

Permian Basin Broadcasting LLC

QUARTERLY PROGRAMS & ISSUES REPORT Mission Statement

Radio Station: KXQT Quarter: 4 Year: 2023

In our continuing efforts to serve the public interest in the community of Midland and within the Midland market which includes: Midland County, Ector County, Andrews County, Martin County, Upton County, Glasscock County, and portions of Reagan County, the attached pages reflect Permian Basin Broadcasting LLC programming response to the issues of concern to our community and the people in our coverage area.

In addition to our policy of involvement with our City and County Governments, Law Enforcement, and our Chamber of Commerce, the staff & management at Permian Basin Broadcasting are encouraged to participate in the programs and serve our community through civic and non-profit organizations as a representative of these radio stations.

KXQT is available to air local news reports Monday through Friday from 6 a.m. to 9 p.m. dealing with important local issues important to San Angelo and the surrounding area.

KXQT also has a commitment to the well-being of our area communities in regards to weather and severe weather coverage. KXQT is available to air local weather updates at least once an hour during live broadcast hours, and has a very proactive severe weather plan..

Issues and concerns in the Midland Community, and the Permian basin area, include oil and natural gas, economic development, water shortage, drought, education, agriculture, charter school status, retirement community status, weather, city drainage, city taxes and government, health care, UTPB/ Midland College issues, and highway/road transportation.

KXQT is constantly committed to using its media platform to assist in charitable causes, including but not limited to: Cancer Awareness and Fundraising, Toys For Tots, Habitat for Humanity, the Boys and Girls Club, Meals for the Elderly, Homebound Services, Family Promise/ Fair Havens/ Salvation Army Emergency Shelters, Midland Humane Coalition etc.

A list of Public Service Messages KXQT has aired in the FOURTH Quarter of 2023 is filed.

This is and will remain our commitment.
