

KSHO Radio
2nd Quarterly Report 2016
From April 1st to June 30th

These are some issues the KSHO Staff deemed as important to our listening audience:

Local event: (25 seconds)

Interview with Shelly Garratt, Executive Director of the Lebanon Chamber of Commerce Regarding the upcoming BIZ EXPO at the Rivercenter featuring over 120 vendors involving Businesses and Non-Profits. It turned out that 18=hundred and 42 people attended the event.

Aired on KSHO 4/5-12 on various newscasts during those days

Local event: (44 seconds)

Interview with Samaritan Rehabilitation specialties of Lebanon with hospital spokesman, Ian Rollins about the specialty center opening up on April 18th in north Lebanon on Mullins Drive. Physical therapists will treat patients with orthopedic injuries, related to the back, next and extremities, as well as Sports Medicine related conditins.

Aired on KSHO 4/16-17 on various newscasts during those days.

Local event: (51 seconds)

Interview with Lebanon Maintenance Operations Director for the city of Lebanon, Jason Williams regarding several city parks projects and grant funding. Topics included improvements to Grant and Christopher Columbus City Parks and possible change over of ownership of the Cheadle Lake Property, from the Cheadle Lake Foundatin to the City of Lebanon. Talks are still going on.

Aired on KSHO 4/23-24 2016 on various newscasts during those days.

KSHO Radio
2nd Quarterly Report 2016
From April 1st to June 30th

These are some issues the KGAL staff deemed as important to our listening audience:

Local event: (34 seconds)

Interview with Linda Baker, President of the Jefferson Friends of the Library who says the process is nearly over for the construction of a new Library in town. They have been working on it since 2010, and currently received an okay from the city's planning commission and city council. The Friends have raised so far about 800-thousand dollars for the project through donations from individuals and public events and grant money.

Aired on KSHO 5/10-11/2016 in various newscasts throughout those days.

Local event: (53 seconds)

Interview with Lauren Grand, an Oregon State University Extension Forestry Agent discussing a workshop for woodland owners and small farmers in Eugene May 13th and 14th. At the River Road Park in Eugene covering to help small farmers and woodland owners plan for an orderly transition of their property from one generation to the next.

Aired on KSHO 5/11-12/2016 in various newscasts throughout those days.

Local event: (38 seconds)

Interview with Mike Nessen representing the Albany branch of the National Association of Letter Carriers talking about the 24th Annual Food Drive on Saturday, May 14th. The carriers pick up non-perishable food at local mailboxes and take the food to the Linn-Benton Food Share where it is distributed to the needy in this area.

Aired on KSHO 5/12-13/2016 in various newscasts throughout those days.

Local event: (1:15 minutes)

Interview with Derrick Sterling and Jeff Doty, both election officers for Linn and Benton County's respectively regarding the May 17th Oregon Primary. Discussing of ballot returns late in the week prior to the election, the amount of returns and reminders for voters regarding deadlines and dropbox sites.

Aired on KSHO 5/13-16/2016 In various newscasts throughout those days.

KSHO Radio
2nd Quarterly Report 2016
From April 1st to June 30th

These are some issues the KSHO staff deemed as important to our listening audience:

Local event: (46 seconds)

Interview with City of Salem Assistant Engineer for an update on the proposed new Police Facility to be voted on citizens of the Capitol City in the Fall. The City Council held a public hearing and after the hearing the council decided to refer to the voters the preferred option at a cost of 82-thousand dollars for a 148-thousand square foot facility that is seismically safe. The structure would be built on the former O'brien Honda site, just north of downtown Salem.

Aired on KSHO 6/10-11/2016 in various newscasts throughout those days.

Local event: (24 seconds)

Interview with Lebanon Fire Chief Gordon Sletmoe regarding that 125 firefighters from around the state would be visiting Lebanon, as host city and other local fire departments in the area for the annual 2016 Oregon Volunteer Firefighters Association (OVFA) Conference. Classes in the field as well as the classroom were held providing high quality intense training with firefighting equipment and rescue techniques, plus an awards banquet on Friday June 17th.

Aired on KSHO 6/14-15/2016 in various newscasts throughout those days.

Local event: (37 seconds)

Interview with Anna Gorski, project manager for the new Peter Courtney Minto Island Bridge spanning the Willamette River near downtown Salem. The two famed arches were slowly going up over the bike/pedestrian bridge. Gorski said the project costs around 10-million dollars consisting mostly of grant funds and should be completed by the end of the year.

Aired on KSHO 6/17-20/2016 in various newscasts throughout those days.