

BEASLEY MEDIA GROUP, LLC
ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT
FOR STATION WDMK-FM
4th QUARTER, 2023
October 1st THROUGH December 31st

ISSUES OF CONCERN TO THE STATION
WDMK-FM
ADDRESSED IN RESPONSIVE PROGRAMMING IN THE
FOURTH-QUARTER, 2023

1. EDUCATION
2. MICHIGAN POLITICS
3. DETROIT POLITICS
4. CURRENT EVENTS
5. NATIONAL POLITICS
6. INTERNATIONAL POLITICS
7. LAW ENFORCEMENT
8. ICON TRIBUTE
9. NATIONAL NEWS
10. COMMUNITY OUTREACH
11. ARTIST SPOTLIGHT
12. LOCAL BUSINESSES
13. LOCAL NEWS
14. FINANCE
15. FITNESS

PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAMS

WDMK-FM PROGRAMS THAT
ADDRESS COMMUNITY ISSUES

Inside Detroit (Sunday – 8:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.)

Mildred Gaddis Show: Locally-produced Public Affairs Recap Show aired Sunday mornings focusing on Metro Detroit issues such as Detroit policies, homelessness, victories, and defeats.

FOURTH QUARTER 2023

INSIDE DETROIT

October 1st, 2023

TIME: 8:00am – 11:00am

TOPIC: EDUCATION

LENGTH: 30 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Dr. Clarence Nixon, Jr., business executive, educator and author of “A Crisis of Competence (How our Education System is Failing Kids and What to Do About It). They discussed the impact of his book and his non-profit organization. Nixon explained he is the CEO and founder of t.Lab, a non-profit organization that operates accelerated learning centers for students in pre-kindergarten through undergraduate. Mildred commended Nixon for his work in the community.

TOPIC: MICHIGAN POLITICS

LENGTH: 30 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Donovan McKinney, Michigan State Representative of the 14th District. They discussed Clean Jobs for Michigan, an organization that advocates for clean energy and good-paying jobs. McKinney explained the company works to build a state that will sustain natural resources and hardworking families.

TOPIC: DETROIT POLITICS

LENGTH: 45 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed former Michigan State Senate Candidate, Toinu Reeves. They discussed Detroit Mayor Mike Duggan’s proposed Land Value Tax plan that would reduce taxes on buildings by 30% and triple taxes on land. Reeves explained the plan is designed to reward homeowners and penalize neglectful landowners. Mildred shared that under the proposed plan, 97% of Detroit homeowners would get an average 17% permanent property tax cut starting in the year 2025. Listeners called in to weigh their opinions on the topic.

TOPIC: CURRENT EVETNS

LENGTH: 60 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Robert Shumake, known also as Shaman Shu of Soul Tribes International Ministries. They discussed the recent report of the Detroit Police raiding his church. Shu explained he believed the city and police were targeting him because he offered mushrooms – which he called sacred plants – to his members.

INSIDE DETROIT

October 8th, 2023

TIME: 8:00am – 11:00am

TOPIC: NATIONAL POLITICS

LENGTH: 35 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed political strategist and public relations expert, Greg Bowens. They discussed the removal of Republican House Speaker Kevin McCarthy. Bowens explained McCarthy was voted out of his position in a historic 216-210 vote. Mildred highlighted this was the first time in U.S. history that a House Speaker was ousted. Listeners called in to share their opinions on the topic.

TOPIC: DETROIT POLITICS

LENGTH: 50 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Detroit Councilmembers Mary Waters, Angela Whitfield-Calloway, and LaTisha Johnson. They discussed the legislative efforts led by Councilwoman Waters to torpedo the Land Value Tax plan proposed by Detroit Mayor Mike Duggan. Johnson explained the proposed plan would reduce taxes on buildings by 30% and triple taxes on land. Waters highlighted the plan looks good on paper but would hurt residents in the long run. Listeners called in with questions for the council members.

TOPIC: CURRENT EVENTS

LENGTH: 40 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Shaman Shu of Soul Tribes International Ministries. They discussed an update on his case against the Detroit police for their raid of his church. Shu believed the city targeted him because he was offering psychedelic mushrooms to his congregation. Shu explained that he plans to sue the city and the police department for what he called an illegal raid on his property. Listeners called in to weigh their opinions on the topic.

TOPIC: CURRENT EVENTS

LENGTH: 35 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis solicited callers for an open line discussion. Listeners called in to weigh their opinions on the topics discussed during the show.

INSIDE DETROIT

October 15th, 2023

TIME: 8:00am – 11:00am

TOPIC: INTERNATIONAL POLITICS

LENGTH: 40 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Brad Roth, Wayne State University Professor of Political Science and Law. They discussed the ongoing military conflict of Israel and Hamas. Roth explained Hamas is a militant Islamist group that has controlled Gaza since 2006. Mildred commended Roth for his extensive knowledge of the matter.

TOPIC: DETROIT POLITICS

LENGTH: 35 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Wayne State University Law Professor, John Mogk. They discussed the latest update to the Land Value Tax plan proposed by Detroit Mayor Mike Duggan. Mogk explained the benefits of the plan for Detroit residents. Mildred commended Mogk for his work in economic development. Listeners called in to weigh in on the topic.

TOPIC: DETROIT POLITICS

LENGTH: 40 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Russ Bellant, journalist and organizer with Detroiters for Tax Justice. They discussed the organization's critique of the proposed Detroit Land Value Tax plan. Bellant explained the plan as described by the city and explained by Mayor Duggan violates two elements of the Michigan constitution.

TOPIC: CURRENT EVENTS

LENGTH: 45 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis held an open-line segment for listeners to discuss the topics of the day's show and current news headlines. Mildred shared a news report of Carlee Russell, the Alabama nursing student who made national headlines when she made a false 911 report and went missing. Mildred explained the young lady was ordered to pay $18,000 in restitution and face a year in jail. Listeners called in with their opinions on the topics.

INSIDE DETROIT

October 22nd, 2023

TIME: 8:00am – 11:00am

TOPIC: EDUCATION

LENGTH: 40 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed former Detroit City Council President, Brenda Jones. They discussed the reaction to Jones' recent Free Scholarship Fair. Jones explained the fair took place in Detroit's Eastern Market. She also highlighted over $100,000 in scholarships were given to students going to college in the next year. Mildred commended Jones for her work in the community. Listeners also called in to give their remarks.

TOPIC: MICHIGAN POLITICS

LENGTH: 60 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Michigan State Representative Tyrone Carter. They discussed the recent story exposing disturbing emails sent by Michigan GOP House Minority Leader Matt Hall. Carter explained the emails were reportedly sent while Hall was in college. He also highlighted the emails were filled with racially charged threats towards a student at his girlfriend's college. Mildred and Carter both condemned the emails. Listeners called in to weigh their opinions on the topic.

TOPIC: LAW ENFORCEMENT

LENGTH: 60 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis shared a recent report of Detroit Police Commissioner Ricardo Moore accusing Detroit Police Chief James White of deceiving the public. She explained an officer was accused of punching an elderly man outside a bar in Midtown Detroit. She also shared the elderly man has since died and Moore had accused Chief White of changing the narrative surrounding the incident after the victim was in grave condition. Listeners called in to weigh in their opinions on the topic.

INSIDE DETROIT

October 29th, 2023

TIME: 8:00am – 11:00am

TOPIC: NATIONAL POLITICS

LENGTH: 35 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Hattiesburg, Mississippi City Councilwoman Deborah Delgado. They discussed the recent report of several states, including Mississippi, involved in court battles over racial gerrymandering claims. Delgado explained the US Supreme Court is hearing arguments in the case of Alexander v. South Carolina State Conference of the NAACP. She shared that the case involves a dispute over the congressional map that South Carolina's Republican-controlled legislature enacted after the 2020 census. Listeners called in to discuss their opinions on the topic.

TOPIC: LAW ENFORCEMENT

LENGTH: 30 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed attorney Brunetta Brandy. They discussed the legal issues surrounding the reports of the Baton Rouge Police Department being investigated by the FBI for assaulting detainees in an unmarked police warehouse. Brandy explained that three Baton Rouge Police officers have been arrested in connection with what the media called “Brave Cave Tactics”. Listeners called in to weigh their opinions on the topic.

TOPIC: MICHIGAN POLITICS

LENGTH: 40 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed consultant and former Michigan State Senator Virgil Smith, Jr. They discussed the recent chaotic and emotional board meeting at Michigan State University, calling for the resignation of Rema Vassar, chair of the MSU Board of Trustees. Mildred shared Smith led Detroiters to Lansing to show support for Vassar. Mildred also highlighted the call for Vassar’s resignation stemmed from a seven-page letter from Trustee Brianna Scott, accusing Vassar of bullying board members and violating codes of conduct and ethics. Smith shared that Vassar has called the allegations baseless and untruths and that she would not resign.

TOPIC: NATIONAL POLITICS

LENGTH: 30 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed former Detroit Police Chief James Craig. They discussed the recent rash of mass shootings around the country, specifically the recent report of a 40-year-old firearms instructor suspected of killing 18 people in Maine. Craig explained the suspected killer was recently found dead. He also highlighted that Congress should pass stricter laws for gun control. Mildred highlighted Craig recently announced he would be running for the Senate seat in Michigan being vacated by Sen. Debbie Stabenow.

TOPIC: ICON TRIBUTE

LENGTH: 40 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis dedicated the rest of the show to honoring the legacy of actor and model, Richard Roundtree. Mildred explained that Roundtree recently passed away at the age of 81. Mildred highlighted that he famously played the role of private detective John Shaft in the 1971 film “Shaft” and its four sequels. Listeners called in to pay their respects and share their opinions on the actor.

INSIDE DETROIT

November 5th, 2023

TIME: 8:00am – 11:00am

TOPIC: NATIONAL POLITICS

LENGTH: 60 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Rev. Dr. Wendell Anthony, President of the Detroit Chapter of the NAACP. They discussed the rash of antisemitism, islamophobia, and racism plaguing the country in the wake of the war between Israel and Hamas. Mildred highlighted Rev. Anthony recently spoke at the NAACP Freedom Fund Dinner in Illinois, where he charged the audience to get out and do more in the community. Anthony also gave a complete breakdown of how the way in Israel started. Mildred commended Anthony for the in-depth, yet comprehensible breakdown. Listeners called in to weigh their opinions on the topic.

TOPIC: NATIONAL NEWS

LENGTH: 45 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed attorney Johnny Hawkins. They discussed the legal issues surrounding the death of Dexter Wade, a man from Jackson, Mississippi who was ran over by an off-duty police officer in March. Mildred explained that Wade was then buried in an unmarked grave on a penal farm without his mother's knowledge. Hawkins shared the mother was not informed of his death until six months later, despite the coroner having identified Wade and his next of kin at the time of the autopsy. Listeners called in to weigh in on the topic.

TOPIC: DETROIT POLITICS

LENGTH: 45 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis held an open-line segment to discuss what Detroiters want to see in the next Mayor of the city. Several listeners called in to weigh in on the topic. One listener shared that the next mayor should have a strong financial background so they can balance the city's ledger.

INSIDE DETROIT

November 12th, 2023

TIME: 8:00am – 11:00am

TOPIC: LAW ENFORCEMENT

LENGTH: 60 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed attorney Todd Perkins of The Perkins Law Group. They discussed the legal issues surrounding the case of one of the Aurora, Illinois police officers recently acquitted of his charges in the killing of Elijah McClain. Perkins explained Nathan Woodyard was found not guilty of manslaughter and criminally negligent homicide in the 2019 death of McClain. Perkins also discussed the legal issues in the case of the 5 ex-Memphis police officers currently on trial for the death of Tyre Nichols. Mildred highlighted one of the officers pleaded guilty to federal charges, becoming the first to admit culpability in the fatal beating of Nichols. Listeners called in to weigh their opinions on the topic.

TOPIC: NATIONAL POLITICS

LENGTH: 60 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed activist, Robert Davis. They discussed his recent lawsuit against Michigan Secretary of State Jocelyn Benson to keep former President Donald Trump off the Michigan Ballot in 2024. Davis explained oral arguments began, as Michigan is one of several states claiming Trump should be left off the ballot because he violated Section 3 of the 14th Amendment of the Constitution for inciting the January 6th insurrection. Several listeners called in to give their opinions on the topic.

TOPIC: CURRENT EVENTS

LENGTH: 45 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis shared a report of Dameion Pickett, the black co-captain of the Harriott II Riverboat in Montgomery, Alabama was charged with third-degree assault at the viral riverfront brawl. Mildred explained the brawl began when white boaters refused to move their pontoon boat so the riverboat could dock. Mildred also highlighted the Mayor and Police Chief of Montgomery issued a statement reiterating that the city and police department did not file the charges against the co-captain and that the police investigation considers him to be a victim. Listeners called in to weigh in on the topic.

INSIDE DETROIT

November 19th, 2023

TIME: 8:00am – 11:00am

TOPIC: MICHIGAN POLITICS

LENGTH: 30 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Rhonda Powell, candidate for Michigan's 10th Congressional District. They discussed the launch of her 2nd campaign, challenging incumbent John James. Mildred explained Powell is a community advocate and non-profit leader who currently serves as the Statewide Operations Director for We The People MI. Powell explained We The People MI is an organization that works to build strong relationships between communities. Mildred commended Powell for her work in the community and wished her the best of luck on her campaign.

TOPIC: MICHIGAN POLITICSLENGTH: 30 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Dr. Rema Vassar, Michigan State University Board of Trustees Chair. They discussed the recent attempt of board members calling for her removal. Vassar explained Trustee Brianna Scott accused her of bullying other trustees in her role as chair and unilaterally tried to negotiate a settlement with a dean who was forced out in 2022. Vassar also shared that she has no intentions of resigning from her position. Several listeners called in with their support for Vassar.

TOPIC: COMMUNITY OUTREACHLENGTH: 30 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Burnetta Gibbs, Representative for Vascular Centers of America. They discussed the organization's sponsorship for the upcoming Sleeping Bags for the Homeless Radiothon. Gibbs shared it was an honor to partner with such a worthy cause. Mildred commended Gibbs for her support. They also discussed the various treatments Vascular Centers of America provides for their patients. Listeners called in for more information on the organization and how to donate to the Sleeping Bag Drive.

TOPIC: DETROIT POLITICSLENGTH: 60 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Mykia Aaron of Laborers' Local 1191. They discussed the recent report of the Detroit City Council considering the adoption of the Responsible Contracting Ordinance (RCO). Aaron explained the ordinance ensures that qualified contractors bid on local work. She also shared the ordinance protects taxpayers by setting minimum standards and awarding projects to the lowest bidder. Mildred highlighted the ordinance could better serve black-owned businesses in Detroit and keep them from being shut out of large projects. Listeners called in to weigh their opinions on the topic.

INSIDE DETROITNovember 26th, 2023*TIME: 8:00am – 11:00am*TOPIC: ICON TRIBUTE*LENGTH: 60 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Kim Trent, Deputy Director for Prosperity for the Michigan Department of Labor and Economic Opportunity. They discussed the legacy of former First Lady Rosalynn Carter. Carter passed away at the age of 96.

Mildred explained Rosalynn was married to Jimmy Carter, the 39th President of the United States. Trent shared Carter was an activist and writer who advocated for women's rights and mental health. Listeners called in with their remarks on the former First Lady.

TOPIC: MICHIGAN POLITICS

LENGTH: 45 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis shared a report of Democratic Candidate for Michigan Senate Seat, Hill Harper confirming he was offered $20 million if he dropped out of the Senate race and ran against Rep. Rashida Tlaib instead. She shared that Harper didn't intend for the private call to turn public, however, the American Israel Public Affairs Committee did make the offer. Listeners called in to weigh their opinions on the story.

TOPIC: NATIONAL POLITICS

LENGTH: 50 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis held an open-line segment for listeners to weigh in on the recent polls showing former President Donald Trump not only as the frontrunner for the Republican nomination, but also ahead of President Joe Biden. Several listeners called in to weigh their opinions on the topic. Some listeners expressed Trump shouldn't be allowed to run because of his role in the January 6th insurrection.

INSIDE DETROIT

December 3rd, 2023

TIME: 8:00am – 11:00am

TOPIC: COMMUNITY OUTREACH

LENGTH: 175 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis broadcasted live from McDonald's in the Eastern Market area of Detroit. She hosted her 9th Annual Sleeping Bag Drive for The Homeless Radiothon. The drive/radiothon was designed to raise money to purchase heavy-duty sleeping bags and other necessities for the homeless citizens of Detroit. Several guests not only called in to donate but showed up in person as well. Guests included Pastor Solomon Kinloch, Jr., Pastor of Triumph Church, Detroit Councilwomen Mary Waters and Angela Whitfield-Calloway, Wayne County Sheriff Raphael Washington, and other dignitaries across the city. This year's drive raised over $92,000 in monetary donations! Mildred commended everyone who donated and assured them that she would be giving out sleeping bags and other essential items to the city's most vulnerable on Martin Luther King Jr. Day.

INSIDE DETROIT

December 10th, 2023

TIME: 8:00am – 11:00am

TOPIC: NATIONAL POLITICS

LENGTH: 60 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis held an open-line segment to discuss two reports involving President Joe Biden. She first shared a report of Biden's comments at a fundraising event in Boston. Mildred explained at the event Biden shared that if Trump wasn't running for President, he wasn't sure if he'd be running. Mildred highlighted that that comment went viral in the media, potentially damaging what support the Democratic Party has in the upcoming Presidential election. Mildred also discussed the report of Muslims protesters in Detroit stating they would not be voting for Biden in the election due to his stance on the war in Israel. Several listeners called in to weigh their opinions on the topics.

TOPIC: DETROIT POLITICS

LENGTH: 50 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis shared a report of a former Detroit Medical Center employee's Birmingham, Michigan company getting a $6 Million media contract from the city. Mildred explained that the owner of the company formerly worked under now Mayor of Detroit Mike Duggan. She held an open-line segment for listeners to call in to discuss the topic. One listener shared that the city council should have never approved the contract, citing a possible conflict of interest.

TOPIC: ARTIST SPOTLIGHT

LENGTH: 40 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed singer, songwriter, and Detroit native, Jennifer Edison. They discussed her latest album, Evolution. Mildred shared that Edison comes from a singing family and is also the great-niece of Florence Ballard who sang with The Supremes. Edison also shared her latest single, Screen Time. She explained that the song was heavily inspired by Stevie Wonder. Listeners called in to share their opinions on the song and to commend Edison.

INSIDE DETROIT

December 17th, 2023

TIME: 8:00am – 11:00am

TOPIC: NATIONAL POLITICS

LENGTH: 60 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Rev. Dr. Wendell Anthony, President of the Detroit Chapter of the NAACP. They discussed the rash of antisemitism, islamophobia, and racism plaguing the country in the wake of the war between Israel and Hamas. Mildred highlighted Rev. Anthony recently spoke at the NAACP Freedom Fund Dinner in Illinois, where he charged the audience to get out and do more in the community. Anthony also gave a complete breakdown of how the war in Israel started. Mildred commended Anthony for the in-depth, yet comprehensible breakdown. Listeners called in to weigh their opinions on the topic.

TOPIC: CURRENT EVENTS

LENGTH: 60 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Robert Shumake, known also as Shaman Shu of Soul Tribes International Ministries. They discussed the recent report of the Detroit Police raiding his church. Shu explained he believed the city and police were targeting him because he offered mushrooms – which he called sacred plants – to his members.

TOPIC: NATIONAL NEWS

LENGTH: 45 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed attorney Johnny Hawkins. They discussed the legal issues surrounding the death of Dexter Wade, a man from Jackson, Mississippi who was ran over by an off-duty police officer in March. Mildred explained that Wade was then buried in an unmarked grave on a penal farm without his mother's knowledge. Hawkins shared the mother was not informed of his death until six months later, despite the coroner having identified Wade and his next of kin at the time of the autopsy. Listeners called in to weigh in on the topic.

INSIDE DETROIT

December 24th, 2023

TIME: 8:00am – 11:00am

TOPIC: NATIONAL NEWS

LENGTH: 35 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Chief Judge Bill McConico of the 36th District Court. They discussed the legal issues surrounding former President Donald Trump's efforts to disqualify U.S. District Judge Tanya Chutkan from presiding over his election conspiracy case. McConico explained Trump's lawyers filed a legal motion asking Chutkan to step aside from the case, arguing that her prior statements raised questions about her impartiality and would taint the proceedings. Listeners called in to share their opinions on the topic.

TOPIC: LOCAL BUSINESSESLENGTH: 30 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Aaron Sanders, owner of Heavenly Chicken and Waffles. They discussed the recent grand opening of “Whatcha Wanna Eat Food Hall” located in Detroit. Sanders explained Heavenly Chicken and Waffles is just one of many restaurants featured at the unique destination. He shared patrons can discover culinary delights, connect with fellow food lovers, and become part of a movement that values cultural preservation and community empowerment. Mildred commended Sanders on business’ success. Listeners called in for more information on the food hall.

TOPIC: LOCAL NEWSLENGTH: 35 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Paul Egan, Reporter and Lansing Bureau Chief for the Detroit Free Press. They discussed his recent Detroit Free Press article where he explained a Michigan corrections investigator was discovered to have been living double life as a prostitution ringleader. Egan explained the investigator was ousted by his wife who discovered the evidence while washing his clothes.

TOPIC: ICON TRIBUTELENGTH: 60 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis honored the legacy of Rev. Jesse L. Jackson and his contribution to the Civil Rights Movement. She interviewed Rev. Dr. Vernon L. Howard, Jr., President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference – Greater Kansas City Chapter, and Ken Coleman, 2-times Best Selling Author and Senior Reporter at Michigan Advance. They both shared how synonymous Jackson was to the Movement and commended him for his work. Mildred highlighted Jackson recently retired from being the head of his Rainbow/PUSH Coalition. Listeners called in to share their opinion on the legacy of Rev. Jesse Jackson.

INSIDE DETROITDecember 31st, 2023*TIME: 8:00am – 11:00am*TOPIC: FINANCE*LENGTH: 30 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Aaron Sanders, President and owner of Key Financial Solutions. They discussed that listeners need to know to get ready for the 2024 tax season. Sanders explained the government has announced new tax incentives for entrepreneurs and gig workers. Listeners called in for more information regarding the tax incentives

TOPIC: FITNESS

LENGTH: 45 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed educator and motivational speaker, Laura Rose. They discussed a new segment to the show titled 'Unpacking the FAT'. Mildred shared the segment is designed to help listeners shed pounds in a safe and nonjudgemental way. Rose shared that she lost 150 pounds without dieting. Rose also explained the way listeners should look at food, their body and weight loss. Several listeners called in to weigh their opinions on the topic.

TOPIC: LOCAL NEWS

LENGTH: 50 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviewed Michigan Congressman Johnathon Kinloch. They discussed the report of 20-30 pro-Palestinian protesters, seemingly barging their way into a private holiday party held by the 13th Congressional District. Kinloch explained the protesters were there to confront Rep. Shri Thanedar over his support of Israel. Kinloch also shared a Detroit activist was attacked during the protest and sent to the hospital. He also shared that no arrests have been made. Mildred highlighted the group was reportedly a part of the Palestinian Youth Movement and Party for Socialism and Liberation. Listeners called in to weigh their opinions on the topic.

TOPIC: LAW ENFORCEMENT

LENGTH: 45 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis shared a report of Detroit Police Chief James White's statements of him not agreeing with the Detroit Police Board of Commissioners. Mildred explained the board proposed a city ordinance that would require the release of police body cam footage to the public. She shared White did not agree, stating that some things cannot be disclosed. Listeners called in to weigh their opinions on the viral topic.