

KSHO Radio
4th Quarterly Report 2015
From October 1st to December 31st

These are some issues the KSHO Staff deemed as important to our listening audience:

Local event:

Interview with Carl Gustafson of Corvallis who flew 27 missions over Germany and France, during World War II in a B-24 Liberator. He was in one of a 10 man crew and was the noseunner in the plane. The French government this year (70 plus years later) thanked Gustafson by bestowing that countries highest honor, the French Legion of Honor Medal. Ceremonies were held in Corvallis at the Majestic Theater.

Aired on KSHO 10/1-2 2015 in newscasts throughout the day.

Interview with Kim Scott, President and CEO of Trillium Family Services who discussed the Open House dedicating the treatment center for youth on the former Children's Farm Home campus north of Corvallis off highway 20. The program provides mental health care for children and they provided tours of the state of the art facility.

Aired on KSHO 10/2-5 in newscasts throughout those days.

Interview on SENIOR NEWS UPDATE with Joni Sholz, Samaritan Health Systems Perinatal Nurse. This involved the campaign called Click for babies to make people aware of infant abuse during early development when babies cry more than any other time, sometimes inconsolably. The campaign is known for the purple caps that serve as reminders as the period of purple crying.

Aired on KSHO 10/20 on Senior News Update at 10:30am

KSHO Radio
4th Quarterly Report 2015
From October 1st to December 31st

These are some issues the KGAL Staff deemed as important to our listening audience:

Local Event: (45 Sec)

Interview with various officials of Albany Helping Hands, including Director John Donovan. Excerpts taken from sister station KGAL's Valley Talk hosted by Jeff McMahan. Albany helping hands provides funding for low income housing and services for the needy as well as food and clothing.

Aired on KSHO (10/21) thru 11/5 in newscasts and on Senior News Update

Local Event: (39 sec)

Interview with Jonathan Mang, owner of an 1884 barn on the National Register of Historic Places located between Lebanon and Crabtree in Linn County. The barn was constructed using wood pegs for the frame...which can still be observed according to Mang who preserving the structure.

Aired on KSHO (11/15-16) in newscasts throughout those days.

Local Event: (57 seconds)

Interview with Major Bill Hathorn of the Albany Salvation Army office regarding the 18 to 20 sites where the black/red kettles and bell ringers are located in Corvallis and Albany. This year they were also hosting the 'Fill the Fire Truck' with donations at the Walmart Supercenter on Goldfish farm road including Albany Firefighters.

Aired on KSHO (12/18-19) in newscasts throughout those days.