This account includes background details, surrounding circumstances, a possible link between the two cases, as well information regarding the ongoing investigation by the Georgia Bureau of Investigation and the Orlando Police Department. Among those interviewed are: Connie Grinstead, Tara’s stepmother; Gary Rothwell, special agent with the Georgia Bureau of Investigation; Rob Allen, Jennifer’s boyfriend; several members of Jennifer’s family; Sergeant Roger Brennan and Detective Joel Wright of the Orlando Police Department. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Katherine Davis)
- 07/05/08      48 HOURS MYSTERY: “No Way Out” (9:00-10:00p) - In August 2005, after Hurricane Katrina had passed over southeastern Louisiana, many people thought the region had been spared from the most severe damage. But the worst was yet to come: on Monday, August 29th, the region's protective levees started to fail, and entire communities were overwhelmed by floodwater. In St. Bernard Parish, just southeast of New Orleans, thousands had evacuated the region, but others had stayed behind to shelter in place, including the residents, staff, and operators of St. Rita's Nursing Home, Sal and Mabel Mangano. The Mangano's and their staff saved 24 of the residents and got them to safety, but the wall of water and its aftermath left 35 of the residents dead. But when the bodies were discovered at the nursing home, no one thought of the Manganos as heroes. Having been evacuated to Texas, Sal and Mabel returned to Louisiana, where they were each arrested and charged with 35 counts of negligent homicide and 24 counts of cruelty to the infirm. Prosecutors claimed that the Manganos had no intention of evacuating, based on the inadequate evacuation plan on file with the state; the fact that the other three nursing homes in the parish had made the decision to evacuate; that the parish government adequately stressed the importance of evacuation; that telephone calls made by parish officials to the Manganos went unheeded; and that the Manganos turned down an offer of buses to help evacuate their residents. At the trial, several family members of the deceased testified that the Manganos had told them they would evacuate the nursing home before Hurricane Katrina struck - something both Sal and Mabel deny. The defense strategy was to make the trial about the government failures that led to the flooding of St. Bernard Parish -- and it was successful: they were both found not guilty on 118 counts. Among those interviewed are: Sal and Mabel Mangano; Joe and Cheryl Gallodoro, whose father T.J. died at St. Rita's; St. Bernard Parish clerk Polly Boudreaux; St. Bernard Parish coroner Dr. Bryan Bertucci; prosecutors Julie Cullen and Paul Knight; and defense attorney Jim Cobb. Colleen Campbell, Thompson’s sister and former mayor of San Juan Capistrano, CA, is convinced that Michael Goodwin, her brother’s former partner, was the killer. Goodwin, earlier accused by Mickey Thompson of stealing hundreds of thousands from their business, denied that he hired two hitmen to commit the murders. He claimed that Campbell used her political influence to make him the prime suspect in the criminal investigation. He was arrested in December 2001 and was to stand trial in the summer of 2002. Update: After two and a half years, the case against Goodwin was dismissed by Orange County, but he was rearrested by authorities from Los Angeles County, who held him for another two and a half years. After five years of being held without bail, Goodwin went on trial in Pasadena, CA - eighteen years after the murders. He was found guilty of first degree murder and sentenced to two consecutive life terms, with no chance for parole. He plans to appeal based on his inability to present other possible suspects. (C: Bill Lagatutta - P: James Stolz) (OAD: 04/28/07; includes brief updated text graphic at the conclusion.)

Bradley Schwartz will be eligible for parole in 22 years. The Arizona State Bar has recommended Lourdes Lopez should be disbarred. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Ian P. (Includes portions of “The Alibi”, OAD: 10/11/02.) Camm’s conviction was reversed in 2004. In the meanwhile, after previously unresearched DNA evidence and a palm print found at the crime scene were run through a databank of convicted felons, a new suspect was found: Charles Darnell Boney. Boney had been released from prison just months before the murders. In 2005, Boney was arrested, resulting in charges against Camm being dismissed. But Camm was arrested minutes later for the murders, due to the belief by the prosecution that he and Boney acted together. They were tried separately and in January 2006, Boney was convicted for the homicides and sentenced to 225 years in prison. In March 2006, Camm was found guilty of murdering his wife and children and was sentenced to life in prison without parole. Boney and Camm are serving their sentences in separate prisons, two hundred miles apart.
