Sunday, 6:30AM to 7:00AM

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

KDKA-TV and The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette produce this weekly half-hour program in which current community issues are discussed. This program is hosted by KDKA-TV's Stacy Smith and Ken Rice, and the Editor of The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, David Schribman.
Sunday, 8:30AM to 9:00AM

1. PENN STATE SEX ABUSE SCANDAL

Topics discussed in this category included a discussion on the Penn State sex abuse scandal, a discussion on the legal ramifications of this scandal, and an exclusive interview with Franco Harris who defended former Penn State coach Joe Paterno.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, November 13, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 30 minutes

Guests: Alison Hall - Executive Director, Pittsburgh Action Against Rape

Bob Oltmanns - President, the OPR Group, LLC

Jerry Micco - Assistant Managing Editor, Sports, Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

This was the first of two broadcasts about one of the biggest local and statewide stories in recent years: the alleged sexual abuse of young boys by a former assistant football coach at Penn State University over a period of years. The indictment of Jerry Sandusky, the firing of legendary head football coach Joe Paterno, and university president Graham Spanier, the retirement of vice-president of business and finance Gary Schultz, and the paid leave of athletic director Tim Curley, have all shocked the Penn State community of faculty, students, and alumni, as well as the State College community. Our guests discussed the issues of rape, sports, public relations, and how they have all tragically coincided in this developing story.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, November 20, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guest: John P. Gismondi, Esq. - Principal, Gismondi & Associates

Penn State University, its faculty, students, alumni, and athletic program, were rocked by scandal recently when its former defensive football coordinator and assistant coach Jerry Sandusky was accused of sexually abusing juveniles, over at least a fifteen-year period. The alleged abuse came through youths who participated in Sandusky's non-profit "Second Mile" organization. The incident resulted in the firing of legendary head football coach Joe Paterno, the resignation of Penn State University President Graham Spanier, and the resignations of former athletic director Tim Curley and former vice-president of business affairs, Gary Schultz. Local attorney John Gismondi appeared on this broadcast, he did his undergraduate work at Penn State, to discuss the legal and political ramifications of this scandal and tragedy.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, November 20, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 30 minutes

Guest: Franco Harris -Former Pittsburgh Steelers Running Back & Penn State Running Back

In this exclusive interview, Pittsburgh Steeler Hall of Famer Franco Harris defended his former coach, now-fired Penn State Head Coach Joe Paterno, in the Penn State sex abuse scandal. Harris took heat for this action as Pittsburgh Mayor Luke Ravenstahl demanded that Harris be fired as the honorary chairman of the "Pittsburgh Promise", an organization that provides scholarship money to qualified high school students in exchange for meeting academic standards. Harris voluntarily stepped down as chairman, but was allowed to remain on the board of directors, and was later reinstated as honorary chairman.

2. ECONOMY

Topics discussed in this category included a discussion on a new program at The University of Pittsburgh that assists entrepreneurs and minority business owners, a discussion on the economic impact that Greece's financial problems is having on our economy, a discussion on the economic contribution of local auto dealers, a discussion on the economic impact of the holiday shopping season, a look back at the volatile year for the economy and what lies ahead in 2012, and a discussion on growing the entertainment industry in Pittsburgh.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, October 16, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guests: Christine Kush - Associate Director, The University of Pittsburgh
Adam Wolfson - Program Manager, "Urban Power to Prosper"
Charles Toran, Jr. - President, Sci-Tek Consultants Incorporated

Our guests joined us to talk about a new initiative from the University of Pittsburgh Katz Graduate School of Business. Its Institute for Entrepreneurial Excellence has created a program called "Urban Power to Prosper", which was created from a similar program designed by a group in Boston called Interise. Charles Toran, Jr. is the president of Sci-Tek Consultants, Incorporated, of Penn Hills, with prior experience in receiving help from the Institute for Entrepreneurial Excellence, and discussed what others might expect from this program, especially, minority business owners.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, November 6, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guest: Bill Adams, Sr. - International Economist, PNC Financial Services Group

Economic chaos in Greece has also created economic distress in America. PNC's Senior International Economist, Bill Adams, Sr., appeared on this program to talk about the impact that Greece's turmoil is having on our own financial markets.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, November 27, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guests: John Putzier - CEO, Greater Pittsburgh Automobile Dealers Association
Mark Smail - Chief Operating Officer, Smail Auto Group

The Greater Pittsburgh Automobile Dealers Association and its members employ more than 18-thousand people, and have a combined employee payroll of almost a billion dollars. They also spend more than 100-million dollars on advertising each year and pay more than half-a-billion dollars in federal, state, and local taxes. John Putzier, CEO of the Greater Pittsburgh Automobile Dealers Association, and Mark Smail, Chief Operating Officer of Greensburg's Smail Auto Group, talked about these results, from a recent survey which they sponsored, and how local car dealers provide a boost to the local economy.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, December 4, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guest: Audrey Guskey, Ph.D. - Associate Professor of Marketing, Duquesne University

Early economic figures for the Christmas shopping season are promising as consumers and businesses struggle to escape from economic recession. Dr. Audrey Guskey, from Duquesne University, a marketing expert, appeared on this broadcast for some perspective on the early, "Black Friday", "Small Business Saturday", and "Cyber Monday" results.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, December 25, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 20 minutes

Guest: Stuart G. Hoffman, Ph.D. - Senior Vice-President & Chief Economist, PNC Bank

This year was extremely volatile for the economy and the stock market, with factors including political gridlock in Washington, D.C., anger at Wall Street, uncertainty about European economic strength, unemployment, and recession. PNC Financial Services Group's Chief Economist, Dr. Stuart Hoffman, joined us for a look back at the source of some of the problems, and a look ahead at some potential solutions. He also provided an economic forecast of moderate economic gain for 2012. Dr. Hoffman said that the health of companies, and how they hire, will help determine the economic health of the entire country. Pittsburgh's economy outperformed many others, including the state and the country, in 2011.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, December 25, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 30 minutes

Guests: Carl Kurlander - Executive Producer, Steeltown Entertainment
Lisa Smith - Producer, Steeltown Film Factory

Two talented members of the entertainment industry, who are natives of the Pittsburgh area, are proof that you can go home again. Carl Kurlander is Executive Director of the Steeltown Entertainment Project, and is a documentary producer with other Hollywood credits. He left Pittsburgh to seek his fortune, but returned, and tells his remarkable story in a DVD-produced "My Tale of Two Cities". Lisa Smith is a producer with Hollywood credits, who came back to Pittsburgh and is now producer for the Steeltown Film Factory. Our guests talked about a concerted effort to "grow" the entertainment industry in Pittsburgh (with the help of partners like WQED-TV), and bring home some talented "natives", to produce, direct, and star in productions made in Pittsburgh.

3. UNEMPLOYMENT

Topics in this category included discussions on the problem of unemployment, the extension of federal unemployment benefits, and a local program that trains young urban people for meaningful jobs.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, December 11, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 30 minutes

Guests: Rev. Kenneth Love - Former machinist & ordained minister
Vincent Brandon - Unemployed Port Authority Transit Bus Driver
Christopher Briem - Economist, University of Pittsburgh Center

As a political impasse continues on Capitol Hill between Democrats, Republicans, and the Obama Administration, there is the likelihood that an extension of federal unemployment benefits could run out, on December 31st. We talked about the problem of unemployment with Christopher Briem, an economist with the University of Pittsburgh's Center for Social & Urban Research, Reverend Kenneth Love, Employment Coordinator for Light of Life Mission, an ordained minister and a former machinist at the now-closed General Motors Fisher Body Plant in West Mifflin, Pennsylvania, and Vincent Brandon, former Port Authority Transit bus driver from Point Breeze, who lost his job last March when state funding was cut to Port Authority. There was one hopeful sign. After this broadcast aired, we received a call from a viewer, with a possible lead on a job for Vincent Brandon.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, December 18, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guests: Dara Ware Allen, Ph.D. - Executive Director, YouthWorks
Jason Sigal - YouthWorks Graduate & Lead Estimator, Massaro Corporation

A local non-profit organization is bucking the national unemployment trend for young urban residents by training them in the urban area for meaningful jobs, and then giving them their first work experience through the assistance of corporate partners in the Pittsburgh area. Dr. Dara Ware Allen, Executive Director of YouthWorks, and Jason Sigal, a YouthWorks graduate and now lead estimator for the Massaro Corporation, appeared on this broadcast to explain how this successful program works.

4. EDUCATION

Topics discussed in this category included a discussion on an education initiative in Kalamazoo, Michigan, that inspired a similar program in Pittsburgh, and a discussion on the challenges to the Pittsburgh Public School system due to funding cutbacks.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, October 23, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 20 minutes

Guests: Janice M. Brown, Ed.D. - Executive Director, "The Kalamazoo Promise"
Lee Fisher - President & CEO, CEO's For Cities

We were especially proud to present the former superintendent of schools in Kalamazoo, Michigan, and now Executive Director of "The Kalamazoo Promise", Dr. Janice M. Brown, and Lee Fisher, former Lieutenant-Governor of the State of Ohio, and now President and CEO of "CEO's For Cities", to talk about Kalamazoo, Michigan's incredible "Kalamazoo Promise" Educational Initiative, on which the similar "Pittsburgh Promise" was based. Kalamazoo due to economic and population decline created an initiative that guaranteed payment for a college education for certain students who academically qualified. One of the results was an influx of population from other cities, of families with children, who wanted to take advantage of this opportunity. Dr. Brown and Lee Fisher talked about lessons learned from "The Kalamazoo Promise", and how they could help "The Pittsburgh Promise" initiative.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, November 27, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 30 minutes

Guests: Linda S. Lane, Ed.D. - Superintendent, Pittsburgh Public Schools
Nina Esposito-Visgitis - President, Pittsburgh Federation of Teachers
Sharene Shealey – Vice-President, Pittsburgh School Board & School Board Member

Budget cuts from the state and other funding challenges have forced the Pittsburgh school district to furlough some employees, consolidate some schools, and realign other students and teachers. Our guests discussed the financial reasons for these actions, how they will affect students, and how this will change some of the programs which the district had launched in connection with the teachers' union.

5. PUBLIC LIBRARIES

Topics discussed in this category included a discussion on a ballot initiative to provide needed funding for area public libraries, and a discussion to talk about the passage of the initiative by voters to raise taxes to help fund the libraries.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, October 30, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guests: Patrick Dowd - Pittsburgh City Council, Board of Directors, Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh
Mary Alice Gorman - Co-Owner, Mystery Lovers Bookshop

Our guests previewed the November 8th election ballot initiative for Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh "Our Library, Our Future", in which voters were asked whether they would approve a .25% tax increase in order to provide necessary funding for Carnegie Library (some to compensate for cuts in state funding). Our guests included Pittsburgh city councilman Patrick Dowd (former school board member, and former teacher, and a current member of the Board of Directors of Carnegie Library), and Mary Alice Gorman, also a former teacher, and the co-owner of the Mystery Lovers Bookshop, in Oakmont. Both supported this initiative, which remarkably was approved by the voters in the City of Pittsburgh.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, November 13, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guest: Patrick Dowd - Pittsburgh City Council, Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh

As a follow-up to our previous segment, Pittsburgh city councilman Patrick Dowd returned to talk about the voters' approval (70-20%) of the ballot initiative that would increase local taxes to help fund Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh.

6. LOCAL POLITICS

Topics discussed in this category included an interview with the Republican candidate for Allegheny County Executive, and a discussion on a bipartisan effort to solve political issues in the region.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, October 16, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 30 minutes

Guest: D. Raja (R) - Candidate for Allegheny County Executive

As part of KDKA-TV's political coverage, and this broadcast's in-depth interviews with political candidates, the Republican candidate for Allegheny County Executive, D. Raja, appeared on this program. The Democratic candidate, former president of Allegheny County Council, Rich Fitzgerald, previously appeared on a similar broadcast of this show. Raja is a local businessman in Mount Lebanon. Some of the questions included allegations that Raja's company outsourced local jobs to India, where Raja was born, and that his firm was fined $133,000 by the U.S. Labor Department, for violating minimum wage laws. Raja denied the allegations.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, November 6, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 30 minutes

Guests: Selena Schmidt - Executive Director, "Power of 32"

Allen D. Biehler - Former Secretary, Penn DOT

Steve Craig (D) - Chairman, Board of Commissioners, Lawrence County, Pennsylvania

Municipalities across the country and the state have been hit with the results of the recession. That comes as political leadership has never been more divided between Republicans and Democrats, and conservatives and liberals. However, there is a bipartisan effort called the "Power of 32", in which an advocacy group has developed to examine political issues from a four-state, 32-county region to find common ground on how to solve some of these problems. Our guests talked about the political divide, and how their own effort could bring people together, to solve these challenging questions.

7. CHARITABLE PROGRAMS

Topics discussed in this category included a discussion on the battle against hunger in the region and the impact the recession is having on local food banks, and a discussion on a program that assists people in paying their utility bills.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, October 30, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 30 minutes

Guests: Joyce Roethermel – Founder, Southwestern Pennsylvania Food Security Partnership

Victor Papale - Director, Southwestern Pennsylvania Food Security Partnership

Jermaine Husser – CEO, Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank

This program began with an excerpt from CBS News Correspondent Scott Pelley's interview with children who were asked what it's like to go hungry. The broadcast coincided with the 30th anniversary of the launching of KDKA-TV's "KD Turkey Fund", begun by the late, legendary KDKA-TV Commentator Al Julius, and originally called "Julius' Turkeys", which was begun at the height of unemployment in the steel industry in the Pittsburgh area. We ran a video clip of Al Julius asking for the help of KDKA-TV viewers, in feeding the hungry. Unemployment has returned, with a wider range of people suffering, and donations to the food banks have dropped because of a general economic recession. Our guests talked about what it will take to successfully battle hunger in the long run.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, November 6, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guest: Sadie J. Kroeck - Director, Customer Relations, People's Natural Gas

LIHEAP is an important initiative by Western Pennsylvania's local utilities and their customers to provide additional funding for people who are having problems paying their utility bills in the winter. Customers can designate that a certain amount of their bill, with an additional dollar, to help support those in need. This year marks the 20th anniversary of LIHEAP, but cuts in state funding for LIHEAP mean that it is critical for those seeking help to act quickly. It's now a first come, first served situation.

8. INTERNATIONAL RECOGNITION

Topics discussed in this category included discussions on Pittsburgh being chosen to host a global leadership summit, the value of the international recognition that the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra brings to the city, and Pittsburgh being recognized by National Geographic Magazine as one of the world's best destinations.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, October 2, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guests: Steven Sokol - President, World Affairs Council of Pittsburgh

Anjali "Juli" Kundu – Staff Associate - UPMC International & Commercial Services

Pittsburgh won high marks for hosting the G-20 International Summit in 2009. It's believed that this played a role in the city being chosen to host a global leadership summit next year, called the "One Young World Summit". We talked with the president of the World Affairs Council of Pittsburgh, Steven Sokol, and Anjali "Juli" Kundu, a staff associate from UPMC International & Commercial Services, who was one of a group of 29 young professionals from Pittsburgh who attend this year's forum in Zurich, Switzerland. Our guests talked about what hosting this event means to this city, including an introduction to a younger demographic audience from around the world, to this area as well as the international exposure of Pittsburgh as a center for world affairs dialogue.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, October 23, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guest: Lawrence J. Tamburri – President & CEO, Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra

The Pittsburgh Symphony recently completed a triumphant tour of much of Europe, including a special 9/11 memorial concert in Berlin, Germany, which was dedicated to the victims of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks in New York City, Washington, D.C., and Shanksville, Pennsylvania. Pittsburgh Symphony President & CEO Lawrence J. Tamburri appeared on this broadcast to talk about the value of this tour and how the orchestra has served as perhaps the most important international representative of the City of Pittsburgh.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, November 6, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guests: Joseph McGrath - President & CEO, Visit Pittsburgh

Beverly Morrow-Jones - Director, Marketing & Communications Visit Pittsburgh

Pittsburgh received another important honor as National Geographic's Traveler Magazine named the city one of the world's best destinations! We invited Visit Pittsburgh's president & CEO, Joe McGrath, and Executive Director of Marketing & Communications, Beverly Morrow-Jones, to appear on this broadcast, and talk about the significance of this honor, and how it could boost tourism.

9. HEALTH CARE

Topics discussed in this category included a discussion on the West Penn Allegheny Health System and the impact that Highmark's investment will have on its operations, and a discussion regarding the impact that the Highmark/UPMC dispute regarding health insurance is having on small businesses.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, December 11, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guest: Keith T. Ghezzi, M.D. - Interim President & CEO, WPAHS

With an infusion of cash from Highmark, the West Penn Allegheny Health System (WPAHS) plans to survive and expand as a credible competitor to the huge UPMC. Dr. Keith Ghezzi, Interim President and CEO of WPAHS, appeared on this broadcast to discuss those plans, which include the re-opening of the emergency room at Bloomfield's West Penn Hospital. Ghezzi says these plans should result in some hiring of additional employees in the WPAHS.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, December 11, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guest: Tom Henschke - President, SMC Business Councils

Tom Henschke is the president of the SMC Business Councils, and he appeared on this program to talk about that organization and its role in the community. He also discussed the impact of the UPMC/Highmark insurance dispute on the small business community, and its employees. The group plans to exercise its political muscle next year in the election campaign.

10. PITTSBURGH CATHOLIC DIOCESE

The topic of this category was the denial of an allegation of abuse against the Bishop of Pittsburgh when he was a priest a number of years ago.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, October 9, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 30 minutes

Guest: The Most Reverend David A. Zubik - Bishop, Catholic Diocese of Pittsburgh

Pittsburgh Catholic Bishop David Zubik took the bold step of going public with shocking allegations against him, including a charge that Zubik allegedly abused a man while that man was attending Quigley Catholic High School in Baden, Pennsylvania, and while Zubik was a priest, and then principal at that school, a number of years ago. Zubik vehemently denied the allegations in an exclusive interview on our broadcast, and said he wanted to prevent others in the Diocese from becoming sitting targets for similar accusations. The Beaver County district attorney dismissed the allegations, which the Diocese had said amounted to extortion, and Zubik addressed the broader problem of increasing numbers of reported incidents of sexual abuse within the Catholic Church, as well as other entities

11. IRAQ

The topic of this category was a discussion on the end of military involvement in Iraq.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, December 18, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 30 minutes

Guests: Lt. Col. Mark Stimer - U.S. Army Reserve

Lt. Col. Mark Rayburn - Pennsylvania National Guard

This week marked an important milestone in the history of the Iraq War. The last combat troops left Iraq, marking the end of U.S. military involvement there. We talked with two men who served in Iraq, Lieutenant Colonel Mark Stimer from the 165th Quartermaster Group of the 316th Expeditionary Sustainment Command of the United States Army Reserve, and Lieutenant Colonel Mark Rayburn, a Baldwin native, who is with the 1st/103rd Armor Task Force Dragoon of the Pennsylvania National Guard (Rayburn is also a police lieutenant with the Mount Lebanon, Pennsylvania police department), about their assessment of our role in the Iraq War, and predictions about the future of that country after America's military departure.

12. NATIONWIDE BAN ON CELL PHONE AND TEXTING WHILE DRIVING

The topic of this category was a discussion on the proposed nationwide ban on cell phone use and texting while driving.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, December 18, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guests: James P. Thomas, Esq. - Partner, Pepper Hamilton LLP

Timothy Keller, Ph.D. - Neuroscientist, Carnegie Mellon University

The National Transportation Safety Board this week (12/12/2011) called for a nationwide ban on the use of cell phones and text message devices while driving unless it's an emergency. We talked with a Carnegie Mellon University neuroscientist, Dr. Timothy Keller, and Pittsburgh attorney James Thomas, from Pepper Hamilton, about the scientific research background that supports this recommendation. We also talked with Thomas about potential liability that businesses might face, if, in the process of driving and either texting or talking with their firm, they are in an accident related to distraction, because of the texting or cell phone use.

13. EXOTIC ANIMALS

The topic of this category was a discussion on laws in Pennsylvania governing exotic animals as well as the protection of the public and prevention of a similar incident happening in the station that happened in Ohio.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, October 23, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 30 minutes

Guests: Henry Kacprzyk - Curator, Kids Kingdom & Reptiles, Pittsburgh Zoo & PPG Aquarium

Ken Kaemmerer - Curator, Mammals, Pittsburgh Zoo & PPG Aquarium

William Shepard, DVM Chairman, Western Pennsylvania National Wild Animal Orphanage

In one of the most bizarre stories in recent memory, the town of Zanesville, Ohio was shaken after the troubled owner of a private animal farm suddenly set 56-exotic animals free, including rare Bengal tigers, before committing suicide. Ohio law enforcement officials were forced to shoot dozens of escaped lions, tigers, and other beasts. In this program, our guests, all experts in the care of these beautiful but dangerous creatures, talked about what laws exist in Ohio and Pennsylvania governing these animals, and how they and the public can be better protected from a similar incident occurring again.

14. CRIME

The topic of this category was an interview with famed Forensic Pathologist Dr. Cyril Wecht as he discussed his new book and the famous crimes he has investigated.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, December 4, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 30 minutes

Guest: Cyril J. Wecht, M.D., J.D. - Forensic Pathologist

Former Allegheny County Coroner Cyril Wecht, both a doctor and a lawyer, is often called as an expert witness, in famous criminal cases, from the Dr. Conrad Murray case in the death of Michael Jackson, to the death of little Caylee Anthony, and the acquittal of her mother Casey Anthony, and the death of Lacy Peterson. Dr. Wecht and Dawna Kaufmann have co-authored a book about these cases, and what goes on behind the scenes. Dr. Wecht made a return appearance on this broadcast, in an interview that also provided some perspective about the changing role of the media (24-hour news on cable, cameras in the courtroom), in covering these notorious cases.

1. DEFAULT – CONGRESSIONAL GRIDLOCK

Topics discussed in this category included discussions on the possibility of US debt default; the impact default would have on the economy and Wall Street, and the political gridlock due to the impasse between Republicans and Democrats.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, July 17, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00A, 10 minutes

Guest: Stuart G. Hoffman, Ph.D. - Senior VP & Chief Economist, PNC Financial Services

Topic: While members of Congress continue their partisan bickering, the United States economy is almost in free-fall. Could the U.S. economy default and what would that mean? We asked PNC's Chief Economist, Stuart Hoffman, for some perspective.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, July 17, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guest: Rick Applegate - President and CEO, First Commonwealth Financial Advisors Inc.

Topic: What could default mean to your investments? First Commonwealth's Rick Applegate joined us to talk about the angst being felt on Wall Street, and Main Street.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, August 7, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guests: Rep. Tim Murphy (R) - PA 18th Congressional District

Rep. Mike Doyle (D) - PA.14th Congressional District

Topic: Much of the summer was spent in the midst of a political impasse on Capitol Hill, over deficit reduction, potential default, and continual swings in the stock market, based on investor nervousness over this impasse. We talked with two local members of Congress about the impasse between Republicans and Democrats in Congress and President Obama. Congress is receiving some of the lowest approval votes from constituents in the history of polling, and President Obama's approval rating is also very low.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, August 7, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00A, 10 minutes

Guest: Donald G. Berdine - Senior VP, PNC Wealth Management Advisors

Topic: As the debate over potential default continues, PNC's Don Berdine joined us to talk about the impact of economic uncertainty on investors and investments.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, August 14, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guest: Malcolm E. Polley, CFA - Executive VP & Managing Director, S& T Wealth Management, President & Chief Investment Officer, Stewart Capital

Topic: Malcolm Polley, President and Chief Investment Officer for Stewart Capital Advisors, part of S&T Bank, based in Indiana County, and an investment expert, joined us, for some insight into the recent wild swings on Wall Street. Polley talked about political gridlock in Washington, D.C., the deficit, the chance for default, and how all of this could impact retirement funds.

2. 9/11 ANNIVERSARY

The topic of this discussion was on a special forum at CMU regarding the 9/11 Anniversary.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, September 11, 2011, 6:30AM – 7:00AM, 30 minutes

Guests: Rem Rieder - Editor and Senior Vice-President, American Journalism Review

Richard Snodgrass - Author/Photographer

Topic: Our guests were in Pittsburgh to appear at a special forum at Carnegie Mellon University, which assisted us in producing this special program, by providing the guests to us. Rem Rieder talked about how journalism covered this profound national tragedy. Richard Snodgrass just completed a photo book about the site where United Airlines Flight # 93 crashed into the grounds of Shanksville, Pennsylvania, Somerset County, on September 11, 2001, killing all aboard, as the heroic passengers decided to take control of the hijacked plane from the terrorists, perhaps preventing it from completing its mission to Washington, D.C., where its target was allegedly either the U.S. Capitol or the White House.

3. WASHINGTON AVENUE FLOODING

Topics discussed in this category included a discussion on how to prevent future flash flooding on Washington Boulevard that killed four people, and a discussion on who is liable for this tragedy.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, August 28, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 30 minutes

Guests: Kent A. Harries, Ph.D., P.E. - University of Pittsburgh

Bill Peduto (D) - Pittsburgh City Council, 8th District

Topic: Flash flooding swept through parts of the Pittsburgh area and killed four people, who died when they were trapped in their cars, on Washington Boulevard, a road prone to flash flooding, which experienced a similar event not that long ago, though without deaths. In this case, a woman and two of her children died, as well as an elderly woman. Our guests, including a civil engineer, talked about what could be done, to prevent future flash flooding, and the prospects could be expensive to taxpayers, but necessary, and also talked about an earthquake that struck much of the northeast, including Pittsburgh.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, August 28, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00A, 10 minutes

Guest: Richard Rosenthal - Esq. Managing Partner, Edgar Snyder & Associates

Topic: Four people died, including a woman and two of her children, as a result of flash flooding on Washington Boulevard, in Pittsburgh's East End last month. But, it wasn't the first time that this road has flooded, trapping people inside of their cars. We spoke with Richard Rosenthal, Managing Partner of Edgar Snyder & Associates, a local law firm, about liability for this tragedy.

4. INFRASTRUCTURE

Topics discussed in this category included a discussion on infrastructure needs in regulating flooding, and a discussion on the need for funding to repair bridges and roads.

Guest: Col. Bill Graham - District Engineer, Pittsburgh District, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers

Topic: Colonel Bill Graham, a Pittsburgh native, was our special guest and discussed the critical role that the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers is playing in regulating and rebuilding areas affected by massive flooding from recent hurricanes from the south to the northeast. Colonel Graham also talked about critical federal funding shortages, and how they are affecting river transportation and recreational boating.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, September 18, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 30 minutes

Guests: Dan Cessna, P.E. - Penn DOT District Executive

Matthew Pierce, P.E. - Pittsburgh Section, American Society of Civil Engineers

Topic: The American Society of Civil Engineers says that there is a crisis in Pennsylvania's infrastructure, which could affect all of us for many years. Roads and bridges are deteriorating, as funding from the state and federal governments dwindles, to fix them. We talked with Penn DOT District Executive Dan Cessna, and Matthew Pierce, former past president of the American Society of Civil Engineers' local chapter, about what can be done, to solve the problem.

5. EDUCATION

Topics discussed in this category included a discussion on a program that helps to purchase school supplies for financially strapped school districts, a discussion with the Superintendent of the Pittsburgh Public Schools on issues the school system is facing, and a discussion on the "The Pittsburgh Promise" scholarship program.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, August 14, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00A, 10 minutes

Guests: Justin Brown - Executive Director, The Education Partnership

Elisabeth Ehrlich - Assistant Superintendent, Clairton City Schools

Topic: With dwindling financial resources for school districts and the families whose children attend school in those districts, finding the money to pay for necessary school supplies has become challenging. The Education Partnership and Giant Eagle and its customers are joining forces, to help pay for those supplies. We talked with Justin Brown, Executive Director of the Education Partnership, and Elisabeth Ehrlich, Assistant Superintendent of the Clairton School District, about this effort, and how it will help both the school district and the children who will benefit from the program.

Sunday, September 4, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 30 minutes

Guest: Dr. Linda Lane - Superintendent, Pittsburgh Public Schools

Topic: Dr. Linda Lane, Superintendent of the Pittsburgh Public Schools, joined us to discuss the coming school year. We talked about student achievement, "The Pittsburgh Promise", teaching initiatives, and potential funding issues because of cuts in state and federal funding with the prospect of school closings and layoffs of teachers and other personnel.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, September 18, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00A, 20 minutes

Guests: Saleem Ghubril - Executive Director, "The Pittsburgh Promise"

Gabriella C. Gonzalez, Ph.D. - Sociologist, the Rand Corporation

Vanessa Thompson - Recipient, "The Pittsburgh Promise" scholarship

Topic: Our guests talked about the third-year performance of "The Pittsburgh Promise", a scholarship program for students in the Pittsburgh Public Schools that is funded by UPMC, other corporations, and private donations. It enables many students to go to college, who otherwise would not be able to afford to do so. Our guests included Saleem Ghubril, Executive Director of "The Pittsburgh Promise", Dr. Gabriella C. Gonzalez, Sociologist at the Rand Corporation Pittsburgh office, who participated in a performance study of the "Promise", and Vanessa Thompson, Westinghouse High School graduate who is a scholarship recipient of the "Promise" and a student at Chatham University and who fulfills the Promise's goals of "Dream big, work hard."

6. ENERGY

Topics discussed in this category included a discussion on the volatility of oil prices, and a discussion on the role oil prices play in our economy.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, July 24, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guest: Kent F. Moors, Ph.D. - Author

Topic: Dr. Kent Moors is a recognized expert in oil and gas policy, finance, and risk assessment, as well as the director of Duquesne University's Energy Policy Research Group. He has written a new book about the continuing volatility of oil prices, the potential political crises we could be facing, and the impact of the political impasse in Congress on the national debt. He appeared on this broadcast to talk about all of these issues.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, July 10, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guest: The Honorable James Cawley (R) - Lieutenant Governor Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Topic: Lieutenant Governor James Cawley (R) Pennsylvania paid his first visit to KDKA-TV's "The Sunday Business Page" to talk about the recent state budget crisis and the future of Marcellus Shale drilling in the state, and whether drillers should be taxed to help fund the budget shortfall.

9. COUNTY GOVERNMENT

The topic of this category was a discussion with the Democratic candidate for Allegheny County Council Executive.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, September 25, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 30 minutes

Guest: Rich Fitzgerald (D) - Candidate for Allegheny County Executive

Topic: Rich Fitzgerald is the former member of Allegheny County Council and its former president, who is now running as the Democratic nominee for Allegheny County Executive. He appeared on this broadcast to discuss his candidacy, and his continued opposition to tax reassessments for Allegheny County, as ordered by Judge R. Stanton Wettick, who recently admonished the county to speed up the reassessment process. We have invited Fitzgerald's Republican opponent, D. Raja, to appear on this program, but, thus far, have received no commitment from his campaign.

10. NATIONAL POLITICS

The topic of this category was a discussion regarding the Republican candidate for President in the 2012 election.

Guest: Deborah Rice - Executive Vice-President of Health Services Highmark

Tony Farah, M.D. - Interim Chief Medical Officer, West Penn Allegheny Health System

Topic: Highmark and the West Penn Allegheny Health System, which includes Allegheny General and West Penn Hospitals, recently announced the creation of a "capital partnership", which could eventually lead to a full-fledged merger of both organizations. Much of this is an effort to compete with the huge UPMC Health System. We talked with Deborah Rice, Executive Vice-President of Health Services for Highmark, this region's largest health insurer, and Dr. Tony Farah, cardiologist, and Interim Chief Medical Officer for the West Penn Allegheny Health System, about the reasons for this affiliation, and how it helped to save the existence of West Penn Hospital.

13. PITTSBURGH INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

The topic of this category was a discussion on future plans and challenges at Pittsburgh International Airport.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, September 18, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00A, 10 minutes

Guest: Bradley Penrod - Executive Director, Allegheny County Airport Authority

Topic: Pittsburgh International Airport survived 9/11, the loss of U.S. Air as a hub, and a drop in the number of flights. Now, it is planning for the future and trying to position itself to recoup some service and as an alternate landing place for some flights. Brad Penrod, the Executive Director of the Allegheny County Airport Authority, joined us to talk about the challenges he is facing.

14. PRIVITIZATION OF PENNSYLVANIA'S LIQUOR STORES

The topic of this category was a discussion on efforts to privatize Pennsylvania's state-operated liquor stores.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, July 17, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guests: Rep. Mike Turzai (R) - PA 28th Legislative District and PA House Majority Leader

Sen. Jim Ferlo (D) - PA 38th Senatorial District

Topic: With Republicans now in charge of the governor's office, the state house, and state senate in Pennsylvania, there is a renewed effort to privatize Pennsylvania's state-operated liquor stores, which would be sold off to private businesses. House Majority Leader Mike Turzai, who represents Franklin

Park in the North Hills, is leading this initiative. Democrats generally oppose the plan, which would result in the loss of many union-paying jobs, and Sen. Jim Ferlo, from Highland Park,, is leading the opposition to Turzai's plan. Both men joined us to discuss the issues involved in this longstanding debate.

15. FUNDING FOR PUBLIC LIBRARIES

The topic of this category was a discussion on efforts to help fund area public libraries.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, July 31, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00A, 10 minutes

Guests: Patrick Dowd (D) - Pittsburgh City Council, District #7

Holly McCullough -Manager, Squirrel Hill Branch, Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh

Topic: As funding for libraries dwindle, Carnegie Library is finding new public support from concerned citizens, who have started an initiative called "Our Library, Our Future". One of its objectives is to educate the public about the importance of the public library, and place a proposed ballot question on the election ballot, asking if the public would support a modest tax increase, to support library programs that benefit them and our area. It's a courageous move, during a time when tax increases have been berated.

16. LAW

Topics discussed in this category included a discussion regarding a notorious 1970 local crime spree, a discussion on the Caylee Anthony case, and a discussion with Gloria Allred who has represented many people involved in famous cases.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Guests: James G. Hollock, - Author

Chief Joseph Hoffman- White Oak Borough Police

Edgar Snyder - Esq.

Topic: James G. Hollock, a former counselor at Western Penitentiary, has written a fascinating book about one of the most notorious murder cases in local history: Stanley Hoss participated in a crime spree in the 1970's that included a prison break from the old Allegheny County Workhouse, the murders of a Verona police officer and an African-American prison guard, and the kidnapping of a woman and her two-year-old daughter, in the state of Maryland. Their bodies were never found. Hoss was captured in Waterloo, Iowa, and died in prison. We talked with Hollock, Edgar Snyder, prominent Pittsburgh attorney, who was Hoss's public defender, and former Western Penitentiary counselor, Joseph Hoffman, who is now police chief in White Oak, Pennsylvania, about this real-life murder, which was a big news story on local television broadcasts.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, July 10, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guests: Robert G. Del Greco - Esq. Shareholder, Dickie McCamey & Chilcote, P.C.

Tonya Sulia Goodman - Esq. Associate, Reed Smith LLP

Robert E. Stewart - Esq. Partner, Stewart & Zinski

Topic: In this broadcast, we spoke with three local criminal law experts about the "not guilty" verdict for murder and manslaughter, which was handed down in the state of Florida, in another notorious case, the murder of two-year-old Caylee Marie Anthony, whose remains were found in a swamp, about five months after her grandmother had reported her missing in December, 2008. Caylee's mother, Casey Marie Anthony, was found "not guilty of murder and manslaughter, after serving almost three years in prison. However, she was found guilty of lying to the authorities. Casey Marie Anthony was fined, and her sentence was reduced to the time she had already served allowing her to finally be released from prison.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, July 24, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guest: Gloria Allred - Esq. Partner, Allred Morales Goldberg

Topic: Gloria Allred is one of America's most prominent attorneys, an advocate for women's rights, and an opponent of discrimination, including age discrimination, and support for those seeking same-sex marriages. She visited Pittsburgh to promote a website to help people looking for legal advice: lawyers.com, and stopped by our studios, to talk about some of the famous cases she has tried, including representation of Nicole Brown Simpson's estate, in the O.J. Simpson civil case, and massage therapist Amber Frey, who was a witness in the Lacy Peterson murder case.

17. LOCAL EMPLOYEMENT

The topic of this category was a discussion on the need for workers in the area.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, September 25, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00A, 10 minutes

Sunday, 11:30AM-12:00PM

1. DEATH OF OSAMA BIN LADEN

Topics discussed in this category include the death of Osama Bin Laden and the impact it will have on terrorism, and an interview with an author who discussed the role the C.I.A. and its tactics may have played in this event.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, May 8, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guests: Lawrence E. Likar, J.D., M.A., CPP - Associate Professor & Chairman, Department of Justice, Law, & Security, La Roche College

Ken Gormley, J.D. - Dean, School of Law Duquesne University

Topic: President Barack Obama delivered a surprise welcome on Sunday night television to address the nation announcing the capture and killing of Osama bin Laden in the heart of Pakistan. However, bin Laden's demise doesn't mean an end to the threat of world terrorism. Our guests provided a discussion of the impact of bin Laden's death, and the manner in which it was carried out.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, May 22, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guest: John Kirakou - Author, "The Reluctant Spy: My Secret Life in the C.I.A.'s War on Terror"

Topic: This was an exclusive interview, a return appearance by New Castle, Pennsylvania, native John Kirakou, a former C.I.A. Operative who was the personal bodyguard to terrorist Abu Zubaydah, who is still a prisoner at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. Kirakou talked about the recent capture and killing of Osama bin Laden, and the role the C.I.A. played in the event. He also talked about tactics such as "waterboarding" that might have played a role in bin Laden's capture. Kirakou believes that not much information is obtained through "waterboarding", a controversial form of political torture. Kirakou has been a witness to "waterboarding". He also discussed the controversy of the disposal of bin Laden's body at seas.

2. WAR IN AFGHANISTAN

Topics discussed in this category include the ongoing war in Afghanistan as well as multiple deployments by military personnel, and President Obama's announcement to withdraw troops from Afghanistan.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, April 10, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guests: Bill Putnam - Military Photojournalist

Eric Redman - Platoon Sergeant 1st Class Pennsylvania National Guard and U.S. Army

Topic: Bill Putnam is a military photojournalist and has taken photos in Iraq and Afghanistan. Platoon Sergeant 1st Class Eric Redman, from Whitehall, with the Pennsylvania National Guard and the 1-110th Infantry of the United States Army, was on leave after serving in Afghanistan from February, 2010 - November, 2010, as security for the provincial reconstructive team. Both guests talked about the impact of multiple military deployments, and the apparent military stalemate in Afghanistan.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, June 26, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guests: SFC Adrienne Sproul - 363rd Military Police Company, United States Army Reserve

Jack Kelly - Pittsburgh Post-Gazette Columnist, U.S. Marine Corps & Green Beret Veteran, and former Deputy Assistant Secretary of the United States Air Force, in the Reagan Administration

Topic: This past week, President Barack Obama announced plans to withdraw 10,000 American troops from Afghanistan. This somewhat controversial decision, with opposition from some military leaders, was met with even more controversy during the taping of this broadcast.

Outspoken Jack Kelly, Pittsburgh Post-Gazette columnist, whose interests have centered on political and military issues, called America's continued military presence in Afghanistan "insanity", and discussed divisions within the Afghan population regarding the presence of American troops in their country. Sergeant First Class Adrienne Sproul (who also served in Iraq) was assigned to Afghanistan just two months after 9/11 in December, 2001, and believes that the time is right for American troops to withdraw from Afghanistan. However, she is worried about the safety of the remaining American forces there.

3. ECONOMY

Topics discussed in this category include the size of the federal deficit, and recent unemployment figures.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, May 1, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 20 minutes

Guest: Stuart G. Hoffman, Ph.D. - Senior VP & Chief Economist, PNC Financial Services Group

Topic: Federal Reserve Chairman Ben Bernanke made history by holding the first Fed news availability with reporters. A major topic was increasing concern over the size of the federal deficit. We talked about this topic, including an expanded look at the economy, with Dr. Stuart Hoffman, Chief Economist for PNC Financial Services Group.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, June 12, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 10 minutes

Guest: Stuart G. Hoffman, Ph.D. - Senior Vice-President & Chief Economist, PNC Financial Services

Topic: The most recent unemployment figures for the United States show little improvement. The Pittsburgh area, however, ironically, has fared better, because long-term economic challenges have forced it to diversify its economy, including high-tech, small businesses, and "green" business technology. PNC Chief Economist Stuart Hoffman provided his perspective.

4. SEVERE WEATHER

Topics discussed in this category include historic flooding of the Mississippi River and the impact budget cut backs will have on river transportation, the impact of flooding on local businesses, the impact flooding has had on river commerce, and a discussion on severe weather issues that the nation had been experiencing in the spring.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, May 8, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 10 minutes

Guest: Lenna Hawkins, PE - Deputy District Engineer, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Pittsburgh District

Topic: Historic flooding took place along the Mississippi River, and barges broke loose in the Pittsburgh area too. All of this was happening, as Congress was proposing cuts to the budget for the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. Deputy District Engineer for the Pittsburgh area, Lenna Hawkins, appeared on this broadcast, to talk about all of these issues.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, May 15, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 10 minutes

Guest: Terry L. Wirginis - President, Gateway Clipper Fleet

Topic: Terry Wirginis talked about a variety of topics, from the impact of flooding along the Mississippi River to higher prices for diesel fuel, and how the recent rain has affected river tours for the Gateway Clipper Fleet in Pittsburgh. He also previewed the summer season, along Pittsburgh's rivers, with his fleet of tour boats.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, May 22, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 10 minutes

Guest: John C. Bryan III - Regional Sales Director, American Commercial Lines, Inc.

Topic: John Bryan III appeared on this program to talk about the halt in commercial river traffic along the Mississippi River because of flooding, and how it is also affecting river commerce in Pittsburgh. Barges were not able to deliver coal or steel, and many companies tried to haul their goods by rail as an alternative. Flooding also resulted in American Commercial Lines losing at least one barge, which broke loose on high local river waters, and sank

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, June 12, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guests: Theresa Creighan - Volunteer, American Red Cross

Chad Kauffman, Ph.D. - Associate Professor, Earth Sciences, California University of Pennsylvania

Dennis Bowman, AMA, NWS - KDKA-TV Meteorologist

Topic: This has been a deadly spring across most of the country, from a combination of historic flooding of the Ohio & Mississippi rivers, tornadoes which almost destroyed cities like Joplin, Missouri, and the start of the hurricane season.

Theresa Creighan, from Oakmont, Pennsylvania, became a Red Cross volunteer after her own home was severely damaged by Hurricane Ivan in 2004. She helped flooding victims in Memphis, Tennessee, and tornado victims in Arkansas and Mississippi this spring, and shared her story with us.

Dr. Chad Kauffman, a professor of earth sciences at California University of Pennsylvania, sends students to study severe weather episodes as they happen, (he also assigns those students to provide accurate weather forecasts for those students), and provided analysis about the battle between warm air from the Pacific (La Nina) and cold air in the atmosphere, when these two forces collide, to create these severe weather incidents.

KDKA-TV Meteorologist Dennis Bowman began his career in Joplin, Missouri, many years ago, and shared his own tornado experience while working in Joplin, Missouri, which again became a casualty of tornado damage.

5. STATE BUDGET

Topics discussed in this category include the impact proposed state budget cuts will have on The University of Pittsburgh, institutions that assist the handicapped, and local school districts.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, April 3, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guest: Mark A. Nordenberg - Chancellor, University of Pittsburgh

Topic: Funding for Pennsylvania's state colleges and universities is likely to be cut because of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's budget crisis. Mark Nordenberg, Chancellor of the University of Pittsburgh, appeared on this broadcast to discuss the potentially damaging impact that funding cutbacks could have on students, faculty, and academic programs. The University of Pittsburgh is one of the largest employers in Pittsburgh.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, April 3, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 10 minutes

Guest: David K. Miles - President & CEO, Children's Institute of Pittsburgh

Topic: Pennsylvania Governor Tom Corbett's proposed budget contains cutbacks that could severely affect institutions which are a lifeline to the handicapped. David K. Miles, President and CEO of the Children's Institute of Pittsburgh, which is often referred to as a place that cares for "amazing kids", talked about the potential impact of such cuts on the care for those who suffer from everything from spina bifida to autism. The Children's Institute of Pittsburgh is the only free-standing, specialty rehabilitation hospital in Pennsylvania, and one of only about twenty nationwide serving about 5,000 children each year.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, April 24, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guests: Linda B. Hippert, Ed.D. - Executive Director, Allegheny Intermediate Unit & Acting Superintendent, Duquesne, Pennsylvania School District

Mike Crossey - VP, Pennsylvania State Education Association

Topic: Pennsylvania Governor Tom Corbett's proposed state budget and that proposed by some conservative legislators could result in drastic effects on school districts, teachers, and students.

6. HOUSING

The topic of this category was a discussion on the collapse of housing prices and perspective on the issue as it pertains to the local market.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, June 5, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guests: Kurt J. Rankin - Economist, PNC Financial Services Group

Daniel Murrer - VP, RealSTATs, Inc.

Howard W. "Hoddy" Hanna III - Chairman & CEO, Howard Hanna Real Estate Services

Topic: The Wall Street Journal reported that the collapse in the price of a home is even worse now than during the Great Depression of the 1930's. Western Pennsylvania has managed to escape some of the slump, since its housing picture missed the "booms" and also the "busts", which affected much of the nation. In our first segment, PNC Economist Kurt Rankin and Daniel Murrer, Vice-President of RealSTATs, provided statistics and perspective about the local housing picture. In our second segment, "Hoddy" Hanna, Chairman & CEO of the largest real estate firm in Western Pennsylvania and Ohio and 4th largest in the country, gave us his thoughts on the housing slump, and how Pittsburgh is faring.

7. ENERGY COSTS

The topic of this category was a discussion on the rise of energy costs.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, May 1, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guest: Kent F. Moors, Ph.D. - Scholar-In-Residence, Research Institute for Energy & the Environment, Duquesne University

Topic: Gasoline prices have been skyrocketing, fulfilling a previous prediction several months ago, by our guest Dr. Kent Moors, a recognized energy industry expert. Prices have gone even higher than originally anticipated. Instability in the Middle East, particularly within oil-producing nations, has only aggravated the situation. Dr. Kent Moors also talked about potential damage to the re-election campaign of President Barack Obama from high gasoline prices.

8. COUNTY GOVERNMENT

Topics discussed in this category include interviews with the two candidates running for Allegheny County Executive.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, May 22, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 10 minutes

Guest: Rich Fitzgerald - (D) Candidate for Allegheny County Executive

Topic: This was the first of two interviews with the candidates for Allegheny County Executive (D.Raja, Republican nominee, appeared the following week). Rich Fitzgerald, former president of Allegheny County Council, and a businessman from Squirrel Hill, won a convincing victory in the May Primary over Allegheny County Controller Mark Patrick Flaherty. Fitzgerald joined us, to talk about his platform, and the fall campaign.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, May 29, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 10 minutes

Guest: D. Raja - (R) Candidate for Allegheny County Executive

Topic: This was the second of two interviews with the winning candidates for the Democratic and Republican nominations for Allegheny County Executive, who will square off, in November. D. Raja is a successful South Hills businessman, with a conservative philosophy of government. He joined us for his first appearance on this broadcast

9. AIR TRAFFIC CONTROL

The topic of this category was a discussion on safety issues regarding the air traffic control system at our nation's airports.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, May 15, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guests: Rick Minnotti - Retired Air Traffic Controller

Paul Hurlbert - Pilot, Flight Instructor at the Pittsburgh Flight Training Center in Coraopolis

Peter J.Lambrou, M.D. - Aviation Medicine and Former Pilot

Topic: After a series of fiascos with the U.S. air traffic control system, including one involving a jet with First Lady Michelle Obama on board, the public discovered that a number of controllers were asleep on the job. Many travelers are wondering how safe our skies really are, as well as our aviation system. Our guests included a retired air traffic controller, a flight instructor and controller-in-training, and a former pilot, who practices aviation medicine. All agreed that fatigue and boredom with the detailed kind of work of a controller, plus the lack of built-in "nap time"(when more than one controller is present), contribute to this problem, and that naps should be built into the system.

10. DOWNTOWN DEVELOPMENT

Topics discussed in this category include the announcement of the construction of PNC's new 40-story building in Downtown Pittsburgh, and PNC's role in Downtown development and promotion of green technology in construction.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, May 29, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guests: Yaron Zober, Esq. - Chief of Staff to Pittsburgh Mayor Luke Ravenstahl

Michael H. Sell, CCIM - Manager, Investment Services Group Grant Street Partners

Richard Beynon - Chairman, Pittsburgh Downtown Partnership, & President, Beynon &

Company, a Downtown Pittsburgh Real Estate firm.

Topic: Our guests talked about the impact of PNC's decision to build a 40-story office tower as part of a new Downtown Pittsburgh development.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, June 5, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 10 minutes

Guest: Gary J. Saulson - Director of Corporate Real Estate PNC Financial Services Group

Topic: PNC continues to make its mark, not only as one of the largest banking institutions in the world, but also, as one of the largest real estate developers of "green" buildings in the world. Gary Saulson, PNC's Director of Corporate Real Estate, talked about PNC's plans for a new, 40-story skyscraper, to be built with "green" technology, which will continue to transform Downtown Pittsburgh's once-blighted 5th & Forbes corridor into a thriving place for business, educational, cultural, and residential activity.

11. NUCLEAR POWER

Topics discussed in this category include the future and safety of nuclear power following the disaster in Japan, and the efforts of a local company's technology in assisting the clean-up and rescue efforts in Japan.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, June 19, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guests: Rep. Tim Murphy - (R) Pa. 18th Congressional District (Upper St.Clair)

Rep. Jason Altmire - (D) Pa. 4th Congressional District (McCandless)

Kate Jackson, Ph.D. - Senior Vice-President & Chief Technology Officer, Westinghouse Electric Company, Inc.

Topic: After the recent nuclear plant disaster in Japan, which followed the historic earthquake and tsunami, many people are now wondering about the future and the safety of nuclear power. However, Cranberry Township based Westinghouse Electric, which built the Nautilus, the world's first nuclear submarine, and which has become the leader in building safe nuclear power plants around the world, is looking to the future, by manufacturing smaller, safer nuclear reactors.

Pennsylvania Republican Congressman Tim Murphy and Pennsylvania Democratic Congressman Jason Altmire are co-sponsoring legislation that will help in the research and development of reactors like Westinghouse's AP-1000, the choice for fourteen announced new nuclear plants in the United States, and four similar plants already being built in China.

Westinghouse's Chief Technology Officer, Dr. Kate Jackson, talked about some lessons learned from the Japanese nuclear disaster.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, April 10, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 10 minutes

Guests: Victor Vendetti - Director, Product Safety Group, MSA

Mackenzie Peters - Product Line Manager, MSA

Topic: One Pittsburgh-area company is always in the forefront of technology in designing rescue equipment for trapped coal miners, and now for rescue and clean-up workers in the radiation disaster site at the Fukushima Daichi crippled nuclear reactor, a victim of Japan's devastating earthquake and tsunami. Victor Vendetti and Mackenzie Peters talked about Mine Safety Appliance's lightweight, air purifying respirators which are being used by the brave Japanese nuclear plant employees, who are fighting dangerous radiological particles and vapors, in their rescue and clean-up efforts.

12. POLICE ISSUES

The topic of this category was a discussion on the stresses and dangers police officers face each day on the job.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, April 17, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guests: Chief John Mackey - Bethel Park Police

Lt. Steven Pascarella - Monroeville Police

Topic: The number of police officers killed in the United States is on the rise according to a recent survey. We spoke with two veteran police officers about the stresses and dangers they face each day on the job.

13. LOCAL BUSINESSES

Topics discussed in this category include the purchase of Pittsburgh Brewing by a New York firm, and the efforts of the Bayer Corporation in promoting environmentally friendly workspaces at its US headquarters.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, April 24, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 10 minutes

Guest: Edwin R. Lozano - President & CEO, Iron City Brewing Company

Topic: Uni-World Capital, L.P., a New York Private Equity Firm, has taken over the assets of the company once-known as the Pittsburgh Brewing Company, and now known as Iron City Brewing Company. A New Yorker, no less, Ed Lozano is leading the effort to retain the Iron City and I.C. Light Beer labels, and expand its product line. The brewing of the beer will remain in Latrobe, Pennsylvania, but its offices will stay in the old Pittsburgh Brewing Company building in the Lawrenceville neighborhood of Pittsburgh. Ed Lozano joined us to talk about efforts to return these famous beers to profitability and success.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, April 24, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 10 minutes

Guest: Robert J. Kumpf, Ph.D. - Chief Administrative Officer, Bayer Material Science, LLC

Topic: Once again, Bayer is leading the way, in its commitment to "green". Bayer Corporation announced a 17-million-dollar "Workspace of the Future" renovation of its U.S. Headquarters in Robinson Township. Bob Kumpf told us that the renovations will include an upgraded, sustainable work environment, with natural lighting, and is pursuing "LEED" or "Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design" status.

14. CULTURE/LOCAL EVENTS

Topics discussed in this category include a discussion on Pittsburgh's Civic Light Opera, the Three River's Arts Festival, and the Pittsburgh Regatta.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, April 10, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 10 minutes

Guest: Van Kaplan - Executive Producer, Pittsburgh CLO (Civic Light Opera)

Topic: The Pittsburgh CLO has been a mainstay of Pittsburgh summer theatre life, from the Pitt Stadium to Heinz Hall, and more recently the Benedum Center for the Performing Arts. Executive Producer Van Kaplan previewed this year's season, with an emphasis on Andrew Lloyd Webber's music, and other works, including Stephen Schwartz's "Wicked", Rodgers & Hammerstein's "Sound of Music", Leslie Bricusse & Frank Wildhorn's "Jekyll & Hyde", and Dolly Parton's "9 to 5". Pittsburgh CLO is a major economic generator for theatre in Pittsburgh, and for restaurants and tourism in the Downtown area, during the summer.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, June 5, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 10 minutes

Guests: Marguerite Jarrett Marks - Festivals Coordinator, Pittsburgh Cultural Trust

Joseph B. Smith - Senior VP, Marketing, Dollar Bank

Topic: This year's Three Rivers Arts Festival includes increased sponsorship from Pittsburgh's Dollar Bank, and an increased commitment to "green" in the types of waste disposal & container use. The Pittsburgh Cultural Trust's Festivals Coordinator, Marguerite Jarrett Marks, and Dollar Bank's Senior Vice-President of Marketing, Joe Smith, previewed this year's event.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, June 26, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 10 minutes

Guest: Michael Dongilli - Senior VP, Integrated Strategic Marketing (ISM)

Topic: Michael Dongilli of ISM (Integrated Strategic Marketing) is the director of this year's EQT Three Rivers Regatta. ISM is producing this year's event. Dongilli told us that the three-day event (July 2nd-4th) includes fireworks, "Anything That Floats", powerboat racing, food, sand sculpture, and music.

15. YOUTH

Topics discussed in this category include a discussion on a career fair for young people, the efforts of a local organization to retain young people in the area after they attend school here, a scholarship program for math and science students, and the need to attract high school students to the fields of computer and mechanical engineering.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, April 3, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 10 minutes

Guests: Ruthie King - Executive Director, Urban Youth Action, Incorporated

Paul David Spradley - Director of Student Life, Multicultural Affairs, Robert Morris University

Topic: With the economy in such an anemic state, this summer poses special challenges for young people, particularly minorities, looking for summer jobs. For the sixth consecutive year, Youth Works and Urban Youth Action joined forces, to bring employers, civic leaders, parents, and students together to provide a career fair and valuable advice to students. This event which was held on April 13th was previewed, in this segment

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, April 17, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 10 minutes

Guests: Christopher Cooke - Executive Director, "PULSE"

Stephan Bontrager - Chairman of the Board, "PULSE"

Topic: "PULSE", the Pittsburgh Urban Leadership Service Experience", was formed in Pittsburgh in 1994 to help stop the "Brain Drain" of college students, who come here to study, and then settle elsewhere. Each year, "PULSE" recruits a group of talented young professionals, and gives them a year-long, service-oriented job with a non-profit organization. At least two-thirds of those who have been recruited have decided to remain in this area, when they find a new job (the provision includes housing). Our guests talked about the reasons for creating this project, and how it could expand.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, May 15, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 10 minutes

Guests: Saleem Ghubril - Executive Director, "The Pittsburgh Promise"

Rebecca L. Lucore - Executive Director, Bayer USA Foundation

Topic: "The Pittsburgh Promise" took a major step forward, when the Bayer USA Foundation presented it with a $500,000 contribution. Rebecca Lucore, Executive Director of the Foundation, told us why training qualified math and science students in this area is a perfect fit for Bayer, and Saleem Ghubril told us how the "Promise" will benefit from this gift.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, June 19, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 10 minutes

Guest: T.E. "Ed" Schlesinger, Ph.D. - Professor & Head of Electrical & Computer Engineering Carnegie Mellon University

Topic: The United States faces a serious employment challenge. It is having problems competing with countries like India, in attracting graduates of engineering schools, to fill thousands of high-paying engineering jobs in the United States.

We viewed an in-depth report by CBS News Senior Business Correspondent Anthony Mason, about this crisis, and then talked with Dr. T.E. "Ed" Schlesinger, an award-winning professor at Carnegie Mellon University, about the challenge of attracting American high school students to the fields of computer and mechanical engineering, to help solve this problem.

16. HUNGER

The topic of this category was a discussion with the retiring CEO of the Pittsburgh Food Bank and the work that still needs to be done in the fight against hunger.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, June 19, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 10 minutes

Guest: Joyce Rothermel - Retiring CEO, Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank

Topic: Joyce Rothermel is retiring, this month as the CEO of the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank, after more than thirty years of a gallant fight against hunger in Western Pennsylvania. For much of that time, KDKA-TV has been a grateful partner, on projects like "KD's Army" (unemployment) and the "KD Turkey Fund" (hunger). Joyce Rothermel joined us, to reflect on the triumphs and the challenges that remain, after her departure from the Food Bank.

17. WORLD WAR II MEMORIAL

The topic of this category was a discussion on the efforts of local people to build a World War II memorial

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

1. PITTSBURGH STEELERS – SUPER BOWL

Topics discussed in this category included a discussion on the financial gains the city experiences with the Steelers in the playoffs, the marketing opportunities for the team and city when the team plays in the Super Bowl, an interview with authors who have written books on Art. Rooney, the financial benefit a local school system receives from sales of the Terrible Towel, and the poor fan experience of Super Bowl visitors who were denied a ticket to the game due to safety issues at the stadium in Dallas.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, January 23, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guest: Tom Martini - General Manager, Westin Convention Center Hotel, Downtown Pittsburgh

Topic: The Pittsburgh Steelers played host to the AFC title game at Heinz Field (Steelers defeated the New York Jets, to advance to the Super Bowl), and there was a financial windfall for area hotels, restaurants, and other businesses. The general manager of the Westin Convention Center Hotel, Tom Martini, joined us to talk about the lasting impact on Pittsburgh as a tourist destination and on Pittsburgh's public image.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, January 30, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guest: Audrey Guskey, Ph.D. - Associate Professor of Marketing, Duquesne University

Topic: Dr. Audrey Guskey joined us to talk about the Pittsburgh Steelers' presence in Super Bowl XLV and marketing opportunities for the Steelers' brand and Pittsburgh's image.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, February 6, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guests: Maggie Patterson & Rob Ruck -Co-authors, "Rooney: A Sporting Life"

Jim O'Brien Author, "The Chief: Art Rooney and His Pittsburgh Steelers"

Topic: On this Super Bowl Sunday (in which the Pittsburgh Steelers played the Green Bay Packers in the Dallas, Texas area, but lost to them, 31-25), we paid tribute to the Pittsburgh Steelers' founder and late owner, Arthur J. Rooney. Our guests have written about Rooney's legendary life in two separate works.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, February 6, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guest: Carol Erzen - Director of Training & Staff Development, Allegheny Valley School

Dorothy Gordon - Chief Development Officer, Allegheny Valley School

Topic: The late Pittsburgh Steelers' color analyst and commentator Myron Cope provided the Allegheny Valley School with a gift that keeps giving: the Terrible Towel. Profits from the licensing of the Towel benefit the School, and always increase, when the Steelers reach the playoffs and the Super Bowl. Two representatives from Allegheny Valley School (where Cope's son is a resident) appeared on this broadcast, to talk about the important programs that will benefit from the Towel's profits.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, February 13, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guests: Shawn T. Flaherty, Esq. - Partner, Flaherty Fardo, LLC

Richard Sonson - Robinson Twp. (works for the Meadows Casino)

Patsy Greco - Mount Pleasant (electrician)

Topic: The Pittsburgh Steelers losing Super Bowl XLV to the Green Bay Packers 31-25 was bad enough. But Pittsburghers, including Pittsburgh Steelers' season ticketholders, who visited Dallas, Texas, had a terrible experience. Because of an unexpected snowstorm, the roof of the Dallas Cowboys' domed stadium suffered serious damage, a number of seats were deemed unsafe by the Dallas fire marshal, and, as a result, some Steelers' fans never saw the game from their expensive seats, as they were sent to a basement location in the stadium, to view the game on TV. We talked with three men who along with their families and friends were among those who found insufficient compensation from the NFL, the Dallas Cowboys, and the Pittsburgh Steelers, and who are contemplating suing.

2. EARTHQUAKE AND TSUNAMI IN JAPAN

Topics discussed in this category included discussions on the destruction in Japan from the earthquake and tsunami, the impact of the threat of a nuclear meltdown, and local organizations helping with relief efforts.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, March 20, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guest : (1st Segment) Jim Ferland - President, The Americas, Westinghouse Electric Co.

Guest: (2nd Segment) Dennis Unkovic, Esq. - Partner, Meyer, Unkovic & Scott, LLP

Topic: This broadcast focused on the unimaginable, triple tragedy of a 9.0 earthquake, which struck the northern coast of Japan on March 11th, resulting in a huge tsunami, and the deterioration of Japan's nuclear reactors in the Fukushima Daiichi nuclear plant. In the first segment, Jim Ferland, President of the Americas for Westinghouse Electric Company, based in Cranberry Township, Butler County, talked about the impact of this critical nuclear crisis in Japan and on the future of nuclear power. Westinghouse is a major supplier of nuclear power plants to countries around the world, but its nuclear reactors are made far differently from the nuclear reactors that failed in Japan.

In our second segment, Dennis Unkovic, a prominent Pittsburgh attorney, who specializes in international business law, talked about the impact of this triple tragedy on the people of Japan. Dennis has made numerous trips to China and Japan, and has a particular insight into the Japanese culture.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, March 20, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guest: Lee Branstetter, Ph.D. - Heinz School, Carnegie Mellon University

Topic: The Japanese Tsunami tragedy is almost impossible to comprehend. The tremendous death, destruction, and tragedy from human lives, property, and the threat of nuclear meltdown are horrific. We spoke with Carnegie Mellon University's Dr. Lee Branstetter, a Japanese expert, for some perspective on how the Japanese are handling this tragedy.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, March 20, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guests: Luke Hingson - President, Brother's Brother Foundation

Stephen Cervorst - Chairman, Japan-America Society of Pennsylvania

Yasuyuki Uruma - CEO, Elliott Corporation & Subsidiary of Ebara Corporation

Topic: We talked with local organizations about efforts to help the Japanese through the Tsunami crisis.

3. MIDDLE EAST UNREST

Topics discussed in this category included discussions on unrest in Egypt, and the impact of tensions in the Middle East on oil prices and the American economy.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, February 13, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guests: Angela Hussein, Ph.D. - Archaeologist

Safei Hamed, Ph.D. - Alliance of Egyptian-Americans

Topic: Political Upheaval came to Egypt with thousands of protesters demanding the resignation of longtime Egyptian President Hosni Mubarak, and the institution of political reforms in that country. As this broadcast was being taped, we received word that Mubarak had agreed to step down from his position. Our guests brought different perspectives to this issue. Angela Hussein is an archaeologist, who was married to an Egyptian, and who was working and living in Egypt, until recently. Dr. Safei Hamed is founder and past president of the Alliance of Egyptian-Americans, and is professor and director of landscape architecture programs at Pittsburgh's Chatham University, in Shadyside/Squirrel Hill.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, February 27, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guest: Kent F. Moors, Ph.D. - Duquesne University

Topic: Dr. Kent Moors made a return appearance, to talk about political upheaval in the Middle East - from Tunisia to Egypt -- to Libya -- and the potential impact on oil prices and the price of gasoline in this country.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, March 6, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guest: Stuart G. Hoffman, Ph.D. -Chief Economist, PNC Financial Services Group

Topic: PNC Chief Economist Stuart Hoffman joined us for some perspective on the impact of political unrest in the Middle East and its oil supplies on the American economy.

4. STATE BUDGET CUTS

Topics discussed in this category included discussions on the changes in Pennsylvania State government and the impact it will have on spending, taxes, and energy issues, the potential funding changes that may impact areas such as education.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, January 9, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 30 minutes

Guest: Jack Wagner - (D) Pennsylvania Auditor General

Topic: After two terms of a Democratic governor and a split House (Democratic) and Senate (Republican) rule, Republicans took complete control of Pennsylvania state government, this month. Tom Corbett, former state Attorney General, took office as Governor, and Republicans claimed control of the state house and senate. State Auditor General Jack Wagner, himself, an unsuccessful candidate for governor in last May's Democratic Primary (losing to Allegheny County Executive Dan Onorato), joined us for some perspective on this changeover. Wagner is a past member of the state senate, and audits state government, as Auditor General. Jack Wagner talked about the change in power, and areas in which money might be saved, to prevent additional budget cuts of programs.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, January 23, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guests: Rep. Mike Turzai - (R) PA 28th District (Bradford Woods) and PA House Majority Leader

Rep. Dan Frankel - (D) PA District (Squirrel Hill) and PA House Democratic Caucus Chair.

Topic: Our guests agreed on little, as their discussion was spirited and, at times, nasty, as they argued over state budget issues including budget cuts, taxes, and the role of Marcellus Shale drilling and education funding.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, March 13, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 30 minutes

Guests: Sen. Kim Ward - (R) PA 39th Senatorial District (Westmoreland County)

Sen. Jay Costa, Jr. - (D) PA. 43rd Senatorial District (Allegheny County) PA Senate
Minority Leader

Topic: Our guests talked about Pennsylvania Governor Tom Corbett's proposed state budget cuts, and their potential impact on education funding, as well as other programs. They also discussed whether governmental reform might trickle down to expenses for lawmakers themselves and the size of the state legislature in Pennsylvania

5. EDUCATION

Topics discussed in this category included an interview with the new superintendent of the Pittsburgh Public School System, discussions on the impact funding cuts will have on local school systems and higher education, and an increase in scholarship money available from a local program that assists students in obtaining higher education.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, January 30, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guest: Linda Lane, Ed.D. - Superintendent, Pittsburgh Public Schools

Topic: Dr. Linda Lane, a Deputy Superintendent, recently succeeded Mark Roosevelt as the superintendent of the Pittsburgh Public Schools. This was her first appearance on this broadcast, and much of the discussion centered on the projected cuts in both federal and state funding for education and their potential impact on the Pittsburgh Public Schools, its students and teachers, and programs that serve them.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, February 20, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guest: Walter Calinger, Ph.D. - Superintendent, Woodland Hills School District

Topic: With the end of federal stimulus funding for education, how will local school districts cope with the shortfall? Woodland Hills School Superintendent Walter Calinger appeared on this broadcast to discuss the need for cutbacks in local programs and spending.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, February 20, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 10 minutes

Guest: Saleem Ghubril - Executive Director, "The Pittsburgh Promise"

Topic: As federal and state funding for education is slashed, "The Pittsburgh Promise" is increasing the award of its scholarship money, potentially from $20,000 to $40,000 per student, for a four-year higher education experience. Saleem Ghubril, Executive Director of "The Pittsburgh Promise", talked about the qualifications necessary: how well students perform on SAT and other tests.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, March 13, 2011, 6:30AM – 7:00AM, 10 minutes

Guests: Ken Service - Executive Director, Pittsburgh Council on Higher Education

Daniel J. Obara, Ph.D. - President, Westmoreland County Community College

Topic: Pennsylvania Governor Tom Corbett's proposed state budget includes steep cuts in education funding including higher education. We talked with Ken Service, Executive Director of the Pittsburgh Council on Higher Education, a group of ten accredited colleges and universities in Allegheny County, and Dr. Daniel Obara, President of Westmoreland County Community College, about the potential dramatic impact on students, tuition, and jobs.

6. LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Topics discussed in this category included a discussion on the disagreements between Pittsburgh City Council and the mayor, and the announcement that Dan Onorato would not seek another term as Allegheny County Executive.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, January 2, 2011, 8:30AM – 9:00AM, 30 minutes

Guests: Bill Peduto - (D) Pittsburgh City Council, 8th District (Point Breeze)

Natalia Rudiak - (D) Pittsburgh City Council, 4th District (Carrick)

Topic: Members of Pittsburgh's City Council and Pittsburgh Mayor Luke Ravenstahl are at almost continual odds over almost every issue. This broadcast focused on the general lack of communication, and specifically, the disagreement over who controls the ownership of city parking assets, from parking garages to parking lots, and how those might be used (if sold) to gain revenue to help solve the city's fiscal crisis. Council eventually voted against the mayor's wishes to sell these assets, and is continuing to search for a long-term solution to this problem.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, January 16 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guest: Dan Onorato - (D) Allegheny County Executive

Topic: Allegheny County Executive Dan Onorato announced that he will not seek another term in office. Onorato recently was defeated by Republican Tom Corbett, in the gubernatorial race, and is contemplating running for state auditor general.

7. ENERGY

Topics discussed in this category included discussions on rising oil prices and the spikes in gasoline costs, and the economic and environmental impact of drilling for natural gas in Western Pennsylvania's shale deposits.

THE SUNDAY BUSINESS PAGE

Sunday, January 9, 2011, 6:30AM – 7:00AM, 10 minutes

Guest: Kent F. Moors, Ph.D. - Professor of Political Science, Duquesne University

Topic: Dr. Kent Moors, a recognized expert on the oil and gas industry and a consultant to businesses, appeared on this broadcast to talk about rising oil prices including the price of gasoline, which went up in Pittsburgh by 44-cents a gallon from a year ago.

11. ORGANIZED LABOR

The topic of this category was a discussion on the movement by state legislatures to reduce organized labor's bargaining rights as a result of state budget shortfalls.

KD/PG SUNDAY EDITION

Sunday, March 6, 2011, 11:30AM – 12:00PM, 30 minutes

Guest: Leo Gerard - International President, United Steelworkers

Topic: The Battle lines were drawn in Wisconsin as Democratic lawmakers went into temporary exile in the state of Illinois to at least temporarily block passage of a state budget that gutted economic bargaining rights for state employees. That battle was a wake-up call for organized labor everywhere as it adjusts to Republican control of the U.S. House, and G.O.P. control of many legislatures and gubernatorial positions. Leo Gerard, International President of the United Steelworkers based in Pittsburgh, provided a spirited defense of organized labor's position on these issues.
