

COMMERCIAL LIMIT CERTIFICATION

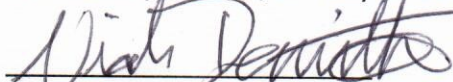

I, Nicole Demmith, in the capacity as Chief Engineer for Milwaukee Media, LLC, representing television station WIWN (TV) DTV Channel 68.1, 68.2, 68.3, 68.4, 68.5, 68.6, 68.7 and 68.8, Fond du Lac, WI, hereby certify that for the period of July 1, 2017 to September 30, 2017:

- 1) I am familiar with and the station is in compliance with the commercial limits imposed by section 73.670 of the FCC's rules (no more than 12 minutes per hour of commercial material may be broadcast during children's programming during the week, and no more than 10½ minutes per hour on weekends).
- 2) Attached as Exhibit 1 is a true and correct list of all children's programming aired during the period listed above.

The Children's Television Act and the FCC's rules require that Children's programming may not contain more than 10.5 minutes of commercial matter per clock hour on weekends and no more than 12.0 minutes of commercial matter per clock hour on weekdays. In addition, Children's programming may not direct viewers to an internet website unless the website offers substantial amount of bona fide program-related or other non-commercial content; the website is not designed "primarily" for commercial purposes (that is, e-commerce or advertising); the website's home page and other menu pages clearly distinguish between the website's commercial and non-commercial sections; and, the website page to which viewers are directed is not used for e-commerce, advertising, or other commercial purposes (that is, the page has no links labeled "store" or direct links to other pages with commercial material). Finally, neither children's programming nor commercials aired during children's programming may display Internet website addresses that direct viewers to Internet websites that utilize a program's characters to advertise, promote, or sell products or services.

After due review of internal station records and documentation provided to us by program suppliers, WIWN (TV) hereby certifies that it complied fully with the FCC's commercial limits with respect to all children's programs broadcast during this quarter that are subject to those requirements.

Certified by me this, 9th day of October 2017

Nicole Demmith,

Coordinator, Broadcast and Traffic Control Operations

WIWN COMMERCIAL LIMIT CERTIFICATION – EXHIBIT 1

WIWN-DT 68.1 (serving the Milwaukee, WI market) aired the following Educational / Informational children's programming for the period July 1, 2017 through September 30, 2017:

Steal the Show: 9:00am CST, Sunday. Aired 13 time during the 3rd quarter of 2017.

Steal the Show provides CORE programming in the areas music, music composition, the music recording process and musical instruments. Ariel, Zoey and Eli Engelbert of the EI program Ariel & Zoey & Eli, Too work to write and record an album with Grammy Winner Jim Peterik. All aspect of the process are covered – 1) Creating the melody, 2) writing the lyric, 3) creating harmonies, 4) developing instrumentals and 5) recording the song in the studio.

With schools across the country cutting funding to music related programs, Steal the Show fills an important void. Students will be empowered with the knowledge and skills they will broaden and hone as they follow Ariel, Zoey and Eli on their journey with one of the most prominent songwriters of the past 20 years. (Showplace TV Syndication) E/I, K13-16

Ariel & Zoey & Eli, Too: 9:30am CST, Sunday. Aired 13 time during the 3rd quarter of 2017.

Ariel & Zoey & Eli, Too (AZE2), a musical variety show that is driven by three siblings, empowers children to accomplish their goals and their dreams. AZE2 accomplishes this through interviewing people who excel in their profession and have a positive message for kids, introducing guests who perform different genres of music, and presenting musical performances by the cast members themselves. These cast musical performances show children they can write their own music and the importance of teamwork. Music on the show is produced by Emmy Award winner David Barrett. He and Brian Brill (another Emmy winner) ensure that the music is tailored for the young audience. All songs offer a positive message about life. Every episode begins with the song "Sweet Company" which sends the positive message of friendship and ends with the singing of "End of Another Day" which encourages the viewer to stay optimistic about tomorrow. (Showplace TV Syndication) E/I, K13-16

Aqua Kids Adventures II: 10:00am, CST, Sunday. Aired 13 time during the 3rd quarter of 2017.

Aqua Kids provides a unique vehicle for young people to learn about the diversity of marine animals around the world, emphasizing the importance of preserving fragile aquatic habitats and encouraging children to take an active role in protecting the future of their community and the world. The program provides a window into the management and preservation of unique habitats and species through the eyes of kids and their hands-on collaboration with science researchers and educators. The messages delivered by Aqua Kids are given by a creative and resourceful host, Molly McKinney, whose scientific background is evident in the show. The other young hosts, whose ages range from pre-teen to late teens, are equally entertaining and informative. The young viewers identify with these young hosts and imagine themselves in the role of the scientist and as someone who could have a positive impact on the environment. The format of young student scientists presenting information on location in a variety of aquatic settings is both entertaining and informative. (Showplace TV Syndication) E/I, K13-16

Veggie Tales: 10:30am, CST, Sunday. Aired 13 times during the 3rd quarter of 2017.

VeggieTales is a children's series featuring animated vegetables who teach life lessons through stories. Hosted by Bob the Tomato and Larry the Cucumber, each episode begins by establishing the problem, uses short stories to parallel the situation with a problem and solution, and ends by reiterating the proposed solution and the life lesson learned through the experience. The show communicates social-emotional messages based upon the core values of honesty, kindness, forgiveness, and appreciation for all, using music, unusual characters, and allegorical storylines. The New Howdy Doody: 11:00am, CST, and 11:30am, CST, Sunday. Aired 26 times during the 3rd quarter of 2017.

Howdy Doody is a 1975 series which is known to its viewers for Buffalo Bob in his cowboy attire and a cast of human characters such as Clarabell the Clown and Chief Thunderthud as well as puppets (i.e., Howdy Doody, Dilly Dally, Flub-a-Dub, etc.). Children sat on stage in the Peanut Gallery, thus making this show a forerunner of interactive programming we enjoy today. The primary value of the series is to educate and entertain elementary school-aged children. In addition, both older children and monitoring adults will find this series amusing and quite charming as Howdy Doody is a timeless character who has an interactive quality. Educationally, the series offers opportunities for parents and teachers to teach lessons related to language, character development, science, and listening skills.

In accordance with the 1990 Children's Television Act (ATC) intended to increase educational and informational programming for children on television, HOWDY DOODY clearly meets the goals of providing children with a television show that meets CORE requirements of the FCC as follows:

1. Issues such as bullying, establishing trust and courtesy are faced and resolved in the episodes.
2. Responsibility is presented in a positive and encouraging manner.
