He also wants to dive into the history and culture of the game with his students. The new program would not only get kids active but it'd also help them learn where the city of La Crosse got its name, something our sponsors saw as a fun opportunity for the children. Educators can apply wxow.com/tools .
Emergency	6pm	4/27/2023	2:12	And we toss it to News 19's Bowen Kedrowicz who is in Crawford County covering the derailment. He joins us now live from the scene to tell you what we know so far. Heather, right now crews are trying to assess the damage. We know that 4 people were injured, workers with the railroad. Authorities say 20 BNSF cars went off the tracks in a secluded area near the river. Luckily, there are no homes in the area. We know that they were carrying paint and batteries, and he talks about the cleanup process and right now they are doing what is called booning, the process of setting up a barrier to keep things, paint, oil, gas from getting into the water. That accident happened near the Wisconsin/Iowa border in Crawford County but not too far south from Desoto which is Vernon County.
Crime	MidDay	4/28/2023	:42	A woman accused of driving the wrong way on I-94 last October and killing a man in a crash has reached a plea deal. Amber Pospisil pleaded guilty to homicide by intoxicated use of a vehicle. Her other three charges were dismissed. As we've reported officials were called to a crash near Hudson. There they found a 54-year-old man dead. According to the criminal complaint his SUV was hit head-on by the car driven by Pospisil. Officers found an empty bottle of vodka in her car and she told police she'd been drinking it at a wedding in Blair and continued to drink the vodka while driving to a hotel in Hudson. She told the police she did not have any memory of going the wrong way on the interstate. She will be sentenced in July.

Crime	6pm	5/2/2023	:37	A contentious initial appearance for a la crosse man charged with theft and making terrorist threats. Cayce Townsend appeared virtually and was muted by judge Gloria Doyle after several outbursts over representation. The criminal complaint shows the 32-year-old is accused of stealing over 4,600 dollars in property from a former roommate. Police say during his arrest Townsend began threatening to kill the responding officers claiming he had a bomb attached to his leg, which police later discovered was an empty pill bottle and a garlic container. The La Crosse police department will send in an 18- to 20-year-old volunteer to try and purchase alcohol. The county health department points towards the increase of mental health challenges in today's youth that lead to alcohol use. Bars or stores that are caught selling to underage patrons will result in a fine for the clerk or bartender. A notice will also be sent to the license holder as well.
Emergency	6pm	5/3/2023	1:02	Viterbo University sharing more about the student whose death prompted a large police presence near Lincoln middle school this morning La Crosse police responded to the incident near the school located on 9th and Division. Some of the middle school students witnessed what we have since learned was a suicide and school officials say they are making counseling available to those who need it. As a policy, we do not typically report on suicides but a statement from Viterbo says the family of Javon Kunkel wanted to share with the community that he died by suicide, encouraging anyone who may be struggling to seek support. President Rick Tritely goes on to say that Javon was in the Master of Arts in Servant Leadership program and a member of the track team. The university extends its deepest sympathy to his friends, family, and colleagues, asking people to keep them in their thoughts and prayers. And if you or someone you know is struggling, we want you to know you're not alone and we have resources available on our website at wxow.com under the mental health crisis tab.

Education	6pm	5/25/2023	:25	While the session has now concluded a bi-partisan effort introduced into the Minnesota legislature wants to help students re-connect with nature. The out-door school for all grant programs would fund multi-day trips to the state's accredited outdoor schools. Minnesota would fully fund

				the trip for every fourth through eighth grader. State representative Kristi Pursell wants to help the younger generation connect with the state's values. Pursell authored the bill that's been introduced in the Minnesota house of representatives. Winona state senator Jeremy Miller wrote one of the bills for the senate saying it helps to get kids out of the classroom. Students would attend places like the eagle bluff environmental learning center in Lanesboro. The bills will be discussed in the next legislative session early next year.
Government	6pm	5/29/2023	:37	Now to a preview of a story coming up tonight at ten. After 16 years on the bench in La Crosse County Circuit Court Judge Todd Bjerke is preparing for retirement. Then La Crosse County district attorney Scott Horne hired Bjerke back in 1989, impressed with his background. Bjerke served as a judge advocate general in the Marine Corps and had practiced law in Western Minnesota. In 2007 voters elected Horne and Bjerke to the bench. As an assistant district attorney and a judge. Bjerke worked hard to solve problems. People had to go to jail because of the nature of their crimes but when appropriate Bjerke worked for change. Judge Bjerke is going to travel and remain active in the community. His retirement is effective July 31st.
Health	6pm	5/29/2023	:26	If you've been outdoors this spring there's a good chance you've had some unwelcome company. Ticks are showing up in increasingly high numbers this spring in Wisconsin, thanks in part to last month's flooding. That's why experts at Gundersen health system say it's important to take steps to protect yourself when spending time outdoors. Infection preventionist Megan Meller says scanning your body for ticks is a must especially with the risk of Lyme disease. Meller added that it takes about 24 hours for a tick to transmit Lyme disease once it's attached, so the sooner you can remove it, the better.
Emergency	6pm	5/29/2023	:32	Investigators continue to look into what caused a Trempealeau County gas station to go in up flames over the weekend. On Friday night around 10 a number of fire departments responded to Toad's Cove gas station in Centerville. Despite their best efforts the store was a total loss. In a message on Toad Cove's website the owners posted their thanks for the well wishes they received. They say they are relieved no one was injured and their faith has grown stronger. While the building is a loss, they hope to have their car wash and dog wash open soon.

Biz/Ind	6pm	5/30/2023	2:24	We're hearing tonight from two la crosse natives who've been working many years on the river doing what's necessary to keep the supply chain connected. News 19's Colton Emswiler shares how driving down the river led them to the very top of their craft. Tom Cagle and Mike Slaby, La Crosse natives who captain the Neil N. Diehl and Philip M. Pfeffer respectively for the Ingram Barge Company. The pair spend 28 days on their vessels then another 28 off and the time spent along the Mississippi has a rapidly changing schedule. The barges carry items like grain and cement between Saint Louis and Saint Paul during the spring. While they say it's a job not for everyone the pair views it as a dream come true as they now lead several employees. Of course, spending half your time away from loved ones can be rough but after over 25 years of hard work there's a sense of pride in what they accomplish and earlier this year the longtime friends teamed up to break through the ice of Lake Pepin, a unique challenge that required some spot-on collaboration to get the job done. The pair first joined the industry thanks to a mutual friend convincing them to try it out. Cagle says the hardest part of the job is navigating through different water levels.
Biz/Ind	6pm	6/5/2023	:21	Delta Airlines no longer flies in and out of the La Crosse Regional Airport. American Airlines is now the only carrier following Delta's last flight on Sunday. Officials say Delta's departure is not due to a lack of demand but due to staffing issues and other logistics. Airport officials are now working to fill the void left by the airline. Turner says Delta could come back with the right circumstances but doesn't expect that to happen for at least five years.
Emergency	6pm	6/5/2023	:20	No injuries in a fire call this morning to south la crosse. Emergency responders called the 1500 block of Johnson Street when smoke was reported coming out of a second-floor apartment window. Firefighters said a couch was on fire and they were able to put the fire out quickly.

				The apartment did not sustain any damage. No word so far on a cause.
Government	6pm	6/6/2023	:28	La Crosse County and city leaders holding a joint meeting to share an update on the strategy to try to help find a more equitable solution for the area's unsheltered population. You may recall this spring the city shut down Houska Park which was where many were staying, leading people to take up temporary shelter in other places like parking ramps, many also taking up residence in Cameron Park.
Health	6pm	6/6/2023	:24	Wildfires in Canada continue to cause air quality alerts in parts of the US including in Wisconsin and Minnesota. Most of the air quality alerts, including those here in La Crosse, have expired but there are still some spots that are hazardous and can be dangerous for people with breathing problems. Forecasters say a cold front is set to move south this week and that could push smoke to other areas this week.
Education	6pm	6/6/2023	:26	The Bangor community gathering this morning, in celebration of new additions to the elementary school and much needed improvements, the groundbreaking ceremony is kicking off construction at Bangor elementary school. Construction will include remodeling the 19-67 portion of the building, additional parking, and a 10-classroom addition that will serve grades 2-5, upgrades that many say are needed to continue providing quality education for their students this project was approved by the community last fall in a 24-million-dollar capital referendum. President of the school boarding looks forward to seeing the completed project and seeing the students' reactions construction is set to start in august with the 10-room addition being completed by next march with an extended summer break in 2024. The hope is the project will be completed by that September.
Crime	5pm	6/9/2023	:24	It charges Adam Taylor Fravel with two counts of second-degree murder in connection with the death of Madeline Kingsbury. Fravel has denied any involvement. Saying in part in a statement through his attorney in April. "I have cooperated with law enforcement at every turn including sitting down for multiple interviews with Winona County law enforcement." "I did not have anything to do with Maddie's disappearance." The statement of probable cause says a person identifying herself as a friend of Madeline contacted police March 31st and that she was concerned about the health and safety of Madeline because she had not reached out to her and that was unusual. She told police that Adam Fravel was Madeline's "significant other." An officer spoke with Mister Fravel by phone who told them he had not heard from Madeline since early that morning. She was supposed to pick up her children from daycare after work but Mister Fravel said she had not. So, he did, taking them to his parents' home in Mabel Minnesota. After months of searches and investigation on June 7th law enforcement officers traveled the route Mister Fravel traveled March 31st to Mabel. While searching property next to a public gravel road about a mile from Highway 43 they discovered remains later determined through an autopsy be Madeline's. As mentioned, Mister Fravel is charged with two counts of murder in the second degree, one with intent to effect the death of a person, the other without intent to effect the death of a person. We asked the county attorney to explain the two charges. Mister Fravel is in jail on a 2-million-dollar bond without conditions, 1-million-dollar bod with conditions. According to the court calendar Mister Fravel's next court appearance is set for July 20th. We'll have additional details tonight at 6 and you can read the full statement of probable cause on our website wxow.com.

Biz/Ind	5pm	6/9/2023	:19	The dry air, heat and continuous lack of rain is taking a toll on Wisconsin farmers. The soil is drying, making it harder for crops to draw moisture and the lack of rain means farmers have to provide water. Pleasant View Dairy planted their corn a few weeks ago and while they say they sprouted fine, now, they're struggling. They say while it's not an emergency if nothing changes, crops could be impacted negatively. But right now, it's still too soon to tell.
Government	6pm	6/20/2023	:34	It is enough that a car smells like marijuana to justify a search. That's according to a ruling today from the Wisconsin supreme court. By a 4-3 decision. The conservative majority still in place until Janet Protasiewicz is sworn in this summer sided with officers who in 2019 performed a search after smelling marijuana in a vehicle ultimately finding cocaine and illegal opioids in one person's pocket. Dissent from the three liberal justices argue that police cannot determine that the odor is in fact marijuana since the scent of c-b-d products which are legal is indistinguishable.

Crime	6pm	6/20/2023	:45	We begin with the Nya Thao triple homicide trial, a deadlocked jury unable to reach a verdict today. After deliberating since yesterday afternoon. News 19's Roger Stafforoni has been following the case and was at today's proceedings it was around 11:30 this morning when the jury first told the court they were not able to reach a verdict. Judge Elliot Levine then instructing the 9 women and 3 men to go back and resume deliberations. But two hours later, they informed the judge verdicts were not going to happen. News of the deadlock was welcomed by Thao's defense team. Thao, who had remained expressionless over the past week suddenly smiling and at one point hugging his attorneys. Frustration for district attorney Tim Gruenke seeking justice for the victims and their families. And while Gruenke said he was disappointed with today's results, his office is planning on another trial noting it will take some time, anywhere from four to six months. As for Nya Thao, he remains in custody on his current million-dollar cash bond. He is scheduled to be back in court next week to discuss that bond as well as where the case goes next. The other man facing charges in the case, Khamthaneth Rattanasack is due in court for a status hearing in mid-July.
Education	MidDay	6/21/2023	:26	The UW System president says he may have to close campuses and raise tuition if the legislature's finance committee follows through with proposed budget cuts. Assembly speaker Robin Vos has called for a 32-million dollar cut to the system's 2023-2025 budget. Vos says that amount is equal to what the system spends on diversity and equity offers in each budget cycle. The committee is expected to vote on the cut tomorrow as it finishes work on the state budget.
Crime	6pm	6/23/2023	:51	Sheriff's deputies were sent to Highway 35 and Gianoli Road last Friday for a welfare check finding 61-year-old William S. Boardman was leaving home. Deputies pulled over his vehicle but during the stop Boardman began driving away at a high rate of speed while Vernon

				County deputy Jonathon Brown stood on the running board. Authorities say brown who has 16-years of law enforcement experience gave repeated commands to stop. Boardman ignored the commands and brown discharged his weapon hitting boardman who died at the scene. No other injuries. Brown is on administrative assignment consistent with department policy. The department of criminal investigation continues to review evidence. When they finish, they'll turn the case over to the Vernon County district attorney.
Government	6pm	6/29/2023	:41	The Wisconsin state budget advancing this week the senate approving a plan that cuts income tax as well as a piece of the university of Wisconsin's budget. News 19's Roger Staffaroni speaking with two state senators, republican Patrick Testin and democrat Brad Pfaff. The proposed cut comes at a time when an April report from Wisconsin policy forum shows Wisconsin ranked 43rd nationwide when it comes to public funding. , it is not lost that today the supreme court also making its decision regarding affirmative action saying colleges and universities can no longer take race into consideration as a basis for granting admission.
Health	6pm	6/29/2023	:27	A milestone tonight, the Saint Clare Health Mission marks 30 years of providing free health care to the uninsured in our community. Saint Clare health serving just 8 patients when it opened in 1993. Executive director Jason Larsen says the success of the mission comes from the community. The Franciscan Sisters of Perpetual Adoration and both Mayo Clinic and Gundersen health systems. Since opening its doors. The mission has adapted to meet the needs of those they serve. To date, St. Clare health mission has had 90-thousand patient visits and over 76-thousand volunteer hours in the last thirty years. Larsen says they will commemorate the anniversary all year with events happening during the fall months.
Biz/Ind	6pm	6/30/2023	:28	Local growers selling their fresh crops at stands around the community Stanley Farms are selling quarts, buckets, and flats of their fresh strawberries. On a typical day sellers start with around 30 to 50 flats of berries and end the day when all berries are sold typically within a three-hour time span. The season usually runs from mid-

				May to early July. So, sellers are urging strawberry fans to get their fresh produce while they still can. Stanley strawberries has been producing berries for around 100 years as a family-owned farm. 20/20

Friday, April 7, 2023

Unholy Matrimony

Robert and Sabrina Limon appeared to be living an idyllic life with their two children in Silver Lakes, CA. The Limons loved to party and had become part of a tight-knit group of couples who called themselves “The Wolfpack.” When Robert was found murdered in a remote industrial complex where he was working, the illusion of their perfect life crumbled. As authorities investigated the death, they discovered that not only did the couple have an open marriage, but Sabrina was having a full-blown affair with Jonathan Hearn. Police arrested Jonathan and Sabrina for the murder, but without enough evidence, Sabrina was able to walk free. In a shocking twist, Jonathan agreed to testify against Sabrina in exchange for a lesser sentence just days before his trial. ABC News correspondent Deborah Roberts reports.

Stranger in the House

One morning in 2010, Nick and Heidi Firkus should have been getting ready to go to church. Instead, police received a series of distressed 911 calls — first from Heidi, then from Nick — claiming that someone was breaking into their home. When they arrived, they discovered that Heidi had been shot dead, and Nick had a gunshot wound to the leg. As authorities began investigating, they discovered that the couple was in massive financial trouble and were set to be evicted from their home. With no immediate leads, the case went cold, and Nick moved on to marry and have children with a woman named Rachel. Years pass and it seems like life has gone back to normal for Nick ... until Rachel finds something in Nick’s sock drawer that changes everything she thought she knew about her husband. Rachel believes Nick had something to do with Heidi’s death.

Secrets of the Lake

Since the 1930s, Lake Mead — a picturesque reservoir outside of Las Vegas — has been the site of over 300 drownings, making it one of the deadliest lakes in America. However, it wasn’t until recently that Lake Mead’s truly sinister history came to light. As environmental crises like drought, warming temperatures, and diminishing water supply have caused the reservoir to recede, people have discovered bodies in the lake. In a special edition of “20/20,” ABC News contributor Chris Connelly investigates the secrets of Lake Mead and details how authorities are using DNA evidence to crack cases that had long gone cold.

The Case of the Clown Killer

In May of 1990, a clown carrying balloons and flowers walked up to Marlene Warren’s home in an affluent southern Florida suburb and shot and killed the 40-year-old mother at point-blank range when she opened the door. Friends and family were quick to raise suspicion about her husband, Michael Warren, but his denial and airtight alibi brought investigators back to square one, leading to a 33-year journey to solve the case. Finally, just weeks ago, in April of 2023, Michael’s second wife, Sheila Keen-Warren, pled guilty to second-degree murder. In a new “20/20,” contributing anchor Deborah Roberts looks at the decades-long case and details how authorities finally brought the killer to justice.

This Is Revenge

On a quiet summer morning, Dr. Joseph Sonnier was found brutally murdered in his stately northwest Texas home. Who could have wanted to kill a so-called renaissance man beloved by his small community? In this program, Richelle Shetina, the woman at the center of the love triangle, speaks out about the murder and her ex-boyfriend Dr. Mike Dixon, who is accused of hiring a hitman. Additionally, the program features an interview with the accused murderer’s daughters, who speak about their father and how they feel about what he’s done.

Rocky Mountain Horror

When her 19-year-old daughter went missing in 2003, Lori McLeod believed her boyfriend, Scott Kimball, who told her he worked for the FBI, could help find her daughter. Three years later, what began as a check fraud investigation led officials to a shocking conclusion: the very man McLeod trusted to find her daughter was actually her killer. In a new “20/20,” ABC News correspondent John Quiñones unpacks Kimball’s secret life of horrific crimes, exploring his elaborate web of deception and the evidence linking Kimball to multiple murders, some of them committed while he was an FBI informant.

Dead Man Talking

Wendi Mae Davidson, former Texas veterinarian and mother of two, reported her husband, Air Force Staff Sergeant Michael Severance, missing in January 2005. Authorities searched for the father and airman who survived five tours of duty in the Middle East. But soon, a joint investigation by Texas Rangers, the Air Force Office of Special Investigations and local authorities revealed that Davidson knew far more about Severance’s whereabouts than she disclosed. “20/20,” in collaboration with Plum Pictures, features an interview with Davidson from prison, where she is serving her 25-year sentence for her husband’s murder. She speaks to ABC News chief national correspondent Matt Gutman about what she claims really happened to her husband and discusses the evidence authorities say points to her, including Severance’s toxicology report that showed that large amounts of animal tranquilizers contributed to his death. The program also contains recordings of police interrogating Davidson in the days following Severance’s disappearance and interviews with Frank Severance, Severance’s brother; Leslie Severance, Severance’s father; and other friends of Severance who discuss his troubled marriage and their feelings about Davidson.

Dying to Meet You

On the night of his disappearance, popular local musician Scott Sessions arranged a date with mother-of-three Heather Frank at her house in the small town of Greeley, Colorado. When authorities found Sessions’ body at a campground days later, they set their sights on Frank as the prime suspect. But when Frank goes missing, the police realize that an ex-boyfriend’s jealousy may have turned deadly. A new “20/20” reports on how covert police surveillance uncovered two horrific murders and exposed a killer.

Friday, June 16, 2023

Where Monsters Hide

When Chris Regan — a military veteran known for his reliability on the job — misses multiple days of work in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan, a friend notified the police. With no clear signs of foul play, investigators were at a loss until they received a tip: Regan was dating Kelly Cochran, whose rocky marriage to Jason Cochran was on the brink of collapse. “20/20” chronicles how a woman leading a small-town police department would come to learn about an almost unimaginable crime involving an alleged wedding night murder pact. The two-hour program features an exclusive one-on-one prison phone interview between “Nightline” co-anchor Juj

Chang and Kelly Cochran, who tells her side of the story; body camera video, which gives viewers an inside look at the Cochran's house of horrors; and undercover recordings.

Friday, June 23, 2023

Never Made It Home

An all-new "20/20" reports on the notorious case of Kristin Smart, a first-year student at Cal Poly University whose disappearance from a fraternity party one night in 1996 captured national attention for over two decades. "20/20" revisits the events surrounding the case, the decades-long investigation into Smart's disappearance, and explains how police finally captured her killer — who was sentenced to prison in March of this year.

Do No Harm

On the surface, Robert Bierenbaum seemed to have it all – he was a surgeon, a skilled skier, a gourmet chef, fluent in multiple languages, and an expert pilot. But just like "Jekyll and Hyde," he had a much darker side lurking underneath. He was a violent and controlling abuser, and his wife, Gail Katz-Bierenbaum, confided in friends she was afraid of him. Although authorities suspected him in Katz-Bierenbaum's 1985 disappearance from their Upper East Side apartment, insufficient physical evidence allowed him to evade charges for 14 years. He used that time to carefully craft a new life across the country until prosecutors discovered a doctored flight log from the day Katz-Bierenbaum vanished, and his lies finally caught up with him. With reporting by ABC News correspondent John Quiñones, "20/20" features interviews with women romantically involved with Bierenbaum after he left New York City; an exclusive interview with Barb Cooper, the nanny for Bierenbaum's child with his second wife; a new interview with Alayne Katz, Katz-Bierenbaum's sister; and Denise Kastenbaum, Katz-Bierenbaum's closest childhood friend. Other interviews include Daniel Bibb and Steve Saracco, the original prosecutors; Virgilio Dalsass, the missing persons police officer who was the first on the case; and Judge Leslie Crocker Synder, who sentenced Bierenbaum to 20 years to life in prison. "20/20" also features rare home videos of Katz-Bierenbaum and never-before-seen photos of Bierenbaum.
