's McKay-Dee Hospital. That's where a nurse was fired earlier this year for tampering with syringes in order to steal medications.
	Community	Candy Capers	Here is some footage from Halloween that you just have to see to believe. Apparently, the bowl of candy left unattended was just too much to resist. The candy caper was 'caught on camera.'
	Consumer	Hacker Threat	We're getting advice from an experienced hacker. He says the bad guys only need one thing to ruin your life. And with that one thing they can see where you live, work, spend your free time, and the routes you take to get there.

November 3, 2015
	Politics	Election Night	The polls are closed. Now votes are being furiously counted. With mostly mail-in ballots the early numbers aren't as concrete as we're used to, but participation is way up thanks in part to a very close Salt Lake City mayoral race.
	Politics	Voter Turnout	The numbers for "early voter" turnout are rolling in and so far, so good. A lot of people casting ballots by mail also in person.
	Safety	Saratoga Roads	Traffic problems are reaching a boiling point along Redwood Road in Saratoga Springs. The madness during peak drive times is spilling over onto neighboring streets and KSL heard from parents tonight who are worried about safety.
	Environment	Oakland Coal	A hot controversy has been boiling in San Francisco Bay for months, and it's all focused on the state of Utah. The issue: should Utah coal should be shipped overseas through the Port of Oakland?
	Technology	Quit Facebook	13-hundred people in Denmark took part in a unique social media experiment last week. They cut themselves off from Facebook. Before and throughout the week they reported their happiness and stress levels. Within a few days participants say it was easier to concentrate focus on friends and family and feel more productive.

MEET THE PRESS

KSL Television airs meet the Press, a weekly news/interview program produced by NBC, Sunday mornings at 8:00 am. Each program is approximately one hour in length and is hosted by Chuck Todd.

Meet the Press specializes in interviewing national leaders on issues of politics, economics, foreign policy, and other public affairs.

COMING UP ON “MEET THE PRESS WITH CHUCK TODD” 10/4/15: SIT DOWN WITH DONALD TRUMP, NEW NBC NEWS/MARIST POLL NUMBERS FROM IOWA & NH THURSDAY’S TRAGIC SHOOTINGS IN OREGON

As more details continue to emerge on Thursday’s tragic shootings in Oregon, the United States turns again to a conversation focused on gun control and mental illness. President Obama immediately politicized the shootings to reignite the national debate, calling for action on gun safety legislation, while 2016 presidential contenders responded to the tragedy on the campaign trail. Chuck and the panel examine the ongoing national conversation and the likelihood of follow through in Washington.

ONE-ON-ONE SIT DOWN: PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE DONALD TRUMP

Republican presidential frontrunner Donald Trump released his tax plan earlier this week, making headlines with its estimated cost of $12 trillion over 10 years -- a direct counter to his pledge that the plan “doesn’t add to our debt and deficit.” Trump also reversed his earlier support of welcoming Syrian migrants to the United States, stating this week that they are “going back” because they “could be ISIS.” Chuck talks with Trump in person about all of this and more.

NEW NBC NEWS/MARIST POLLS NUMBERS FROM IOWA & NEW HAMPSHIRE

“Meet the Press” will have the first look at new poll numbers out Sunday on where 2016 presidential contenders stand in the two earliest states: Iowa and New Hampshire.

RUSSIA BEGINS AIRSTRIKES ON SYRIA

On Wednesday, Russia began strategic airstrikes in Syria in the fight against ISIS, warning the U.S. to steer clear of Syria’s airspace. The bombings have come under question from U.S. officials on whether the strikes are also targeting rebels trying to overthrow Russia’s longtime ally President Bashar Assad. What does this mean for the U.S. and its strategy? Chuck talks with two former presidential advisers, Stephen Hadley and Michael McFaul, on the developing situation overseas.

Stephen Hadley, Former National Security Advisor to President George W. Bush

Michael McFaul, Former United States Ambassador to Russia for the Obama Administration

THE WEEK IN POLITICS

Did President Obama’s remarks on the tragic Oregon shooting effectively begin a conversation again on gun safety? Did Hillary Clinton catch a big break this week with the comments of likely Speaker-to-be Kevin McCarthy on the intentions of the Benghazi committee? How will the Obama administration handle Syria? The political roundtable tackles all of this and more on Sunday.

COMING UP ON “MEET THE PRESS WITH CHUCK TODD” 10/11/15: SUNDAY EXCLUSIVES WITH REPS. DENT, BRAT; ONE-ON-ONE WITH SEN. BERNIE SANDERS SUNDAY EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW: REP. CHARLIE DENT (R-PA)

Rep. Charlie Dent joins Chuck to discuss chaos in the House and how his Republicans are strategizing around the Speaker race, which was upended on Thursday with an abrupt exit from House Majority Leader Kevin McCarthy.

“Well it's pretty obvious what happened. The same members who wanted to take down John Boehner, I always said, would try to frag the next guy. Well, they just fraged Kevin McCarthy.” – Dent on MSNBC Thursday

SUNDAY EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW: REP. DAVE BRAT (R-VA)

Rep. Dave Brat, the man who topped former House Majority Leader Eric Cantor and rode into Congress on a wave of Tea Party support, talks with Chuck about how House Republicans are reacting to Rep. McCarthy's decision.

“It seems to me our group is putting up somebody who's principled and could work with both sides, be fair to both sides.” - Brat, a member of the Freedom Caucus, on its support for Rep. Webster for Speaker

ONE-ON-ONE WITH PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE SEN. BERNIE SANDERS (I-VT)

With his first presidential debate this Tuesday, Sen. Bernie Sanders (I-VT) joins Chuck in-studio to discuss his stance on trade, employment, the United States' role in Syria, his fellow 2016 contender Hillary Clinton, and who he would name as a running mate.

“There are more than a few Republicans for Bernie Sanders out there.” - Sanders on MSNBC's “Morning Joe” this week

THE WEEK IN POLITICS

Will Paul Ryan succumb to the mounting pressure for him to be House Speaker? Will Clinton's TPP reversal hurt her in the long-term? What can we expect from Tuesday's Democratic presidential debate? The roundtable discusses all of this and more.

COMING UP ON “MEET THE PRESS WITH CHUCK TODD” 10/18/15: SUNDAY EXCLUSIVES WITH SEN. TED CRUZ, BENGHAZI CMTE. MEMBERS REPS. SCHIFF & POMPEO

SUNDAY EXCLUSIVE: PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE SEN. TED CRUZ (R-TX)

All eyes are on Sen. Ted Cruz, who has been laying low this month compared to Republican frontrunners Donald Trump and Ben Carson. Cruz, who brought in more than $12 million dollars this past quarter in fundraising, sits down one-on-one with Chuck to address the state of his presidential campaign, including his upcoming rally on religious liberty, his recent condemnation of the “Black Lives Matter” movement and more.

SUNDAY EXCLUSIVE: BENGHAZI COMMITTEE MEMBERS REP. ADAM SCHIFF (D-CA) & REP. MIKE POMPEO (R-KS)

More than a year after the Select Committee on Benghazi was formed, Presidential Candidate Hillary Clinton is scheduled to publicly testify in front of the committee this Thursday. Committee members Rep. Adam Schiff and Rep. Mike Pompeo join Chuck live on-set to preview the hearing and address recent allegations of political motivation.

THE WEEK IN POLITICS

Why is the fight between Rubio and Bush getting ugly? What do third quarter fundraising numbers reveal about candidates’ campaigns? Are there any developments in the speculation of a Biden presidential run? The roundtable tackles all of this and more on Sunday.

UPDATED: COMING UP ON “MEET THE PRESS WITH CHUCK TODD” 10/25/15: DR. BEN CARSON; SUNDAY EXCLUSIVES WITH REPS. GOWDY & CUMMINGS
ONE-ON-ONE INTERVIEW: PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE DR. BEN CARSON

Dr. Ben Carson has emerged as the new Iowa frontrunner this week, leading Donald Trump and debuting “Heal. Inspire. Revive.” as his campaign slogan. Chuck joins Carson on the trail in Iowa to discuss his policy positions and the future of his presidential campaign.

SUNDAY EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW: REP. TREY GOWDY (R-SC)

Benghazi Committee Chairman Trey Gowdy joins Chuck live to discuss Thursday’s hearing with Hillary Clinton and talk about the future of the committee.

“This is not a prosecution. I’ve reached no conclusions, and I would advise you not to reach any conclusions either.” -Rep. Gowdy at Thursday’s hearing

SUNDAY EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW: REP. ELIJAH CUMMINGS (D-MD)

Rep. Elijah Cummings, ranking member of the Benghazi Committee, joins the show to discuss how he believes Thursday’s hearing went and what it means for the Democratic Party.

“It is time, and it is time now, for Republicans to end this taxpayer-funded fishing expedition.” -Rep. Cummings at Thursday’s hearing

THE WEEK IN POLITICS

Vice President Joe Biden decided not to run for president. Rep. Paul Ryan announced he will run for Speaker of the House. Former Sec. Hillary Clinton’s Benghazi Committee hearing lasted 11 hours. Former Sen. Jim Webb announced he will launch an independent bid for the White House, and former Gov. Lincoln Chafee dropped out of the Democratic primary race. The panel discusses all this and more from the week in politics.

COMING UP ON “MEET THE PRESS WITH CHUCK TODD” 11/1/15: SUNDAY EXCLUSIVE WITH FMR. GOV. JEB BUSH; HOUSE SPEAKER PAUL RYAN SUNDAY EXCLUSIVE: PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE FMR. GOV. JEB BUSH (R-FL)

Former Florida Governor Jeb Bush talks exclusively with Chuck in Miami about the future of his campaign after his Wednesday debate performance and aggressive campaign restructuring last week with across-the-board cuts to staff and salaries.

“We need a unifier, not a cynical divider-in-chief, and that’s exactly what I will do.” - Bush at Wednesday’s CNBC debate

ONE-ON-ONE INTERVIEW: SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE REP. PAUL D. RYAN (R-WI)

Wisconsin Rep. Paul Ryan was elected as Speaker of the House of Representatives on Thursday with 236 votes after weeks of uncertainty surrounding the position and on the heels of the House passage of a sweeping two-year bipartisan budget deal. Chuck speaks with Ryan on his leadership, the challenges facing the Republican Party and more.

"We have nothing to fear from honest differences honestly stated. If you have ideas, let's hear them. I believe that a greater clarity between us can lead to a greater charity among us." - Ryan to the House on Thursday

INTERVIEW WITH PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE FORMER GOV. JEB BUSH (R-FL)

Former Florida Gov. Jeb Bush continues to face scrutiny from voters following his performance in Tuesday’s debate. Bush talks with Chuck about his positions on immigration, as it remains the forefront issue of the Republican Party, as well as the future of his presidential campaign.

SUNDAY EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW WITH CLINTON CAMPAIGN CHAIRMAN JOHN PODESTA
John Podesta, chairman of the 2016 Hillary Clinton presidential campaign, joins Chuck live from Iowa to reflect on Saturday's Democratic debate, how Clinton is handling attacks from Sanders and the future of her presidential campaign.

SUNDAY EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW WITH DAVID BOREN, PRESIDENT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA

After two University of Missouri officials resigned this week after criticism of how racist incidents on campus were handled, universities are on notice as college students nationwide protest racism on campus. Chuck speaks with David Boren, president of the University of Oklahoma, where a fraternity's racist bus chant went viral in March and sparked outrage across the country. Boren and Chuck will discuss the responses from universities across the country and if Boren's political background helped how he handled the situation at OU.

THIS WEEK IN POLITICS

How and where could Trump's attacks on Carson, the field's most popular candidate, hurt him? Are "outsider" GOP candidates becoming more acceptable to the Republican electorate as the year goes on? Will Sanders attack Clinton in Saturday's debate? The panel discusses all of this and more from the week in politics.

COMING UP ON "MEET THE PRESS WITH CHUCK TODD" 11/22/15: SUNDAY EXCLUSIVES WITH FORMER DEFENSE SEC. LEON PANETTA, OHIO GOV. JOHN KASICH

SUNDAY EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW: LEON PANETTA, FORMER SEC. OF DEFENSE FOR THE OBAMA ADMINISTRATION

Panetta, who has served both as Secretary of Defense and CIA director for the Obama administration, said that "we don't have any kind of larger strategy to try to deal with what's happening in the Middle East, what's happening with ISIS" earlier this month at a Fortune event. Sunday, he joins Chuck live to talk about the White House's response to recent terror attacks.

"This is a war and we're going to have to unify under one command to conduct this war." - Panetta on Fox News earlier this week

SUNDAY EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW: BILL BRATTON, COMMISSIONER OF THE NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

NYPD Commissioner Bill Bratton talks with Chuck about our domestic response to potential terror attacks and the state of our homeland security.

"The world changed dramatically over the weekend and the assignment for which you have volunteered - there is now no more essential assignment in the world of policing in the NYPD." -Bratton to NYPD special counterterrorism team on Monday

SUNDAY EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW: GOV. JOHN KASICH (R-OH), PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE

Earlier this week, Kasich proposed a new government agency to push Judeo-Christian values around the world, but yesterday, he moved away from the proposal, saying a "new agency" isn't necessary. Kasich discusses his rhetoric -- and the overheated rhetoric on the campaign trail this week -- with Chuck as well as his foreign policy positions.

"The idea that someone would have to register with the federal government because of their religion strikes against all that we have believed in our nation's history." - Kasich's response to Trump's proposal of creating a mandatory database to track Muslims
