

BEASLEY MEDIA GROUP, LLC
ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT
FOR
STATION WDMK-HD2
2nd QUARTER, 2020
April 1st through June 30th

ISSUES OF CONCERN TO THE STATION WDMK-HD2
ADDRESSED IN RESPONSIVE PROGRAMMING IN THE
SECOND QUARTER, 2020

1. Finances
2. Community
3. Entertainment
4. Religion
5. Government
6. Health
7. Children
8. Civil Rights/Racism

PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAMS
WDMK-HD2 PROGRAM THAT
ADDRESS COMMUNITY ISSUES

Randi Myles (Weekdays: 10:00am – 3:00pm)

Locally-produced show that airs weekdays with individual segments focused on Metro Detroit issues such as law, finance, entertainment and community events.

Take Control Tuesdays (Tuesdays: 2:10pm – 3:00pm)

Take Control Tuesday is a weekly segment that discusses better decision making about our money. Mansa Musa from moneysmartlife.org keeps listeners on track with practical tips for everyday people.

Law and Reality (Tuesdays: 10:00am– 10:30am and Saturdays: 7:00am – 7:30am) Real legal matters discussed in roundtable form dealing with criminal, elder, divorce and estate law.

Inside Detroit (Saturdays: 5:00am – 6:00am)

Locally-produced Public Affairs Recap Show aired Saturday mornings focusing on Metro Detroit issues such as Detroit policies, homelessness, victories and defeats.

Second Quarter 2020

TOPIC: FINANCES

Law and Reality

April 4, 2020

Time: 7:00am-7:30am

Length: 30 minutes

Topic: COVID-19- Prioritization and preservation of cash during the pandemic.

Law and Reality

April 7, 2020

Time: 10:00am-10:30am

Length: 30 minutes

Topic: COVID-19, there will be solutions. What they are and when you'll use them are the big questions.

Take Control Tuesday

April 7, 2020

Time: 2:10pm-2:15pm

Length: 5 minutes

Randi Myles and Mansa Musa talk about what deferred mortgage payments or forbearance looks like and the pros and cons of a mortgage forbearance.

Law and Reality

April 11, 2020

Time: 7:00am-7:30am

Length: 30 minutes

Topic: COVID-19, there will be solutions. What they are and when you'll use them are the big questions. In this discussion, they debate if bankruptcy is an option during these times, as well as other options such as restructuring car payments or receiving a rent break.

Law and Reality

April 14, 2020

Time: 10:00am-10:30am

Length: 30 minutes

Topic: An introduction to what the "Law and Reality" does; covering a broad range of legal topics with practical solutions. They focus in on how businesses should approach this pandemic financially, and discuss the common issue of credit card debt.

Law and Reality

April 18, 2020

Time: 7:00am-7:30am

Length: 30 minutes

Topic: COVID-19, there will be solutions. What they are and when you'll use them are the big questions. It is explained how to properly prioritize your payments during these tough times, and how your budget management has changed so quickly.

Law and Reality

April 21, 2020

Time: 10:00am-10:30am

Length: 30 minutes

Topic: COVID-19- Prioritization and preservation of cash during the pandemic. It is explained how seniors are affected by the pandemic financially, and if hoarding cash is a good or bad idea during these times.

Take Control Tuesday

April 21, 2020

Time: 2:10pm-2:15pm

Length: 5 minutes

Topic: A review of all the resources we have developed to give you strategies that will help you through this global pandemic. They explain to listeners where they can reach all of their potential solutions to help get through the pandemic mentally and financially.

Law and Reality

April 25, 2020

Time: 7:00am-7:30am

Length: 30 minutes

Topic: An introduction to what the "Law and Reality" does; covering a broad range of legal topics with practical solutions.

Law and Reality

April 28, 2020

Time: 10:00am-10:30am

Length: 30 minutes

Topic: COVID-19, there will be solutions. What they are and when you'll use them are the big questions. The main topic discussed is how and why filing your taxes separately from your spouse is a good option.

Take Control Tuesday

April 28, 2020

Time: 2:10pm-2:15pm

Length: 5 minutes

Randi Myles and Mansa Musa begin a new series called the “COVID-19 Pandemic Financial Experience Scale,” with an overview of the series and strategies for each benchmark through May. They go through all three benchmarks and what each benchmark means to a person’s financial situation.

Law and Reality

May 2, 2020

Time: 7:00am-7:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The discussion stayed centered around a survival plan during the Coronavirus Pandemic. It was discussed why people need to apply for unemployment and why they shouldn’t lie when doing so. They also explained how to prioritize their limited resources, including credit cards.

Law and Reality

May 5, 2020

Time: 10:00am-10:30am

Length: 30-minutes

The show gave tips on how to balance your current financial situation during the pandemic. That includes figuring out what needs to be taken care of right now, and also how important it is to maintain a good credit score during these times.

Take Control Tuesday

May 5, 2020

Time: 2:10pm-2:15pm

Length: 5 minutes

Randi Myles spoke with Mansa Musa, who explained another level of “COVID-19 Pandemic Financial Experience Scale,” which is the surviving mode. He explained that this mode is when “this crisis caught you unprepared and you have limited resources and a fragile safety net.” He compared this to not seeing the light at the end of the tunnel, but explained that if people activate the power of God in their financial life, they could get through.

Randi Myles Show

May 6, 2020

Time: 1:10pm-1:15pm

Length: 5 minutes

Randi Myles has a conversation with Steve Gray, who is the Director of the Unemployment Insurance Agency in Michigan. They discuss the process of how to file for unemployment, and what the situation is like for that process during the pandemic.

Inside Detroit

May 9, 2020

Time: 5:15am-5:30am

Length: 15 minutes

Mildred interviewed Mr. Steve Gray, who is a professor and attorney with 30 years of experience in unemployment insurance and administrative law. He serves as Director of the Michigan Unemployment Insurance Agency. They discussed the status of unemployment checks for people in Michigan. Have the wrinkles been removed from the process? He explains how to apply for unemployment and the eligibility. Furthermore, the conversation moves to the fact that $2.1 billion has been spent on unemployment. He also broke down their approach on how they are getting everyone's checks out. He explains that they are looking at the older cases first and focusing on the common questions that are being asked.

Law and Reality

May 9, 2020

Time: 7:00am-7:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The show offered different tips of how people should prioritize their spending during these tough times. They offered different tips on what those priorities should be and how to preserve the cash people have.

Law and Reality

May 12, 2020

Time: 10:00am-10:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The show gave options on how to handle foreclosure in different situations, and what the correct way is to handle your mortgages during the pandemic.

Take Control Tuesday

May 12, 2020

Time: 2:10pm-2:15pm

Length: 5 minutes

Randi Myles spoke with Mansa Musa, who explained another level of “COVID-19 Pandemic Financial Experience Scale,” which is the treading mode. This mode is when you can “maintain the status quo for a while getting through this pandemic.” He spoke about how people can find a way to keep their head above water while preparing for a long, slow recovery.

Law and Reality

May 16, 2020

Time: 7:00am-7:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The show offered more tips on how to handle your financial situation during the pandemic. Those tips included the possibility of restructuring payments when available and only paying what you need to. They also urged people to search for pay breaks at all times.

Law and Reality

May 19, 2020

Time: 10:00am-10:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The show spoke on the situation of an elderly parent or grandparent being in a nursing home. They discussed the best way to handle this situation financially, and also how to handle that parent’s finances and home.

Take Control Tuesday

May 19, 2020

Time: 2:10pm-2:15pm

Length: 5 minutes

Randi Myles spoke with Mansa Musa, who explained another level of “COVID-19 Pandemic Financial Experience Scale,” which is the thriving mode. This mode is where you should decide “what you can do if you are flourishing or prospering through this crisis?” He urges people who are thriving during these times to think about what that money can truly do for them.

Law and Reality

May 23, 2020

Time: 7:00am-7:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The show touched on all different issues that could arise during the pandemic, while trying to offer up solutions for those that are dealing with harder times financially.

Law and Reality

May 26, 2020

Time: 10:00am-10:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The show spoke on how to prioritize what assets you should be using during these tough times. They discussed why it is not a good idea to be using your retirement plan, despite the financial hardships you may be dealing with.

Law and Reality

May 30, 2020

Time: 7:00am-7:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The show focused on the fact that we could quite possibly be nearing the end of the pandemic. They explained what that means for people financially, and gave tips of how to get back on track once things go back to “normal.”

Law and Reality

June 2, 2020

Time: 10:00am-10:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The show goes over how to figure out where your “waste money” is, and once you do, how to prevent that and stabilize it. They also go over different options to filing taxes that could help people during the pandemic.

Law and Reality

June 6, 2020

Time: 7:00am-7:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The show explains the best way to decide which specific parts of a person’s debt that should be taken care of now and which can be put on hold. They explain that there is no one generic answer and that everyone needs to have their own crisis plan.

Law and Reality

June 9, 2020

Time: 10:00am-10:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The show discusses the best way to eliminate debt, which includes fighting foreclosure. They also go on to explain how a foreclosure situation could benefit a person in the long run.

Take Control Tuesday

June 9, 2020

Time: 2:10pm-2:15pm

Length: 5 minutes

Randi Myles and Mansa Musa go over the fact that the mortgage forbearance is ending on June 30th. They discuss what that means for people and how some could find a way to extend it.

Law and Reality

June 13, 2020

Time: 7:00am-7:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The show goes over how people can manipulate certain payments and bills that could work the situation in their favor. This includes talking with companies that is owed money and trying to get a break for now, an extension on a deadline, or working out a better payment plan.

Law and Reality

June 16, 2020

Time: 10:00am-10:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The show goes over what they believe is the fastest way to wipe away a debt, giving examples for both single people and married couples on how to do this.

Take Control Tuesday

June 16, 2020

Time: 2:10pm-2:15pm

Length: 5 minutes

Randi Myles and Mansa Musa discuss how people can properly build and maintain their home equity, getting them ready to own their own homes. They also go over what they should consider if they are looking to refinance.

Law and Reality

June 20, 2020

Time: 7:00am-7:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The show focuses in on how businesses are being affected from a financial standpoint during this pandemic. They go over how to properly handle these financial issues from both an employee and employer point of view.

Law and Reality

June 23, 2020

Time: 10:00am-10:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The show analyzes specific people's current financial situations, going over how to solve each issue. All of these issues are common within the community during this pandemic, as they aim to give a wider group of people more solutions.

Law and Reality

June 27, 2020

Time: 7:00am-7:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The show brings up how hard it could be hearing a bunch of different financial advice from the media, programs, companies, and family. They go over the best way to decipher all of the advice that is out there and deciding which one will work best for a person's situation.

Law and Reality

June 30, 2020

Time: 10:00am-10:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The show gives their best advice on how to ride out what they call a "bad rollercoaster" of a pandemic. They go over prioritizing bills and finances to survive to the end of these times, and how to avoid digging too deep of hole.

Take Control Tuesday

June 30, 2020

Time: 2:10pm-2:15pm

Length: 5 minutes

Mansa Musa teaches Randi Myles and all the listeners what exactly a CLUE Report is, which is like a credit report. He goes over how important this is for people to keep a close eye on.

TOPIC: COMMUNITY

Inside Detroit

April 4, 2020

Time: 5:00am – 6:00am

Length: 60 minutes

National Faith Homebuyers chief executive officer discussed an upcoming seminar to help families own a home. Since looking for a new home can be intimidating, this seminar helps by offering workshops and classes to help people get a chance to experience the “American Dream.” The event is at Triumph Church and is intended to help all first-time home buyers. You are known as a first-time buyer if you have not owned a home in the last three years.

Inside Detroit

April 11, 2020

Time: 5:00am-6:00am

Length: 60 minutes

Dr. Tellis Chapman, Pastor of Galilee Baptist Church shares thoughts on how we can pick up and carry on after the global pandemic. Dr. Iris Taylor, President of DPSCD Board of Education walks us through what the school system will do to insure Detroit student’s education will not be hampered during and after the pandemic. David Akins from Akins Funeral Home discussed the role “last responders” are playing during the COVID-19 Pandemic. What does the Stimulus Relief Package mean to you?

Inside Detroit

April 18, 2020

Time: 5:00am-6:00am

Length: 60 minutes

Mildred played a video of an interview conducted by Dr. James Hildreth of Meharry Medical College in Nashville, Tennessee, who is an investigative reporter specializing in poverty, economic justice, and the intersection between beats. He gives, in detail, the origin of the Coronavirus, the symptoms, and the updates of how to protect the world from it. Mildred also interviewed Nicole Small, who is the charter commissary of Detroit. They discussed the question of why Detroiters are still without promised water. She also welcomed on Ellis Liddell, the president of ELE Wealth Management. They discussed stimulus packages and how they are being distributed, while also urging people to apply for unemployment. Mildred then interviewed Senator Gary Peters, who requested the CDC to make COVID-19 testing data public to ensure an effective response to the pandemic. The Senator also asked the CDC for comprehensive demographic data about testing results, health care access and more amid ongoing limited access to tests.

Inside Detroit

April 25 2020

Time: 5:00am-6:00am

Length: 60 minutes

Mildred interviewed Wayne County Sheriff Benny Napoleon. They discuss his personal story of his 9 relatives that tested positive for COVID-19. Mildred interviewed NAACP President Rev. Wendell Anthony. He calls on the governor to delay reopening the state. Anthony says blacks will die in volumes. In this interview he talks about how we the African American community need to learn and grow from this pandemic because this virus is attacking the African American Community. Mildred also had a chat with Dr. Joneigh Khaldun, who is the state's medical chief executive. They chat about the symptoms of COVID-19 verses and how you might know if you're immune.

Inside Detroit

May 2, 2020

Time: 5:45am-6:00am

Length: 15 minutes

Mildred interviews Attorney and the Owner of Ignition Media and Central Kitchen + Bar Dennis Archer Jr. They discuss re-opening small businesses in Detroit post-COVID-19. He gives the listeners advice about the mindset they should have during this pandemic. In addition to, he gives advice for small businesses in Detroit during this pandemic and tactics to keep their businesses running. At the end of the interview he stresses everyone should stay home and stay safe. Also Judge Mathis joins the call to let us know about free testing and Wal-Mart gift cards that he is giving away.

Inside Detroit

May 9, 2020

Time: 5:30am-6:00am

Length: 30 minutes

Mildred opened the phones for an open discussion with the listeners about the Coronavirus and any other issues surrounding the pandemic that they had to talk about. The listeners called in and discussed COVID -19, Governor Whitmer, how to improve Detroit's COVID-19 case numbers, what is expected from Detroit after the pandemic, and just how serious the virus is.

Randi Myles Show

May 22, 2020

Time: 1 minute each hour from 10am-3pm                      Length: 5 minutes

Randi Myles welcomed on different leaders in the community for the DTE Day of Caring, offering help during these difficult days of COVID-19. Her conversations included in depth interviews with Wayne County Treasurer Eric Sabree, Dr. Wendell Anthony of Fellowship Chapel, and Rev. Solomon Kinloch Jr. of Triumph Church.

Take Control Tuesday

May 26, 2020

Time: 2:10pm-2:15pm    Length: 5 minutes

Randi Myles spoke with Mansa Musa, who wanted to remind everyone that the COVID-19 Pandemic is not over. He offered a reminder that we must continue to be vigilant in our efforts even though things are starting to open back up in our state. He went on to hope that people would not rush this return, continue to stay safe, and follow health guidelines when in public.

Inside Detroit

May 30, 2020

Time: 5:00am-5:20am    Length: 20 minutes

Mildred interviewed Mark Jones, who is the Community Outreach Manager at DTE Energy. They discussed the company's initiatives for before and after COVID-19. He discussed that they have plans for DTE users who are struggling to pay their DTE bill due to the COVID-19 Pandemic. In addition, he goes over how DTE is helping small businesses and faith leaders.

Inside Detroit

May 30, 2020

Time: 5:35am-5:45am    Length: 10 Minutes

Mildred interviewed Ashley Johnson, who works with the Detroit Regional Chamber and Detroit Promise. Johnson went over the scholarships that they have available for seniors in Detroit. She answered questions about eligibility for the scholarships, and the different pathways that students could take with their education.

Inside Detroit*June 6, 2020*Time: 5:45am-6:00am*Length: 15 Minutes

Mildred interviewed M.L. Elrick and Tresa Baldas, both of whom are reporters for the Detroit Free Press. They discussed how and why Kwame Kilpatrick was denied early release from federal prison.

Topic: ENTERTAINMENT*Randi Myles Show*April 8, 2020*Time: 1:45pm-1:55pm*Length: 10 minutes

Raven Goodwin is a singer/actress who was chosen to play the role of Denise Clark in the Lifetime movie, "The Clark Sister's: The First Ladies of Gospel." We talked about how she prepared for the role, and what she expected to portray about the Clark Sister who seemingly disappeared from the popular gospel "girl group." Raven talked about how inspiring it was to be able to play this role to honor Denise. She even talked about how she was able to speak to Denise Clark's son, Geno, to get more insight on how to really portray her in the movie.

Randi Myles Show*April 17, 2020*Time: 1:10pm-1:20pm*Length: 10 minutes

Detroit's own Kierra Sheard talks about her new project, 5-years in the making "Kierra," where she plays the role of her mother Karen Clark Sheard in the record-breaking Lifetime Biopic "The Clark Sisters: The First Ladies of Gospel." She explains what it meant to her to play her mom, and how it was a challenge due to her being more like her father. She also discusses the release of her new album, which she worked with her brother to put together.

Inside Detroit*May 23, 2020*Time: 5:05am-5:15am*Length: 10 minutes

Mildred interviewed Gospel singers Lisa and Juan Winans. They discussed blasting the charts with their new song "It Belongs to me." In addition, they talked of how their song came about and what inspired them to do music. Moreover, they discuss how the background of their careers and what they're looking forward to in the future.

Inside Detroit

May 23, 2020

Time: 5:20am-5:30am

Length: 10 minutes

Mildred interviewed Norman Thrasher, who is a singer that has been inducted in to the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame. They honor the death of his great friend, Little Richard. They also discussed many stories of Little Richard and how he has played a role in today's music. In addition, they also go over his struggle in the music industry.

TOPIC: Religion

Randi Myles Show

April 10, 2020

Time: 1:10pm-1:20pm

Length: 10 minutes

Artist and Praise and Worship Leader, Myron Butler talks about worship in the time of COVID-19. He urges people to try and find the positives during these tough times, including getting time to settle, be creative, and to think outside the box. Butler also discusses his new song "Oh It Is Jesus," which is a tribute to Andre Crouch and will be released this summer.

TOPIC: GOVERNMENT

Inside Detroit

May 2, 2020

Times: 5:00am-5:30am

Length: 30 minutes

Mildred talked with Johnathan Kinloch. He is the 13th Congressional Chairman Democrat. He calls out Democrat Tanya Whitsett for aligning herself with President Donald Trump. He discusses being elected in the Democratic Party and his duties as a democrat. He believes that the Whitsett going against the Governor is not a political move you should do. Moreover, he does not think she is doing her job, but instead dividing the community. He states that "Karen Whitsett does not represent Michigan" In the second part of the interview they discuss people supporting Michigan Rep Karen Whitsett's tactics and claim that she should be removed from office.

Inside Detroit

May 2, 2020

Time: 8:30am-9:45am

Length: 15 minutes

Mildred interviewed Kenneth Kelly, Chairman/ CEO of First Independence Bank, The respected leader in the banking community is currently serving as chairman of the National Bankers Association. They discuss how the U.S. Senate has passed a $484 billion relief package targeted at reviving the depleted loan program for distressed businesses. This comes two weeks after Treasury Secretary Steven Mnuchin first asked Congress for an expedited infusion of $250 billion to help the newly created loan program for distressed small businesses known as the Paycheck Protection. They also talk about what this loan program entails and the how accessible it is.

Inside Detroit

May 30, 2020

Time: 5:20am-5:35am

Length: 15 minutes

Mildred interviewed Heaster Wheeler, who is a Deputy at the Secretary of State. They discussed a new way of voting in Michigan and what the process is. They also chatted about mailing in ballots this year. Wheeler discuss that they will email the ballot and all citizens will have the choice to mail them in. In addition, they discussed hope that this will be a way for voting to increase.

TOPIC: HEALTH

Take Control Tuesday

April 14, 2020

Time: 2:10pm-2:15pm

Length: 5 minutes

Randi Myles and Mansa Musa discuss how to maintain mental resilience during and after COVID-19. They discuss the six things you should do during this pandemic, which includes planning your comeback, creating short-term goals, believing in yourself, helping others, and maximizing your self-care.

TOPIC: CHILDREN*Randi Myles Show*May 4, 2020*Time: 1:15pm-1:20pm*Length: 5 minutes

National Foster Care Month: Randi had a conversation with Starr Allen Pettway from Bethany Christian Services about the need for foster parents during this time, especially in Wayne County. Pettway explained that there is an increase in children, which is making the need even more prominent. She also talked about the importance of reporting abuse.

Inside Detroit*May 9, 2020*Time: 5:05am-5:15am*Length: 10 minutes

Mildred interviewed the Regional Director Bethany Christian Services, Star Pettway. They discussed how May 5th is the National Foster Care Month and how COVID-19 impacts the Foster Care System. Pettway explains to the audience that due to the Coronavirus pandemic, foster kids are unable to see their family. She also discussed how people that certain people's adoption process are currently on hold. Furthermore, she goes into how foster parents are being trained through Zoom. She ends the interview by explaining what is needed to be a foster parent, and how kids that are fostered are in the system for 4-6 months so that the parents can get themselves ready for placement.

TOPIC: CIVIL RIGHTS/RACISM*Inside Detroit*May 16, 2020*Time: 5:00am-5:45am*Length: 45 minutes

Mildred interviewed Attorney Sean Perkins, who is an Attorney of Criminal Law, Civil Law, Traffic, and Bankruptcy. She also welcomed retired Detroit Police Officer John Bennett to the show. They discussed their perspective on the murder of unarmed jogger Ahmaud Arbery in Georgia. A sheriff deputy and his son are responsible and no one has been arrested. They believe that this was a modern day lynching. Perkins and Bennet gave their opinions on the government's actions on this situation. Moreover, they analyze the case and how they think it will play out.

Inside Detroit*May 16, 2020*Time: 5:45am-6:00am*Length: 15 minutes

Mildred interviewed Pastor Marvin Winans, who is a pastor and gospel singer. They discussed his experience with the Coronavirus and where we as a country go from here. In addition to, he talks about his symptoms, his struggle, and the fear of him getting the virus again. Furthermore, they ended the interview with his concerns that people will get comfortable with life and how they are living during the pandemic.

Inside Detroit*May 23, 2020*Time: 5:35am-5:50am*Length: 15 minutes

Mildred interviewed Chanelle Helm of Louisville, Kentucky. She is a part of the Black Lives Matter movement. They discussed the new Spectrum news story about Helm delivering groceries to the poor. They also analyzed the case of Breonna Taylor, who was a frontline worker that was shot during a police raid. It was reported that they were looking for her boyfriend, but they instead shot her. They looked deeply into the case and then moved on the Louisville police's recent case, which is similar to Breonna Taylor's case. They ended the interview by posing one question: what is the next step for Chanelle to get justice for Breonna?

Inside Detroit*May 30, 2020*Time: 5:45am-6:00am*Length: 15 minutes

Mildred paid tribute to Malcolm X by playing audio clips of old interviews with him, along with music to honor the former minister.

Inside Detroit*June 6, 2020*Time: 5:00am-5:45am*Length: 45 Minutes

Mildred did a piece on the outcome of the George Floyd murder and the protesting going on around the United States. Included in this piece is audio from the live footage of the protesting in several states. She went on to open the phones for the listeners to give their comments and opinions on the current racial injustice in the world.

Inside Detroit

June 13, 2020

Time: 5:00am-5:10am

Length: 10 Minutes

Mildred interviewed Pastor O.C. Tabb, who is a pastor and gospel singer. They discussed our current role with the protesting of the racial injustice that is happening in the city, and what the correct way of handling it is. In addition, he discussed how it is being a black man in America during these tough times.

Inside Detroit

June 13, 2020

Time: 5:10am-5:25am

Length: 15 Minutes

Mildred interviewed Emanuel Cleaver, who was a congressional aide in Washington DC. They discussed his take on being a black young man in America. Also, they discussed that they are excited about how everyone is coming together to fight for the injustices. Furthermore, he states that we need to fix the gaps in our justice system while explaining that racism is still relevant and that black people need their voices to be heard.

Inside Detroit

June 13, 2020

Time: 5:25am-5:45am

Length: 20 Minutes

Mildred interviewed Larry Watson, who is an educator, singer, songwriter, and activist. As of January 2016, Watson serves as Professor of Ensemble at Berkley College of Music. He is also the owner/operator of Save Ourselves Productions, as well as a consultant for community development agencies, corporations, civic organizations, universities, and college organizations. Moreover, Professor Waston was the Lead singer in the 2000 grand opening of the Landmark Center, Art Edible fundraiser, Scullers Jazz Night Club, Medal of Honor at the Harvard School of Law, and the Boston chapter of the NAACP. They discussed how he feels broken and isolated being a black man in America. He believes that the community is still looked at as slaves. Furthermore, they went on to discuss that people think black is not needed and ended the interview with how African American is very much needed in our society.

Inside Detroit

June 13, 2020

Time: 5:45am-6:00 am

Length: 15 Minutes

Mildred interviewed Darrell Siggers and Valerie Newman, who are the heads of the Wayne County Prosecutors' Conviction & Integrity Unit. They discussed how Siggers spent over 34 years of his life in prison for a crime he did not commit. They also discussed the condition of the prison and how black men are tried in this system. Siggers told his story of how he was wrongly executed. In addition, he discussed how he has turned his life around since then.

Inside Detroit

June 20, 2020

Time: 5:00am-5:45am

Length: 45 Minutes

Mildred interviewed Kym Worthy who is the current prosecutor of Wayne County, Michigan. She is the first African-American woman to serve as a county prosecutor in Michigan. She became internationally recognized for prosecuting then Detroit Mayor Kwame Kilpatrick at the beginning of March 2008. They discussed how to determine the charges of the defendant in such a case. In addition, they discussed the case of Malice Green, who died at the hands of Detroit police in the 1980s. They ended the interview by discussing the fact that more than 11,000 rape kits tested since 2018.

Inside Detroit

June 20, 2020

Time: 5:45am-6:00am

Length: 15 Minutes

Mildred interviewed Dr. Jeffery Robinson, who is the principal at Malcolm X/ Paul Robinson academy. They discussed the Michigan civil rights commission, as well as the Tulsa Oklahoma Riots. They also went on to talk about Donald Trump and the actions he is taking regarding protesters. During the segment, Mildred welcomed callers to call in and share their opinions on all of the topics.

Solutions Not Slogans

June 25, 2020

Online Video

Length: 60 Minutes

Randi Myles of the Detroit Praise Network teams with Mason and Angie Starr of KISS FM and Gello of 105.1 The BOUNCE to host a 60-minute Zoom call with officers and community leaders in Detroit to discuss the recent racial injustices involving police officers. The on-air hosts played back listeners' calls with questions and suggestions on how to solve these issues, and allowed the community leaders to give their takes on how things can improve. The video of this Zoom call was posted to all stations' websites for listeners to view.

Inside Detroit

June 27, 2020

Time: 5:00am-5:30am

Length: 30 Minutes

Mildred opened up the phone lines to discuss the unwarranted assault on the character of Wayne County Prosecutor Kym Worthy, as well as the ad campaign that included false statements. Listeners called in to voice their displeasure with this situation and how Worthy can move on from this attack.

Inside Detroit

June 27, 2020

Time: 5:30am-5:45am

Length: 15 Minutes

Mildred interviewed Richard Rose, who is the president of the Atlanta NAACP. They discussed the killing of Rayshard Brooks. He stated that he believes that this was an unnecessary death. He also said that the mayor of Atlanta needs to restructure Atlanta's system. Rose finished the interview by explaining what's next for the African American Community.

Inside Detroit

June 27, 2020

Time: 5:45am-6:00am

Length: 15 Minutes

Mildred interviewed Attorney Todd Perkins, and they talked about how he has created a law firm in the heart of downtown Detroit. He specializes in Criminal Law / Civil Law, Entertainment Law, Municipal Law, Divorce and Probate. They analyzed the death of Rayshard Brooks and discussed how they believe the officers should be charged.

WDMK-HD2 PSA Activity

Each of these PSA's aired April 01, 2020 – June 30, 2020 between the hours of 12am - 12 midnight.

Beasley/We're in this Together:	840
Beasley/Community of Caring:	140
Beasley/SBA Webinar:	16
Beasley/Operation Gift Cards:	371
Gleaners:	34
MAB:	168
Salvation Army:	35
Ad Council...
Alone Together/Contact:	29
Alone Together/Hello:	28
Alone Together/Stay Home:	28
Alone Together/Six Feet:	22
Alone Together/Stay Home:	22
Alone Together/Symptoms:	21
TOTAL	1,754