4/3/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAE #000205)

A summer job as a guide in the Alaskan wilderness led one college student to pursue his dreams, and time in the classroom teaching helped one woman find her true calling as an entrepreneur.

4/10/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAE #000206)

Learn the history behind how a side job grew into one of the largest employers in Manning, Iowa, and follow the road from solving a problem in the medical industry to actually getting the product to the hospitals that needed it.

4/17/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAE #000207)

Meet a farmer who runs a global IT consulting company from the middle of a corn field and a couple whose business serves the music industry.

4/24/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAE #000208)

From movie sets to speedways, learn about the Iowa company that has been there to make sure the lights turn on, and meet two brothers who credit their father with cultivating their own interest in becoming entrepreneurs.

5/1/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAE #000209)

Follow an agricultural conservation company's journey from relying on government grants to growing in the private sector, and discover the storied history of the Coca-Cola capital of Iowa.

5/8/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAE #000210)

A family history of business ownership is helping one woman distribute her product in markets across Iowa and beyond, and a mission trip to Haiti inspired one family to help other people reach their mission work goals.

5/15/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAE #000211)

More efficient billing and coding processes has made this company a driving force throughout the U.S., and an idea for a happy coffee shop led to a franchise that's popping up all over the country.

5/22/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAE #000212)

Learn about an ammunition company that found the perfect fit in a small Iowa community, and meet a husband and wife who work together, using renewable energy to sow the seeds of peace.

5/29/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAE #000301)

Meet two brothers who risked everything to start their own business, and a man who turned his love of fixing and creating into a manufacturing company.

6/5/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAE #000302)

A healthier lifestyle inspired one woman to start a wellness-minded business, and one man's life experience helped him pursue his true passion of woodworking.

6/12/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAE #000303)

Discover how community support has been integral to the success of one business in Waverly, and meet two partners in the tech industry who make it a priority to value their employees.

6/19/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAE #000304)

Learn how one man's military experience sent him on a rocky journey towards manufacturing military grade armor, and meet two brothers who learned about entrepreneurship by working in a family business.

6/26/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAE #000305)

Meet a woman whose love of healthy food inspired her to start a business with a mission and a man who found success in Iowa despite his skepticism about relocating his business to the state.

IOWA INGREDIENT

4/1/2020 – 6/30/2020

4/2/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAI #000903 - Oats)

You can enjoy them rolled, cut, or ground. Oats are a nutrient dense and fiber packed grain that are perfect for breakfast and beyond. On this Iowa Ingredient, we'll visit a farm in central Iowa to learn how one grower harvests and processes his oats. Then the talented chef Katy Meyer from Trumpet Blossom Cafe in Iowa City will serve up a few recipes using this versatile grain.

4/9/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAI #000904 - Basil)

There are dozens of different kinds of basil and countless ways to use this savory herb. On this Iowa Ingredient, we'll visit a farm in Northeast Iowa to learn how to grow basil, and we'll find out about some of the tastiest varieties. Then Chef Matt Steigerwald from Rapid Creek Cidery will share some fresh and delicious recipes using Basil.

4/16/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAI #000905 - Trout)

In Northeast Iowa, among cornfields and pastures you can find spring fed streams teeming trout. On this Iowa Ingredient, we'll meet an angler from Decorah who will share a few of his secrets for catching trout. Then Suman Hoq will visit our studio kitchen to create a few delicious recipes using trout.

4/23/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAI #000906 - Leeks)

A cousin of onions and garlic, leeks are milder in flavor but they can still be used as the star ingredient for a lot of dishes. On this Iowa Ingredient, we'll visit a farm in western Iowa to learn the best practices to growing and harvesting leeks. Then the talented Katy Meyer from Trumpet Blossom Cafe in Iowa City will stop by the kitchen to share a few recipes using this versatile ingredient.

4/30/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAI #000907 - Flour)

Flour has been with us for a long time now. Our ancestors figured out how to use two strong to turn grain into flour, and it's been with us ever since. On this Iowa Ingredient, we'll visit a flour mill in central Iowa. Then central Iowa chef Dean Latrell will give us a taste of his Italian heritage as he shows us the flexibility of flour.

5/7/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAI #000908 - Asparagus)

As one of the first ingredients to arrive in the spring, asparagus is a seasonal favorite at farmers' market stands. On this Iowa Ingredient, we'll visit a vegetable farm in Southwest Iowa to learn how to grow and harvest this popular vegetable. Then Chef Joshua Frederick from Cafe Mir will share a few recipes and tips for cooking with asparagus.

5/14/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAI #000909 - Pears)

Pears are far from one note when it comes to looks or flavor. On this Iowa Ingredient, we'll visit a family orchard to learn a few tips to growing and harvesting this sweet-tasting fruit. Then Chef James Calkins from Milk and Honey Restaurant in Harlan will share a few of his pear-inspired recipes.

5/21/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAI #000910 - Okra)

While Okra is known as a staple in Southern cuisine, it does find its way into Midwest gardens and dishes as well. On this Iowa Ingredient, we'll visit a central Iowa farm to learn some tips and tricks to growing this beautiful plant. Then the talented Lynn Pritchard, who is the executive chef of Table 128 in West Des Moines, will stop by the studio kitchen to share a fun twist using okra.

5/28/20 at 6:30 p.m. (IAI #000911 - Iowa's Culinary Heritage)

On this special episode of Iowa Ingredient, we'll open Iowa's history book and read a couple of chapters about our diverse food traditions and culinary heritage that have blended and evolved over the years. Author and special guest Darcy Maulsby will join us in the kitchen to teach up a few famous Iowa specialities.

Format:
"Stonewall Uprising" explores the dramatic event that launched a worldwide rights movement. Told by those who took part, from drag queens and street hustlers to police detectives, journalists and a former mayor of New York, and featuring a rich trove of archival footage, this film revisits a time when homosexual acts were illegal throughout America, and homosexuality itself was seen as a form of mental illness. Hunted and often entrapped by undercover police in their hometowns, gays from around the U.S. began fleeing to New York in search of a sanctuary. Hounded there still by an aggressive police force, they found refuge in a Mafia-run gay bar in Greenwich Village, the Stonewall Inn. When police raided Stonewall on June 28, 1969, gay men and women did something they had not done before: they fought back. As the streets of New York erupted into violent protests and street demonstrations, the collective anger announced that the gay rights movement had arrived.

The Committee is a documentary film about the little-known Florida Legislative Investigative Committee of the State Legislature from 1956-1965. Florida Senator Charley Johns chaired the committee, and its aim was to root out communist and homosexual teachers and students from state universities. It was successful in either firing or expelling more than 200 suspected gay and lesbian citizens. The film features two North Florida survivors (Rev. Ruth Jensen-Forbell and Chuck Woods) and one interrogator (John Tileston) who have never before spoken publicly about their experiences without anonymity. It culminates in a 50-year reunion between survivor and interrogator.

The veterans of this bloody conflict walk among us. Most are in their late 80s and early 90s, and many feel their part in holding Communism at bay has been forgotten. Those who did return to Iowa received no fanfare or parade and simply melted back into society. The Forgotten War: Iowans in Korea sheds light on their sacrifices in a place halfway around the world.

Iowans Remember Vietnam examines one of the most turbulent times in American history from the perspective of those who were there. This IPTV-produced documentary also chronicles the simultaneous battle at home, where thousands of young people took to the streets to demonstrate their strident opposition to the war. Iowans Remember Vietnam explores the causes -- and outcomes -- of both conflicts. From the first U.S. advisors in Vietnam; through the deployment of combat troops; to the fall of Saigon; Iowans Remember Vietnam counts the cost of an often misunderstood conflict, in which 115,000 Iowans served their country and 859 made the ultimate sacrifice.
