

Ascertainment 2008 4 – Economy

Date: 10/7/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: A southern Indiana community is getting a major boost to rebuild it's riverfront that was damaged in last month's windstorm. The Riverfront awning in New Albany was damaged in the windstorm. Now with money from the tourism bureau and insurance - a new all steel structure will replace the stage. Construction on the $600,000 project is expected to start sometime next week.

Date: 10/8/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Financial analysts say $2-trillion has been wiped out of Americans' retirement funds in just over a year. And that has people rethinking their retirement plans.

Date: 10/10/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: With the cool nights, some people are turning up the heat. And there's good news for those who need help with the high bills. Kentucky was supposed to receive $30-million in heating help, but just got double that amount.

Date: 10/10/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: It's something we haven't seen in quite a while - but you can find gasoline for less than $3.00 a gallon in this area.

Date: 10/11/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: General Electric's profits fell 22% during July, August, and September -- compared to the same time last year. It's the latest blow to the company, which employs about 5,000 people at Louisville's Appliance Park.

Date: 10/11/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: The bleakest economic downturn in decades has shoppers looking for bargains these days. Saving money is the name of the game and that has consumers looking for the best deal they can find.

Date: 10/13/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: While tough economic times are forcing some restaurants to close, others plan to open.

Date: 10/14/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Everyone is looking for ways to make their money stretch with the bad economy. Most people know, you never shop when you're hungry, and always cut coupons when grocery shopping. But, there are some other tips that are not as common but can really pay off.

Date: 10/15/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: The bright side of these tough economic times is-- there are some good deals out there. Now is a perfect time to buy a house, as long as you can get the financing.

Date: 10/16/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Car sales are down three percent nationwide, but that's actually "good" news for some of us. The economic downturn is actually creating bargains for some potential buyers.

Date: 10/17/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: In times like these, everyone needs a comprehensive financial plan. And despite the volatile stock market; now is not the time to panic.

Date: 10/17/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: A local agency is offering free budget help to get your finances in order. Consumer Credit Counseling Service in Louisville has seen a huge jump in the number of clients. CCCS says people need to remember to pay themselves first, by putting 10% of their paychecks into savings.

Date: 10/17/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: A home furnishings store going out of business means about 300 people locally will lose their jobs. Linens N Things is liquidating 350 stores, including the St. Matthews location.

Date: 10/19/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: A Louisville hotel that's hosted guests from Elvis Presley to U.S. presidents bids its final farewell. The Executive Inn will close its doors in December.

Date: 10/20/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Good jobs are available in Louisville, but the competition for them is stiff. Louisville's unemployment rate is up from a year ago; so if you have a good job, consider yourself lucky, if you're looking for work you, may have to be patient.

Date: 10/21/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Despite what we hear about the credit crunch, Louisville area banks are lending money. While some national banks are struggling, community banks are remaining strong.

Date: 10/21/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Clarksville's Toyota dealership has a new name and a new state of the art look. Today was the grand opening for Jeff Wyler Toyota. The former Green Tree Toyota - is now one of the largest dealerships in the Louisville Metro area.

Date: 10/21/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: He knows pizza - but now the founder of Papa John's is expanding into the sandwich business. John Schnatter was there for the ribbon cutting today at Louisville's first Calistoga Artisan Sandwiches stores.

Date: 10/22/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: A lot of us are tightening our belts these days, with all the problems with the economy. But, some local businesses are actually finding ways to grow.

Date: 10/22/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: A decision could come today on whether another entertainment complex similar to 4th Street Live! will come to downtown Louisville. Members of the Metro Council's budget committee are meeting. They're expected to make a final decision on whether to approve a $12-million land purchase for the Center City development.

Date: 10/24/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: If you bank with National City, you will soon have a new bank. PNC announced today it bought National City for $5.5-billion.

Date: 10/27/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Louisville's downtown arena site is no longer filled with two big buildings and a parking structure. As demolition ends, the Arena Authority is turning its attention to construction and gaining the attention of events planning to come to the area.

Date: 10/27/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: The downtown arena isn't the only major project that has struggled through the weak economy-- a proposed Salvation Army community center has been put on hold indefinitely. The $15 million project is expected to provide services to low-income families in south Louisville. But, Salvation Army officials say the project will have to be put on hold, so the organization can have enough money to take care of local needs.

Date: 10/27/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Studies show that kids are growing up without knowing the basics that will keep them out of financial trouble. Efforts are now underway to educate kids about how to take care of their money now and in the future.

Date: 10/27/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Louisville will run out of resources and housing for the homeless if current trends is not reversed. That's the conclusion of a study the Coalition of the Homeless commissioned on the cost of homelessness.

Date: 10/28/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: With the economy suffering, what can we expect with air travel this upcoming holiday season? While the number of people traveling may be down, planes will still be crowded.

Date: 10/29/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: A warning today: you're likely going to have to pay a lot more to stay warm this winter. The Kentucky Public Service Commission says the average customer will likely pay about 17% more this winter for natural gas than last year.

Date: 10/29/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Louisville's mayor says jumpstarting the global economy needs to start at a local level. Jerry Abramson spoke to a U.S. House committee on behalf of the U.S. conference of mayors. They're urging congress to pass a $150-billion main street stimulus plan.

Date: 10/30/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: It's news that should bring comfort to 5,000 Ford workers in Louisville and to the entire community. Ford is getting a $180-million incentive package from the state. It's so Ford can invest $200-million in its two Louisville.

Date: 10/30/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: GE says it's expecting to lay off salaried workers at Appliance Park, but has not determined exactly how many. The cuts will come in GE's Consumer and Industrial division.

Date: 10/30/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: UPS airline mechanics are taking their job concerns to the street. Teamsters Local 2727 had an informational picket on contract negotiations. They say UPS wants to outsource their jobs and make them pay extra for healthcare at a reduced cost.

Date: 10/30/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Governor Beshear says the state must make new budget cuts or even raise taxes very soon to ease a budget hole that's getting deeper.

Date: 10/30/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: Kentucky's governor is one of six pleading for federal help for troubled U-S automakers. General Motors and Chrysler are talking about merging to survive, but financing has been one of the biggest obstacles.

Date: 10/31/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: It appears a long proposed development in downtown Louisville is getting another chance. City development officials negotiated for months with the Cordish Company over a proposed retail and entertainment complex near 4th Street Live. Cordish threatened to pull out when Metro Council members decided the city was offering too much and receiving too little assurance Cordish would hold up its end of the deal.

Date: 10/31/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Many of us have watched our wealth shrink during the past several months as the stock market has plummeted. But one local investment advisor believes that the worst may be over.

Date: 10/31/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Gun dealers appear to be thriving both locally and across the country, ahead of Tuesday's election. Gun owners say the boosting sales are making them nervous. They say the recent purchases were made by those who worry about the economy -- and wonder whether an Obama victory will bring stricter gun laws.

Date: 11/3/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Circuit City is pulling the plug on 155 of its stores, including two in Kentuckiana. This store on the Outer loop and another in Clarksville are closing. The struggling electronics chain is making the move in an effort to return to profitability.

Date: 11/5/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Louisville Metro Council members are being urged to take a vote tomorrow which will move a major downtown development forward. Organizations that support revitalizing the downtown held a rally today in support of the long-discussed Center City project. The development, just east of Fourth Street Live! will focus on adding more retail shopping.

Date: 11/5/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: One of the biggest challenges for the new president will be to repair the ailing economy. The president-elect is expected to move quickly on a number of issues once he is sworn into office in January.

Date: 11/5/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Kentucky farmers hit by drought are getting some relief. The U.S. department of Agriculture is providing emergency loans to farmers in need. Governor Beshear says farmers can also get loans if they suffered crop losses from high winds when the remnants of Hurricane Ike blew through the state in September.

Date: 11/5/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Young professionals in Louisville realize they're the ones who are and will be commuting to and from work and around town for decades to come. And they're also the ones who will be paying for transportation improvements.

Date: 11/5/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: More local jobs are headed overseas. American Steel Cord will close its plant in Scottsburg, Indiana, at the end of the year. More than 150 workers will lose their jobs.

Date: 11/6/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Foreclosure rates are at an all time high. But now a lender is taking steps to help local residents prevent being a victim of foreclosure.

Date: 11/6/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Mayor Jerry Abramson insists the Metro Council must approve a land purchase tonight to keep a major downtown development alive. This land at Second and Ali is needed for Center City, a project to add retail shops, restaurants, and other attractions to the nearby Fourth Street Live! The Mayor says the land must be purchased by December first. So, the Metro Council must give approval tonight, for financing to be secured by the deadline.

Date: 11/6/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: More Kentucky families are getting help dealing with rising heating prices this winter. Families who qualify will get a 40% increase in their subsidy to help pay heating and fuel costs. It's part of the $75 -million for the federal Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program or LIHEAP.

Date: 11/6/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: The local economy might not be in great shape but some places are still looking for workers. Louisville Metro government is looking to hire hundreds of people. And most of the jobs will be in the public safety department, like police, fire and EMS. A lot of the jobs were created because of retirements.

Date: 11/6/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Metro Council puts their stamp of approval on a land deal that breathes new life into a major downtown development.

Date: 11/7/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: A tough economy and the September wind storm have a long-time Oldham County grocer wondering how long he can hang on.

Date: 11/7/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: A local charity is ringing in the holidays a bit early this year. The Salvation Army kicked off its Kettle and bell ringing campaign today. Bell ringers will be at several stores across the area from now until Christmas Eve collecting donations for those in need.

Date: 11/7/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Some local charities are already swamped with calls for help for the holidays, and it's still almost three weeks to Thanksgiving. They want to raise more money than last year to serve more needy people, thanks to the economy.

Date: 11/7/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Ford and General Motors are making cuts, after both automakers suffered another three months of losses in the billions. It's very telling when a worker at Ford's Louisville Assembly Plant tells you, he's worked only five weeks since June and is laid off again from now until January. 3,600 GM workers will be laid off indefinitely, starting early next year, including the factory in Bowling Green.

Date: 11/8/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: People looking for a job with metro government, serving the public, attended a special career fair just for them. Today, Louisville Metro Human Resources sponsored a job fair for police, fire, EMS, corrections and related fields. Sponsors say applications for Metro government jobs have increased more than 25% over last year.

Date: 11/10/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Plans are proceeding for the re-development of the old Colgate plant in Clarksville. The Town Board is expected to approve a zoning change for the project, now known as Clark's Landing, a week from today. The landmark clock would stay in place and be surrounded by condominiums, a museum, hotel, and convention center.

Date: 11/10/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Zappos, the mail order giant with a distribution center in Bullitt County, is laying off 8 percent of its employees. 16 people will lose their jobs at Zappos' operations in Shepherdsville - those cuts will be made in what the company is calling support departments.

Date: 11/11/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Everyone should have a plan for managing their money, especially in tough economic times. A recent survey shows that 75% of adults wish they had a better understanding of their own finances.

Date: 11/11/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: With the bad economy, it's tough for some parents to provide a merry Christmas for their children. Toys for Tots have started collecting donations of toys and money for area children. Organizers hope despite the economy, people will still continue to give.

Date: 11/12/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Several hundred employees at Louisville based YUM! Brands will be changing jobs or losing them. But the fast food giant is not blaming the restructuring on the nation's economic slowdown. Instead, the company is reducing the number of employees who work for headquarters because it is increasing the number of stores owned by franchisees.

Date: 11/12/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: The company that owns three local malls may file for bankruptcy during the height of the holiday shopping season. General Growth owns Mall St. Matthews and Oxmoor Center in Louisville, and River Falls Mall in Clarksville, Indiana.

Date: 11/12/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Louisville post offices are hurting financially during these tough economic times. The Postal Service has not replaced more than 100,000 employees who have either left or been fired over the last six years. Now, the Postal Service is offering early retirement to more than 150,000 workers nationwide.

Date: 11/12/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: Floyd County residents will pay a new income tax starting early next year. The tax passed tonight could raise about four million dollars a year for police and fire protection. Chiefs of several departments warned of layoffs or closing fire houses without it. They're losing funds because of the state's cuts in property taxes.

Date: 11/13/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: With recent cuts at Ford, Yum, and GE, jobs in our area seem to be disappearing at an alarming rate. The mayor spent the day crunching the numbers with city budget officials. Occupational tax revenue coming into the city has really taken a hit over the past several months as a result of layoffs.

Date: 11/13/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: With so many layoffs in Kentuckiana, people are looking for jobs. And there are quite a few seasonal jobs available. Retailers now have larger applicant pools to choose from. People who are well qualified are applying for holiday jobs.

Date: 11/13/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: The state of Indiana is running out of money when it comes to paying those without jobs. The department of workforce development says the state doesn't have enough to cover unemployment benefits. The state trust fund will run out of money at the end of this year or in the first months of next year.

Date: 11/14/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Gasoline prices across the Louisville area are headed up again after falling since mid-summer.

Date: 11/14/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Gift cards-- which are good for people who are hard to shop for-- may not be your safest bet this holiday season. FOX 41's Julie Tam tells us what happens to gift cards when a store files for bankruptcy or goes out of business.

Date: 11/15/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: Southern Indiana has a new place for you to make some friends and burn some calories. The YMCA of New Albany opened its doors to eager members waiting to try out the new equipment. Construction began on the facility in the fall of 2006.

Date: 11/16/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: Louisville Metro-Mayor Jerry Abramson is expected to make an announcement tomorrow on the current state of the city's tax revenue shortfall. The announcement comes after hundreds of jobs were lost or employees transferred from Louisville-based YUM headquarters.

Date: 11/16/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: A Kentucky-based maker of automobile brakes is cutting back some of its workforce. Akebono Brake Corporation is asking employees to take voluntary retirements and is not filling vacancies in an effort to reduce costs.

Date: 11/17/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Louisville Mayor Jerry Abramson is taking immediate steps to deal with a $20-million budget shortfall. A hiring freeze and restrictions on travel and spending are just a few of the cutbacks mentioned.

Date: 11/17/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Those cuts by Citigroup amount to 53,000 workers, and local jobs could be among them. The cuts are in addition to the 22,000 already being eliminated. Citigroup has a call center in Louisville with 1,500 workers. Mayor Abramson says there's no word yet on the effect the layoffs will have on jobs there.

Date: 11/17/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Metro Council members sometimes criticize the Mayor's budget and showdowns between unions and the administration are common.

Date: 11/17/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Governor Beshear is urging Congress and Washington to act fast on a bailout for the auto industry.

Date: 11/17/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: If your budget is strained, should you keep borrowing money? That's the question bounced back to Mayor Abramson, hours after he announced a hiring freeze and possible layoffs.

Date: 11/17/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: The mayor won't announce further, specific cuts until the first of next month. That's when these south-end residents and others find out what city cuts they'll have to endure.

Date: 11/17/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: We're getting a better look at what the transformation of the old Colgate plant will look like as plans get the green light to move forward. Tonight the Clarksville town council approved a zoning change for the site so developers can move forward with a $500-million concept.

Date: 11/18/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: GM workers in Bowling Green are rallying this afternoon they're also trying to get help for the struggling auto industry.

Date: 11/18/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Louisville's Mayor is dealing with a 20 million dollar budget shortfall, but a bad situation may get even worse. The city is losing millions in occupational taxes as employers cut jobs and hours. And later this week, the mayor expects to get a large bill from the state pension system.

Date: 11/18/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: The CEO's of Ford, General Motors and Chrysler beg Congress for a $25-billion loan to save their companies from bankruptcy. Fewer workers at the Louisville's Ford plants or their suppliers mean fewer tax dollars paid back into the community. Their future may well rest with Congress in the next few weeks.

Date: 11/18/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: Ford and GM aren't the only ones with Kentucky car plants hit hard by the economy the facility that makes the nation's top selling car is now even making cutbacks. Toyota says it will get rid of more than half of its temporary assembly line workers at its plant in Georgetown.

Date: 11/19/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: More layoffs in the auto industry in Kentuckiana. An auto parts supplier in Elizabethtown is the latest auto company to reduce its workforce.

Date: 11/19/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: While Elizabethtown may be hurting... the city of Jeffersonville, Indiana says it's doing well in this bad economy. Since January, Jeffersonville has announced eight local companies are expanding, bringing between 400 and 700 new jobs.

Date: 11/19/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Kentuckiana is taking another hit from the auto industry. This time Toyota is making the cuts. The Japanese motor company reports slowing sales and plunging profits. So it's slowing down production at plants in Georgetown, Kentucky and Princeton, Indiana.

Date: 11/19/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: In this tough economy, families are struggling to make ends meet. With layoffs and foreclosures looming, the outlook isn't good. But a local family is trying to beat the economic odds.

Date: 11/19/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: The tough economy apparently isn't hurting one local restaurant chain. It's having its best year ever, and tonight it grew by one. Tonight, the owners of Los Aztecas opened their fifth restaurant on Frankfort Avenue.

Date: 11/20/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: The number of people filing for unemployment in Kentucky and Indiana is skyrocketing, but the states are running out of money to pay for it. 32 States including Kentucky and Indiana do not have the amount of money in their unemployment trust funds recommended by the federal government. But Kentucky appears to be in better shape than Indiana.

Date: 11/20/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Plans to build an electric car manufacturing plant in Kentucky may be zapped. Shepherdsville based Integrity manufacturing makes these Zap electric cars. It's reported that a key partner - General Electric capital has pulled its $125-million commitment for building a new plant in Franklin, Kentucky.

Date: 11/20/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: The economy has forced another Louisville restaurant to shut down. Melillo's will close its doors at the end of the year. The restaurants' owner blames high food costs and taxes.

Date: 11/20/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: A pedestrian bridge that connects Indiana and Louisville is what Jeffersonville officials hope will spur re-development to the area. Jeffersonville city officials are close to selecting a design for their entrance to the Big Four Bridge that is slated to become the pedestrian bridge. The city planner says it'll be more than a year before construction starts.

Date: 11/20/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: The city's budget problems just keep getting worse. Now, Louisville will have to find an extra $13-million to pay for its retirees next year.

Date: 11/21/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Pay cuts and temporary layoffs. Those are the first two steps Mayor Jerry Abramson is taking to address a growing budget deficit.

Date: 11/21/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: The downturn in the economy has certainly changed Louisville's restaurant scene. Even in good economic times the profit margins are thin for restaurants. So in tough economic times in order to stay in business they have to make some changes.

Date: 11/21/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Churchill Downs wants to make sure the bad economy doesn't keep race fans away Derby weekend. The track is freezing most of its ticket prices for the 2009 Derby and Oaks. This will keep most reserved seats and general admission prices the same as they were in 2008.

Date: 11/21/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: There's a dispute today over exactly who's pulling the plug on a proposed electric car plant in Kentucky.

Date: 11/21/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: In a time when downtown Louisville restaurants are closing, a new one opened up today. Einstein Brothers Bagels opened its first Louisville location on Fourth Street.

Date: 11/21/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Kentucky will face a $456-million shortfall by next June. That's the prediction made today by the state's Consensus Forecasting group. The prediction is much worse than the $294-million shortfall predicted in late October.

Date: 11/21/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Retailers aren't waiting for Black Friday to announce holiday bargains. Some have started big sales before Thanksgiving. Many local stores like Toys R Us are holding door buster deals. It's an attempt to get shoppers to spend money now.

Date: 11/22/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Bankruptcies filed in Louisville have jumped since last year despite a 3-year-old law that makes it tougher to file for bankruptcy. A lot of people think they have no alternative.

Date: 11/23/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: City budget cuts could lead to fewer Metro Police cars on the street. Mayor Abramson has asked all departments to trim back their budgets as a result of the city's $20-million shortfall. Part of a proposed plan could include increasing the amount of money police officers pay to take home their patrol cars.

Date: 11/23/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: Indiana's unemployment rate is the highest it's been in more than two decades. According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the state lost nearly 58,000 jobs last month alone.

Date: 11/24/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: City budget cuts could lead to fewer police cars on Louisville's streets. Fraternal Order of Police members are upset officers will have to pay the price for a $20 million budget shortfall.

Date: 11/24/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Louisville area Congressman John Yarmuth says once the Big 3 Automakers submit a business plan for re-building their companies, he believes the federal government will come to their aid.

Date: 11/24/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Despite the tough economic times, at least one Louisville company is moving up. Healthcare technology company, ZirMed hit a milestone.

Date: 11/24/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: The unemployment rate in Kentucky has gotten a little better. It's now at 6.8%, down from more than seven percent. But even with the bad economy there is one employer who needs 1,700 workers.

Date: 11/24/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: The economy is leaving some people with nothing to put on the table this Thanksgiving. And one local food bank is feeding nearly 40% more people this year than last.

Date: 11/24/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: It's turning out to be a showdown between the police and the mayor in Metro Louisville. Hundreds of officers are saying no tonight to proposed cuts and changes in the way they operate.

Date: 11/25/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Louisville Police officers have voted-down measures to help the city balance its budget. But Chief Robert White says he will have the last word. Last night, Fraternal Order of Police members unanimously said no to taking three days off without pay, paying more for take home cars, and other concessions. Chief White says he must cut his budget by four and a half million dollars and one million of that must come from uniformed officers.

Date: 11/25/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: This holiday season, there's an even bigger push to buy local. Independently-owned shops and restaurants are creating incentives for people to buy from them. With the bad economy, money is tight. And these shops along Frankfort Avenue are some of many who want consumer to shop here first, before buying from national chains.

Date: 11/25/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: More bad news for city workers tonight as Metro Louisville continues to search for $20-million, to make up for it's revenue shortfall. As police continue to reject cuts, the mayor is turning to union leaders who represent other city employees.

Date: 11/25/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: City services and projects could also be cut or delayed as a result of the city's budget shortfall.

Date: 11/26/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Louisville's Fraternal Order of Police says it will continue discussions with the city but is not backing off it's refusal to accept wage and benefit concessions.

Date: 11/26/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Metro police have come up with a change in strategy in their dealings with city leaders over budget cuts.

Date: 11/27/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Black Friday may still be several hours away, but a lot of people got an early start today, with Thanksgiving Day sales.

Date: 11/28/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: After a rough year, this was the day retailers have been waiting for, hoping to begin making-up for sluggish sells.

Date: 11/28/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: One of the longest lines of shoppers waiting to get into a store could be found at the Target on Taylorsville Road. Hundreds of shoppers were waiting, some for as long as two hours when the store opened at 6:00am. The line stretched for almost 3 football fields and was 2 to 3 people wide.

Date: 11/28/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Jeffersonville city government has managed to cut more than one million dollars from next year's budget, without reducing services or laying off employees. But city leaders say, after reducing spending as much as they can, the 2010 budget may be the real challenge. With tough economic times expected to continue, they are looking for ways to raise new revenue.

Date: 11/28/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Shoppers lined up early to get their hands on this season's hot electronics. Best Buy on Shelbyville Road opened at 5:00 this morning, and hundreds of people were waiting. One shopper got in line at 2:00 yesterday afternoon and says he does it because it's a tradition.

Date: 11/28/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: An old central Indiana ski resort may get a new lift. The old Ski World site is in Brown County, between Bloomington and Nashville. Brown county planning officials have given preliminary approval to a developer's plans for housing, retail businesses and a hotel.

Date: 11/28/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Firefighters are trying to come up with a plan to help the city's 20-million-dollar budget shortfall, without giving up too much.

Date: 11/29/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: This year's Black Friday proved to be a much-needed sales boost for retailers compared to last year. According to early data, sales on the day after Thanksgiving rose to $10.6-billion. That's up almost three percent from last year.

Date: 11/29/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Tomorrow is going to be the busiest day at Louisville's airport during this Thanksgiving travel week. You can still find deals for Christmas travel, but you have to know where and when to look.

Date: 11/30/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: You should know, by the end of the week what services the city of Louisville will cut to make up a $20-million budget shortfall. That means cuts could come that could affect essential services, despite protests from several city unions.

Date: 11/30/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Times may be tough, but they're not stopping the Kentucky Motorcycle Association and the Marine Corps League's Toys for Tots campaign. This is their 26th year.

Date: 12/1/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Some Louisville residents may have to change their routines because libraries, Community centers and city-run facilities are cutting back hours of operation. The cuts in city services are the Mayor's latest target as he struggles with a big budget deficit

Date: 12/1/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: The Louisville water company wants about a five and a half percent rate increase for its customers. Now metro council members want to know why.

Date: 12/1/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Friday was the biggest shopping day of the year at the stores. But today, shoppers are hitting the web. On this Cyber Monday, Louisville's GSI Commerce expects to ship more than 70,000 packages "twice" its usual volume.

Date: 12/1/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Kentucky's Governor needs more than a billion dollars, and he's turning to our next President for help. Steve Beshear will meet with Barack Obama and other governors during a conference in Philadelphia this week. He says Kentucky could use some help funding the state's Medicaid program, unemployment assistance, and new infrastructure projects.

Date: 12/1/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: A potential showdown looms between Louisville metro government and its employee unions. Those unions want independent analysts to review the city's sudden budget problems.

Date: 12/1/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: The Metropolitan Sewer District will cut at least half-a-million dollars as well. And, its executive director Bud Schardein and the chief engineer will each take 10% pay cuts for 2009. Schardein makes $175,000 a year, so his cut is $17,500.

Date: 12/2/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Persuading union workers to give back their two percent raise remains a tough sell at Metro Hall. The Fraternal Order of Police met this afternoon with Mayor Jerry Abramson to talk about budget cuts.

Date: 12/2/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Every highway project under consideration in Kentucky is getting a thorough review. Transportation Cabinet Secretary Joe Prather says his department is facing a $105-million shortfall for the rest of the fiscal year.

Date: 12/2/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: The bad economy has taken a bite out of another long-time Louisville restaurant. Mazzoni's Cafe, which has been operating in Louisville for 125 years, shut down over the weekend. The owner says he was forced to close because of the rising minimum wage and cost of food.

Date: 12/2/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: At least one of the big three automakers may turn down part of the 25 billion dollar bailout. Ford Motor Company says they may not need the government loan. Right now, they are taking steps to cut costs, hoping to break even by 2011. And employees at both plants are glad the company is being proactive.

Date: 12/3/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Do Metro Council members have some fresh ideas on how to cut spending? The Council is trying to help the Mayor deal with a $20-million deficit. While the Mayor and Council discuss deficit solutions, a lot of regular citizens have comments and ideas of their own.

Date: 12/3/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Everything inside a Louisville landmark fabric store will go to the highest bidders. Crews are getting the Baer Fabrics store ready for an auction this weekend.

Date: 12/3/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Many auto workers get paid most of their salaries, even while plants are shut down. But that could soon be history.

Date: 12/3/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Some metro council members want to know how the mayor adds up a 20 million dollar hole in the city budget. The Council is suggesting cuts of their own, but they're also complaining they haven't had enough say. The mayor's office says they've had plenty of opportunity to comment and still do.

Date: 12/3/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: One of the victims of Louisville's budget shortfall may get new life. Earlier this week, Mayor Jerry Abramson announced that Otter Creek Park would close to help offset the city's budget shortfall. But Kentucky's Fish and Wildlife commissioner wants to meet with park officials to discuss operating Otter Creek as a wildlife management area.

Date: 12/3/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Governor Steve Beshear says some very dark days may lie ahead for Kentucky, as state government tries to make up for a 456-million dollar budget shortfall. He says, to get through this crisis, the entire state must pull together, especially its lawmakers.

Date: 12/6/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: Governor Beshear also took a minute today -- to discuss the state of the current economy. He had some encouraging words for Kentuckians.

Date: 12/7/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: "Save Otter Creek" -- the three-word rallying cry from hundreds of park supporters opposed to Mayor Abramson's decision to close Otter Creek Park. Those three words are a tough sell as the city is trying to make up for a $20-million budget shortfall. Some fear closing the park will lead to its deterioration and destruction.

Date: 12/8/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: With state money tight, Governor Steve Beshear and Lieutenant Governor Daniel Mongiardo say they're willing to take a pay cut.

Date: 12/9/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Employees at G-E's Appliance Park have known layoffs are coming. This week they're finding out who is losing their jobs. The company confirmed to Fox 41 news today that notifications are going out to employees this week. These are salaried workers.

Date: 12/9/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Union officials representing police, fire and other city workers want to take a closer look at the budget numbers before they agree to pay cuts or unpaid time off. The President for the Fraternal Order of Police says it members are willing to work with the city through this economic crisis. But he wants to take a closer look at the numbers because he thinks the $20 million shortfall might be an inflated figure.

Date: 12/9/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: The economic crisis in Kentucky is now taking its toll on those who have served their country. The military can be a fulfilling career for many people, and their services are applauded. But some who come out of the service have hard times, and they could be getting even harder.

Date: 12/10/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: At this hour Louisville's Mayor Abramson is telling the community more on how he plans to cut $20-million from the city's budget.

Date: 12/10/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: The US Army says the downturn in the economy is actually helping its mission. As unemployment and foreclosures soar, more people are looking for a job that offers a sense of security.

Date: 12/10/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Even with the country in a recession, charitable organizations are hoping people don't forget about the needy in Louisville.

Date: 12/10/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: City workers avoided layoffs -- but services will be cut, a fire house will close and police officers will be forced to pay more to drive their patrol cars home. Mayor Jerry Abramson laid out even more cuts designed to fix the city's financial gap. Some of the biggest include project delays and more unpaid time off for city workers.

Date: 12/10/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: Metro Council president Jim King says he will return 10-percent of his district's discretionary funds because of the city's budget crunch. King says he'll return $10,000 of district 10's Capital Infrastructure Funds. He'll also return $7,500 in Neighborhood Development Funds.

Date: 12/10/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Tonight, the heads of the unions that represent city workers are far from happy with the mayor's budget-balancing plan.

Date: 12/11/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Governor Steve Beshear says the state can't overcome a huge budget deficit just by cutting spending. Today he proposed massive increases in the state cigarette tax to help balance the budget.

Date: 12/11/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: The recession has some big city mayors asking the federal government for help. The U.S. Conference of Mayors is hoping the new Obama administration will create a stimulus plan for the cities.

Date: 12/11/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Jeffersontown's mayor is proposing cuts to keep the city's budget balanced. Mayor Clay Foreman says he will not accept his annual pay increase. And he won't fill vacant management positions through the end of this fiscal year. Foreman says new grant projects will not be initiated either.

Date: 12/11/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: It's a push to bring more retail development to southeast Jefferson County. A Lexington developer wants to build a large retail center on 12 acres of land at Bardstown Road and Brentlinger Lane. The proposed plan includes a Kohl's Department store, two other stores, and a restaurant.

Date: 12/11/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: State agencies will be cut, layoffs are possible and smokers will have to pay more for cigarettes under Governor Steve Beshear's plan to fix the state's massive deficit. Kentucky is facing $456 million shortfall. Governor Beshear says without a cigarette tax increase, other state agencies will suffer crippling cuts.

Date: 12/11/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: Another budget balancing proposal the governor made today may also be controversial. Beshear want to save $8-million by having all state employees take three furlough days before the end of the fiscal year. The governor admits the unpaid days will be a hardship, but says it may help save many jobs.

Date: 12/11/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: Indiana is also feeling the pinch of the tightening economy. Today Governor Mitch Daniels ordered state agencies to cut an additional 3% from their budgets.

Date: 12/11/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: One of the city's biggest conventions is coming back to Louisville. Fox 41 news has learned that the Future Farmers of America will return to Louisville. The convention moved to Indianapolis in 2006 because the city has more hotel rooms. Louisville and Indianapolis will share FFA's 70,000 visitors in a rotating basis.

Date: 12/12/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Louisville and Indianapolis are going to share the FFA Convention. Starting in 2013 Louisville will begin to share the convention with Indy. Louisville will be the site from 2013 thru 2015 and then back to Indianapolis from 2016 to 2018. The FFA convention is said to have a $40-million economic impact on the host city.

Date: 12/12/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Governor Steve Beshear is being praised for trying to spare education, health, and public protection as he makes painful budget decisions. Mental health professionals and educators joined the Governor this morning to call for public support for his plan to eliminate a $456-million deficit.

Date: 12/12/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: In just 24 hours, gasoline prices in Kentuckiana have shot up nearly 35 cents. Gas in Louisville went from around $1.36 to $1.70. Prices in southern Indiana are about $1.50.

Date: 12/12/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Honda is cutting production by another 119,000 cars and trucks in the next few months to adjust to plummeting demand. Plants affected include the new Honda facility in Greensburg, Indiana.

Date: 12/13/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: General Motors say it will temporarily close 20 factories across North America -- including a truck assembly plant in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Many plants will be shut down for the entire month of January.

Date: 12/14/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Indiana's second largest manufacturing company - Rolls-Royce - is hiring.

Date: 12/14/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: It's a winter wonderland for those in need. Hundreds lined up at Saint Vincent de Paul's 12th annual Sunday Santa Shop to do their Christmas shopping. People got to choose gifts for their children, all for free. The gifts at the Santa Shop were donated by various organizations that serve the community.

Date: 12/15/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Metro Police administrators have told officers - if they choose not to keep their take-home patrol cars, the city could sell them. This is the latest budget battle for police officers and the department.

Date: 12/15/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: The Arena Authority is quick to point out current crews are already generating new tax revenue at a time city government has been hit by declines in occupational tax collections. The amount will grow as the workforce eventually increases to more than 600.

Date: 12/16/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: General Electric has decided not to spin off or sell its appliance division. That means nothing will change at Appliance Park, at least not now. And it looks like the tough economy is why.

Date: 12/16/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Kentucky's tourism industry is going to face some challenges as the state Tourism Cabinet reduces its budget by four percent. The state plans to reduce staff at welcome centers across the state and the centers may shut down two days a week starting in January.

Date: 12/16/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: The Fraternal Order of Police is set to meet within the hour to determine the next move over take home cars. Last week metro police officers were told use them or lose them. And their cruisers could be sold if they choose not to keep them as take-home vehicles. They are also being asked to pay more for take-home cars because of the city's $20-million budget shortfall.

Date: 12/16/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Nationally many retailers are reporting slower sales with the country in a recession. But a local mall says it's bucking the national trend.

Date: 12/16/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Use them or lose them. That's what administrators are telling Metro Police officers about their take-home patrol cars. The Fraternal Order of Police and its officers met tonight to talk about the future of those vehicles, in wake of the city's money troubles.

Date: 12/16/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: General Electric's appliance division is staying put for now. GE officials tell Fox 41 news they're putting off the evaluation of strategic options for their consumer and industrial business. That means it will remain within GE, and there will be no changes at Appliance Park at this time. Officials say the challenging economic environment makes a spin or a sale right now extremely difficult.

Date: 12/17/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: A record number of families are asking for help for the holidays from a local charity. Wayside Christian Mission is allowing those families to shop for their children without going broke.

Date: 12/17/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: At this hour - the Jefferson county public schools board is meeting to find ways to cut $35-million from its budget. The school district is being forced to make the cuts because of the state's budget shortfall. Board members are discussing and reviewing proposed cuts for the next school year.

Date: 12/17/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: A multi billion dollar coal to gas plant may be one solution to deal with Kentucky's budget problems. Peabody and ConocoPhillips have chosen a site near Central City and have already started the permit process.

Date: 12/17/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: More than $456-million in cuts to the state budget could cause safety concerns at Kentucky coal mines. The Kentucky Energy and Environment Cabinet say because of those cuts, it will only allow the state to complete half of all mandatory coal mine inspections.

Date: 12/17/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Louisville's job growth is the worst it's been in nearly a decade. Dire predictions from a local economist, who says the city's economy, could get worse before it gets better.

Date: 12/17/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: One JCPS board member is suggesting cutting administrators' salaries to save the school district money. Carol Haddad made the comments during a special meeting tonight to discuss ways to reduce next year's budget

Date: 12/18/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: It's a very visible piece of retail property, and it's had its troubles. But it appears the Shively Center on Dixie Highway is making a comeback. The shopping complex used to house the old Dillards Department store. While that part of the center is still vacant, all around it there are new businesses.

Date: 12/18/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: A flood of last minute holiday gifts being shipped is making this one of the busiest days of the year for UPS. The company says today is the last day to send anything by ground transportation to make it by Christmas. UPS says today is the busiest ground delivery day with next Monday and Tuesday being the busiest days for handling air packages.

Date: 12/18/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Everything must go before a historic Louisville hotel gets demolished. The Executive Inn has started its liquidation sale today. It's selling more than 2-million items in the hotel. There are thousands of T-V's, bedroom suits, and artwork up for sale. Items range from ten cents to five thousand dollars.

Date: 12/19/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Ford says it doesn't need help right now from President Bush's rescue plan. Ford's local UAW president says Ford is in better shape than the other two auto giants because its workers have been willing to make concessions for several years.

Date: 12/19/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: The unemployment rate is up across the country. But it's even worse in Indiana. 12,800 jobs were lost in the state last month, putting the unemployment rate at 7.1%. That's higher than the national average of 6.7%.

Date: 12/19/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Louisville's budget cuts are making waves at a popular park this weekend. The pool at the Mary T Meagher Aquatic Center will be closed every Sunday, starting this weekend. Mayor Jerry Abramson's office says cuts to city services are necessary to deal with a $20-million budget shortfall.

Date: 12/21/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: With the city in tough economic times, parks and community centers have been forced to close. Budget cuts have forced community centers to close every Monday. But today, the children who use them were given a holiday surprise.

Date: 12/21/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: The budget battle over take-home police cars will make its way into a Jefferson County courtroom tomorrow. The River City Fraternal Order of Police has filed an injunction against the city to stop Metro government from raising take-home car fees for police.

Date: 12/21/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: Congressman John Yarmuth says the country could not allow the Big three automakers to fail. President Bush announced a measure to lend General Motors and Chrysler $17.4-billion in exchange for major concessions.

Date: 12/23/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Indiana's governor wants public employees to consider skipping a pay raise next year. Mitch Daniels has already announced that "state" employees won't get a pay hike. It's part of an effort to eliminate a projected $763-million state spending gap. Today he's hoping that all public employees - including those who work for cities, counties, schools and universities - will also skip pay raises.

Date: 12/23/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: A judge says he will decide by tomorrow whether to stop the city from imposing an increased fee on take-home police cars. The increased fees are designed to help make-up the city's $20 million shortfall.

Date: 12/24/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Budget cuts are forcing a Floyd County health center to slash its services. The Floyd County Maternal and Child Health Center will no longer provide birth control, annual exams, or STD checks through the family planning program.

Date: 12/24/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Last-minute shoppers barely made it this evening, as stores closed early this Christmas Eve. Stores are offering discounts now that you usually don't see until after Christmas, up to 70% off at Ann Taylor Loft. And other chains here don't have as much inventory as last year.

Date: 12/26/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Thousands of Louisville workers today were forced to take an unpaid day off to help balance the city's budget. This is the first of 4 furlough days for city of Louisville workers. Essential workers are still on the job but so called non-essential workers have the day off.

Date: 12/26/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Today is being dubbed the second Black Friday. And retailers hope deep discounts can help salvage a miserable year. Nearly 100 people lined up outside the Target on Taylorsville Road before the doors opened at 7am. Many were getting a head start to take back unwanted gifts and take advantage of deals.

Date: 12/26/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: LG&E is currently seeking a general rate increase and a second rate hike is expected to quickly follow it. LG&E wants customers to reimburse it for the $24-million cost of restoring power after September's devastating wind storm. The Public Service Commission this week told the utility it cannot add storm pay back to its current rate case.

Date: 12/26/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: This day after Christmas, some locally-owned stores say sales are down from last holiday season.

Date: 12/27/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: As you start making your New Year's Eve plans... there's one event you should not plan to attend. Mayor Abramson has cancelled his family-friendly party, held at The Gardens for the past several years.

Date: 12/28/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: Metro Police officers have until tomorrow to tell their division commanders whether they plan to turn-in their patrol cars or keep them. Officers have been asked to pay more each month for their cars, to help offset the city's $20-million shortfall.

Date: 12/29/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Mayor Jerry Abramson says the city's $20-million deficit will be under control if police officers will only do their part. In an interview with Fox 41's Dick Irby, Mayor Jerry Abramson called this year the toughest he's faced in 19-years as Mayor. But, despite a growing recession and this year's devastating wind storm, Abramson claims Metro government has met its obligations.

Date: 12/29/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: In the Southern Indiana city of Charlestown, they're asking how much is too much for pay raises. Despite tough economy times, city leaders say they want more compensation.

Date: 12/29/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: Residents who live near a fire station that's scheduled to close at the first of the year are trying to keep it from happening. Tonight, about 100 people attended a meeting along with the fire chief and a representative from the mayor's office in an effort to save Engine 7.

Date: 12/30/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Mayor Jerry Abramson traveled to Frankfort today in search of some good financial news. Louisville is just one of many cities and counties wondering how to pay their pension bill and keep delivering needed services. That's why some top local government leaders took time to drive to the Capitol.

Date: 12/30/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Louisville is facing a 20 million dollar budget shortfall this year. But the Louisville Free Public Library wants 120 million to secure its future. The library's director is releasing his master plan to a Metro Council committee right now. The plan covers library funding through 2020, and includes building and renovating branches.

Date: 12/30/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 1:30

Story: Fewer people are traveling by air because of the economy. The Louisville International Airport says passenger traffic is estimated to be down 3 and half percent compared to last year. The Airport's Executive Directors says 2009 will be tough.

Date: 12/30/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: 150 people will put in their last day of work tomorrow at an Indiana plant that's closing for good and sending jobs overseas. American Steel Cord, in Scottsburg, Indiana announced in October that it would close its plant at the end of the year.

Date: 12/30/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Kentucky's governor is promising another step to help local governments deal with budget shortfalls. Governor Steve Beshear says his staff is re-writing this year's budget to show what cuts are going to be needed to deal with a 456-million dollar state deficit.

Date: 12/30/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: The new session of the Indiana General Assembly begins next week. And work on the state budget is likely to be biggest challenge facing legislators. The recession has already taken a big toll on the state's economy and pocketbook.

Date: 12/30/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Despite the tight economic times, Louisville's library director says the city's libraries need a $120-million makeover.

Date: 12/31/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Of all the city budget cuts so far, the closing of Otter Creek Park seems to hurt the worst. Otter Creek shuts down, at least for now, tomorrow afternoon.

Date: 12/31/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: The city's multi-million dollar budget shortfall is doing more than closing parks; it's forced the mayor to cancel his annual New Year's Eve Party.

Date: 12/31/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: It is the last day on the job for more than 150 employees at American Steel Cord in Scottsburg, Indiana. In October the company announced it was closing the plant for good.

Date: 12/31/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: An Indiana community college is joining other state colleges and universities by cutting spending due to the state's shortfall. Ivy Tech's President is asking 35 of the school's senior administrators to accept salary freezes through 2009.

Date: 12/31/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: More than 100 new jobs will be coming to Indiana over the next five years. AIT Laboratories - a health care and forensic analysis company, is expanding its corporate headquarters and laboratory near the Indianapolis International Airport.

Date: 12/31/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: At this hour, Charlestown Indiana elected officials are expected to be voting on controversial pay raises for them. With the tight economy, many government officials are taking pay cuts. But in Charlestown, Indiana the city council will vote on lower salary increases which average 10 and half percent, for the mayor, clerk-treasurer, and council members.

Date: 12/31/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: People across Kentuckiana are counting down the last two hours of 2008. This is perhaps the biggest party in Louisville, with close to 20,000 people expected to come out. The party on the street is still free, but some bars and clubs have lowered their prices because of the sour economy.

Ascertainment 2008 4 – Education-Schools

Date: 10/14/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Some major changes will be in place starting next fall for University of Louisville students and it's going to cost them. You go to school and you have required courses and projects. But what about required eating? Well it's happening at other colleges and universities, and now, the University of Louisville.

Date: 10/15/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: U of L students are expected to take to the street because of what they're being forced to eat. They're protesting a new meal plan that all full-time undergraduate students-- even commuters-- will be required to buy.

Date: 10/20/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: A new report finds blacks still lag behind whites academically in most Jefferson County schools. The report by the Bluegrass Institute found two schools - Valley Traditional High School and Iroquois High School Magnet Career Academy - perform so poorly they qualify for the Johns Hopkins University's label of dropout factories.

Date: 10/21/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: After 10 years of 10 percent tuition increases, Governor Steve Beshear says Kentucky must find ways to make college more affordable. Today in Frankfort, the governor named a 25 member higher education working group. The task force will be asked to recommend short term steps to reduce college costs by January.

Date: 10/22/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Child hunger doesn't take the weekend off -- that's the message from one young celebrity visiting Louisville. Singer and actress Hilary Duff visited Portland Elementary School this morning in support of the school's "Blessings in a Backpack" program.

Date: 10/23/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Talk about a stellar attendance record. Local teachers who have put in "centuries" of education time were honored. 253 teachers with the Archdiocese of Louisville were recognized for having from 5 years all the way through 45 years of teaching experience.

Date: 10/24/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Sullivan University has come a long way since it opened in 1962. The school showed off its new College of Pharmacy, its latest move toward high-level professional programs.

Date: 10/24/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: The new student assignment plan means JCPS parents have a lot of choices about where to send their kids to school. That new plan divides schools into clusters and offers new, specialized magnet programs. Parents have the next four months to decide.

Date: 10/31/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Jefferson county students are learning first hand about the risk polar bears face. JCPS superintendent Sheldon Berman and Louisville zoo director John Walczak are on an expedition in Alaska to study polar bears.

Date: 11/5/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Western Kentucky University has taken action against students involved in fights that caused a campus lockdown a few weeks ago. The university says two students have been expelled and another was removed from a residence hall and banned from student activities. Officials say five others are being banned from taking part in student activities.

Date: 11/5/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: Good and bad news for Churchill Downs. Its third quarter revenues totaled just under $100-million, a drop of about four million from a year ago. But, its net earnings for the period were $2.3-million, more than twice what they were during the third quarter of 2007.

Date: 11/6/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: A blind trumpet player at the University of Louisville known for getting an Extreme Home Makeover is now lashing out against the University. Patrick Henry Hughes is furious with the school, and is unleashing on his blog, and to Fox 41. Hughes is talking about why he says he can't be a part of the U of L Athletics Pep Band. He's says it's because he's being put under the same rules as U of L athletes and that's not fair.

Date: 11/6/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: The blind U of L trumpet player who became a local icon says school rules have made him choose between his burgeoning speaking career -- and playing in the school's pep band.

Date: 11/11/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Several area schools are also honoring veterans. Students at Butler High school this morning recognized almost 200 veterans who are relatives of students, faculty and staff members, and thanked them for their service.

Date: 11/19/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Louisville's small urban university has made a big investment in its future. Spalding University has spent $8- million to develop a new Health and Sciences building.

Date: 11/19/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Some local middle school students are getting a lesson in saving a life of the four legged kind. Today students at Saint Raphael School got to meet Oliver. He's the dog they helped save. The students partnered with the Shamrock foundation to collect money to rescue Oliver, pay for his vet bills and help him find a good home.

Date: 11/19/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: A fire at an Indiana college sent nearly two thousand students scrambling from their dorms. It happened early this morning at Ball State University's largest dormitory. The fire in an employee break room was put out quickly.

Date: 11/19/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: Nelson County school officials say they're making a final decision on the status of Larry Brent Childress. He's the instructor and coach at the Horizons academy in Bardstown, arrested for rape and sodomy. State police say he sexually assaulted a 14-year old student 15 years ago, when he was a teacher at North Bullitt High School. The superintendent of schools says the decision on his job status should be known tomorrow.

Date: 11/24/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: The winter break may get cut short for thousands of Jefferson county public school students. Superintendent Sheldon Berman wants students to come back from break a day early on January 5th. That would make up for one of the days lost when schools were closed after the wind storm in September. He also wants students in class on February 16th, which was supposed to be a parent-teacher conference day. And he would add three days to the end of the year.

Date: 11/24/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Accusations are flying over Jeffersonville High School's athletic director being unfairly harassed. The Clark Ministerial Coalition says school officials are trying to remove Tony Branch as Athletic Director for the second time. Last year, Branch came under fire when the Athletic Department ran short of money. But the Coalition says a state audit found no financial wrongdoing. It claims Branch is being harassed because of his race.

Date: 11/24/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: The holiday break just got shorter for more than 97,000 Jefferson County school students. And those students can blame hurricane Ike for the makeup time that could disrupt long made travel plans.

Date: 11/25/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: While many banks are asking for help these days, one local bank is actually giving money away. Republic Bank gave a check for $20,000 to the Simmons College scholarship fund. The gift will provide financial support to students who want to continue their education.

Date: 11/26/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: The University of Louisville continues six separate internal investigations following the indictment of one of its former deans.

Date: 12/2/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: A Jefferson county public High school student is arrested after bringing a loaded gun to school. It happened this morning at Valley High School - just off Dixie Highway. Jefferson County Public Schools says there was never a threat to students. Several students told staff that a freshman had a gun and was offering to trade it for drugs.

Date: 12/2/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: There's a new person in charge of the Greater Clark county school system, at least for now. Travis Haire will serve as interim superintendent. He'll replace Tony Bennett - who won the race in November for Indiana state superintendent.

Date: 12/2/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Louisville students are getting a unique opportunity to prepare for college. "Closing the deal" is a program at Valley High school that helps seniors get ready for college. Students will get help completing college applications, and learn how to get financial aid among other things. The goal is to not only get kids into college but to make sure they graduate.

Date: 12/3/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: A Louisville first grader is accused of sticking several other students with a medical needle in school, but her mother says it's all a mistake. It happened yesterday at Wheatley Elementary School on 17th Street in West Louisville.

Date: 12/3/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Some Southern Indiana students skipped class today to fight for their principal. Students and parents rallied against the school board decision to demote Corydon Central high school principal Kent Dunning to athletic director.

Date: 12/8/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: After-school programs, textbooks and jobs are on the chopping block for the Jefferson County School Board. School boards across the state are being forced to make cuts because of the state's $450 million budget shortfall.

Date: 12/8/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Indiana students are getting a double dose of ISTEP testing. The tests are being given twice this year to students in grades 3 through 8 as the state shifts from fall to spring testing.

Date: 12/8/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Saving money could affect the quality of education in Jefferson County Public Schools. Administrators are considering 35-million dollars in cuts, because the money to fund education just can't be found.

Date: 12/8/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: The school board will be studying another new student assignment plan as it cuts the budget. Just as parents shopped among elementary schools at the showcase of schools this fall, come 2010-2011, middle and high school students may find their choices to be different than they are now.

Date: 12/9/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Clarksville police are investigating whether a student brought a weapon to Clarksville high school. After students learned why the school was on lock-down, many of them started sending text messages to their parents. And that may have added to the problem.

Date: 12/9/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: A Kentucky teacher is being honored with a national award. Myra Morgan says she was shocked when her name was called as the newest recipient of the Milken Family foundation national educator award.

Date: 12/10/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: A new effort is underway to kick butts at the University of Kentucky. UK's president has started the process to completely ban smoking and cigarette butts on the Lexington campus. That would include all outdoor areas.

Date: 12/11/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Ivy Tech is now the largest college in Indiana. Ivy Tech has 23 campuses across the state including the one in Sellersburg. The schools' total enrollment reached more than 120,000 students last year. The Indiana commission for higher education says that tops Indiana University's eight campus enrollment of almost 119,000.

Date: 12/11/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: More tuition hikes may be on the way at public universities, as Governor Beshear asks them to cut their spending. U of L President James Ramsey says "everything is on the table" now that Governor Beshear has asked public universities to reduce their spending by 2% now through May.

Date: 12/18/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: Big changes are coming to schools in New Albany and Floyd County, and teachers aren't happy. Tonight the school board voted to change the schedules of middle and high schools. Floyd Central high school is now on a seven period day, while all middle schools and New Albany high school are on eight period block schedules. Starting next year, all middle and high schools will be on a seven period schedule.

Date: 12/18/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: Hundreds of graduates from the University of Louisville are facing the toughest job market in years, because of the dismal economy. The school held its winter commencement ceremony earlier tonight.

Date: 12/19/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: A debilitating illness is forcing Kentucky's highest education official to resign. Education commissioner Jon Draud suffered a stroke in September that affected his ability to walk. He says the illness has forced him to rethink his priorities.

Date: 12/19/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: A high school is grieving after losing four students in that tragic police chase. Pleasure Ridge Park students learned about the crash throughout the day. The principal held a 30 second moment of silence and read all four boys names this afternoon.

Ascertainment 2008 4 – Politics/Elections

Date: 10/7/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Bullitt County residents are in shock and mourning over the death of a long-time State Representative and community supporter. Flags are flying at half staff to honor Larry Belcher. He was killed when his vehicle ran into the rear of a semi-truck stopped on I-65 in Edmondson County.

Date: 10/7/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: We could soon learn the next step in an investigation into why Louisville gas prices are higher than other parts of the state. Today is the deadline for retailers, wholesalers and distributors to give Attorney General Jack Conway information on their prices.

Date: 10/8/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: The November election is still a month away - but Election Day could pay off for some republicans. The Jefferson County Clerk's Office needs more republican poll workers. They earn $120 for working Election Day and for attending a training session.

Date: 10/10/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: The issue presidential candidates can't get past is the first topic that came up as Congressman John Yarmuth and challenger Anne Northup faced off.

Date: 10/13/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: A Metro council member says Louisville has done a poor job of cleaning up debris following last month's wind storm. Councilman Dan Johnson plans to introduce an emergency ordinance to hire outside contractors to clean up the debris.

Date: 10/13/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: The widow of a Kentucky state representative killed in a car crash will replace her husband on the election ballot. Larry Belcher was killed last week on Interstate 65 in south-central Kentucky after his pickup slammed into the back of a semi-truck.

Date: 10/13/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Republican vice presidential nominee Sarah Palin is coming to Indiana. The Alaska governor has scheduled a rally in Indianapolis on Friday.

Date: 10/14/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: It's the last chance for Hoosiers to hear the issues debated by the three candidates for governor. The most recent debate between incumbent republican Governor Mitch Daniels, democrat Jill Long Thompson and libertarian Andy Horning was last month in Jasper.

Date: 10/14/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Indiana is also taking the spotlight when it comes to the Presidential race. Republican vice presidential nominee Sarah Palin will speak at the Verizon Wireless Music center in Noblesville on Friday.

Date: 10/15/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Newly registered voters in Kentucky have set a new record. The state has nearly 3-million people registered to vote. Secretary of state Trey Grayson says the higher number is due to the presidential showdown.

Date: 10/17/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Republican Vice presidential nominee Sarah Palin is making her first campaign stop in Indiana. A rally for Palin is set to take place at the Verizon Wireless Music Center in Noblesville. There are no tickets left for the event at the outdoor amphitheater. This will be the first visit to the Hoosier state for the GOP national ticket since McCain's visit in early July.

Date: 10/17/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: There could be a record turnout at the polls, so voters should give themselves some extra time this Election Day. The Jefferson County Clerk's office estimates that voter turnout could be 80% on November 4th.

Date: 10/20/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: With nearly 3 million Kentuckians registered to vote, next month's general election is expected to draw a record turnout. But the candidates in one of the most prominent races -- the race for the U-S Senate -- have done little to make themselves available to the public in our area.

Date: 10/21/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Two people who disagree on just about every issue took center stage at Manual high school today. Third district congressman John Yarmuth and former representative Anne Northup spoke to students before their debate tonight.

Date: 10/21/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: With just two weeks to go until voters head to the polls, Kentucky election officials are bracing for a record turnout. The state board of elections took action today during its meeting in Frankfort.

Date: 10/21/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Indiana will once again be the focus of the presidential campaign. Democrat Barack Obama is expected to be in Indianapolis on Thursday. The 11 am event will be held on the American Legion Mall.

Date: 10/21/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Candidates for Indiana's 9th district will face off tonight in a re-match debate. Republican Mike Sodrel is trying to win his old seat back from Democratic Congressman Baron Hill. The candidates will debate tonight at the Arts Center Auditorium in Jasper, Indiana.

Date: 10/21/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Just two weeks before Election Day, Congressman John Yarmuth and former Congresswoman Anne Northup lock up in one of the final debates before the vote. No major gaffes, tonight, no real haymaker jabs. But it is clear the two differ greatly on key issues like energy and the economy.

Date: 10/23/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Barack Obama made Indiana his last stop, before taking a break from the campaign trail. The democratic Presidential candidate held a rally this afternoon, at the American legion mall in Indianapolis.

Date: 10/24/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: A former president is in Kentucky today, trying to help a fellow democrat oust one of the most powerful republicans in Washington. Bill Clinton held two rallies to support Bruce Lunsford.

Date: 10/24/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Republican vice presidential candidate Sarah Palin will return to the Hoosier state this weekend. She'll campaign in Fort Wayne tomorrow.

Date: 10/27/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: With this year's election a week from tomorrow, the race for Kentucky's U-S Senate seat continues to garner national interest. Senator Mitch McConnell has spent the past week on a 4,000 mile bus tour talking to voters.

Date: 10/27/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Republican vice presidential candidate Sarah Palin is about to make her first campaign visit to Kentuckiana. On Wednesday, She'll hold a rally in Jeffersonville at a warehouse owned by Capstone Real Estate on River Ridge Circle. Doors open at 3:30 for the 6:30 event.

Date: 10/27/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Meanwhile, a popular television personality is taking to the streets of Indiana to show her support for Barack Obama. Jane Pauley campaigned through central Indiana, encouraging voters to get to the polls early to support the Obama-Biden ticket.

Date: 10/28/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Barack Obama will campaign full steam until next Tuesday's election. But he is asking voters who can to vote before then. A growing number of states allow residents to cast votes at their leisure instead of waiting until Election Day.

Date: 10/28/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: They're a hot item in Indiana. But now tickets to see Republican Vice presidential candidate Sarah Palin are also being given out in Louisville.

Date: 10/28/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Local Republicans say many of the spectators at a Sarah Palin rally tomorrow will be people who've never before attended a political event.

Date: 10/29/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Still three and a half hours and counting before Sarah Palin is scheduled to speak in Jeffersonville.

Date: 10/29/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: One high-profile republican you "won't" see at the Palin rally tonight: Indiana governor Mitch Daniels. Daniels says he will not attend the actual event, but will make an appearance in the parking lot beforehand.

Date: 10/29/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Local democrats already have a lot to say about Palin's appearance, before she even shows up. The Clark county Democratic Party held a press conference this morning. Members are asking the McCain-Palin campaign to abandon attacks they claim are aimed at distracting voters from the economic crisis.

Date: 10/29/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Barack Obama and his running mate are both planning to return to Indiana this week. Obama will hold a rally in Lake County on Friday - that's in northwest Indiana. And his running mate - Joe Biden will visit the Evansville area on Saturday.

Date: 10/29/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: The local races in Kentuckiana are also heating up. Republican Anne Northup is vying for her old job back in Congress. She's going up against incumbent John Yarmuth for Kentucky's Third District.

Date: 10/29/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Bruce Lunsford's campaign is getting a boost from a former presidential candidate. Senator Hillary Clinton will be in Kentucky on Sunday to campaign for Lunsford. Clinton will hold a rally in Louisville and Hazard.

Date: 10/29/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: You might call Sarah Palin's speech in Jeffersonville tonight a combination concert, revival and pep rally for a state that could tip the presidential election next week.

Date: 10/29/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: The likeness of Democratic Presidential nominee Barack Obama hanged in effigy has appeared in Oregon and now in Indiana and Kentucky -- including one display on the University of Kentucky campus.

Date: 10/30/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Kentucky election officials are gearing up for record voter turnout next week. But they still haven't figured out who won a race "two years" ago. The election for Tompkinsville mayor was decided by just one vote. After two years of lawsuits and appeals, the race is still not settled.

Date: 10/30/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: He just graduated from high school last year. Now, an Austin, Indiana teenager is running for public office. 19 year old Stephen Riley is one of nine candidates running for three Austin School board positions.

Date: 10/30/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: An election contest back in November of 2006 in a small Southern Kentucky town didn't generate much notice at the time. But, two years after the vote for Mayor of Tompkinsville - the race is still undecided.

Date: 10/31/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Senator Mitch McConnell is making last minute campaign stops, just four days before the election. The Republican incumbent is in a close race with Democrat Bruce Lunsford. McConnell and his wife, U.S. Department of Labor Secretary Elaine Chao attended a rally at the Jefferson County GOP office.

Date: 10/31/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: A former presidential candidate is helping McConnell's political rival. Senator Hillary Clinton will campaign on behalf of democrat Bruce Lunsford at rallies in Louisville and Hazard on Sunday.

Date: 10/31/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Meanwhile, the current first lady will also be in Kentucky-- drumming up support for Republicans. Laura Bush will appear at the Paroquet Springs conference Center in Shepherdsville on Monday around 12:30.

Date: 10/31/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: It's a very familiar race. But Congressman John Yarmuth says there are several differences between himself and his opponent. The democratic incumbent faces Anne Northup for Kentucky's third district.

Date: 10/31/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Tonight Barack Obama is focusing his attention on Northwest Indiana. Nearly 20,000 people are expected at the rally tonight in Lake County. It will be held at a park.

Date: 10/31/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Students across Kentucky are getting a lesson in politics. This week more than 100,000 elementary, middle and high school students took part in mock elections.

Date: 11/1/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: In just three days, a record number of people are expected to head to the polls to vote. A lot of them will be casting their ballot for the first time.

Date: 11/1/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: Actress and Kentuckian -- Ashley Judd -- appeared at a Louisville rally today -- stumping for the Democratic candidates and their theme of change. The rally at the Iroquois Amphitheater was meant to support Democratic candidate for Senate Bruce Lunsford.

Date: 11/1/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: It has become Jefferson County's most high-profile district judge race, Katie King versus incumbent -- Judge David Holton. Now both candidates respond to FOX 41 -- about the controversial information that has surfaced about each other.

Date: 11/1/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: The day before the elections -- John McCain will make a campaign stop in Indiana. McCain will hold a "Road to Victory" rally on Monday at the Indianapolis International Airport -- at the International Arrivals ramp.

Date: 11/2/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Hundreds of people turn out in Louisville to see former first lady and New York Senator Hillary Clinton campaign for Democrat Bruce Lunsford. Lunsford is locked in a tight Senate race with Republican Senator Mitch McConnell.

Date: 11/2/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: The current first lady will be in Kentucky to drum up support for Republicans. Laura Bush will appear at the Paroquet Springs Conference Center in Shepherdsville tomorrow at about 12:30 p.m.

Date: 11/2/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: John McCain will make a campaign stop tomorrow in Indiana. The Republican senator will hold a "Road to Victory" rally on the eve of the presidential election. You can see him at the Indianapolis International Airport's International Arrivals ramp.

Date: 11/2/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: Obama's final campaign stop will be in Indianapolis on Election Day. This will be the senator's 49th visit to Indiana since he began his presidential bid 17 months ago.

Date: 11/3/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: First Lady Laura Bush is giving some Kentucky republican candidates a boost the day before the election. Mrs. Bush was in Shepherdsville today, urging supporters to get to the polls tomorrow.

Date: 11/3/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: The presidential hopefuls are looking at Indiana as a key state in the race for the white house. Both are making last minute campaign stops there. John McCain is in Indianapolis this afternoon.

Date: 11/3/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Barack Obama is making Indianapolis his final campaign stop tomorrow morning. He won't hold a rally, but instead will meet with voters to ask for support and urge them to vote.

Date: 11/3/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Voter turnout is expected to be heavy across Kentucky and Southern Indiana tomorrow. A record 3-million Kentucky residents are registered to vote.

Date: 11/3/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: On this Presidential election eve, the state of Indiana appears to be playing a bigger role than in prior presidential elections.

Date: 11/4/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Some voters in Jefferson County had to wait as long as 40-minutes to cast their ballots. Lines formed early across the state as voters cast their ballots for president, U.S. senate and other local races.

Date: 11/4/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: With 11 electoral votes up for grabs, Indiana is expected to play a big role in the Presidential elections. But, an Indiana law is getting in the way of some people voting.

Date: 11/4/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: The Kentucky race for the U.S. Senate is expected to be a close one. The Republican incumbent Mitch McConnell is in a tight race with Democrat Bruce Lunsford.

Date: 11/4/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Both candidates facing off for Kentucky's third district were at the polls this morning. Third district democratic congressman John Yarmuth is up for re-election against former congresswoman, Republican Anne Northup.

Date: 11/4/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Barack Obama made his final campaign stop in Indianapolis. The senator went to a United Auto workers union get out the vote call center. Obama stayed there for about 45 minutes and even made 13 phone calls.

Date: 11/4/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: A record number of voters cast ballots in Kentucky, Indiana - and across the country today. McCain is the clear winner in Kentucky. But, it's still a tight race in Indiana.

Date: 11/4/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: The Associated Press has declared incumbent Mitch McConnell the winner in Kentucky's U.S. Senate race. It appears McConnell will add a fifth term to his resume in what has been an incredibly tight race against Louisville businessman Bruce Lunsford.

Date: 11/4/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 1:00

Story: Bruce Lunsford spent millions of his own money hoping for an upset in his third bid for statewide office.

Date: 11/4/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: A huge birthday gift for 3rd district congressman John Yarmuth - voters have given him a second term in office. Yarmuth handily defeated Anne Northup tonight in their second face off to represent Kentucky's most populous county in Congress.

Date: 11/4/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: Anne Northup says her ties to President Bush coupled with the ailing economy were liabilities too strong to overcome. Northup hugged family and friends at the podium just before she publicly conceded to John Yarmuth.

Date: 11/4/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: The Associated Press is calling Republican Brett Guthrie the winner in the contest for Kentucky's 2nd district congressional district. Two state senators are vying for the seat, after republican incumbent Ron Lewis retired.

Date: 11/4/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: Malfunctioning voting machines delayed voting in one part of Kentucky. It happened in Kenton County in the northern part of the state. More than 100 e-Slate machines were taken out of service this morning.

Date: 11/5/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: People across the country and here in Kentuckiana are still celebrating Obama's historic win. But some African Americans still have concerns, now that the country has elected a black president.

Date: 11/5/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Senator Mitch McConnell will remain one of most powerful republicans in Washington. McConnell won his senate seat 53% to 47% against challenger Bruce Lunsford. The race was the most expensive ever in Kentucky.

Date: 11/5/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: The Greater Clark County School System will have to look for a new superintendent. That's because Dr. Tony Bennett won the race for Indiana superintendent. Bennett, who is a Republican, won 51 percent of the vote against Democrat Richard D. Wood who received 49 percent.

Date: 11/5/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Provisional and military ballots could possibly change the outcome for Indiana's State Representative Seat in New Albany. Although the votes are not official yet, Republican Ed Clere has 114 more votes than 34-year incumbent Democrat Bill Cochran.

Date: 11/5/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Indiana's governor Mitch Daniels will serve a second term. He won 58 percent of the vote against democrat Jill Long Thompson. Last night Daniels thanked his staff and supporters during his victory speech in Indianapolis.

Date: 11/5/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: More people in Kentucky went to the polls yesterday than ever before. The Secretary of State's office says more than 1.8 million Kentuckians voted in this election setting a new record for voter turnout.

Date: 11/5/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Sen. Mitch McConnell's victory last night makes him arguably the most powerful Republican in Washington. Kentucky's senior Senator says he plans to speak with Barack Obama tonight to discuss working together on a legislative agenda and cabinet appointments.

Date: 11/5/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Five years ago, Michael Acklin, the second became the first African American soldier from Kentucky to die in the war in Iraq. Tonight, his family shares their feelings about the first African-American president-elect and what they're expecting from a new administration.

Date: 11/9/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: Republican U.S. Senator Jim Bunning says he will run again in 2010, but he says he needs $10-million to do it. Kentucky's 77-year-old senator says he wants to serve a third term. The Baseball Hall of Fame pitcher says he's ready for another Democratic challenge.

Date: 11/10/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 1:00

Story: Louisville will play a part in the inauguration festivities for President Barack Obama. The choir at Sacred Heart Academy will be singing at the events leading up to the inauguration. About 45 Louisville Metro Police officers will also be part of the inauguration detail. They'll help with security and will be in Washington D.C. from January 18th through the 21st.

Date: 11/11/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: He's been out of the spotlight since he admitted to having an affair. But tonight, former presidential candidate John Edwards will make one of his first appearances since the scandal - and he's making it in Indiana. Edwards acknowledged an affair with a woman hired to produce videos for his campaign.

Date: 11/18/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: First Lady Laura Bush got a first hand look at a former president's Kentucky birthplace. The first lady was in Hodgenville today at the birthplace of Abraham Lincoln. She met with students from a local elementary school named after Lincoln.

Date: 11/18/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: The rules could be changing behind the wheel for Kentucky teenagers. A Kentucky lawmaker is proposing banning drivers under 18 from using cell phones. Representative Rick Newson from Middlesboro says young drivers need to be able to concentrate on the road without distractions.

Date: 11/21/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: President Bush will be in Kentucky next week to thank our troops. The commander in chief is scheduled to visit Fort Campbell on Tuesday.

Date: 11/25/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: President Bush was in Kentucky today to thank troops for their service. This was the presidents' third official visit to Fort Campbell. He spoke to about 7,500 troops at the military post. He then had lunch with about 150 soldiers.

Date: 11/26/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: President-elect Barack Obama will hear how the economy is affecting the Indiana State Budget. Indiana Governor Mitch Daniels and other governors are expected to meet with Obama and Vice President-elect Joe Biden. They're expected to talk with state chief executives about the challenges facing states.

Date: 11/26/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Governor Mitch Daniels' is scaling back his second inauguration. Republican officials say the inauguration on January 12th will be smaller, partly because the economy is hurting so many Hoosiers.

Date: 12/2/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: And, it's not just "cities" that are hurting. The governors of Kentucky and Indiana are turning to the new President to help get through their states' financial crises.

Date: 12/6/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Military families are spending the holidays with loved ones away at war. But today, dozens of local families got to spend part of their day with Kentucky's governor and first lady.

Date: 12/11/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Louisville congressman John Yarmuth has won a seat on the powerful House Ways and Means committee. Yarmuth says the committee will be on the front line in dealing with many of the challenges facing the country. Those include health care, tax policy, retirement security and trade.

Date: 12/15/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Six weeks after we cast "our" ballots for President, Kentucky is making it official. The state's eight presidential electors formally cast their votes for President this morning. The all-Republican electors unanimously voted for the unsuccessful candidates John McCain and Sarah Palin.

Date: 12/16/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Louisville's mayor will meet with Barack Obama's transition team this week. Jerry Abramson is one of a dozen leaders from the Conference of mayors who will meet with the President elect's team Thursday in Chicago. They'll discuss an economic stimulus package that would create jobs by investing billions of dollars in roads, schools and other city construction projects.

Date: 12/18/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Louisville's mayor is sending his ideas to President elect Barack Obama. Jerry Abramson met with the president elects team in Chicago this morning. He and other mayors are asking for federal money to fund an economic stimulus package.

Date: 12/18/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Calm, cool and very business-like. That's how Mayor Jerry Abramson described President-elect Barack Obama. The mayor was in Chicago today and met with Obama's transition team to discuss another economic stimulus package.

Ascertainment 2008 4 – Public Health & Safety

Date: 10/7/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Clark county residents who need disaster help can find it in one place, starting tomorrow. The center at the Clark county fairgrounds in Charlestown will help residents who suffered damage from the severe storms and flooding last month.

Date: 10/8/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Bullitt County school leaders are taking action after several students came down with a highly contagious disease: whooping cough. The five cases have all been confirmed at Freedom Elementary School.

Date: 10/11/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: An estimated 10,000 people put on their running shoes to race for a cure. It was the 13th year for the popular Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure down at the waterfront. About 3,500 women and 1,500 men in Kentucky will be diagnosed with breast cancer this year.

Date: 10/13/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: The city of Bardstown may soon face higher fines and legal action, unless it signs an agreement to end sewer pollution. The Kentucky Division of Water wants an "agreed order" outlining a plan and establishing deadlines to stop sewer overflows that often pollute Nelson County streams.

Date: 10/13/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: After a recent bicycle death and several collisions, police are reminding motorists to share the road. Chief Robert White has taped seven public service announcements, reminding motorists and bicyclists to follow the rules of the road.

Date: 10/14/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: A highly contagious disease is spreading at a Bullitt county elementary school, despite all the efforts to contain it. The health department confirms there are three new cases of whooping cough at Freedom Elementary School in Shepherdsville.

Date: 10/14/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: What looked like a potentially dangerous situation at the University of Louisville was really a lesson for emergency crews. Louisville Fire and rescue staged a mock hazardous materials emergency on the campus.

Date: 10/15/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: More than a thousand gallons of sewage is now flowing through one of Louisville's most popular parks. Parts of Beargrass Creek are giving off a stench downstream from Cherokee Park. The sewage leaked into the creek because of a crack in a sewer pipe.

Date: 10/15/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: We all know when Halloween is, but Jeffersonville's mayor wants to change that. The mayor says kids should trick or treat on Thursday, October 30th. He's says, the change is in the name of safety.

Date: 10/16/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Some Louisville residents will soon get their drinking water from a cleaner source. But it's going to cost them. The Louisville Water Company plans to change its treatment process in 2010.

Date: 10/17/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: A warning to stay out of Beargrass Creek is still in effect. This week MSD found more than 1,000 gallons of sewage and ground water leaking into the creek downstream from Cherokee Park.

Date: 10/21/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Kentucky may be tobacco country, but another community is thinking about kicking the habit. The group Smoke Free Radcliff wants to ban smoking in restaurants.

Date: 10/22/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 1:00

Story: The Western Kentucky University campus was under lockdown after reports of shots fired. And there were also reports of armed men on campus.

Date: 10/23/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: A highly contagious disease is affecting students in Hardin County. Health officials say they have 10 confirmed cases of whooping cough and another 3 possible cases.

Date: 10/24/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: More than four months after flooding forced it to close - a central Indiana hospital is almost fully recovered. The Columbus Regional Hospital will resume its full patient services on Monday.

Date: 10/24/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: Three more cases of whooping cough have been diagnosed in Hardin County. That's on top of the 10 cases confirmed as of yesterday. Children have gotten sick in Elizabethtown at Saint James School, Heartland Elementary, and E-town Christian Academy daycare.

Date: 10/27/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: The state of Indiana has plans for sex offenders this Halloween. The corrections department has ordered most paroled sex offenders to attend Halloween evening meetings to keep them away from trick or treating children. Parolees who do not attend those meetings could be sent back to prison.

Date: 10/27/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: And there are some things parents should do to keep children safe on Halloween. The Safe Kids organization recommends all costumes have reflective markings and are flame retardant.

Date: 10/27/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Nearly four months after disaster forced it to close, a south Central Indiana hospital is back in full operation. Columbus Regional Hospital closed in June after flood waters damaged the hospital. Today the center resumed its surgical and inpatient services.

Date: 10/28/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Halloween can be a scary time of year, but not just because of all the ghosts and goblins. Some parents worry that dangers could be lurking behind doors when children go trick or treating this week. Right now, there are several hundred registered sex offenders in Kentuckiana.

Date: 10/28/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: New cases of a highly contagious disease are surfacing in Hardin County. Last week, the Hardin County Health department reported 10 cases of whooping cough. That number has now grown to 16.

Date: 10/30/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: It hasn't been cold enough to snow yet - but the city of Louisville says when it does, crews will be ready. Crews will have new ways to keep streets clear this winter. For the first time - the city is using a new anti-icing additive. It will allow them to apply Brine at lower temperatures.

Date: 10/30/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: The number of cases of whooping cough in one Kentucky County is growing. There are now 18 confirmed cases of pertussis in Hardin County. The health department is continuing to investigate the cases.

Date: 10/30/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: Churchill Downs' Twin Spires have a new look. They are now glowing pink inside and out in honor of National Breast Cancer Awareness month. Kentucky's First Lady Jane Beshear is using her Horses and Hope initiative to raise awareness in the horse industry.

Date: 10/31/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: You can keep the tricks out of your treats tonight by remembering a few things.

Date: 10/31/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: A Louisville teen was murdered just days before he was supposed to leave to attend the University of Kentucky on scholarship. Now his mother is turning her grief into action. Today, she will be handing out these bags of candy to trick-or-treaters with a message inside.

Date: 11/3/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: A Fox 41 investigation uncovers more wrong restaurant inspection scores -- nine months after we first told you about similar problems.

Date: 11/6/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Drivers may want to watch out for another hazard on the road, deer. Now is the season for deer and car wrecks. You've probably already seen some deer on the side of the road on local interstates. The Department of Transportation says 100 people die from deer and car crashes each year.

Date: 11/6/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Kentucky's budget shortfall has led to severe cuts in human services - services designed to protect the state's most vulnerable citizens. The cuts have forced layoffs and eliminated programs designed to help families in need.

Date: 11/7/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Police and firefighter services are usually covered with tax dollars. But in some places, accident victims are now getting the bill to cover emergency services.

Date: 11/7/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: There are now fewer places where smokers in Lexington can light up. The city added all workplaces and public transportation facilities to its smoking ban. The Urban Council approved the new restrictions yesterday.

Date: 11/8/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: The idea of bringing back the commuter train is gaining momentum in Metro Louisville. Local and national leaders took a test ride this morning from Louisville to Hardin County. Council president Jim King tells me the ride this morning was smooth and scenic. TARC estimates it would cost at least $50-million to re-build the commuter rail line. Director Barry Barker says the next step is to start a study of how many people are interested in the train service and what all is involved.

Date: 11/10/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Fear of a possible suicide pact puts a Kentucky high school under lockdown. But police say there's no cause for concern. Officers searched Marion County High School, investigating possible threats made by a student who then went home and committed suicide.

Date: 11/10/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Residents of Southwest Jefferson County say it's happening to them again. They're getting no respect and this time they're about to be dumped on, and literally. MSD held it's first of three informational meetings about their sewage plan.

Date: 11/11/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: This week, getting a flu shot is as easy as driving up and rolling up your sleeve. The Drive Thru Flu Shot Immunization Program by University Hospital started today.

Date: 11/13/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: You've got another chance tonight to get your flu shot without leaving your car! U of L Health Care's annual drive-thru flu shot clinic is taking place at Papa John's Cardinal Stadium until seven tonight.

Date: 11/17/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: A free $300 gas card sound too good to be true? The Better Business Bureau says it is! The BBB is warning consumers about a scam called the Great Gas Giveaway. Gas cards like this one are being sent in the mail saying you've won a $300 gas card.

Date: 11/18/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Officials at Louisville's James Graham Brown Cancer Center say they believe a $20-million gift announced today will lead to new breakthroughs in cancer treatment.

Date: 11/19/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: A Butchertown pork processing plant has been slapped with a steep fine and ordered to make changes. Today, the Louisville Metro Air Pollution Control District issued the Swift Company a $47,000 fine. Butchertown neighbors say the smell continues to get worse, and they say they don't believe the fine will change anything.

Date: 11/19/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Twenty years of talk is finally turning into action for homes near the Louisville International Airport. Every time a plane flies by, people who live near the airport hear and feel the rumble. But today, the airport board approved a "sound insulation project" they're hoping to start next year.

Date: 11/19/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: More and more children are coming down with whooping cough in Hardin County. The school district says there are now 28 confirmed cases.

Date: 11/19/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: Tomorrow would be a great day to quit smoking. That's what organizers are hoping smokers will say during the 32nd annual great American smoke out.

Date: 11/20/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: The American Cancer Society says if you want to kick the habit, start today. Today is the 33rd great American smoke out. Students from Bellarmine University signed cards pledging to be smoke free.

Date: 11/20/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: The construction company working on the new arena site has worked 67 days with no injuries - and it hopes to keep that record going. Today, Mortenson Construction formed a partnership with OSHA. It's a voluntary agreement where OSHA will visit the arena job site throughout the construction to provide safety and health surveys.

Date: 11/20/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: There have been 28 confirmed cases of Whooping cough in Hardin County. Now parents can get the information they need about the outbreak. Tonight a community forum on the outbreak will be held at 6:30 pm at the Pritchard Community Center in Elizabethtown.

Date: 11/20/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: MSD Crews spent the morning taking out this partially sunken Volkswagen Beetle. It's been in the mud of Beargrass Creek for at least 29 years. MSD says it just found out about the sunken car recently and wanted to take it out to make sure the waterways are clear.

Date: 11/24/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: A Clark County subdivision which would not take "no" for an answer is finally winning a drainage battle. After a two year fight, Tammy Ross and other residents of the Sunset Hill subdivision have become drainage experts. This new drainage system is the first of three to be installed.

Date: 11/24/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Social networking sites like Facebook and My Space are an easy way to stay in touch. But as Fox 41's Jennifer Baileys reveals in tonight's special assignment report - one popular web site led a local woman into a life she never expected.

Date: 11/26/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: Neighbors have called a century-old, one-lane bridge on River Road quaint and charming. Tonight, metro government calls it closed indefinitely. Workers put up barricades about 7 o'clock tonight. City and state inspectors say the bridge can no longer keep a car from crashing through its railings into Harrods Creek.

Date: 11/27/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: It will be at least Monday before engineers brainstorm on how to repair or replace a crumbling bridge on River Road. This morning, drivers found permanent barricades blocking the one-lane bridge over Harrods Creek. The city closed it indefinitely last night.

Date: 12/8/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Colon cancer is the number two cancer killer in the U.S. and Kentucky ranks second in the nation in colon cancer deaths. Kentucky has had issues with prevention, even though it's trying to encourage early screening. Earlier this year Kentucky lawmakers approved legislation which would create a colon cancer screening program for the un-insured and under-insured. But there is one big problem.

Date: 12/8/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: The next time you get your driver's license picture taken in Indiana, you won't be able to say cheese. The Bureau of Motor Vehicles is restricting glasses, hats, scarves and even smiles in driver's license photographs. BMV officials say the new rules are needed so that facial recognition software can spot fraudulent license applications.

Date: 12/9/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Many Americans, especially older ones, are cutting back on their health care because of the recession. Recent surveys of baby boomers by AARP shows almost a quarter of them have recently delayed seeking medical care in order to save money.

Date: 12/11/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: In a time of layoffs and the uncertain economy, some people are going back to school to get a recession proof job. Nursing happens to be one job that is in high demand. And local nursing schools are seeing a new type of student applying.

Date: 12/12/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: A Kentucky police department is taking a unique approach to reduce accidents this holiday season. The Pioneer Village Police department has created this public safety display with a wrecked car. They hope it will make drivers more conscious of their habits behind the wheel, and reduce accidents and citations over the holidays.

Date: 12/12/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: A southern Indiana high school hopes to fight hunger with empty bowls. New Albany High school students have created about 200 hand-made ceramic bowls. They will be sold tonight for the Empty bowls project. The bowls serve as reminders that everyday there are bowls that remain empty.

Date: 12/15/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: Louisville is ready to take-on whatever winter weather comes our way. That's the word from the Metro Mayor's office this afternoon. A spokeswoman for the mayor says city budget concerns will "not" cause a shortage of road treatments or workers to put them down. That was budgeted long ago, before the current economic crisis.

Date: 12/15/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: The predicted snow and ice has prompted people to do the things they normally do in advance. The things people do in advance, as we all know are sometimes a little extreme, but nasty weather brings that out of us. But the basics are necessary.

Date: 12/16/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: The American Red Cross wants to remind you not to forget to give blood around the holidays. The Clark County branch of the organization is holding its annual Holiday Donorama today. The Red Cross says blood donations are critical during the winter months.

Date: 12/16/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 30

Story: A Hardin County middle school student is hospitalized with meningitis. The Lincoln Trail health department says the student attends J-T Alton middle school, and is in stable condition at Hardin Memorial hospital. The health department is now working to identify other students who may have the disease.

Date: 12/17/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Despite this morning's accident -highway deaths in Kentucky and Indiana are down from a year ago. It's part of a national trend. Highway deaths across the country could reach their lowest levels since the 1960's.

Date: 12/18/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Emergency crews have left an Eastern Jefferson county golf course where a Louisville man died in a single engine airplane crash. The plane went down early this morning at the Indian Springs golf course near Westport Road.

Date: 12/28/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 45

Story: It's been three months, and debris from September's windstorm is still piled up at some of Louisville's parks. Tree limbs are still being removed from several sites, including Cox Park. Metro parks say it's on track for clean up.

Date: 12/18/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: A closed bridge in Northeast Jefferson County has firefighters worried about taking longer to respond to emergencies. But, Mayor Abramson is unaware of those concerns.

Date: 12/20/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 45

Story: While wrapping and giving presents is fun, being robbed is no laughing matter. LMPD has some suggestions on how to stay safe this holiday season. Today the department's fifth division held a holiday crime prevention and safety display.

Date: 12/22/08 Fox News @ 10

Length: 2:00

Story: Fluoride - it's been a tooth's best friend for decades. But, your kids may not be getting nearly enough of it. What's causing that situation and the impact it's having on kids' teeth.

Date: 12/23/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 2:00

Story: Drunken driving crashes increase each year during the holidays. But, police will be out in force trying to prevent them.

Date: 12/26/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: The federal government is stepping in to clean up the Ohio River. High fecal counts were found in nearly 15,000 samples taken along the Ohio from Pennsylvania down to Illinois. The Ohio River Valley Water Sanitation Commission, which conducted the study, has shown much of the sewage is coming from treatment-plant overflows, groundwater runoff from farms and other sources.

Date: 12/31/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Temperatures are well above freezing. But you will find those tell-tale white stripes of brine on metro Louisville streets, just in case. Public works crews already have applied the brine in anticipation of wintry weather Friday and into the weekend.

Date: 12/31/08 Fox News @ 4

Length: 30

Story: Louisville police will be out in full force tonight for the New Year holiday. Louisville Metro Police will patrol areas like Fourth Street Live and Bardstown Road to catch people drinking and driving.