KFBW
 Quarterly Issues/Programs List

KFBW provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

1. There has been an increase in mental health crisis calls during the pandemic, what's being done to meet the demand?
2. What services are available to help people with disabilities find work?
3. Indigenous people go missing at a rate higher than the general population, we'll look into what's being done to find these missing persons.
4. Where is the COVID-19 pandemic now, and what's being done to handle the cases.
5. Portland's Old Town is experiencing a spike in crime, how is the city responding?
6. Multnomah County puts restrictions on wood burning under certain conditions. How does this work and who does it affect?
7. What's being done to help under-represented businesses survive.
8. What will wildfire season be like this year in Oregon and how is the state preparing?
9. Several Oregon counties are in drought emergencies. How is the state dealing with the problem of too little water?
10. What's the status of the I-5 Rose Quarter project and where does it go next?

Section I
