

KSHO
4th Quarterly Report
From October 1st to December 31st

These are some issues the KSHO Staff deemed as important to our listening audience.

Local event: (40 sec)

Interview with Michelle Dennehy of the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife promoting hunter safety classes and safety in general on the first full weekend of deer hunting season coming up. Youth 17 and under are required to take the classes and adults are also welcome according to Dennehy. Or adults are at least encouraged to look over the hunter workbook provided by ODFW and take the classes free online at: dfw.state.or.us/education/hunter.

Aire on KSHO 10/7-13 2014 in various newscasts throughout those days.

**

Local event: (36 sec)

Interview with Craig Meissner. He and his wife teach survival seminars for those who might be in a disaster: man-caused or by nature such as an earthquake, a flood or a hurricane. Meissner has lived "off the grid" for 7 years. That is living in a rural home with running water, heat and own food to, if necessary out live a disaster. He and his wife were teaching a survival seminar in Sweet Home at the SDA Church on east Holly Road.

Aired on KSHO 10/15-16 2014 in newscasts throughout those days.

**

Local event: (90 sec)

Interview with Bob Weir of the Oregon Human Resources Department on SENIOR NEWS UPDATE. He discussed a planned meeting in Lebanon, Oregon by representatives of his department called a "Community Conversation" with seniors and disabled people. An attempt to listen to the two groups to obtain ideas to improved their services in the program.

Aired on KSHO 10/18/20 on SENIOR NEWS UPDATE those two days.

KSHO
4th Quarterly Report
From October 1st to December 31st

These are some issues the KSHO Staff deemed as important to our listening audience.

Local event: (90 sec)

Interview with Kuri Gill, Oregon Heritage, Grants and Outreach Coordinator who explained a statewide historical project sponsored by the Oregon Parks and Recreation Department in search of African American History in the State. The project involves to local sites. The Gorman house on 4th street in Corvallis and the Cora Cox house on Lake Creek Drive near Brownsville.

Aired on SENIOR NEWS UPDATE 10/10-20 , a program devoted to events and issues for seniors.

**

Local event: (48 sec)

Interviewed City of Albany Fire Chief and Emergency Management Director John Bradner on site at City Hall regarding a mock drill or test exercise regarding a possible 6.7 earthquake. City employees in all departments explained their responsibilities and what a devastating scenario might look like and how they would react to it. KSHO's news director participated in a mock news conference asking pretend questions along with other reporters regarding such a major quake.

Aired on KSHO 10/20/23 2014 in newscasts throughout those two days.

**

Local event: (62 sec)

Interview with Rick Rogers, spokesman for the Samaritan Health Services 4th Annual Living Well Expo in Heritage Mall in Albany. Rogers covered on the planned events throughout the day including a number of vendors on display. KSHO also held a live broadcast of the event for 3 hours with staff members Jeff McMann and Mike Mason and Bill Diamond in the KSHO studios providing music between breaks in the live on-the air program.

Aired 10/23-24 2014 in newscasts throughout those two days.

KSHO
4th Quarterly Report
From October 1st to December 31th

These are some issues the KSHO Staff deemed as important to our listening audience:

Local event: (36 sec)

Interview with Lebanon Library Director Carol Dinges about reduce hours. They decided to close on Mondays with reduced hours the rest of the week. In addition she says there is a study that seems to indicate there is less use on books and materials in the local library compared to two years ago, but it's not just because of reduced hours. They want to do more follow up on the study. Finally they have introduced a new credit/debit cards program at the library.

Aire on KSHO 11/2-5 2014 in several newscasts throughout the specified days.

**

Local event: (51 sec)

Interviewed Superintendent of Albany School District, Maria Delapoer regarding the process by the school board in selecting a new Superintendent after her retirement at the end of this school year. The board listened to "Window to Leadership" contractor Greg Mckenzie who is assisting the district in identifying a replacement taking the cue from students, staff, parents and community leaders.

Aired on KSHO 11/11 2014 11/12-13 in various newscasts throughout those days.

**

Local event (27 sec)

Interview with Laurel Byer in the Benton County Public Works Department regarding the Corvallis-Albany Trail. Discussed the hoops it takes to establish the trail and the route that is planned off of Highway 20 between the two cities. They are currently working on several grants to design and construct certain sections of the trail.

Aired on KSHO 11/14-15 2014 in variuous newscasts throughout those days.

KSHO
4th Quarterly Report
From October 1st to December 31st

These are some issues the KSHO Staff deemed as important to our listening audience:

Local event: (28 sec)

Interview with Rick Rogers regarding the Saturday November 15th annual Freedom Fest Dinner for Veterans and their Families at the Eagles Lodge in downtown Albany. The dinner and dance is free for the Vets.

Aired on KSHO 11/13-14 in various newscasts during the two days.

**

Local event: (1:02)

Interview with Lebanon Mayor Paul Aziz detailing the VISION 2040 Kickoff Campaign. A vision seeking input from citizens on what they want the city to look like in the next 20 years or so. The city council listened to the hired company from Washington State...BDS Communications about the process in incorporating as many people as possible in the community to participate in the project.

Aired on KSHO 11/19-20 2014 in various newscasts throughout the two days.

**

Local event: (58 sec)

Interviewed Linn County Assessor, Dave Swartzlender regarding payments due on property taxes on November 17th. Full payments made by that date receive a three percent discount. He said the payments were coming in better than average pace compared to the economic crisis years we have just gone through.

Aired on KSHO 11/15-17 2014 in various newscasts during the two days.

KSHO
4th Quarterly Report
From October 1st to December 31st

These are some issues the KSHO Staff deemed as important to our listening audience:

Local event: (54 sec)

Interview with Rick Little, Region 2 ODOT Spokesman about construction work going on Interstate 5 regarding median barriers to prevent crossover crashes. Holes were being dug and post put in with cable being attached covering a mile stretch of the freeway from south of Salem to North of Eugene.

Aired on KSHO 12/5-7 2014 in several newscasts throughout those days.

**

Local event: (39 sec)

Interview with Josh Wheeler, Benton County Public Works Director regarding the Hubbard Bridge crossing the Long Tom River in south Benton County. The bridge near Monroe has been closed to regular traffic because of an emergency 5-ton weight limit, until funding can be obtained to replace the bridge.

Aired on KSHO 12/10-11 2014 in several newscasts throughout those days.

**

Local event: (1:07minutes)

Discussion of the Downtown Twice Around Christmas Parade in Downtown Albany with Rod Porsche, Executive Director of the Albany Downtown Association , as well as a community tree lighting

Aired on KSHO 12/5-7 2014 in several newscasts throughout those days.

**

Local event: (40 seconds)

Interview with Dala Johnson coordinating the annual Holidays in the Park celebration at Ralston Park in Lebanon with a tree lighting ceremony immediately following a parade in the downtown core area. The theme this year was "Rockin' around the Christmas Tree" and the event was highlighted by the participation of the newly crowned Miss Oregon.

Aired on KSHO 12/5-7 2014 in several newscasts throughout those days.

KSHO
4th Quarterly Report

These are some issues the KSHO Staff deemed as important to our listing audience:

Local event: (53 sec)

The Albany Chamber of Commerce held their annual Youth Job Fair December 16th at Linn Benton Community College. We interviewed Kimberly Montgomery, events and program manager for the Chamber about potential volunteers to interview the youth. The event also has a number of vendors, some 70 booths made up of schools and businesses.

Aired on KSHO 12/5-13 2014 in several newscasts throughout those days.

**

Local event: (49 sec)

Excerpts take from an interview by The Bloomberg Report with CEO of VDOS Global, a Corvallis based Company, one of four companies in the country to be given the okay by the Federal Aviation Administration to fly drones commercially...and the only one cleared to work with energy producing companies. CEO of VDOS, Brian Whiteside says even though they have been cleared by the FAA, the GAO, the Government Accounting Office,...says it will be 2017 or later before final rules are set.

Aired on KSHO 12/15-16 in several newscasts throughout the those days.

**

Local event: (44 sec)

Interview with Melissa Anderson, the City of Albany's Flood Plain Manager about the Christmas Flood of 1964. Discussing the damage of the flood and improvements made since then which include more dams that were erected on the Santiam River to control river flow, plus improvements to the South Santiam-Albany canal, and culverts in place on Quarry Road and the Knox Butte Area and Truax Creek.

Aired on KSHO 12/20-21 in several newscasts throughout those days.