Gordon Morris and Mike Gendron

"This Crosstalk featured a special message called, "Biblical Discernment in the Last Days". This message was delivered at a VCY America rally in September of this year by Mike Gendron. For over 30 years Mike was a devout Roman Catholic and was taught to rely upon the authority of the church. He followed the priests, the sacraments and was depending upon his own good works for salvation. However, in 1981 after attending an apologetics seminar called, 'Evidence for the Christian Faith' the Bible became his sole authority in all matters of faith. As he searched the Scriptures he was amazed to see how often the Bible contradicts the teaching and tradition of the church he had been a part of for so long. Mike placed his trust in Jesus Christ as Savior and the Bible became his sole authority in all matters of faith. He founded a ministry, Proclaiming the Gospel that points people to Jesus Christ as the all-sufficient Savior.

Mike began by noting how many professing Christians in the 21st Century cannot discern the difference between a true and false gospel or even between a true and false Christ. They have become like the religious leaders in Christ's Day who could identify weather patterns yet couldn't discern truth from error.

Mike then pointed to the New Testament teachings of Paul to show listeners why there's so little discernment in the church today. He referenced 2 Timothy 4:3-4, 2 Timothy 3:1-13 and then 1 Timothy 4:1-2.

He went on to note how the deception will be so bad and the light of the gospel will grow so dim that Jesus asked a question in Luke 18:8 "When the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?"

In Matthew 24 Jesus indicated that there would be many signs signifying his return but the one he repeated 3 different times was that of a growing deception where false teachers, false Christs and false prophets will come to lead astray, if possible, even the elect.

Questions answered by Mike's presentation include:

- What is discernment and why do we need it?
- How is Satan attacking the Christian faith?
- What are the causes for the decline of discernment within the body of Christ today?
- What must we do to live with discernment in these days of great deception?"

The word "slavery" is often replaced with the word "servant" because the translators don't want readers to think of American slavery when they read the word. Not only is a slave different from a servant, but slavery in the Bible that was allowed was very different to American slavery. Slaves in the Bible had rights and they usually became slaves by choice to pay off a debt. By law, they were also released at some point. It's important to note that people who kidnapped others to sell them into slavery were considered criminals and they would receive the death penalty if caught.

"This Crosstalk featured a special message called, "Biblical Discernment in the Last Days". This message was delivered at a VCY America rally in September of this year by Mike Gendron. For over 30 years Mike was a devout Roman Catholic and was taught to rely upon the authority of the church. He followed the priests, the sacraments and was depending upon his own good works for salvation. However, in 1981 after attending an apologetics seminar called, 'Evidence for the Christian Faith' the Bible became his sole authority in all matters of faith. As he searched the Scriptures he was amazed to see how often the Bible contradicts the teaching and tradition of the church he had been a part of for so long. Mike placed his trust in Jesus Christ as Savior and the Bible became his sole authority in all matters of faith. He founded a ministry, Proclaiming the Gospel that points people to Jesus Christ as the all-sufficient Savior.

Mike began by noting how many professing Christians in the 21st Century cannot discern the difference between a true and false gospel or even between a true and false Christ. They have become like the religious leaders in Christ's Day who could identify weather patterns yet couldn't discern truth from error.

Mike then pointed to the New Testament teachings of Paul to show listeners why there's so little discernment in the church today. He referenced 2 Timothy 4:3-4, 2 Timothy 3:1-13 and then 1 Timothy 4:1-2.

He went on to note how the deception will be so bad and the light of the gospel will grow so dim that Jesus asked a question in Luke 18:8 "When the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?"

In Matthew 24 Jesus indicated that there would be many signs signifying his return but the one he repeated 3 different times was that of a growing deception where false teachers, false Christs and false prophets will come to lead astray, if possible, even the elect.

Questions answered by Mike's presentation include:

- What is discernment and why do we need it?
- How is Satan attacking the Christian faith?
- What are the causes for the decline of discernment within the body of Christ today?
- What must we do to live with discernment in these days of great deception?"

I. Q. al Rassooli is an Iraqi exile, an Arabic speaker and an author. I.Q. left Iraq as a young man to study abroad at a university. He set out on a 30-year examination of the Qur'an, Hadith, Arab and Islamic Histories, the Arab-Israeli conflict, and the Bible. He is committed to saving the western civilization by exposing the facts and reality of Islam to a Qur'an ignorant world. He is the author of "Lifting the Veil: The True Faces of Muhammad and Islam" Volumes 1, 2, and 3. The topic is "Muslim Invasion of Europe: Will Europe be lost to Islam forever?" Schneider and al Rassooli discuss the threat of Islam to Europe and America in light of the Syrian refugee crisis. It is said that Muslims will try to take over Europe not just by invasion, but also by increasing their population. Muslims are known for having lots of children. Al Rassooli also reveals some truths about Islam. Some of the things he reveals is that Islam does not mean peace, Islam is not a religion but a cult, and jihad is a war against all unbelievers.

Should we be celebrating Christmas when the Bible doesn't specifically tell us to? What do we know about the star of Bethlehem? Did the wise men actually see Jesus while he was in the manger?"

M-F 1:00PM Howse and Johnson discuss slavery in the Bible. Johnson answers the question, "is slavery mistranslated in the Bible and, if so, why?" The answer is yes. The word "slavery" is often replaced with the word "servant" because the translators don't want readers to think of American slavery when they read the word. Not only is a slave different from a servant, but slavery in the Bible that was allowed was very different to American slavery. Slaves in the Bible had rights and they usually became slaves by choice to pay off a debt. By law, they were also released at some point. It's important to note that people who kidnapped others to sell them into slavery were considered criminals and they would receive the death penalty if caught.

DAILY PROGRAM PROMOS

ATTN: PROGRAM DIRECTORS: The following are for your staff announcements to read as often as possible in advance of our daily programs. Thank you!

MONDAY, DECEMBER 28, 2015

Jesus boiled down God's law into two simple commandments: loving God with everything we've got, and loving others as ourselves. Next time on The Alternative, Dr. Tony Evans will deal with the first of those instructions as he reminds us why Christianity is about a relationship, not an activity. Be sure to join us Monday at [TIME] for The Alternative with Dr. Tony Evans, here on [STATION].

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 29, 2015

God offered each one of us forgiveness long before we asked for it, even though we didn't deserve it. Next time on The Alternative, Dr. Tony Evans explains how we can follow that heavenly example no matter how long we've been carrying our hurt and anger toward others. Join us Tuesday at [TIME] for The Alternative with Dr. Tony Evans, here on [STATION].

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 30, 2015

It's easy to talk about forgiveness when someone cuts you off on the highway or does some little thing to annoy you. But Dr. Tony Evans says that when the loss gets deeper, the stakes get higher and it can be a different story. Join him next time on The Alternative as he takes a look at why forgiving others releases us from one source of pain and prevents a brand-new one. That's The Alternative with Dr. Tony Evans, coming up Wednesday at [TIME] on [STATION].

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 31, 2015

Starting a new year is like starting a new lap in this race we call life. So, next time on The Alternative, Dr. Tony Evans will offer encouragement to people who've wandered off the track and reveal ways you can come back and finish strong. Don't miss this special edition of The Alternative with Dr. Tony Evans, coming up Thursday at [TIME] on [STATION].

Unrealistic Expectations - I

Did you ever realize that your unrealistic expectations may be robbing you of great joy and contentment? I'm Mary Wheelchel of The Christian Working Woman and lately God has been reminding me of this— that unrealistic expectations cause self-inflicted suffering. Yet often we don't even realize how immersed we are in those unrealistic expectations. I'm talking about that this week here on The Christian Working Woman.

Promo for Script 1593, The Christian Working Woman, to be aired week ending October 17, 2015.

Intimidating the Enemy - I

Have you ever been accused of being intimidating? I'm Mary Wheelchel of The Christian Working Woman, and I don't want to be intimidating, with one exception. I want to intimidate my enemy. This week I'm going to talk about how we can live in such a way that Satan, our enemy, hates to see us wake up because we are a threat to his agenda. I hope you'll join me here for The Christian Working Woman.

Promo for Script 1506, The Christian Working Woman, to be aired week ending November 7, 2015.

Unrealistic Expectations - II

I'm Mary Wheelchel and this week on The Christian Working Woman, I'm talking about the dangers of unrealistic expectations. Many times I've had to confront my own unrealistic expectations of people and life in general, and get my feet back on the ground. But I'm learning that if I let go of unrealistic expectations and instead simply appreciate and enjoy what I have, life is so much better. I hope you'll join me here for The Christian Working Woman.

Promo for Script 1594, The Christian Working Woman, to be aired week ending October 24, 2015.

Intimidating the Enemy - II

I'm Mary Wheelchel and did you realize that the enemy of your soul—Satan—is a toothless enemy? This week on The Christian Working Woman I'm going to show you from scripture how you can confront and defeat this bully, how you can resist him and keep him from running over you. As Christ-followers, we have everything we need to be victorious, but we have to be prepared to intimidate the enemy. That's this week on The Christian Working Woman.

Being Thankful for the Missing Pieces

I'm Mary Wheelchel of The Christian Working Woman, and I think you would agree that we all have missing pieces in our lives—life just doesn't give us everything we want, does it? But when we face these missing pieces, we have two choices: either dwell on them and be miserable, or learn to be thankful for them. That's my message of hope this week—being thankful for the missing pieces. I hope you'll join me here on The Christian Working Woman.

The Transforming Power of Love - I

I'm Mary Wheelchel of The Christian Working Woman, and I invite you to join me this week as I talk about the transforming power of love. We hear lots about love these days—often not realistic or helpful, but the truth is that we were created to love and be loved and the right kind of love absolutely transforms us. Then we who are transformed by God's love can spread his love to transform others. It's a message of hope, so join me here for The Christian Working Woman.

Promo for Script 1600, The Christian Working Woman, To be aired week ending December 5, 2015:

Pockets of Fear

Do you have some pockets of fear? I'm Mary Wheelchel of The Christian Working Woman, and it could be fear of a person or of the future: maybe it's fear of rejection or failure. We all have those pockets where fear has dug a foothold and holds us captive. But the good news is that we can, by God's grace, empty those pockets of fear and live in freedom, and that's what I'm talking about this week. I hope you'll join me here for The Christian Working Woman.

The Transforming Power of Love - II

Can you recall a time in your life when love transformed you? I'm Mary Wheelchel of The Christian Working Woman, and I hope you can because love—God's kind of love—has the power to truly change us. Certainly knowing God loves you is life-changing, and then we can share his love with others and see how that love can transform others. It's an amazing power—the power of love, so I hope you'll join me here for The Christian Working Woman.

Five Things We Need to Re-Learn

Wouldn't it be nice if we had to learn our lessons only once? I'm Mary Wheelchel of The Christian Working Woman, and I find that frequently I'm in re-learn mode—once again learning lessons God has taught me previously. But repetition is a good teacher, so this week I want to talk about five things we all need to re-learn. I hope you'll join me here for The Christian Working Woman.
