Brannon played several audio clips to show why they are concerned about what she teaches and who she endorses.

CROSSTALK

M-F 2:00PM, REPEAT 8:00PM Paul Washer began as a missionary to Peru, is a former Southern Baptist Youth Pastor from Alabama, and has spoken at many youth conferences, and he discussed a clear presentation of the true Gospel. So many have gotten away from the simplicity of the true Gospel and replaced it with programs and other activities, and the result is that we have many false professions and false Christians in our churches. This is a repeat of the VCY Rally of February 9, 2008. It has been repeated multiple times on Crosstalk.

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

1/20/2015 55 MIN Brannon Howse

M-F 1:00PM Brannon discussed the topic, "Liberals By Another Name." He talked about how Evangelicals and pro-life Protestants feel they need to be working with the Catholic Pope to help fight the social battle issues. They believe the Gospel needs to be used to reclaim the culture. They feel the need to tie the Gospel to Christian activism and social justice. They believe they need to be culturally savvy and be culturally relative. These are people like Tim Keller, Rick Warren, John Piper, and many others who believe the church is for unbelievers, not believers. Whether the culture changes is not our main issue, but giving the Gospel out to a lost and dying world and allowing the Holy Spirit do the rest. As lives are changed by salvation and Christian growth, hopefully they can impact the culture. It is not however, about building a Kingdom here on Earth. Christ will return and build His own Kingdom Himself, but it will not be built by us.

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND MINUTE

1/21/2015 1 MIN Brannon Howse

M-F 2:45PM, REPEAT 8:45PM Brannon continued his discussion of the Liberalism in the form of Social Justice that has crept into Evangelicalism. Men such as Tim Keller, one of the main leaders in this movement, is a proponent of this Social Justice. He quotes from a message by Jonathan Edwards that he preached on January, 1532 entitled, "Christian Charity." However, Jonathan Edwards believed in Post Millennialism in his Eschatology, and a form of Replacement Theology that teaches that the New Testament Church has replaced Israel, and all of the Old Testament promises made to Israel are now for the New Testament Church. His Eschatology drove his theology and Ecclesiology.

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

1/22/2015 55 MIN Brannon Howse

M-F 1:00PM Brannon continued his discussion of how Liberalism has crept into Evangelicalism in the form of Social Justice, redistributing the wealth, and bringing in the Kingdom of God. He played several audio clips of proponents of this such as Steve Childers, Tim Keller, Rick Warren, and many others. They teach that we need to be making the invisible Kingdom visible by relieving the poor and doing away with poverty.

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

1/28/2015 55 MIN Brannon Howse and Mike Gendron

M-F 1:00PM Discussed the hypocrisy of some evangelical leaders who are calling for increased participation by Roman Catholics in pro-life activities, including a greater use of rosaries, when the rosary represents much of what makes Roman Catholicism incompatible with Protestant Christianity. It consists predominately of prayers to Mary, which is an evidence of worship, which is a synonym for "veneration", the word Catholics claim is less that true worship; and it is a work that is claimed to reduce time in purgatory for the user or someone else the user designates--even an unborn child, which is based on the belief that Christ's sacrifice on the cross does not cover all sins, but some must be atoned for by people through works, penance, the rosary, or time spent in "purgatory", which essentially is a temporary experience of hell.

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

1/28/2015 55 MIN Brannon Howse and Jimmy DeYoung

-These people, attempting to build God's kingdom here on earth by changing the culture and uniting with the ecumenical movement, are actually working to build the kingdom of the Antichrist.

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

2/2/2015 55 MIN Brannon Howse

M-F 1:00PM Brannon talked about the danger of mainline socialism being repackaged and promoted by many of the Evangelical leadership such as Rick Warren, John Piper, Tim Keller, and others. This is nothing more than old Modernism and Liberalism of the 1920's-1940's.

The topic is "What Happens After Life?" Rhode helps answer this question. Immediately after death believers go to heaven to be with the Lord. Unbelievers, however, go to confinement. This confinement is not purgatory. Purgatory is not a biblical concept. Rhodes says that there's scriptural evidence for babies going to heaven when they die.

REVEALING THE TRUTH ABOUT ISLAM

1/1/2015 25 MIN Usama Dakdok

M-F 12:30PM

Usama continued his study of the "Misconceptions Of The Book Of Joshua." Today he talked about skeptics and Muslims questioning the name of Caleb's father. There appears to be three names given for him in three different passages. In Joshua 15:1 the lot of the Tribe of Judah is described. In Joshua 19:1 that doesn't seem to be the land that they actually populated. However, the children of Judah had two pieces of land. One was on the East side of the Jordan River and the other was on the West side of the Jordan River. The two passages in Joshua describe the two partials of land that the Tribe of Judah inherited and inhabited. There was also a question as to the location of Jerusalem. Two passages seem to have Jerusalem in Judah in one passage and in Benjamin in the other. But the city lies between the two tribes and is shared by both. There was also a question about the boundaries of Dan, but the Tribe of Dan came to Joshua, saying their land was too small. Joshua gave them some of the Tribe of Judah's land.

M-F 12:30PM

Usama continued his new study of "Misconceptions Of The Book Of Judges." Today he talked about how God allowed some of the people whom He left among the Israelites to be used to discipline the Israelites when they disobeyed. The Israelites looked up to Gideon so much as their leader who delivered them from the Midianites that they wanted him to rule over them and his son and his grandson. He also began to discuss the story of Samson and the skeptics' attacks of this narrative in Judges. They question whether he could come up with 300 foxes to set fire to the field. They forget that Samson was no ordinary man. It would not have been impossible for him to do so.

Usama concluded his study of the "Misconceptions In The Book Of Judges." He talked about how critics and Muslims try to attack the narrative about Samson and the many details. He also discussed the skeptics' attacks of the battle the other tribes had with the Tribe of Benjamin for their allowing the homosexuals to go unpunished with the death and dismemberment of the man's concubine and that whole sordid story. Critics want to attack the numbers in this narrative of Benjamin fighting with all of the other tribes.

M-F 12:30PM

Usama began a new study of "Misconceptions In The Book Of Ruth." Today he talked about skeptics and Muslims challenge the authenticity and historicity of the Book of Ruth. If not for the Book of Ruth, there would be no King David. Elimelech and Naomi, along with their two sons Mahlon and Chilion, went down into Moab because there was a famine in the land. There Elimelech died. Naomi's two sons married Moabite wives, but both sons also died. Naomi decided to go back to Israel, but she tried to convince her daughters-in-law to go back to their people, but Ruth insisted on going with Naomi into Israel. When Ruth gets to Israel, she begins to glean in the field of Boaz. Eventually she and Boaz marry and have a son named Obed who was the father of Jesse who was the father of King David. Ruth became the great grandmother of King David. Skeptics and Muslims question the generations that are given in Ruth, but comparing them to those given in Ezra shows that they are indeed accurate.

In chapter two skeptics question God's judgment upon the house of Eli, because of the sins of the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas. In chapter six when the Israelites were defeated by the Philistines and captured the Ark of God, skeptics question the judgments God brought upon the Philistines because of the Ark of God.

Today he talked about the question skeptics and Muslims have where the Bible says earlier that the Israelites had subdued the Philistines so that they did not come again into the land. But in I Samuel 7 the Bible has the account of the Israelites with Saul and Jonathan doing battle with the Philistines or the Palestinians. In I Samuel 25:1 the Bible says Samuel died. He died as the Judge/Prophet/Priest, not the king. He never was the king of Israel.

M-F 12:30PM Usama continued his new study of "Misconceptions In The Book Of I Samuel." Today Usama talked about questions skeptics and Muslims have about the names of the sons of Samuel. In I Samuel chapter 8 the people of Israel came to Samuel and asked him to make them a king like all of the other nations. In chapter 9 Samuel was told by God that He would send to him a man who would deliver the people from the Philistines. Skeptics claim that it was God who named a king over the people, not the people themselves.

Today he talked about how a name of a Judge is mentioned in I Samuel that is not in the Book of Judges, but the name refers to Samson. Skeptics and Muslims also question the name of the High Priest in chapter 21:1, but the High Priest is obviously Ahimelech.

REVEALING THE TRUTH ABOUT ISLAM

1/15/2015 25 MIN Usama Dakdok

M-F 12:30PM Usama continued his study of the "Misconceptions Of The Book Of I Samuel." Today he talked about chapter 16 where verse 21 says that David was Saul's armor-bearer, but then it also says that David still tended to the sheep for his father Jesse. Skeptics and Muslims say there is no way David could have done both, but he did do both for a short period of time. David eventually did become Saul's armor-bearer full time, and he no longer tended sheep for his father. There is also a question as to why Saul did not know who David was when he killed Saul, when David had served Saul before. David's appearance may have changed, Saul may have been looking at David from afar, or Saul may have been playing down David's accomplishment here in killing Goliath. In chapter 17:50-51, skeptics question the narrative here comparing a passage in II Samuel 21:19 that says that another person killed Goliath, but II Samuel 21:19 is talking about the brother of Goliath being killed by Elhanan, not Goliath.

They also question why Goliath's sword was in the Temple in Jerusalem in II Samuel 5:6-9, when David kept the head. David kept the giant's head as a trophy of his great victory, however the sword was kept in the Temple. Skeptics also question how God could allow an evil spirit to come upon Saul in I Samuel 18:10. Uzzah tried to steady the Ark, and God struck him dead. David was very displeased with what went wrong. The Ark stayed in the house of Obed-Edom for three months. No one was to touch the Ark as Uzzah did. The children of Israel had to learn a hard lesson about this. They are a non-partisan organization working to identify, expose, and work with Congress and state legislatures to prevent the continued expansion of government, and he warned of a trans-Pacific partnership seeming to be on a fast track in the Congress. The U.S. is in the process of passing a trade treaty with several countries in the Pacific such as Malaysia, Vietnam, South Korea, Australia, Brunei, Canada, Chile, Japan, Mexico, New Zealand, Peru, and Singapore. Malaysia, Brunei, and Vietnam are all terrible on their human rights issues, especially against Christians. This treaty could affect our food quality, escalate world governance, and, if passed, could not be repealed or amended by Congress. These include some of the most oppressive regimes and governments in the world. This could also impact our nation's sovereignty and even individual states' rights. This treaty would supersede even our own nation's laws. This would give the President full trade authority. This is not really a "free trade agreement," but is "managed trade." With incidents involving the interaction of police and citizens in various lawless acts in New York City and Ferguson and Berkeley, Missouri, the targeting seems to have increased. New York City Mayor Bill de Blasio seems to be non-supportive of law enforcement in his city in forbidding the monitoring of mosques in New York City to see if they are indeed teaching Jihad or terrorism. The press has not mentioned this. ISIS is also planning an attack on the Queen of England's royal guard and on the royal family as well. When Muslims attain to 5% of the population of a country, they will exercise authority over that culture. A Danish couple was beaten with chains on Christmas Eve by a group of Muslims. There were 13 beheadings right after Christmas. Islam claims that all children are born Muslims, but then their culture may direct them into another religion. A Muslim man sued the U.S. Military for "beard discrimination." He was not allowed to wear his beard, but he won his case and is now allowed to wear his beard. Jimmy DeYoung is with "ProphecyToday.com," and he gave an update on what is happening in the Middle East. He talked briefly about the Muslim attack in Paris that resulted in the murder of 12 people and whether this may be coming to America. Muslim groups may be changing their methods from mass killings such as 911 to smaller terrorist attacks to keep people terrorized and afraid that they are not safe anywhere. He talked about what the greatest threats are to Israel in 2015. Externally, Israel's greatest threat is still Iran. But Internally, there is still the fighting of Israel with the Palestinians and who will control Jerusalem and the push for an independent Palestinian state. He also talked about whether there was a possibility for peace in the Middle East and an end to the Palestinian/Israeli conflict.

All of these topics are what is making the world economy and national economies perform the way they are. These all interact and are being used by the world managers to control the direction the world's economy is going. This is not a conspiracy theory, but people who have an agenda who write articles and papers telling us how they are going to do this. Satan puts these ideas in their minds, but it is really God using these unsaved people to accomplish His will the way He has always done down through the ages.

Religious schools in Washington D.C. may be forced to accept homosexual marriage. In Canada a physical education sex education agenda will be used to teach pedophilia is not a crime, but an intergenerational romance for gender confused adults for minors. King Abdullah of Saudi Arabia died this week at the age of 90 years old. His brother, who is in his 70's, will take over the government. Discussed were the poor relations between Israeli President Netanyahu and the U.S. Obama administration, which has led to Congress inviting Netanyahu to speak to Congress to counteract the "cold shoulder" treatment he has received from the White House. Meanwhile, there is now evidence that the Obama administration is sending a team of Democrat election operatives whose apparent goal is to trash the reputation of Netanyahu so he will not win the coming election in Israel. Did you know that there is a road back from your broken dream? I'm Mary Wheelchel of The Christian Working Woman, and sadly many people get stuck in their broken dreams because they just can't see a way back. It's really hard sometimes to see any light at the end of those tunnels of disappointments. But take it from me—there is a road back from a broken dream and I'll share that with you this week on The

you have, you know that the person in the front seat sets the course and leads the way. This week I'm going to take us on a tandem bike journey with Jesus—an imaginary journey where we have to decide

A Tandem Bike Journey with Jesus - II

You know, the Christian journey is kinda like a tandem bike journey with Jesus. I'm Mary Wheelchel of The Christian Working Woman, and on that journey, we have to decide who is in the front seat because the person in the front sets the course. Often we want Jesus to travel with us as long as we're in the driver's seat, but that doesn't work out so good. Join me as we travel with Jesus on our tandem bikes—this week on The Christian Working Woman.

* Tuesday, February 10 - Christian Ethics, Part 1: Love, Sex, and Marriage, # 2

If there's one universal reality for life in the twenty-first century, it's that sexual temptation dominates... it's everywhere. That presents some interesting challenges for Christians... you and I have decisions to make, and with far-reaching consequences. Learn more, Tuesday/tomorrow/today on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur. Join us at (Time: ) here on (Station: )!

Wednesday, February 11 - Christian Ethics, Part 2: The Principles of Contentment, #1

Charles Spurgeon once said that although many people admitted their sins to him, there was one transgression no one ever confessed. Yet it may be the most common of man's sins. John MacArthur identifies this dangerous integrity-killer, Wednesday/tomorrow/today on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur. Join us at (Time: ) here on (Station: )!

Thursday, February 12 - Christian Ethics, Part 2: The Principles of Contentment, #2

How do the things you say you believe in public—to friends, folks in your Bible Study, your family—match your actions in private? John MacArthur shows you the reasons for inconsistency... and the remedy, Thursday/tomorrow/today on GRACE TO YOU, with John MacArthur. Join us at (Time: ) right here on (Station: )!

Friday, February 13 - Christian Ethics, Part 3: Steadfastness, Separation, and Sacrifice, #1

Separation of church and state. Many people say Christianity has no place in the world, and use that "separation" argument as a defense. Well you know... they're right... at least in one sense... as you'll see, Friday/tomorrow/today on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur. Join us at (Time: ) right here on (Station: )!
