QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMMING REGULARLY SCHEDULED PROGRAMS

LOCAL & REGIONAL NEWS & WEATHER

WCJW Radio broadcasts a minimum of 14 locally produced newscasts each weekday along with updated local news Saturday mornings. WCJW's news coverage keeps our listeners informed and up-to-date on both hard news stories and the events and issues that effect them each day. WCJW's weather forecast is prepared specifically for our listening area by Weather Tracks, a Rochester based weather forecasting company. Weather is broadcast several times each hour.

AG PROGRAMS

WCJW Radio's coverage area includes New York's top producing dairy region. Wyoming County ranks number one in the state for dairy production and is highly ranked nationally. Along with milk production comes hay, corn and forage production. WCJW's broadcasts nearly 6 hours of programs directly targetted to the local agriculture industry and the issues that effect the industry and its workforce.

WCJW's locally produced CJ AGRI-Business Report can be heard Monday through Saturday from 5:00 through 6:00am. It contains a variety of programs and features that our farm community needs on a daily basis.
